Bill No. 1130            That the appointment by the Mayor of Rabbi Richard M.E. Marcovitz of 327 N. Negley Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15206, be and the same is hereby approved and confirmed as a member of the Commission on Human Relations Board for a term to expire July 1992.

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1131            That the appointment by the Mayor of Floyd Titus, 1827 Linton Street, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15219, be and the same is hereby approved and confirmed as a member of the Commission on Human Relations Board for a term to expire July 1992.

Which was read.

Mr. Lyons moved to approve the appointments.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Mr. Coyne:

Discussion.

One question, Mr. President. Will these gentlemen be coming in front of Council?

The Chair:

Not unless you ask them.

Mr. Coyne:

I think we should ask for them to come in front of —

The Chair:

Well, let me do this then, because there's a motion on the floor and it has been seconded.

There's a motion to approve and its seconded.

Now, under discussion what would your pleasure be?

Mr. DePasquale:

Are these re-appointments or are they appointments?

The Chair:

No, they're new appointments.

Mr. DePasquale:

Well, its been the practice --

The Chair:

Mr. Lyons, what would you like to do with your motion?

Mr. Lyons:

I'll withdraw the motion or I'll amend the motion to include that the two said names come before the Council.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

The Chair:

You're amending it to approve them, but they must come before Council, that's what you're saying. And everyone seconded that.

Michelle Madoff:

No, we don't really mean that. I haven't seconded that.

The Chair:

Well, wait a minute somebody did second it. So, Mr. Lyons that was your amendment?

Mr. Lyons:

Yes.

The Chair:

Okay. Why don't you withdraw your motion.

Mr. Lyons moved to withdraw the motion.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

Why don't we make a motion now to have the two people come in a week from Wednesday.

Mr. DePasquale moved to have the two appointees come in a week from Wednesday.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, the same subject. Wouldn't it be appropriate to do the same with the appointee to the Water and Sewer Authority?

The Chair:

That's not our prerogative. The Mayor has the final appointment on that. In other words Council doesn't have to approve them.

Mr. Wagner:

But, we still have confirmation?

The Chair:

No, not on them Authorities.

Mr. Wagner:

On Authorities its been the procedure in the past for new appointees for us to do that.

The Chair:

But, then there's four Authority's I believe that we don't have confirmation, and the Water Authority I believe is one of them Jack.

Mr. Wagner:

Okay, if that's the Solicitor's ruling fine.

The Chair:

And if I'm wrong then we'll bring him in.

Mr. Wagner:

Okay.

Mr. Pollock:

On the same subject of the two appointments to the -- they're both to the Human Relations Commission? In the past any new appointments have come before Council and that's the way it should be, but frequently people have come in and taken time out of their schedule and there's been no questions for them, and they've sat down, and there's been no questions for them, and they've had to waste time.

Would it be appropriate or inappropriate if prior to next Wednesday if Council can inform you that we have no questions, that we can contact the people and say you don't have to come in. There's no need for you to come in, no one has any questions. Rather then have them take time out of their busy schedules to sit here. It's kind of embarrassing for them and for us.

The Chair:

It's a good suggestion and if --

Mr. Pollock:

Why don't we do that. If you don't hear from any one of us before a week from today, Council Clerk can say you don't have to come in there are no questions.

The Chair:

All right. That's fine.

Mr. Lyons:

That's good.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I would anticipate anyone that wants them to come in front of Council would have questions for them.

I don't know who the maker of the motion was to have them in front of Council, but I would anticipate that is the intent.

The Chair:

Mr. Coyne and Mr. DePasquale and I'm sure they'll notify me.

Is there any other business to come before this Council?

Mr. Lyons moved to excuse Mr. Ferlo for absence from the meeting.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

---

Mr. DePasquale moved to approve the Minutes of Tuesday, July 5, 1988.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Lyons

Council adjourned.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Coyne presents

No. 1159 WHEREAS, Sacred Heart High School has been educating girls from all over the City of Pittsburgh for seventy-five years; and

WHEREAS, Sacred Heart High School recently honored two students, Mae Yee and Tamara Cherock, from the Hazelwood area as Valedictorian and Salutatorian; and

WHEREAS, this is the first time that two students, both from St. Stephens School of Hazelwood, placed first and second academically in their class; and

WHEREAS, both students are members of the National Honor Society; and

WHEREAS, Mae Yee, a refugee from China, has received the Bosch and Lomb Science Award, the Westinghouse Science Institute Award and the Presidential Academic Fitness Award, and Tamara Cherock has received the Presidential Academic Fitness Award and is recognized for her cross country running skills and is Captain of the Central Catholic Cheerleaders; and

WHEREAS, Mae Yee has received an academic scholarship to the University of Pittsburgh and Tamara Cherock has received a scholarship to Duquesne University.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby congratulates Mae Yee and Tamara Cherock who have shown exceptional academic skills through their many accomplishments, and we thank them for choosing to continue their education.

Mr. Coyne moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Miss Yee:

On behalf of Tammy and I, I would like to thank City Council and especially Michael Coyne for recognizing our hard work and our achievements, and for giving us this proclamation.

I would also like to encourage all high school students to achieve and excel and further their education, thank you.

Mr. DePasquale:

I wonder if all the people that are here connected with the "National Night Out" would come up here please to my left.

Mr. DePasquale presents

No. 1160 WHEREAS, August 9, 1988 marks the fifth annual "National Night Out" sponsored by the National Town Watch Association; and

WHEREAS, this event is observed nationwide and is designed to heighten crime prevention awareness, strengthen neighborhood spirit in the crime prevention campaign, and send a message to criminals that neighborhoods across the United States are organized and fighting back; and

WHEREAS, it is vital that the citizens of Pittsburgh be aware of the positive impact their participation in crime prevention has on reducing crime in our neighborhoods and in our city; and

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh placed 4th nationally in 1987 and 1st in 1986 for our outstanding efforts in this prevention project; and

WHEREAS, neighborhood and community cooperation are the heartbeat of the National Night Out project and all citizens can participate and become involved by spending the evening of August 9, 1988 outside on their porches, lawns, front steps and sidewalks, and turning their outside lights on or placing luminara on their sidewalks at 9:00 P.M.; and

WHEREAS, a kickoff parade featuring Mayor Sophie Masloff as the Grand Marshall, bands, entertainment, special guests, the talking police car, McGruff, Mascotts, floats and many other attractions along with the neighborhood crime watch groups will be held on Saturday, July 30th at 10:00 a.m. beginning at the Civic Arena; and

WHEREAS, Sponsors of this cooperative National Night Out evening and parade include Duquesne Light Company, underwriting the costs of advertising, 7-Eleven Stores, the national sponsor, Phillips Light Bulbs, Turner Dairy, Patrick Media, Mail Marketing Service, Port Authority, Yellow Cab Company, Brauns Bread, Pepsi Cola, Oscar Mayers, and Snyders, Frito Ley and Wise Potato Chips;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby proclaims August 9, 1988 as "NATIONAL NIGHT OUT" in the City of Pittsburgh; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council encourages the citizens of this great City to participate in and attend the kickoff parade scheduled for Saturday, July 30, 1988 in support of fighting crime in this City.

Mr. DePasquale moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale:

The only thing I have to add is that you're all welcome to come to the parade and join in the festivities on the 30th and on August 9th. We have several people here and I'd like a few of them to say a few words.

Mr. Conway:

Thank you. President Woods, Public Safety Chair DePasquale, esteem members of Council and guests, I am pleased to make what is now an appearance for the ninth consecutive year before Council along with a Coalition of volunteer neighborhood crimefighters from throughout the City. We are here today to accept a resolution and urge you to join our 5th Annual protest against crime in our neighborhoods—National Night Out—on Tuesday evening, August 9th.

Two years ago in 1986 when hundreds of cities began competing for recognition on what they do to observe National Night Out, Pittsburgh was chosen number one by the National Association of Town Watch. Last year, we received a runner-up City award when St. Louis was chosen number one. This year, we are geared to recapture the Number One City designation and have been working diligently in a partnership with community groups, City government, local law enforcement and private business sponsorship. Our event will be highlighted by a kickoff parade on Saturday, July 30th at 10:00 A.M. in downtown Pittsburgh. The Honorable Mayor Sophie Masloff will serve as the Grand Marshall. You are all invited and welcome to join us in our march against crime.

We appreciate your support and your resolution. We know, however, that the success of our effort will be measured by the participation of citizens throughout the neighborhoods. My sense is that Pittsburgh residents, particularly those who have demonstrated their commitment to volunteerism on community service projects in the past, will not disappoint us. We are most fortunate to have an abundance of neighbors who are willing to volunteer their time on worthy projects. I have seen these volunteers working to organize block watches on our streets, distributing free government surplus food to the needy at their neighborhood sites, filling grocery bags at the local food pantries, coaching little leaguers and softballers, and working with their community groups on self-help projects.

I urge all those dedicated neighborhood volunteers and welcome those who are interested in getting involved for the first time to come to our parade on Saturday, July 30th, and turn your porch lights on and sit out against crime on Tuesday evening, August 9th.

I would like to acknowledge and thank those who put the 1988 Pittsburgh Area Night Out events together: Representing local law enforcement: Sergeant Jerry McFadden of the Pittsburgh Fire Prevention Unit; Deputy Sheriff Bob Brasso; Officers Nick Wagner, Dave McNutt, Marty Marinek, and Robin Brandt; Representing private business sponsors: Jerry Kinder from Phillips Lighting; and Ron Allison from 7-Eleven; 7-Eleven is the national sponsor of this project. Representing the community groups, which are the backbone of the program: Loretta Miller from Knoxville; Jim Steigerwald, Bill Salinetto and Judy Landa from the North Side; Bicky Goldzer from Squirrel Hill; Josephine Roberts from the Hill District; and Elaine Capparelli from Mt. Washington. Representing City Parks and Recreation, which has provided technical assistance to this project is Bill Backa from City Parks; and finally but not least McGruffette is here today. McGruffette is I believe unique to Pittsburgh, we've all heard of McGruff the National Mascot for Night Out and this McGruffette and I'd like you all to give McGruffette a hearty welcome, thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

I think it might be appropriate to mention that Minneapolis representatives -- they were here in the audience. I think they're meeting with some other people right now. They met with Chief Pampena, with Jack Stabile and myself at the garages today. They're taking our Ordinance to Minneapolis because they had two murders and rapes at 9:00 o'clock in the morning and 3:30 in the afternoon. So, not only do we have to take back the night, we better take back the day, and they're here to take our Ordinance on lighting of the garages back to Minneapolis, and we hope to have it as a prototype for a national legislation, and what you're doing just fits right in, it's the same thing.

We're all working together for the same purpose and I think what you're doing is absolutely wonderful. Incidentally, we copied our lighting garages for people coming out and that's the Connolly's -- took their garage and said that's well done, they didn't have to be told, that's how we knew how to do it.

The Chair:

Thank you all very much.

Mr. Conway:

Thank you.

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 1161 WHEREAS, on August 21, 1988, Pittsburgh resident Trish Beatty will visit San Isidro, Matagalpa, Nicaragua to deliver sport equipment over special ceremonies to inaugurate the PITTSBURGH/SAN ISIDRO ROBERTO CLEMENTE SPORT CENTER; AND,

WHEREAS, ground will be broken on August 21st for construction of the sport center by the people of San Isidro, making this truly a joint project between the citizens of both cities; and,

WHEREAS, efforts to replenish equipment over these next years will continue in Pittsburgh, representing yet another ongoing effort in the "Sister City" relationship between Pittsburgh and San Isidro; and,

WHEREAS, this project commemorates the legacy of the great Roberto Clemente, beloved baseball hero of our city of Pittsburgh and national hero of Nicaragua who died in the relief efforts following the Managua earthquake in 1972 and whose pursuit of athletic and humanitarian excellence is a fitting model for all children who will benefit by the existence of this new sport center; and,

WHEREAS, principal benefactors of the project are: the Pittsburgh Pirates Baseball Club which provided much of the needed baseball equipment; Westinghouse Corporation which provided funds to finance construction of the sport center, the Mary Hillman Jennings Foundation and numerous other individual donors who provided additional equipment and funds; and,

WHEREAS, improvement in the quality of life for the children and youth of San Isidro is the primary focus for this project, with the additional benefits of goodwill and humanitarian concern in good measure;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh extends congratulations to the people of San Isidro and warm wishes for the success and growth of this new sport center.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Ms. Beatty:

Thanks to all the members of City Council. I must say I'm very proud to live in a City that in spite of the many local challenges to City government and to the population for quality of life here in our City that we still as a town extend our hand in friendship and support to a town in Nicaragua, San Isidro, which is in great need of all kinds of support.

I also, want to acknowledge here the immense contribution of Douglas D. Danforth, who is Chairman and CEO. of the Pittsburgh Pirates Baseball Club, and recent retired CEO. of Westinghouse.

Mr. Danforth, once he heard of this project to build a Sports Center in San Isidro immediately saw the value in the lives of these children of having organized a well equipped sport and did not hesitate to get involved in the memory of Roberto Clemente, and in support of the Sister City project.

The Sports Center is just another link in the chain of projects and events that the Sister City Committee here in Pittsburgh is currently putting together and has done in the past for San Isidro, and I'm very proud to be a part of it, and I thank you for your support.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Mr. Lyons:

To the President of Council and members of Council, this Resolution is in support of House Bill 4727, presented by Congressman Ron Dellums of California and entitled, the Comprehensive National Housing Act, and it reads as follows:

Mr. Lyons presents

No. 1162 WHEREAS, the United States Government has increased military spending by 100% between 1981 and 1988; and

WHEREAS, the United States Government has decreased spending for housing assistance by over 70% from 32 billion dollars in 1980 to only 7 billion dollars in 1987; and,

WHEREAS, home-ownership is declining for the first time in over 40 years, especially among younger families; and,

WHEREAS rents are increasing beyond the ability of most residents to afford them; and,

WHEREAS, homelessness is becoming an increasing problem in our cities and municipalities throughout the U.S.A., especially for families with children; and,

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh is less able to meet these needs with federal cut-backs in revenue sharing and CDBG funding;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby calls upon the Congressional delegation, the Congress and the President of the United States to support House Bill 4727 (Comprehensive National Housing) introduced by Congressman Ron Dellums and proposed by the National Jobs with Peace Campaign; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Resolution shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in our City and forwarded to our Congressional Delegation and the President of the United States.

Mr. Lyons moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Lyons:

I have Mr. Richardson here. He will give his expressions to the bill in support, who is a member of the National Job with Peace Campaign.

Mr. Richardson:

Thank you, Councilman Lyons and I want to thank the Council of the City of Pittsburgh. I just want to make a few statements about this bill.

One, it addresses the need for housing. It begins to take housing out of the hands of private groups and places it more into the hands of community based non-profits, and therefore, makes it more accessible to low and moderate income people.

It calls for approximately $55 billion each year to be appropriated to meet this need, that essentially will bring housing spending in the nation back up to its level of about ten years ago, that is before the extreme cuts of the Reagan Administration. So, if it sounds like a lot of money, it really isn't. We're just trying to get back to where we were, at least.

We want to get this money by reducing excessive waste in military spending and putting it back into meeting basic human needs in our society that does impact the City of Pittsburgh. We've seen the cuts that have come in CDBG monies and other locally needed funds for housing, for education, for basic food, for everything that we need here. So, this is very clearly a local struggle.

We are going to be working on a housing campaign here in the City of Pittsburgh, and we are already engaged in that to meet this need. We know now that 10,000 people approximately are on a waiting list for Section 8 housing in the City of Pittsburgh.

We know that also between 1982 and 1986 there was an extreme increase in taxes on the City of Pittsburgh while the population declined by approximately six percent. So, we're talking about going from $328 million that is coming out of the City of Pittsburgh in taxes to $386 million in 1986. A smaller population. So, you can see what is happening is more and more taxes, more and more for military spending, less and less and less for basic needs in our City; monies which we need dearly.

I want to thank you for supporting this bill and I hope that you will work with us at the local level to build grass roots power for change to meet the housing need in the City of Pittsburgh, thank you.

Mr. Wagner:

Thank you Mr. President and members of Council, I'd like ask a couple of people to please step forward Mr. John Connelly, who is Chairman of the Board of the Pittsburgh Three Rivers Regatta and the owner of the Gateway Clipper Fleet, and also, Mr. Eugene Connelly, General Chairman of the Pittsburgh Three Rivers Regatta.

Also, sponsoring with me this Resolution is Councilman Otis Lyons. Gentlemen, good morning. The Resolution reads as follows:

Mr. Wagner and Mr. Lyons presents

No. 1163 WHEREAS, our three magnificent rivers - the Allegheny, the Monongahela, and the Ohio - providentially have served our community as well as mankind in great expanse; and,

WHEREAS, Pittsburgh is the number one inland port in the world with its rivers providing the water needs for economic progress as well as for recreation of our citizens; and,

WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh Three Rivers Regatta is designed to contribute to the goal of focusing attention on the area's lifelines, and will offer a fun-filled weekend of free entertainment August 4 through 7; and,

WHEREAS, the 1988 Regatta will feature an expanded schedule of more than 70 events beginning with "Regatta on Parade" and including the Champion Spark Plug Grand Prix, the Great Mid-America Sternwheel Race, Grand Decorated Boat Parade, the popular "Anything that Floats" event, Hot Air Balloon Classic, and St. Brendan's International Cup Race, on August 4 through 7, 1988 which we proudly proclaim "Regatta Weekend".

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby commends the General Chairman of the Pittsburgh Three Rivers Regatta, Eugene F. Connelly, and his dedicated and capable staff, as well as all those who worked diligently toward success again this year; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we honor the late beloved Mayor Richard S. Caliguiri, 1988 "Riverperson of the Year". We urge our citizens and visitors to enjoy and participate in this free open-air spectacular exhibition that truly reflects the great pride we all share in our bountiful rivers.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Before my colleague says a few words and introduces both Mr. Eugene Connelly and Mr. John Connelly, I'd like to say that I'm very proud and honored to be part of this event every year, as Chairman of the Parade Committee.

This is the 11th year for the Regatta and it is by far the greatest water event in America, and possibly in the world, and any Pittsburgher or anyone in Allegheny County or Western Pennsylvania that has not been at the Regatta is missing something that is truly exciting, and its coming up in a week and a half.

It begins Wednesday night with the River Person of the Year Dinner, honoring our late Mayor, and the following day — I'm giving a plug for the parade. The following evening is a night parade that begins at 7:30. It has a new route it begins this year down in the Strip District, and it will up the newly completed portion of Grant Street and make a right turn of Fifth Avenue.

We're all very excited about all the events in the parade and if it wasn't for both Mr. John Connelly and Mr. Eugene Connelly we would not have Pittsburgh Three Rivers Regatta. It's that simple, and so it's an honor to have them here today, and present this Resolution to them. I know Mr. Lyons would like to say a few words also.

Mr. Lyons:

Thank you Jack, and to the President of Council, and to the members here assembled. The Three Rivers Regatta is one the most outstanding events in the City each year. It's the greatest water show in the world. Certainly, we should have a great interest in it. It fills our hotels, it injects a lot of life into our businesses. There will not be a hotel room available during that week, and so it enriches and enhances the richness of the City of Pittsburgh for money that is much needed. The restaurants, the hotels, the businesses, the parking taxes and so on, and on, and on. If you deny yourself of trying to make a visit to any of the events of the Regatta over the four day period, you've denied yourself a treat of a lifetime, thank you.

Mr. Eugene Connelly:

Thank you City Council, we're certainly glad that we have an opportunity to come before you this morning and accept this proclamation. Eleven short years ago we started the Regatta and we have something that is very fabulous today and its growing. I'll ask brother John now if he'll make a few comments, thank you.

Mr. John Connelly:

Mr. President and members of City Council, you know as I stand before you today I can't help but think of words that you've all heard me say probably hundreds of times, that our rivers are the lifeblood of Pittsburgh. That's the veins which our blood flows, and what a tribute it is that this Three Rivers Regatta is a cooperation between not only City government today, County government that is behind it, but also the business community, remember this Regatta is free. When it was created 11 years ago it's passed my wildest dreams, and I must give all the credit to my brother Gene. He has taken it, he has shepherd it through hard times, and now there are basically good times. It is the outstanding water show in America. It's a tribute to the City. But, a real tribute I want to say to the members of Council to the real cooperation. I can't stress that enough of the business community stepping up along side of the elected government and saying, what is good for Pittsburgh is good for all of us, and so I thank you for the award very much. I thank you for this proclamation because it is good for all of us, thank you.

The Chair:

We have one more resolution by Mr. Wagner, but I believe he wants you to read it Linda.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 1164 WHEREAS, on July 23, 1988 friends, relatives, and countrymen will celebrate a Block Party on Dunster Street in Brookline on behalf of our All-American selection to the 1988 Olympic Basketball Team, Suzie McConnell; and

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh and the residents of Brookline are very proud of the numerous accomplishments of Suzie McConnell going back to the time when she began her dominance in basketball playing for Our Lady of Loretto School which won the Diocese of Pittsburgh Championship; and

WHEREAS, Suzie then moved onto Seton La Salle and was part of a great Rebel basketball team that won the PIAA State Championship and in the process Suzie was named to 1st Team Parade All-American; and

WHEREAS, Penn State recruited Suzie McConnell, a very wise choice, and she continued her dominance at the NCAA level by leading the Nation in assists for two straight years and becoming the second leading scorer of all time in Penn State history; and

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the members of Pittsburgh City Council, the Mayor, and the residents of the City of Pittsburgh are very proud of the accomplishments of Suzie McConnell and wish her success in becoming a member of the United States Olympic Team and leading the team to a Gold Medal in Seoul South Korea.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council, the Mayor, and residents of the City salute Suzie's parents, Tom and Sue, the McConnell Family, all her friends and relatives and the roles that all have played in helping Suzie in achieving her goal of representing America in the upcoming Olympic Games.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I simply want to thank you for your support on this Resolution and it was presented to Suzie, her family, friends, relatives at probably the greatest Block Party I've ever participated in in Brookline over the weekend. There had to be well in excess of 1,000 people there to wish her well in becoming a member of the girls basketball team that is going Seoul, South Korea, and it was truly a joy to part of it, thank you.

Mr. DePasquale

Mr. President, I presume Jack knows, but he neglected to say that Suzie McConnell is the granddaughter of the late John McGrady.

Mr. Wagner:

That's right.

Mr. Coyne presented

No. 1132 Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of Casciato Brothers in the amount of $2,700.00 in payment of an Emergency Contract for the demolition of property at 26 Montana Street, 26th Ward, City of Pittsburgh, payable from Code Account PW 83-38.

Also,

No. 1133 An Ordinance supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Two, Fiscal, Article I, Administration, Chapter 213, Investment and Disinvestment by adding Section 213.05 Northern Ireland Investments. — (SPONSORED BY MR. COYNE)

Also,

No. 1134 An Ordinance supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Two, Fiscal, Article III, Depositories, Chapter 221, Contracts, by adding to the requirements for the qualification of banks and lending institutions which desire to qualify as depositories of City monies. —(SPONSORED BY MR. COYNE)

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Also,

No. 1135 Communication from Paul McDermott, Director, Department of Engineering and Construction, requesting authorization for Bruce Farber to attend a three-day "hands-on" course entitled, "Managing Projects with a Personal Computer" at the University of Pittsburgh from September 12-14, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $895.00, payable from Code Account 1482, Miscellaneous Services. This seminar shows how to use software packages to develop project schedules and budgets, track and control expenses, analyze project costs, update schedules, produce printed progress reports, level resources, and evaluate productivity.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Engineering and Construction.

Mr. DePasquale presented

No. 1136 Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts or the use of existing Contract or Contracts to purchase an automated EMS billing system for the Bureau of Administration at a cost not to exceed $22,000.00, chargeable to and payable from Code Account 1401, Bureau of Administration, Department of Public Safety.

Also,

No. 1137 Communication from Glenn Cannon, Director, Department of Public Safety, requesting authorization for Detective Ronald Rudolph, Bureau of Police, to attend the National Fire Academy in Emmitsburg, Maryland for a course entitled, "Fire Arson Investigation" from July 17-29, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $183.00, payable from Code Account PSTA, Bureau of Fire, Department of Public Safety. A City vehicle is also requested. This is a two-week in depth basic course for federal, state and local personnel defining successful methods for conducting legal fire investigations which may culminate in prosecution of arson. (PRIOR APPROVAL GRANTED)

Also,

No. 1138 Communication from Glenn Cannon, Director, Department of Public Safety, requesting authorization for Detective Dominic Costa, Bureau of Police, to attend the National Fire Academy in Emmitsburg, Maryland for a course entitled, "Fire Arson Investigation" from September 12-23, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $183.00, payable from Code Account PSTA, Bureau of Fire, Department of Public Safety. Permission is also requested to use a City vehicle. This is a two-week in depth basic course for federal, state and local personnel defining successful methods for conducting legal fire investigations which may culminate in prosecution of arson.

Also,

No. 1139 Communication from Glenn Cannon, Director, Department of Public Safety, requesting authorization for Battalion Chief Ronald Boggess, Bureau of Fire, to attend the National Fire Academy in Emmitsburg, Maryland for a course entitled, "Command and Control of Fire Department Major Operations" from September 11-23, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $183.00, payable from Code Account PSTA, Bureau of Fire, Department of Public Safety. This is a two-week course linking two subjects of interest to fireground managers - operations and safety. The course is devoted to command and control for chief officers in charge of several companies or who initially command greater alarm incidents.

Also,

(AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, in regard to Bill No. 1112, I'd like to make a motion to amend to increase the amount in the bill from $600,000 to $650,000.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, I'd like to make a motion and ask my colleagues to support me on this to recommit Bill No. 1112 until Wednesday.

Some other questions have come up that I'd like to discuss with Mr. Turner, and I think that some other interested parties in the City also have some more questions, and I don't think its asking too much to recommit this until Wednesday.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Mr. Wagner:

I would simply urge Council members — I'm going to vote against recommitment. I believe we had the people at the table last week to discuss this bill. The bill is coming out of my committee. I would like to see us professionalize this Workers' Compensation situation as much as possible.

And, I believe there has been great movement in that direction recently. I would not want to see that reversed. Two out of the five bills that were submitted by the Administration were held, and were held for I believe approximately six weeks until after Labor Day.

We all have been very well aware of this problem and urgency of the problem to get on with doing some things in a professional manner from a safety point of view in the City, with a professional Workers' Comp. Administrator. And, I personally have looked at this issue as much as anyone in City government, and will continue to, and will continue to be on top of it, and I urge Council to support it.

Mr. Lyons:

I'm on Bill 1108 for the $380 —

The Chair:

Wait a minute. Can we get back to the recommitment.

Mr. Pollock:

Just 1112 the recommitment motions on.

The Chair:

So, we'll just discuss 1112.

Michelle Madoff:

I would urge against recommitment. Everything that needs to be said can be said out here today. If there are any concerns. I think there's some confusion that can be readily cleared up, and there may be some new legislation needed to change the way the procedure has been handled in the past. But, we need to get on with this piece of legislation. We are now at the 25th day of July and we will be out of session on the 15th of August. We don't have very much time. We need to make sure that this legislation becomes effective immediately.

This issue obviously holding it up is that there are certain members of Council who feel that they're entitled to know who the contract is awarded to, and I think that needs to be clarified. We have never had that prerogative. It is a strong Mayor system and a weak Council system. It may not be the way we like it, but we can change that process. The ten years I've been on Council I've been given the snow job that we must encumber monies before we go out on a contract. As you know, I'm presently having a —

Mr. DePasquale:

Point or order, Mr. Chairman.
We're on a recommittal.

The Chair:

Just please talk about the recommittal.

Michelle Madoff:

The point I'm making is that we need to get on with the bill. We do not have a say unfortunately, in who is, or fortunately it depends on what your perspective is, of who the actual contractor is; and the reason for it is that every member of this Council gets monies of contributions to their campaigns from various contractors who would love to have this bill; and it is inappropriate for this Council to be picking the person. Once they have made the decision we will be notified. What we need to be sure of is that the decision was made wisely.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, on the recommittal.

The Chair:

Is there any other discussion on the recommittal?

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, on the motion to recommit I would like to support that. Frankly for somewhat of a selfish reason in my absence last week. But, secondly this is a very complex issue and I do have faith that Director Turner and the Administration have worked hard on the issue, but I think there are a number of questions that still need to be discussed.

We have until, I believe until the August 31st deadline. Obviously, we would not want to wait until the last minute. But, surely another week would not upset the Administration's plans in terms of moving ahead on a contract. Regardless of whether or not we know who the vendor is or not. I don't think its an outrageous request for an additional discussion of Wednesday.

The Chair:

Okay, does anyone else want to speak? I would urge you not to recommit. I think that it was rehashed, it was talked to death last Wednesday. I believe that is the -- even though I don't like the idea, I believe that we should know who the contractor is going to be, but we're not.

I believe its the Administration's prerogative to give the contract to whomever they want, and I would urge you to move ahead. One week in the transition does mean a lot Mr. Ferlo when you go from a month with such a critical piece of legislation, and the job they do in a week is a lot of time in a transition from one company to another, if they are going to do that. So, I would urge my colleagues not to recommit the bill.

Roll call vote, please.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Coyne
Mr. Ferlo

Mr. DePasquale      Mr. Wagner
Mr. Lyons            Mr. Woods
Michelle Madoff      (Pres't Pro tem)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, I feel that Council is making a grievous error by not voting to recommit this bill one week. The legislation itself is incomplete because it doesn't contain the name on the part that the City is planning to do business with.

It's not a question of trust of Mr. Turner's work or a question of trust of the Administration's decision of who they pick, but as Mr. Wagner stresses we need professionalism. This is a professional Council. We have every right whatsoever to know who this company is that the City is planning to do business with. It's our legislative responsibility to know where this money is going.

By passing the bill what we're doing is nullifying Council's oversight powers. Just because its been done this way in the past as Councilwoman Madoff states, doesn't mean its right. In a democracy the legislative review process sets up a checks and balance system. We're throwing that all out the window with this vote right now.

Now, I don't want to be involved and I don't feel Council should be involved in the selection process. This is something that rightly belongs to the Administration, but what we have here is the Administration possessing universal powers. They come to us, they say they want to go out on a bid, they go out and secure the company that's going to do the bid, and then they pay the bid without Council ever seeing again what happens to it, and then they come back asking for more money, and more money for things being done, and we in turn have to pass more money going out to them, and we don't know initially what is being done.

If this line of thinking was carried out to its logical conclusion what would be the need of a budget. The City of Pittsburgh wouldn't need a budget because all that the Administration would have to do, would be to come to us and say we need $5 million to run the City next year, give it to us. We don't need to know the department, we do not know what they're using the money for. All we to say is okay we trust you're going to do a good job and give them the money, and that's what they're doing here. They're coming to us and they're asking us to give them the money to go to ex company when we don't know who ex company is.

In getting back to the issue of the incompleteness of this legislation, Section 510 of the Charter states, "that Council shall authorize contracts". That everyone knows that for a contract to be binding it not only has to list what the parties intend to do for one another, but it also has to list who the parties are.

Now, this surely is not a legal contract because we do not know who the party involved are, because we don't know who the company is. Therefore, Council cannot authorize this because it's not a legal contract.

Now, granted we do need to get on with this, and granted Council will be going on a break in three weeks I believe it is, but I don't believe that we're asking anything to much to know who this company is.

What this is insinuating on the Administration's part is that Council is irresponsible, and every member of this Council knows that's exactly what it is. When you hear of money being kicked back or you hear about Council members accepting money from different companies and we could be involved in the process. You know, no one sitting at this row of tables here can tell me that the Administration doesn't accept money from contractors. No one can tell me that the Administration doesn't accept money from different companies.

Therefore, as much as anyone wants to question our legitimacy on choosing the company, I have to question the Administration's legitimacy. Now, would the Administration come over here and say they doubt anyone of our's trustworthiness, or did they say to you or anyone sitting here at this table that they think we're untrustworthy, but that's what they're doing. By doing it this way, what they're saying is that we do not have the scruples, we do not have the professionalism, we do not have the interests of the City of Pittsburgh at heart, and therefore, we cannot make an adequate judgment on this issue, and I'm saying that anyone who votes for this right now regardless of the fact that there are several questions that I believe the Fraternal Order of Police Union for one has, and the Firefighters, is that we're doing something without knowing everyone involved. We're voting as Ms. Madoff often says, we're voting in a vacuum, and I don't think Council wants to vote in a vacuum. We have a right to know, and not only on this bill, but on every other bill from now on that comes down. We just cannot appropriate money without knowing who it's going to. So, I would have to ask on this matter if we're not going to recommit for my colleagues to vote no on this issue.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Woods and members of Council, particularly those who have been here for some time, and I think there are probably two of us that have been here the longest period of time, that's Mr. DePasquale and myself.

For good or for bad the process of going out on contracts have always been done in the same manner. The Administration through its department heads comes to us and says, i.e. we'd like to build a building, we want to demolish a fire station, we want to go out on a service contract on the community group, and this Council says, yes or no, we think its a good idea or we don't. We authorize permission to proceed on the contract.

At that point the Administration has come to us and said, not to exceed and using the Ohio River Crossing for example, they said not to exceed $2.6 million, and the bids come in at $2 million. I think the low bid was $2.3 million. They say, we want to go out and demolish a fire station, and they say not to exceed $70,000. The bids come in at $66,000, $67,000 and $68,000.

My concern and this is how Mr. Woods raised this issue and sort of delayed this until this point was that he had finally agreed with me, he said we should not be advertising the amounts of money that we have to give away, because even on this contract when it first came up at $600,000 on a negotiated service contract. This is a service contract, this is not bricks and mortar. These are negotiated contracts as opposed to the traditional concept of lowest responsible bidder.

The question was raised and I think by Mr. Woods who said, how do we know we can't get it done for $200,000, and I agreed with him. At that point we got Dan Pellegrini to admit that there was nothing in writing, and that for ten years he had been saying you must encumber the money --

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, this isn't on this bill.

Michelle Madoff:

It is on this bill.

Mr. Coyne:

No it's not.

Michelle Madoff:

It is on this bill.

Mr. Coyne:

No it's not.

Michelle Madoff:

May I continue please?

The Chair:

All right, but just kind of go back to the bill rather than --

Michelle Madoff:

I'm trying to explain what the process was --

The Chair:

I understand what you're saying --

Michelle Madoff:

And I'm picking up from my esteem colleague --

The Chair:

Wait a minute. Now, let me bring this all back down. Ms. Madoff and I hate to do this, I'm trying to be very lenient with everybody. You brought up first about the campaign contributions and all this, and then Mr. Coyne brought it up, and he followed it up, so now you're going to rehash this thing again.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm not talking about this --

The Chair:

I know, but I mean that's how we went off base to begin with. That they didn't trust us because we get contributions or whatever from some vendor. I mean let's all get back down to earth. Let's talk about the bill, why we are either for voting in favor of this bill or against this bill. Mr. Coyne stated why he was voting against it.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll stay on the bill.

The Chair:

Please state why --

Michelle Madoff:

I'm trying if you'll bear with me.

The Chair:

I know but its —

Michelle Madoff:

The issue is very simple. Mr. Coyne feels that the process is incorrect and it should continue even though it has been that way ever since I have been here. The process is to get permission from this Council to go out on a bid, and to determine at that point which is wrong, how much that bid should consist of, what the dollar figure is. The number goes out and says, come and get us, and they come and get us.

Now, after they have made the award of the contract without having determined on bricks and mortar what the real costs are in my estimation, they come back to this Council and say, we went out for a bid not to exceed $70 million in this case $600,000, and they come back and they say okay we have now approved this bid, and they tell us who it is. But, it isn't until after the award has been made that we have ever been notified ever, ever, ever, who the person is that is getting the contract.

Now, I don't have a problem with my colleague, Mr. Coyne. If he believes that and I'm not saying that he's wrong, that we ought to be notified in some mechanism where once they've made the decision, and they have now made the decision of who the contractor is — my understanding is that the minute we vote to approve the contract, which is what we have always done — we've approved going out to bid on a certain dollars. This time we held them up and made them go out without a dollar figure by Mr. Woods putting in $100,000 instead of the $600,000.

But, traditionally in the normal process once they make an award so that nobody has any input from this Council to say I have a favorite contractor for whatever it may be. They do the picking supposedly on merit. The shortcoming I see is who determines what the actual dollar should be. That doesn't matter whether its a fire station or a service contract or what have you.

My understanding is that they went out and determined that $600,000 is in the ball park. I don't know whether that's right or wrong. Maybe, it's because we paid $600,000 for the last people doing it, so they say well we've now determined the price of managing the contract. I'm not sure there isn't someone out there who wouldn't do it for $200,000.

But, the issue is that you cannot change the rules on one bid until you change the whole process, and I've encouraged Mr. Coyne to come back with legislation that says, we will no longer do it with this process, and I think that we'll be shot down, because the Administration under State Law and under the Home Rule Charter is the agency that chooses who will do the work, who will get the contract based on the lowest responsible bidder or the most qualified.

What I'd like to see them give is some documentation at some point, even if its after the fact, how they determined the actual cost of that contract. How did you determine it's only going to cost us $600,000; and you know it isn't $600,000 anymore it's $650,000, and so what I'm saying if you want to change a process we can look into doing that, but the process has never been any different. Am I right Mr. Woods? It has always been, we approve going out on a contract, they tell us not to exceed, they go out and they pick the person, and they come back and say next week, they'll say move to a — whomever it will be in the amount of, and that's how its been done; and I don't know that it is any worse to have the Administration do it, then to have members of Council doing it, or to do a combined effort might be a compromise. I don't know. All I can tell you is that from a legal point of view we don't have that prerogative. It is illegal for us to choose.

Mr. Ferlo:

Yes, Mr. Chairman, I was going to abstain on this bill, because of my lack of being here at last Wednesday's meeting, and we have failed to recommit the bill, so on the actual motion at this time I would have to vote no on the legislation.

Frankly, I was hoping to be able to vote yes, because I wanted to in taking Mr. Wagner's comments this is an important piece of legislation. He probably to some extent has certainly studied the issues, certainly more than I have, and I would admit that.

I guess I'm somewhat disappointed; there's only been a few times that I can remember since January 4th that my colleague Mr. Coyne has been so vocal on a particular issue, and I think quite frankly out of respect for him in terms of being able to discuss this more fully, that's quite frankly why I wanted to see it recommitted. I think we owe that to a colleague.

The standard operating procedure of previous Councils does not have to remain the status quo in response to my colleague, Michelle's comments. That there's new ways to do things. This is a new Council both in style as well as politically, and if there are Council members who want to change the standard operating procedures of this body, I'm all for it if it makes sense.

I don't think that holding this bill or wanting additional information is not be professional, or not wanting to be supportive of the Administration's intent as it is to reform the Workers' Compensation problem, and it is a problem. I mean we have not really talked about the fact that the Administration has botched this up over the last few years. I cannot in good faith vote for this legislation, and I'll say it quite frankly and publicly if Fred S. James Company is the company that's going to benefit from the contract.

Now, I don't know if they are and I don't know if they are not, but I cannot vote for this bill today and tomorrow morning or this afternoon be informed that they indeed once again have secured this contract. I think there are a lot of good reasons in evaluating their performance. In particular the way they dealt with employees under the system who are on Compensation. I cannot in good faith do that. I don't think it's an outrageous request, and Mr. Coyne has pointed to at least one section of the Charter that suggests that Council has more input than what Mr. Pellegrini or Mr. Turner would like this legislative body to have.

Since everyone's sort of lining up on principled stands I'll make a principled stand, and that is very clearly that I don't think it's an outrageous request that when a union in this case the Fraternal Order of Police — I've not received any formal communication from the Firefighters, but I don't think it's outrageous request since we are the legislative body and act as the judge in these matters to hear all sides, to hear all comments and concerns. I don't think it's politicizing the process to hear out the representatives of the F.O.P. on this matter. Whether it be a public hearing or some type of a post agenda prior to a formal and final vote on this legislation.

So, since we're all lining up on our principled stands it's certainly a principled stand that I will take, and it's certainly something I feel strongly about. Whether its fire trucks or for any other issue effecting the workers here.

So, because of the lack of willingness on some members parts to have one more discussion in a Wednesday format with Director Turner and other parties involved, lack of willingness to hear out the F.O.P. and others who are beneficiaries of the program as part of our analysis, because of the fact that in the information that I received in writing from Director Turner prior to leaving I asked him to please send me a listing of what type of an evaluation did they go through, and other then getting an itinerary of what they went through and again a copy of the R.F.P., I didn't receive any synopsis of how they evaluated the various companies that responded to the R.F.P. There was no evaluative information given to me as an elected official.

I apologize that may have been given to the rest of you on Wednesday at the last committee session. I think not though, and I think that information is owed to us regardless of how you feel about whether or not we should know the particular vendor; and to respond to Michelle's comments earlier, I mean we sometimes bring ourselves down on this Council. I mean to suggest that you know we're going to vote one way or another because of political contributions or because we're all running for Council next year is an outrageous comment, and I hope that it will be retracted. The Administration is up for election next year and all the department directors as much as we are as elected official, and no one has received more money from people who receive monies under the professional service contracts then the Administration, and I'll match that with my contributions against their's any day to review that concern. So, that just is not a good statement to make, and I think it derides the importance of our participation and our ability to have some input.

So, because of all this discussion at this time I will change my abstention vote which I will make to a no vote on this legislation.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to request again that my comments from the day we started with the Police and the Firefighters when the million dollars — the $800,000 dollars was being transferred to Workers' Compensation, and I raised the issue of the problems of Workers' Compensation be brought forward in the final minutes.

I do not see them here. I see issues that — I only see the comments from March 30, '87. I want to go back to the beginning when I initiated this whole effort, and I think that would be relatively easy to find by asking Glenn Cannon or Jacoby approximately when that date was, if you're having trouble locating it, thank you.

(REMARKS REQUESTED BY MICHELLE MADOFF - JULY 29, 1987)

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Jacoby, as the Finance Officer of the city, the public and my colleagues may not be aware that what happens frequently is that bills come one at a time and if you look at them separately there is no significance. But when you see a number of bills, and I must thank Mr. Woods for pointing out that this is not one that I addressed, that the bills I looked at had 1 half million going to worker's comp and another bill had 12 thousand and I forget what the third one had came to, and with this one, we are looking at close to $1 million transferred to worker's comp. Is that for monies already committed or because we have problems in worker's comp and there are more people that have left the Public Safety Department? Would somebody tell me what this almost $1 million is going to be used for in worker's comp? Is this the new arrangement to payoff and lower the debt which is devastating the City's budget, workman's comp—several years ago we revamped the program. Or is there two factors. Have we lowered the worker's comp or increased it? I want to know the answer to those questions. Is this an obligation we contracted for, one and two, what is the status of worker's comp with Mr. James who does all our worker's comp. Have we lowered our debt? Raised it? Have we lowered the numbers of people on comp each year or increased it? The floor is yours.

Mr. Jacoby:

Let me start by giving, if you don't mind, a brief history of how worker's comp has been handled in the City. The City of Pittsburgh is one of the very few self-insured worker's comp entities in the state. We have traditionally been self-insured. That means we pay our obligations.

Michelle Madoff:

At that time we found that the bulk of claims were coming out of the Refuse Department. People were hurting themselves lifting up heavy tarpins and so on, and we had the greatest claims there, and Mr. Yatch instituted a safety program to train the drivers how to lift, and then we went to curb-side pick up. Would you say that that did help keep our claims down.

Mr. Jacoby:

Yes.

Let me present, if I might — this is a report that is prepared for my review and the Mayor's Office review, and I'll be glad to share it with Council. This is a report for 1987 through July 10, department by department, of spending

Michelle Madoff:

Let me respond to that. What happened when this whole thing started when I instituted the study that resulted in the first safety program put in the Refuse Department was that by retraining the drivers, we are able to cut down those costs. Now everybody knows when you have firefighters, part of the reason firefighters job is so dangerous—we know how dangerous their work is. We instituted a program here before you arrived that we would no longer allow—and Mr. O'Malley was supportive of this—we would no longer allow—it was a unanimous vote of Council that we would no longer allow uniforms to be negotiated as part of the labor contract. That was something we would vote unanimously for to protect our firefighters, and we wanted them to be trained to use the proper oxygen mask. They were not using them because they felt they were breathing through straw. And we are still improving that and working with the firefighters union, members of this Council and Mr. Cannon, because that's important. And that's where we are going to bring savings down. But I am sort of surprised. You are telling use that the highest number of claims are in the firefighters or is the highest dollar factor?

Mr. Jacoby:

Higher dollar factor.

Michelle Madoff:

I want to know two things. Where are the greatest numbers of claims percentage-wise in the department?

Mr. Jacoby:

The claims are broken down between what are called no-loss time claims which can be anything from a cut hand that requires some brief medical attention and the individual can go back to work to the very long ranging, very serious disability claim. I don't have it for you right now, but I can get for you a breakdown on the number of claims breaking them down not only on numbers, but also how many are lost time and how many days of lost time we have.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. James could tell you that right off the top of his head. Mr. James knows because that's his job to know.

You know what departments because you have been surveying all the departments. You can tell us where the greatest number of claims are, can't you?

What is the percentage of our budget that we are spending on worker's comp?

Mr. Jacoby:

Approximately six or seven percent.

Michelle Madoff:

Six or seven percent and nobody on this Council noticed we had all these workmen compensation transfers and even asked a question, and we are voting.

May we address this. No.1, this Council almost to a person, except Mr. Stone were for having the disabled in Fire, Police, etc. come back in labor jobs answering perhaps 911 because they know the job and to deal with that kind of complaint immediately. My understanding and I think it was brought up by Mr. Stone is we didn't have the right to do that because of the liability we would incur, and I remember your predecessor saying what if we do that and they get hurt again, we have double liability. So, that was something that was to be addressed. Almost every member of this Council said why can't we have a firefighter at home who can not climb a ladder sit at a telephone.

Mr. Chairman, I want to thank you for being even handed and fair and making history. This is the first time that anybody other than the Three Musketeers had been fined, and I want to thank you for seeing the importance of the debt and the impact it has on all taxpayers of the unfunded pensions, and as I said, it came to my attention as I was reading the Monday's list and happened to see three transfers of almost $800,000.00 in worker's comp, and I think the information that you are allowing to proceed with is very enlightening to the public. You knew this. I knew this. But I didn't know the magnitude of what was happening, and I think that as a Chairman, the most important function you have is not only to keep order, but when we are doing a Finance Meeting is to let the public know what is happening and what is going on, and you are to be commended.

Let me summarize, so I know what you are saying because I think you left something out, and perhaps George can address it. You are a firefighter, a police officer. Where else does this apply? Any employed person for the city? Does it apply to anybody on worker's comp? It's 100 percent of his salary tax free.

Mr. Jacoby:

No. The salary continuous is for Police and Fire.

Michelle Madoff:

So, if you are injured and working in your office, in the Finance Office and somebody is injured there, they get what?

Mr. Jacoby:

Sixty-six and two-thirds of their salary to a weekly maximum of $367.00, I believe.

Michelle Madoff:

Can I ask one quick question. There is one dimension that has not been touched on and it may be one that people may not be aware of. Because I don't know this to be fact, and I want to be corrected if I am wrong, if you are a firefighters you get 100 percent even if you are physically able to come back to do lighter duty. You get sixty some odd percent if you are a non-hazard employee working for another department, and that's what you get if you are working but unemployed and not allowed to come back and you are working to correct this. Now the other dimension that has not been touched upon is — isn't there some provisal in State Unemployed Benefits — when you get to 65 or 62 you get Social Security. Isn't there a provisal for Social Security benefits for disabled, and does that take your salary into account or does that — do you double dip, or do you not double dip?

Mr. Jacoby:

For those individuals who are covered by Social Security and a large —

Michelle Madoff:

Let me clarify my question. There are two kinds of people that qualify for Social Security, those over 62, those children or widows whose husband's have died and are qualified or the children of widows, or the husband is disabled and the family is eligiable. You don't necessarily get Social Security because you are 62. Now if you are a single employed person and you are getting 100 percent being a firefighter or a police officer, how does that affect your getting Social Security payment for being disabled? This is very very important because I think there is double payment, and we need to know that.

Mr. Jacoby:

I want to ask the technical expert, but there is a large segment of our employee population that is not covered by Social Security.

Michelle Madoff:

Let me rephrase my question. Suppose you have an employee that works for you as a clerk or an assistant in statistics. They are not a firefighter, but they work in your department. They are injured and trip over a chair and fall down an elevator shaft, whatever, and they can no longer work, is that person eligible for two payment, one from worker's comp and the other from Social Security?

Mr. King:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

I've been here nine years, and this issue has come up repeatedly. What has been done over nine years to try to solve the problem. Have you sat down with the union leaders to explain to them this means more salaries to those working if we can keep the benefits down to those who don't deserve. Have you sat down and worked with people as opposed to saying this is the way it's going to be. What has the approach been?

Mr. Jacoby:

We have tried to take a very professional approach in this. We have a private administrator who reviews the claims professionally. We have put in some safety programs. We have put in some safety programs. We are attempting to put in alternative duty programs and we are establishing a panel of physicians to treat the individuals in the first 14 days of their illness and to review their conditions to see if they can come back to work. We use to leave the employee to his own device, to find his own doctors. We are now trying to assist him to get to the best medical specialist available to treat his or her condition. We are doing everything we can. There is a lot more room to grow to try to get the employee injured the best treatment possible. And we are doing the best thing we can to prevent the injury in the first place.

Michelle Madoff:

I know for a fact someone who is injured who worked in my office years ago who fell in your new office. It wasn't your office at that time. Over a pipe coming out of the floor and no table. If a table had been put in by a private contractor, she would have sued. There was no one to sue. She was covered by worker's comp and she had been harassed for years because there is a feeling of making people come back — I'm going to show the city I'm doing my job by getting people back. I would hope that that isn't the policy of James Corporation to go after those who are genuinely ill. She has not worked since that time. It's very sad, and she's a very nice person and would like to work, but has not got the use of both shoulders now. But, this problem of having a million dollars that we sit here and vote on because it's brought to this Council, $300 thousand dollars, $50,000, not in total. It has got to stop. One of the things I would like to request from the Finance Chairman and from Mr. Jacoby is that in the future any time we are making a change of dollars or an increase to worker's comp, that you do not present it to us as a number and say we have to date are transferring 500 thousand which brings it to 800 which brings us to a million and now to six percent of our annual budget so that this Council knows what is happening and so that the people who think and a lot of people go after insurance companies because they say it's not hurting anybody. But in this case, we are self-insured. Those entitled should not be harassed. Those not entitled have got to come back and give something back and give something back in the line of some work replacement of some job we have to hire, and we are all in agreement with it. I'm distressed this has been around with it. I'm distressed this has been allowed to go on to a point, that this city is in a terrible financial place. It's a terrible situation. I know we get quarterly reports. If I were an accountant, I could decipher them. I have not enough money in my office to hire an accountant. And we will next year get a fiscal analyst, hopefully. It's a very serious problem.

One question and perhaps we can wind this up. Is there any legislation being proposed in Harrisburg that would address the non-hazardous employees — not those that put their life on the line — so that they do not get both worker's comp and Social Security?

Mr. Jacoby:

No. There is nothing pending.

Michelle Madoff:

Can we look into that?

Mr. Jacoby:

I would be happy to.

(REMARKS FROM JULY 20, 1988)

Mr. Turner:

What I would like to focus on right now is to really run through the whole worker's comp situation, some of the history, the problems and what we are proposing to do about it and how that pertains to the bills in front of you. I am going to ask the Councilmembers indulgence to turn around and look at the screen, because we are going to run through some of this. I think visually you can see it a lot better. Pat, if you put the first slide up here.

The first slide clearly shows that the reason we are here today is that the compensation costs have grown enormously over the past four years.

In 1984 we spent a little over 12 million and by 1987 we were over 18 million; a 50 percent increase during that time frame, that is a three year period. You project that out another three years and we are talking about $27 million in compensation costs. Very clearly, we cannot afford this. Within my department, it is the No. 1 internal priority, and that is basically to change the way we do business with respect to compensation, how we handle it, because the current trend is simply unaffordable. Next slide, please.

Now, when we look at costs, we can really categorize them into three different areas. Some of the reasons for cost increases, quite frankly, are very understandable. We have had medical care inflation during this period. As everyone is aware, that is beginning to increase rather dramatically again. We have seen salary and wage increases between '84 and '88. Some of our bargaining members got cumulative increases of 20 percent, that impacts our cost. We have seen increases in the state weekly maximum, they have gone up almost 20 percent during these last four years. And the fact that we have an aging work force in many of our departments. All of these represent reasons why costs have increased, and we can expect to see that.

The next slide deals with some other reasons where, quite frankly, it is a little less understandable to explain why we have had these increases. We have seen continuing referee rulings from the state referees which ultimately make these decisions, especially in the area of stress, which has been very difficult to understand and has been very costly. Nationally you are seeing three times the level of stress claims that you saw approximately eight years ago. In addition, stress claims traditionally are double the cost of a traditional claim because they go on for a much longer period of time. We have had two cases go against us this year which are going to result in an annual cost of $100,000.00. Those have been difficult for us to explain and are one of the reasons why we have seen costs going up.

Over the years we have seen changes in the law with respect to the Heart and Lung Act, with respect to how we pay back salaries even in cases where we have received the physician's affidavit of recovery, until the rulings occur from the state referees and as a result of these changes, we have seen increasing costs.

The third item, quite frankly, is an attitude change, and all of us are aware of that. And I still think back to my father, and if he could walk, he went to work. We are not seeing that same kind of effort today, and obviously that affects us in terms of our finances.

The last category which at least explains a rise in cost are the items that there is no rational explanation for. We now have a system which there are financial incentives in place which encourage abuse. As long as an employee gets more money to stay home than to come to work, we can't be surprised if we find incidents of abuse.

On the safety practices, over the past two years, quite frankly, since the safety effort has gone to Public Safety under Joe Cally and Glenn Cannon, we are seeing an evolving effort, and it is much better than it was two years ago, but we are not there yet. We have to continue on the safety efforts and continue to do more.

I believe we have had inadequate administrative efforts, and that falls in my lap, that is my responsibility, and we are going to change the way we would do business internally. We are staffing up that area rather dramatically, and we are going to do things much differently than we have done in the past.

Finally, we have had inadequate enforcement. When you take cases to a state referee and you have one doctor saying he is fine and dandy and can go back to work, and another doctor saying there is no way that he can work a full day, the referees have no idea what to do. Prior to this contract we haven't had the ability to do the kind of surveillance and verification and work checks that we absolutely must have in order to present a good case to a state referee.

Now, what are we going to do about it? We have already started doing a number of things, and I have broken this into several categories. The first are what I will refer to as some of the financing strategies. Some of these are fairly technical, but they are important. And that is the use of what we refer to as annuities and structured settlements and commutation. What we are talking about here in some cases on a commutation, that is simply a buy out. In other words, you sit down as an employee and instead of paying them for the rest of their life under the program, you work out something that is reasonable to them. And some people are very interested in that. They may wish to go to school or start a new business. But what you do is you settle it right then and don't have this liability going on forever. Likewise with the annuities, that is a case where you structure a payment over a series of years, using life insurance companies. And again you have situations where, for example, in some cases a worker's comp benefit may end if the individual dies from some other cause. If that individual has dependents, they may be more interested in some type of annuity that fits their need.

In order to do both A and B up there, we need a source of funds. In the past we have been contributing a small amount of money to a trust fund. That trust fund was designed to partially offset an unfunded liability, but, quite frankly, it is doing very little to that extent. What I am proposing is that instead of using — we will use at least a portion of that trust fund contribution in order to finance, to give us money for the commutation, to any annuities, so that we get rid of the unfunded liability right off the bat.

Surety bond costs, this is an area where the City was required to put up a $5 million performance bond. Initially that cost us $3,000.00. In today's market that would cost us $600,000.00. That is totally unacceptable. It really doesn't do anything. We are going to meet with the state in August on all five of these items up here. We simply have to change the way we do business with respect to financing this program.

A major problem that we have had in the past and that I think we are addressing very aggressively right now is making jobs available. It is a fact of life that there will always be some individuals injured on worker's compensation. I believe very strongly that we as a city have an obligation to make some work available to them that meets their physical limitations. Under that scenario, they, then, have the obligation to accept this work and do it. We have three programs in place. The alternative duty program, basically that deals with people who have been injured and they expect to return to the full range of their duties within a six month time frame, it is a short range program. So far in 1988 we have had 91 employees who have been assigned to alternative duty positions, 43 are still on alternative duty, 38 have returned to their full range of duty, 5 have, unfortunately, returned to the workers' comp roles, there have been 3 injured, and 5 have simply resigned or left the City for whatever reasons.

The modified duty program is a long-term duty program. That deals with someone that everyone agrees is permanently and totally disabled; they simply cannot come back to work in any capacity with the City or have no prognosis to return to capacity to do their original work. They simply will not be able to do what they were hired to do. In this case, what we intend to do is take everyone going off on permanent and total disability and bring them back in some lesser fashion through a modified duty program. We expect within the next two months to offer 10 employees jobs under this program. This is one that was announced recently, this will be a slower program, but what we are trying to do here is find jobs for everyone.

The temporary modified duty program is one that was just announced a month ago, and I think has the — that I am most optimistic in terms of its immediate impact. Basically this deals with everyone else; those that aren't going to return short range, but yet haven't gone off on permit and total. What we are doing is making jobs available to them. So far, for the past, I guess, four weeks now, we have approximately 40 individuals who we have sent job offers to, we have approximately 15 back at work, we have another 10 that we are petitioning the state to terminate their benefits because they have refused to return back to work. We have employees in at least one case who refused to do surgery for many years in order to come back to work, they have suddenly decided it is now time to do that. That is fine, regardless. But all of these are moving because we are going to bring people back to work.

Finally, the out placement effort to the extent that we can't employ them in-house, we need to do more in terms of finding them jobs outside of the City.

Some of the other things that are in place or will be in place, we have a charge back system that right now was designed to keep each department accountable. For the first time this year all departments know that if they spend more than what was allotted to them in worker's compensation, those transferred funds, in order to make the additional payments, are going to come from the department from their own code accounts. So it is going to affect them, we want it to affect them, we want them to be responsible for it.

Item B is a program that I hope we can announce very shortly. What we are looking for here is to do some type of shared savings so that when we have employees who have not been injured, that they can share, financially share, in some of the lowered costs that we hope to have through workers' compensation.

All of that, of course, has to be negotiated with the unions. There are some discussions going on right now with one or two unions, and we are optimistic that we are going to be able to put something in place so that the employees themselves can benefit by bringing down the worker's compensation costs. All of us have a stake in this, participate in this, and we are trying to do that.

Finally, we clearly have to reform the state laws that impact us. As long as tax reform is out there, that must be the City's first priority. Until that issue is decided one way or the other, we can't make a big push on this. But I hope and I expect that for next year the reform of the state laws that simply make no sense with respect to paying people more to stay home and things of that nature, we have to present a package to Harrisburg and lobby for those changes.

Finally, we have to improve our own operation in terms of the program and inefficiencies that we now have. Right now we have the capability to require all individuals to go to our doctors through the medical panel that we select within the first 14 days, and we have to make that a requirement; we simply have to enforce that. We have to do more case management efforts, we need to visit them at the homes and see what can be done to rehabilitate and to get these people back to work. We have to do more in the way of claim verification and surveillance, something that we haven't done in the past, but we are going to do very actively now. It is absolutely essential that we begin doing this. Instant alternative duty, it is a program I hope we can announce very shortly, it is simply designed to bring people back immediately, don't get anyone used to staying home watching the soaps, or whatever. Find jobs for them so that within two days they are back to work even while they are still undergoing medical review. Back injuries, sprains and strains, this is clearly the biggest type of injury that we have. It is almost the most difficult injury, both in determining whether it is real or not and in rehabilitating. There has been amazing progress made by companies that have developed very sophisticated computerized system that not only help in the rehabilitation, but will clearly indicate and will clearly show with print outs and charts and graphs who is trying to be rehabilitated and who is not. We are going to make a big push on this so that those types of injuries we get either the rehabilitation and/or we make it clear that those people that aren't trying, that we are going to take those to the state referees.

Finally, what we are beginning to see, and I guess I am seeing it more than others, is that the general public and other employees are calling on a regular basis, and basically they are tired of it, they are giving me names, I haven't even asked for this, but I would say on a weekly basis I get a call, so and so is really not injured and they know darn well. What we are going to do is we are going to investigate, just go after that in a much harder fashion than we have ever done before.

Finally, in the area of claims processing improvements — let me skip that for one minute. We will come back to that. Let's talk about the increased litigation efforts.

Taking all of these cases to the state referees is going to increase our costs in terms of litigation and legal fees. We know that right now. We don't, quite frankly, know what that cost is. Dan Pellegrini is working on that right now, and we may need prior to Monday to come back to you to increase the amount that is in there, because the $600,000.00 does not include any increased litigation efforts. He is working on that, and I hope by Friday we'll have that resolved. I apologize that that is not resolved at this point.

The last item is claims processing improvements. What I am trying to do with the proposed changes — which we are asking you to hold a week to see if we can work out a reasonable arrangement — is that what we currently have now is simply a terribly inefficient way of doing things. We are going to propose a streamline system, but I would rather hold that and discuss that a week from now after we have sat down with the Controller's Office.

Finally, I want to emphasize that in this process we went through a very extensive process, a long process. The RFP that was sent out this year, by everyone's admission, was infinitely more detailed and much better than anything we have ever done before. We are learning, too, we are learning what it takes in order to run a program. We had 25 RFP's sent out by firms that asked us to do that, we received 14 proposals. From that, we went through a preliminary review and we ended up focusing on five firms. We had a selection committee which included me, the City Solicitor, the City Budget Director, the City Personnel Director, and Betty Goldberg, the only one who gets mentioned by name, who is the former in-house administrator of the workers' comp program. In addition, we had three support staff, the assistant director of benefits, the assistant benefits coordinator and the safety inspections manager. This committee focused on five firms. We went through an intensive review of their process, multiple meetings, reference checks, Dunn and Bradstreet Reports, site visitations, etc. We have now arrived at a final decision. This is as professional a review selection process as we have ever had. And the other point I want to emphasize is that once the firm is announced, we are going to hold their feet to the fire. We are doing two things that have not been done before. No. 1 is that we will have an annual performance review, and No. 2, and perhaps more importantly, at my discretion I can hold up payments on a monthly basis if we are simply not satisfied with the work that we are getting.

What I have tried to do here is, I guess, very briefly and quickly, run through the efforts, the problems that we faced in worker's compensation, the efforts that we are trying to make. This piece of legislation to permit me to bring an administrator on is as important a piece of legislation financially as we have had in a long time. The only thing I can emphasize is we have made this as professional a selection process as we could.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Turner, I don't think anyone has worked closer with you from this council on this legislation than I have. As a matter of fact, I have a letter that I want to thank you for that was most gracious, thanking me for my input. It seems to me that in a sense — I don't want to take credit, because I think the job you have done is phenomenal, you are to be absolutely congratulated. But I think the trigger mechanism of this all began when we had a small agenda and I saw the million dollar transfer to workmen's comp and pointed out that we had gone from 40 million, and asked Mr. Woods, as a matter of fact, to graciously arrange for us to have someone to brief us that following Wednesday. I had no idea what can of worms I was opening up. Everyone came, yourself, Mr. Scortino and Mr. Jacoby with papers yeah high, and for the first the sacred cow was addressed. I think that leads to several of my questions that are still not -- as you know, I am very supportive, so my questions are not in any way to diminish what you are doing, but there are some concerns that I have that you might be able to answer very quickly.

I believe I was the trigger mechanism for this, and I would like to have the administration pull the statements that I made, which are practically identical to the ones you have made today and to have them entered in the permanent record on Monday so they will be side by side with your records to say that I am not just saying, "Isn't this wonderful?" But, indeed, that is fact.

Now, my initial question, what was the -- let me say I was the trigger mechanism. And I think you have done a phenomenal job. Why didn't the previous Administration do anything about this? What took us so long to get to this point.

(END OF REMARKS)

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, first of all I would like my comments brought forward from last Wednesday's meeting and discussion on these three bills.

Furthermore, I'd like to urge Council to support the legislation, all three bills, particularly Bill No. 1112. I believe the reason why Mr. Coyne wants to oppose it or hold it, is the fact that he wants to know what company is to be picked. As of last week I can tell you the Mayor did not know which company has been picked, and I hope as of today the Mayor does not know what company has been picked. I said last week, I'll say it again the problem has been traditionally with this issue there has been too much politics involved in the issue.

Professionalism has to be the predominant factor here, and professionalism does not necessarily involve politicians knowing or having input as to what companies are picked or what company is picked. It involves getting to the Workers' Compensation safety programs, reducing the number of accidents that occur in the City, getting people back to work that are off, and to reduce the dollar losses which the taxpayers are paying. That's the issue, the issue is not which company is picked. What I want is I want Director Turner and the pressure has been put on Director Turner to pick the most professional company. I don't care what company that is. It can be any of the 22 companies that submitted bids on this contract.

Now, can Council do anything if its not a company that does a good job; yes. These dollars come up in the budget every year at the end of the year for the following year. If any member of this Council does not like the job that the company is doing you can make a motion to exclude those dollars in 1989's budget for that company. Not only that, but the Administration is part of this new contract for which ever company gets the contract has the option to cancel the contract in the event the company does not meet up to the obligations of the contract.

So, we are not voting in the blind here. Whatever company gets the contract, that company will be held to doing a professional job. I personally do not want to know who the company is. I want to be the best company available that's out there. I want them to attack the Workers' Compensation problem along with all of us, along with all 5,300 employees, management and union, reduce the dollar losses that occur, so that we can hire more people to do the job that needs to be done in all departments in City government.

So, based on that I urge all of you to vote for this legislation.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

(BEGINNING - MR. WAGNER'S REMARKS ON BILL NOS. 1110, 1111, 1112 - WEDNESDAY, 7/20/88)

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like the floor and I'd like to ask the Director a few questions. First of all, I believe it's the intent of Council here to hold those two bills and to encourage the Administration and the Controller to get together and to talk about the trust fund legislation, Bill Nos. 1113 and 1114, and have those come back up in front of Council next week. I also think it's the intent here to move on the other three bills, Bill Nos. 1110, 1111 and 1112.

Prior to doing that, I simply want to state that the meat of this legislation is probably Bill No. 1112 which is the $600,000.00 on that one bill. This bill is much more than $600,000.00.

As Director Turner has indicated, our losses now are somewhere in the range of $17.5 million a year. Unfortunately, I don't think in the past, and I'm not saying just recent past, I mean past--period, within city government, it has been a predominant issue and I personally think that if there's any issue that cannot involve politics in city government it has to be this issue because it's not $600,000.00, it's not $18 million; it's more like $60 million plus the $600,000.00 plus the $18 million. We're talking about big numbers here, real big numbers that will impact this city going beyond the Year 2000.

This program is a critical program. Too much in the past we have not devoted attention to it and there has not been the professionalism devoted towards Workmen's Compensation and there's been too much politics involved within the political structure.

For people to be off too long or permanently that should not have been off, and I can go back to the recent past and the changeover in the Public Safety Department with the previous Director. There were people that went off on permanent Workmen's Compensation that should never have been off on permanent Workmen's Compensation. We are paying for that today due to the lack of professionalism. Nothing needs professionalism more than this issue in city government and I believe Director Turner has done an exceptionable job here to begin to build a foundation and we must have a foundation. Nothing significant really has happened yet. We have signs that good things are happening but nothing significantly has happened to impact those big numbers. Hopefully we can stabilize those numbers. If there's any goal, I think that obviously is the goal and Director, I know you mentioned that to me yesterday. We need to stabilize those numbers. The only way we can do it is to take politics out of who is off on Workmen's Compensation, who isn't off, how long they're off, and to inject professionalism into city government, into all aspects of city government.

My original legislation for charge-back program was part of hoping that directors and everyone becomes involved in the safety or loss control program. All 5300 employees in the City of Pittsburgh are responsible, are directly responsible, for loss control or safety activities. Everyone must be involved in this program, not just the elected officials, not just the directors of departments, everyone must be involved. This $18 million severely impacts our ability to put police officers on the street because we're paying people that are off on Workmen's Compensation. This severely impacts putting people in parks to do maintenance work, in Public Works, and in each and every department in city government. We must take the bull by the horns on this issue and when I say "we" I don't mean just this Council, I mean everyone in this room, I mean everyone, all 5300 employees in city government. We cannot have people off that shouldn't be off. We should be trying to get people back through rehabilitation, whether it's on modified duty programs or whatever it may be.

One item that Director Turner did not refer to--it's very important to do that psychologically for employees. To be off with an injury and to know that you are going to remain off for one year or two years or maybe permanently can have a severe psychological impact on that individual's life and their family life and in the meantime we have lost an employee in a particular department.

So, initiating a charge-back program must be done. I want to see some things happen that have not happened to date. Initially they happened a couple years ago such as the safety committee meetings of which there hasn't been a meeting for two years and I know Director, you've committed that that will begin to occur as soon as there is an administrator assigned to the program, incentive programs which you referred to here and I understand there is some discussion with a particular union to negotiate an incentive program and I'd just like to elaborate on that for one second.

In private industry, incentive programs in safety and loss control are very common. We don't have them in city government and we have to adopt some of the things that those people are doing quite effectively. Let's just say for instance a particular department has in the last year they had $1 million in losses in Workmen's Compensation. Well, if next year they can reduce that to $900,000.00, we effectively do two things: we have reduced the number of losses and injuries to employees plus we have reduced the cost to the taxpayer for Workmen's Compensation.

(AT THIS POINT MS. KRIEBEL RESUMED STENOTYPING THE MEETING)

(END OF REMARKS)

PREPARED BY: MARY ANNE HRUSKA, STENOTYPE REPORTER 1

(MR. WAGNER'S CONTINUED REMARKS ON BILL NOS. 1110, 1111, 1112 - Wednesday, 7/20/88)

Mr. Wagner:

Let's reward that department for shooting for a goal of which they have achieved. We haven't done that in the past. Let's not just reward the department in general, maybe with miscellaneous dollars in their account so they can do more things from a departmental point of view, let's give each employee $100.00 at the end of the year, because everyone in the department contributed to that activity. That goes on it private industry. We can initiate those types of incentive programs I believe here in city government.

But the responsibility begins here, begins with the Mayor, begins with Director Turner, Director Cannon, and all the other directors, and it must go down through all the employees in city government.

I, for one, am going to stay on top of this. I know Director Turner has made a commitment with his staff and Director Cannon has said he has also, and we must initiate these types of meetings that are necessary and get this program into a professional mode and not an unprofessional or political mode like it has been in the past. I agree with you, I don't want to know who the selection is for the administrator. I want a professional decision, I want it without me knowing, without any elected official knowing. I think in doing that, it will be the most professional decision that is possible. We are putting a real weight on your shoulder here to make that decision. However, I have the confidence that you can make a decision here that should be made. And we want you, I want you, to run with the program, and I want you to know and I want the Administration to know that I will support you, I believe this Council in total will support you, and we must support you because there is no other option. We have no other option. The losses are too great, the suffering is too great, the loss control programs have to become more effective within the various departments.

And just prior to ending, I want to say there is one other big issue, I have always said it and I always will. When it comes to hiring procedures within city government, we need to become more and more sophisticated when it comes to hiring personnel. If you hire people that have a bad back the day they are employed, are they going to have a back injury? Probably yes. So let's not hire them for a position in which they must lift things. If we are going to hire them, let's hire them for a clerical position or something along those lines. We have to become more sophisticated in that area.

I support this legislation, and I am hoping, Director, that the Administration keeps Council intimately involved in the program as it goes on.

(End of remarks)

(Transcribed by Helen L. Kriebel)

Mr. DePasquale:

I just want to say we've strayed rather far from our field, and I think its time now to vote on the bills.

The Chair:

Okay, on the bill.

Michelle Madoff:

I have a comment on the bill.

The Chair:

On the bill.

Michelle Madoff:

On the bill. In the past there has not been very effective, if I may borrow a phrase from Mr. Wagner, checks and balances by the Administration on the administration of the Workers' Compensation program. We need to see that whoever gets this contract keeps their feet to the fire, and I understand that there's been a provision put in for removing, rescinding the contract at any time, and I think that as was stated by Mr. Wagner, I don't care who gets the contract, because if they don't do a good job, I'm going to be the first one you're going to hear screaming, and you'll hear me in Chicago, and we're going to see that whoever gets it does the proper job. It is inappropriate and illegal unless we change the system for this Council to choose who the contractor would be, and subsequently the minute we vote on favor of that, it's going to be the wish of this Council, we're going to find out who it is, and I'm dying of curiosity.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                 |                  |
|-----------------|------------------|
| Mr. DePasquale  | Mr. Pollock      |
| Mr. Lyons       | Mr. Wagner       |
| Michelle Madoff | Mr. Woods        |
|                 | (Pres't Pro tem) |

AYES 6                      NOES 2

(MR. COYNE AND MR. FERLO VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. Lyons presented

Bill No. 1158

Report of the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development for July 20, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1069

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 525, approved July 12, 1988, entitled: 'Providing for an Agreement or Agreements with the Pittsburgh Community Services, Inc., for the operation and implementation of a 'Citywide Food Distribution and Services Program' at a cost not to exceed $46,414.42,' by adding an additional $53,585.58." (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, there's a problem with Bill 1069 and I don't want to hold up this legislation, because the whole point of it is to try to get some money to the agency for the food pantries around the City. But, as of this morning and it's now been over three weeks, there's not money in this specific code account for the $53,585.58, and the sum of money that I believe they're waiting for has to do with a reimbursement from the federal government that they're waiting on in order to put money in that code account, and that could be like waiting for Godot, waiting forever of something that's never going to come.

In that respect, I would make a motion to recommit this bill because in effect what we've done by not having money in the code account for the $53,585.58 the Controller's Office cannot in effect honor the $46,414.42.

So, in passing this legislation today we basically created a dormant account that will not be able to be drawn down from as far as getting money to the agency, and I'd like to hear from the Administration on Wednesday what their intentions are. If they're waiting for many months for the federal government to reimburse this City Planning code account I don't think that's a good way to put money into that CDBG Reimbursement Trust Fund. There are other ways for the Administration to come up with their share.

I don't know if somebody is trying to embarrass our Mayor, who has made a commitment for the $100,000 or what. But, there's not money in this code account and it's a very awkward thing for this Council, and in fact, I don't think this Council's ever voted for legislation where the money was not in the account. Maybe we have, I've never been a party to that.

So, I'd like to recommit it just to hear on Wednesday.

Mr. Lyons:

On the bill, this has all been -- Mr. Ferlo is right but I've gone to the Administration and with Mr. Hughes, Miss Rabinowitz. They're perfectly satisfied in passing the bill, because we've all been promised that the money will be in place in the four or five weeks. Probably, three or four weeks now and they want the bill passed, and I see no reason why we should hold it up, and it's certainly been approved by the Administration that there would be no embarrassment, and the people that are concerned here with the hunger are perfectly satisfied. We met last week and discussed all parts of this bill that the money wasn't there, they want the bill passed, and they're perfectly satisfied as it is, and the Administration has promised us all, and I have no reasons to doubt them, that the money will be in place by the time they need it.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, in response the time to need is now. We are acting on legislation here. The Administration has made the commitment for $100,000, but they haven't taken the action to put money in the account. So, this is again another empty plate. I'd like to hear on a Wednesday meeting, that's why I'm making a motion to recommit it to see exactly what their intentions are. If they're waiting for this federal government check to come in in response to some money that the federal government owes City Planning for some helicopter study that was done I think maybe last year. It could be many months. It's not a good way if they're sincere about supporting the legislation. I would suggest that they put a different code account in there so that the money is in hand, right now, and can be used during the summer months. Otherwise this is a multi-month activity here. It doesn't make any sense.

The Chair:

Didn't you say that — I don't have it. There's $46,000 or something in there right now?

Mr. Lyons:

The $46,000 —

The Chair:

Right, and then they can draw down on it. Why don't we do this, pass the legislation, if its not there the other $53,000 in the four weeks that Mr. Lyons is referring to you can always amend this legislation, bring it back, amend it and get the $53,000 from some other code account.

Mr. Ferlo:

So long as we clear that in passing this we're also holding up the $46,000, because the Controller's Office when its amended and bound together with the other money the $46,000, they cannot in fact, draw down on the $46,000, because we've amended the legislation. So, we're hanging this up now for another month. If we do pass it now the $46,000 that we previously voted on, if we amend this and include the $53,000 we can't draw down on the $46,000, because we've created a new piece of legislation, and it would be basically held up until such time that there's money in the code account. Maybe there's the assurance but —

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, I differ here because the people who are going to administer it are well satisfied. Mr. Hughes and —

Mr. Ferlo:

That's not the issue, Mr. Lyons.

Mr. Lyons:

No, but they want it to go. They want it this way. This is the way they want it, and no one has been deceived. The money wasn't there but they want it to go through as it is, and they're the one's that's going to administer it, and is satisfied with it, I don't see why we should hold it up.

Mr. DePasquale:

I just want to say, I don't like to disagree with the Chairman of that committee, but I think what Mr. Ferlo is saying makes a lot of sense, and I think we should at least go one more week on the recommittal.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, I'd just like to agree with Councilman Ferlo also is that the Controller's Office can't draw down on its money once we create this new legislation.

The Chair:

Okay, there's been a motion to recommit. Is there a second?

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

The Chair:

All in favor of recommittal, roll call vote.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                 |
|----------------|-----------------|

AYES 5                      NOES 2

(MR. LYONS AND MR. WOODS-PRES'T PRO TEM VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1101

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with the Pittsburgh Public School District and/or other private for profit and non-profit entities to provide City of Pittsburgh JTPA or CDBG eligible youth with employment opportunities, work experience, labor market orientation, on-the-job training and/or classroom training in connection with the Pittsburgh Partnership Employment Program III and providing for the payment of the costs thereof,"

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1102

The Chair presents

No. 1235 Communication from Sophie Masloff, Mayor, City of Pittsburgh, returning with her veto Council Bill No. 708, entitled, "An Ordinance amending Title 10, Chapter 1013 of the Pittsburgh Code to allow public input into the Building Variance process.

Which was read.

(MAYOR'S VETO LETTER)

July 28, 1988

Dear Mr. President Pro tem and Members:

I am returning Council Bill 708 as vetoed.

The Board of Code Review unanimously held that it would not be cost effective to provide for the procedures outlined in the Bill and the Board's operation has been extremely satisfactory.

I concur in that assessment.

Very truly yours,

Sophie Masloff
Mayor

(END OF LETTER)

Mr. DePasquale moved to override the veto.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Point of Order. May we have a clarification of the intent of the bill, both what was intended by its sponsor and what is —

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I had submitted Bill 708, an ordinance basically amending the Municipal Code to allow for public input process into the Board of Standards and Appeals. I do not view this issue solely as a very narrow trade union issue; I view it as an issue whereby a public body should be held accountable and whereby those in the public, whether they have vested interests or not, should be able to have input into the decisions made by the Board of Standards and Appeals which is responsible, as you know, for granting variances to the Municipal Code.

Very simply, the essence of this legislation is the openness of formal meetings that take place once a month by the Board, as well as publicly notifying through the media as well as letting people know through the mail system, interested parties who may have an interest in various variances that might be granted by the Board.

This legislation, I believe, is cost effective. If there is some small amount of money needed because of the Administrative activities as suggested in the bill, then I believe the application, the permit, can be increased, the fee. And that's something the Administration should consider.

I'm disappointed at our Mayor and the Administration for vetoing this legislation; as well, they did not sign a second bill which became law without signature, and that is putting two members of the building and construction trades on the Board of Code Review. Again, two people out of a vote of 19 people is not a deciding factor; it does allow for public input.

So, I would ask my colleagues to please join me in overriding her Honor on this legislation, Bill 708.

The Chair:

I would also urge my colleagues to vote to override the veto. I think that when we discussed it a number of weeks ago at a Wednesday meeting, they admitted that it wouldn't be that much of a burden. They can advertise very freely; they can do it once a month and they only hear about eight to ten cases a month. So, I don't see that it will cost us any more than we are paying right now.

If you are in favor of the bill, vote aye. If you're against, vote no.

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion passed finally.

The Chair presents

No. 1236 Communication from Sophie Masloff, Mayor, City of Pittsburgh, returning with her veto Council Bill No. 849, entitled, "An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Ten, Building, Article III, Local Regulations, by adding a new subsection to the 1987 BOCA National Building Code which prohibits the use of plastic pipe, non-metallic tubing for waste, vent, drain, and water supply in all buildings except one and two family dwellings.

Which was read.

(MAYOR'S VETO LETTER)

July 25, 1988

Dear Mr. President Pro Tem and Members:

I am returning as vetoed Council Bill 849.

Council Bill 849 supplements the BOCA Code prohibiting the use of plastic pipe for any and all use in all buildings except one and two family dwellings.

I am vetoing the Bill because the City Solicitor has informed me that a ban on plastic pipe as set forth in Bill 849 is illegal because the City has no jurisdiction over materials used in plumbing and, even if it did, such a ban has already been struck down by the Courts.

Pursuant to Section 2219 of the Local Health Administration Law, 16 P.S. §12001 et seq., the sole authority for determining the suitability of plumbing materials is vested in the Allegheny County Health Department's Plumbing Board. Because the City has no jurisdiction over materials used in plumbing fixtures, Council has no jurisdiction to enact legislation dealing with plumbing materials.

Not only is the Bill illegal for that reason, it is illegal because, when the County Plumbing Board attempted such a ban, the Court declared such a ban to be illegal. In Home Builders Assn. of Pgh. v. Allegheny County Plumbing Board, 12 P.L.J. 344, the Court declared such a ban illegal because it found that such a ban had no rational relationship to advancing any public safety concern.

I am also vetoing this Bill because it would have an adverse impact upon both jobs and the availability of affordable housing to the people of Pittsburgh. The unnecessary increase in construction costs due to the outlawing of plastic pipe would mean that the cost of commercial and industrial construction would escalate. Since adjoining municipalities do not have similar restrictions, construction would shift to areas outside the City or projects that were location specific would be lost altogether. Construction and the permanent jobs of those who would work in those facilities would not be moved elsewhere.

While this Bill does not outlaw plastic pipe in one and two family dwellings, it does prohibit its use in multi-family construction. Both the construction and maintenance costs for housing for the elderly, Section 8 and public, as well as apartments, condominiums and other multi-family dwellings, would be greatly increased. This would make some projects unfeasible, and certainly such a ban would increase building and maintenance costs. These increased costs would be passed onto the residents, who, in some instances, are those who can least afford it.

Accordingly, I return Council Bill 849 as vetoed.

Very truly yours,

Sophie Masloff
Mayor

(END OF LETTER)

Mr. Coyne moved to override the veto.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. It is unfortunate that the members of the media, the owners of newspapers, the editors of newspapers, the people who run our television stations, were not present at a show and tell, some may refer to it as a dog and pony show, down at the Union Hall. I went to the showing with an open mind but with some great concern because I had supported Mr. Woods in his attempt to make our building safer. What we witnessed was a display of conduit through plastic pipe carrying electrical wiring. And what they did, if my memory serves me well and anybody else who was there can correct me, is to put a molly screw through, as if you were going to hang a picture. And what that did was break the connection and then they had electrical current put through that same wire and it smoldered, it smoldered in the wall, and it smoldered within plastic. And everybody with half a brain knows that plastic is a toxic product that is highly dangerous to human beings. Unfortunately, it also burns slowly, it burns in the wall, and the papers today have quoted someone as saying there's no reason to eliminate the plastic pipe; there was no reason for it because it only burns for a very short period time; 15 minutes. Well, 15 minutes is not a short period of time if you're on vacation; 15 minutes is not a short time if there's a child sleeping and a babysitter watching television in another room. And it would seem to me that we should air on the side of safety, not air on the side of well, it will cost us a little bit too much. Chicago has managed to survive using metal pipe.

My vote - and I can only speak for myself, I cannot speak for anyone else - is a vote in support of unions. To my knowledge I think I have been supported in ten years one time by unions. I'm voting simply because I saw with my own eyes a bolt, a molly screw put through plastic. I saw what was created; I saw the short circuit, and I saw the sparks causing fires.

If anybody in this room or any member of the media would like to take that kind of risk for their families - I think not. And my vote will be to override.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, not being on the previous Council where this bill was also debated, and I think there was also a public hearing, I want to make it clear that I'm supporting this legislation. I think it's important to override the veto. My main support for this legislation primarily is from the health and safety point of view. Having witnessed the demonstration of the Romex wiring and other wiring burning at a local union hall, the IBEW, it was very clear to me that the toxicity, the fumes that emanate out of this type of conduit is a major problem.

So, I want to make it clear in support of this legislation that I view it fundamentally as a health and safety issue involving people, whether they be workers who work in large buildings or people who frequent these large buildings primarily in the Downtown area who at some point, God forbid, may be confronted with a major fire. I think the toxicity issue, regardless of the two-hour presence of a fire wall, is something that is a threat to the health and safety and well being of people who supposedly come to work every day hoping that they're getting into an elevator and going upwards to floors that are going to be safe in the event of a fire.

It was less than I'd say ten years ago that the public health community and all the experts were debating the hazards of asbestos. Ten years ago it was unusual to hear about major problems and the whole effort around the cleaning up of asbestos took a 30-year period. The presence of asbestos and the health problems related to cancer resulting from asbestos was a 30-year effort by the public health community. It's only been recently, however, that the national and local municipal codes have been amended to take into consideration the health and safety hazards of asbestos.

I think in the same way we're at that beginning period now of viewing and perceiving the problems of toxic fumes. I think other cities will join the progressive legislation that we have passed in the City of Pittsburgh. Albeit that if one side effect happens to be the potential likelihood of increased union labor in taking part in the restructuring and the rebuilding of the Renaissance, and if that is a net side effect, what is so terrible about that? Is it so outrageous that there happens to be a side effect of guaranteeing that more people will have jobs and more work will be produced as a result of this ordinance? And my hope is that it will be local union labor. I don't see that as such a terrible thing and I don't see it as something that somebody in the Administration should go out of their way to be opposed to. I would think that that would be a wonderful net side effect to this legislation.

I just want to make it clear that in approving this legislation initially, I was never once contacted by representatives of the plastics industry. There was one comment made by a plastics spokesperson that they had no opportunity to speak. I'm lobbied every day on various issues; there are people here today in the audience lobbying on an issue. My door has always been open.

My phone is available; I'm listed in the phone book. People are always available on Council; I've never seen one Councilmember yet not willing to discuss an issue with anybody, regardless of the issue. So, I think it's important that we override the veto here today.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, in researching this bill in the past, it was passed before, a small segment of it. The erstwhile Mayor Caliguiri did not veto it and I cannot understand the advice that our present Mayor is getting when she had voted in favor of this previously. So, my interest is in the safety and the well being of all human beings. I see that my bill, in overriding this, would be for the health, the safety and the well being of the people of the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. DePasquale:

As Public Safety Chairman I dealt with the fire union that I discussed this with quite at length. I'm convinced that plastic pipe is a fire hazard and therefore, on those grounds alone, if nothing else, I'd have to vote to override the veto.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I voted for this bill before and I'll vote for it again this time. I have entertained lobbying from both sides. Those who manufacture plastic pipe have been in my office and those that are for the bill have been in my office lobbying for the legislation; plastic pipe people obviously lobbying against it. I have not had one real estate developer lobby me. I have not had one building owner lobby me. And I have asked for any cost analysis between the two various products. I have not received any. Is the one costlier than the other? I suspect so. However, I realize that there are financial interests on both sides of this issue for the plastic pipe industry and also for the building trades and the steel industry, the steel industry that wants us to stay with the metal product.

So, where do you go on the issue? It's not an easy issue; I know our Mayor has said that. We do not have jurisdiction over plumbing; that jurisdiction comes from the Health Department Plumbing Board of Allegheny County. If that is the case, so be it, and Council will not have jurisdiction over one portion of the legislation and the law will override whatever we do here. But I do know one thing; plastic materials, polyvinyl chloride, and PBCs do cause deaths. That's a proven fact. Whether or not it's from sofas or from piping, I don't really think is the issue. I think the issue is, how do you reduce the potential for loss of life. Do plastic pipes cause one percent of the deaths or do they cause ten percent of the deaths? I don't know; there's no good statistic on that either. But the fact remains that with high-rise buildings that are difficult to exit in the event of fire, the more you can do to reduce the potential of a fire, the greater potential there is to reduce the potential for loss of life.

That is the issue before this Council. I've been lobbied by both sides. When you're lobbied by both sides, you realize that both sides have an interest in the issue and you have to find some other reason to vote for or against the issue. I think the reason why I'm voting for it is the safety part of the issue. Nothing more or nothing less.

Mr. Pollock:

The issue of whether to permit plastic pipe is not as simple as one as it's being made out to be. That is why, when the bill was before this Council several weeks ago, I was forced to abstain. I had only returned to Council two days prior to both the preliminary vote and the final vote which occurred on the same day and I had not had time to study the matter fully.

I have since researched this issue and it is clear which way I must vote. I would like to present the rationale for my vote.

The major argument presented by proponents of the ban is that it will make buildings safer in the event of a fire. These individuals, and some of my colleagues on Council, argue that when the plastic pipe burns, it gives off toxins which are very dangerous.

There are numerous flaws in the proponents' position. First and most importantly, wanting to ban plastic pipe is like talking about what type of rope to use to retrieve the cow once it is already out of the barn. The primary goal of the City, of the Fire Bureau, and of the rest of the Department of Public Safety, and of this City Council, should be preventing fires. In that regard, all parties concerned will stipulate to the fact that sprinklers in buildings are the absolute best measure of protection against building fires. There is no requirement to sprinkle buildings and, unless plastic pipe is permitted, it is unlikely that any new construction project will be able to afford sprinklers.

Insofar as cost, I did research this and I've been informed by independent authorities that plastic piping is approximately one-quarter of the cost of the metal piping.

It should be pointed out that there has never, ever, in the history of fire record keeping, been a single person to die in a fire in a sprinklered building.

And isn't that the ultimate purpose, to save lives? The issue is not how toxic different materials are when they burn. The question is not which is less toxic, plastic pipe or galvanized sheet metal. The issue is, and should be, stopping fires before they begin and suppressing them as quickly as possible once they start.

Every material gives off toxic gases when it burns. The material in carpeting and furniture, even wood and other organic materials all emit toxic gases when they ignite. How can plastic pipe, behind fire proof safety walls, placed where there is no point of ignition, be a safety factor in light of what is found in every room in every building in this nation? It doesn't make sense. In addition, firefighters are required to wear safety masks when fighting fires. There is no doubt that a decision of this issue on the basis of safety must come down on the side of allowing plastic pipe. That is why almost no other city in the country, with the possible exception of one, has banned plastic pipe. That is why the National Fire Protection Association, the Building Officials Code Administrators, almost every fire department, and the National Institute of Building Sciences have all opposed the ban.

It should be pointed out that the National Institute of Building Sciences is an independent advisory group created by Congress which reports to the President of the United States and to Congress. It maintains that plastic pipe is desirable because it will lead to increased sprinklering and that is the ultimate goal. Even the head of the Chicago Firefighters' Union admits that sprinklers are the best fire protection tool and that plastic piping is much cheaper for the sprinklers. Insurance underwriters are in the business of analyzing risks; that's what they do for a living. They're the experts on this issue. They are more interested in the installation of sprinklers than in banning plastic pipe.

There are other reasons why I must vote the way I will. This ordinance is patently illegal. Court decisions, legal opinions, and a simple awareness of the law will reveal that this Council cannot ban plastic pipe in buildings. The decisions all go against the ban. It is irresponsible for this Council to defy all the authorities and pass an illegal bill when it knows so. Lawsuits will surely result, as well as claims for attorneys' fees and costs, and I believe that these actions will be successful. So, if this Council overrides the Mayor's veto, it will be subjecting the taxpayers to a loss of significant sums of tax dollars. It is totally irresponsible.

In addition, the issue of economic development should be considered. While I do not believe that such factors should come before safety issues, when the safety issue has already been addressed and muted, economic development considerations are indeed relevant. There is no doubt that if Pittsburgh becomes the only municipality in the state, if not the country, exclusive of Chicago, to ban plastic pipe, this will have a profound effect on development and our competitiveness in the market. New construction will be seriously affected. Work by non-profit groups which has been so important to the strength of Renaissance II in the neighborhoods will be greatly diminished, if not curtailed. The neighboring municipalities will reap a bonanza in new construction and development.

We've already done enough for the economic vitality and populations of our surrounding communities as a result of our dastardly wage tax, our oppressive business privilege tax and our regressive amusement tax. Do we have to do any more? Do we have to provide even further incentive for the location of businesses and development outside the City?

I talked to the chief person entrusted with economic development in the City of Pittsburgh, Dr. Evan Stoddard, the Director of the Economic Development Department of the URA. His quote was as follows: "This ordinance puts this City in a further uncompetitive position. It is difficult enough without introducing such arbitrary rules with no basis in fact."

I spoke to Mark Schneider, one of the true leaders in the City in the non-profit development realm. His quote was: "Given the nature of this City's physical plan, the City should concentrate on getting sprinklers in the older buildings than on banning plastic pipe in new buildings."

I would like to point out something else. Last year's vote on the smoking ordinance is quite relevant in examining what is behind the passage of this ordinance before us today. I mean no individual malice and I cite the previous testimony not to be confrontational or hostile. Indeed, it is not relevant who said this but it is revealing.

Members of this Council opposed the smoking ordinance despite all the evidence stating that passive smoke is dangerous to the non-smoker and they did so because it made the City less competitive to the municipalities around it. So, the smoking ordinance was opposed on the basis of economic development in the face of all the evidence indicating that restriction of passive smoke is necessary from the health standpoint. Yet, a ban prohibiting plastic pipe, even when the safety is, at the very least, unclear and actually quite clear that it is safer to allow plastic pipe, is voted for and all economic development issues are ignored.

Is there an inconsistency there? On the surface there appears to be, but even the most obtuse observer will recognize that one constant exists in these two votes. That is, the position of the local labor organizations. In the first instance, the local unions opposed the smoking ordinance and so Members of this Council either also opposed it or abstained. In the instant bill, the local unions favor the ban, so it was passed and the veto will probably be overridden. While I welcome the input from organized labor on all issues, I believe there is an undesirable message sent to the rest of the nation, to the country's businesses and industry, that Pittsburgh City government exclusively responds to labor's special interests.

The passage of this illegal, inappropriate and unjustified legislation and an override of the Mayor's veto send a message to the rest of this nation that Pittsburgh is a regressive City. As I have always done, I must vote my conscience, not my personal interests. I must vote on the merits of the issue as I have researched and found them to be, and I must vote to sustain the veto. Thank you.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. Pollock makes some strong statements and some good arguments with his position and I respect him for it. However, we've been given lots of reasons why to vote or not to vote on this bill and I think that the basic reason it comes down to is that we need to vote on it because it's the right thing to do. If it's a step in the right direction, I don't think it's regressive legislation, as Mr. Pollock terms it. I think, really, it's progressive legislation. I believe if we can save one life or if we can add to the safety of our residents or the people who are using the facilities in the City, it's something that this Council needs to do.

Economic development doesn't seem to be hampered in the past few years with the development of Fifth Avenue and the Fifth Avenue Building, Fifth Avenue Place and the CNG Tower, and I don't think it's something that will be seen as restrictive enough to keep out further development.

I think that the potential does exist for flames developing in a wall, even though Mr. Pollock stated that we can't be sure that there is not a point of ignition in the wall. What happens if there is a point of ignition in the wall and fumes do develop behind that wall and they come out and get someone?

I think the basic thing is that the safety issue, regardless of how hard we have been lobbied by the individual interests, that we need to do what we feel is right and I think voting to override this veto is the right thing to do.

Michelle Madoff:

I think if we were to look at the numbers in building a building over three stories, the difference between the plastic pipe and the metal pipe would not be a significant difference in whether the building were built or not built. But I know that when I'm in a building, and there's a building in this town that I thought of moving into and renting and I will not move into that building because I'm afraid after I saw the demonstration of unions who have never supported me, to speak of, but I saw with my own eyes. One picture is worth 1000 words. I wish the media would go and take a picture and watch and see what happens when you see smoldering between the walls and it can go on for hours before it catches fire and you may have a baby in that room, you may be having trouble breathing if you're asthmatic. It is strictly a matter of being leaders, not followers. In the environmental world, we passed some of the most stringent laws in this area because we had more of the problem than the federal government does. We cannot always be playing catch-up. The cost is not going to be of any significance. Smoldering in the walls is a reality. And I repeat; one picture is worth 1000 words.

I think Mr. Pollock believes what he said but I think he's wrong. I think we have to vote to protect, if it's one life or 20 lives or a building. As was mentioned earlier, the asbestos problem was not faced up to for many years because nobody wanted to remove it and the costs that it would incur. But the costs over the long run are far more in dollars than we would have had if we would have removed the asbestos much earlier.

I think this is a piece of legislation based on what is right for the nation. We're hopefully going to vote to ban the plastic pipe, not because its going to be a boon to the unions but because it's the right thing to do.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I'd just like to put a little more accuracy to some earlier statements by Mr. Pollock. He indicated that there is no point of ignition behind walls. Just about every electrical wire, 100 percent, in all buildings, are behind walls. Electrical wires and overloading electrical circuits is one of the main causes of fires. In addition to electrical wires being behind walls, there are duct systems. Just recently last week, the air conditioning system in the Grant Building caused a smoke fire. Whether or not it was related to the electrical wiring system, I do not know. But all of that is behind wires. There are no extinguishing systems behind walls. There are ignition sources behind walls. Therefore, when an ignition source begins, and if it's the overcurrent of an electrical wire and it reaches a combustible material which could be plastic, wood or whatever, a fire has begun and the sprinkler system does not even know the fire is going on until it reaches the area of the building where the people are. Will it put it out? Hopefully, yes it will. And I support sprinkler systems and I believe every member of this Council does and I know past Councils have passed legislation for smoke detectors in every building in the City of Pittsburgh, and everyone supports that. The public should be well aware that that is required in every building in the City of Pittsburgh, including residential buildings.

But the point still remains clear that extinguishing systems are not behind walls where ignition sources are. And the potential exists that with metal piping versus plastic piping, whether it be an electrical conduit or plumbing, that there is less potential for hazardous smoke to reach habitable areas of the building.

Historically, in the City of Pittsburgh, all buildings have been built with metal piping in the plumbing and electrical systems. Unless you go back to pre-Depression era, those buildings were built in this town and in suburbia. Will we add an additional burden in the future? The cost will probably be pretty much the same as it has been in the past. Is there an economic advantage as has been indicated? Yes there is, in plastic. And what has to be weighed is the life safety potential versus the economic advantage. That's basically what this issue is.

Mr. DePasquale:

I don't mean to elaborate but, as Councilman Coyne brought out, certainly Councilman Pollock made a lot of very good points and had me thinking a little bit here. But I think it all boils down to the bottom line, sprinklers versus a ban on plastic pipes. Until we get a sprinkler system, all we have to go on is the ban on plastic pipes. So, I have to go along with my overriding the veto.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Chairman, there's a point that I would just like clarified. A statement was made by Mr. Lyons, is it true, and I don't recall, that at the original vote that you introduced a year ago, I thought this was a moot issue. We already passed it; I don't know why we're going through this scene again. Did then Councilwoman Masloff who is now Mayor, vote to support the banning of plastic pipe?

Mr. Lyons:

Yes. I have the bill here.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay. Thank you very much.

The Chair:

I just want to say that I would encourage you all to override the veto also. I don't agree with many of Mr. Pollock's arguments but I'm not going to get into it. But the present Mayor did vote in favor of this legislation three years ago and Mayor Caliguiri, at the time, did not veto it. In fact, some of the same advisors that are advising our present Mayor were advising him, one of them that is saying now that it is illegal. Evidently Mayor Caliguiri didn't feel it was illegal or else he would have vetoed it and he has the same Solicitor three years ago as we have today. So, I urge you all to override the veto.

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

Mr. Chairman, Point of Order. I don't know if this is allowed but this has a companion bill and after the classic confusion everybody actually voted for my companion bill earlier. Some of you, at least my three colleagues to my left and the far end, voted to appropriate the money. Does anyone want to change their vote or I can presume that the Mayor is going to be vetoing the legislation, which I'm sure she's going to do, in which case my colleagues will then have an opportunity not to --

The Chair:

Anyone who wants to reconsider their vote can do that.

Mr. Pollock:

I make a motion to reconsider Bill 1015. I think some people voted erroneously. I know I did.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Point of Clarification. Mr. Pollock, do you mean to recast the vote now to correct the vote?

Mr. Pollock:

We have the right to do that if the motion passes.

Mr. Ferlo:

I have no problem with that.

The Chair:

On the motion to reconsider? All those in favor? Opposed?

Bill No. 1239

Report of the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development for July 27, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 994

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with Community-Based Organizations for community and economic development planning assistance in various neighborhoods in the City, in an amount not to exceed $360,000." (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, on Bill 994 regarding the neighborhood fund, I think it's important to note that we held this bill up for a couple of months because we were very concerned that Council be given information from Planning and the commission on community-based organizations regarding what organizations are to receive funding. We did receive this morning an indication that some $346,000 has been committed to 13 different community-based organizations around the City, leaving a balance of roughly $14,000.

I believe there's a community group in Hazelwood that Councilman Coyne has been working with and I would hope that Director Lurcott would work with that agency and possibly make a commitment towards $14,000 or some of that towards that neighborhood group because that's one area, as I look down the list of the 13 groups, that is not represented at all. I see the North Side disproportionately represented with over 40 percent of the share and it's probably because they're doing some very good work and they need to receive those funds. I don't dispute that.

Mr. Chairman, rather than read this list, and since we're not making an amendment to this bill, I would ask that we at least include this as a matter of public record relative to this Bill 994 before I can comfortably vote on it.

I make a motion to receive the report from Director Lurcott regarding the allocations.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

(LETTER REQUESTED BY MR. FERLO)

28 July 1988

Dear President and Members:

Listed below are the funding allocations made this past week by the Advisory Commission on Community Based Organizations for the 1988-89 funding year, which begins 1 September.

FERLO)

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 1021, as I understand it, it's the additional $200,000 for food for the hungry. Now, I repeat, and I want this as part of the Record, that the breakdown from the Administration and also the breakdown from Mr. Ferlo's office, using any and all dollars that have been assigned to either the actual purchase of food or support systems to distribute the food such as $35,000 for the Lutheran Services to distribute cheese and butter, came to a total of $261,876. It would seem to me, and a portion of that came out of operating dollars, tax dollars; not a large portion, it came from Unspecified Local Options and UDAG dollars.

I don't know how this City can justify spending more than $260,000 of our allocations because, whether it's federal or state dollars, it's still our tax dollars, and whether it's operating budget, it's still our tax dollars, to vote for an additional $200,000 which our Mayor has threatened to veto in any event.

As I stated the other day, any City that can afford to have $1 million medallions for the sports arena, where millions and millions of dollars, corporations came up with individual $1 million medallions, can certainly find somewhere in their budget an emergency dollar figure that they can contribute to the shortfall of $200,000 to get us through the year and I would like to see more like a half million dollars. I stated that if the Mayor were to pick up the phone and call the same companies that came up with the medallions, she would have absolutely no problem raising this money.

I have a very limited amount of time and a very limited staff, but I started to make some calls. I don't want to mention the companies and put them on the line, but I've had one definite commitment from a company and I've contacted seven of the Fortune 500. One of the persons who has served on the Pittsburgh Foundation Hunger Task Force that Mr. Ferlo talked about and which I'm just beginning to understand, I don't know what reason the Mayor felt that we should not go that route, but she wanted to go through the Pittsburgh Community Services, Inc. for distribution, but a gentleman who is on the task force has volunteered to help. I also have talked to the United Way representative; they have volunteered to help. He'll be on vacation until Thursday. And I'm going to help and I hope Mr. Ferio will help and I hope every other member of Council will break up this list. I'm using the Pittsburgh Business Times annual list of corporations and their phone numbers. I'm calling and saying, "Look, we have no time to apply for money through the traditional grants and filling out forms; there are hungry people out here. We need some money and we need it now." I have a gut feeling that if we all pitch in and go that route, we will not have to take the taxpayers' dollars, which we don't really have the right to use in a manner just because we want to help those needy. I could think of 100 other issues where I would like to take taxpayers' dollars and spend it that would be very helpful to the needy.

I would like to see us all pitch in. Let's call the corporations and raise the money; I think we can do it in 48 hours.

Mr. Ferio

In relation to this bill which supports the concept of a hunger act, this is an additional allocation of $200,000 from the City's general fund, the operating budget, taking money from unbudgeted staff positions that the Administration never has any intention of filling. So, allocating this $200,000 as a stop-gap measure to support the City's food pantries is not in any way going to jeopardize any Administrative activity or task that needs to be completed between now and the end of the year.

Michelle talks about spending the taxpayers' money. We in this legislative body, since January 4th, have spent taxpayers' money. Sometimes I've supported it and many times I haven't. We've supported concerts, we've supported car telephones in directors' cars, unnecessary automobiles, bond costs that were additional expenses that I don't really feel were justified. There's been unnecessary travel. We've wasted a lot of money. Michelle has talked at length, in particular, about wasted expenditures in Engineering and Construction on unnecessary consultants, consultants in City Planning. The list is endless, the amounts of monies I feel we've wasted and not spent wisely and I've voted no since January 4th on many of those appropriations.

We have a budget of $293.3 million in the general fund. In addition to that, we receive $15.9 million in federal CDBG funds to support activities in community development neighborhoods. Out of all of those resources, the only monies we are committing actually to food pantries and to feeding poor people and hungry people in this City is $140,872. Now, when you weigh that against over $300 million received, I think that's a piddly amount and I think it doesn't justify and doesn't warrant the kind of support that I think this Council should give.

What I'm asking in support of this $200,000 appropriation today, on top of the $140,000, is a commitment to address a problem, something that takes an emergency concern on the part of this Council and the Administration. I'm saying, make that stop-gap appropriation now while we have the money. It's not going to affect the bond ratings; it's going to lower, certainly, the unexpended fund balance by $200,000. The Administration says we're going to have a fund balance of $5 million. I will argue and I'll bet my next year's pay that our fund balance will be $8 million or $9 million. I hope I'm proven right, obviously, and I'm sure the Administration actually hopes that I'm proven right because they want to end the fund balance with a larger sum of money.

I'm saying, vote to support 1021, support a stop-gap measure. And I'm also saying, secondly, that as part of the annual budget proceedings, we talk about a way to commit at least a half million dollars in funds for next year's food pantries, whether it be public dollars, CDBG, the private sector or any other contributions we can make, including the check-off on the Earned Income Tax Form, the Employees' Donor Option, what have you. That's something we can plan and discuss at the end of the year for next year. But let's move to make a stop-gap measure and I ask you to support Bill 1021.

Mr. Wagner:

I'll be very brief. During this entire discussion I have not heard of one other municipality in Allegheny County that wants to contribute any dollars, I'm talking about one dollar, to this problem. I have not heard of the County wishing to ante up any additional dollars to cause the problem and, as we all know, it's a regional problem. I think that we should devote additional monies but it should not come from the operating budget; it should come from CD monies, if they are available, which are federal dollars coming to the City of Pittsburgh. I believe that's the purpose of those types of dollars and if there is a will, we will find a way to put more dollars in the budget for this purpose in the 1989 budget. However, I would request that we solicit other municipalities that are much wealthier than the City of Pittsburgh to address this problem and Allegheny County.

Furthermore, I'd like to state that there are some innovative programs that have been talked about recently and one was on 60 Minutes two weeks ago about the reclaiming of food not used in restaurants. I think the program that was initiated in the City of New York is an excellent program and could go a long way to address this problem. I don't know if it's been introduced in the City of Pittsburgh but, if not, maybe we should look at it and maybe we should help fund something to get it rolling, something of that kind.

Finally, if we have extra dollars in the budget, I believe that those dollars should be applied to the reduction of the wage tax, not the four percent wage tax because we don't have a four percent wage tax. The City of Pittsburgh has a 2.125 percent wage tax. And if we can do that, we should ask the School Board to reduce their portion of the wage tax also. Thank you.

Mr. Ferloc:

Mr. Chairman, on Bill 1021 I would like my comments brought forward.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I'll be voting against Bill 1021 as I did in Committee the last two times, and I would like my comments brought forward for the record.

Mr. Pollock:

Mr. President Pro Tem, there's no need to talk anymore. I've already made comments on Wednesday. Rather than repeat them again, there was only a couple paragraphs, I'd like them included in the Record for the final vote, please.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

---

(BEGINNING - MESSRS. FERLO AND WAGNER'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO.
1021 - WEDNESDAY, 7/27/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you Mr. Chairman. On the two new bills we have already by virtue of the fact of approving the 1069 or amending the previous legislation to Council the $46,000.00, we have allocated the $100,000.00 to the Pittsburgh community services.

The bills, 1015 and 1021 which I'm introducing for consideration here is to earmark an additional sum of money of $200,000.00 to the issue of hunger and rather than get into a debate with the Administration on who should handle the funds, whether it be the Hunger Fund or the Pittsburgh Foundation, what I've done here to go on line with what they have already done and what we have already done by creating a sum of money of $100,000.00 for the Pittsburgh community services. So this $200,000.00 that's created by 1015 and 1021 is an additional such that would be targeted to the Pittsburgh Community Services Incorporated.

Now very clearly this might cause some concern to the Administration and they might want to address this on the table but the moneys that I'm proposing to re-direct in the city budget are unexpended funds from appropriated staff positions that have not been filled in this year's budget. It does not mean by approving this money that the various department directors couldn't fill those budgeted positions if they want to; they can do it and do it starting July or August or the rest of the year. But by not filling budgeted positions since January First of this year, money has accumulated in these personnel code accounts, so what I'm basically doing is taking money out of that big city piggybank and making a stop gap, an additional appropriation given the fact that so many people express the concern about the need for the city to go above and beyond the call of duty to assist the food pantries throughout the city.

I think it's responsible for Council to consider this appropriation as a stop gap measure, taking the funds and recognizing that it's all we're doing is diminishing the amount of money that will be left in the fund balance, the surplus at the end of the year.

I would agree with the Administration that it would be irresponsible for us to continue that appropriation into the next budget year without an annual discussion at the end of the year on how these funds are going to be--how we are going to raise these funds and that gets into a question either of taxation and raising new revenues or better appropriating and targeting whatever moneys we want to spend at the end of the year. So I see them as two different discussions that need to take place. One is an approval of the $200,000.00 as a stop gap measure recognizing the calamity that people are in, in this city. At the end of the year as part of the budget debate I will raise for discussion the issue of spending city funds, both federal as well as operating, for a planned approach towards assistance for the food pantries and that's a discussion that can take place in a logical fashion at the end of the year as part of the annual budget debates. So at this time I would ask for Council to please support and consider passage of these two bills.

Mr. Chairman, in proposing this legislation, it is not my intent and nor would I even favor voting for anything that I thought would place the City in any type of fiscal bad posture. I don't see that happening at all in the appropriation of $200,000.00 out of the overall budget that we're talking about in the city. I would expect Director Turner to come to this table and I would hope that he would act like Mr. Scrooge. I have no problem with that. I would like him to play that role. That's his job and that's his role, we're a different body and we have a different standard. I do have problem with the Director acting like a fiscal obstructionist and I think that's basically what he's proposed here this morning.

First of all I would disagree with him (Turner) on the issue of the fund balance. Unfortunately he's the Fiscal Director and I'm a Councilmember, but I'll bet my next year's pay to Mr. Turner that it will not be $5 million and it will be more like $7 million or $9 million. That's first and I'm on public record. That's the first thing.

Secondly, we've already established a precedent. We've taken operating funds, general fund moneys and funded the Lutheran Service Society $35,000.00, so there's at least one precedent established by my esteemed colleague Mr. Woods. Fortunately earlier in the year of taking general funds and supporting a very similar effort in relation to distribution of food services and food stops to the hungry. So there's at least a precedent both from a legal point of view as well as the Administration should have probably have jumped up and down on that issue because they did open a flood gate maybe.

I would agree with Mr. Turner and I said that earlier and even my good friend Mr. Craig at the Post-Gazette. I would agree with them that it's irresponsible for this Council to appropriate money for new services, human services or in this case feeding people if in fact next year we did not talk about how we are going to pay for that. And there's two ways to do that. You can either raise revenues from various sources, hope you bring in new revenues or you have to realign your priorities.

I have voted since January 4th against hundreds of thousands of dollars of expenditures that the Administration has presented to this table. If you ask the general public, should we spend money--I'm talking about Pittsburgh residents, not suburbanites. If you ask them, should we spend $50,000.00 on noon-day concerts in Mellon Square or should we feed people in Hazelwood and Greenfield and Beechview and Brighton Heights and East Liberty and in Lawrenceville, I would suggest that they would say to forget about the noon-day concerts, let's feed people.

The time does not permit me to talk about wasted expenditures and misguided priorities that we've had to vote on since January 4th. So as far as I'm concerned this is a bunch of baloney about the issue of the available finances. And even assuming that Mr. Turner is correct, which I don't agree that he will be and the balance is $5 million, I'm saying let the balance at the end of the year be $4,800,000.00 and let's appropriate this $200,000.00 and let's engage in a dialogue and a discussion with the Administration at the end of the year on the issue of the 1989 budget and how much money will be spent on food and let them if it needs to be, take some of the $16 million CDBG grant and allot one-half million dollars from that since they've been uncooperative in at least trying to suggest new revenues such as the PGH-40 which they've acted as the legal obstructionist as well as the fiscal obstructionist. So if they want to come back and engage in some actual planning which I would like to do with the Administration, let that happen at the end of the year but this is a stop gap measure and we have the money, it's foolish to say to this Council that we're going to affect our bond rating and all the other hocus-pokus; that's just not the case and if anybody believes that then I have a bridge to sell you.

Mr. Wagner:

As Finance Chairman I'm going to have one brief comment and my comment is that that I believe Mr. Ferlo, you should be commended and obtaining $100,000.00 from CD federal moneys towards this project so far with the previous legislation that was passed. I for one as Finance Chairman do not agree that general operating moneys should be used for this purpose. I think the right term was used by Mr. Ferlo, realignment of priorities. If we want to obtain additional moneys for the hunger we should find additional CD moneys for that purpose. During this entire discussion Council, under the leadership of Mr. Ferlo, has come up with an additional $100,000.00 the Administration has agreed to that and I have heard no additional commitments from county government towards this obvious concern not only in the City of Pittsburgh but Allegheny County. We have 132 municipalities out there in addition to the City of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County, most of which are much more wealthy than the City of Pittsburgh; they have committed no dollars to this particular project. I firmly believe that we are doing a whole lot not only with the previous legislation with additional legislation that has been passed in the past and in the 1988 budget. I firmly believe that if we have an additional $200,000.00 or $1 million or $5 million it should be applied to a reduction in the wage tax. That has to be the number one priority in the City of Pittsburgh.

(BEGINNING - MR. POLLOCK'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1021, WEDNESDAY, 7/27/88)

Mr. Pollock:

I think that what has been said about the groups that are doing this work and about the issue is very important and very pertinent.

The problem of the hungry in Pittsburgh is extremely critical and I have served in the past on the Mayor's Commission on Hunger, so I'm well aware of the issue and the problem and the work being done is extremely vital.

But I have been the only member of this Council for the past two years who has voted against every grant and donation to social service agencies. And my reason for opposing this is because I do not view the City of Pittsburgh as a social service agency.

When I was elected to Council, I didn't feel that I was elected to be serving on a social service board. There are bodies entrusted with that duty. We have the United Way, we have the churches, we have foundations and we have the charitable arms of corporations and I think county government is much more entrusted with that role in city government. So when groups come before us saying this is a last resort and that if the City doesn't bail them out the doors will close and it puts Council and city government in an extremely painful situation and when I've opposed every grant in the past two years--as I said I'm the only one who has, it has not been without a great deal of pain and suffering on my part and pangs at my conscience, but I have to remember why I'm here and why City Council is here and why city government is here and until the City lowers the wage tax, addresses the problem of the business privilege tax.

As I've said before, City Council will be inkeepers for an empty inn, that there will be no businesses and no people living in the city except those who cannot possibly leave; the old, the hungry, the poor. And so it's almost a self-fulfilling prophecy that the longer we keep the four percent wage tax, the longer we keep the business privilege tax as it is, the more hungry we're going to have because that's all that's going to be left in the inner city.

Now, if we can lower the wage taxes which I will be proposing to do again, then I will seriously look at budget-time, looking at grants of this nature to social service agencies, but until that time, until we address the economic situation of this city, the City of Pittsburgh government cannot be put in a position of being a social service agency.

AYES 5                      NOES 3

(MICHELLE MADOFF, MR. POLLOCK
AND MR. WAGNER VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1105

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with the Pittsburgh Community Services, Inc., for the implementation of the Home Security Program including Block Watch Organizers, and the installation of locks and smoke detectors in the City, in an amount not to exceed $280,000.00."

Which was read.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. Chairman, I'd like to thank Director Lurcott for providing us with the information that was requested by Council as to where these monies for the community groups are going. I think this is the way that vote should be established in this Council, that Council doesn't have any part in decision-making but we should know where the monies are being spent prior to them going out. I thank him for that information.

Also,

Bill No. 1106

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with the Port Authority of Allegheny County for a continuation of the Hill District and Oakland Loop Bus."

Which was read.

Mr. Coyne:

On Bill 1106, the Port Authority of Allegheny County, the supplement for the bus in the Hill District, the letter we have from the City Clerk says that Bob Fulton from the Port Authority was on vacation last week and was not available for additional information. As I stated last week, I'm not questioning whether this area needs this bus but the service was established, I believe, ten years ago and I think at some point we do need to look into whether there are other points of the City that could benefit from this program or is this program still needed in its present form.

So, I would ask Council to recommit this until Wednesday so we could possibly get further information from Bob Fulton of the Port Authority on the legitimacy of continuing this operation.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, I would not like to see this bill deferred. If there's any problems, then I would say let's pass it and correct it during the interim of the next year. The bus is used every day. Every bus is used; it's not a matter of one or two people riding the bus.

I would like for my comments to be brought forward from last Wednesday on the bus. It's needed, it's for the poor people, and certainly I hope that we're not deferring or letting things off because the neighborhood is about a 90 percent black neighborhood which is poor and poverty stricken and they need the use of this bus. Certainly, I hope this is not the cause for trying to defer it (BEGINNING - MR. LYONS' COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1106 - WEDNESDAY, 7/27/88)

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, I am very much in favor of the bill. The poor people and the very below-average income are black people that come from the Hill District and they have no other way of transportation. They can't make it anywhere to go shopping, going to the medical center and other necessities that they need to survive and I think this is--I don't see anything wrong with the people because we're helping the people of City of Pittsburgh and this is a poor people and certainly I think my colleagues should pass this bill.

Mr. Chairman, I would say on this bill here is in a very high depressed area. I hope the reason they're not in favor because of majority of the people I hope I am wrong are black.

I don't want see the discrimination of that kind and it should be allocated because the people need the transportation to secure the food and I say past bill now and Mr. Lurcott would get what we need by Monday and if he doesn't we will take another position.

PREPARED BY: MARY ANNE BRUSKA, STENOTYPE REPORTER 1

Mr. Ferloc

Mr. Chairman, on the motion to recommit, for purposes of further discussion, I just want to say something very clearly in terms of my final vote on this legislation. As somebody who sat on the Model Cities Commission years ago and as a community organizer in Oakland who helped to actually initiate the 84E Oakland Loop Bus in addition to the 84C Support, I'm not going to do anything that's going to jeopardize the operation and continuation of those buses. That's really not the issue today. The issue is to have a discussion with the Port Authority regarding several issues, one issue being why, after ten years, does there need to be a continued subsidy of this bus when, in fact, by PAT's own figures, 426,912 people ride the 84C and 98,480 ride the 84E. The issue really is, after ten years of public support from federal dollars, why can't these buses be mainstreamed into the continued operations of the Port Authority? I find it very upsetting that we in the City must support suburban buses which sometimes have one, two, five, ten people riding on them.

Again, there's no issue that these buses have to be supported and we should not do anything that would jeopardize or threaten their discontinuation. The issue really is whether or not we in City Council can discuss this issue, receive the financial data from the Port Authority. And the other motive I have, quite frankly, is that if we did not have to give the $200,000 to subsidize PAT, we have $200,000 to support other types of housing, community development activities in the Hill District. And that's partly why I would like to at least hold off and discuss this with the Port Authority regarding the issue of how much it costs to operate the bus and how much do they take in in revenues.

Michelle Madoff:

I think Mr. Ferlo makes a very good argument but I've been here for ten years and there's no doubt in my mind that that bus needs to be there. I think we ought to keep the bus in place until the end of the year, before budget hearing meet with the Port Authority, and find out whether Mr. Ferlo's contention that there needs to be a trade-off. We subsidize suburban buses that have one or two people; they can certainly subsidize the dollars that are needed to go into the Hill Loop Bus. I don't have a problem with it but I think it would be unconscionable for us to deal with it by removing this dollar figure at this point. I think we ought to leave it in tact and decide what we ought to do in '89 budget and not touch this now and have the President of Council set up a meeting with Port Authority.

Mr. Ferloc

Point of Order, Mr. Chairman. The issue is really on recommitting the bill for discussion, not voting yes or no on the allocation. I'm in favor of the allocation. I'm only supporting a motion to recommit for discussion.

Mr. DePasquale:

I just want to say the arguments for recommitment convinced me that we shouldn't recommit the bill because they gave some very strong arguments that the program should continue. However, we want to look into the financial aspect and the operation and what have you. And as Mr. Lyons pointed out, those are facts and figures that we can get as the year goes by and then next year and make a determination whether the system should continue or not. But at the present time there's really no need for a recommitment and we should pass on this bill.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, first of all, I highly resent Councilman Lyons' accusation or attempted accusation that any part of this recommittal has anything to do with racism. I think this Council needs to operate with an open mind. I think this Council needs to make decisions based upon facts and figures placed in front of it in a professional manner. And if Councilman Lyons chooses to make his decisions based on his emotions and his feelings, that's his priority and it's up to the voters of the City of Pittsburgh to answer to Mr. Lyons at election time. But I think the rest of us have a responsibility to look at facts and figures and to make our decisions as to what can benefit the City.

And as Mr. Ferlo brought up, we're not asking for this money not to be given; we're just asking for it to be recommitted until Wednesday so that we can talk to the Port Authority and see what they can possibly do to help alleviate our problem here in the City.

Mr. Lyons:

Point of Order. I brought no racism into it. I'm just stating the facts. The facts are there; there's nothing that I'm making any implication of. There are poor people that need the use of that bus and I want to see that bus stay in place.

Michelle Madoff:

Point of Clarification, Mr. President. If we vote on this bill today, this doesn't remove it from '89, does it?

The Chair:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

It says agreement with Port Authority for a continuation. Is that for the continuation of '88 or '89?

The Chair:

'88.

Let me explain something. If you recommit this bill, it just means you're going to discuss it again. I will ask you not to recommit the bill. We already have it in the budget for 1988. We'll be going into the budget process in a few months; right after election, November 10th or 11th we start our budget deliberations. And then we can bring this up and we can get Port Authority in here and we can talk at length about this issue. But I would ask you now not to recommit, vote the recommittal down and pass this piece of legislation. Very shortly we'll run into budget; it's only a few months away and we can really get into the situation.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I think you raise a good point. I have no problem in not discussing this on Wednesday but I would like it discussed at the end of the year. And also I would like an invitation to go to any and all interested parties in the Hill and the South Oakland community to discuss the issue of subsidy versus other kinds of economic development projects that might be desired.

The Chair:

Do you withdraw your motion to recommit?

Mr. Coyne:

I'll withdraw it.

Mr. Ferlo:

I withdraw my second.

Also,

Bill No. 1107

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution approving a Conditional Use Exception under Section 993.01(a)A(8) of the Pittsburgh Code, Title Nine, Zoning, Article V, Chapter 993 to the University of Pittsburgh and Presbyterian-University Hospital of Pittsburgh for authorization to construct an eight (8) level building with a seven (7) level hospital parking garage; and a one (1) level sports center. The property is the site of the University of Pittsburgh tennis courts, and has frontage on the easterly side of ROBINSON STREET EXTENSION, 5th Ward."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1069

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 525, approved July 12, 1988, entitled: 'Providing for an Agreement or Agreements with the Pittsburgh Community Services, Inc., for the operation and implementation of a 'Citywide Food Distribution and Services Program' at a cost not to exceed $46,414.42,' by adding an additional $53,585.58." (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills

pass finally?"

(BEGINNING - MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1147, WEDNESDAY, 7/27/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

I wrote two notes down on this bill, one was union labor and two is to thank you. But by way of illustrations, since I see another Director here from another department, this is exactly what I've been trying to illustrate all along and that is the point of doing some of these projects utilizing local union labor - in cooperation with local union labor instead of going out on contract and consultants, ad infinitum.

Here's a good illustration of a deal that's been worked out. It's a very creative deal and even though we're paying the union wage and I believe, Mr. Sciulli, also a 25 percent fringe on top of that, it is still lower than if this were going to be let out on bid on contract and I would hope that the Administration would go back to their meeting room and use this as an illustration in the future for other kinds of activities in Engineering and Construction and Public Works and elsewhere of an example that we can do it in other departments; case in point is the McArdle Roadway sidewalk and there's 50 other examples.

So I want to say thank you very much to this Department Director and I hope that it's a vehicle by which the Administration would at least evaluate their approach in Public Works and in Engineering and Construction and see if this can't be a model to do likewise on development projects. So thank you, Director.

(MR. LYONS' AND MR. FERLO'S REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGE)

(BEGINNING - MESSRS. LYONS AND FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO.
1092 - WEDNESDAY, JULY 27, 1988)

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, as I see this, we still have a bill that hasn't been taken care of and we are still piling fire stations and police stations to be refurbished when we don't have--nothing has ever been done and the Council passed on Troy Hill on Fire House No. 51 on the Troy Hill and I'm interested in that. Not that I wouldn't vote for that but why hasn't the Troy Hill Station been taken care of, Mr. Director, and we're still adding fire stations and police stations for refurbishing?

The Chair:

Director, is that part of this legislation?

Dir. McDermott:

No, it's not. That question would have to go to the user department.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'm also voting no on this probably because of that reason but again I draw to the illustration. This is an exact illustration of the potential for local union labor to do this work in a very similar scheme. We're going to hire a contractor, probably most likely it's non-union labor, most of them do not live in the city. This is an excellent example, an illustration, whereby we could use a similar method that we just voted on with the union plumbers. Now we can't do that on many things, massive construction projects, maybe massive bridges, God knows what but on this type of an activity, the masonry and the pointing and the concrete aprons, waterproof ceiling, this is an exact illustration of the ability to use local union labor, city residents, at a cost that would be cheaper and would have more impact at keeping the dollars in the city. So on that basis I'm voting no on this legislation.

Mr. Pollock:

Point of Order. We can bring this up again.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

The Chair presents

No. 1243 Resolution appointing Councilman James Ferlo as a member of the Pittsburgh Equipment Leasing Authority for a term to expire January 1, 1993.

Which was read.

Mr. DePasquale moved to approve the appointment.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, first of all, I want to thank the Mayor for the appointment; I will accept it. It does not change the basic concerns that I have; I am still opposed to the unnecessary bond issue for the Equipment Leasing Authority. I still have fundamental problems with the fact that we have an authority. I don't see a contradiction in accepting the appointment, though, because, unfortunately, I was overwhelming voted down on my concern and I believe that since I was granted the appointment, I will obviously seek to have some input on the acquisition of vehicles for the City and I believe I will make a contribution to that effect.

I think, more importantly, I will seek to open up and make the Equipment Leasing Authority a little more accountable. We've had discussions in the past about the fact that minutes have not been kept at the meetings. There's generally a lack of public accountability. You can certainly bet that if I'm on the authority and attending meetings, that the media and the public will be informed as well as this Council of the decisions and activities of the authority.

So, I want to thank the Mayor for the appointment. I want to make it clear, also, that it's not the appointment I requested. I did request to be placed on the Alcosan authority. Needless to say, they do not want a consumer advocate like myself on that authority because that's probably another authority that I would probably seek to have disbanded.

But if there are other considerations in the future for Water and Sewer, I'm certainly ready, willing and able.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President and members of Council, the appointments by the Mayor were made on July 29th. I believe that was this past Friday. I got a call at my home from Mr. Jacoby; I had a terrible headache and could barely talk to him. I said, "I can't talk to you right now; I will let you know. I will think about this and get back to you." I recalled, as soon as my headache subsided, I took three aspirin, that on July 7, 1988, that's two and a half weeks prior to my phone call Friday morning, I had sent a letter to Sophie Masloff and I sent copies to all my dear colleagues, President of Council, and I hand delivered a copy to Mr. Jacoby. The letter read as follows, and I would like it as part of the record. And this is dated July 7, 1988, not the day that I was called and notified of the other appointments to the Water and Sewer Authority and to Alcosan.

"Dear Mayor Masloff:

My appointment to the Equipment Leasing Authority began in February of 1986 and expired in December of 1986. After repeated requests to the Administration to reappoint me to the Authority and after 19 months of no response, I assumed that my reappointment is not forthcoming.

I suspect I was not reappointed so I could be removed at will, should I not vote the Administration's views. This is not acceptable to me; therefore, I wish to have my name removed from consideration for reappointment.

Further, on reflection, it seems to me that the Home Rule Charter should be amended to eliminate the appointment of any Councilmember to any authority. The potential for cronyism, patronage and personal gain is greater than the benefits of having a Councilmember sitting on a board voting for the purpose of representing City Council. Alcosan, the Public Authority, are two prime examples.

While authorities are autonomous, there are those who would argue that they have a Councilperson as a member of an authority is beneficial. I believe the potential for abuse far outweighs the benefits we would accrue.

I would urge Council and the Administration to seek the removal of mandatory appointments of Councilmembers or any elected official. Authorities should truly be anonymous."

Now, again on the 29th when I got my phone call I sent a note about an hour later to Mr. Jacoby.

"Dear George:

It is with deep regret that I must decline your appointment of me to the Board of the Water and Sewer Authority.

As you are aware, on July 7, 1988 I had my name removed from consideration for reappointment to the Equipment Leasing Authority in a letter I sent to Mayor Masloff. The reasons stated have withstood the test of time and are as valid today as they were three weeks ago.

While I would still have to decline, I am nevertheless amused at the political gamesmanship removing Jack Wagner from the Water and Sewer Authority to serve on the Board of Alcosan. If the Administration truly wanted the person on Council who has worked on the problems of Alcosan with a cadre of resource people during my environmental days, I would have been asked to serve on Alcosan.

Having watched the political shenanigans of Alcosan for ten years, I would nevertheless have had to refuse even this appointment. I repeat, no elected official should be appointed to any board or authority with the potential for cronyism and patronage.

My reason for declining any appointment to any board or authority will not change. I would urge those who share my viewpoint to seek the removal of mandatory appointments of Councilmembers or any elected official to authorities and pass legislation which would provide volunteers in the private sector, particularly academia, who could make meaningful contributions through their knowledge and experience in dealing with specific problems of any board or authority.

Wouldn't it be in the best interest of the community to have a scientist from Pitt's outstanding Water Airborn Research Department to serve on the Water and Sewer Authority? Pitt has the finest mass spectrometer equipment in the country and the best qualified scientist, perhaps, in the world. Carnegie Mellon and Pitt both have epidemiology departments whose members could be eminently suited for appointments to either Alcosan with its odor problems or the Water and Sewer Authority dealing with water contaminant problems.

Pittsburgh is also blessed with outstanding colleges and professors of economics who would be ideal to serve as contributing members of the boards and authorities.

I could go on and on in this vein but I think the message is clear. Let us not taint our boards with cronyism and patronage."

And if memory serves me well, during the whole Alcosan fiasco, either the Press or the Post made a statement that they felt in an editorial that the best people to serve on the boards would indeed be the university people who have no political gain.

I just wanted that to be included in the record today because one of my colleagues feels that I am terrified that he is going to run for Mayor and the reason I am attacking everybody is because I am thinking about running for Mayor. Frankly, according to our poll, it would help me greatly if he would reconsider and run. It would help the vote. I think the whole thing is absurd. I don't think anyone should have the opportunity to be labled as having had undue influence. That's my personal opinion; I'm entitled to it. You're all entitled to your opinions as you see fit.

The Chair:

Before you speak, Jack, just let me remind you that we're not even on your appointment yet; we're still on Mr. Ferlo's. Ms. Madoff went off the drift but I let her go.

Mr. Wagner, you have the floor.

Mr. Wagner:

Thank you, Mr. President and members of Council. First of all, I'd like to state that I support Mr. Ferlo's appointment to the Equipment and Leasing Authority and I think it's very important that we have an active Councilmember on the Equipment and Leasing Authority. I would refer to the Charter in terms of appointments to all authorities, and in Section 219 of the Charter, "Appointment and Terms of Members of Authorities - The Mayor shall appoint all members of authorities subject to approval of Council except as otherwise required by law. They shall serve for terms as provided by law."

In Section 220, "Composition of Authority Boards - A member of Council shall serve on each authority board; however, no member of Council may serve on more than one authority board at the same time."

The Mayor is required, according to this Charter, to appoint a Councilmember to each and every authority. The Mayor has no other choice. And it is the Mayor's total jurisdiction as to who is appointed to what authority. That legal opinion has been granted to us in the past and it still holds true today. Therefore, the position that I took going back several months ago that everyone agreed upon, this Council, the Administration and many others in the past, that it was a Councilmatic appointment to the Alcosan Board, is not true. It is a mayoral appointment. I brought that to the floor; I brought that point up and it held in terms of legal opinions. That was a valid point and it is backed up by the Charter.

In terms of Mr. Ferlo's appointment to the Leasing Authority, I think it's very important that the Mayor appoint people that attend meetings at authorities. If a Councilmember does not attend a meeting and does not attend authority meetings in general, I don't believe they should serve on that authority. In essence, the leasing authority has been unrepresented by Council for two years, even though Councilwoman Madoff complained for almost a decade to Mayor Caliguiri to be appointed to an authority, and he did appoint her to that authority on June 23, 1986, and she attended a meeting on that day. After that day, there were six meetings of the Leasing Authority that this Council was unrepresented on the Leasing Authority. Therefore, the attendance record of Councilwoman Madoff on the Leasing Authority was one meeting out of seven in two years. In other words, an 85 percent absentee rate.

The only reason why I bring that up is because it's very important, according to the Charter, that this Council have representation on that authority. There have been very critical issues that have come up such as the lack of radios in Public Safety, of which this Council does not vote on. This Council knew nothing about the issue because there was no one there to represent Council. There were no checks and balances; there was no public forum on the issue.

Therefore, I strongly recommend, in all appointments to all authorities by the Mayor, confirmed by this Council, that Councilmembers attend the meetings. It is the only way this Council can bring issues back to Council to be discussed in a public forum. Therefore, I strongly recommend the appointment of Mr. Ferlo because I am certain he will attend the meetings of the Leasing Authority and I would ask for all Councilmembers to vote in favor of it also.

The Chair

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

AYES 7 NOES 1

(MICHELLE MADOFF VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion was approved.

The Chair presents

No. 1244 Resolution appointing Councilman Jack Wagner as a member of the Allegheny County Sanitary Authority to fill the unexpired term to expire December 31, 1989.

Which was read.

Mr. DePasquale moved to approve the appointment.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. I just want to point out that while Mr. Wagner, if we're using names here, is pointing out my shabby record of having not attended the Leasing Authority meeting and since there were only three meetings in all of '86 during the time I was appointed and not the eight meetings he would like you to believe, it's the usual distortion. My father had a wonderful expression: "You can always protect yourself from a thief, you put it away; but there's no protection from a liar."

Now, Mr. Wagner is a very smart man. Mr. Wagner is smart enough to know that he can get his brother a job working for Mr. Flaherty and I'm terrified of what he's going to do when he's on Alcosan.

The Chair:

You're out of order, Ms. Madoff.

Michelle Madoff:

Fine. I'm out of order. I'll yield.

The Chair:

I just want to tell everyone this. We are talking about this appointment. I let everyone get adrift a little bit. But when you bring up other subjects not related at all, you're going to be out of order and the next one that does it, when I rule you out of order, if you get personal, you will be fined.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, whether some of us like it or not, Alcosan exists and it happens to be a very important authority. I did attend a meeting the other evening with Councilman Wagner in the South Hills area, in fact, in front of the Overbrook Citizens' Council, and it was clear to me that he was very knowledgeable about a particular problem confronting that community and a very large part of the City and that's the Saw Mill Run problems and it's clear to me that Councilman Wagner is very knowledgeable about this issue in particular. I would say because of that, and his general knowledge of some of these issues, but I think more importantly, it's been clear to me in the brief time that I've known the Councilman, that he's someone who always attends meetings, unless he's in the hospital and so far that hasn't happened. But more importantly, I think Councilman Wagner has worked overtime in trying to inform the public as well as this Council of issues that are before both this legislative body as well as the authority. We can run from a fight or we can dig in and try to make a contribution to an authority that has a very important mandate of delivering services to residents in the City and the County. I think the authority is well-served by the addition of someone like Mr. Wagner, specifically on the Alcosan.

I think it's very important also to point out, and I disagree with my colleague, Michelle, I'm very glad, fortunately, that the framers of our Charter saw fit to have Council representation on all of the authorities because I think it does begin to inject some level of checks and balances. It's very clear to me that the authorities are becoming more and more secret governments operating without the kind of public input and accountability that there should be and I believe Mr. Wagner will help turn that about at Alcosan in particular.

Mr. Pollock:

I think it should be pointed out that one member of this Council has been fighting the Alcosan battle far before anyone got involved, far before the media, far before the County government, far before any Federal investigators, any County investigators, and that, of course, is Michelle Madoff. She was fighting as a lone wolf in the wind, if you will, and has a record of monitoring Alcosan and making noise about it and attending their meetings and testifying about what is going on there far before anyone. If fact, everyone was jumping on her bandwagon when it was convenience and popular to do so. I think that Mr. DePasquale, who served on there for a long time, will admit that clearly she was a thorn in his side for many, many years before anybody else jumped on the bandwagon because it was the political expedient thing to do.

One can say what one wants about Michelle and her many peccadillos and I'll be the first to admit that they do indeed exist. But I think that for this appointment to Alcosan there is a clear, clear choice for who it should be --

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, Point of Order. The choice before us is to confirm the appointment from the Mayor. The issue is not to support or reject my colleague Michelle. If that is the issue before us, I would like to talk about it and I have some good things to say about Michelle. But, unfortunately, that's really not the issue before us.

Mr. Pollock:

Do I have the floor?

The Chair:

He had a Point of Order; I listened to his point.

Mr. Pollock:

Now I have a Point of Order.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'm asking the Chair, isn't the Point of Order relative to whether or not we confirm or reject the appointment of Mr. Wagner? That's really the issue before us.

The Chair:

I think Mr. Pollock is skirting on the issue, so I'll let him go.

Mr. Pollock:

I think it's clearly more relevant than Michelle's attendance record at the Equipment Leasing Authority as when

Mr. Ferlo was being considered. What was the relevance to Mr. Ferlo?

The Chair:

Get back to Alcosan.

Mr. Pollock:

I think that there is a clear choice for the most appropriate member who has an impeccable record as far as watchdog, who has never gotten jobs for anybody. What Alcosan needs right now is a watchdog. It needs somebody to go in there, go through the payroll, go through the spending, and there's only one person on Council, including myself, who is qualified for that position. I'm very disappointed that Michelle was not appointed and it's a very misguided, ill-advised appointment.

Michelle Madoff:

I want to repeat that while it is true that I would believe I'd be the most qualified, I would still turn down the appointment. I said so three weeks ago before this appointment was made. And I support the printed media when they said what we need to do is to get someone who has no political influence, no political concerns, somebody like Dr. Moyshi Shapiro from Pitt who is an expert in Water, some of the economic people, even some professions. Anyone to make sure we have a cadre of very experienced people who wouldn't care about the political shenanigans or looking to put people into patronage jobs who will be equally interested in protecting the integrity of Alcosan the same as I was ten years before I got to Council when I started with GASP and we used to watch Alcosan. We used to refer to Alcosan as Alcostench and that much hasn't changed, I might admit. It's been a hard battle. One could ask where was the County Controller. Before he was invited to come in and do an audit, where was he?

I don't want the appointment; I wouldn't accept the appointment. I am making the point only that I would like the Administration, the Mayor, to present a mechanism to change the Home Rule Charter that would provide for people who have absolutely no ax to grind except to lend their expertise, expertise which I have but certainly not to the degree of some of the experts that have been resource people to me to serve on all of these boards and commissions.

Mr. DePasquale:

The only comment I had to make was that I think it's appropriate at this time that Jack Wagner be appointed to the Alcosan Board in regards to the Saw Mill Run Creek situation which probably Councilman Wagner was more concerned and more active than anybody here on this Council.

I don't want to belabor the point but Saw Mill Run was always a problem for the City of Pittsburgh. It was their responsibility; it's right in the Charter. It's only recently that Alcosan took over that responsibility and are now ready to address it. In fact, a report or a consultant study should be handed in very shortly. I believe there's something like $15 million available. Now remember, we're talking about anywhere from $30 million to $300 million to do that job. So, obviously, we're not going to raise $300 million but they can possible raise $30 million or $40 million through a bond issue or whatever, and finish that job or do it right for the first time in I don't know how many years. I'm glad that Jack Wagner will be on that board.

We've talked about this, Jack and I, a couple of weeks ago and Jack had some reservations about going over there. I pleaded with him to go over there because of the Saw Mill Run situation and I'd like to see that thing followed through. I would have liked to have been there myself to follow through but, at the same time, if I can't, I'm glad Jack Wagner is the person that's going over there.

I might want to add that in 14 years of serving the Alcosan Board, I had never missed one meeting.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, first of all, thank you, Mr. DePasquale and Mr. Ferlo. I also appreciate that Mayor Masloff has chosen me for this important position.

I would like to read a news release that I put out Friday as a result of this appointment. It reads as follows:

"I am pleased that Mayor Masloff has carried out the original recommendation of Mayor Caliguiri on his appointment to the Alcosan Board. I consider this seat on the Board to be an important position and a challenge.

As the representative for City Council, I have not only the interests of City ratepayers at heart but all who are served by the system. My record and work ethic on City Council reflects a responsible and professional attitude toward the public and I will bring the same to the Alcosan Board.

Areas that I will address as a board member concern proper management, fiscal responsibility, the on-going emission of stench from the treatment plant that affects not only the North Side residents but other City neighborhoods, and the clean-up stabilization and opening of economic development opportunities in the Saw Mill Run Basin.

Once again, I am pleased to have the opportunity to serve on the Alcosan Board and look forward to my first meeting."

I would like to further add that in serving on the Water and Sewer Authority for four years, I have done that diligently and professionally, many times the Administration did not like my vote on the Water and Sewer Authority and even some members on the authority. But I personally brought, I believe, checks and balances to that authority and I hope to do the same on Alcosan.

I was not an expert on water; I'm not an expert on anything. But I do know that I have a logical mind and I have an open mind and I will go to Alcosan with an open mind and, believe me, I will know Alcosan inside out and backwards in six months. I commit that to all of you and I commit that to the residents of the City of Pittsburgh.

The Chair:

I just want to say something. As much as I hate to see you leave, Jeep, and I know you did a good job over there and you were really concerned about the neighborhood I live in that does get all the smell, I'm glad to have you on that board, Jack, because I know when you make a statement you follow up with it. You're a hard worker; you're one of the hardest workers on Council, if not the hardest worker. I know the residents of the 27th Ward, especially Brighton Heights, will be happy that you're on that board.

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

AYES 5                NOES 2

(MICHELLE MADOFF AND MR. POLLOCK VOTING NO)

(MR. WAGNER ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion was approved.

Michelle Madoff:

On another matter. Mr. President and members of Council, I came by this information in a very strange way. I had a phone call at my home from a woman who didn't want to talk on the telephone. She said, "I have some information for you but we can't talk on the phone." I said, "Can you give me some idea of what it is?" because I thought maybe she was a little flaky. She said, "Well, I have been trying to buy airport bonds." And I don't know if people know this but there were $550 million worth of bonds that were issued

Mr. Lyons:

I think it was $524 million. They brought them back because they had to reconstruct it.

Michelle Madoff:

There were over $500 million worth of bonds for the airport and they are paying on bonds as much as 8.2, a little bit more than that for going out for a longer period of time, tax exempt. I had called my brokers to see if I could get any, he put an order in, when the issue was going to be put out. I called to see what it would pay because, if anybody's aware, there's very, very little action in the bond business out there; there's very little tax exempt business today. It's very hard to come by.

So, I said to her, "I think you're mistaken. I wanted to buy $20,000 and I've had calls from two brokers offering it to me." She said, "My broker must have given me bad information." That's what I thought happened.

Well, the next day I get a call from my own brokerage saying, "I don't think we can give you $20,000; we can only give you $15,000." I said, "Why is that?"

I don't want to drag this story out but what happened is that the prime underwriter is a company called Smith-Barney and they are out of New York. Normally, there are two kinds of sales, institutional sales and retail sales. The people who buy the sales, people like ourselves who might have some money or parents who might want to invest for the day they don't have a job and that might, who knows, be in a year and half, I might not have a job, who want to secure their income to be able to live. I thought that 8.2 was a pretty good investment; I took it on a long term. But what I learned was that traditionally, half of the bonds are offered for retail sale. In this instance there were only one-fifth of the bonds offered for retail sale and the primary bond counsel, Smith-Barney, took half of it for themselves. They are out of town; they are not in the City of Pittsburgh.

The point I'm trying to get to, the bottom line, is that all of us are taxpayers in Allegheny County. All of us are paying the debt service on the bonds on the Allegheny County Airport. Certainly any member of this City who would like to, and has the money, who would like to avail themselves, and I don't want to be treated differently than anybody else because I'm on Council, anybody, anybody in this room who might want to buy $5,000 or $2,000 or whatever dollars worth of airport bonds since all people in the County subsidize the debt service should have had the right to buy it.

Well, it turned out that four-fifths went to institutional and most of that went out of the City. And the people who are subsidizing the debt service were not given that opportunity.

I called the other bond people involved. I don't want to go through the number of people, I called the brokerage houses and everybody is furious. All the brokerage houses are furious because they didn't get the bonds to be able to service their own customers or to service new people that might want to go to their brokerage so that the local people could take advantage —

Mr. Lyons:

Point of Order. I don't know the issue because it's a County issue to start with.

Michelle Madoff:

If you pay attention, you'll learn. Try. Did you know you pay County taxes, Mr. Lyons? Did you know the City is part of the County?

The Chair:

Otis, at the end of the meeting you can talk about anything you want. The flies, right?

Michelle Madoff:

Just for the record, the City is part of the County and the City pays County taxes. I thought Mr. Lyons didn't know that.

It would have been nice for those people in the County, the City residents in the County and any County residents who help pay the debt service to have the opportunity to partake of this bond issue.

Now, what happens is that if you sell the bonds in a lump sum to institutional buyers, all we have to pay, or the County decision-makers, I believe was $6 or $7 in fees, whereas if you sold it to individual purchasers, the fee was $10. It's a point on a thousand. But there were so many people lined up, this bond was virtually sold out before it even went on the market that there was no reason not to allow individuals to partake of a very rare opportunity to get some income for themselves at a meaningful return. There's no doubt in my mind that given the option, having spoken to three or four of the brokerage companies who did have very, very small supplies of the bond, if they would have been willing to shave their profit, their fee from ten to six, which was the same thing that institutionals got.

I just think it's important to bring this forward because there are people calling me. The woman didn't I bought any. There's an underhanded way that they're dealing with the bonds and they're going out of town and they're going to institutions.

And that gets us back to an issue that some of our Councilmembers have raised repeatedly. Why don't we do business with competent people in our own City who are able to deal with issues? I'm not going to support Russel

Ray and Zappala or any of the other major bond houses. But I really believe that there are other bond houses that are based right here in the City who could have handled this bond issue and who could have made the traditional half of a bond issue available to individuals who might like to have bought some bonds. I don't want to be treated differently from anybody else; I have guilt feelings about having, perhaps, been treated differently, that I got mine and others may not have gotten theirs. I just think it's something we ought to think about in line with comments that are made on this Council by Mr. Coyne and Mr. Wagner and Mr. Ferlo, that we ought to try to keep some of our business with corporations and businesses in the City. Keep our money here.

Mr. Ferlo:

On another issue. I'd like support for a letter going from Council to the City Administration regarding the City's salver contract. As you know, there are two tow truck companies that operate in the City; one is Craig Towing and they have the responsibility to take automobiles and vehicles away when there is a fine being imposed or the car has been booted or it's in a no parking zone or what have you. And that's by contract, a bid process. There's a little bit of a different situation regarding the salver contract, and that's currently held by Yurechko Brothers. That's a contract that's not let out to bid and I'm very upset to find that out.

I'm also upset to find out that Council does not approve this contract, this relationship between the Administration and this company. I believe, reading the Home Rule Charter, that we have a responsibility to review and approve all contracts, including the salver contract.

Now, all of a sudden, out of the blue, a business relationship and fraternal relationship to Craig Company, the towing company, all of a sudden starts and sets up a company call Simply Salvage. It's a company that is also going to be competing for the salver contract. There are a lot of political and personal ties that this company has to people in the Administration and I'm concerned about that.

I would like a letter sent out from this Council to the Administration asking that, if there's going to be a bid put out for the salver contract, that it be done throughout the system, that there be a formal letting out of a bid for this contract and not just people selected for reasons unbeknownst to me. I think it should be a bid that's let out. Personally, I would like the City to make money on this deal. If scrap metal is high and there's four or five thousand cars being towed off of City streets year, I'd like to know why we can't turn this into a revenue generating proposition.

But notwithstanding that, I think minimally, anybody who is a legitimate salver and certified as a salver in the State of Pennsylvania should be able to bid on this work if they're going to change horses in mid-stream. It should not be handed, all of a sudden, to somebody. Quite frankly, I don't like the way this smells.

I would like a letter to go out to the Administration asking for a report on this and that, if there's going to be a bid, that it be done publicly and we accept bids through the normal procedure.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Let me ask you something before we vote on it. Did you ask anybody in the Administration about this?

Mr. Ferlo:

Yes. I talked to Mr. DiNardo.

The Chair:

And what was his response? Share it with us. I know you do your homework before you bring it here.

Mr. Ferlo:

The response is that they're thinking about this, that they realize, after talking to me, that maybe this doesn't sit right, and they're thinking about letting out a bid. But I would like to do urge them formally to do that and I think they'll more likely do it and not just sign a sweetheart deal with the Craig interest, Simply Salvage. I would like a letter to go out to that effect.

The Chair:

Was there a dollar value on the other contract?

Mr. Ferlo:

There's a dollar value on the Craig contract —

The Chair:

I know that; that's bid.

Mr. Ferlo:

No, there's not a dollar value on the salvage contract. There's monies exchanged and there are financial relationships; there's profit being made. But the Home Rule Charter just says contracts. It doesn't say contracts where City monies are being spent.

The Chair:

I'm not debating; I just want to know for my own mind if there was money —

Mr. Ferlo:

Yes. This is a lucrative operation.

Mr. Wagner:

I agree with Mr. Ferlo. I've had calls to the same regard and there has always been the suspicion that politics is involved in the letting of these contracts. And the more public objectivity that can be brought to it, I think the better off we'll all be. Therefore, I favor what he is suggesting.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Ferlo:

On a second issue, and this is very quick; this is one of the most important issues facing this City. And that is the restoring of the benches in the lobby of the City County Building.

Mr. Chairman, I've struggled for two months to try to get the benches put back into the lobby of the City County Building. I come in this building very early in the morning and I leave late at night. I'm probably one of the first elected officials to be confronted by loads of people who attack me every morning and try to get me to do something about the fact that the City took out the benches. Personally, I think this Director needs her head examined; that's Director Botsford. What is the logic of taking away the benches that were there? They were perfectly good benches. It's true, the Administration is thinking about buying new benches; fine. Leave the old benches that were there, put them back, and when you get the new benches you can take the old ones out.

But, Mr. Chairman, I've asked you to do something about this and I'm ready to picket in front of the City County Building. We have people waiting to pay their taxes down there in the lobby; it's a public thoroughfare. People hang out there, they eat at the Doggery, they B.S., they talk politics, they wait to pay their bills or go get their marriage license. They deserve to have a seat.

And as far as those atrocious looking potter plants that are in the building, I'd like to know how much those things cost.

Please, Mr. Chairman, I implore you before I set up a picket line, get those benches put back in the lobby of the City County Building.

The Chair:

Can I answer you? They're being refinished. If you recall, and there was a lot of benches there and I guess --

Mr. Ferlo:

I was told by people who work in the basement that they are in a closet downstairs.

The Chair:

I will check that out. You asked me about it, not only you but I go through the lobby myself and I get hit with the same people you do. When Mayor Caliguiri was there for a day, they removed the benches and that's when they decided to get them refinished. That's what I was told but I'll get back to you.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, your tenure as future President of this body rides on you getting these benches back.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, I have another matter I'd like to discuss quickly. Many, many calls are coming all the time. We all know it's in the Code about dogs, especially in the parks, dogs walking the streets off leashes. I have talked to some of the Police Department and they're trying to enforce it, especially in our parks where dogs go in and litter the parks and I think it's come time now to look to see those who have their dogs on leashes and walk them in the parks should have something to clean the waste of the dogs up because it is very offensive to a lot of people and I think it's a problem. I know in Arsenal Park they're already starting to enforce that very rigidly. Certainly I think this should be throughout the City and other places.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, if I may add, if the City Clerk is going to look into the time-frame on the benches, which I believe is a good point, please look into the time-frame of putting an American flag on the outside of this building also. I had made a request several months ago to do that. This is a public building and it should have the American flag flying out front every day.

And on the motion of Mr. Lyons

Council adjourned.

ONE—HUNDRED TWENTY-FIFTH COUNCIL

BEN WOODS ..... President Pro-Tem
MICHAEL PERRY ..... City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON .. Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, August 8, 1988

PRESENT:

|                | (Pres't Pro tem) |

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 1265 WHEREAS, a century ago, about 80 percent of those eligible voted in American Presidential elections and in the 20th Century, turnout has dropped dramatically to about 55 percent; and

WHEREAS, in the 1986 election, voter turnout as a fraction of the adult population was 38 percent, which was the lowest since the wartime election of 1942, and, in states outside the South, it was the lowest since 1798; and

WHEREAS, the United States, the birthplace, beacon and bulwark of modern democracy, today ranks behind almost every other free country in terms of voter participation; and

WHEREAS, the National Lawyers' Council is working to reverse these trends by promoting universal registration through its Voter Action Project; and

WHEREAS, said Project strives to make available, at every government office that makes contact with the general public, voter registration forms; and

WHEREAS, under the plan, local government employees would ask people using their services if they are registered to vote, and the citizens who wish to register, regardless of party affiliation, may do so through the local government; and

WHEREAS, when the City establishes a public registration program, thousands of citizens will be able to more fully exercise their democratic franchise.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh strongly urges the Mayor to immediately issue an Executive Order establishing a voter registration program; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council calls upon its fellow City employees to enthusiastically support the implementation of the program in order that the citizens of this City be allowed to share in the government of the people, by the people and for the people.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

What I'm hoping will happen is that the Mayor and her staff will work to implement this program. The voter registration ends the first week of October and, hopefully, during the month of September and maybe even the rest of August, voter registration forms will be available at every place of contact that the public has with the City, the Tax Office, different Parks facilities, the Aviary, Buhl Planetarium, with the theory being that as many registration forms out there that are accessible, the more people will register and we can turn around these horrible registration and voter registration and voter turn-out figures. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Mark, I don't think there's a problem with getting the banks or the post offices to cooperate. I think they'll be happy to do it.

The Chair:

I have two resolutions; Mr. Wagner, would you please present them?

Mr. Wagner:

Would Mr. David Carver please come up?

The Chair presents

No. 1266 WHEREAS, through the vision and determination of Outreach Coordinator Dave Carver, an abandoned building in Crafton Heights has transformed into a vibrant Community Center called The Open Door, with programs and activities for persons of all ages; and

WHEREAS, under Dave Carver's inspired direction, this Center has become a community focal point where young people can gather for recreation and fellowship, confident that in Dave Carver and his staff of volunteers they will always find love and acceptance; and

WHEREAS, the influence of Dave Carver upon the community and all who have known him has been incalculable.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby proclaims Saturday, August 6, 1988 as "Dave Carver Day" in the Crafton Heights area of the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

We congratulate you, Dave. I know this was presented earlier and maybe Councilman Woods wants us to do the same.

Mr. Carver:

It is with mixed emotions that I'm here because, as my friends from Crafton Heights know, I'm leaving Pittsburgh in about a week and a half to go to Rochester, New York. My wife and I will be moving. We have grown to adopt and love Pittsburgh very much and we'll consider this our home.

Thank you so much for this honor and the privileges you have granted me over the past six years.

The Chair presents

No. 1267 WHEREAS, in August 1949, a recreation facility known as Spring Garden Parklet was created at 1132 Spring Garden Avenue through the cooperation and concern of neighborhood residents inspired by the commitment of Leona Catalano; and

WHEREAS, also in 1949, the citizens of Spring Garden succeeded in raising sufficient funds to erect, on the Spring Garden Parklet site, two monuments dedicated to veterans of World War II; and

WHEREAS, for nearly 40 years, citizen Leona Catalano has faithfully decorated the monuments at the Spring Garden Parklet with flowers and American flags in appreciation of the patriotic sacrifices of Spring Garden residents who have gallantly served in America's armed forces; and

WHEREAS, Leona Catalano, through her love of children and love of country, continues to be Spring Garden's finest example that confirms that progress comes through patriotism.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of Pittsburgh City Council hereby join the Spring Garden Neighborhood Council and its constituency, in the month of August 1988, upon the completion of a newly renovated facility at 1132 Spring Garden Avenue, in designating the new facility as "Catalano Park", in tribute to Leona Catalano's exemplary devotion towards preserving the spirit of America.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Tom Lauffenburger:

Thank you Council President Woods and members of Council. In the scheme of things with all of the development projects that are occurring in Pittsburgh over the past few years contributing to Pittsburgh's revitalization, it may seem that the renovation of one parklet in one neighborhood is a small project. But to us in Spring Garden, particularly since before 1980, we didn't see any investment from the City to speak of in our neighborhood and since 1980, with the help of our friends on City Council and the Administration of the late Mayor Richard Caliguiri, we've seen a lot happening in Spring Garden.

This is really a big moment for us, to have this parklet renovated, and we wanted to say thank you in a big way. So, we asked the children at Spring Garden School to make this thank you card. We have Barbara Miller and Jonathan Miller here to help present it. The card was supposed to say, "Thank you, Mayor Caliguiri and City Council, for our new playground" but the art department at Spring Garden School got a little carried away so some of the wording got lost. But the sentiment is still there and it is really with genuine gratitude that the people of Spring Garden, and particularly the children of Spring Garden, present this thank you to members of City Council, to the late Mayor Richard Caliguiri whose Administration made the commitment to renovate the parklet, and to the current Mayor, Sophie Masloff, who chaired the Parks and Recreation Committee when that commitment was made. We thank you.

Mr. Coyne presented

Which were severally read, received and filed.

Mr. Pollock moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of all the bills only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bills were introduced so the bills will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The Chair:

I'd like to have a motion to untangle Bill No. 1092.

Mr. Lyons:

So moved.

Mr. Pollock seconded the motion.

The Chair presents

No. 1092 Resolution providing for a contract or contracts or the use of existing contracts for miscellaneous renovations of various Public Safety facilities and providing for the payment of the cost thereof, cost not to exceed $60,468.00.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Point of order. Mr. President, I think it's terribly important that while we've made some tremendous improvements in our agenda where we list what the item is for. For example, if we're having a lot go up for sale, we're saying it's a side lot or a lot that can be built on or it has a lot of problems, so that we know what we're voting on and we don't have to take up a lot of everybody's time. On this bill you just untabled, it says Code Account; I don't know what code account it's coming out of. I don't memorize all the initials or all the letters; I don't think anybody here has.

In the future for the coming year, could we please have the department heads notified that any code account monies are being moved to or from, would indicate what it is. Not only is it in Engineering and Construction, but what aspect of Engineering and Construction. What's LB? Liquor Control Board? I don't know.

The Chair:

You're point is well taken, Michelle, but please, we're going to have to put out what a point of order is and I'm not getting on you; everyone uses it. Some things like that should be brought up at the end of the meeting but your point is well taken.

Michelle Madoff:

I believe it was appropriate on the bill.

Mr. Ferlo:

I voted no in the Committee and I'll vote no today. My objection, basically, is the following: We approved a week or so ago a very unique agreement between the Administration and the Plumbers' Union. This is, to me, a very important illustration of something that I think the City should do more of, and that is the direct hiring of tradespeople from the local union hall to complete activities which I think could be carried out. An example to me also would be this bill. Limited types of renovations work, masonry was mentioned in the original bill. I think I'd like to see Engineering and Construction and the Administration consider using a similar model as they did in the example of the local union plumbers being hired to do the work.

On the installation of water meters, I think this is another example whereby the same type of arrangement could be worked out instead of having the additional cost by going out on contracts.

So, on that basis, I'm voting no on this legislation.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I'd like my comments brought forward on this bill.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President, I'd like my remarks brought forward also. They were not exactly on the bill but compatible to the bill. What about the retrofitting of the No. 51 Fire House on Troy Hill that we passed earlier this year and it has not been retrofitted? Therefore, I want those remarks brought forward to accompany this bill.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

---

(BEGINNING - MESSRS. LYONS AND FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO.
1092 - WEDNESDAY, JULY 27, 1988)

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, as I see this, we still have a bill that hasn't been taken care of and we are still piling fire stations and police stations to be refurbished when we don't have--nothing has ever been done and the Council passed on Troy Hill on Fire House No. 51 on the Troy Hill and I'm interested in that. Not that I wouldn't vote for that but why hasn't the Troy Hill Station been taken care of, Mr. Director, and we're still adding fire stations and police stations for refurbishing?

The Chair:

Director, is that part of this legislation?

Dir. McDermott:

No, it's not. That question would have to go to the user department.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'm also voting no on this probably because of that reason but again I draw to the illustration. This is an exact illustration of the potential for local union labor to do this work in a very similar scheme. We're going to hire a contractor, probably most likely it's non-union labor, most of them do not live in the city. This is an excellent example, an illustration, whereby we could use a similar method that we just voted on with the union plumbers. Now we can't do that on many things, massive construction projects, maybe massive bridges, God knows what but on this type of an activity, the masonry and the pointing and the concrete aprons, waterproof ceiling, this is an exact illustration of the ability to use local union labor, city residents, at a cost that would be cheaper and would have more impact at keeping the dollars in the city. So on that basis I'm voting no on this legislation.

(END OF COMMENTS)

PREPARED BY: MARY ANNE HRUSKA, STENOGRAPHIC REPORTER 1

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, as you know, the architect of the concept that Mr. Ferlo is referring to on the water meters was really originated with Mr. Sciulli and I worked with him on developing that process. I think it's an excellent one and I think Mr. Ferlo is absolutely correct that we ought to extend it to every area of construction and development in the City where we can use people in the manner that saves the City so much dollars. However, I think it would be imprudent to delay this bill at this point by making an example. I think if Mr. Ferlo wants to make a protest vote, and I've often done that, I see nothing wrong with that; I think you get the message across. But I don't think we can afford to hold up the legislation.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. Chairman, this is once again a demonstration of the Administration going out for contracts without letting Council know who the contract is going to and also the advertising of the price prior to the work being done. Therefore, I can't vote for this bill.

Mr. Ferlo:

In response to my colleague, Michelle, this is not a protest vote. I'm voting no because I'm opposed to the legislation. My comments are very clear. I'd like not to see this legislation pass; I'd like to see it come back in a different format. It's not a protest; it's a very clear succinct statement and I'm voting no. Period.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, I think the bill in itself is abstract. It's not absolute. We don't know what it is, where it is, who is going to do the work, how much is the work worth. There's a lot of factors here to be determined. We have said that this is what we'll give; it might only be $5,000. Therefore, I think the bill should be reconstructed and brought back to Council.

Michelle Madoff:

I owe an apology to the President of Council and my colleague. I was on another bill. I'm sorry.

I would find it very enlightening if somebody would tell me what this gibberish is. This bill that I just picked up does not say anything. I had the bills confused with another bill, something that couldn't wait. I thought it was on the medical testing. I'm sorry.

The Chair:

In response to all of you, everybody here gets a copy of the cover letter. I would ask you to vote for this bill. If you read your cover letter, and you had them in your offices some time ago, it's for the No. 4 Police Station and 14 Fire Station, No. 21 Fire Station, No. 19 Fire Station, and 28 Fire Station. That's what's going to be rehabilitated; that's where this money is going. I would urge you people, the construction season is here. By the time we went out and hired -- I'm a local unionist; I still carry a card from the sheet metal workers. By the time you contacted them, set up an agreement, have people come in and do this, we'd be here next year.

I urge you, please, to vote for this bill. This cover letter was given out some time ago; you all had it. We just didn't have enough people here to vote in favor of this bill some weeks ago when we were absent some members. That's why the bill was tabled. Now we have enough people here and I urge you to vote for this bill.

Michelle Madoff:

On the bill. Mr. President, the reason I asked you to clarify is when you read this —

The Chair:

I understand. You don't have your cover letter in front of you today because the bill was tabled. I apologize.

Michelle Madoff:

Don't apologize; it's not necessary. I'm making the point that practically from the day I got on this Council ten years ago, I learned very rapidly to get copies of all the bills. As Mr. Perry will tell you, those bills are given to me every week, ten days in advance, so that I can look at not only my bills but everybody else's bills. And I still maintain that the point that you're making, sir, that if we don't move quickly we're going to lose the building season is the same position that Mr. McDermott has used to stampede this Council into doing things and voting on bills that are giveaways. How do we know that the work can't be done for under $60,000? How do we know we can't save any money? And more important to the point that you raised, Mr. Woods, is this work that has to be done outside? Is it all work that has to be done outside? Are we going to have such inclement weather that we can't work in the Fall to do the roofs, and some of it is internal work, I believe. I can't tell from this what the exact work is.

The Chair:

You know, we all discussed this some time ago. Let me tell you when this bill was discussed — July 12th. Right now it's August 8th. No one is rushing anything through. It's been to this Council for over a month. In fact, the reason it wasn't passed is that this Council did not have enough bills here to vote on the bill. Please understand that. This bill was here for a month.

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Lyons      | Mr. Woods        |
| Mr. Pollock    | (Pres't Pro tem) |

AYES 5                      NOES 3

(MR. COYNE, MR. FERLO AND MICHELLE MADOFF VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. Ferlo:

On another issue. Mr. Chairman, some time ago you participated in a meeting on behalf of Council in relation to the issue of the firetrucks and the tillers. You reported on the initial meeting and I believe there was a second meeting on the 18th of July. I know I was away that week.

At some point, I would like Council to receive from you a report updating the current situation. I believe currently there is some report that the Pierce Company will be giving the Administration and Council regarding possibly the redesign of these vehicles. Or they may be other activities going on; I don't know. But at some point I'd like to have Council receive a report from you.

The Chair:

There are, and since Mr. DePasquale is the Chairman of Public Safety, he has attended the last two meetings, I believe. So, he can fill us in whenever.

Mr. Ferlo:

Maybe after Labor Day could we get those formal reports?

The Chair:

Okay, the meeting after Labor Day we'll have the report for you.

Mr. Ferlo:

Could the clerk please note that after Labor Day we'll receive a report from Public Safety on this issue.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Wagner presented

Bill No. 1261

Report of the Committee on Finance for August 3, 1988 transmitting sundry ordinances and resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1116

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with various hospitals and/or physicians for professional services in connection with the administration and evaluation of medical examinations and tests for the Civil Service Commission's Medical Examination Program for Police Officer candidates, Firefighter candidates, School Crossing Guards, Paramedics, other candidates for employment and promotion; and employees and providing for payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, on Bills 1116 and 1117, both bills relate to the medical testing and psychological testing for firefighters, police, paramedics, etc. Every year, when we get to the bill on psychological testing, as you know, we have a great deal of dialogue. I'd like to, first of all, address 1116. I've been associated with the medical community for over 20 some years, very closely associated. And I will tell you that I was very instrumental in bringing to the City people who felt that they would like to share in some of the testing and sent them to Melanie Smith. She met with them and made her own decision; I had no input whatsoever as to what should happen and who should be doing the testing and what method. It was decided about four or five years ago that all the testing should not go to Central Medical Pavillion, that indeed many other hospitals were testing, particularly on stress test and blood tests and the routine tests could be done in other hospitals. It seems to me that for some obscure reason we have narrowed that testing down to I think perhaps only one facility. And I don't have a problem with that if it's one facility that can do the job. But I've asked Ms. Smith to please make available to me those hospitals that were contacted, some of them are not hospitals, I think they are rehabilitation centers or testing areas where they do this kind of work in labs that are not necessarily right in the hospital. As a matter of fact, I think the ones we're using are not in a hospital.

I have not had that yet and I have not had a chance to check with the various hospitals to see if indeed they would not be competitive in the price and so I feel I must abstain on 1116.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Mr. Pollock      |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Lyons      | Mr. Woods        |
|                | (Pres't Pro tem) |

AYES 6                      NOES 1

(MR. FERLO VOTING NO)

(MICHELLE MADOFF ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also, with a NEGATIVE RECOMMENDATION,

Bill No. 1117

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with a Consultant or Consultants for professional services in connection with the validation study of psychological background testing and the administration, preparation, evaluation and research of Civil Service entrance and promotional examinations; and providing for payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner moved to recommit Bill No. 1117.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1132

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of Casciato Brothers in the amount of $2,700.00 in payment of an Emergency Contract for the demolition of property at 26 Montana Street, 26th Ward, City of Pittsburgh; and providing for the payment thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like my remarks brought forward on Bill 1132.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

---

(MICHELLE MADOFF'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1132-Wednesday, 8-3-88)

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Mr. Pellegrini, please. I have a letter signed by Director Pellegrini.

Mr. Pellegrini:

What did I sign? What is this on?

Michelle Madoff:

Interim approval, I believe this is an interim approval.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Can I have a copy of the letter?

Michelle Madoff:

I think it is a pro forma letter that you sign automatically, emergency contract demolition of property on Montana Street.

Mr. Reginella, this is for a demolition job that has to do with the Water and Sewer Authority on Montana street, you needed to have the access or -- it had to do with the reservoir site?

Mr. Reginella:

That is correct, right.

Michelle Madoff:

How many letter bids went out?

Mr. Reginella:

This was not handled in the usual bidding process.

Michelle Madoff:

Why not?

Mr. Reginella:

Because the magnitude of the work involved and the magnitude of the costs to perform the work are such that it just doesn't warrant the usual bidding process.

Michelle Madoff:

Explain that to me.

---

Mr. Reginella:

The cost was only $2,700.00.

Michelle Madoff:

It was only how much money?

Mr. Reginella:

$2,700.00.

Michelle Madoff:

Only $2,700.00?

Mr. Reginella:

If we were to process this in the usual manner, it would consume much more money just in human resources to get it through the bidding cycle.

Michelle Madoff:

It seems to me that I went through this routine before my new colleagues got here because there were people frozen out of the process. The process was changed so that within 20 minutes people who are capable of doing this could be called by telephone, there was a rotating list so that people who were frozen out of the process would have the opportunity to bid. This was a non-bid.

I have nothing against Casciato Brothers, I would like to know how many contracts they got.

Mr. Reginella:

Three firms were contacted to quote a price.

Michelle Madoff:

It was done by telephone?

Mr. Reginella:

That, I don't know. It was done by the Bureau of Building Inspection, which is traditionally the way we handle this.

Michelle Madoff:

How long in advance did you know you were going to need the services and demolition of this property?

Mr. Reginella:

We have known that for sometime. However, we were marred in negotiations with the property owners, and until we were able to acquire the property, we couldn't very well proceed with the --

---

Michelle Madoff:

How fast after you acquired the property did you proceed?

Mr. Reginella:

Almost immediately.

Michelle Madoff:

You knew you were going to need that property demolished. And I would like to know, before I vote on this, who the actual people were that were offered the opportunity to demolish this property.

Mr. Reginella:

Three.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to know who they people,, I want to talk to them.

Mr. Reginella:

One, of course, was Casciato Brothers, the other one is Surf Way, the third one I can't recall.

Michelle Madoff:

I think there was certainly sufficient time to go out on bid. You say it is only $2,700.00. I don't know whether it couldn't be done for $900.00. It is a house. I know that we have fire stations that can be done for $14,000.00 that we pay $70,000.00 for.

Mr. Pellegrini:

In the overall scheme of this contract, you are probably talking, what, these two contracts for $4 million?

Michelle Madoff:

I am not interested in the scheme of the contract, I am interested in who got the bid and why they got the bid and what preferential treatment was used, if any.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Let me tell you, we have an obligation to deliver this site. If we don't deliver the site to a contractor, we may be liable for damages. So what I am trying say is in the scheme of things, if somebody would get out there and so we don't delay the $5 million contract, sometimes it is worth, I mean, if it is $200.00 more because we only sent it to three bidders rather than 30 bidders, in the overall scheme of things you are saving money.

Michelle Madoff:

There are so many people in this business that are hurting, that need money, that would be available for you within a few minutes. I got on to that contract on the North Side fire station because every demolition guy in town called me to say, "What are you doing with a $70,000.00 bid when we offered to take it down for $14,900.00, or whatever." I don't know that it is the right number, I don't know that ten other people couldn't have done it. I want to know the selection process. There was plenty of time not to have -- this is billed, for the people watching, as a Wallace Act, as an emergency. I think it was about as much of an emergency as a juror sitting in the desert right now. This is nonsense, this is business as usual.

Mr. Reginella:

May I point out that of the three bids that were solicited, the low one, obviously, was for $2,700.00, the next one was $2,930.00, and the third one was for $3,000.00. So they were right there within 200 of one another.

Michelle Madoff:

I bet if you put it out and said -- how much did you put out, not to exceed what?

Mr. Reginella:

And spend several times that amount in human resources just to solicit that bid?

Michelle Madoff:

What was the not to exceed figure?

Mr. Pellegrini:

On letter bids it is $5,000.00, not to exceed $5,000.00.

| Mr. Lyons      | (Pres't Pro tem) |

AYES 7                      NOES 1

(MICHELLE MADOFF VOTING NO)

And there being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1133

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Two, Fiscal I, Administration, Chapter 213, Investment and Disinvestment by adding Section 213.05 Northern Ireland Investments."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1134

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Two, Fiscal, Article III, Depositories, Chapter 221, Contracts, by adding to the requirements for the qualification of banks and lending institutions which desire to qualify as depositories of City monies."-(SPONSORED BY MR. COYNE)

Which was read.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. Chairman, I would like to amend Bills 1133 and 1134 by adding Section 2 which would be entitled, "The Identification of Companies" and would read as follows: "The United States Companies, their subsidiaries or affiliates, operating in Northern Ireland, shall be identified by a cumulative reference so the documents and directories of U.S. corporations in Ireland comply by the Investor Responsibility Research Center and to relevant publications by the United States Department of Commerce."

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, I would like my comments brought forward on Bills 1133 and 1134.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

---

(MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NOS. 1133 and 1134-Wednesday
8-3-88)

Mr. Ferlo:

I just want to say, Mr. Chairman, I support this legislation, but I do want to note, however, that in the past, since January 4th, there have been a variety of other bills that have come up in relation to South Africa, as well as, by way of example, bills regarding foreign policy debates that are in the Congress, most notably the issue of Central America, U.S. involvement there, issues of how much money we spend in the military budget verses what we need locally.

I only want to state that in support of this legislation, to my colleague Mr. Coyne and others, that there have been statements made in the past that foreign policy is not something that is important or should be debated or reviewed at this table. Clearly Mr. Coyne is taking a precedent setting step here in this legislation. I want to support him on the legislation, but let's be clear in the future that let's not make blanket statements to that effect, that oftentimes there are matters that come to this table, whether they be international policy, foreign policy, federal government priorities, what have you, that are very dear to our hearts and very important to citizens in the City of Pittsburgh; this certainly is, I think the South Africa situation is. And I hope that we will be mutually supportive in the future on some of these pieces of legislation.

AYES 7      NOES 1

(MR. FERLO VOTING NO)

And there being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1151

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the Mayor and the Chief Magistrate of the City of Pittsburgh to enter into a Merchant Agreement or Agreements with Equibank for implementation of a Visa/Mastercard Payment Program to be instituted at the City Towpound and providing for the payment of applicable membership fees, discount fees, machine rental fees, and any other applicable fees and further providing for the guaranteed payment to the City of Pittsburgh by Equibank of all credit card transactions, subject to, and conditioned upon, the annual appropriations at a cost not to exceed Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00), chargeable to and payable from Code Account No. 1023, Miscellaneous Services, Magistrate Court, Index Code No. 102301."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

On Bill 1151, in relation to the Visa/Mastercard Payment Program for the City Towpound, what we're talking about initially as a pilot project does not involve very much money with the Equibank as a financial institution. However, if this is viewed as maybe it should be as the opening for the process by which people in the future would pay for fines and other types of payments to the City with a credit card, then we're talking about a lot of money. I mean, we collect annually about $5 million in fines and tow fees and forfeitures. And at that point we're talking about a substantial amount of money that would be made by whatever financial institution we deal with.

I'm voting in favor of this legislation today. However, in the future, if it is contemplated by the Administration to expand this program for all of the monies received and because of the nature of that amount of money, I think it should be something that should be either competitively bid or at least competitively negotiated with whatever financial institution ends up with this contract.

So, I'm voting in favor of the legislation today with that proviso.

Mr. Lyons:

On Bill 1151, I think it's already in there on competition and competitiveness, because they have gone from bank to bank with the visa and Equibank was the only place that would agree to what the City wants, where they can't stop payment or anything. Joan Melvil, the Chief Magistrate, I think has done a great job in the competitive world in getting about what the City wants here, that we endorse the payment where, if they give their credit card, they cannot stop payment on it. It's guaranteed. And this was the only bank, it was pointed out at our last meeting, that would do this.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like my comments brought forward on Bill 1151, please.

(MR. WAGNER'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1151 - WEDNESDAY - 8/3/88)

Mr. Wagner:

I have one comment. I know we have received a lot of complaints about people going there to make payment and not able to, and I compliment you because this is a response to many City residents and non-residents and a complaint that they have had historically.

(END OF REMARKS)

Also,

Bill No. 1184

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution transferring the amount of Sixty Thousand ($60,000.00) Dollars, from Code Account 1545, Street Lighting, Index Code 161000, both accounts within the Department of Public Works."

Which was read.

AYES 8 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also, with a NEGATIVE RECOMMENDATION,

Bill No. 1213

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance directing the Allegheny County Board of Elections to place before the qualified voters of the City of Pittsburgh a referendum question which would amend Section 309 of the Home Rule Charter to provide for a vacancy in the Office of City Council." (AS AMENDED)

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

I move to recommit Bill No. 1213 and refer to the President to set a public hearing.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

Bill No. 1214

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance directing the Allegheny County Board of Elections to place before the qualified voters of the City of Pittsburgh a referendum question which would amend Section 206 of the Home Rule Charter to provide for a vacancy in the Office of the Mayor." (AS AMENDED)

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

I move to recommit Bill No. 1214 and refer to a public hearing. Prior to that, I would like to make a motion to amend the bill by deleting item letter A in the first paragraph; and delete the words, "if it occurs within the first three years of the Mayor's term"; and, in the second paragraph, delete the words, "members will" and insert "shall"; and delete paragraph B.

Mr. Ferlo:

Point of order, Mr. Chairman. Procedurally in the past, we have made amendments in the Committee on Session on Wednesdays. I have no problem with this but if we're going to do it on this bill, then we're going to do it on others in the future. So what is the decision of the Chair?

The Chair:

I would ask my colleague not to amend these; amend them Wednesday and that will be in the final action.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, if I may. The amendment are in writing. All members of Council have a copy of the amendments. It is within the Rules of Council to make an amendment at either meeting and the purpose for amending it now is to put it in the state which I think it should be in.

The Chair:

Alright. Is there a second?

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

I want to remind the Chair that when things are in writing the Chair will call the question on amendments. Thank you.

The Chair:

All those in favor of the amendment? Opposed?

Mr. Pollock:

Opposed.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I move to recommit Bill No. 1214 and refer to the President to set a public hearing.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Point of Order. Will we get the corrected copies by Wednesday?

The Chair:

You'll get them today.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, is it the intent of the Council President to hold a public hearing expeditiously or after Labor Day?

The Chair:

Very fast. But to be honest with you, I think your point of procedure asking me when I'm going to set it is out of order at this time. If you want to ask me and discuss it when we go through our regular business, I'll be glad to answer you.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1215

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 191, effective April 7, 1988, entitled, 'Providing for the issuance of warrants in the aggregate amount not to exceed $22,000.00 in favor of persons who provide professional proctoring and coordinating services for the benefit of the City in connection with the administration of the Department of Personnel and Civil Service Commission's 1988 written, performance and promotional examinations administered by the Department of Personnel and Civil Service Commission and providing for the payments thereof,' by increasing the amount of Resolution No. 191."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

On Bill 1215, I'm going to vote in favor of that. We did hear a vote from Director Smith that evening tests will be given in Personnel and Civil Service, legislation for the proctoring that we're approving. And on that basis, I'm in favor of that. Clearly, there are working people that hold jobs; I think more people would more likely take part in the Civil Service exam if the meetings were held on the weekend or in the evening. And I think we should afford people the opportunity to do that.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

AYES 8                      NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. Lyons presented

Bill No. 1262

Report of the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development for August 3, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1144

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the filing of an application or applications for financial assistance for improvements associated with the Stadium Renewal Project by the City of Pittsburgh with the Department of Community Affairs, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

I just want to make the observation, Mr. President, that on Bill 1144 Director Lurcott was not available to discuss this bill at the Wednesday Committee Session. He was also not available to discuss Bill 1145, both of which I have legitimate concerns and questions about.

In relation to Bill 1144, part of the discussion I wanted to engage with the Director prior to approving this is at what point do we decide what needs to be done relative to the Buhl project? Regardless of the litigation, have we entered a phase now whereby the litigation presents a timetable that is now unacceptable and is it the thought of the Administration, if they cannot resolve some agreement regarding Buhl, to possibly relocate this center somewhere else.

Part of the discussion I'm confused about is we're asking for approval to receive funds from the State government but it's not clear, to me at least, what our intention is regarding the Buhl project. And I think before voting on this bill, or at some point, we are owed an explanation from the Administration and/or Director Lurcott in particular regarding this issue. At some point, we should decide it's not worth the litigation or it's not worth the timetable to delay construction any further. It makes no sense to me for us to make the public improvement, the infrastructural changes that are needed in the North Shore area if that's not going to be the location. And it would be logical to discuss those points on this bill, 1144. So, I'm voting no on the legislation for that reason.

Mr. Lyons:

On Bill 1144, I have gone as a request, and given everyone a synopsis from the Assistant Director on the money for the Buhl Planetarium which is only an application to receive the $2.5 million. It's not scratched or etched in stone that they'll get the $2 million; it's an application requesting the $2 million. Certainly, I don't think we are prophets here and it's pointed out that if the money is secured, then we'll deal with it as we cross that bridge. It will be back to Council.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, in regards to Bill No. 1144, I maintained at the outset that the location of the Buhl Science Center next to the Three Rivers Stadium was insane. Not only that it didn't belong there, especially with the parking situation where we're going to lose 1000 parking spaces, and now we have the parking lot operator saying that he's going into court, and he's serious about this, and it may be four or five years before that matter can be straightened out. Now is the time to look to relocate the Buhl Science Center. It's not etched in stone that it has to be on the North Side; I understand the situation over there and I appreciate that. But there's no law that says that the Buhl Science Center has to be on the North Side.

If we're talking about locations, maybe over by the Convention Center. We even have a developer, I understand, who is willing to give property to the City of Pittsburgh and it won't cost us anything to relocate that Science Center.

Why we're determined to go ahead with all that aggravation we're going to have --

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, I ask for courtesy from the Chair that we don't waste any further time on this bill. I move to recommit it.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, we're not wasting time; we're debating legislation.

Mr. Lyons:

I move to recommit this bill.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. Lyons, I don't think you need to recommit this bill. As you stated before, I think it's very clear that this is only an application for funds. This isn't the actual spending of the money and you provide an adequate report with the paper you gave us this morning. I don't see any need to recommit this.

Mr. Lyons:

I didn't get a second for it so let it go. I withdraw that motion; now put it to a vote.

The Chair:

He doesn't want to recommit the bill. Is there any further discussion?

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, one of the constraints that we have on Council, unfortunately or otherwise, is to only engage in dialogue with the Administration formally and publicly when bills come before us in the Committee Session. This is not being disagreeable for the sake of being disagreeable. I feel I have legitimate concerns; Mr. DePasquale shares some of those concerns about the Buhl Science Project. The only time that we actively have to discuss these issues with the Administration is in the format of the Committee Sessions on Wednesday. Director Lurcott was not there. I read the memo from Assistant Director Jane Downing; she makes some very good points but it does not address the issues that, frankly, I wanted to discuss.

At this time I would like to make a done traffic studies either in house or they've been bid out and we have entertained the contract. We have been asked for an intermediate party on this side to counsel, to do that. There may be good reasons for that to happen, but I think it's legitimate to question these bills and part of the Wednesday's sessions is to interact and engage in discussion with department directors.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President, I don't think we need to waste any further time on 1145. I move to recommit that so it will be discussed on Wednesday.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

Bill No. 1185

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 269, approved March 23, 1987, entitled, 'Providing for the implementation of a Residential Permit Parking Program in portions of the Squirrel Hill-CMU community pursuant to Pittsburgh Code, Chapter 549, so as to amend the streets included in Area K.'"

Which was read.

Mr. Lyons:

I move that Bill No. 1185 be recommitted and as expediently as possible there be a public hearing set.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

Let me interject something. Please, let's all come back down to the meeting; quit interrupting each other, if you would, please. We only have one more week until we get two and a half weeks off. If we could just stand it for one more week, I'm sure when we come back everyone will be happy and we'll be able to work together again. Would you please do that for me? Thank you.

Mr. Woods presented

Bill No. 1263

Report of the Committee on Parks and Recreation for August 3, 1988 transmitting two resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1076

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Section 1 of Resolution No. 987, approved December 4, 1987 entitled, 'Resolution establishing a schedule of fees and charges in connection with the Department of Parks and Recreation's Swimming Pools Programs' by providing for scheduled fees only for the year 1988." —
(SPONSORED BY MR. WOODS)

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

On Bill 1076, I just want to make it clear that I'm supporting this legislation; it's been a consistent vote on my part since I got here January 4th.

I am not fundamentally opposed to the Administration initiating user fees, in principal. The problem I have is that I'm opposed to user fees, given the fact that I think we've approved expenditures and have wasted money in the City budget since January 4th. I don't see it as a last resort and I think that's what should happen when we impose a swimming tax on families and children in this City. If the Administration pursues their logic we'll have not only user fees on swimming pools but we'll shortly have user fees on garbage collection; when a paramedic shows up at your house we're going to have a user fee. We're going to have a user fee if a firetruck shows up at the house. I don't think we're at that point yet in the City budget, quite frankly, and before I ever support user fees in the form of swimming pool tax I would suggest that we have to get our house in order in terms of some of the other appropriations which I don't think have best expended the tax dollar that we've been entrusted with. So, I'm really opposed to it; it's been my position right from the beginning.

In addition to that have been the obvious Administrative nightmares that have ensued as a result of the implementation of the tag system.

So, for all those reasons, I hope we vote in support of the legislation and if there needs to be the imposition of user fees, let it be part of the annual debate that we have with the Administration when we discuss the budget.

I'll say to the Administration and to the public today, if a plan is presented by the Administration for imposition of user fees and it is tied to and in conjunction with the lowering of the four percent wage tax, then I would be sympathetic and I would like to engage in that dialogue and debate with the Administration. But until that happens, I'm not in favor of the swimming tax.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm afraid I'm going to take some time. This is a very debilitating bill.

I would like to read from a letter that I wrote to Mayor Caliguiri, dated June 2, 1987. That was after the election, I believe. Somebody made some comments that we voted some way before the election.

"June 2, 1987

Dear Dick,

I've spoken to Louise Brown who indicates it is conceivable to provide a mechanism for indigent residents to receive a pool pass, proof of need, i.e. welfare card, etc. It is important that these passes be the same as those purchased so no child or adult is stigmatized by their financial position.

She indicated that to do this we may have to raise the proposed rates for those who can afford to pay by $1.00. We cannot use our children as a battleground. The facts are that there is enough blame to go around for everyone. Obviously, the swimming pool rates should have been raised and voted on during the budget hearings. Finance Chairman, Jim O'Malley, and Council President, Ben Woods, neglected to put the necessary funds in the code account for the swimming pools and neither the Administration nor any member of Council caught this error. But to penalize the public is ludicrous.

It is also ludicrous to argue that since City residents already pay a four percent wage tax they should not be charged for the use of the pools. It is no different than the Zoo, Aviary or Conservatory which charges an entrance fee to both City residents and non-residents."

I could go on and on with that but I think you get the gist of it.

Another letter, July 13, 1988.

"Mayor Richard Caliguiri convinced the majority of Council with a personal request to charge the modest pool fees with the promise that the dollars raised would go to a special fund for repair of City pools. Ben Woods' proposal that we eliminate the pool fees because they are causing more conflict than the $130,000 revenue generated should not be voted on until a public hearing investigating the deplorable conditions of Pittsburgh's 34 public pools is held. The $130,000 realized this year from the sale of pool tags must be used to ensure that all pools are structurally sound, secure and clean."

And we all know we didn't get $130,000, or, if we did, $60,000 of it was used to generate the collection of the dollars.

In winding it up, as you know, we all received a letter from Joseph N. Cogley, Assistant Director of the City of Pittsburgh Department of Parks and Recreation. In it he states, "The pool maintenance staff is currently under so much stress, as much stress as our pool mechanical systems. The pool division has a staff of five people to maintain 35 pools. Additional funds are absolutely necessary to keep our pools in a safe and operating condition. Without the necessary additional funds we will not keep up with the maintenance demands."

And he says, "But I see these pool conditions. I want you to know the problems can become overwhelming."

In summary, what is happening is that for a modest minimal pool fee we will be able to maintain for a greater period of time the operation of our pools without having to shut them down. I have personally gone out into the community, I have met with the neighborhoods, I've met with the people, and they are not upset about paying their fees, but they are upset that the pools are not in good condition.

We have all voted, I think almost unanimously, not to have a pool fee originally because we thought that those who pay four percent should not be double taxed. But when we get down to the reality, and the reality is very simple, do we want to shut down the pools, do we want to have pools that are not safe where we can have accidents? As I stated the other day, the bottoms of the pools are coming up, the tiles are cutting our children. We need sanitary conditions put into the pool areas where there are showers and toilet facilities that need repair. They desperately need maintenance.

I was told by the Administration that if we recalcitrantly do not sustain the pool fee that the pools will deteriorate to the point where it will be a moot issue. The pools will just shut down by themselves. That is fact. So, let us not fight amongst ourselves. We're not talking about huge sums of money; we're talking about a very small amount.

In closing, let me state that one of the things that I fought for before the new members of Council got here, year after year after year, was to be sure that any charge to our citizens, be it senior citizens who've been in homes for years that they were not exempt from gentrification taxes where the community's tax goes up, and for those who cannot indeed afford $20 for a family to go to a pool or whatever the smaller amounts are, that those people would be exempt. And for years I was told it couldn't be done. But when push came to shove and we said we will not vote for the bill unless that provisos was put in, that the pool fees took into consideration the issue of the indigents who could not pay. And also, it was done in a manner that no one would know who paid and who did not pay. And I think that anybody not voting at this point and having the facts before us — You know, we always vote with what we know but we learn more things as we go along. Anybody whose mind is locked in the closed position is never going to serve the public well. Things have changed; we've learned it's a matter of having these fees or not having pools. It's as cut and dried as that and we're not being misled and we're not being lied to.

I would encourage my colleagues to please vote to sustain the pool fees and to vote against eliminating them.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, in regards to the pool. I know that there has been a comprehensive study and a very detailed study made by the Pennsylvania Fair Taxes Coalition. They're recommending, which we should be mindful with the new budget coming in later this fall, that if we would put up 85 hundreds of a mill, less than one mill on land tax, that that would be more than enough money to take care of the pool and other things. And certainly I think that we should consider this when we look in November to the Pennsylvania Fair Tax Coalition. I've always found them to be a very thorough and a very honest group as they watch the meaning for even thinking of an increment of taxes. But then this would allow each home owner in the City of Pittsburgh well under $1 to pay for our pool, the conditions of the pool, and then it would be an even distribution to it. I am not for senior citizens paying anything. And the way the fee is now, the senior citizens are not excused from a pool fee. Thank you.

Mr. Pollock:

Over the last two or three years it seems like we've had the discussion of pool fees every few months. It's probably the fifth or sixth time that it's come up before this Council in one form or another. I believe that over these two or three years I have been the only member of Council who has been completely consistent in my position on pool fees and that has been total, unequivocal, unconditional support for implementation of pool fees, institution of pool fees and a constant monitoring of the pool fee program.

Let's take a look at specifically what we're talking about here. This year there have been 34,000 permits issued of which one-third have been distributed at no cost to individuals on public assistance. There have been only three to four dozen complaints about the cost of the fees from people who purchased them. The bulk of the complaints, and I'll stipulate that there were indeed many more complaints, but the bulk of the complaints have been in the nature of resentment that individuals are indeed receiving passes at no charge. I don't think that those should even be recognized. If people want to feel bad that others are receiving free passes, then government has no business getting involved in that type of resentment.

Indeed, there are implementation problems. It's a new program; it's only a couple weeks old. There are lots and lots of problems. But that doesn't mean that you throw it out. If we threw out every program that this City started that had stirred up problems, we would hardly have any new programs implemented at all.

Michelle referred to the report that we always see from the Assistant Director, Joe Cogley. He succinctly sets forth the necessity for this income derived from these pool fees. These are extremely modest fees. There's not an individual that I can think of who is not on public assistance, with very, very few exceptions, who cannot afford these fees. Our pools are in extremely bad shape and there is no doubt in my mind. I don't think this is a game of chicken; I think the Parks Department is being totally genuine when they state that if there is not the income derived from these pool fees, that pools will have to be closed.

Everyone makes a great deal of stock out of the fact that we're charging people for something that should be given away and yet I don't hear any complaints about the fact that when someone wants ballfields or pavillions or other things they have to pay a fee. When our lawfirm has its summer picnic and we rent a pavillion, the pavillion is there, yet we still have to pay a couple hundred dollars to use the pavillion. No one complains about that; it's a Parks facility.

User fees are increasing all across the nation. I've been saying this for years now. They are an enlightened form of pricing a service. Those that use the pools will help defray the cost, the mounting cost, an increasingly mounting cost, of the maintenance fees.

You know, I'm almost tempted to vote for the bill if it would mean that indeed some pools would be closed, because I also have been saying for several years that pools have to be closed. Here's why I say that and why I've said it for years. This City provides swimming pools to the public and, if this bill passes, will be doing so at no fee at the rate of one pool per 12,000 people. The average for other cities across the nation which provide pools, and practically every single one of them does so at a fee, is one per 100,000 people. Don't these figures bother anybody on this Council? We're losing people at the rate of 10,000 a year and no one wants to close any pools. Some members of Council don't even want to charge a small, modest fee for the providing of these pools.

We have to examine every imaginative, innovative source of revenue that we can think of. And, yes, I would even support looking at some of the fees to which Mr. Ferlo just alluded. Until we get local tax reform, until we lower our repressive, regressive wage tax, we need money and we need these pool fees. So, as I have always done, I will support the pool fees and I think this Council has to have the courage to do what is not necessarily in our personal best interest but is what is clearly in the City's best interest. Thank you.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, that's right, this issue has been battered around four times on Council. Going back over a year and a half, actually, I voted against pool fees and for that reason I will vote to support this bill which eliminates pool fees after the year 1988.

The reason why I'm doing that is simple. It's an additional tax to a City resident. Any way you look at it, that is what it is. City residents today, in comparison to surrounding municipalities and to many other cities of comparable size, pay more in taxes than they do, particularly if you look at municipalities surrounding the City of Pittsburgh where their wage tax is one percent. Ours is four percent; of that, there is a portion, 2.125 percent is the City, 1.875 percent is the School Board.

It's very important that we do not put an additional fee or tax on City residents at this time. The reason why that's so important is that the average wage earner in the City of Pittsburgh makes less than $20,000 a year. Now if there's a family, a husband and a wife, and they have two children and they're making $20,000 a year or less, and they are trying to buy food, they are trying to pay increased utility costs, increased food costs, they're trying to buy clothing and they're trying to pay for all the other expenses that exists, is $20 a lot of money? You're darn right it is. And to those people, that means a whole lot. There are Councilmembers that are laughing when I say that. But I'm talking for the person that makes $20,000 a year that has two children. The family.

In addition to that, they're taxed right now more than other municipalities in this region. True, other municipalities surrounding the City of Pittsburgh, some of them have pool user fees. Some of them also have fees to pick up your rubbish. Some of them also have fees for the volunteer fire department, for the paramedic service, for the use of other facilities. The City of Pittsburgh doesn't, and that's our advantage right now. You know, when I sell the City of Pittsburgh to other people, I say, "Look, we may have a wage tax that's slightly higher, but you don't have to pay for your fire department in addition to your taxes. You don't have to pay for your pools, until this year, in addition to your taxes. You don't have to pay to pick up your rubbish in addition to your taxes." When you begin to put all of those other figures into the equation, it's not as bad as everyone thinks.

In addition to that, it's important to note that tax reform is going on right now, today, in Harrisburg. And, hopefully, there will be tax reform. But with tax reform you're going to see a sales tax go from six percent to seven percent. And the person making $20,000 a year, when they go out and buy various things that they need, they're going to pay more on a sales tax. It's not going to just be a wage tax; it will become an income tax. In addition to that, there won't be a $10 occupational tax; there's probably going to be a $20 occupational tax.

How much can we tax people? How much can we tax the average wage earner that makes $20,000 a year? That's my point. I've been saying that going back two years. I'll continue to say it and originally I was the only member of Council that said it. Other members of Council are now very much involved in the issue and I'm very pleased to see that the bill has been introduced. And in good conscience, I have to vote for this bill which eliminates pool fees.

Let me further state, if there's a reduction in the wage tax in the future due to the tax reform, should we consider user fees? Probably yes. Has there been any indication that that is going to happen, 100 percent, as of this date in August, 1988? No, there hasn't. Consequently, this is a precedent that was set last year which I believe will continue at a greater pace with rubbish, with basketball courts, with tennis courts, with everything that's happening in the City of Pittsburgh. Our exodus won't be 10,000 people a year; it will be 30,000 people a year if we begin to do these things. So, we have to find ways to get around it and pay for it. If there is additional cost and we need an additional $100,000 a year for maintenance of the pools, maybe we can have a tag, but maybe we can go for a sponsor to pay for the tags at the swimming pools. Maybe we can do innovative things but we can't tax the person again, the average wage earner, that makes $20,000 a year that's trying to support a family.

That's how basic this issue is and that's how I believe and that's the reason why I'm voting in support of it and I think every member of this Council should vote in support of it. Thank you.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, I've been consistent and I've only been here since January 4th. I've tried to bring this bill up twice and it failed. I'm glad to see the bill being reintroduced.

I can't say it any more simply than the fact that I think the working class in this City has been nickled and dimed to death. I'm voting in favor of this legislation because I want to remove some of those nickles and dimes.

I think Mr. Wagner made some very good points about the fact that when we sell the City and we try to defend the City and it's wage tax, the first thing out of my mouth to many of those suburbanites is well, we don't have to pay separately for garbage and when a paramedic shows up and Mr. Wagner makes the point about the swimming pools.

In relation to some of the comments by Michelle, one of the reasons why some of our kids are cutting their feet on the bottom of these pools is not so much the fact that they're in disrepair; it has more to do with the fact that a supervisor or a foreman was asleep on the job. I mean, we've had painting done in some of these pools, three that I know of in particular, where the painting was done right over glass. Instead of getting in there first and sweeping up the glass, the painters, for reasons unbeknownst to me, painted right over the glass. That has nothing to do with the issue of user fees for pools and the issue of the austere budget; it has more to do with incompetence on the part of the work force, whether it be General Services — I don't know who is responsible for the painting of the pools.

In relation to the issue which I raised earlier, again, until I see this Council becoming more austere and being more discriminating on some of the priorities. As far as I'm concerned, we should get rid of car phones in department directors and other City cars and that would give us the money that we need that we're raising now. It's taking us over $60,000 of additional budget costs to help administer and pay for the $130,000 that we're collecting. So, we're not going to actually yield $130,000 because it's costing us a heck of a lot of money just to administer it.

I don't feel new taxes are needed because, again, I make the argument that we haven't spent well the money that the taxpayers have given us.

I'll just conclude with those remarks.

The Chair:

I'd just like to say one thing as the last speaker. I agree with many of the things that Mr. Wagner says, many of the things that you have said, Mr. Ferlo, and like you, Michelle, I agree with what you said that after a couple years you can change your mind, you do learn from experience. You do learn from having this job and that's why I've changed my mind.

And like you, Mr. Pollock, about people leaving, I agree with that. They are leaving because we are taxing them to death. We have nothing to offer.

This lousy pool fee, the lousy $20, I've had people that told me that was the hair that broke the camel's back. They're tired of the City; they're paying the most. And Parks and Recreation, $70,000 is not a lot of money; we all know that. They can get that $70,000 a lot of places. Arts in the Parks; they can do away with that or start charging for that because there are many suburbanites that come there. That could raise them $70,000. The Shakesperean Festival; they could do away with that or start charging people that are coming to see that. Most suburban people come to see that, not City people, suburban people. The Fourth of July Celebration; we have a quarter of a million people watching that. They could do away with that or start charging some kind of a fee. They can't charge to watch but they could do away with that and save $50,000. There are many, many ways that we can come up with that $70,000.

And the best way is to put it in the Capital Budget. When we want to repair a fire house or a police station, this building or any one of our other buildings, it goes into the Capital Budget. I don't buy Louise's or Carmen's idea about they're going to close 35 pools. For $70,000, no way. All they have to do is think a little bit. We give more money away every budget time, this Council and the Administration. All we have to do is stop and say we're not going to give it away.

And I'm not against suburbanites, by the way. We need them. But I'm not going to give them any activities or any recreational facilities unless they pay for it. And if we have them paying for it, we don't have to close the pools; we'll have the best pools in the country. Thank you.

Mr. DePasquale:

Question called for.

Michelle Madoff:

Why are you cutting off debate?

The Chair:

I'm not cutting off debate; I let everyone speak and I asked if there were any more speakers and I said I would be the last speaker.

Michelle Madoff:

Point of Order. Robert's Rules says everyone — We are entitled to rebut what has been said. Why are you cutting off debate without a chance to respond?

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |

AYES 7 NOES 1

(MR. COYNE VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Lyons:

I move to adjourn.

Mr. Ferlo:

Doesn't Motions and Resolutions come next?

Mr. Lyons:

I moved for the adjournment.

Mr. Ferlo:

I know but I have a motion to discuss.

The Chair:

The resolutions are gone; we took them in the beginning of the meeting. So everyone understands that, it started on January 4th of this year. We used to take them behind but now Motions and Resolutions are taken at the beginning of the meeting. Discussions are at the end of the meeting.

His motion was in order but I'll let you have discussion.

Mr. Pollock:

I understand the resolutions come at the beginning but what's a motion at the beginning of the meeting?

The Chair:

Motions and Resolutions are at the beginning of the meeting.

Mr. Pollock:

They're the same thing?

Mr. Ferlo:

Wait a minute.

The Chair:

Wait nothing. I'll set the agenda.

Mr. Ferlo:

Then you have to change it accordingly. But the agenda before me has been motions and resolutions at the end of the meeting. If you're going to change that, please let us know.

The Chair:

Mr. Ferlo, it's been changed since you've been on Council. It's not printed that way but I'll guarantee you it will be changed from here on in. In writing.

Alright, under discussion, what do you want to discuss?

Mr. Ferlo:

This I want to discuss. At the end of the meeting Councilmembers have been afforded an opportunity to speak on whatever subject.

The Chair:

Right, and always under discussion. But Motions and Resolutions

Mr. Ferlo:

I understand that, but it's unfair to cut that debate just because someone quickly says motion to adjourn.

The Chair:

Mr. Ferlo, let me tell you something. I know you're a stickler for procedure, and the procedure is, a motion to adjourn is always in order.

Now, if you have discussion, let's hear your discussion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you. Very briefly because I know everyone wants to get out of the room. I only want to ask, without making any speech about the incident this weekend regarding the Regatta, I would just like to ask the Chairman to receive a report from the Solicitor as well as the Department of Public Safety regarding the incident, not only in terms of what they did well, what they did poorly, but what the ramifications are and I'm specifically curious, from the Solicitor, regarding the issue of liability. Very simple. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Michelle Madoff:

On another matter. As you all know, and you alluded to it, Mr. President, that the Legislature has gone back into an emergency session to address the issues of the tax reform along with some other items. I sent a letter to every State Legislator on July 14, 1988. We had all been sent memos by Mark Zabierek saying, whatever you do, do not make this a Pittsburgh issue because if it's a Pittsburgh issue, it becomes chauvinistic.

What I did was send a memo or letter which says that the City of Pittsburgh taxpayers are being denied the proper police protection and services because we make the services available not only to Allegheny County residents but to the five county region west of the Alleghenies. We see license plates from Ohio, from West Virginia, from New York state, from Maryland, who come to our special events, the special events being the fireworks, the Regatta, the Three Rivers Festival, etc. We don't want to do away with those things. That's what makes Pennsylvania special; not just Pittsburgh. But we cannot deny those residents of our City, our taxpayers, the burden of having to pick up the debt service on the bills and the taxes that have to be paid in this City and not get tax reform from Harrisburg.

So, what I'm asking is to urge everyone to get on the phone, call anybody you know in Harrisburg, and point out that this is not a Pittsburgh issue on tax reform; it is an issue to keep Pennsylvania viable, keep Pennsylvania the place that people may want to come and do business, because we do have these wonderful, tremendous events that we should continue having, but Pittsburghers cannot just keep that burden on themselves.

Mr. Pollock:

One brief, pleasant item I'd like to share with Council. Several years ago I was being educated on a North Side issue by Mark Schneider from the North Side Civic Development Council and Ralph Horgan from the Troy Hill Citizens Council. And while they were in my office, my administrative assistant at that time, Laura Tissue, was also there. Mr. Horgan met Laura Tissue in my office and proceeded to begin dating her. Subsequently, Laura Tissue was lured away to bigger and better things by Pete Flaherty and is now working on his staff in the County Commissioner's Office and Mr. Horgan acceded to my wishes to have him work for me and serve the City.

I'm pleased to report that as of last week, Laura and Ralph are now officially engaged, to be married, and I point this out for several reasons: number one, of course, to wish them good luck and congratulate them; number two, to report how this should bode well for City-County relations; and number three, just to provide the latest example of all the good things that are accomplished in my office.

Thank you.

The Chair:

Mr. Pollock, are you running a dating service?

---

Mr. Pollock:

Stop by.

And on the motion of Mr. Lyons

Council adjourned.

ONE—HUNDRED TWENTY-FIFTH COUNCIL

BEN WOODS ..... President Pro-Tem
MICHAEL PERRY ..... City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON .. Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, August 15, 1988

PRESENT:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Michelle Madoff  |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Pollock      |
| Mr. Ferlo      | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Lyons      | Mr. Woods        |
|                | (Pres't Pro tem) |

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

The Chair:

What we're going to do first is take a resolution; we'll go with that and then presentation of papers because we have a few bills we want to take up in the Committee Meeting. Then we'll recess, go to our Committee Meeting, then come back to our Legislative Meeting.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

I'd like all the people from Public Works to please come up. I'd like to say this fine crew came in third and won a great honor for the City of Pittsburgh in the Anything That Floats Contest.

The Chair presents

No. 1270 WHEREAS, on Sunday, August 7, 1988, "The Anything that Floats Race" was held as part of "The Three Rivers Regatta", an annual event in the City of Pittsburgh, now celebrating its Eleventh Anniversary; and

WHEREAS, the Council of the City of Pittsburgh recognizes the importance of such events, drawing participation from many civic and private sectors, bringing much acclaim and attention to the beautiful waterways of our city; and

WHEREAS, now on the occasion of participation in the "Anything that Floats Race" by the Second Annual float, "The Citiworks", the Council of the City of Pittsburgh would like to formally salute and congratulate the participants for their planning, participation and their sincere dedication which resulted in the Shop 'N Save award for best promotion and a 3rd place trophy for the Best Craft Design, and also to have the notable float, "The Citiworks", and its crew: Chairman Lou Gaetano, Captain Jose Serpa, Sailors: Puddy and Mary Lou Sell, Linda Noska, Rhonda Simon, Ron and Karen Freyermuth, Greg, Kathy and Wendy Feigel, Jeannie Filbert, Mary Ann Hruska, Mary Kay Whalen, Connie Jamison, Bill Todd, Ray Wolfgang, Joyce Rabinovitz, Susan Rechichar and Bob Serpa, Carriers: Rich & Joyce Bushmen, Denny & Mickey Sullivan.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, do hereby congratulate and honor their achievements and extend our best wishes for future voyages of the mighty, 'The Citiworks', and its formidable crew.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Gaetano:

First, I'll be very truthful with you, I thought it would sink, and it cost me a breakfast with the Captain. But I'd like to thank all the members of Public Works and also, Law, Engineering and the honorary other departments that helped us. Thank you very, very much for all the work they've done.

I knew we could build street sewers, bridges and everything else but this is a first with a boat.

Mr. Ferlo presented

No. 1268 A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts, or the use of existing Contracts for public sidewalk construction at various locations within the City of Pittsburgh, and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Public Works.

Mr. Ferlo moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Why is this next bill such an emergency? There is no emergency and I don't want to introduce it.

The Chair:

I'll introduce it.

Michelle Madoff:

When that happens to someone else and they don't want to introduce it, I'll introduce the bill.

The Chair:

You can't. The President of Council or Acting President of Council can do that, Michelle, but nobody else can.

Michelle Madoff:

We've always had other people do it.

The Chair presented

No. 1269 Resolution transferring $104,150.00 from Code Account 1926 (192609), Municipal Obligations for Non-City Water Agencies, Administration Division, Department of Water, to Code Account 1927 (192708) Refunds, Department of Water.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Wagner moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

I need a motion to recess.

Mr. Lyons:

So moved.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

And on the motion of Mr. Lyons

Council recessed.

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, August 15, 1988

And the hour of 1:30 o'clock, P.M. having arrived and the time of recess having expired, Council reconvened and there were present:

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The Chair presents

No. 1271 Communication from Sophie Masloff, Mayor, City of Pittsburgh, returning with her veto Council Bill No. 1021, "Resolution authorizing an agreement to implement a 'City-wide food distribution and services program', at a cost not to exceed $200,000.00." Also, Council Bill No. 1015, "Resolution transferring the aggregate amount of $200,000 00 from various code accounts to Code Account No. 1103, Miscellaneous Services, Department of City Planning."

Which was read.

(MAYOR'S VETO LETTER)

August 11, 1988

Dear Mr. President Pro tem
and Members:

I am returning as vetoed Council Bill 1021 which authorizes an agreement to implement a "City-wide food distribution and services program" at a cost of $200,000.00 and Bill 1015 which takes funds from various City operating Department Code Accounts to fund this program. I have been forced to take this action because this Bill provides a program that is not within the scope of City government and is unconstitutional under Article IX, Section 9, of the Pennsylvania Constitution.

The City Solicitor has already informed you that such a grant is illegal under Article IX, Section 9, of the Pennsylvania Constitution. That provision provides that the City cannot enter into an agreement or give general tax revenues for a purpose not authorized by the General Assembly. The distribution of food is not a City function.

The General Assembly, however, has provided that other entities of government are to provide care to those in need. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which has an extensive welfare program, and Allegheny County and its Institutional District, are the governmental entities to fund and carry out a free-food distribution system.

For the City to use general tax revenues to begin an unauthorized activity would be, in effect, to subsidize the operation of another level of government. It gives the impression that a solution has been provided. Because the General Assembly did not consider this a proper City function, it did not provide the City with taxing authority to support a systematic approach to such a program. Because Council is using general tax revenues to fund this program, it lessens the City's ability to provide services that the City was established to provide.

Since I've become Mayor, I've learned that the hardest part of this position is not saying "yes" but saying "no" to requests. The City has so many needs and its resources are limited. All of us in our lives know that appeals to the heart must sometimes be refused for the general good. This City will continue to direct federal funds under its control to help deal with hunger in Pittsburgh. We will not break the law, however, or make false promises.

Accordingly, I am returning Council Bills 1021 and 1015 as vetoed.

Very truly yours,

Sophie Masloff
Mayor

(END OF LETTER)

Mr. Ferlo moved to override the veto.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

On the motion to override the Mayor's veto, in relation to the allocation of $200,000 to support not only food pantries that obviously are in need of additional support, but equally as important, support, public dollars support of our tax dollars for this City's only anti-poverty agency, the Pittsburgh Community Services Incorporated.

I think it's shameful that our City has not made a dollar commitment to support our own agency that's responsible for administering programs in relation to low income people and families in the City of Pittsburgh. Sure, we've given this agency Community Development Block Grant Funds, we've given them monies from other federal sources in the state grants, the community services grant; but we've never given them one dollar of public dollar commitment. And I think it's time that we increase the figure and make a public commitment.

As has been clearly demonstrated by the public hearing as well as countless discussions that we've had, a majority of this Council has felt strongly about the need to give assistance to the food pantries. I think we recognize that, unfortunately, whether we like it or not, there is a need for food assistance. Hopefully, if we have a new democratic regime in the White House for the next four years, maybe we can make some changes in our economy. But we know very strongly that this region, our area, has suffered tremendously and that we have the working poor as well as the traditional low income individuals.

So, I would ask to support the override. I did point out that there are many other cities across the country that use tax monies to support human service programs in addition to feeding people.

I find it laughable that Mr. Pellegrini and the Mayor would send back in her letter to Council in her objections stating that its illegal. The Mayor herself, Mayor Masloff herself, indicated in past legislation but supporting the Polished Apple for food assistance, she herself initiated a grant of general fund dollars, not Community Development Block Grant, not other state dollars, but City tax dollars to support an agency delivering food services. This Council also supported the Lutheran Service Society for food related distribution of cheese and butter for the amount of $35,000. Now, why there was no grand letter from the Solicitor saying it's illegal in those instances is unbeknownst to me.

Very clearly, the money is there. It would mean a fund balance deficit of not eight or nine million or five or six million but $200,000 less than whatever our fund balance is there. We have the money, I say let's make the commitment. And quite honestly, members of Council, we know that if we override the veto, we are still presented with the reality that the Administration may not actually make real the contract. But I say let's move this to a higher level. Let's ante up. Let's pass this legislation, override the veto, and let the advocacy groups as well as Council engage in a dialogue with the Administration on whether or not they actually contract out and provide this grant for the Pittsburgh Community Services. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President and members of Council, I have some great concerns about going into the General Fund to take money for indigents who need dollars in which to sustain themselves just to eat. However, if we don't do something, people don't eat. They can't work, even if we have jobs for them. They can't take courses in literacy. They're really ineffectual; they can't do anything else that we provide for them.

I looked at the numbers and, as you know, all of us have been wrestling with this for a very long time. It would be unfair to say that this Council or this City has been heartless because indeed we've given over $200,000 when you take Unspecified Local Options and UDAG grants and other monies that funnel through us. And there has been some operating dollars, tax dollars, allocated towards the $250,000 approximately that have been channeled towards food.

I was approached to see if we could, what I would vote for, one shot, one time, shortfall of this $200,000. I want to let Council know that I called and have been in the process of calling Westinghouse Electric, Alcoa, the Heinz Company, Koppers Company, there's a list of all the major corporations, and it seemed to me that had we had more time and this was not a last minute kind of effort, I had no doubt that additional dollars for the shortfall could have been provided by the corporations. We deal with so many issues here, there's so many pieces of legislation, that it's impossible, we're not computers, to keep all the information in our heads. But at one point there was a project through the United Way headed by Fred Just, and I believe the other person was Jack Herrity, who were trying to raise money from corporations. They got started but there was this dichotomy with the Mayor who wanted the money to go to the Pittsburgh Community Service, Inc., and I guess it sort of, the looking for the money from the private corporations, fell by the wayside.

As you may recall, for years I have been trying to get a grants person from this City, somebody who would go out to the communities with the credibility of the Mayor and the Administration and Councilmembers, to address these kinds of issues. It seemed to me in my initial calls that the money is there but it's too late to get it for this year. Therefore, I think that as humanitarians, and also having looked, because I asked to have presented to me other cities with the same kind of population size, same kind of problems with dollars, that their tax base were rated in the same ratings as ours, have indeed given money from their operating tax base.

I don't know with the problems of Pittsburgh that we can continue to do that, but I think we need to restructure the whole way we do business in the City. Our priorities have just completely gone out of whack.

Whether we want to delve into the dollars, and whether it's going to affect next year's budget, is really, in a sense, a moot issue simply because $200,000, whether we spend it on sidewalks, or $200,000 whether we spend it on overtime, or $200,000 that we spend in giveaway programs, overbids, almost every major contract goes out at least $200,000 over what it should be, indicates that we need to really streamline government. And a streamlined government will be able to deal with the things that need to be dealt with on a priority basis. Perhaps the first priority is seeing that people can eat.

I want to go on record that I'm going to change my vote and I want it to be a matter of record that this is a one-time seed money shortfall until the end of this year, and that I will vote for this this year and not vote for it again, providing we have Council smarten up, get a grants person at budget time, get rid of the person we keep sending over to some agency across the street who doesn't want the money, doesn't take it, doesn't use it - we gave him $40,000; there's $40,000 out of the $200,000 that was never used - and start to help where the shortfall of the tax dollars base ends in making some of the important projects viable.

I do this with great trepidation. I have great concerns as to whether it's the right thing. But I don't think, as a human being and as an elected official of this City, that from what I've been shown we can let people go hungry at the end of this year. But we can't keep coming back next year and saying, okay, I want to do it again, I'm going to do it again. That means that budget hearings this year have to be structured in such a way that we look at our total dollars, our Unspecified Local Options, our UDAG dollars, and they are several million dollars, I believe, and we decide what's going to be a priority. I would like to see that money structured for City residents for food. I'm not sure if the process now gives it to City residents; could you answer that, Mr. Ferlo?

Mr. Ferlo:

Very quickly, if I may be permitted, the money would go to the same agency that has handled the previous money, the Pittsburgh Community Services, which only serves City low-income residents, and it's the City's anti-poverty agency.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, do I have your permission to ask another question?

Mr. Ferlo, what guarantee do we have that next year when we go through our budget and our budget process that you won't come back and say, "Okay, we got Madoff to change her vote; that was 1988 and '89 is a new year and we want the Polished Apple, we want this, we want that, we want the other thing", that it won't come out of operating dollars?

Mr. Ferlo:

Very quickly, Michelle and members of Council, I think really what needs to happen is to override, support the emergency legislation, but discuss this very point that Michelle has raised as part of the annual budget proceedings. And if there is a clear indication of Council, the need, and if we allocate dollars with CDBG funds or other sources, then we will not have to go into the operating fund. And that's a debate I would like to see take place, as Michelle has suggested, as part of the annual budget proceedings.

Michelle Madoff:

The concern I have, Mr. President, and I presume you will be here and most of us will until 1990, is that what do we do? Do we take the food out of people's mouths or do we take the uniforms off the baseball and junior leagues? Do we cut out a lot of other programs that I feel are just as important, the Women's Center, the Battered Women's Center? There are so many needy things that have to be addressed that we had better start to think about having a grants person that will go out and get the money from the corporate sector.

I want to know how much money the United Way gets off the top for their programs. I want to know if the United Way will indeed, and they've already told me, I've already spoken to Fred Just and I've spoken to Jack Herrity, they are willing to spearhead raising this money next year. The only reason I'm voting for it this year is that it's too late for them to get organized to do the job. I called a number of companies; I was told that the money was there, that they will give money, and they have given money, and that they care about this problem. But somebody has to address it and, believe me, it's a full time job and Councilmembers don't have the time to make that a full time job.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, I'd like to say that we have already given very freely to the food bank and in this City. It becomes a thing that it's infinite and it's abstract. How much must we give? I hate to see people go hungry; I'm very passionate to that cause. But yet I don't have the power to separate or divide a few fish and a few loaves of bread among the multitude to see that they eat all the time. However, I would like to say that I would be more satisfied if the food, not that other people shouldn't be fed, but be left solely to the residents of the City of Pittsburgh. I raise the question, where are the other municipalities to help this cause, and certainly, my problem is taking the money from the general fund instead of from the CDBG. That's the shaky part of it. I feel that it should be a great big important budget item in the coming year. People should be fed, they should not go hungry if it's in my power. And certainly I feel that the only thing I have with the bill is the source of its money.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Coyne            Michelle Madoff
Mr. Ferlo            Mr. Woods
Mr. Lyons            (Pres't Pro tem)

AYES 5                NOES 3

(MR. DEPASQUALE, MR. POLLOCK
AND MR. WAGNER VOTING NO)

And there not being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the veto was sustained.

The Chair presents

No. 1272 Communication from Sophie Masloff, Mayor, City of Pittsburgh, returning with her veto Council Bill No. 1076, "Resolution amending Section 1 of Resolution No.
987 approved December 4, 1987 entitled, Resolution establishing a schedule of fees and charges in connection with Parks and Recreation's Swimming Pools Program" by providing for scheduled fees only for the year 1988.

Which was read.

(MAYOR'S VETO LETTER)

August 12, 1988

Dear Mr. President Pro Tem
and Members:

I am returning as vetoed Council
Bill 1076 which prohibits the imposition of pool fees in future years.

This action by Council is contrary to the national trend of having users of facilities, such as swimming pools, help defray some costs of those facilities' operation and maintenance. In view of the fees charged by other local communities, the fees are modest and have been generally supported by residents and pool users. General and capital funds can no longer alone support the pool operation and maintenance.

Lack of pool fees will cause the City to defer maintenance and renovation that eventually could lead to pool closings.

An unintended but pleasant effect of the imposition of pool fees is the change in attitude of pool users. Pool managers have advised Louise Brown that, despite the increased number of users because of the heat wave, there are less problems at the pools because users have to pay to swim, and accordingly, are less likely to abuse their pool privileges. The old maxim that what is free is worth nothing but what is paid for is to be treasured is again confirmed.

Accordingly, I am returning
Council Bill 1076 as vetoed.

Very truly yours,

Sophie Masloff
Mayor

(END OF LETTER)

Mr. Ferlo moved to override the Mayor's veto.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Mr. Lyons:

Discussion. Mr. Chairman, while I have gone on record saying that I would oppose this bill, my conscience is saying constituents that have come to me saying that they have the fear, although I've tried to put forth that there would be money available, that before they would have the fear of losing the pools, I don't know if it's true or false, they would rather pay the $20 a year because they think it's minimum. And the only thing I would like to see that there would be some consideration given to the invalid.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't know about other members of Council but I had one lousy weekend. I was on the phone all weekend talking to everybody I possibly could and everybody was lobbying me, thinking I was the swing vote, to try to do what I thought was the right thing and to listen to my conscience.

I, too, have vacillated and changed my mind, as all of us have. We thought about it. Mine have been more verbal and I've actually taken votes on it. I think it's important to go back and discuss what really happened. On the very first vote that was taken on the pools, I am on record as saying, the people who pay four percent tax should not be taxed for the pools. I subsequently changed my vote. I changed my vote because Mayor Caliguiri who was ill, who came to me expressing his great concern, and said, "Michelle, you're right; I'll give you an exemption for the indigents, the people on welfare, I'll make that part of the deal. Give me the vote to put the money in a special fund that will be used only to repair the pools." I know that Mayor Caliguiri went to everybody on this Council and I said, yes, Dick, if that money is going to be used for the pools, to repair them, I will vote with you even though my original logic was that if you pay four percent why should you have to pay for using the pools.

The other sentiments on this Council over all the meetings where we vacillate in our rethinking, and people today, I changed my vote and another changed their vote on something else, was the fact that people who pay taxes, in this case, are strictly City — Excuse me, the people who are being charged the pool fees are strictly City residents. And the argument has been made by the media and by others, well, we charge when you go to a picnic. When you go to a picnic and there are 100 people or 50 people, I don't know what the charge is, but when you divide it amongst everybody it's probably a buck or two bucks and it's a one-shot deal. We're talking about $1 or $2. And generally they're not necessarily City residents. When you use the Zoo, the Aviary or the Conservatory, they're not City residents. The one thing, and that was my initial gut reaction, was the one item that City residents have that is not used by suburbanites are their City pools. We are not a City that's fortunate enough to be built on a lake. I come from Toronto, Canada and we're built on Lake Ontario. We don't have the transportation, we don't have the economy to let the poor children in many communities get to places of recreation or even to jobs.

I'm going to change my mind for a very unique reason. I've had in my office, because somebody went on the air, I don't know which member of Council went on the air and said, "Michelle Madoff is going to be the swing vote; call her." And they did all weekend, day and night, and they also called all day Thursday and Friday. We have had 108 phone calls; that's not counting the letter and that's only in three days. I would think that we've probably had about 250 to 300 calls against the pool fees.

My reason is very different than anyone else's, I think. The day we start to run this government, this City, more efficiently, cut out the waste, cut out the fat, cut out the $5 million in consulting fees in three years that we don't need — Today I asked Lou Gaetano to come to the table on sidewalks and said, "Mr. Gaetano, are you going to hire a consultant to tell you how to put in sidewalks for $100,000?" He said, "No, I'm not." I said, "Go back and tell that to McDermott." McDermott hires consultants for sidewalks, for roofs, consultants for every little thing that happens, that were more than 100 times and the waste in this government paid by City residents who are being charged a pool fee. The calls I got, incidentally, were not necessarily — As a matter of fact, I would say three-quarters of my 108 calls were not from people using the pools. This is very interesting, members of Council. They were not from people using the pools. Many of them were senior citizens, many of them were just people who said if we're going to have a four percent wage tax, then you don't charge a fee for the pools. If you want to lower your wage tax and have a service fee, because we see that coming down the pike like other communities — Those are two different approaches to government but you can't charge us both ways and charge those of us who live in the City. It is a precedent that we find offensive and we don't use the pools. These are not people fighting for their own right to use the pools; these were people who were fighting for a principle. And since I have been fighting that same principle in my efforts to reform the workers' comp, get rid of the giveaways by saying we have $2 million, not to exceed, nobody is going to come and do a project for a million if you say you have two to give away.

Finally, I see that my Council is becoming enlightened. I see them saying over and over again, why do we have all these overruns, why are we giving all this money away. Based on the principle that City residents should either be charged the four percent wage tax or a service fee, not both, and it has nothing to do with the people using the pool, I'm going to vote to eliminate the pool fees for this year. It's a moot issue. We've already collected I think a surplus after costs of initiation of $60,000. That money will indeed go towards carrying out Mayor Caliguiri's wishes towards repairing the pools. But next year again when we get into budget time, we better get our act together and we better get our priorities in order. And we better start thinking about bringing that wage tax down if you're going to have fees for service. I'm talking about fees for service on City taxpayers, not on the Zoo, the Aviary and the Conservatory, all use, three-quarters of it, including the Stadium, by non-City residents. And on principle, I'm going to go back to my initial gut vote, that you don't have a service fee on the people who already have a wage tax. If you're going to lower the wage tax, then you can go back.

Next year, if we don't come up with tax reform, if we don't start to lower our wage tax, if we don't start to tighten up how this City runs more efficiently, then I will introduce a bill to reinstate the pool tax because it doesn't mean anything this year anyway. Why are we voting for next year before next year is here and before we have a chance, as a body, and I think the issue of our priorities are so exemplified by the bills were voting on today. But when we get together we better start to streamline government as a body and come up with some guidelines and some rules. Thank you.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, if this had been a level playing field I would have walked into this room today knowing quite well that we had the ability to override the Mayor's veto, not only on the hunger act but also on the swimming pool because, in fact, and in all honesty, my colleague, Michelle, was the swing vote on both of these pieces of legislation.

Michelle Madoff:

How many times did I talk to you about it over the weekend?

Mr. Ferlo:

It was clear that in reassessing her position, we in fact, did have the votes to override the veto, both on the hunger act as well as the swimming pool. Unfortunately, politics in City Hall and on Grant Street is not a level playing field. I'm disappointed my colleague, Mr. Lyons, and also Mr. DePasquale, who will vote not to override, I wish they not only had a little more intestinal fortitude but, quite frankly, I wish they would stick to their principles. They have both flip-flopped around on the issue and we'll see before the final vote today another flip-flop.

To my colleague, Mr. Lyons, if I could address him, I would say for those in the viewing audience, let this be the opening sail on the district Council election because I plan on taking this issue to residents in Lawrenceville and Garfield and Morningside.

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of Order, Mr. Chairman. The man is completely out of line with those remarks. Stay on the bill.

Mr. Ferlo:

I think it's important that we do hear from the citizens and from those working people and low income people in those communities. I'm disappointed that these colleagues have succumbed to blackmail by the Administration who always utters the threat, "Well, we're going to not have police" on the issue of psychological testing or, on this issue, "We're going to close your pool." That's a bunch of baloney. How people can discuss at length and vote on an issue and then completely flip-flop is beyond me. Certainly there is new information that comes to the table; that's true. But I would like to hear from these two colleagues, what is the new information? What would make you change your vote? If it's a few jobs, then have the courtesy to say that. If it's some other thing that you've been given by Mr. Jacoby or the Mayor, I think you should say that. I think the City residents need to know, why did you sell yourself?

The Chair:

We're getting out of line here. Please, let's not get personal here. Let's talk about the legislation. If you care to ask any colleague what their reason is, that's fine. But do it in a manner other than what you're doing.

Mr. Ferlo:

I have, Mr. Chairman. I think it's clear that Michelle gave a very articulate explanation of her position on these issues and I would like to hear an equally articulate explanation from Mr. Lyons and Mr. DePasquale on these two issues.

On the merits itself, Mr. Chairman, I can only reiterate what has been obvious and what I've discussed to death for the last three months. It's unfair; it amounts to a swimming tax. I think it's clear in the propaganda that we receive in the override from the Administration that they point to municipalities outside the City. What they fail to explain is that all of those municipalities are currently paying a one percent wage tax and they do not have the kinds of obligations for taxes that we do in the City.

I think it's clear; my position has been consistent since January 4th. I think I've set the record in voting no, not for the sake of voting no, but I've attempted to analyze the spending priorities and objectives of this Administration. Many times I have felt that we have not spent money wisely and before I vote for a swimming tax or other user fees, before any such notion should take hold in this City, I think we have a responsibility to one, lower the wage tax and, two, keep our ship in order, keep our house in order as it relates to spending. That has not been the case and I think it's very important that we override this veto and make sure we eliminate the pool fees. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, in my 15 years on Council I never asked a colleague to explain a vote and I won't. Whatever a colleague does is there own personal business and for whatever reasons, that's something else.

Over the weekend, Mr. Ferlo said I flip-flopped the last day or so. About the middle of last week I was quoted on radio, television and newspapers that I would vote to sustain Mayor Masloff's vetoes on both bills. At that time we weren't sure she was going to veto one or even any of them. That's last Wednesday. I haven't changed my mind since last Wednesday. I voted to sustain one and I'm going to vote to sustain the other. I just want the record clear that the decision was not made this morning or last night after some phone calls or whatever.

And in respect to the Councilwoman who got so many calls and letters, I didn't receive one over the weekend. So, apparently either they don't consider me important or couldn't care less. But I don't get these calls and these letters. If I did, I'd probably be swayed one way or the other. Nobody called me and nobody wrote to me.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, in regard to the veto on the swimming pool fees, there has been a lot of discussion on this issue. It's incredible how much discussion has come up in the last year and a half in regard to this bill and the fees. I'll be brief because I think we really have talked about this issue quite a bit.

However, I must state that I think the conversation all has been good because it all seems to get back to taxing in general, the wage tax, what the City is in comparison to other municipalities. And I think it's important that those issues are always at the forefront. It's incredible how a new tax or a new user fee, whichever you want to call it, can bring such a large issue into focus more. I said a year ago, I said six months ago, I said two weeks ago, there is tax reform pending in Harrisburg. I don't think we should be implementing any new taxes or any new user fees until, at the very minimum, we understand what that is all about. Hopefully, we keep hearing and we keep reading that that will take place before year's end, and it plays a very important part in our upcoming budget for next year. With tax reform this City would get additional dollars in various ways by increasing some types of taxes; we should not be implementing a new type of tax with a user fee.

The information that has been provided to us by Mayor Masloff is good information, it's solid information, when you compare the City to surrounding municipalities. However, Mr. Ferlo was accurate in saying that we are only seeing a very small piece of the pie here. True, other municipalities have pool fees. It's also true that other municipalities have fees for their volunteer fire services, fees for their paramedics, fees, many of them, for rubbish pickup. The City of Pittsburgh doesn't have those things. They are the advantages to living in the City of Pittsburgh because we have a 2.1 percent wage tax, not a 4 percent wage tax, the School Board has a 1.9 percent wage tax. The City wants to do something about that and if we can reduce that wage tax, our portion of the wage tax, maybe we should consider user fees as other municipalities have user fees. However, as of this date, August 15, 1988, we have not yet found the way to do that. Therefore, it still isn't time to have additional user fees placed on our residents.

Another important reason in comparison to other municipalities is that the average person in the City of Pittsburgh makes less than the average municipality in this survey; therefore, is less capable of paying user fees to get a recreational service of using swimming pools. Therefore, I strongly recommend that this Council should override the Mayor's veto.

The Chair:

I would like to say something. I received the Mayor's veto also. The Administration put together, I believe, 12 municipalities outside the City. Other than what Mr. Wagner says, we have a two and one-eighth or two and one-tenth percent, let's just go on the four percent because we're including our wage tax, that's City and School, because these include their school tax also and they're one percent. Two of them out of 12 have a one and a half percent. Far, far smaller than the City of Pittsburgh. So, this doesn't wash when you say what they pay for pools and what we are paying for pools. Ask what they are paying for wage tax.

Let's take another item here. This Council this year alone so far, and colleague, please, I'd like you to listen to me very carefully because I think those who are going to switch can switch back and those that voted against this will vote for it. This year alone, this Council has given away $70,000 out of Code Account 10, that's our discretionary money. We gave it to Little Leagues, we gave it to softball teams, we gave it to football teams, we gave it to Lutheran Services, we gave it to Polished Apple. But we gave $70,000 and it's only up until the end of July. That's seven months, and we have a lot longer to go, another five months, and I know there's a bill on this table today for a Little League, that somebody wants to give them money.

Last year, this same Council other than these three new members, gave $147,500 away. Just gave it away. We gave it away to Lutheran Services, we gave it away to Lincoln Place Youth Athletic Association, Spring Hill Civic League, Ernest T. Williams Center, Beechview Athletic Association, Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund. We gave this away, our money out of the general fund, the taxpayers' money. Yet, we want to charge somebody $5 or $10 or $20 to raise a meager $70,000 out of a $290 million budget. Please think about what you're doing. You're dividing this City with what I call an additional wage tax.

Secondly, in our grants and donations, we gave away, this Council at budget time, $728,950 for the same reasons, the same athletic associations and neighborhood groups, the same thing. That's what we gave away and the Administration gave it away. And if you want to put in Carnegie Library and Carnegie Institute, now it will be over $5 million that we gave away out of taxpayers dollars. And now you want to charge them a meager $70,000. People, let's get real here.

Last but not least. In our capital budget right now, Ream Pool Rehabilitation, there's $35,000 sitting there. It was funded and the money is sitting there since 1986. The same rehabilitation and the money is sitting there. $390,000 since 1987, and I'm just starting. Swimming pool design and rehabilitation, $370,000 in 1988 and another $70,000 that's sitting there. This is appropriated money for rehabilitational purposes. West End Pool rehabilitation; since 1985 you have $739,045 sitting there. Since 1986 you have another $191,797 sitting there. In 1986, another $70,000. Bloomfield Pool rehabilitation, since 1986 you have another $194,081 sitting there. Our money sitting there to rehabilitate these pools. Infrastructuring of walls, streets and pools, 1983 we put away another $310,000.

This is over $2 million sitting right there, right now, to go out and fix any pool you want to fix. And that's encumbered monies strictly for pools and we're charging $20 to raise a meager $70,000. It's an insult, it's an injustice to the citizens of this City. I know it and all of you know it and the Administration knows it.

Finally, $24,898,000 is sitting there, unrestricted cash in the capital budget. That's a lot of money. $24,898,000, and we're going to charge people a lousy $5, $10, or $20, only a select group, and we're going to charge them that and only raise a lousy $70,000, and we've got that sitting there. It's unrestricted; we can go and take it right now and fix our 35 pools. We can build 35 pools with that kind of money.

If this Council does anything less than override this veto, shame on you. You're all my friends, but I will tell you this; we have bills on this table today and we have bills coming in the future. We have bills for Little Leagues, we have bills for this group and that group, and I will urge my colleagues, and I will be the first one to do it, I will not vote for another one because then you are being selective. You are taking a certain neighborhood and saying, we will help you but all you other citizens in this City, children, adults and senior citizens, black and white, Catholic and Jewish and Protestant, that we are going to charge you to pay for all these other items. That is not right and I urge you, all of you, to rethink this thing. Those of you who have voted to abolish this last week, do it again. Those of you who haven't, please, think today, think what you're talking about. Vote to override this veto.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, may I ask for some clarification? As of today, since I have given my reason after a lot of soul searching and basically based on a lot of information that you've stated today publicly but I had reviewed all that, and again, as I said, my reason is predominantly not even the pool issue but a principle issue. And I think that's the bottom line on what you're saying. I don't think it's unfair for this Council to request, you don't have to do it, but to request that if somebody is not going to vote to override, why. What made them change their mind? Nobody is under an obligation to do it. As my colleague said, in all these years he's never said to somebody, why are you changing your mind. But I think it goes to the integrity of this Council and to the integrity of the people who vote, who are elected, to say alright, I made a mistake, I realize I made a mistake. Or maybe I'm making a mistake now. But at least I'm voting my conscience.

I want to go on record, and I don't care if the media hears it, my office received a call just before we broke for lunch. The call was to my aide to say, "I understand that Michelle Madoff is changing her votes on the pool." She said, "Yes, that's true; as of now that's where she's leaning." Well, before I do anything about it, I wanted to be sure, I guess I better go speak to George. I think George was George Jacoby, I presume. Obviously, the Administration got to some members of this Council, and we'll be able to tell by the vote whether those persons were influenced by the Administration or are voting their conscience. I see nothing wrong with the respectable request from a colleague to say, would you just tell us why you're changing your vote, if indeed you're changing it. You have no obligation to do it, but I think it would be the honorable thing to do.

Mr. Pollock:

Michelle started off by saying that the only reason she voted for it in the first place was because Mayor Caliguiri came in to see her and asked —

Michelle Madoff:

That was the second place.

Mr. Pollock:

Right. I'm sorry. She changed her vote because the Mayor came and appealed to her personally to change her vote. So, it's irrelevant whatever reason people use to change their vote. They have their own conscience and their own lives to lead.

But I do want to respond to several points on this issue, and I have been consistent on this from day one. All the points that Mr. Woods raised are well taken but I don't understand why everybody who makes arguments always use it as an either/or ultimatum. Why does it have to be that if you vote for pool fees, then you oppose the Little Leagues and the football teams? Why can't you oppose the Little Leagues and the football teams and still have a pool fee? I don't understand why they're related. We need every dollar we can. We need every dollar that we can bring into the City and we need to reduce every dollar of spending. They're not mutually exclusive. In other words, I agree with what Mr. Woods said, but that does not obviate the necessity to have pool fees.

The second point to which I wish to respond, in all the rhetoric about comparing it to other municipalities, you're only looking at neighboring communities and I think that's apples and oranges. What you have to look at are what other cities across this country, of comparable size and comparable wage tax, what are they doing. And every one of them, with I think one or two exceptions, are putting in pool fees. That's what we have to look at, not neighboring communities.

The bottom line is that Pittsburgh has lost 300,000 people and not closed one pool. Pittsburgh has pools at the rate of 1 pool per 12,000 people and the national average is 1 per 100,000 people. And now we won't even charge the people that continue this, really, luxury of providing pools at the rate of 1 per 12,000 people. There should be pools closed. There should be neighborhood pools closed. You can't keep losing 10,000 people a year and not close pools. The pool fees should definitely be there. Everything else, I believe, is nice rhetoric and they're good arguments, but they're not fair arguments and they're not the whole picture and they're really not being fair to the taxpayers, most of whom do not use the pools, the vast majority of whom don't get near the pools.

The Chair:

Mr. Pollock, in response to one thing, and you and I agree to disagree. I didn't bring up neighboring municipalities. The Mayor did and the Administration did in their veto letter. So don't lay that on me or any other member of this Council; take it across the hall. And if you have proof that Cincinnati or Columbus, Ohio, or whatever other city you're naming that has the same population, 400,000 people and they're charging $20, or $50 or 10¢, please bring it in because you never have. We don't know what their wage taxes are; I'm just listening to you now. And if you have those facts there, I'll give you the floor. Please repeat them.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, I can't see how someone says I flip-flop when I'm on record saying that I wouldn't vote for it.

Now, for someone to ask me to say why and pre-empt me, I don't think they should be here. I feel that they would be a prophet or a carpetbagger to try to intimidate me or going from door to door. I'm only putting forth some of the input that I have. I have not voted yet either way. I think my colleagues, I never asked him to divulge their reasoning, and I don't want to know. This is my constitutional right. And if there's anyone who wants to know, he may wait until I vote. And I refute anything, and more especially from a carpetbagger.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, I would just like to state that I am going to vote to uphold the veto. That has been my position from the beginning. I think the figures you brought up today have been very enlightening; I wish I would have seen them sooner. It might have made a bit of a difference and I could have asked that to the Administration. However, I think we all need to be real realistic about this and lobbying, as Mr. Pollock says, goes on all the time. I don't think there's anything wrong with it, if it's you or Mr. Ferlo grabbing me and trying to convince me to go one way; or if the Administration grabs me or a colleague and tries to persuade them to go another way. And I think for certain colleagues to take shots at other ones, merely because we just have been part of the system and have gone along with listening to both sides of the argument is very unfair. And I think, as Mr. Pollock stated, we do need to vote our conscience and do what we think is in the interest of the City and then each and every individual Councilman will then have to live up to that choice that he or she makes. Thank you.

Mr. Ferlo:

In response, Mr. Chairman, I'm only saying to Mr. DePasquale and to my colleague, Mr. Lyons, to put your walking shoes on because next spring we're going to take this issue to the voters.

The Chair:

I would just like to say that there's nothing wrong with lobbying. I lobbied you people; I lobbied you, Mr. Coyne. But the thing is, when I lobbied you, I lobbied you with facts. They lobbied you with rhetoric. Here's the facts; they were in both budgets. All anyone in this Council had to do was look it up. They are facts; it's their figures. They're not Ben Woods' figures, they're not our budget office figures. These figures come from that Administration and that money is sitting there. But remember this now, when you vote, and please remember once again, there's over $2 million that has been sitting there to rehabilitate these pools, some going back as far as 1983. And all of it has been there for well over a year, two years, three years and some of it five years. And they're crying poor? Not on this issue. And it specifically says in the capital budget, pool rehabilitation. And I can find you in that same capital budget, and I have the figures here, other money that is sitting there.

So please, we're going to call the vote. Vote your conscience, and your conscience is, and I know all of you, is to override this veto. I know it, you know it, and you should exercise your conscience.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Woods, may I ask a question? I am sorry with all the dialogue that has gone on today, I missed the last thing you said. Are you saying that in the budget, in the capital budget, there is $2 million that has been sitting there to rehabilitate the pools but was never used?

The Chair:

That's exactly right. And I forget your terminology for it, what do you call it, let it run down. The money has been sitting there since 1983, much of it.

Michelle Madoff:

So that money has been encumbered, the money has been there and we have not used that money.

The Chair:

You chose not to use it.

Michelle Madoff:

I beg your indulgence; I want to make a point. It isn't that I don't believe that the people cannot afford this small amount of money for the pools. That is not the issue. My issue is my gut issue initially before I was approached by the Mayor and that is that this is a fee on people that is an unprincipled fee. We are not talking about people who use our services that are non-City residents, the Zoo, the Aviary, the Conservatory, the Civic Arena, the Stadium, the debt service. We're talking about a city that has very little recreation to offer the poor and the middle income in a community albeit 1 pool for 12,000 people where they don't have pools, but it is something that they're already paying that fee by paying the four percent. That was my initial gut; I changed because I was prevailed upon by the Mayor.

Again, it's a matter of principle. People have called me and said, "I'm a senior citizen; I don't use the pool." I have other people who have called and said, "You're starting user fees. If you're going to do it, so be it; but get rid of the four percent wage tax."

I repeat, and I'll end on this note, Mr. President, there is such outrageous, immoral waste in the mismanagement of this City, that if we cleaned up our act and if we were responsible enough to force that clean-up by stopping the line that says, not to exceed, come and get us, we have $2 million to give away, nobody come in at $1 million. That is the most important thing. This is a minor, little example of why we must get our house in order.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, I have a question. This bill to override would be in '88.

The Chair:

Right. The pool fees would stay through '88 and in '89 they would be gone.

Mr. Lyons:

I think in '89, I'm just making the statement, it should be a big budget item for the 1989 budget.

The Chair:

Let me say this, and this is one thing that should convince you and then we're going to call the vote. We have always encumbered money; well over $2 million just for pool rehabilitation. Let's spend this money and then, if you want, we can debate putting the pool fees back in. Let's vote to override this, spend this over $2 million, and then come back when this money is spent and talk about pool fees. The is taxpayers' money; it's already been taxed. They already paid their fee for the future. Let's spend this money and then come back and talk about pool fees.

Also, with an AFFIRMATIVE RECOMMENDATION,

Bill No. 1214

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance directing the Allegheny County Board of Elections to place before the qualified voters a referendum question which would amend Section 206 of the Home Rule Charter to provide for a vacancy in the Office of the Mayor."

—(SPONSORED BY MR. WAGNER)

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I have moved and all of you have agreed to recommit one of those two bills pertaining to the referendum question. We are left with one bill; the bill that relates to any elected official in the City of Pittsburgh holding two offices at one time.

I firmly believe that this piece of legislation is solid legislation. If we pass it today, it has a good opportunity of getting on the ballot in November and in the future, if the voters approve it in the affirmative, in the future we would not have any potential of an elected official in this City holding two offices at one time.

I am not in any way saying that the situation that exists today is a wrong situation for our Mayor. I respect her and I respect her position. I believe there is simply a void in the Charter. That is what this changes, hopefully, in the future. I used the analogy before, I don't think in any other level of government, at least not to my knowledge, can any elected official hold two offices. That situation exists today in the City of Pittsburgh; that situation needs to be corrected. Not only do we correct that but we leave open the possibility, not the possibility but certainly you will then be able to fill a vacancy in the Council seat if somebody would leave during the next general election.

I strongly recommend the passage of this bill. Some Councilmembers have tried to tear holes in it; you can't tear holes in this bill. This is a good bill; it is good legislation and I hope that all Councilmembers will vote in the affirmative.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, agreeing with the initial premise of Councilman Wagner that there is a situation in the City of Pittsburgh right now that needs rectified, I agree that legislation of this type is in order. However, to go forward to go with it would have the ends justify the means. Even though it's a good idea and hopefully it would lead to better City government, the means by which it came about in my opinion really didn't permit an open debate by the people of the City of Pittsburgh.

And something as important, as I've stated before, as changing the City Charter can't be something that is rushed through and done just for expediency. It's a very serious matter and something that I think we need to look at, not only from the legal viewpoint but also from the viewpoint of political scientists and professors at some of the great universities that this City is lucky to have. I think that citizen groups and other people that are interested out in the neighborhoods deserve equal right to be able to come in here and stand before Council and give their views. And the public hearing last week, although it did technically meet the requirements of a public hearing, I don't feel actually provided adequate chance for input on the part of the residents of the City. Therefore, I would have to vote no on this issue. Thank you.

Mr. Pollock:

Without question, there is need for this legislation. There are just two flaws that I have with voting on it at this time. Number one, I don't see the need to hurry; I don't see the need to rush this through without adequate public comment, without notice to and response from community leaders, political leaders, academicians and so forth. Any other piece of legislation of this importance, how the Mayor of Pittsburgh is succeeded in the event of a vacancy, would achieve all types of comment and I don't understand why we don't get that comment now.

It is also, right now as we are about to vote, unclear to me, and I am certain, unclear to every other member of this Council, what happens if this referendum would pass in November. It has not been made clear to me, and in fact, I think it is being intentionally made ambiguous, whether or not the current Mayor would then have to choose whether to return to Council or to continue in the Mayor's Office. I don't understand why that can't be cleared up. There was a statement from the drafter of the bill that he did not want that cleared up; he wanted it intentionally ambiguous. I don't understand. I don't know what's going on here. There are too many questions. There are ambiguities in the way it is written; the language needs to be polished up, the effective date needs to be placed in the bill, and there needs to be public comment from people far more learned and wiser than any of us. There is a problem that needs to be filled but there is absolutely no necessity to do it in a rushed manner when we have over almost a year and a half before it really should come into play. And we have two more ballots, two more elections after this one, for it to be on the ballot and plenty of time for public opinion, for public input into the way it should be on the ballot, and then two times for the public to vote on it. So, yes, the legislation should be introduced, but just not now.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

AYES 8 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1141

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution vacating Scott Place between Fort Duquesne Boulevard and Penn Avenue in the Second Ward of the City of Pittsburgh."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President and members of Council, on Bill 1141 which is a street vacation, Scott Way between Fort Duquesne Boulevard and Penn Avenue in the Second Ward. In another bill today we approved a vacation for a developer in Shadyside who is building some very nice housing, a great asset to the City. We charged that individual about $5,000. I believe very strongly, likewise, that the individuals, the property owners who are benefitting from the giving up of property in the Downtown area should also pay some fee. It has been determined by the Department of Real Estate of the City that a fair market value of that Scott Place is $320,000. I think if it's good enough for the development in Shadyside, it's also good enough for those other interests that want to take over the property of Scott Place.

At this time I'd like to amend Bill No. 1141 by adding Section 3 to read as follows: "That this resolution, however, shall not take effect or be of any force or validity unless owners of all the property fronting or abutting Scott Place as vacated by this resolution pay into the Treasury of the City of Pittsburgh the sum of $320,000 for the use of the City of Pittsburgh."

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Just to clarify further, Mr. President, there was a discussion. I know we had a hurried meeting in the Finance Committee Meeting, but we discussed this bill as well as the vacation of property at the end of Enfield Street in the Eighth Ward. On that bill I wanted to waive the fee because of Mr. Pellegrini's comments about the public good. I've been trying to make the argument on that bill that this gentleman, at great expense and possibly taking a financial risk, is building some high income housing in that area in the Eighth Ward and, if anything, I think we should be applauding him. We're talking about houses that are going to sell for $130,000. I showed Council the over $100,000 in income that we will receive in school and property and wage taxes and I thought, if anything, we should waive that $5,000 and let this developer use the money for marketing and make sure that he sells all the homes. Council wasn't even willing to second my amendment to do that so I think what's good for the goose is good for the gander.

We should, on this bill, since it always seems when it's Downtown corporate interests, we can pick up the phone and call Sophie or call Pellegrini, we bend over backwards to get what they want. I think they should pay the piper just like anybody else.

If we're going to vacate Scott Place and give them the property, then I think they should pay the fair market value. We are in receipt of a letter from the real estate division, Mr. Chairman, that suggests that the fair market value without a building is $320,000 for that property. If they chose to build a building, which they have some limitations to do, it's value would be over $600,000. So, my amendment is to basically ask for this money. This is the only group we've given a secure income to the year 2062.

Mr. Pollock:

The only point I was going to make is that this is an extremely significant motion and I don't feel qualified or competent at this time to address it without input from the Law Department as to the legality of it and from others who would be able to inform me of the merits of it.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I would certainly be willing to recommit this bill to engage in this discussion. I again make the point that this Council and the Mayor should decide what the public good is. If there is a public good in giving away this land, let's see a development plan for the area.

I move to recommit.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Mr. Pollock:

What happened to the motion to amend?

Mr. Ferlo:

I withdraw it if Mr. Coyne is willing to withdraw his second.

Mr. Coyne:

I withdraw my second.

Mr. Ferlo:

I make a motion to recommit so that we can have the discussion Mr. Pollock has talked about.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

I'd like my comments brought forward for the Record, please.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

---

BEGINNING - MR. POLLOCK'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1257 - WEDNESDAY, 8/10/88)

Mr. Pollock:

I would also like to point out Ben, that this group was one--and I'm 99 percent sure--maybe Mr. Vaughn or Mr. D'Allesandro can correct me. They took a shot at budget time and either got some or didn't get enough or didn't get some and so they're coming back to the well for a second shot and I think that's a horrible, horrible way of doing business and I've said it before that you go through the budget process, you either take what you get or you get nothing and that's all you get but you don't prevail upon some Councilmember to introduce it during the year and then--it's just not fair to all the other groups that go through the process and I have been saying this for months and people give away these monies, parades and all this other stuff.

I want to make my objection to this very clear Mr. Lyons, because you brought up the question of it being a poor minority football team.

I have opposed for two years now every one of these in a totally non-discriminatory manner regardless of race, color, creed, neighborhood. I consider them inappropriate for Council, how can this Council give out money for football teams when I and other members of this Council couldn't vote to give out money for food. I mean, you have to eat before you can catch a pass or throw a pass, I think that's more appropriate. So I can't very well justify giving out money to sports teams and neighborhood parades and drug parades and veterans parades. I mean, they're all very nice and they're great politically but they are inappropriate for City Council to be spending in light of our current tax structure. So I'm the only one who has opposed every single one of these over the last two years, had not introduced any of these over the last two years and not only am I opposed to them in principle, but in addition to that Mr. Lyons, I think there's an issue of fairness, not fairness among colleagues but fairness among the public and that is as follows:

I don't think you've been through a budget process yet but at the end of the year we go through a very, very lengthy budget process. Every one of these groups that wants money, whether it be a veterans parade, a neighborhood group, a sports team, a football team, a little league team, has to make a thorough application, complete application listing all its sources of revenues, its officers, its address, how many city residents it serves, a whole written application that our budget staff has on file. That application is on review and it sits before us and in addition to that, that group has to make an appearance before Council; has to make an appointment to come down wait their place in line, either one night or one morning, take off from work, get a place to park, come down and testify before Council and then they're reviewed by this Council at budget time and then it's monies doled out. For somebody to then prevail upon a member of Council during the year, "Hey, how about introducing a bill for us?" That is patently unfair. It is unfair. All these other football and basketball and baseball teams went through an arduous process with an application, with an appointment, with a review, with testimony with a review by Council and that is a fair process and to either take a second bit of the apple or take a second shot at it or to by-pass that process is not fair to all of the dozens and dozens of groups that did go through that process. So Number One, you have no review, Number Two, you have patent unfairness and Number Three you have an inappropriate expenditure of city monies, so for all of these very, very clear and concise and excellent reasons these should definitely not be entertained during the year and if they are entertained, they should be defeated. Thank you.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I'm sure that everyone read within the last couple days in the media and you've heard on the news that Blue Cross of Western Pennsylvania has announced plans to increase premiums on its drug prescription program for senior citizens, effective very shortly, actually, September 1st of this year. Two other health care programs will also increase on September 1st.

This increase was granted by the State of Pennsylvania Insurance Department. The increases are significant and affect, primarily, senior citizens. Senior citizens are the people who need this service the most and, in most cases, are least likely to be able to afford it.

The City of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County has a very large senior citizen population that will be severely impacted by these rate increases. Senior citizens, for the most part, are on fixed incomes. They budget their monies very carefully in order to live. This rate increase came from nowhere, in essence - I did not hear about it; I don't know if anyone else heard about it - with no prior warning and will cause an adverse impact on the budgets, I believe, of our senior population. To my knowledge, no public input was received on these increases by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Insurance Department, and, if so, that has not been published in any of the articles that have come out on the issue.

I would ask that this Council send a strong letter to Governor Casey asking him to suspend these rate increases until a public hearing before the Insurance Commission can be held. The Governor has the power to do this; we should ask that we utilize it and let the people affected by the increase tell what impact this would have on their finances and their budget. Maybe some innovative ways could be found to avert the increase and costs could be covered some other way or, at the very least, possibly lowered.

So, I'd like to do it in a form of a motion, that a letter be sent to the Governor asking the Insurance Department to suspend temporarily this rate increase and to have some public hearings, some public input, in regard to it. And, in addition, I'd like to say, this is not part of the motion, but I would ask that the public, the general public that is impacted the most, write the Governor and affirm the position that they would like to see this suspended and the increases reduced as much as possible.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like to also see that we get some input as to generic drugs. There are very few drugs that can be -- We all know what generic means, it's a non-brand name product. 99.9 percent of the generic drugs are identical to the brand names with very few exceptions, and those exceptions could be subject to the doctors approval, where people could use the generic drug at probably 10 percent of the cost of the name brand drug. And I think for senior citizen, certainly, that should be part of the availability and they should know which drugs can be substituted. And we ought to encourage the medical profession, we ought to have the Allegheny County Medical Society and the National Medical Society tell its physicians to stop worrying about getting ads in their journals from the drug houses who have the big names and to exempt those people who are least likely able to pay. I think that should be part of whatever we contact the Governor with.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, very quickly, and thank you for the privilege. Regarding my bill, 1257, the $2,500 to the Stingers, my colleague, Mr. Pollock, asked for his remarks to be brought forth from last Wednesday on a negative vote. Well, I challenge that his statement wasn't true. What he said last Wednesday is that in the past two years he has not voted in the affirmative for anything in discretionary spending beyond the budget. That is not so. In 1987, less than a year ago, he voted $60,000 out. But I just want that to be part of the Record.

Mr. Pollock:

What I said, Mr. Lyons, was that I had opposed every single grant to Little League teams, football teams, neighborhood organizations, parades. These kinds of things is what I said I opposed. I voted for a couple others in the past besides the $60,000 you spoke of. I voted for other ones besides that $60,000. What I said I opposed is this indiscriminate giving away, and that was in response to your allegation that it was a racial thing, why I was opposed to this group, and I was pointing out to you that it had nothing to do with race, that I had opposed every other Little League team, every other football team, every other softball team, every other neighborhood group, every other parade, every other veterans group. Every other little thing like that is what I had opposed every time in the last two years. I wanted to clarify that.

Mr. Lyons:

But you made the point, and I'll answer it quickly, you made a point that it was discretionary spending. That was the bottom line. Discretionary spending beyond budget time.

Mr. Wagner moved to approve the Minutes of Wednesday, July 13, 1988 and Monday, July 18, 1988.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

I move to adjourn this meeting and meet again on Tuesday, September 6, 1988 at 2:00 p.m.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Clarification. For the next year, will we go back to the 2:00 meeting as opposed to the 10:00 meeting? What was the purpose of that?

The Chair:

For the summer.

And on the motion of Mr. Wagner

Council adjourned.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

The Chair presents

No. 1328 Resolution that the appointment by the Mayor of James F. Lally, 278 N. Bellefield Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15213 is hereby confirmed and approved as a member of the Board of Code Review for a term to expire September 30, 1991.

Which was read.

Mr. Lyons moved to approve the appointment.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

I second it also for purposes of discussion. Mr. Chairman, I'm very disappointed in our Mayor in the appointment of Mr. Lally to this important board. This has nothing to do with Mr. Lally as an individual; he certainly is and has been someone recognized in the labor movement and I believe he is an officer of a number of different union organizations. The intent of the legislation when we passed it was to have a bona fide representative of a very specific constituent group, and that was the Building and Construction Trades Council.

At my request, and today it has not been produced unless Mr. Perry can tell me otherwise, we have no indication from Mr. Jacoby and Mayor Masloff that this individual is actually the designated representative of the Trades Council and, in fact, that is not the case at all.

Now I don't want to in any way demean or cast any aspersion on Mr. Lally's contribution but I do think it's, one, politically bad on the part of the Mayor and two, I think it's a conflict of interest. Mr. Lally owes his job to the Mayor and to the Administration as the Director of the Stadium Authority working for the authority. I feel that strongly that's a case for a conflict of interest. The idea of having labor representation on the Board of Code Review is to have some independent opinion. We have admitted a long time ago that two of these people would be labor. Out of the 19 members, in no way could they even have a majority, but certainly they could at least have input. And I think it's a slap in the face to the labor movement, to working people in the City, and also to this Council regarding the intent of our legislation which was passed, I believe, unanimously by this body to have an appointment of Mr. Lally, being in the position that he is and representing the interest of the Administration, for him to represent the Trades Council on this important regulatory body.

So, I have to voice a strong objection and desire to vote no and also to ask if we have a right to interview Mr. Lally regarding this appointment.

The Chair:

I would ask Council to vote in favor of Mr. Lally. I have known Mr. Lally all of my adult years, probably since I've been 18 years old. I, too, am a member of the Building Trades. Mr. Lally has been a member in good standing, probably well into 30 some years, maybe 40 years as a steamfitter out of Local 449. He's probably been a business representative for at least 20 years, probably, and probably has served on various executive boards, maybe different committees within 449 and he is a member, he represents 449 in Allegheny Labor Council, as we all know, he is the present President of the Pittsburgh Building Trades. I believe it is the Mayor's prerogative to pick somebody from the Building Trades and I can see no one better, that has more qualifications, than Mr. Lally. And all his time as a tradesman, forget what he does over at the Stadium, as a tradesman, that's his life, he's been there all his life since he's been 18 years old. So, I see nothing wrong with the appointment of Mr. James Lally.

Mr. Pollock:

Mr. Woods, I'm a little confused as to why we're discussing the vote now because all these appointments generally come before Council at our Wednesday session. I didn't hear a motion to not have him come before us —

The Chair:

I heard a motion, and I'm sure you heard it too, Mr. Pollock, the motion was made to approve Mr. Lally by Mr. Lyons and it was seconded for discussion by Mr. Ferlo and I believe Mr. DePasquale also seconded it. That's why it's being discussed.

Mr. Pollock:

I'm just curious. I would ask that we have Mr. Lally come before us.

The Chair:

I have no problem with that if Mr. Lyons wishes to withdraw his motion and if Mr. DePasquale wishes to withdraw his motion. I have no problem with that. I am only going with what was acted on this floor.

Mr. Lyons:

Allow me to raise a question here. Why do we have to bring some before the Board and some we don't bring before the Board?

The Chair:

Mr. Lally has to be the Mayor's appointee but with Council's approval. On a lot of your authorities and boards, it doesn't have to have Council's approval, it just has to have the Mayor's appointment. But this has to have Council's approval. So, if you want to withdraw your motion —

Mr. Lyons:

I am for Mr. Lally's appointment. I endorse that 100 percent. Now, if it would be more fitting for him to come before Council to be interviewed here, I will then withdraw my motion and substitute the motion that Mr. Lally be informed to appear before this Council.

Mr. DePasquale:

I hesitate to withdraw my second but I will to the extent that we're talking about, as you stated, a long time labor leader and I can understand what Councilman Ferlo is saying, that it wasn't the labor itself that made the choice; he feels it was the Mayor. But I would have to say that Jim's first allegiance would be to labor and not to the Mayor's Office in regards to this board.

Mr. Pollock:

I would hope his first allegiance would be to the City of Pittsburgh, not to labor or the Mayor or anybody else.

The Chair:

All in favor of bringing Mr. Lally before this Council signify by saying aye.

Mr. Lyons:

Point of Order. Mr. DePasquale, did you withdraw your second?

Mr. DePasquale:

No.

Mr. Lyons:

I will not withdraw my motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, on the question. I think it's appropriate, as it has been the case many times in the past, it is this Council's prerogative to also agree and consent that we have that individual before us.

The Chair:

Mr. Ferlo, let me have the floor.

We're going to discuss Mr. Lally's appointment. Neither person wants to withdraw their motion. Now, Mr. Coyne, you can discuss the merits of Mr. Lally's appointment, not whether he's going to be called before this body. That is a dead issue at this time.

Mr. Coyne:

I would ask my colleagues, Mr. Lyons and Mr. DePasquale, to withdraw their motions, not that I doubt, and I very much support Mr. Lally's position, but I don't think we should make an exception in having some people come before Council and others not. When we do have that prerogative, I think that Mr. Lally should come in front of us. I have no problem voting for him; I think he does represent labor and he would represent the best interest of the City; however, I don't feel we should make an exception that he shouldn't come. So, if we can't withdraw the motions, then I will have to vote no.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, I'll withdraw my motion for him to come before Council.

Mr. DePasquale:

I'll withdraw my second.

The Chair:

Now is there a motion to have him come before Council?

Mr. Lyons:

So moved.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Lyons moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, July 25, 1988; Monday, August 1, 1988; Monday, August 8, 1988; and Monday, August 15, 1988.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Lyons

Council adjourned.

|                | (Pres't Pro tem) |

ABSENT:

Michelle Madoff
Mr. Pollock

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. DePasquale presents

No. 1343 WHEREAS, on September 12, 1988, the Pittsburgh Department of Public Safety, Bureau of Police Project DARE (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) Program will begin its third year of operation; and

WHEREAS, the primary goal of the program is to assist all youngsters in recognizing, coping and resisting the pressures that lead to experimentation with drugs; and

WHEREAS, to date, fifty-one schools have participated in DARE, and 11,434 students have trained in the program to resist the pressures that lead to experimentation with drugs; and

WHEREAS, this year, 23 schools and an estimated 6,000 students will participate in the DARE program.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, in conjunction with "National Dare Day", hereby recognizes the week of September 15, 1988 as "DARE DAY" in the City of Pittsburgh and encourages the citizens of this City and throughout the nation to uphold the goals of this worthwhile program.

Mr. DePasquale moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale:

Is Ms. Regina McDonald here?

Sergeant McFadden:

I came here in place of her.

Mr. DePasquale:

As you can see, this program has only been underway for about three years but it's been a very successful one. These people work very hard at it; Regina McDonald and Sergeant McFadden have been active from the beginning. You might say they have been the founders of it. I wonder if Sergeant McFadden would say a few words?

Sergeant McFadden:

This is the third year that we've done the DARE Program in the schools and we can see a really positive image with the students in school now. When you go in, they react to you a lot better. As a matter of fact, this year when we had our DARE parade back in May, this sums up the whole thing, we had some football players there and at the end of the parade the kids were asking about autographs. At that time, we told them the football players were over there, and the kids told us they didn't want the football players' autographs; they wanted our autographs, the crime prevention officers, and we had to sign all their baseball hats.

So that pretty much sums up that I really think the program is working and I think that was really fantastic.

The Chair:

For our next resolution I would like to ask Mr. Ferlo to please come up and present it for me and I would like to ask Ms. Carmen Perez to come up and other group representatives.

The Chair presents

No. 1344 WHEREAS, the rich diversity of ethnic groups and traditions is one of the most vital elements of our American national and local Pittsburgh character; and

WHEREAS, there are over 15 million Hispanic-Americans in the United States, about 186,000 in Pennsylvania, and 17, 500 in Pittsburgh and our neighboring communities; and

WHEREAS, Hispanic Americans consist of several distinct ethnic groups, in that each group has their own heritage; is caucasian, or black, or red, or a mixture; has its own folklore, holidays and social structure; and may be Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, African or Indian spiritualist, and Hispanic Americans should be understood as they really are, and for the valuable contributions they offer to our way of life; and

WHEREAS, Hispanic people have contributed their skills and energies to the growth of our City, Commonwealth, and Country in the areas of culture, education, business, athletics, government, spiritual enrichment, and community life; and

WHEREAS, our nation is more resplendent than ever because of their dynamic Hispanic contributions which continue the tradition of ethnic diversity revivifying our nation; and

WHEREAS, the Hispanic Groups participating in this years festivities include the Latin American Cultural Union, the Spanish Club, HACL, Hispanic Forum of PA, Inc., Sabor Tropical, Guaracha and LaFiesta.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby declares the week of September 11th through 17th, 1988 as "Hispanic Heritage Week" in Pittsburgh to join with the nation for the fifth annual week of celebration.

Mr. Ferlo moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo:

We have a Commissioner from the State of Pennsylvania and many other local dignitaries and representatives and I'm not sure who would like to speak.

Mr. Seda:

My name is Wilfredo Seda and I am the Executive Director of the Governor's Council on the Hispanic Community and I'm very glad to be in your city. I want to thank City Council for adopting this resolution. The only thing, Councilman, is that my numbers seem to estimate that we might be about 300,000 to 350,000 Hispanics in Pennsylvania growing almost every day. And also, I think it's a very historic moment for the Pittsburgh Hispanic community because most of the times the Governor's proclamation has been carried out in Harrisburg and Philadelphia and for the first time we're doing it here in Pittsburgh. So, I want to thank you for this opportunity, for the resolution, and I know that all the groups and their representatives here are very grateful for the recognition given this afternoon. Thank you.

The Chair:

This next resolution was presented on Sunday, yesterday, and I'd like it to be included in the Minutes.

The Chair presents

No. 1345 WHEREAS, on Sunday, September 11, 1988, Bernie and Cheryl Gill will be celebrating their 10th year with the Sheraden Slow Pitch Softball Team; and

WHEREAS, Bernie and Cheryl share an ideal for the girls of their community and have given unselfishly of their time and effort to set examples of good value to the young people of their community; and

WHEREAS, over the past 10 years, Sheraden's Slow Pitch Softball Association has grown in size to a booming 186 participants comprising 13 teams, and has also grown in its ability to provide the community with a competitive organization which practices good sportsmanship and encourages new friendships; and

WHEREAS, the growth of this organization is accredited to Bernie and Cheryl Gill through their undaunted efforts to provide quality organized sports to the girls of the Sheraden area.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby congratulate Bernie and Cheryl Gill on the completion of their 10 years with the Sheraden Slow Pitch Softball Organization.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

(MR. FERLO, MR. WOODS AND MR. WAGNER'S COMMENTS ON THE APPOINTMENT OF MR. JAMES LALLY TO THE BOARD OF CODE REVIEW - 9/7/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Lally, first of all, I raised an objection to your appointment yesterday, and I just want to make it clear to you face-to-face that I don't have any problem with you as an individual, and certainly by way of your introduction you indicated the years of service you have with the labor movement, and, in fact, if I can be presumptuous, it is longer than I have been born. Now, I don't have a problem with that. Here is the problem I have. In introducing legislation by myself, which was unanimously approved by City Council, the intent was to reform the Board of Code Review to the extent that at least two representatives on the Board of Code Review would be constituent representatives of the Building and Construction Trades Council, that out of a body of 19 or 20, it was not unfair, or unusual, or undemocratic to have labor have some say so and a voice on that body.

The problem that I have -- and I don't dispute your labor credentials -- the other representatives that are on the Board of Code Review, the constituent representatives, there is an architect from the architects group, the Engineers' Society, there are about five or ten such individuals who represent a constituent viewpoint. I want somebody on the Board of Code Review who has a very biased point of view, and that is the viewpoint of the labor movement in this city. Out of 19 people, I don't want somebody who is going to be there representing the Administration, or representing City Council, or representing an individual. I want somebody there who very clearly out of that body of 19 or 20 individuals contributes ideas from a biased point of view, and that is the narrow self interest of the labor movement in this city. I don't think that is a very unreasonable or unfair scenario.

The only problem I have with you, sir, and that is why I will be voting against you today, is that to my knowledge -- and please correct me if I am wrong -- that you are not a designated representative by way of a board meeting of the Building and Construction Trades Council. I may be incorrect and wrong in that information; if so, please correct me.

But I believe strongly that as the Mayor, especially a Mayor that wants to be reelected as the Mayor, that she needs to reach out to the labor movement in this city, and reaching out to the labor movement, in all due respect to you, Mr. Lally, is not appointing somebody who is an authority director, but reaching out and communicating to the Building and Trades Council and asking for a designated representative. So I am voting no, I just want to clarify to you the principle stand that I am taking.

Mr. Lally:

You are entitled to that. I would just like to express myself. I am President of the Building Trades Council, have been President for the last 20 years, if you are not aware of that. And I think even when I sat on City Council here I always showed that I was fair minded, I never let that sway my opinion, and my record speaks for itself. That is all I can tell you.

---

Mr. Woods:

Jim, I just want to tell you I am voting for you. I have known you most of my adult life, all of my life in the labor movement. I went on various conventions with you. I think you are an excellent choice, and I think it is the Mayor's choice. This Council voted to have two representatives from the Building Trade or from the labor movement on the Board of Code Review, but it is the Mayor's choice. And I think she made an excellent choice, and I have no problem at all that there will be anything with a conflict of interest. So I will vote on your behalf, and I would urge Council to vote for you, also.

Mr. Lally:

Thank you, Ben. I appreciate that.

Mr. Wagner:

I want to say, Mr. Lally, I will be voting for you also. I find you to be a competent person, I have been dealing you with since I have been on Council, and I am sure you will be the same on the Board of Code Review.

(END OF REMARKS)

(Transcribed by Helen L. Kriebel, Stenotype Reporter)

Mr. Ferlo:

To reiterate very quickly, I believe very strongly that Mr. Lally's appointment by the Mayor is not only a slap in the face to the labor movement but I think it's in contradiction to the intent of the legislation that Council unanimously supported, and that was basically, in a nutshell, that there should be a designated representative of the Building and Construction Trades Council. I do not argue the point that legally the legislation that we passed makes it clear that the Mayor does the appointment and is to appoint somebody from that category; I don't dispute the legal language of the legislation. But just as there is a representative of other societies and professional groups, architects, engineers, etc., the intent here clearly is that the Building and Construction Trades Council itself would discuss this.

I wanted to report to Council, and there will be a formal letter going to the Mayor, that at the most recent meeting a few days ago of the Board of the Building and Construction Trades Council it was unanimously moved and adopted that Mr. Lally should not be the designated representative of the Trades Council. I think that confirms the issues that I have been raising.

I made it very clear in the meeting that I have no problem and would not in any way be disrespectful of Mr. Lally's long-standing involvement in the Trade Union Movement, but I think it is clearly a conflict of interest. He is an authority director. Mr. Lally thought that the Board of Code Review only meets a couple of times a year; in fact, it meets many, many more times than that in a given year. I'm concerned about his time commitment and actually attending and being productive as someone who can voice the concerns of labor being one out of 19 members of a board.

So, for all those reasons, I am opposed to the appointment and will vote no today and, depending on discussion, I think, quite frankly, may want to recommit this bill.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, I too have been contacted by the labor unions who seem to have several questions not to talk down or make any assertions towards Mr. Lally's work that he would do but to the question of the conflict of interest which may arise because of his position with the Stadium Authority. Because of those concerns, I'll be abstaining on the vote today. I want to make it clear that it is no personal reflection on Mr. Lally but because of the concern that the unions have presented. And I have been informed that the unions will be getting in touch with Council through a letter stating their concerns on this issue. So, until we receive that letter, I don't feel that I'm in a proper position to vote.

Mr. Wagner:

I think Mr. Lally is a good choice. I believe if you believe in the man, he is going to go there and represent what he's representing and the board that he's serving at the time he's serving. If he's on another board and another authority, which he is, I believe he's going to represent that authority at that time. I have known him to be a man of his word in the past and I have no reason to believe he won't be in the future.

The Chair:

I would just like to urge Council to pass Mr. Lally. I have nothing but respect for Mr. Lally; he's been in the labor movement a lot longer than some of you have been on this earth. He knows what he's doing. I think he can be nothing but an asset and I strongly urge you to support him.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, if I may, I echo your sentiments and am prepared to vote for Mr. Lally. At the same time, we have only six members here; there's two off and apparently two members are going to vote against this.

The Chair:

On a confirmation like this you don't need five votes. You need the majority of the members present.

Mr. DePasquale:

Okay.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Lyons      | Mr. Woods        |

AYES 4                      NOES 1

(MR. FERLO VOTING NO)

(MR. COYNE ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion was approved.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Wagner presented

Bill No. 1339

Report of the Committee on Finance for September 7, 1988 transmitting one ordinance and one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1117

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with a Consultant or Consultants for professional services in connection with the validation study of psychological background testing and the administration, preparation, evaluation and research of Civil Service entrance and promotional examinations; and providing for payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Mr. Lyons        |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Ferlo      | Mr. Woods        |
|                | (Pres't Pro tem) |

AYES 6

NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1308

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending Ordinance 24 approved December 27, 1987, Section 1, 180.01 Definitions, Subsection A-4 by including Operations Coordinator; Chief Inspector, Audit Manager, Chief Auditor, Contracts Supervisor and Bookkeeping Supervisor, in the 'noncareer service' positions of the City Controller's Office." (SPONSORED BY MR. WAGNER)

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Coyne            Mr. Ferlo
Mr. DePasquale      Mr. Lyons

AYES 4                NOES 2

(MR. WAGNER AND MR. WOODS
VOTING NO)

And there not being a majority of the votes of Council elected, the bill was tabled.

Mr. Ferlo:

Please explain the meaning of the vote. Does this mean it cannot come up again or what?

The Chair:

It's tabled. It can come back up.

Mr. Ferlo:

Just to clarify it, the bill is tabled. Mr. Chairman, how will the bill be brought back up?

The Chair:

At a Committee Meeting, any member who wants to put the bill back on the table would have to ask the Finance Chairman who chairs the Committee Meeting to untable the bill and you need five votes to untable it.

Mr. Ferlo:

So a motion to recommit the bill at this time is not appropriate but a motion to recommit at the Wednesday session —

The Chair:

You have to make a motion to untable it at the Wednesday session.

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

The Chair:

Your welcome.

Mr. Lyons presented

Bill No. 1340

Report of the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development for September 7, 1988 transmitting one ordinance and one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 850

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Nine, Zoning, Article III, Chapter 921, Section 921.02, Zoning District Map No. 6, by changing: From "R4" Multiple-Family Residence District and "C3" Commercial District to "A1" Commercial-Residential Associated District all that certain property bounded by: EAST STREET; TRIPOLI STREET; the easterly property boundary of Lots No'd. 171, 169, 168 and 167, Block 23-M in the Allegheny County Lot and Block System; the northerly property boundary of Lot No. 167, Block 23-M in the aforementioned System, and MIDDLE STREET, 23rd Ward." (SPONOSRED BY MR. WOODS)

Which was read.

Mr. Lyons moved to recommit Bill No. 850.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

The Chair:

I would like to explain to everybody why I would like to have this recommitted. We have a plan that's called CP Commercial Plan Unit Development District. I know there has been concern in the neighborhood and amongst the neighbors that there could be a McDonalds down the street, a gasoline station, and once this was approved, that Dr. McGovern could sell this. Under this plan, he couldn't do anything with it; it must be approved by the neighborhood plus the Planning Commission and this Council. Once it's built, forever and ever, it must be a doctor's office.

It's just for this building. It will do away with that dilapidated looking building and the neighbor then, and the leaders of the neighborhood, have nothing to complain about. They will get what they have been saying they wanted. There will not be any rezoning other than this one particular structure. It will fall under their guidelines. Dr. McGovern would have to come in, show them where every brick is going to be, where every parking space is going to be, where every tree is going to be planted. And that has to be approved by the Planning Commission and then by this City Council. And once it's built, it can't be used for any other reason. If he sells it, it must be sold as a doctor's office. And I hope Dr. McGovern goes along with this because I haven't spoken with him or his representatives and I haven't spoken with the neighborhood group. But I know from the meeting, the public hearing here, and from what they lobbied us, this is what they said they wanted. Well now they have it and I'm shocked that our own planners didn't find this zone in our Code, but it is in our Code and I'm going to ask Council to substitute this bill on Wednesday.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, on the motion to recommit. I would like my comments brought forth from the Wednesday session.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

---

(MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 850 - Wednesday, 9/7/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. First of all, to Director Lurcott, sir, I don't think you should feel defensive coming to this table. The longer you and your department takes in the rezoning issues confronting the North Side community, the more time you take working with the neighborhood, its constituent groups and the business community, as far as I am concerned the better, because that creates less conflict later on. As far as I am concerned, if you take another six months and go through all those different processes of meeting with people, so be it. I think Jane Downing and all of your folks are doing an excellent job on that issue.

This is an issue I could best describe as having come alive since the last meeting, Mr. Chairman. I had made it very clear from the beginning my initial concern, and I guess I would have to describe it as a more narrow concern initially, was that the best kind of building be built on that property. And in that regard I was very sympathetic with the issue of the rezoning as it could potentially relate to having a quality building be built.

Since that time -- and in all honesty, I apologize for not being able to attend a neighborhood meeting in the community, I was away. One of my staff people did attend, Eric Feder. And there is one thing that has always impressed me and concerned me, and that is when people do get mobilized and begin to articulate what is on their mind. To me, that is an important process and a healthy process that legislators, such as ourselves, need to respond to. When it is one or two paid organizers of an organization or an individual citizen who may or may not have a vested interest, but when an actual neighborhood meets and convenes to analyze and to debate and to discuss an issue, I can't help, at least coming from my background, to begin to think more broadly about some of the issues that they are talking about. In this regard in this issue, I have attempted to do that over the last couple of weeks.

In a report from one of my staff people to me, he has raised eight different concerns, some of which were addressed that evening in the meeting, and I don't know if the directors here would want to respond to some of these concerns. I had tried to also address the issue that I believe initially was raised by Mr. Pollock regarding the likelihood of deeding this property over in the future to a limited use. The initial concern obviously being from the community that there not be a Burger King ending up on the property. A related issue is the issue of a gas station located across the street, and if this area is rezoned, whether or not they have a better legal standing and a position to argue that they should be given the prerogative to do what they want to do with that property.

In my vote on the expansion of the Allegheny County Medical Society, I was opposed to that on the broader issue, not nearly on what was in the best interest of that building, but on the issue that that property around the park is potentially ideal property for housing development. I have always resented the notion that because something is in the North Side or in a particular area, however one perceives it, that somehow creative housing can't be done there. If it is anything the various North Side groups have shown, is that there is a variety and creative mix of potential uses for housing development, and I think in the North Side you could point to lots of different examples on that. I felt strongly on the example of the County Medical Society, the expansion, that we should not have allowed that and we should have actually helped nurture a development towards housing in the park area for its residential as well as its financial income.

I think, to be more broad on this issue, having discussed the issue with some of you I have a lot of faith in, that is Aggie Brose and people from the Bloomfield-Garfield Corporation who raise a number of issues more broadly than just the issue of what the actual confines of the building would look like, and I have to listen and take heart to that.

I also have to respect the concerns that were raised to me by phone and personal contact from Tom Murphy and Leslie Reicher and Stanley Lowe from another neighborhood group. I can't ignore that. They have a variety of fears of which have been expressed either at the public hearing -- I don't feel a need to restate them -- and certainly to some of us individually.

In response to our Solicitor, are you saying that in terms of the legal documents that have been developed, you are saying they would hold weight, it is just that there would have to be litigation? You never said there wouldn't have to be.

Mr. Pellegrini:

There always has to be litigation for someone to enforce their rights. If it was the city, I mean, for instance, if somebody would go over there and build a building and a variance with a zoning, I would have to litigate that. So litigation is just part of the system. It is the question of who pays. In that particular instance, that community council would have to pay.

Mr. Ferlo:

What is your legal interpretation of the phrase "spot zone"? What do you perceive that to mean? What is the case law?

Mr. Pellegrini:

The case law, it doesn't have to do with the area, real quickly, but what it means is whether or not the zone is in accord with the master plan for a particular area and is compatible with the surrounding uses and zones. In another community other than Pittsburgh, there is a device where property owners can come in, we are talking in terms of the variance, the municipality's Planning Code provides -- which doesn't apply to Pittsburgh -- provides for an amendment process where a property owner can come in for a particular piece of property and ask essentially what is being asked here. But in Pittsburgh we don't have that. That is a judicial administrative process. The variance process is a really narrow process. And what you are talking about in those instances is, one, unnecessary hardship related to the land, and that usually relates to topography and whether it is not detrimental to the health, safety and welfare of the community.

So I guess what they are asking here, and from what I understand the dispute is, is whether or not they want a rezoning, and I think people are concerned about the rezoning, not about the building. Am I hearing that correctly?

Michelle Madoff:

That is correct. It is a zoning.

Mr. Ferlo:

Actually it is both. Go head.

Mr. Pellegrini:

If they weren't concerned about the zoning -- they weren't concerned about the building, only the zoning, they have a right to enforce it under the agreement.

Mr. Ferlo:

If we agreed, then, that there is a master plan under development and that this individual action predates or comes before that development or improvement in the master plan, wouldn't that reinforce the argument of spot zoning?

Mr. Pellegrini:

The master plan is an area, you take a look at areas, and you take a look at zones, and you take a look at whether they are mixed uses, and then you say, "Is this zoning in accord of the master plan?" It is not necessarily related to lot size, which people think it is. And in all honesty, I don't know what is the surrounding zone, and I haven't looked at the issue of spot zoning particularly on this property. But what you do is look at the master plan, is the rezoning compatible with the surrounding uses, does it provide for transition, does it do all kind of planning? There are a lot of planning determinations that have to be made before you declare something a spot zoning. There are not many things declared spot zones, if the correct planning processes have been undertaken to rezone.

Mr. Ferlo:

Let me ask you a legal question, interpretation. If, for instance, a gas station, in this case, Boron Oil Company, owns a piece of property, I believe it is a parking lot across the street, would they then have a better legal argument and/or a regulatory argument to the city that they are being denied to some extent their property rights in terms of the development of that property, if it is directly across the street from this area, which would amount to some extent to a spot zone?

---

Mr. Pellegrini:

I can't answer particularly about the Boron Oil Station in this surrounding area.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'm just using it as an example.

Mr. Pellegrini:

As an example, I am just talking in general. In general, let's say you have a commercial zone across the street and then you had a residential zone, and this was truly residential, and this was truly commercial. Boron would not get any increased rights. Boron generally wouldn't have any increased rights unless they could show that their property has diminishing value. For instance, even today if they would come in and say, "We need to build a gas station because we can't put anything else there," and they would put testimony on that the property is valueless, then you could probably get a variance. Other than that, it is very difficult to get a variance.

Mr. Ferlo:

Haven't the higher courts in the last few years of particular tended to be more conservative on the issue of property rights?

Mr. Pellegrini:

By "conservative," do you mean granting more variances?

Mr. Ferlo:

Granting as opposed to favoring the municipality, granting unto the rights of the property owner certain prerogatives.

Mr. Pellegrini:

It depends on the area. Generally in non-conforming uses, Pennsylvania has been very liberal about expansion and extension of non-conforming uses. On variance law, I haven't seen any major shifting of law.

Mr. Ferlo:

One last question, Danny. How do you interpret the issue of expansion of the square footage in that building, the 25 percent figure that has been used a number of times?

Mr. Pellegrini:

---

I'm sorry, I don't understand the issue at all.

Mr. Pollock:

It is a non-conforming use.

Mr. Ferlo:

Seeking a variance.

Mr. Pellegrini:

It would be a special exception for a non-conforming use in a non-conforming structure.

Mr. Ferlo:

I guess what I was asking, is the 25 percent square footage within the confines of the footer that exists presently, or is it liberal to the extent that 25 percent means square footage on the property at large, if you understand the difference?

Mr. Pellegrini:

For instance, the non-conforming use in a non-conforming structure, you have to use -- if the renovation expenses, separate and apart from the use, but on the structure, my recollection is that if the renovation costs are 50 percent more than -- is it 25 now? No, the costs, not the square footage, the cost. If it is 50 percent more, then you can't -- I don't remember.

But there are certain things you can't do. It has to be within the existing wall of a non-conforming structure, it has to be within the existing walls you are allowed for a limited expansion. Whether or not you go up or down it would be part of the special exception process, which is a Board of Adjustment exception.

The use has to be less intensive than the previous use. There is a whole series of factors that you go through on a non-conforming use, as opposed to a variance.

Mr. Ferlo:

Director Lurcott, to close, in the last week or so since the actual legal agreement was drafted, to your knowledge, since I can't bring anybody else up to the table, has there been any desire or willingness on the part of the neighborhood group in question to want to review that document and/or meet with these particular business people?

Mr. Lurcott:

I don't know of any such move on their part. I am not saying it hasn't happened, but I don't know that.

(End of Remarks) (Transcribed by Helen L. Kriebel)

---

Mr. Ferlo:

On the actual bill today I was prepared to vote no. It's clear that the rezoning as proposed did not have the necessary seven votes to pass.

In the spirit of trying to discuss this further, I have no objection to your motion to recommit for purposes of discussing this further with Dr. McGovern as well as neighborhood residents and neighborhood organizations.

The Chair:

On the motion to recommit? All in favor? Opposed?

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Also, with a NEGATIVE RECOMMENDATION,

Bill No. 1145

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with the North Side Civic Development Council so as to hire a consultant or consultants to conduct a traffic study of the Calbride Triangle Area of the North Side, at a cost not to exceed $4,200.00."

Which was read.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, I move that this bill be amended by substitution and deleting the North Side Civic Community Council and substituting the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Discussion. Mr. Chairman, I would like my comments brought forward on this bill.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

---

(MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1145 - Wednesday 9/7/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, this bill was held up for several weeks for a number of different reasons, one is the issue of where the money is coming from. I don't remember if this is getting changed, but originally it was Council's discretionary monies and some Councilmembers had an objection to that. My concern had to do more with the -- and maybe the Director could better explain this. Jane Downing tried, she did a good job, but it was very confusing to me.

The basic problem I had initially with this issue is that as a city we are responsible, it is our liability and responsibility, to do traffic planning and studies, it is something that is in our bailiwick. And I didn't want this to set a precedent in the future, whereby we were going to delegate to a large institution an issue of planning, whether it be traffic or what have you. To me, that would be a conflict; I mean, planning done by a large institution to me would have a vested interest.

Jane explained to me that the department is actually very much involved in deciding what the actual scope of services is regarding any planning studies. So it seemed a little more logical to me. But when this came up and no one explained that, it seemed as though we were delegating to a neighborhood group this money, and to me that seemed like a contradiction. And unless you can explain it otherwise, I am opposed to the way this is being done.

Now, I am not opposed to making a grant to a neighborhood group to do some activity, but the way this legislation is worded, I don't like the precedent that it is setting, in terms of delegating something that should be a municipal function, and that is traffic studies. Isn't that the way it is done?

Mr. Lurcott:

Yes, we have the responsibility as a municipal government to deal with traffic issues and undertake traffic studies generally, that is correct. Now, there are precedents for this, however. For instance, when a developer comes in, whether it be a major institution or a private developer who wants to do a large development, we have requirements for traffic studies, which we have the developer do and pay for, but under our scopes of work. And then we analyze that work done, it has to be done by a reputable group. So in that sense, it is not unusual.

I think what is important here is that the group in question is the North Side Civic Development Council, it is not a major institution doing it. The reason that they are doing it --

Mr. Ferlo:

I am saying I didn't want to set a precedent, whereby approving this means that in the future we are going to say, "University of Pittsburgh, you decide what is best for the Forbes Avenue corridor."

---

Mr. Lurcott:

I understand the point. We do, however, do that mechanism that I just mentioned to you.

Mr. Ferlo:

But it is a joint process.

Mr. Lurcott:

Yes, that's right, and this would be the case, as well. This is part of a relatively small area planning process that the North Side Civic Development Council would be doing in conjunction with the Talguard group that is, in this area, in a state designated enterprise zone. And that is really the basis for which you would have this kind of work being done by the group rather than by the city, in the sense that the state encourages planning by the groups themselves in the enterprise zones.

What they are interested in is really doing a land use evaluation of a small triangular piece of land that is bordered by Brighton, California and Kirkbride Streets to see whether they could get better uses and reconfigure the streets there.

Mr. Ferlo:

Why are they doing it as opposed to us? It should be our responsibility.

Mr. Lurcott:

Because, again, the encouragement is to have the community doing their own planning in the area. This is, as you see, $4,200.00, it is simply an evaluation of the traffic implications of reconfiguring that piece of land to get new development on it. We are involved with them in terms of letting out the scope and what not, so it is not that we are not involved or not caring about what the implication of it is. However, we are simply saying that because this is an enterprise zone, that they can initiate planning themselves and carry it out, that was the idea. I think it is not terribly unusual, particularly in the context of an enterprise zone. It certainly could have been done a different way. This is the way they would like to do it.

One other point. Originally this was to be funded through the enterprise zone grant, which again, is further encouragement that it be done with and by the community organization. However, this particular activity the state did not allow to be funded through that source, so we are proposing using local funds for it.

(End of remarks)

What they are interested in is really doing a land use evaluation of a small triangular piece of land that is bordered by Brighton, California and Kirkbride Streets to see whether they could get better uses and reconfigure the streets there.

Mr. Ferlo:

Why are they doing it as opposed to us? It should be our responsibility.

Mr. Lurcott:

Because, again, the encouragement is to have the community doing their own planning in the area. This is, as you see, $4,200.00, it is simply an evaluation of the traffic implications of reconfiguring that piece of land to get new development on it. We are involved with them in terms of letting out the scope and what not, so it is not that we are not involved or not caring about what the implication of it is. However, we are simply saying that because this is an enterprise zone, that they can initiate planning themselves and carry it out, that was the idea. I think it is not terribly unusual, particularly in the context of an enterprise zone. It certainly could have been done a different way. This is the way they would like to do it.

One other point. Originally this was to be funded through the enterprise zone grant, which again, is further encouragement that it be done with and by the community organization. However, this particular activity the state did not allow to be funded through that source, so we are proposing using local funds for it.

Mr. Ferlo:

Very quickly, I think this is an excellent way of addressing the concerns that we raised in opposition to this bill and I'd like to thank Mr. Lyons and the Director of City Planning. Basically, in a nutshell, we were concerned that this would set a precedent of instead of the City being directly responsible for such a study, that we would job it out, in this case, to a neighborhood group. My concern is that in the future we not job it out to an institutional group such as a university or someone else who may have a vested interest.

Other than the issue of where the money is coming from being Council's discretionary amount, I would certainly, at this time, be supportive of the legislation.

Mr. DePasquale:

I'm prepared to vote for the legislation. In regards to the amendment, I'm not quite sure; what does the amendment mean? I understand there was some sort of compromise made

The Chair:

It just means that the City of Pittsburgh will enter into an agreement to have a traffic study rather than a neighborhood organization.

Mr. DePasquale:

Just a traffic study?

The Chair:

Right.

Mr. DePasquale:

Okay.

The Chair:

All in favor of the amendment?
Opposed?

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Mr. Lyons        |

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Ferlo:

Two very brief points. One is on the continuing saga of the fire trucks, the tillers. It's my understanding that within the last week and a half there was again another major incident regarding the questionable design of these vehicles, in particular, a broken axle and a blown transmission for one of the new tillers which, I believe, is now housed in the Oakland 14 Station.

My concern is that I believe that the Pierce mechanics came in to the City garage and worked on it and I hope that it's to no cost to the City. But certainly, this is something that took place a few months after its purchase, so it's within the one-year warranty.

I've been led to believe by City mechanics that it's very unusual for heavy equipment of this nature and cost to break axles and to have this kind of a vehicle default.

So, I'm very concerned about this issue and I would like to ask Council to join in just asking for a formal letter to be sent to the Mayor and to the Fire Chief regarding this incident. In other words, I think we're at least owed a report from the Fire Department, from the Mayor, regarding this incident and what plans they have regarding the possibility that there is design fault and not just the visibility and the problems that we've known to date but a new problem now has arisen regarding the issue of broken axles. But before we take delivery of the last two trucks, I think we're at least owed a formal explanation as to what is happening.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo:

Secondly, very briefly, I want to announce publicly that I've given up the battle so that nobody else keeps bugging my about this issue, and that is, a most important issue, as I indicated earlier, and that is the benches in the lobby of the City County Building.

As far as I'm concerned, the Mayor's word right now is the gospel and the gospel from Mayor Masloff is that no way are those benches going back into the lobby. So we're stuck with the potted plants.

So, please, public, do not call my office; do not harass me as I walk into the City County Building. If people feel strongly about the issue of the benches, then I'm sure that this will emerge as one of the more important issues that the Mayoral candidates will address.

The Mayor has made it clear that she's laying down the law of the land. She's establishing herself as a strong Mayor and she's indicated that she will not put them in. I'm certain that the Mayoral candidate Michelle Madoff will only want to take action voting several different ways, only after a public hearing and extensive feelings from the public will be communicated to this body. Certainly Mr. Lucchino as a Mayoral candidate will wait for the editorialist, Mr. Craig, to address the issue before he takes any such action. And I'm sure my good friend, Tom Flaherty, will want to audit exactly where the heck the benches are that were down there. And I hope he'll pursue a performance audit. And everybody knows candidated Tom Murphy from the North Side will want to relocate those unused benches to some North Side park.

So, I would hope that this would emerge as an important issue but please, do not bug me anymore about these darned benches. Thank you.

Mr. DePasquale:

On the same subject. First of all, I believe sincerely that the reason the benches were taken out was to discourage people from sitting there and smoking because Council did pass that silly no-smoking ordinance some time ago and therefore it would discourage them from sitting around and smoking. On the other hand, I think that they could probably sit in the potted plants if they wanted to.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, two items. Earlier there was a vote on a bill that was defeated due to a lack of five votes and that has happened several times since Council is operating with eight members.

I would like to ask the Solicitor in the form of a motion to provide a written legal opinion of the parliamentary procedure that is implemented when that happens and for him to quote Robert's Rules of Order or whatever parliamentary rule exists supporting that position.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

One additional item. This is not in any way directed at Mr. Ferlo but I have now within one week heard an announced Mayoral candidate talk about their candidacy at last Wednesday's meeting and I have heard reference to several people that are supposed to be Mayoral candidates. This Chamber should not be a vehicle for anyone to talk politics and any time that I hear anyone talk about future elections from this table, or that table behind us, I am going to state publicly that they're wrong. And if I'm chairing the meeting, I'm going to rule them out of order. That is not the purpose of this Chamber; this Chamber should be used for business and business only.

Mr. DePasquale:

I second that motion.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. Chairman, first of all, I'd like to concur with Mr. Wagner's statements; I think we should try to keep politics and campaigning out of these Chambers as much as possible.

Also, I'd like to publicly commend Mr. Wagner. On Saturday, marching in the V.F.W. parade up in Mount Oliver, a man, unfortunately, had a heart attack. The man did die, but Mr. Wagner was one of the first people to come to his aid and he gave him mouth to mouth resuscitation and worked on the man until the paramedics got there. I'd like to publicly commend Mr. Wagner for his efforts; they were very well done. Unfortunately, the man didn't make it but I think it was very quick thinking and something I admire very much.

The Chair:

Thank you, Mr. Coyne.

I'm sure that all of us have been deluged with calls about a bill that's coming up, equal rights or gay rights, whatever you call it. My phone — I've never — In fact, I called the TV station and told them to take my number off that ad; I'm getting bombarded. Everyone is calling and naturally they're voicing their opinions both ways, but they're calling to ask if this Council will televise that hearing. I'm against televising all these hearings but I promised the people I would bring it to the floor. Is someone wants to make the motion to televise that hearing, I'll honor that motion.

---

Mr. Wagner:

So moved.

Mr. DePasquale:

I'll be glad to second that motion. I think a lot of people out there want to see the characters.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Lyons moved to excuse Michelle Madoff and Mr. Pollock for absence from the meeting.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Lyons

Council adjourned.

ONE—HUNDRED TWENTY-FIFTH COUNCIL

BEN WOODS ..... President Pro-Tem
MICHAEL PERRY ..... City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON .. Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, September 19, 1988

PRESENT:

|                 |                  |
|-----------------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne       | Mr. Pollock      |
| Mr. DePasquale  | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Ferlo       | Mr. Woods        |
| Michelle Madoff | (Pres't Pro tem) |

ABSENT:

Mr. Lyons

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

We have two resolutions that were already given, we all signed them prior approval, and that's Mr. DePasquale's and Mr. Wagner's resolutions.

Mr. DePasquale presents

No. 1370 WHEREAS, Father Norbert Rupprecht of St. Boniface Church was born September 22, 1908, and will celebrate his 80th Birthday in this year 1988; and

WHEREAS, Father Norbert was professed a Monk at St. Vincents Church in 1928 and was ordained a Priest in 1934; and

WHEREAS, Father Norbert became Pastor of St. Boniface Church in 1969, and has served his parishoners and friends with sincere dedication throughout his tenure, and since his retirement as Pastor in 1985, Father Norbert has remained active in the parish; and

WHEREAS, Father Norbert devoted his life to community charity, and it was the great leadership of Father Norbert which saved St. Boniface Church from being demolished when the East Street Expressway was built.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby congratulates Father Norbert Rupprecht on his 80th Birthday and wishes him many happy returns.

Mr. DePasquale moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner and Mr. DePasquale present

No. 1373 WHEREAS, on July 18, 1979, the first POW/MIA recognition day was observed at Point State Park; and

WHEREAS, there are still 2,500 American POW/MIA's unaccounted for from the Vietnam War; and

WHEREAS, 125 POW/MIA's are from Pennsylvania, including 20 residents of Allegheny County, and 11 men who made their homes in Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, on Friday, September 16, 1988 at 10:00 A.M. a ceremony and service for the 2,500 still missing in action will be held at the Highland Park Drive Veterans Hospital and a ceremony will be held at 2:00 P.M. at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial at Roberto Clemente Park on the North Shore, and these ceremonies are sponsored by the Pittsburgh Chapter of ex-prisoners of war, and prisoners of Corregidor and Bataan.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby recognizes September 16, 1988 as "National POW/MIA Recognition Day" to increase public awareness of this issue and thereby assist in efforts to resolve the fate of our missing men; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh wholeheartedly supports the ceremonies scheduled for Friday and joins the nation in recognizing September 16, 1988 as "National POW/MIA Recognition Day".

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo:

Members of Council, this resolution is being introduced by myself as well as Councilman DePasquale, Chairman of the Public Safety Department.

I'd like to ask President Jim Weslager and some of the others up here from the Paramedics' Union.

Mr. Ferlo and Mr. DePasquale present

No. 1371 WHEREAS, the members of the Fraternal Association of Professional Paramedics devote their lives to saving of lives of others; and

WHEREAS, Emergency Medical Services teams consist of emergency physicians, nurses, emergency medical technicians, paramedics, educators and administrators; and

WHEREAS, the people of the City of Pittsburgh benefit daily from the knowledge and skill of the Fraternal Association of Professional Paramedics; and

WHEREAS, advances in emergency medical care increase the number of lives saved every year; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Fraternal Association of Professional Paramedics work together to improve and adapt their skills as new methods of emergency treatment are developed; and

WHEREAS, the designation of "Emergency Medical Services Week" will serve to educate the people of the City of Pittsburgh about accident prevention, how to access the EMS system, and what to do when confronted with a medical emergency; and

WHEREAS, it is appropriate to recognize the value and accomplishments of emergency medical teams by designating "Emergency Medical Services Week".

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the City Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby declares the week of September 18-24, 1988 to be Emergency Medical Services Week and calls upon the citizens of Pittsburgh to avail themselves of informational and training programs to better be informed about Emergency Medical Services.

Mr. Ferlo moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you. I also believe Chief Kennedy is in the audience also and I'd like to recognize him and his department.

This week is also being declared so by Governor Bob Casey and it's very obvious to me that we have one hell of a group of workers when we have the professional paramedics.

At this time I'd like to give the resolution out and my colleague, Mr. DePasquale, might have a comment and also the President of the union, Jim Weslager and two of his representatives and maybe they'd like to say something also.

Mr. DePasquale:

I'd just like to echo the sentiments of my colleague, Jim Ferlo, and the rest of Council for passing that resolution. It's a great thing. Thank you.

Mr. Weslager:

With your indulgence, Mr. President and members of Council, it's the desire of the Fraternal Association of Professional Paramedics that the proclamation of EMS Week will serve to enlighten and educate the public as to emergency medical service here in the City of Pittsburgh.

It's important to realize that in the event of a medical emergency or sudden illness that you dial 911 immediately. Often times, we need to get to the scene quicker than we have in the past; we'd ask you to please call immediately. Wasted time might make the difference between life and death. Thank you very much.

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 1372 WHEREAS, NEIGHBORFAIR '88 is an event that promotes and celebrates Pittsburgh's neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS, NEIGHBORFAIR '88 was established in October 1982, and is sponsored by the Neighborhoods for Living Center of the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh, the City of Pittsburgh, Mellon Bank, and is supported by many other businesses and corporations; and

WHEREAS, the theme of NEIGHBORFAIR '88 is THE END OF THE RAINBOW STARTS AT YOUR DOORSTEP. Neighborhoods, city departments and agencies will focus on the many great things about Pittsburgh that can be found "right on your doorstep"; and

WHEREAS, NEIGHBORFAIR '88 will be held September 22 through September 25, 1988 from 4:00 to 10:00 P.M. on Thursday and Friday, and 11:00 A.M. to 10:00 P.M. on Saturday and Sunday at the David L. Lawrence Convention Center.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby thanks and commends NEIGHBORFAIR '88 for its time and dedication in helping Pittsburgh to explore new and innovative ways to enhance our neighborhoods and the Council wishes NEIGHBORFAIR '88 much success in this event; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh declares the week of September 19-25, 1988 as NEIGHBORFAIR '88.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

Congratulations. I always love going down there. It gets bigger and better every year with more neighborhoods participating.

With me here is Mary Lou Daniel who is the Executive Director of Neighborhoods for Living Center. Is that your title?

Ms. Daniel:

Manager.

Mr. Pollock:

Manager, okay. Mary Lou will receive the resolution and maybe say a few words.

Ms. Daniel:

Thank you, Mark, and members of Council. I have with me today Community Affairs Coordinator Colette Hucko from Mellon Bank. Mellon has been our sponsor since the very beginning.

As Mark said, this is the sixth annual Neighborfair. We've moved back to our original home at the Convention Center. There are over 70 exhibits and lots of fun and lots of things to do, so I hope you all take some time and come down Thursday, Friday, Saturday or Sunday. Bring your kids; we've got all kinds of games for the kids to play, trains, everything. And if you don't have kids, come on down and listen to Billy Price or Jimmy Beaumont and the Skyliners on Friday and Saturday night. There's something to do for everyone.

We'd just like to thank Mellon for being such a good corporate sponsor and supporting Neighborfair over the last six years. Thank you.

There are a number of people back there who helped plan Neighborfair. I'm not going to ask them all to stand up and name them but without some of those people back there, we wouldn't be able to do it. And, of course, the representatives. There are more than 2000 volunteers from the neighborhood organizations who helped put this together. Thank you.

Mr. Coyne presented

No. 1346 Communication from Paul McDermott, Director, Department of Engineering and Construction, requesting authorization for Bruce Farber, to attend the Computer Mapping and Land Information Systems Symposium, Chattanooga, Tennessee, October 25-27, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $1,000.00, payable from Code Account No. 1482. Prior approval granted by Council September 6, 1988.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Engineering and Construction.

Richburg and Gayle L. Washington. The reason for the amendment is to delete 3509 Wakefield St., as City does not have marketable title, from the sale and to reduce the sale price.

Also,

No. 1363 Resolution providing for the filing of a petition or petitions for the sale of certain properties in various wards of the City of Pittsburgh, acquired at tax sales in accordance with Act No. 171 of 1984.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Wagner presented

Bill No. 1364

Report of the Committee on Finance for September 14, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1283

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of Gal Construction Company in the amount of $195,372.55 in partial payment of an Emergency Contract for the Reconstruction of the Windom Street Wall; and providing for the payment thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill No. 1283, I would like my comments brought forward with reference to the fact that the procedure is being abused and that an emergency doesn't take six months. We don't need to have signatures signed, inter-office, not brought to the table, and I just would like my comments brought forward on that bill.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

(BEGINNING - MICHELLE MADOFF'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1283 - WEDNESDAY, 9/14/88)

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Director, on Bill Nos. 1283 and 1286 which are companion bills, what the net loss or gain please?

Dir. McDermott:

Net loss or gain?

Michelle Madoff:

You're taking from one and adding to another.

Dir. McDermott:

One is a budgeted amendment taking $350,000.00 out of the previous legislation authorizing wall construction and transferring that monies over for the Windom Street wall.

Michelle Madoff:

So in other words what we're doing is going to a line item where perhaps we're not using the money right now and putting it where you need it.

Dir. McDermott:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

This was an emergency. Was it an interim approval?

Dir. McDermott:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

From the time you were notified that there was an emergency here -- would you also help me because I'm having some problem locating facilities. For example, I know there's a slide that backs up to Grandview near Mt. Washington and I can't figure out exactly that it was indeed that area. So I want to be sure -- I want to make a point of when I vote I want to know what area I'm voting on. Where is this Windom Street?

Dir. McDermott:

Windom is up above roadway McArdle Roadway above the Southside.

---

Michelle Madoff:

Is this part of the landslide problem?

Dir. McDermott:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Could you tell me how that relates to McArdle Roadway?

Dir. McDermott:

To the lower end after it comes across the Liberty Bridge it's going into the Southside. Go up 10th Street and make a right. As you go across the 10th Street Bridge, cross Carson Street on 10th, go up and make a right going toward McArdle. This is above South High School.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay, now from the time you were notified that this was an emergency -- would you tell me how you thought it was an emergency.

Dir. McDermott:

I think we received phone calls and the roadway was cracking and sliding and so forth and repairs are being made. We went out and evaluated it and looked at the options of the repair, we were trying to develop an alternate method of repair which proved not to be feasible.

Michelle Madoff:

When you realized it was a slide and a problem and cracks and you had to move very quickly.

Dir. McDermott:

We didn't have to move quickly. We judged that we had time to do what we were doing.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't have a problem with that. How long did it take you between the time you discovered this?

Dir. McDermott:

I don't know. I think my Assistant Director may have sent some of the information up on that to you, I'm not sure.

---

Michelle Madoff:

Two months? Is your Assistant Director here?

Dir. McDermott:

No, he's not.

Michelle Madoff:

I have asked this question repeatedly.

Dir. McDermott:

Yes, you did.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll tell you why I'm concerned about it. The Chairman would rule me out of order, there are five people talking, Ladies and Gentlemen and I have not been ruled out of order.

The Chair:

Councilwoman Madoff, stay on the bill.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm trying to, I can't speak with five people talking at one time. Three yes but not five.

The Chair:

Please stay in your chair, stay on the bill.

Michelle Madoff:

I haven't moved and if you thought having a caucus at the other end of the floor --

The Chair:

We're on Bill No. 1283 and Bill No. 1286.

Michelle Madoff:

To continue on the same vein. I have been notified in my office that there are some questions as to and I don't know that they are valid or not so I'm going to ask them, as to how emergencies are being handled. You notified that there's a slide, there are cracks and people have called my office and they call everybody else and they call other members of Council and you're notified and you send somebody out to verify it and you know you've got to do something. In your infinite wisdom you decide whether it has to be done in 20 minutes or it's going to cave down or whether you have time to go out and do something.

---

If you have time and you determined obviously you just stated and I think we can have the Stenographer read back the transcript, that in your opinion it was not a crisis and that you had some time to make an evaluation.

Dir. McDermott:

We thought we had some time.

Michelle Madoff:

Why was it a Wallace Act and why was it interim approval?

Dir. McDermott:

Once the decision was made, we decided the alternate method was not feasible. We had to move and we moved on this basis.

Michelle Madoff:

I repeat, it's either an emergency or it's not an emergency. If it's not an emergency, we don't have to have a Wallace Act and for the public who's watching, a Wallace Act means that five signatures are obtained privately by sending a note around to everybody's office to approve any actions that the City would like to have and some of us don't even know about it most of the time and you know I don't sign any interim approvals for you. Very rarely, I try not to. But I do want to point out that in this particular case I'd like to know how many days after you knew it was an emergency did you meet with people, what was the mechanism for meeting with people, who did you meet with, did you go out on bid, did you go to a letter bid, letter bid meaning that you contact people by letter saying to come in and that we have an emergency, did you do telephone bids, how did you handle this emergency because it goes to the heart of how we do business in the City, Mr. Ferlo, and what kind of dollars did we spend?

Dir. McDermott:

I think I answered these identical questions at the last meeting.

Michelle Madoff:

But I didn't get answers.

Dir. McDermott:

I thought I gave them to you. And an emergency is something that is detrimental to health and safety and there are different levels of an emergency. Once a decision was made as to what the design solution was best suitable for this particular problem, then you evaluate it. Is the thing stable enough to last through the normal project processing period and that is design, bidding, award and so forth. And we evaluated this particular case and it was not and that we did have to move.

---

Michelle Madoff:

Would you please repeat that?

Dir. McDermott:

We decided at that time when the design solution was selected that we did not have time to go through the normal process that a project takes.

Michelle Madoff:

How long did it take you between the time you discovered this emergency and you came up with a design solution?

Dir. McDermott:

That's not important. We felt that we were working with the situation that we could handle. We went through for the design solution and when we selected that design solution then from there on we did not want to take the six months that it normally takes.

Michelle Madoff:

You're telling this Council and the public of this city that if you have a slide there's no way you could expedite by going to the Chairman of the Finance Committee or to Mr. Woods and say that we have this landslide and we'd like to get this done as quickly as possible and therefore would you put it on the agenda, waive Rule 8 which is a matter of seven days as opposed to going privately and getting signatures for a Wallace Act as an emergency; that's what I'm concerned about.

Dir. McDermott:

The legislation is not the problem, you're not listening.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm listening very clearly and I also know what happened here.

Dir. McDermott:

I can't tell you anything more than I already have told you.

Michelle Madoff:

I want to be very clear that you understand where I'm coming from and my colleagues understand. There is an emergency. There is a crack, a leak, a slide, whatever. You determine that you have enough time and you don't have to act that immediately but you can have the time to go out to a design --

Dir. McDermott:

On this particular one, yes.

Michelle Madoff:

As the Chairman would say -- stick to the bill. On this particular design you decided that there was enough time to go out and do the design. My question to you is approximately how long did it take you to go to the design? From your memory, a week, three months, forty days, three years.

Dir. McDermott:

A good length of time.

Michelle Madoff:

How good a length of time was it?

Dir. McDermott:

If you want a specific answer --

Michelle Madoff:

Ballpark it.

Dir. McDermott:

No ballpark. You don't want ballparks.

Michelle Madoff:

Yes, I do. At least two months of the amount of time.

Dir. McDermott:

At least.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm suggesting to everybody here and anybody listening that two months at least and probably a lot longer to go to a design in an emergency and then for you to go around and get interim approval behind the scenes is absolutely unconscionable and it's something that we can no longer tolerate and I hope my colleagues are getting the message. it's either an emergency or it's not an emergency and the Wallace Act cannot be flaunted just at the whim of somebody who wishes to use it, I think I've made that point.

Second point. I then want to know, did you go out to bid?

---

Dir. McDermott:

As I told you at the last meeting we received three quotes on it.

Michelle Madoff:

How did you get those quotes?

Dir. McDermott:

By telephone.

Michelle Madoff:

So we knew for at least two months if not longer that this was a problem and it had to be resolved even though it was an emergency because we had lots of time to come up with a design but we did not go out to bid the lowest responsible bid, what we did was make some phone calls and what we did with the phone calls is get three telephone bids; is that correct?

Dir. McDermott:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'd like my comments brought forward on Bill 1141 in relation to the vacation of Scott Way, the giving up of land in the Downtown area for the Pittsburgh Trust For Cultural Resources.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to ask that my comments be brought forward as well to give some balance to somebody who may be looking at this 20 years from now to see what really did happen on that site.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

(BEGINNING - MR. FERLO'S AND MICHELLE MADOFF'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1141, WEDNESDAY, 9/14/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Discussion. This bill has been bantered about on Council for the last month and one-half and maybe a couple more questions can be answered.

I think I've stated pretty clearly my concern about this legislation being the fact that we were vacating an apparently significant piece of property in the Downtown area.

It's been alluded to by the Administration that the reason for this is a public benefit and that there is a development plan for the area. That is to me all well and good but to date we have not seen any of this information and I don't believe it is the purview of the Solicitor to come to the table and supply that information so much as it shouldn't be someone from City Planning or someone who can officially give us some information in this regard and that is not being disrespectful to my good friend, Mr. Pellegrini, but to date we really haven't received this information and today I would like to have received some of that.

The other major crux of my argument is that if we are vacating the property as we have so many times in the past at the neighborhood level as well as in the Downtown area, we usually vacate the property and ask for a dollar figure, a fair market value contribution for giving up the public land, and I have an amendment to offer but I wanted to call Mr. Murphy to the table to explain a memo that he sent to Director Gaetano from Public Works regarding this issue of the fair market value of the land and I don't know if Mr. Pellegrini would also want to comment.

Mr. Pellegrini:

I can address that. My recollection is that the fair market value of the land was $300,000.00 or something like that.

First of all, you really have to understand what we do when we vacate. We do not own the land; we do not own Scott Place. What we have is a right of access over Scott Place and what we ask developers to pay for is our vacation of our interest so our interest is not a fair market value, but separate and apart from that, the Trust for Cultural Resources owns this block and I think if any of you look at "Governing Magazine" which I think we all get, there was an article about cultural resource districts and how they revitalize a downtown area. The Trust for Cultural Resources -- I know the ordinance is Beynon and if you want to amend it and put in "Trust for Cultural Resources" that's fine because Beynon is receiving no compensation for it -- is doing significant things in that block to aid in the development of the Fulton Theatre and parking for the Benedum Theatre. There's approximately 13,000 square feet being vacated.

They're putting in roughly a 12,000 square foot park at the corner of Penn and whatever the corner is that will be for the public benefit similar to the one at Heinz Hall. They also intend to construct a parking garage -- none of these will be tax exempt -- so the idea that there's no public benefit here is just wrong.

The Trust for Cultural Resources is doing that area and I thought this had passed and if you remember a newspaper article that there was a business company that moved down into the area because of that, so if you want to encourage development, these are the types of things that we have traditionally done to encourage development. And in neighborhoods we vacate often without a fee so it is not something that isn't done.

Mr. Ferlo:

I didn't say that there necessarily isn't a public good, I'm only saying that to my knowledge this Council, as a legislative body being asked to vote on this vacation, has not been given specific information such as what you talked about in terms of the public good. You did mention the fact this will not be tax exempt but that there will be some type of payment. Now I don't know if that is a payment in lieu of taxes or that there will be "for-profit" activities --

Mr. Pellegrini:

-- it's going to be taxable.

Mr. Ferlo:

I understand that but I think it's fair and legitimate for this Council to request that information and when the bill comes to the table from the Administration regarding vacations that you explain some of this and stipulate it as a matter of record.

Mr. Pellegrini:

But I did.

Mr. Ferlo:

You did it now because I'm harrassing you to come up.

Mr. Pellegrini:

I explained the same thing six weeks ago and at that time I even brought the attorney for the Trust for Cultural Resources here and we could have explained that in detail.

Mr. Ferlo:

I was not aware that there was any attorney who was willing to come to the table.

Mr. Pellegrini:

But he was here at that time and I had him to give all the back up and we could have explained in great detail what their plans are for that area. And one of the reasons that we didn't explain it previously is that there is no secret about this. There were newspaper articles about it as to their plans, the Trust is a semi-public body that runs the Benedum which we have a significant investment in. The Benedum is actually owned by the Public Auditorium Authority of the City of Pittsburgh and that's part of the cultural district plan that was outlined when it was brought before Council when the Benedum went in.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I guess I disagree. One, I still don't think we have gotten specific information other than a lot of great rhetoric from the Solicitor much of which I agree with in terms of the public good, but we haven't gotten specific information.

Two, I do think that when we vacate a significant piece of property like this, I agree that we're talking about the easement and not actually giving up the public land, but I have found in many instances in the past where we have asked the dollar figure. I think given the priorities of this city for neighborhood development and other kinds of activities that we need revenues for, I think it's very fair because I think there are "for profit" relationships that will go on as a result of this activity and not just a dance in the arts and all this great hulabaloo smokescreen that's always put up when it's something for the cultural trust.

I think it's relevant for me at this time to offer an amendment to this legislation to the tune that the resolution be amended to allow for the collection of $320,000.00 which is 50 percent of the market value of the land and that before we deed it over that we receive from the property owners involved, the sum of $320,000.00 for the use of the City of Pittsburgh and I'd like to make that in a form of an amendment.

The Chair:

Is there a second to that motion to amend the bill? The motion fails due to the lack of a second.

Mr. Ferlo:

Fine, I'd like to make a second amendment and that is that instead of this being deeded to a "for profit" real estate company Beynon and Company, that the legislation be amended to read the "Pittsburgh Trust for Cultural Resources".

Michelle Madoff:

Second.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

Discussion on the amendment, Mr. Ferlo.

Mr. Ferlo:

Again I think Council is in error in not asking for a dollar figure. It always seems like if it's for the downtown area you're ready to bend over backwards. I think this is a good opportunity in which we could have raise some money and target it for neighborhood development; there's not support on Council for that and in light of that I can't see giving it to a "for-profit" real estate organization in terms of the deed regardless of whatever agent role they're playing in this matter. I would prefer that the legislation read the actual party that we're involved with.

Mr. Pellegrini:

We have no objection that.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Chairman, I support accuracy, checks and balances and all those good things and apple pie and therefore I will support Mr. Ferlo in clarifying the bill so the public will understand that the transfer is not going to Mr. Beynon and his company and to clarify it, it is indeed going to the cultural arts.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Right, when the bill initially came in --

Michelle Madoff:

-- let me do my own thing. My understanding is the Beynon Company who came up with a concept was a conduit.

Mr. Pellegrini:

They are an acquiring arm for --

Michelle Madoff:

-- exactly, they are the conduit and what I'm saying is that just to clarify and to go with the proper procedure, I support Mr. Ferlo in changing the wording to say it is indeed going to the cultural arts and you do not have a problem with that.

Mr. Pellegrini:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

As to whether we should charge for that, I think that would be pennywise and pound foolish. This only hope of the City surviving when we have a population that has gone from 700,000 to soon 358,000 at the next census, is to make this truly the most liveable city. One has only to go through this city -- I went out to look at those reservoir covers the other day and I had not been in that part of the city in a long time and house after house after house after house up for sale, people are moving with their feet. We need whatever we can to attract people to live in the city and preferably now so that we can enhance our tax base and to penalize the arts, it's like saying that we don't need symphony, we don't need the ballet, we don't need the Benedum, what have we got? These are the things that make people want to live in our community as opposed to living in other communities and I think we would be absolutely foolish to start charging for the public good; this is the public good and I don't think Mr. Ferlo disagrees.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman very quickly in response, I do not disagree, this is not an attack on the arts. There are "for profit" relationships that will go on now and in the future whether it be under the guise of the Trust or other profit-making ventures that will take place on or over or around the vacation of Scott Place and I'm saying it's about time that there be some quid pro quo, that we get something back in return in addition to the public benefit and that is dollars and that was the intent of my amendment.

Michelle Madoff:

I wasn't through, I was interrupted, may I continue?

The Chair:

You have the floor.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Pellegrini, would you help clarify the question that Mr. Ferlo raised, the "for profit" question. Am I correct in assuming so that I vote not in a vacuum but vote in a formal manner that the "for profit" is not going to be on the site of the transfer of this particular alleyway or land that will make it possible to build or develop this facility?

Mr. Pellegrini:

As far as I know the plans don't -- the Trust owns it, the Trust is not a "for profit", it's a non-profit. The reason is isn't tax exempt is that the use is that they're going to put it for is not eligible for taxes.

---

Michelle Madoff:

What do you mean by that?

Mr. Pellegrini:

For instance, if you build a parking garage and it's owned by a private entity, you do not get a tax exemption and they're going to own it and they're not going to seek a tax exemption on it.

Michelle Madoff:

But it's going to be going to -- the money will be used by the non-profit agency.

Mr. Pellegrini:

The money will be used to construct a garage and we will get the real estate --

Michelle Madoff:

Who is "we"?

Mr. Pellegrini:

The City. The Parking Authority is not going to construct the garage.

Michelle Madoff:

That's what I wanted to know. Who will build the garage?

Mr. Pellegrini:

The Trust, the Parking Authority will not pay for it.

Michelle Madoff:

So let's get this straight. They'll build it, why would they give us tax on it if it's for non-profit because other people may use it.

Mr. Pellegrini:

A non-profit agency is not entitled to this. Just because it's non-profit, that doesn't mean that they are charitable and this is not a charitable enterprise.

Michelle Madoff:

But it goes to the issue that you can't build it if you do not have the parking lot.

Mr. Pellegrini:

You cannot build it if you do not have Scott place to get to this.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Ferlo has a valid point. He's saying that hipbone is attached to the thighbone. That in order to build this facility yes you need the alley and he's not objecting to the public good but he's saying if there is going to be money made on that facility that indeed if it's not going to be used solely for the public good in a tax-exempt manner and you've already answered the question, the answer is yes they are going to pay taxes on it because other people may use it but you can't build one without the other. So that you've taken care in the spirit of doing something in the correct manner, the corporate or whoever is building this entity or in the people in the arts are saying we have a community responsibility to Pittsburgh and therefore we will pay a tax.

Mr. Pellegrini:

I think what has been glossed over here is not only are they -- let me make a point. There is roughly 13,000 square feet that we're vacating in the alley. They are going to operate a park similar to the ones at Heinz Hall at the corner, so there is an amenity that is going in there. What you have to look at is from a development viewpoint -- if for instance somebody would want to come in and put up a major office building there and when we do things like UDAG's and everything else, they're going to make profits and we give them a lot of money to build an office.

Michelle Madoff:

You're answering my question before I ask it. Isn't it true that anytime you put a park up whether it's put up because the City puts it up or anytime you put up a lovely -- you put up an antique shop, other antique shops come in and it becomes a center for antiques. If you build something for the arts, it becomes an attractive area, a more attractive area, it attracts people to the area so it becomes a plus to all of us. So why would we say because we're transferring a piece of land that may have a cash value of $320,000.00 it gives us an amenity back, going to pay -- is a tradeoff of the park and it is going to enhance the area, essentially this facility is making it possible to have another total amenity not only the parklet but the parking lot which can be used when the facility is not in operation, off hours, it also gives us an improvement in the physical community and hopefully we've been saying let's bring people back to the city to build more buildings and broaden the tax base of the community. So when the statement is made that there will be public gain from this, I certainly hope so, and put people to work and have some jobs; am I right or wrong?

Mr. Pellegrini:

That whole idea around the cultural district is that you attract other types of businesses into the district. People living -- and there was an article, it was an office equipment company that's locating from the South Hills into Pittsburgh and the reason they did it was the cultural trust and ironically the URA is putting substantial amounts of money in there and street-front improvements for facade improvements to keep the historic character of the district, so I mean you just can't say we're going to give money away and say that's correct and then say when we come in to advance that purpose we're going to waive a vacation fee, that that's inconsistent. And they're all for profit that we're giving money for. This is a non-profit.

The Chair:

Just for the point of clarification, Mr. Ferlo, could you restate your amendment?

Mr. Ferlo:

The amendment is to change the real estate company, Beynon and Company, to the Pittsburgh Trust for Cultural Resources.

The Chair:

There was a second on that motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

One last legal question. In five years from now if we're deeding this to the Pittsburgh Trust, what are their legal rights regarding let's say "XYZ Development Company" from New York City comes in and wants to have the property, what are their rights at that point in terms of making money on it?

Mr. Pellegrini:

They could obviously sell it out and I hope that they would sell it out. If they can get someone to put up a 50-story office building there and I would say fine, that is not the plan. I'm just telling you that's not the plan.

Mr. Ferlo:

I understand that but I'm just making the point again that for profit activities could happen sometime in the future once we deed this over to the Pittsburgh Trust for Cultural Resources.

Mr. Pellegrini:

We're giving them the 13,000 square feet and I think they spent an enormous amount of money acquiring the land around Scott Place, so they have a development plan with parking. If in ten years somebody comes in and says we're going to pay you all of this money and we're going to put up a 50-story office building, I don't think we should be concerned; I think we should applaud that.

---

Mr. Ferlo:

I agree with that but what I'm stating is basically a philosophical difference with the Administration and that is I believe all the things you say and the things that Michelle pointed out about the issue of development and the public good and the public benefit, but I'm also stating that there are other benefits and public good that's needed at the neighborhood level and that where we have opportunities to gain something out of a vacation of property where there are for-profit relationships that will exist, and this is the case with Scott Place, I'm all in favor of charging them $300,000.00 -- I shouldn't be talking about this since I already lost the vote on the amendment because that means $300,000.00 will be taken from the treasury and that $300,000.00 could be used in Lawrenceville or Southside or Allentown or Knoxville. It's a different philosophical position in the Administration.

Mr. Pellegrini:

The philosophical position is not that different. Let's say this is a big office building and let's waive the vacation fee, we have ten buildings in Downtown, Pittsburgh that pay 17.8 percent of the real estate tax. If we get an eleventh, that allows us to do things in the neighborhood so I mean the idea is that there are taxes that are going to be generated eventually when they get around to constructing the garage, so you are going to make it up.

Mr. Ferlo:

I agree with you but why not -- let me ask something. Why can't the Administration ever come to Council and say in addition to vacating the land and not charging them anything, everybody is going to be hired by the Cultural Trust to work in that lot is going to be a city resident. I'm saying I want something more since we're giving something up than what the Administration always seems to bring to the table.

Mr. Pellegrini:

You're now switching issues.

Mr. Ferlo:

It's falling into the same vein of quid pro quo, getting something back in return.

---

The Chair:

I would appreciate if we stay on the amendment. All those in favor of the amendment? Opposed?

Mr. Lyons:

No.

The Chair:

One opposed.

The Chair:

Now on the bill as amended, any discussion on the bill as amended? All those in favor of Bill No. 1141? Opposed?

Mr. Ferlo:

Opposed.

(END OF COMMENTS)

Mr. Ferlo:

I'm all for development in that area and I would applaud any efforts that the Trust makes, the City, as well as any other developer in that area as far as the creation of jobs or any type of economic cultural activity. But I do think it's legitimate for us on this Council to raise the issue of quid pro quo. I think in return that we should get the fair market value of that land. It's all well and good to say that jobs and tax benefits will be accrued in the future, although, in fact, this Council, to my knowledge, did not receive any information as to what the development plan is for the area. That was not presented to Council prior to us voting on this piece of legislation giving away a major piece of property in the Downtown area.

I think in the future it behooves this Council to receive formal written information before we can decide and determine whether or not something actually is for the public good. It shouldn't just be, well, we think this is going to happen. I would like to see that quantified and stipulated before Council before there's votes on these kinds of legislation.

Again, we don't know the number of jobs created, we don't know the amount of tax revenue to be created. I feel very strongly I was unable to get a second to my amendment that in relation to vacating this property we should at least receive the fair market value of $320,000. I made the point that in exchange for the property, having received that income, we could have used that income to support neighborhood development in housing and/or neighborhood business development. I think it's very fair to do that.

Equally so, I think where we do give land away for development in the Downtown area to support the Downtown Renaissance, I think we should do what other cities do and that is ask that Pittsburgh residents be hired for jobs. If the Trust is saying, if Mr. Pellegrini is saying, that jobs will be created in this parking lot or whatever development is going to take place, why not attach a rider, an amendment, to this deal that says in exchange for us giving you this land free for development, we want you to hire City of Pittsburgh people for those jobs? I think in the future this Council should take more seriously the issue of tying development and the prerogatives of the private sector to trying to create jobs for City of Pittsburgh residents or receive income, revenues that we could then target towards neighborhood development and housing in the neighborhood business corridor.

I do make out the point that after we seal this deal with this vote today, it could be as early as a year from now and the Pittsburgh Trust could resell that property at a great profit. I mean, it's conceivable for that property to be resold to some major developer which, again, I think we should get something in return more than just some nebulous continual argument about jobs to be created enhancing the area, the traditional Renaissance gobbledygook. I say let's quantify that and know the information.

So, for those reasons, I'm voting no on the legislation.

Michelle Madoff:

On that same bill, I think it has been discussed on infinitum although I must agree with Mr. Ferlo that very frequently we ask for information and we don't get it, we vote in a vacuum. But there was enough discussion that that particular bill to very clearly indicate that it is indeed dedicating land for the public good to the arts which attracts people to the area, makes it a wonderful place to live, keeps us in "the most liveable City". But it is really a garage that is going to generate taxes that are going to be paid to the City fund every year and it will enhance the quality of life for everybody, including the jobs.

And if Mr. Ferlo or anybody else would like to help those of us who have tried over the years to see that dollars are spent when we vote for City residents, we ought to pursue that course of action in a general sense, not targeting any particular company. My understanding is that from what Mr. Pellegrini has told us, and he could be wrong, is that we are not allowed to target dollars and say in exchange, as a quid pro quo, there will be jobs in the City of Pittsburgh. If that is possible, and I understand the courts are still ruling on the Boston situation, if the day ever comes where we can do that, I'm sure that we will. But I believe that there's the issue of federal dollars that are matching funds that come to the community through URA, etc. That is something that should be explored, even though we were unsuccessful; those of us here on Council tried to bring that about earlier. If there's some way of doing it, I'm sure you'd have the support of Council. But it is not responsible to hold up a meaningful project, that is an alley way, by not dedicating the land so we can get on with making the City a better, finer place to live. Thank you.

Mr. Ferlo:

I just want to clarify to Michelle because exactly what she said is exactly the opposite. The one ability we have on this Council legally to tie development and ask for something in return is when we have vacations of property which is an agreement contractually between two parties; in this case, the City and the Pittsburgh Trust For Cultural Resources. Legally, and even if you refer to earlier opinions from Mr. Pellegrini, he has many times come to the table and said that between two parties they can agree to whatever they want. So, the one time we actually do have the law on our side for receiving revenue or putting other kinds of stipulations on these types of legislation is when we are vacating the property. So, I just want to make it clear that while general blanket legislation is problemsome, the one time that we actually do have some legal ability are in contractual agreements such as the one presented here.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1298

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh to enter into a Grant Agreement with North Side Civic Development Council, Inc. for an amount not to exceed $10,000.00 under the Neighborhood Housing Fund."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1299

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution approving an Agreement by and between the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh and North Side Civic Development Council, Inc. in which the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh will provide financial assistance to the purchasers of two (2) single family units to be constructed in the 26th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh under the terms and conditions of the Neighborhood Housing Program."

Mr. Pollock presented

Bill No. 1367

Report of the Committee on General Services for September 14, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1303

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 558, effective June 20, 1985, entitled: 'Providing for an Agreement or Agreements with a Consultant or Consultants, for the Certification of Business Firms as Minority Owned or Women Owned for the City, at a cost not to exceed Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000.00), chargeable to and payable from Code Account 1128, Index Code 112805, Miscellaneous Services, Department of General Services.'"

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, in relation to Bill 1303, the hiring of the company that is to do the certification of business firms that are minority or women owned, I hate to say it, but I do find it to be true that this Administration has a very poor track record in relation to awarding contracts to minority and women owned companies. I find it further ironic and laughable that the agency that actually is to do the certification itself is not a minority or women owned firm. It's not a lot of money but I would think that in one area or one contract or one prerogative that this Administration has in the awarding of a contract to a minority or women owned firm should be to the agency that actually is supposed to do the certification. So, I'm voting no on that very clear principle.

Michelle Madoff:

To set the record straight on 1303, Director Botsford pointed out that they had actually chosen a minority firm and the minority firm had backed out and decided that they didn't wish to be the contractor. I believe that the consultant was chosen in good faith and I would hope that in the coming years we'd change our process to the lowest responsible bidder and that the dollars would not be a matter of publication where we say, "Come and get us". But I think we need to tell it the way it was.

The purpose of this legislation and the spending of these dollars is to see that indeed somebody says they're a minority firm, they are indeed a minority firm and they don't have somebody fronting for them.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

AYES 6      NOES 1

(MR. FERLO VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1304

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing authorization to enter into a Contract or Contracts by the City of Pittsburgh with the Urban Consortium Energy Task Force (UCETF) for a grant in connection with the Alternative Vehicle Fuel Usage Project; providing for the execution of a Grant Contract; providing for required assurances; providing for the deposit of the funds in a bank account of a special trust fund; and upon approval thereof, for an Agreement or Agreements for an internship for a graduate student or students and with a consultant or consultants for professional services in conjunction therewith and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 1304, I would like to point out that we were in a competition to receive the funds and Director Botsford and her staff did a tremendous job in letting us be the recipient of $52,000 for the feasibility of having the City of Pittsburgh vehicles to operate on both gasoline and natural gas. If the project doesn't work out, there will be no loss of dollars to the City; all the vehicles will be put back to their original state without cost as we've had in other projects. And indeed, we may find some ways to save the City money.

Also,

Bill No. 1306

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the letting of a Contract or Contracts, or for the use of existing Contracts, for the purchase and delivery and one (1) Mobile Seating Unit, chargeable to and payable from Code Account 4-30-01-0001 (GS 88-03), Index Code 370346, Miscellaneous Equipment for City Departments, and providing for the payment thereof."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

On Bill 1306, in relation to the bleachers, we're spending over $13,000 for a portable bleacher stand. I hope that in voting to support this it's not going to be a situation where this bleacher just shows up to wherever the Mayor happens to be cutting a ribbon or some regatta or some event at a time when, if we tour the parks as I have, many of our little league fields actually are short of bleachers.

I'm voting aye on this with the hope that the Department would concentrate a little more attention on Kennard Field, for example, as well as others throughout the City that are badly in need of permanent benches which could easily be built by buying lumber. Thank you.

Mr. Woods presented

Bill No. 1368

Report of the Committee on Parks and Recreation for September 14, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1282

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with the Greenfield Cougars for professional services in connection with their football program at a cost not to exceed $2,000.00, chargeable to and payable from Code Account 1838, Miscellaneous Services (183806), in the Department of Parks and Recreation."
—(SPONSORED BY MR. COYNE)

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 1282, I'm going to vote for the bill because I do not wish to discriminate against one group over another community. But I would hope that when we get into budget hearings, the Chairman of Finance will call a meeting along with the President and we will set our priorities for next year with a very limited source of dollars as to how we're going to spend our money, not specifically, but in the general concept. Are we going to give it to little groups? Are we going to give it to the big entities? Are we going to channel our dollars in different directions for perhaps issues that are terribly underfunded like literacy? And are we going to look at hiring, finally, after a number of years, a grants person for the City of Pittsburgh?

Mr. Wagner:

May I have my comments brought forward on Bill No. 1282 for the Record?

The Chair:

I would like my comments brought forward also. Everyone knows, I stated it once, the reason I am voting against this bill is not because I'm against the Cougars Football Team or J & L's Little League or anything else simply because it's politics, it's Mr. Coyne — Got that right? It's politics — Mr. Coyne presented it and he wouldn't vote for the abolishing of the pool fees and, at the time, I said that those who didn't vote for the abolishment of the pools fees, I would not vote or give any other activities money that was raised from the pool fees.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

(BEGINNING - MESSRS. WOODS AND WAGNER'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1282, WEDNESDAY, 9/14/88)

Mr. Woods:

Mr. Chairman, I think that we should vote this bill down because the sponsor of the bill, Mr. Coyne, he has sponsored two previous organizations and this is his third little league or football team that we voted in favor of. He taken this money out of Parks and Recreation out of Code Account 1838 and he wants to help a small group of people yet he was in favor of the pool fees that hurt the entire city and everybody that lives in the city. Now how many football teams are we going to go and fund by giving $2,000.00 to? I think we're opening up a can of worms.

Anybody that voted in favor of the pool fees, especially Mr. DePasquale and Mr. Coyne voted in favor of the pool fees, I think this is totally wrong and I would urge this Council to vote it down.

One more thing. In funds like this to date we have given out $70,000.00 on little leagues and football and I made this point when we fought the pool fees and that all we made on pool fees and all of you should search your conscious before doing this.

Like you Mr. Ferlo I'm going to make it clear. I said in the very beginning when Mr. DePasquale and Mr. Coyne and Mr. Pollock didn't vote to abolish the pool fees that I would vote against the three of them. Mr. Coyne, you came to my office and I told you to your face last week that I wouldn't be voting for this.

Secondly, since Mr. Coyne stated all of these activities that this group does, like we do in Grants and Donations and every other group that we give money to, every other group, the sponsor of that piece of legislation comes in with facts and figures; he just doesn't talk about it, he comes in with brochures, he comes in and says what they do and he hands it to us before we vote on it. The day he presents it to us he comes out and he shows it to us. Now if you have it in front of you, that's fine. I suggest we hold this and provide us with this information and we'll vote on it next week.

Mr. Wagner:

Councilwoman Madoff, then Mr. Coyne, Mr. Pollock, but as Finance Chairman I am going to take the floor and make a comment.

The last time a piece of legislation of this type came up it was sponsored by Mr. Lyons. We had a very heated discussion at this Council in regard to a similar piece of legislation. There is another piece of legislation today sponsored by Mr. Coyne. There are some members of Council, Mr. Pollock in particular, that has spoke against all pieces of legislation like this and for that reason at the last meeting on a similar issue I requested from our budget staff a listing of all funds, discretionary funds, over the last three years of which each one of you received a copy of. Every member of Council including Mr. Pollock has sponsored dollars for various organizations except for Councilwoman Madoff. She has been the only person that has not sponsored monies in the last three years, Mr. Pollock has sponsored the AIDS Task Force for $40,000.00, the VietNam Veterans Monument Fund and also the Western Pennsylvania Conservancy. I have sponsored groups, every other Councilmember has sponsored groups.

The reason for requesting this information I think there needs to be some uniformity in which the monies are granted and personally I think Mr. Coyne, in regard to this piece of legislation, I requested to our Budget Staff that anyone submitting legislation of this type for discretionary funding, to please have the individual contact me and provide information about how the dollars are to be used. That's all I've ever requested for these discretionary funds. The reason for that is I think there are some ways in which to utilize these types of dollars that are very meaningful and very beneficial to the groups and to the neighborhoods. As of this date, me as Finance Chairman, I have received no information of that type in regard to this organization. I will vote for this but I would certainly want prior to Monday that information. Some organizations that we have given $2,000.00 and I don't know specifically how this organization will utilize the monies. You have stated the type of organization and the type of activities, but I also would like to know more specifics about how they utilize the monies. Some of the $2,000.00 that we have given to organizations have been utilized in very significant ways with great return on those dollars. For instance, little league associations building refreshment stands for $2,000.00 with labor provided by the people and the monies only providing for the materials. In essence what we are doing is assisting that organization indefinitely because in the future they can raise monies with that refreshment stand. Those types of investments of $2,000.00 to neighborhood groups are very worthwhile and should be considered by this Council. However, I think it's extremely important that information be provided to all Councilmembers, and Mr. Pollock suggested that when he was Finance Chairman, information on each organization should be submitted to all Councilmembers. To my knowledge that hasn't been done yet and with this group, and I would strongly recommend it that it be done either today or hold the bill one week or even prior to Monday.

AYES 5                      NOES 2

(MR. POLLOCK AND MR. WOODS VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1337

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing a Lease with the Three Rivers Rowing Association of real property on Washington's Landing to be used as a Rowing Center."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1338

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing a Cooperation Agreement with the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh to provide for the conveyance of real property to the City for lease as a Rowing Center."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

I would hope on Bill 1337 and 1338 that the rowing facility, the dedication of the property so the Three Rivers Rowing Association will indeed keep that property open to all people who would like to put their canoes in the water and it will not become a little private park that's maintained by taxpayers' monies as we've seen in the State for the big boys who want to play with airplanes.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, on Bills 1337 and 1338 in relation to the lease agreement with Three Rivers Rowing Association, I believe we had asked for a lot of information. I specifically asked for a copy of the by laws and a copy of the lease agreement that was going to be signed. My office on Friday by about 4:00 - I believe the Clerk possibly received it at 2:30 or 3:00 - received a copy of the by laws of the organization. I don't know that any Councilmember has an actual copy of the lease agreement with this organization. After the Wednesday session, a gentleman, Mr. Lambert, called me; he's somebody I knew many years ago and I know him to be a very fine individual, and he really set me straight on a lot of the particulars on the issue of the association, some of the very good work that they're doing.

Mr. Pollock made an earlier comment in the Wednesday session about how critical it was for there to be an anchor or some initial development to get things going on the island and that's certainly a very strong point in wanting to pass this. However, I don't like the fact that we're being rushed into approving this lease agreement. I don't want in any way to speak or belittle the organization; it seems to be a very fine effort. But on principle, I have a very hard time voting for this legislation when, one, I have not received, nor Council has received a copy of the lease agreement; and two, we have only Friday at the end of the work day received other information, the particulars, that were attempting to address some of the concerns of Director Brown.

I feel strongly that we should hold this. I don't know if it's appropriate for me to make the motion but I would like to make a motion to hold this for one week and to recommit.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

My understanding is that there is a deadline because there's a national meeting here that will focus a lot of media attention on the City and will be a benefit to the City. People who live here will get national coverage. There was a deadline where we were trying to open that park or just dedicate the land so that we would be in sync with this time frame. My understanding is that it will pass anyway and I think it would be a shame to lose out on whatever public coverage that we could get.

The Chair:

I feel as you do and I'm sure Mr. Ferlo feels the same way, and Mr. Wagner. We asked for a simple lease agreement they're going to sign, and they may have already signed it because you get a tentative agreement on Wednesday. If the Law Department has that agreement drawn up, I don't see what difficulty it would have been to bring it to this Council. It should have been brought to us Wednesday afternoon when it was asked for. It's a 30 year lease; we don't know what escape clauses either party may have. Five years from now you might have another use for that. I don't see anything wrong with them bringing it up and I think this Council is right in recommitting this bill because they didn't bring it up in a timely fashion. I am sure that our Law Department has dozens and dozens of copies of lease agreements down there. Is this one so special that they couldn't send it up and say, here's what we're going to lease this for and for the period of time and the different clauses in it? I mean, it's a very, very simple thing and I think, Ms. Madoff, many, many times you said the same thing; I just want to see it. Mr. Pollock, you said the same thing; I want to see this thing. We asked for it on Wednesday. If it was already there prepared, how are they going to have it signed before this Saturday without Council seeing it? I think you have a legitimate argument.

Mr. Ferlo:

In relation to the legitimate point that Michelle raised about the promotion of the regional event that is going to be held here, I would see nothing wrong - they have access to the property - by holding this a week and recommitting it and getting a copy of the lease agreement. That doesn't preclude the organization and the Department of Parks and Recreation with the Mayor out there cutting a ribbon to having some type of promotional event saying this is the land, this is what we hope to do, they can have a scale there. I don't think in holding up the actual legal documents that that precludes the association and the Mayor or Director Brown from having a media event on the island. I don't see that these two things are necessarily tied together at all. I would encourage them, in fact, to have a media event and maybe they could better explain to the public exactly what they're going to do there. But I don't see that that necessarily means that we can't recommit this and actually review a copy of the lease agreement.

Mr. DePasquale:

As I stated at the meeting the other day, even though the project is to placed on a non-contaminated area, I think we ought to get a report on that latest study in regards to hazardous waste on the other end of the island before we do anything on that island. At least get the report and know what the heck is going on over there.

Michelle Madoff:

I ahve to agree with what you've said, Mr. Woods, and what Mr. Ferlo has said. It is true; we very frequently vote in a vacuum, more times than not because nobody will support what I've been screaming about for ten years, getting information.

It's a little late in the day to say, now on this particular item, I really want to get a copy of this lease. So do I. But in all fairness, I don't think that we can trade off the national publicity that we can get for starting this rowing club and enhancing the image of Pittsburgh by saying now we're going to make an example and we won't vote. I am satisfied in the information I have had in meeting with the people from the Three Rivers Rowing Club that it's a good project, and that it will enhance the City, and I'm sure it's just a regular routine lease, and I'm going to vote for it.

The Chair:

There's no problem with that. All I'm stating is that when the Director called me and asked me, since it's my Committee, if I would waive Rule 8 until we had all the documents and the people here, I said fine. You asked for a simple agreement and it's not there. It's been five days and that agreement should have been provided at that table. And if not, it should have been at hand and provided to you shortly thereafter. I see nothing wrong with that request.

Michelle Madoff:

I agree with you; I think you're right. But at this point, being right isn't going to help the City. And it isn't going to devastate the City if we go ahead, if you believe this is a good project, to allow us to get perhaps hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of coverage for the City to help build our City.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I have two separate items; one deals with automobiles, the first part being stolen automobiles and I want to remind Council and the public that there is a public hearing tomorrow morning at 10:00 a.m. on the issue of auto theft in the City of Pittsburgh. So, if people would like to speak at that hearing, they can call the City Clerk at 255-2138, and I believe the Administration tomorrow will be represented by Chief Pampena on this issue.

The other part of the automobiles has to do with the salver contract. This is the particular activity, the company, that takes away the abandoned automobiles that are located on City streets throughout the neighborhoods and Downtown area.

The problem that I have in relation to the salver contract is that I'm very upset over a recent development and that is, quite frankly, that I believe the Mayor and the Solicitor are breaking the law. I read the law to say that Section 510 of the Home Rule Charter that every contract relating to City affairs shall be authorized by a resolution of this City Council. Now, all of a sudden, the City is being divided in half and the sister of the existing company that does the towing, Craig Towing Company, ends up with a contract who, all of a sudden, she went into business.

I don't think that's a way to deal and the other day I was accused of being a little bit vocal on the issue of people getting greased and my comments, Mr. Chairman, you thought were out of order. But when things like this go on, I become very alarmed.

If the Administration wants to divide up the City under supposedly the legitimate concern of wanting to increase the number of abandoned automobiles being taken off the street, I think that's a very good thing that we should investigate. But there is an existing contract to my knowledge with another company, Yurechko. I have no problem with Simply Salvage, which is the name of this new company, being in and partaking in the piece of the action. But it should be done by competitive bidding and I think it's very clear that the Administration does not have the legal power to just all of a sudden say to Karyn Rok in Simply Salvage, well, we're going to give you half of the City. What is this? Do they all get in a back room together and divide up the City? Is that the way we're doing business now in the future? I don't think it is. And I think it's clear that when their contracts are executed by the Administration, that the Home Rule Charter is specific. They do the thinking out and the administration and the executing of the contract, but only after this legislative body gives them the prerogative to do so, and that's by authorization and a resolution of this City Council.

To my knowledge, and I ask the City Clerk, since I've gotten here January 4th, we have not authorized a salver contract. And before it's just handed over to the sister of Craig Towing or to Yurechko or to anybody else, I think it should be clear on this body that we want to have some input. I think we should talk about the issue of abandoned cars. I know I spent half my week, including my staff, trying to get rid of abandoned cars and I'm sure my colleagues are harassed throughout the week, legitimately, from the public who has a problem with abandoned cars littering the streets.

So, there's no problem with wanting to do things differently if we need to do them differently, and I might support it. But why divide the City in two? Why not divide the City into three or four or eight? Why not other salvers? How is it that just two salvers are getting a piece of the action? This is not the way to do business. It smacks of favoritism on the part of Mr. DiNardo from the Department of Public Safety, and, quite frankly, I don't like it and I'm not going to participate in it. If we need to rethink the contract, it should have some input and the Administration should come before City Council. And if we're going to bid anything, it should be done by competitive bidding so that the Simply Salvage has a shot at it or Mr. Yurechko or any other salver company or operation in the City.

And if the Solicitor, Mr. Pellegrini, and these parties signed the contracts that were sent out to them, I'm going to go to the Court of Common Pleas to try to enforce the Charter, for one; and two, I've already called on Mr. Flaherty, the Controller, not to countersign it and he's given me his commitment not to countersign these contracts because it's just not the way things should be done in this City.

And I would hope that my colleagues would support me on this concern. Regardless of the particulars of the issue, there's an important principle here, and that is that Council authorizes contracts by resolution, by authorization, and that did not happen in this case:

So, I would like to make a motion that we send a letter to the Mayor and to the Solicitor basically putting this on hold. The existing contract to Yurechko, they should continue picking up cars. But we should discuss this, we should review proposals, we should allow them to go out and submit an RFP or a bid, and it should be open to competitive bidding. We shouldn't just get on the phone and dole contracts out. That's not the way it should be. So, I'd like to make that in the form of a motion.

The Chair:

Before you do that, Mr. Ferlo, let's listen to Mr. Coyne and Ms. Madoff. Well, you can make the motion and get a second, but it's still under discussion. Is there a second?

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Before Michelle speaks, I believe Mr. Rok was at her press conference when she announced she's running for Mayor. I don't know if that's true --

The Chair:

Hold it, hold it.

Michelle Madoff:

If you want to make this political, you little twerp --

The Chair:

Hold it or else I'm going to adjourn this meeting. There's going to be no more of that. I let you make the motion and it has been seconded.

Mr. Coyne, you have the floor.

Mr. Ferlo:

I just want to know if he was at your press conference.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll wait my turn and when I'm recognized, I'll speak.

Mr. DePasquale:

Did he give a contribution?

Michelle Madoff:

I certainly hope so.

Mr. Ferlo:

That's not the issue; I'm not saying that.

The Chair:

I'm going to tell you what, and this is the last time. I'm not going to fine anybody; I'm just going to adjourn this meeting.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. Chairman, first of all, I do commend you on stopping any accusations like that from one member of Council to another. This isn't the place to do that and if you have any accusations, Councilman Ferlo, you should bring forth something in writing and, if you're going to do that, go to the press, not to use this political body to make accusations like that.

But to get to the issue, and not to cast any aspersions or accusations on the Administration or the parties involved, there is a proper procedure which must be followed. And, if I'm not mistaken, this hasn't been followed on this issue, and I would like to second the Councilman's idea that we do get written explanation from the Administration as to why it was done in this case. Maybe there's a legitimate reason, although I can't think of one myself why we, as elected officials, should be able to be overstepped. If one has been provided, then I have not seen it and haven't read it, but I would also ask for a written explanation from the Administration.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I will try to refrain from losing my cool because at this point I'd like to go over and swat him.

As it happens, there is a letter. The letter was sent from Mr. Ferlo's office to Mr. Louis DiNardo. There was a response and the response went to the City Clerk. I would appreciate it if we would set the record straight. When you criticized, or maybe it was Mr. Wagner who said we will not have political assertions or slurs and talk about greasing, etc., at this table or in Council, may I point out respectfully that it is well known that Mr. Flaherty and Mr. Craig and Karyn Rok as his attorney have had a long-time feud and I don't think Mr. Ferlo had to get a guarantee from Controller Flaherty that he would not sign the contract. I am sure that Mr. Flaherty approached Mr. Ferlo. And since he opened the bag of worms, I'm just setting the record straight.

I would like for the Record if Mr. Perry would read the letter and the response because I think there's a lot of misinformation going out here. I only know what I know in the letter.

As far as the issue of whether we're going to divide the City and whether we're going to have more than one person towing cars out of the City, it may or may not be the prerogative of the Administration. I don't know that. And I don't have a problem with requesting information to say are we going to change the procedure. And if we're going to change the procedure, should Council vote on the change of procedure. That's a legitimate question. But to tie it to anyone's living in the City trying to earn a living, and being female trying to earn a living at great odds, I think it's unfair and I would ask that Mr. Perry read the letter because there is going to be a lowest responsible bidder contract and there's a lot of misinformation that's been put on this table.

Mr. Ferlo:

Point of Order, Mr. Chairman. Again, I think this is the inappropriate manner in which to discuss this issue, reading a letter. This should be a debate and this should be dialogue that we have in a Committee Session. The Administration should come to the table and say, look, we have a problem in this City; we cannot get cars abandoned. There are other companies who would like to do business, who have a track record or are competent, and we want to change things. In the future, we want to divide up this City; there's this company, Simply Salvage, or these other companies. I have no problem with other people getting in on the contract.

The Chair:

What's your point of order?

Mr. Ferlo:

The point of order is that it's inappropriate to debate this point at this level now. I think it's appropriate that we send the communique to the Administration and they put a hold on actually signing any contract and we actually discuss this.

The Chair:

On your point of order, I'm not going to accept it. I'm going to let the letters be read because you made allegations that you tried and they're breaking this contract or just giving contracts out. Now if there's a legitimate explanation and Ms. Madoff is presenting it, I want to hear it too. Read the letters, Mr. Perry. Both of them.

(BEGINNING - LETTERS REQUESTED BY MICHELLE MADOFF)

September 9, 1988

Louis DiNardo, Deputy Director
Department of Public Safety
1600 W. Carson Street
Pittsburgh, PA 15219

Dear Deputy Director DiNardo:

My office has received numerous complaints about abandoned automobiles around the City. There appears to be a long waiting period between the date that a request to remove an automobile is made and the date the auto is removed.

I know that the City presently has an arrangement with a salver to remove these autos. Can the City request bids from the current salver and additional salvers in order to increase our capacity to remove cars?

As you know, an abandoned car can very quickly turn a pleasant looking street into an eyesore. I am more than willing to help in any way I can to help to see that the current backlog of vehicles is removed and that the City can quickly service complaints in the future.

Thank you,
Jim Ferlo
cc: Director Cannon

September 12, 1988

Mr. Michael Perry
City Clerk
Office of the City Clerk
510 City County Building
Pittsburgh, PA 15219

Dear Mr. Perry:

The current salvor contract has expired and is being prepared in the City Law Department for reissuance. As in the past, the Department has recommended salvors who have adequate salvage yards, the ability to provide a timely service to the City and can meet the City's contract requirements, i.e. insurance and bonds. This contract has never been bid and, therefore, the selection process rests with the administration.

As you are well aware, Mayor Masloff has initiated a clean-up campaign for the City of Pittsburgh. A large part of this campaign is directed toward abandoned vehicles. Currently the Police Bureau has identified over 300 abandoned vehicles, processed the necessary paperwork and has these vehicles awaiting tows. We are confident that with the appropriate effort many more vehicles will be identified as abandoned. It is most important that these abandoned vehicles be removed from the City streets in a timely and efficient fashion. It is toward that end that the Department of Public Safety has asked the Law Department to prepare two contracts; one for the previous contractor, Yurechko Auto Service, 5204 West Smithfield Street, Boston, PA, and the second for Simply Salvage, 945 Baldwin Road, Pittsburgh, PA. Based on 1987 and year-to-date 1988 salvor information, we have essentially split the City in half, with each contractor receiving half of the City.

Your letter to Mayor Masloff has indicated that Councilman Ferlo expressed concern that Simply Salvage has close connections to Craig Towing Company. We are respectfully requesting from Councilman Ferlo a full explanation of his concerns for our consideration prior to the letting of any contract with Simply Salvage. We are aware of the sibling relationship between Karyn Rok of Simply Salvage and Craig Rok of Craig Towing Company. However, that is of no concern to the Department of Public Safety. Simply Salvage offers the City a female owned business, which the City tries to promote and further, a business within the City limits which this administration also tries to promote. It should also be noted that the City towing contract expires December 31, 1989. We are currently preparing the bidding process for towing service to six police zones, with the eventual award to the lowest qualified bidder.

The salvor contracts will run from approximately October 1, 1988 to December 31, 1988. During this time, the City will competitively bid the 1989 and future salvor contractors. This process is administered by the Department of General Services and the Department of Public Safety, as well as the City Controller's Office. If any Councilmember is interested, they can observe this process in its entirety.

If you have any additional comments, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely yours,

Glenn M. Cannon
Director

(END OF LETTERS)

The Chair:

I have one question. The current contract goes to when?

Mr. Perry:

Up until '89. "It should also be noted that the City towing contract expires December 31, 1989."

The Chair:

That's the current contract. Now, what I would like to suggest, before we keep going and hurt people needlessly, let's have a post agenda, I'll give you a date, we'll have it in October, we'll all be present, and we'll make sure we invite the appropriate parties, including the Controller, the Director of Public Safety, and all parties involved.

Michelle Madoff:

I just wanted to point out that the Administration is aware of the problem. They are trying to get women contractors involved. One cannot help who one is related to. Sometimes we love our brothers and sisters and sometimes we don't get along with them. It's irrelevant. The issue is that there's going to be a bid prepared to go out for the lowest responsible bidder for 1989 and I think your idea to get this all cleared up in a post agenda is an excellent idea, without making accusation.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, let's be very clear. I could care less whether Karyn Rok, owner of Simply Salvage, gets a contract. I hope that she is successful in getting the contract, but that's not the issue. I find it very curious that an individual has an inside track on a contract, and that's the dispute I have, not with the individual, not with the company. It's the process. The process should be a resolution and ordinance of this Council allowing the Administration to go out and let the bid out. That's the process. They did that before. Mr. DiNardo doesn't know his head from a hole in the ground because in 1983 there was an ordinance by Council authorizing, at that time it was Pennsylvania Salver, Inc., whoever they are.

So, what I'm talking about, very clearly, is not the individual. I hope that this individual is successful because I think it's clear that more effort is needed on getting rid of the abandoned cars. What I'm talking about is the Home Rule Charter, the process of this City, and also the manner in which contracts are let out. And I do find it curious that someone has the inside track and that an administration, in this case Mr. DiNardo, just say here, we'll give you a piece of the action. That's not the way the City should do business; it should be done competitively.

The Chair:

I totally agree with you. In part of that discussion, we'll be seeing why we don't go out for competitive bid as we had in 1983. We'll have Dan Pellegrini with complete discussion and the whole bit.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Perry, just for the record, I believe the letter said they are going to competitive bid and preparing it within the next two months.

I would just like to comment on what you said, Mr. Woods. I have no problem with questions that Mr. Ferlo raised. None. They're legitimate. But what I have a problem with is opening up — Wasn't she at your press conference and isn't he inside with Mr. Flaherty and I got Mr. Flaherty's promise that he won't sign, when Flaherty came to him and asked him not to sign.

Mr. Ferlo:

No, that's not true.

The Chair:

Alright, end of subject. We had a motion on the floor and it was seconded, whether to send this letter or not to send this letter. But we're going to have a post agenda, so do you want to withdraw your motion, Mr. Ferlo? I guarantee we'll have a post agenda.

Mr. Ferlo:

I just want to make it clear that these contracts not get signed because, one, I'll go to court and, two, it's not going to be countersigned by the Controller.

The Chair:

On your motion about sending this letter to the Administration --

Mr. Ferlo:

There's no need to send a letter if we're in agreement that you're going to set the post agenda and I hope that the Administration, including my little friend Mr. Pellegrini, is listening to this discussion.

The Chair:

Alright.

Mr. Pollock:

Last week I received several communications from an individual; the communications were signed by John Leahy, Chief of the Bureau of Fire. I find it curious because they came in after Chief Leahy's effective date of resignation. Obviously, once one looked at the communications, they were quite extensive, it was obvious that they were probably in the pipeline of communication for quite some time. It got me to thinking about the irony of the fact that work that Chief Leahy had worked on was still being communicated to members of Council and other people in the City employ, even after he was gone.

It causes me to bring up a subject today because I think this Council and the people of Pittsburgh really owe Chief Leahy a debt of gratitude and of thanks. One can question many things about many people about what they do and what they don't do, but Chief Leahy, say whatever one wants, was an individual who devoted an incredible amount of time to his job as the Chief of the Bureau of Fire. It was not at all uncommon for him to put in 16 hour days, 7 days a week. His motives were truly the finest for improving the Bureau of Fire, for bringing the personnel into the 1990's, to work toward the better education, better staffing, better training, better preparation, better equipping of the Bureau of Fire. I think we would be remiss if we didn't acknowledge his resignation after the time that he served here.

In addition to that, I personally would also like to thank Kevin Mellott for the work that he did. Again, certainly, Kevin could be considered controversial, colorful. Some of his acts could be questioned, no doubt about it; I'll stipulate to that. But, again, no one can question what his motives were, that he was trying to do the job as he saw it, that he worked tirelessly for the City of Pittsburgh.

I think both of these individuals should be thanked, at least by me; if anyone else wants to join me in these thanks, that is fine. But I would like to publicly thank them both and I wish that we had more public servants for the City of Pittsburgh who put in the time, the dedication and the effort to their jobs that these individuals did.

I also want to wish Chief Dickinson the best of luck in his new position as Fire Chief. It is certainly one of the toughest jobs in the City and I wish him good luck in this job.

Mr. Ferlo:

On another subject. In relation to Thursday afternoon's public hearing on Mr. Pollock's human rights ordinance, I wanted to raise one suggestion for your response. I believe there are about 50 or 60 people lined up to speak so far. Something that the School Board has recently enacted because of the non-residential controversy that people who don't live in the City who have a lot to say about the School Board's wellness clinics. I would like to ask the Chairman of this Council to consider, if nothing else, allowing City residents, be they against or for the resolution, being allowed to speak first and let the suburbanites, be they for or against, wait their turn, for one.

Two, I would even go so far to suggest that if they don't live in the City, I would prefer that they not even be allowed to speak because, by way of example, this is something that the School Board has initiated. If people don't live in the City and pay taxes and have something to contribute, why should they take up our time.

It is the case, often times, where corporate leaders, and this is really why the practice began in the first place, often times you have corporate leaders who will address Council on an issue and I think the past has been that the Council has been gracious in allowing non-residents to speak because often times you'd have like a Jacques Kahn or association.

I don't have a problem necessarily with non-City residents speaking, but I think people who are City residents, be they for the resolution or against it, should be afforded the opportunity to speak first, for one; and two, I would think that we ask that there be a two or three minute time limit for speakers so that we can at least have everybody hear people out without Councilmembers getting up and leaving and having other obligations, so that everybody could be heard. I wanted to know your response to that.

The Chair:

My response to the three minute time limit, I already discussed that with Mr. Perry and I think we're going to enforce it very strongly.

It's kind of late in the game, we're only a couple days away, to tell the non-City residents that they can't speak or that someone goes first. We have always taken it on the first person that called and that's the order that we do it. But, it's a good thing, something to think about, for us to think about in the future. And maybe we could extend it a little bit; if these reporters don't live in the City, they shouldn't be able to write about us. We should throw them all the hell out of there too. But it probably won't go that far.

Mr. Ferlo:

Why not charge them a user fee?

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. Chairman, I concur with Councilman Ferlo that City residents be given the priority to speak. I don't go for the exclusion because we're the first ones to yell about them coming in and using our services and wanting them to contribute to our taxes. So, on the same hand, I think we should grant them the opportunity to come and speak. But if City residents are signed up, I think they should have first priority.

The Chair:

As I stated, it's just too late in the game to do it now. Next time, we can do it, we can advertise that City residents will be permitted to speak first. But the way it was advertised now, I see no way that we can do it.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Woods, I agree that there is some validity in what has been stated by my colleagues, and the fact that, frankly, there are 120 speakers and I have at 11:30 an urgent meeting and I have Council that morning because we changed Wednesday to Thursday out of respect for my religion and I thank you. We'll be here until midnight and, frankly, I have an evening meeting. I would like to hear from those who are most affected in the sense that it is City jobs they're talking about. But I also would not discriminate against any group that speaks on behalf of anybody that's in the City, for example, the Catholic Church or any minister or speak for their flock or any businesses who speak pro or, I hope, against discrimination. But I think that there are many people who have been organized to come in from the suburbs who are very vocal, pro or con, who should not be heard first. And because of the time frame, it is not inappropriate because you have all the power to go ahead and say there are 120 speakers and those who have a direct correlation to the City would speak first. That doesn't mean we would say that somebody who is a priest or a minister or whatever who lives outside the City but speaks for his flock in the City wouldn't speak. We're talking about the people that are calling our phones so we can't use our offices, we can't function, we can't service the public, and those who don't live in the City would not be the first ones heard. That's all.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I would totally be opposed to us identifying City residents as those that speak or those that speak first or those that speak a longer period of time than non-City residents on any issue. The City of Pittsburgh is not an island; if anything, we should be broadening our borders rather than building walls around our borders. When we were rated the most liveable City in America, it was not just the boundaries of the City of Pittsburgh; it was the entire metropolitan area. We have 200,000 people that come into the City to work every day. We want them to come to our City to work every day, I want them to come to this Council. I want them to tell me what they think about the City of Pittsburgh on any issue.

I also care very much about the residents of the City of Pittsburgh, but I would even suggest to the School Board, if they identify only City residents, that they should include people other than City residents. We can learn from people other than City residents.

And I would be very much opposed to us changing the rules, as you have indicated, during the game for public hearings. Public hearings are for the public. We have never said that they are for the public which is just the City of Pittsburgh. Therefore, I would hope that public hearings, all public hearings, would go on in the future as they have in the past.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I make a motion that City residents, be they pro or con, speak first at the public hearing on Thursday.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

The Chair:

I won't honor that motion. I set hearings, I set dates, and I set procedures of public hearings. Your motion is out of order.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, the motion is not out of order.

The Chair:

It is out of order.

Michelle Madoff moved to excuse Mr. Lyons for absence from the meeting.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Wagner

Council adjourned.

No. 37

Municipal Record

ONE—HUNDRED TWENTY-FIFTH COUNCIL

BEN WOODS ..... President Pro-Tem
MICHAEL PERRY ..... City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON .. Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, September 26, 1988

PRESENT:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Michelle Madoff  |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Ferlo      | Mr. Woods        |
|                | (Pres't Pro tem) |

ABSENT:

Mr. Lyons
Mr. Pollock

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Michelle Madoff:

Rose Palmer-Phelps, Judge Cashman and Hillary Spatz, I wonder if you would come forward please.

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 1406 WHEREAS, thousands of children in Allegheny County are dependent on child support; and,

WHEREAS, the number of children in Allegheny County under the age of 18 is over 52,000 of the County's population who are living in families without fathers; and,

WHEREAS, over 80% of claims for Aid for Families with Dependent Children are a direct result of non-payment of child support; and,

WHEREAS, failure and refusal to pay child support causes thousands of children untold suffering; and,

WHEREAS, as in Allegheny County, there are 683,955 cases reviewed on the issue of child support for the year 1987 with a total collection of $58,129,386 for this same year; and,

WHEREAS, SUPPORT served over 4,000 clients for 1987 on the issue of child support and custody to clients unable to afford private legal counsel;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby recognize the week of September 26th as "Child Support Awareness Week", because of the urgent needs of thousands of children dependent on child support, and hereby commend SUPPORT, Pittsburgh's nationally recognized advocacy organization for their continued work in this area; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Council commends the Allegheny County Family Division for the work they have done in the collection of child support and the award they received from the Federal Government for their outstanding performance.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I know that everybody that needs help in supporting their children because the fathers have just decided they're not going to pick up the responsibility. I know that this Council as a body has contributed in one of the ways that we have been able to, and I guess you'll be back at budget time again, and you have my support on record.

And, I would hope the people who are listening today who are out in the community understand that fathers or mothers who can support the children who refuse to do so, have to be brought to task and made to pick up the responsibility, and I know that I speak for all members of Council when I say that this is a must - the burden of children who are not receiving adequate care, clothing, food, emotional support, because of society, and I will get copies of this resolution for the three members and perhaps you'd like to say something.

Ms. Palmer-Phelps:

Thank you, Michelle, members of City Council, we appreciate all the efforts that you have given us throughout the last four years in order to make us be able to provide for the people who aren't able to have legal assistance with them when going through the issues of child support and custody, and we find out its just not a male, female issue. It's a custodial, non-custodial issue, and its a problem of the children being abused by their parents by non-financial support, and we will continue to fight and make every effort that every child receives the support that they are supposed to, and thank you very much.

Judge Cashman:

On behalf of the court system, I'd like to thank the members of Council for this resolution for it recognizes the courts goal and that is gender blindness. We don't believe that its an issue that involves parents, it involves children and it is the protection of these children that we try to look out for, and as noted in this proclamation over $58 million was collected last year. We will continue with those efforts and we thank you for the recognition of those efforts.

The Chair:

Thank you all very much.

Mr. Coyne presented

No. 1374 Resolution further amending Resolution No. 350, effective April 27, 1987, as amended by Resolution No. 568, effective July 20, 1988, entitled: "Providing for a Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts, for construction in connection with the Replacment of Roofing Systems at

Also,

No. 1399 Communication from Thomas Flaherty, City Controller, submitting a report of Net Debt & Remaining Debt Incurring Margin in accordance with Act No. 52, approved April 28, 1978, "Local Government Unit Debt Act", prepared as of August 31, 1988.

Also,

No. 1400 Communication from Thomas Flaherty, City Controller, submitting a performance audit of the City's Purchasing System, including an examination of procedures for procuring services and commodities and an assessment of the City's decentralized invoice payment system, dated September 19, 1988.

Which were read, received and filed.

Mr. Ferlo:

Point of discussion. Mr. Chairman in relation to the performance audit report that has been supplied by the Controller, I read a couple of newspaper articles, I know he had a press conference, but I do think its appropriate for City Council providing some checks and balances to ask that all the parties come forward possibly a month, or five or six weeks to hear from the Administration on the issues that Mr. Flaherty raised in his performance audits, specifically on the issue of centralized purchasing. And, I think its very fear and appropriate for this body to hear how the Administration plans to respond to some of the audit recommendations. I believe if the papers are accurate that the Director, Ms. Botsford indicated support for many of the recommendations, but I do think its appropriate for us to entertain and hear from those two groups on that discussion. I would suggest that there be — because as far as I'm concerned it has a lot to do with the annual budget debate on staffing positions, specifically on a lot of clerical positions in various departments in relation to purchasing. So, I would like to see that take place in for form of a post agenda in the next five or six weeks.

The Chair:

Mike, set that up in six weeks.

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Wagner presented

Bill No. 1401

Report of the Committee on Finance for September 22, 1988 transmitting two resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1335

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution transferring the sum of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) from Code Account 1042, Index Code 104208, Salaries, Department of the Mayor, City Information Systems to Code Account 1042-1, Index Code 104216, Premium Pay, Department of the Mayor, City Information Systems."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1336

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with various agencies for the implementation of the City of Pittsburgh's JTPA Title III Dislocated Workers Program and providing for the payment of the costs thereof."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Michelle Madoff  |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Ferlo      | Mr. Woods        |
|                | (Pres't Pro tem) |

AYES 6                      NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Mr. Ferlo for Mr. Lyons presented

Bill No. 1402

Report of the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development for September 22, 1988 transmitting one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1331

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Cooperation Agreement or Agreements with the Housing Authority of the City of Pittsburgh for the administration and implementation of the "Rehabilitation and Modernization of Housing for Low and Moderate Income Persons" program (HA-88-01) at a cost not to exceed $1,620,000.00."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo moved to recommit Bill No. 1331.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, Mr. President, I'd like some information. The reason I'm supporting the recommittal is I need a breakdown of the cost. How much is it for legal counsel? How is the breakdown? It doesn't say anything here. We're talking about big dollars without a breakdown.

The Chair:

All right, we'll get that.

Michelle Madoff:

I also do not know who the legal counsel is for any Authority, and I'd like to know who they are? Somebody's approved this. I'd like to know who the legal counsel is for — what is it —

The Chair:

We'll have that for you Wednesday.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like it for all Authority's too, Mike.

The Chair:

All right.

Mr. Woods presented

Bill No. 1403

Report of the Committee on Parks and Recreation for September 22, 1988 transmitting two resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1337

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing a lease with the Three Rivers Rowing Association of real property on Washington's Landing to be used as a rowing center."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1338

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing a cooperation agreement with the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh to provide for the conveyance of real property to the City for lease as a rowing center."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, motion to amend Council Bill 1337 and 1338, by including: "Authorization for a ten year renewal option in the lease with the Three Rivers Rowing Association."

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, that motions illegal at a legislative meeting.

The Chair:

No, it was in writing, everybody has it. It's in front of you somewhere, Jack.

Mr. Wagner:

For some reason I didn't get it, but I'll support it.

Mr. Ferlo:

This was from the Administration. I was led to believe that everyone has it.

The Chair:

Everyone should have it.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, in relation to the motion —

The Chair:

Let me just do this once. The motion passes for the amendment. Now, Mr. Ferlo.

Mr. Ferlo moved to recommit Bill No. 1337 and Bill No. 1338.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. May I respectfully ask why are we submitting it, I'd like to know?

Mr. Ferlo:

I think there are a number of additional concerns that have come up regarding the actual construction activities on the island. Specifically, one concern I have is that Mistick & Company may be one of the individuals doing the work and I'd like to discuss this further with the Administration.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll support it.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. DePasquale presented

Bill No. 1404

Report of the Committee on Public Safety for September 22, 1988 transmitting two ordinances to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with a NEGATIVE RECOMMENDATION,

Bill No. 457

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending Title Seven - Business Licensing, Article IX - Amusement Businesses, Chapter 777 - Mechanical Amusement Devices, by increasing the fee of certain devices, by establishing a license fee for devices which accept paper currency, by providing for additional information from owners of devices, and by providing additional criteria for revocation and confiscation." (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE) —(SPONSORED BY MR. FERLO)

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo moved to recommit Bill 457 on the video poker machining.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, my understanding the reason the bill is — perhaps I'm incorrect —

The Chair:

We're not discussing that now, it's recommitted. Do you have any discussion on the other bill?

Michelle Madoff:

I'm not talking about the bill. I'm talking about recommitment in general. We have a shortage on —

The Chair:

Well then this isn't the time to bring it up, you can bring it up at the end the meeting.

Michelle Madoff:

Fine.

Also, with an AFFIRMATIVE
RECOMMENDATION,

Bill No. 565

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title 10 - Building, Chapter 1007, Section 513, et. seq. - Special Historic Buildings and Districts, by providing for added protection during the designation process." (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE) —(SPONSORED BY MR. POLLOCK)

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Michelle Madoff  |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Ferlo      | Mr. Woods        |
|                | (Pres't Pro tem) |

AYES 6                      NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. Coyne presented

Bill No. 1405

Report of the Committee on Engineering and Construction for September 22, 1988 transmitting one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1329

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a contract or contracts, or use of existing contracts for Playground and Court Renovation including Blair and Rhododendron; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Michelle Madoff  |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Ferlo      | Mr. Woods        |
|                | (Pres't Pro tem) |

AYES 6                      NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, very briefly on two points, last week we agreed that yourself, Mr. President would convene a post agenda on the issue of the salver contract and I would hope that you could continue to do that. I want to make it clear based on some misinformation in a Post Gazette article on the issue of the salver contract. There is an existing Council resolution of 1983, so clearly Council has the prerogative in terms of issuing the resolution for a salver and this is part of the bone of contention I have with the Administration

Secondly, I've been led to believe and I've seen an actual copy of an existing contract with the particular company who presently has the contract, and that contract reads that it is in effect until the middle of November.

And, thirdly just to clarify the misinformation in the Post Gazette also on the part Mr. DiNardo, who has suggested that I wanted to use my political influence with the Controller to support the existing vendor, I want to make it clear on my agenda, and I've made it clear to the Administration already that we should be doing this in-house and not even have an external contract. I think we can even make money in the scrap metals so let's clear up that misinformation from the Post Gazette.

On that issue I would please ask the Chairman to hold a post agenda soon, and secondly on a related point, actually it's not related, but I want to get it out while other Council members can speak. I've been led to believe that there have been a number of cutbacks in the Department of Environmental Services. Specifically, people -- the refuse workers and the number of the crews. In fact, if my information is correct there will be two crews cutback in each one of the four divisions. I believe there's supposed to be a three person crew so that would be a cutback of 24 workers in that department.

Now everytime I've tried to cut back travel and other things throughout the year my colleagues as well as the Administration has said, we're in the middle of the budget, it's in the middle of the Administration and the budget, you don't have this prerogative to make these radical changes. Well I think the same would hold true for the Administration. I'd like to know, is this justified? Why all of a sudden at a time when I believe they're supposed to be negotiating a union contract, now all of a sudden they want to cut back 24 of the workers. Is it harassment and is it a negotiating tactic? Do we actually need to have less people out there and less crews servicing our neighborhoods? I don't know. I'm sure the Administration has a creative answer and I think we should ask by way of a formal letter to the Administration, what is the justification for eliminating these jobs in the middle of the year? Why is it necessary? Is there going to be a cutback in services to neighborhood refuse collection, and about 50 other questions.

I think it's appropriate and I'd like to make a motion to send a letter to the Mayor and/or Director of Environmental Services asking the rationale and the justification for the cutbacks. I assume in the last budget debate which I wasn't here for that Council was given justification as to why all those jobs were needed, and now, why and how all of sudden nine months into the year they're not needed, and they're laying off 24 workers. I think its very fear for us to provide some checks and balances and ask those questions.

So, I'd like to make a motion to have the President send a letter to the Director of Environmental Services and/or her honor the Mayor and ask for the justification of this cutback.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

The Chair:

I have no problem doing that but I think one thing we should all keep in mind here is that they are covered by a bargaining agreement and I don't see how anybody can cut jobs unless they go through the bargaining agreement, and I don't know — I know we can't sit down and debate the issue with them, because they are covered by a bargaining agreement. No matter if they're still negotiating it and the present one if they were working under expired a year ago, they'll still be covered by the old agreement, and it states how many jobs, how many people per crew, it states in that agreement, and this Administration as well as any other company must abide by that agreement until a new one is reached.

I'll be more than happy to sign the letter, but I think that the union members themselves should get a hold of their Business Representative to come down and get the thing straightened out, and that's how its done.

Mr. Ferlo:

Just to clarify it, I don't want to involve myself in the union fight. The union obviously needs to fen for themselves as it relates to the contract, but there may indeed not even be a signed contract, that's one of the problems. But, secondly from our point of view this last Council before I arrived January 4th budgeted a number of positions, you didn't just make up that number. I assume the Administration came to Councilwoman Madoff, and Mr. Wagner, yourself —

Michelle Madoff:

You've got to be kidding, they never come to anybody.

Mr. Ferlo:

— Members and said we need this amount, we need this compliment of refuse workers in the budget, and that's why the Council in their wisdom granted them those positions.

The Chair:

I understand what you're saying.

Mr. Ferlo:

Why all of a sudden — it leaves me to suspect at a time when they're supposed to negotiate a contract.

The Chair:

What I'm trying to say here is that the Administration cannot cut that kind of a position.

Mr. Ferlo:

They've already done it, Mr. Chairman. I believe four people have been laid off —

The Chair:

Then I suggest and I'm not their union leader — if they get a hold of their union representative and come down and get the Administration and make sure they put them people back to work, because I know what that union agreement says, and it says, how many crews they will have out in the street, and how many members per that crew, and eventhough their agreement may have expired last year or the year before they're still living under that old agreement.

Mr. Ferlo:

But we want the letter sent.

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of order, Mr. Chairman. How many people are we talking about and what reason has Environmental Services given for --

Mr. Ferlo:

My understanding is, there's 24 people, it's two crews in each one of the four divisions, that's a three person crew so that would be 24 positions that are going to be laid off in the next month and a half. I believe four or five positions already have been laid off.

Now, I don't if this actually is translated into people as opposed to positions that were vacant and not filled, so I don't know if it actually means warm bodies, but the point is none the less that there's cutbacks.

The Chair:

Oh, I thought you were talking about they were going from three to two.

Mr. DePasquale:

If we're talking about bodies, what's their justification, find that out?

The Chair:

All right. We'll send a letter.

Mr. Ferlo:

So, you will send a letter then, Mr. Chairman?

The Chair:

Monday.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Michelle Madoff:

On the same subject. It occurs to me that all members of Council and I've been here over ten years get these kind of calls saying that supposedly something is happening and it's our position to find out what's happening or to pass it on to the appropriate sources to find out. In this case we don't know whether it's true, we don't know whether the people are really being laid off, but the real issue here is -- that's not the issue. The issue is that we have a budget and you're right on the button Mr. Ferlo that we have to address and we don't even get the budget I believe until right after the Presidential election in November, and we've got to have it signed by New Years Eve, which gives us no more than a month and a half, really.

I have been saying since I've been here, maybe after the first or second year I was here that we ought to be discussing budget items about April or May, and the Administration should sit down with Council and say here are the problems, and Council who knows better than anyone else from their own respective areas in going out all over the City, what the problems are, ought to relate them to the Administration, and we ought to sit down and decide how we can best serve the public by the most cost effective manner.

But, this has been an adversarial kind of Administration. I don't mean this one in particular it's always been that. It's a strong Mayor system and a weak Council system. People are always accusing this Council of not doing something which we have no authority. We just don't have six votes, which leads me into my next subject. But, I agree Mr. Ferlo, but I don't think the way to handle it is -- let's send a letter because the obvious response is going to be it's none of your business. You're only the Council, you're only elected, I mean this is a union matter, it's in arbitration, it's basically under legal negotiations, and you have no say so, and we're not going to tell you.

But, I think it's more important that early in the year on any subject that's going to effect the people that live in the City that we be informed and we share our views. For example if what you say is true I am more concerned for another reason. We've had the hottest summer on record. People sitting with their garbage out not picked up on holidays is unconscionable. The trade off in health problems and potential health problems is unbelievable having that garbage sit there for two weeks.

People are paying more for taxes or perceive that they're paying more for taxes in the City because of the four percent wage tax, and the way they should at least get is police, fire, paramedic and the refuse picked up, and when they're saying well we're not going to pick it up for a holiday, I think that's wrong, and in light of what is happening with our weather problems and so on. The issue then gets to, why don't we discuss these things early in the year once a month have in informal meeting with the Administration, and I think whoever gets to be the next Mayor must look at doing that and that's where something will happen that's productive for the City.

Into the next subject. I'm a little distressed. I have felt that there was no urgencing to find another member for Council. That Sophie, acting Mayor Sophie Masloff was retaining her seat so that if she wanted to come back the seat was available for her, and that we should deny her that, but now we have a problem today where almost — I think eight, tenths of all the bills were recommitted, basically because there was not enough people to assure that five votes would be there or six votes in case there was a veto, everything was recommitted.

We have a situation where I've just learned today that my colleague Mark Pollock has embraced the Orthodox religion and today is a Jewish holiday that I don't observe because I'm a reform Jew and I certainly do not question his right to do that I admire his beliefs. But that does present a problem because I understand he will not be here today nor next Monday; is that right Mr. Ferlo? You told me there are two days.

Mr. Ferlo:

I believe so.

Michelle Madoff:

The Succos and I don't know the next holiday, which does present a little problem in the sense that Mr. Lvons as we know is ill, Sophie's not fish or fowl, she's a Mayor and Council member, and so we have a vacancy of three members on Council out of nine that gives us a sum of six, and would you need six for a sufficient number to override vetoes, and certainly five to pass any legislation, and that's something that we're going to have to think about or this is going to be a lame duck Council until next January of 1990, not next January, January of 1990.

Mr. Depasquale:

Point of order, Mr. Chairman. I don't get the line of questioning. She's talking about members that aren't or weren't be here, and what does that have to do with the future. We don't know who's going to be here or who's not going to be here.

The Chair:

Well, I'm just stating a fact that may be we should re-look and get a special election going or something like that. That's the way I understand it.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you. I don't know the answer, I'm just stating a question — the problem:

Mr. Wagner:

On a couple of issues I'd like to refer to my colleagues comments. First of all I tried to address that issue with two referendum questions and you voted against both of them.

Michelle Madoff:

Sometimes we're wrong.

Mr. Wagner:

And, the issues specifically dealt with a person holding two offices Mayor and Council and filling the vacancy of the Council seat. Unfortunately, you voted against them. The one is still pending though I tabled it indefinitely, and I think your comments indicate that when I bring it off the table you'll support it and I appreciate that very much.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, may I just comment? Anybody's that got their mind locked in a closed position doesn't ever serve the public — when new information comes you change.

Mr. Wagner:

Well, I appreciate your support on the issue. The other item I'm referring to is the comment about four percent wage tax and maybe it's just that I continue to hear it so often, and the more I hear it the more it concerns me, and the more I'm required to publicly comment on it. Particularly, because I'm the Finance Chairman now. The City of Pittsburgh does not have a four percent wage tax.

Michelle Madoff:

I said perceived. I used the word perceived.

Mr. Wagner:

Let me repeat that. The City of Pittsburgh does not have a four percent wage tax. The City of Pittsburgh has a 2.125 percent wage tax. Approximately 2.1 percent. The School Board a totally independent governmental body has 1.9 percent wage tax. In order for that wage tax to be addressed it has to be addressed by two governmental bodies. The City of Pittsburgh being one and the School Board being the other.

There's been a lot of discussion and I hope somehow, someday all of us collectively the Mayor, everyone within this Administration can convince the public that we are only half of that wage tax, and I hope somehow, someday the public will begin to put the pressure on the School Board as they put it on City government. The City of Pittsburgh is not that bad. It's only 2.125 percent.

I'd like to move onto a couple of other items very quickly.

Michelle Madoff:

Can I make a quick comment on that?

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I'd like to retain the floor and then relinquish it. A couple other items is I participated yesterday in the 12th Annual Great Race and I simply want to commend the Administration for doing an excellent job in planning, orchestrating, and administering the race. I believe there were about 13,000 people in the race, and they really did do a great job and it really was a great race.

But, I'd like to request from the various departments involved what the cost of administering that race were. I suspect primarily the departments that I'm requesting that information are Parks and Recreation, Public Works, Public Safety, and any other departments that would have anything to do with the total planning, implementing, managing of that race.

The reason why I want to know that is that we have taken a close look at the cost of other events such as the Regatta that's managed by the Regatta Committee, the Arts Festival that's managed by a separate committee, and we know what the costs of those events are but we don't know truly what its costing taxpayers to put these events on. In order for us to properly plan for next years budget I think we need to know what the real cost of all of these events are.

There was a charge for the Great Race a $10.00 fee, a late fee of $15.00 to enter. I'd like to know if our charge is taking care of our cost, basically and so I'd like a breakdown from those various departments of what the costs were and what kind of dollars were brought in from those participating in the race, and those sponsors involved in the race. Various media sponsors, and private companies were involved and obviously we couldn't put the race on without them. I think this Council particularly prior to budget time needs to know the real cost of the race. So, I would appreciate it if the City Clerk could put together a letter to those appropriate departments along those lines.

My last item is I'd like to request through the City Clerk that a post agenda be set up this coming Wednesday at 1:30 in the afternoon pertaining to the construction and location of the Buhl Science Center. This Council has voted on various pieces of legislation going back now almost two years about what is considered to be a very important economic development project. Still as of this day nothing has happened with that project. I understand its in the hands of a mediator in the courts and I think its very important that this Council know what's going on. I'd like to request the following people to be present at that meeting, Mr. Robert Wilburn, who is the Executive Director of The Carnegie; Mr. Josh Wetzel, who is the Executive Director of the Buhl; Carl Barger the President of the Pittsburgh Pirates, Mr. Dan Rooney the President of the Pittsburgh Steelers; Mr. Jack Stabile and/or Merle Stabile the owners and operators of Alcoe Parking; Mr. Paul McDermott, Director of Engineering in charge of the relocation of the roads, and our Director of Planning, Mr. Bob Lurcott. Thank you very much.

Michelle Madoff:

May I add to your list? May we please have the architect who designed the project be here, because it is my belief and I support your post agenda that if is on flat land, move to flat land. We need the architect to say whether that is possible or not because there's going to be some question on that. We need to know what the realities are on that particular item.

On the four percent wage tax as we skip around from subject to subject and everybody keeps the floor, and we don't stay on one subject. I said that it is the perception of four percent wage tax whether it breaks down to school tax, or wage tax is irrelevant, because people are telling realtors that they don't want to live in the City. Realtors are saying you don't want to move in the City because there's a four percent wage tax. People who have children or don't have children are going to pay four percent whether its for school or the City wage tax.

People call me every week and tell me they're moving out because they can't get people to either rent or move in, because of the add on the rent or the cost of purchasing of the four percent wage tax. We got 700,000 people, 358,000 at the next census, approximately, and you can just drive around the City and what do you see, vacant houses everywhere. It is frightening. I know about several buildings in the downtown area I don't really choose to go into the names of where they are that are having some real serious rental problems, and I'm talking about residential homes, first class buildings. It is a problem we're going to have to deal with and deal with very quickly.

One of the things I would like to see happen and I'd like my colleagues to think about. I was going to do this in a formal press release, but I will do it right now. I would like to see my colleagues collectively send an invitation to our Legislators in Harrisburg inviting them here and take them on a tour of what is happening in our City. How we're picking up the bills for all these tax exempt entities that are used by non-City residents, and they were preferably willing to do that with tax reform. And, also point out to them in some kind of a film. I'm sure there's one available from either the Convention Bureau, or from other sources that shows our Three Rivers Arts Festival, the Fire Works, the Regatta, the Great Race, all things that attract people and if they made the film properly you're going to license plates from all over the area from the five county region, and from Ohio, and from West Virginia, and from New York State, and what we want to point out which is what I did in my letter to the Legislators and incidentally I've had a lot of responses -- is that we were not asking to have Pittsburgh treated separately or specially or to be chauvinistic. We're saying treat us as an advertisement to attract people and businesses to Pennsylvania, and that they've got to give us tax reform. I don't know whether anybody has taken the time. I presume you have to read the last material that we received from Harrisburg that says that the election reform is dead in the water, and we cannot sit here and say well let the Administration worry about it. I've been sitting here ten years and saying let the Administration worry about it and they're telling us to mind our own business, and they go to Harrisburg and they say, you know what we really need tax reform, we need your help. That isn't enough and I might add that for -- I started the environmental movement in 1969 and nothing happened on coke ovens until we got the environmental bodies the Advisory Council to come to Pittsburgh and go to the coke ovens and go Clairton, and go to J & L, and see what was happening, and that was the first time anything meaningful happened. I think we need to bring our Legislators here take them on a tour and show them why Pittsburgh is a great advertisement for the state of Pennsylvania and that we should be pitting citizens of Pittsburgh against suburbanites, that they've got to give us some tax reform, and I think if they come and see it and don't think its just because we arbitrarily want to get money from them. I think that they will be more responsive and I'd like to make that or I will prepare it Mike in the form of a motion for Council and see if we can get a consensus and have an actual invitation sent to the Legislators. I have and I'm sure others have the ability to get a letter out to all the Legislators that's now in my computer. I got the idea from Mr. Wagner so I'm sure its in his computer, and that we ought to invite everybody here and get on with doing something about getting some tax relief. The four percent burden is going to bring the City to its knee, if it hasn't already. It may be too late for a turn around. I'm really terrified and anybody that sits here and says its not a big issue is kidding everybody. It is a serious issue. Mike would you work with me and we'll prepare something, because I don't want to do it adlib off — but I do want anybody who'd like to add to that. I don't want to be proprietary. We can do it collectively as a body. Anybody's idea is welcomed and let's try to get on with doing something.

Mr. Ferloc

Mr. Chairman, in relation to going back to the Buhl issue. I think it's a very important discussion and I want to thank Mr. Wagner for initiating the post agenda. I would ask also that Mr. Gaetano from Public Works be invited I believe there was some ancillary support activities paving that were done. I'd like to know exactly what has happened over there in terms of City activities with the paving in and around the proposed site.

And, secondly, I hope that part the calling for this is a consideration at least it is on my part, and it's becoming increasingly clear to me that this Council needs to step in and possibly even suggest a reconsideration of the particular site and I hope that's part of the thinking in wanting to review and discuss this issue on Wednesday. It's very critical we're at the crossroads and I fear that unless Council gets involved in this issue we're going to be involved in a multi-month litigation effort between two parties that might have irreconcilable differences and as Mr. Wagner has pointed out this project doesn't move any one iota ahead and that's just not the way it should happen. This is a very critical discussion Wednesday.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, members of Council, I sent a letter to the key parties who have some objections to the Buhl Planetarium and ask some very specific questions. I received two letters one from Mr. Josh Wetzel and one from Mr. Donahoe from URA the information was not very clear or conclusive and therefore I am now studying those documents. I am glad that Mr. Wagner has asked for a post agenda. I will try to have that information by Wednesday. I don't know if I can, but I will try. I would suggest that perhaps we make a week later, but if you don't want to I'll very hard to have this information Wednesday. I will be happy to share my information with you and basically what has been stated here today it appears that a lot of money is gone for design, legal fees, but not one dime into building the project, and there seems to be some question of litigation that could indeed hold the project up ad infinitum which is not good for this community. I do think perhaps we ought to consider relocating and I would also like to ask that the legal counsel be either here or identified because most of those bills I believe are legal fees and architectural, engineering fees, and that's why I've asked that the architect be here and I'd like to have legal counsel on the Buhl Science Center be here as well. I don't know who the legal counsel is. I don't know who the engineer is, the architect is, architect, engineers, and legal counsel.

Michelle Madoff moved to approve the Minutes of Tuesday, September 6, 1988 and Monday, September 12, 1988.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale moved to excuse Otis Lyons and Mark Pollock for absence from the meeting.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Wagner

Council adjourned.

| Mr. Ferlo      | Mr. Woods        |
| Mr. Lyons      | (Pres't Pro tem) |

ABSENT:

Mr. Pollock

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. DePasquale presents

No. 1444 WHEREAS, fire in the home disproportionately strikes the very young and very old, and the majority of home fire deaths occur at night, when victims are typically asleep; and

WHEREAS, early warning of fire is essential to life safety and minimal fire loss, and smoke detectors can be an important part of this early warning; and

WHEREAS, proper fire safety planning and preparedness include the regular maintenance and testing of smoke detectors in the home; and

WHEREAS, the steps to ensure that smoke detectors work properly—regular testing, replacing batteries and cleaning—can be carried out easily; and

WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh Department of Public Safety, Fire Bureau, is dedicated to the safety of life and property of its protected citizens from the devastating effects of fire, and recognize the value of proper planning and preparedness before fire strikes; and

WHEREAS, the members of the fire service are joined by the citizens of this community, and businesses, schools, service clubs and organizations in their fire prevention efforts.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby declare the week of October 9 - 15, 1988 as FIRE PREVENTION WEEK and we call upon the people of Pittsburgh to participate at home, work and school, and to respond to the 1988 theme, "A Sound You can Live With. . . Test Your Smoke Detector", in conjunction with the observation of Fire Prevention Week.

Mr. DePasquale moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale:

I have here, Mr. President, the Safety Director and Fire Chief Dickinson, if they would come up here please. And while they're on their way up, I don't have to say how much the Council of the City of Pittsburgh is aware of the fact and appreciates the great effort on the part of our Fire Department. You do such a great job. I don't have to say that probably fire is one of our worst enemies throughout the United States, especially in poorer areas. It's a great thing that they're doing here and it's something we should get behind 1000 percent. I would like the Safety Director of the City of Pittsburgh and Fire Chief Dickinson to say a few words. Thank you.

Director Cannon:

Thank you all very much. We're very honored for the resolution and to all our citizens and all members of Council we ask that you work with us as we enter into Fire Prevention Week. There are a number of programs that you've all be aware of for a long time; the Learn Not To Burn programs. We have a program we call EDITH which is Exit Drills In The Home, something that we believe in very strongly, that there should be a pre-plan for young people, as well as older people, on how we should get out of the house. Before there's a fire, you ought to know how to do that. And programs like the Stop, Drop and Roll, which we teach young children that if their clothing should catch on fire, that they should stop, not run, drop and roll on the ground. All these are fire prevention programs that have been around and will be part of our Fire Prevention Week activities.

I'd like to introduce our new Fire Chief, Charlie Dickinson.

Chief Dickinson:

Thank you, Director. Mr. President, Councilmembers, I'd be most happy to tell you on December 31st, at the end of this year, that we haven't occurred a fire death in this City. Tragically, probably, that won't be possible. What we clearly know in the fire service, though, is that smoke detectors play a vital role in eliminating that possibility. The glamour part of the fire service is fire engines responding, lights, sirens, the actions on the fire ground. The heartache of the fire service is making people aware; the prevention side is the most critical part. We truly can prevent fire deaths.

My bureau along with all the members in our bureau are going to make a reconcerted effort to address fire prevention before the fires occur through a strict enforcement program where the laws allow us to do that, but a cooperative program with citizens in their own home to ensure that they do have a smoke detector.

One of the incredible things that has come to light in the past couple of years, people, after they install the smoke detectors, forgetting to change the batteries. Through a cooperative effort with some public media news events in the next coming weeks, we're going to ensure the public is aware of that. Check your smoke detector batteries.

Thank you for the opportunity and passing the resolution. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Director Cannon, I just wonder whether the new Fire Chief is aware that there is legislation mandating smoke detectors in multiple dwellings. That is our law now, is that not correct? So you will have the ability to enforce that.

And are we doing anything about occupancy permits where we've had some dreadful fires, as you know, in Oakland where we warehoused the children, there were no exits, no windows, no doors. There was a big bag obstructing an exit so that the only other exit available they could not get out. Are we doing anything about the occupancy permits?

Director Cannon:

That's part of our on-going inspection program and we do that now as well as inspecting the Code for smoke alarms in multiple family dwellings.

Michelle Madoff:

We have not covered every residence in the City that does violate the occupancy permit ruling and that's one of our major problems.

Director Cannon:

We have an on-going inspection program and very soon we are enlarging that to include company inspection programs that will give us much more resources on the street to be able to inspect all the occupancies of the City.

We've been working on that for over a year now.

Michelle Madoff:

That's fabulous so that the fire fighter could go to the home, perhaps.

Director Cannon:

We're going to do block by block inspections within the City.

Michelle Madoff:

That is wonderful. Thank you very much. Super job.

The Chair:

Thank you, Glenn.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I'd like to ask Wendy Baughmiller to please step forward to receive this resolution. Wendy is the Chairwoman of the First Annual German American Day Gala Ball which will be held this Friday, October 7th, 1988 at the Vista International Hotel.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 1445 WHEREAS, the Congress and the House of Representatives of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA have passed into law joint resolutions designating October 6, 1988 as GERMAN AMERICAN DAY; and

WHEREAS, the Honorable RONALD WILSON REAGAN, President of the United States of America, officially proclaimed and signed into law GERMAN AMERICAN DAY; and

WHEREAS, Americans of German descent constitute the largest ethnic group in the United States of America, with more than 52 million Americans proudly proclaiming their German heritage; and

WHEREAS, German Americans have, since the arrival of the first German immigrants in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on October 6, 1683, distinguished themselves by their loyalty and their contributions to the culture and life of the United States of America, and have supported themselves to the promotion of freedom for all people, everywhere; and

WHEREAS, the GERMAN AMERICAN FRIENDSHIP GARDEN, symbolic of the friendly relations between the peoples of Germany and the United States, will be dedicated in the City of Washington, in the District of Columbia in 1988, thereby further evidencing the continued contributions of German Americans.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby proclaims October 6, 1988 as GERMAN AMERICAN DAY and calls upon all citizens of the City of Pittsburgh to recognize the vital contributions of German Americans and to celebrate GERMAN AMERICAN DAY with them.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to introduce Wendy Baughmiller, again, the Chairwoman of the First Gala Celebration which will be held this Friday, to say a few words.

Ms. Baughmiller:

Mr. President, honorable members of Council, thank you very much for this proclamation. We want to express our thanks from Dr. Bouvier and from Ray Schmidt. They regret they could not be here. Dr. Bouvier is very busy with her schedule as a doctor, but she said to tell you all thank you. And Ray Schmidt said to express his thanks also. We appreciate this very much and we're very proud of this. Thank you all.

Mr. DePasquale:

I just want to say congratulations to Jack Wagner and the German American Day. In campaigning over the years, I found out that a lot of people ask you what's the biggest voting block in the City of Pittsburgh, and they're really surprised to find out it's German. I knew a long time ago but the people of German descent are the largest voting block in the City, and the United States of America for that matter.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Mr. Coyne presented

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

What is so grave and important that we have to expedite the renaming of a field or a park, given the fact that many Pittsburghers have questions often times when we try to rename things?

The Chair:

Your question is on what, waiving Rule 8 or the renaming —

Mr. Ferlo:

Yes, what's the point of waiving Rule 8?

Mr. Wagner:

There has been a request from a community organization for the name change as quickly as possible; therefore I want to bring it up into Council for discussion as quickly as possible. Any Councilmember can obviously do what they want on the bill; obviously I will support it, but I'd like discussion to begin as soon as possible.

Mr. Ferlo:

My only point in expediting it is I just hope its clear that we give people enough time, pro or con, to express their concerns on this issue.

The Chair:

Okay, all in favor? Opposed?

Mr. Ferlo:

Opposed.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Wagner moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Wagner presented

Bill No. 1439

Report of the Committee on Finance for September 28, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 454

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution directing the Mayor and the Treasurer of the City of Pittsburgh to amend the Pittsburgh Form 40, Earned Income Tax Return Form, to include a 'check-off' box to allow a donation to the Hunger Trust Fund of the City of Pittsburgh."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, I'd like to amend Bill No. 454 by the following: In the title and in Section 1, we would delete the words "Hunger Trust Fund of the City of Pittsburgh" and insert the words, "Emergency Food Trust Fund". And, also, by adding a Section 2 and a Section 3, and I believe everyone should have a copy of the amendment on your desk.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

Bill No. 674

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution 300 of 1984 entitled: 'Resolution amending Ordinance No. 318, approved June 26, 1968 which authorized the Mayor to issue and the City Controller to countersign warrants for the purposes of establishing an imprest fund for investigation expenses for the Bureau of Police, Department of Public Safety, by deleting the payees named therein and naming the Superintendent of Police as payee; and by changing the amount of the fund from $8,000.00 to the total of the amount existing in the fund at the time of the issuance of the warrant', by specifically including as eligible, expenses incurred in relation to the investigation of auto theft to be paid out of the Police Bureau imprest fund." —(SPONSORED BY MR. FERLO)

Which was read.

Mr. Lyons:

On Bill 674, how was that brought about for the imprest fund from the Public Safety Department? We're using the Superintendent of Police as the payee in the Auto Fund. I don't understand the bill. Mr. President, what is the procedure used now?

The Chair:

I wasn't here last Wednesday when this was discussed.

Mr. DePasquale:

Instead of naming all the names they just name the Superintendent of Police, but the checks, obviously, are made out to the respective parties that have the overtime coming.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President and Mr. Lyons, on these two bills, this bill 674 and a second bill which actually creates a trust fund to receive contributions, on this bill, this is existing legislation that is in place; however, it doesn't explicitly state that monies can be used for investigative costs related to auto theft. It's basically legislation that talks about costs that are needed for drug investigations. So this is broadening out the language to allow something that, to some extent, has been taking place but was never officially legislated and that is the prerogative of Chief Pampena and Director Cannon to expend monies in the Department on auto theft investigations.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the URA to acquire all of the City's right, title, and interest, if any, in and to the publicly-owned property in the 21st and 25th Wards of the City of Pittsburgh being designated as Block 22-C, Lots 100, 101, 103, 107, 109 and Block 22-H Lots 43, 44, 44A, 45, 46, 186, 192, 223, 223A, 223B, 223C, under the Residential Land Reserve Fund."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1351

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution approving execution of a Contract for Disposition of Land by and between the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of General Services, for the sale of Parcel A-1 in the 4th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh (RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT FACILITY)."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferio:

On Bill 1351, on the agreement between the City and the URA and the State of Pennsylvania for the disposition of land for the construction of the University Technology Center, I would like my comments brought forward from the Wednesday session.

In voting on this, I wanted to restate clearly the Director's comments, Donahoe, that is saying by approving this initial legislation we are in no way at this time approving a massive disposition agreement regarding the payment in lieu of taxes or payment for municipal services that will be paid and a disposition that will be negotiated between the URA, the City and the University.

So I wanted to make sure that's clear for the public record prior to voting on this legislation. So, that means that at some point in the future Director Donahoe will come back to Council and we will be able to review and discuss exactly what the payment in lieu of tax plan will be between the University and the City.

(MR. FERLO'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1351 - Wednesday, 9/28/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, in the disposition agreement you sent to Council, I had thought that part of this agreement of the disposition tentatively was also an agreement for a payment in lieu of taxes, but I didn't see that explained in the agreement.

Mr. Donahoe:

This is the error that I have made. Let me try to explain it. What we were working toward were two master disposition agreements; one with Carnegie-Mellon University and one with the University of Pittsburgh, each of whom will take ten acres.

Two years ago the University signed an agreement with the city that in the event that any of this land is being tax exempt, the Board of Assessors rules it tax exempt, that they would pay to the city sort of a payment in lieu of taxes, and we are negotiating that as part of the master disposition agreement. What has happened here is because of the way the Pitt building is funded, we need this interim disposition agreement with the state who will not assume those liabilities.

Now, I have discussed this problem with them. They have assured me -- and they will assure Council if necessary -- that in the master disposition agreement that we signed, that they will assume those responsibilities for this building, as well as the entire site. But in this agreement that provision is not there.

Mr. Ferlo:

So I just want to be assured that in agreeing to this preliminary disposition, either from you or the Solicitor, that we are not locking ourselves into approving the payment in lieu of tax proposal.

Mr. Donahoe:

That is correct.

Mr. Ferlo:

I didn't see it in there.

Mr. Donahoe:

It is not in there, you are correct, and that will come to Council in the master disposition agreement with Pitt, and you can approve it or not approve it as you see fit.

Also,

Bill No. 1353

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution approving execution of a Contract by and between the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh and North Side Civic Development Council, Inc. for the sale of Block 46-J Lots 140, 141, and 143, in the 26th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh (RESIDENTIAL CONSTRUCTION)."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Michelle Madoff  |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Ferlo      | Mr. Woods        |
| Mr. Lyons      | (Pres't Pro tem) |

AYES 7 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Mr. DePasquale presented

Bill No. 1442

Report of the Committee on Public Safety for September 28, 1988 transmitting one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 677

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing and directing the City Controller to create a special trust fund, to be designated as the Auto Theft Trust Fund, for the deposit of cash and contributions from Insurance Companies, Citizens or transfers, and authorizing the use of the funds deposited therein by the Department of Public Safety for any and all expenses associated with investigations of auto theft." —
(SPONSORED BY MR. FERLO)

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Just very briefly, this legislation clearly would create a separate trust fund for the receipt of contributions, private or otherwise. There was a very informative public hearing held a couple of weeks ago. Chief Pampena, in speaking at that public hearing in relation to the auto theft problem in the City expressed a notion that there was a five point policy or program that he was involved in in terms of trying to grapple with the alarming rate of auto theft in the City. He talked about public education and the Department, to their credit, is involved in specific outreach efforts that deal with the individual owner of automobiles, leaving keys in cars and other kinds of things that need to be done by the individual.

They also talked about improving the management information systems in the Department of Public Safety. The Chief also talked about the specific efforts of the task force that Director Cannon and he have created in relation to auto theft, a specific squad that's working on the issue.

The Chief and people at the hearing talked about tougher sentencing which pretty much would have to be state legislation and I would encourage support for Representative Markosek's bill in the State House. And also, there is other legislation that was mentioned at the federal level regarding the identification of auto parts and automobiles and the asset seizure when they are able to apprehend and basically raid a chop shop.

So, there's a lot of things that need to be done. This legislation is not going to resolve the problem or solve all of the problems but it's at least one small step in helping the Police Department by dealing with contributions hopefully aimed at setting up investigative techniques and operations to basically lower the auto theft in the City. In '86 we had over 9,000 automobiles stolen in the City; it's been down to a little over 7,000 in 1987. That's still 7,000 vehicles too much. So, I would ask for support of this legislation.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, I'd like my comments brought forward on Bill 677 for the Record.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGE)

---

(MR. WAGNER'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 677 - Wednesday, 9/28/88)

Mr. Wagner:

I would like to make a comment in regard to both bills. I asked Chief Pampena at the public hearing if he supported the establishment of the trust fund, he indicated he did. Therefore, I am sure the Director does also.

And I think it is important to note, Councilman Ferlo, some of the things that were stated there by yourself and by the Chief that in the auto theft problem in the City of Pittsburgh, over 20 percent of the cars that are stolen have keys in them, and I think it is important to note that publicly, and the importance of not leaving your keys in the car to reduce the potential of auto theft.

In addition to that, we not only have that problem in the city, it is a national problem of auto theft. And I said at the public hearing and I will say it again, we can make it to the moon, but the automobile manufactures refuse to build a car that is difficult to steal. Some automobile manufactures do make cars that are more difficult to steal, and I am not going to state what makes they are here at this table, but I think it is important that the media let that be known so that through purchasing powers the public will buy cars that there is less potential that they can be stolen.

It is very important that the public take whatever action they can take to not leave their keys in the car, to lock their cars, to put some type of anti-theft devise on their cars, and to buy cars that cannot potentially be stolen as easily within 12 to 15 seconds as other cars out there. I support the legislation.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President and members of Council, I think we've all received the legislative reports that are coming in from our lobbyists. There's some group that we can't pin down who is doing some in-depth, behind the scenes evaluation of what's going on in government. I was sort of interested to notice that I haven't heard anything unless something has happened that nobody has said it publicly or I missed it somewhere that in the second to last report we got it said that the tax reform is dead in the water, that nothing is going to happen, they don't see a thing happening. It would seem to me that before we get into budget hearings, this Council needs to meet with Mr. Chuck Kohling and find out exactly what is happening, where the bottlenecks are, and what can be done. And then we need to set up some kind of task force with community leaders, both in community groups and business groups, to really start to zero in on what is it we're going to do because I am a little tired, I don't know about anybody else, of hearing the Administration year after year after year saying I've gone to Harrisburg and I've testified and we said it's just too much money.

I think one of the things that's very positive that's happening in the Administration is the service fee that we've been advocating here for ten years and that is to start charging the tax exempt entities something for services, for police, fire, water, paramedics, and so on, and there is some movement in that direction on a volunteer basis from the tax exempt entities. But I think we need to take it from voluntary to mandatory, number one; and, number two, we'd better start talking about the four percent wage tax and doing something about the regressive taxes because I pick up a newspaper and it has an ad that says, move to our apartment, save four percent, substantive savings. You don't need to pay the City wage tax, and perception is half or three-quarters of the issue. The people perceive they pay four percent; it doesn't matter whether it's 2.2 and the rest is school tax.

We just can't sit here forever and say, I don't know how long I'm going to be here, I've got another year after this, I'd like to leave having done something about this wage tax situation. Perhaps we need to get in our cars and have a big sit-in in Harrisburg asking people to take their cars and their buses and pack a lunch and just go sit in Harrisburg until we get tax reform or, as I said earlier at another meeting, maybe we need to invite our legislators here to go through the City, see some of the things that have happened that we provide to the State of Pennsylvania, our Three Rivers Festival, the fireworks, and what have you, and to point out that we have license plates from all over the state and all over the western region coming to see and take advantage of our events, and that we are really promoting Pennsylvania, not just Pittsburgh.

We've got to get some tax reform because, if you also read the articles in the paper not so long ago, in the last few days, they talk about more people moving out of the City. It just goes on and on and on. People are leaving, they're not going to stay and pay the wage taxes, the regressive taxes, and the more we have that the less people remain and those who remain will have to pick up the slack and it's not in the realm of possibility. So, what's going to happen is we're going to see where usually the hub is the energizer for the rest of the areas and suburban areas, we're going to see the suburban areas become hubs of their own and we're going to become just a black hole. We're going to become an empty black hole without having the base in this City. It is very frightening and it is very scary. This City sits here and fights over little pica-yune things that really have no substantive issue but we don't address the big issues which are tax reform and the four percent and all the regressive taxes.

So, I would respectfully request that before we go into budget hearings that we convene some kind of meeting with our lobbyists, with Mr. Kohling, and then subsequently move on to creating a task force and, as I said before, maybe we need to have a caravan of people going to Harrisburg. We need to sit on the steps of our legislators. We need to show them films. I addressed a roll call House of the Legislature in '72 on environmental issues. There's no reason why we can't have someone address a roll call House of the Pennsylvania Legislature and show them a film, show them what we're doing, and that people are coming from all over the country to Pittsburgh and that we're spending our City's taxpayers' dollars and that we're not getting a fair return. We are going under. We are rapidly losing ground. And anybody who says that isn't so is just smoking something.

Mr. Lyons:

Since a toll has been set on the tax reform bill, I have to agree with Ms. Madoff. The Senate and the Legislature are both far apart. The Legislature had appropriate what looked like $27 million to the City of Pittsburgh, and after many other items, the Senate has only approved $2 million. Certainly I think that is something to look forward to before we go into our budget hearings or determine if there is going to be a tax reform. I agree that the people are exiting from the City of Pittsburgh because of the four percent wage tax. It had a great impact on the welfare of this City. I've exhausted great efforts at the beginning of the year looking at the School Board trying to get some relief there with the Senate and the Legislature and no one refuses to pass the bill because the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania pays $482 million to the retirement fund of the Board of Education in Pennsylvania and each Legislator or Senator, after he had come to the table for a long time, refuses to pass it because their constituents would want the same thing. That leaves a great impact on the City of Pittsburgh while the albatross to the City is four percent while only 2.15 is the City's tax and 1.85 is the School District's. Certainly everyone that works for the Board of Education has 6 percent retirement from their pay, 6 percent put in by the School Board and an additional 6 percent by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I was interested in moving the 6 percent from the School Board to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and that's where everything fell apart, because you're already paying $482 million a year in School Board retirement for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. And certainly we're just in a bad situation at present.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President and members of Council, we can sit here and say we're in a bad situation, and I agree with my colleague. But we've got to stop saying we're in a bad situation and start to do something. Obviously, the Administration, all the Administrations, have been unable to do something. They thought they would get more bees with honey than you could with vinegar. And they would go in and just very nicely say, "Look, we're in trouble, we need some help; won't you help us?" Yes, we'll look into it. Well, the State of Pennsylvania is going to have a surplus according to the media, and I know the media never distorts the news, of $500 million. Pennsylvania will have a surplus of $500 million. Why can't some of that money come back here, not the way Thornburg did it where he gave us all $1.36, instead of putting some money into creating some new industry or giving us some tax relief. We could sit here and fight about or discuss how we're going to fund some little water pipe and, gee, that's nice took and we've got to transfer some money from one code account to the other. But the real substantive things we're not dealing with.

I'm saying I don't want to sit here and move my lips and just talk for the sake of being heard. I would like to see some positive action. I would think it should come from the Finance Chairman. Let's convene a meeting before we go into our budget hearings and have Kohling here, number one. Number two, let's invite some of the key legislators to come, see if we can get them here, and obviously we're probably not going to, then darn it, let's get a caravan of the public. Get everybody who is willing to go, who cares about the City going down the tubes, get into our cars, get some buses, have people pay to get in the buses and bring some lunches and let's sit on the doorsteps in Harrisburg because nothing is going to happen if we don't do something very drastic. I don't want it to be us against them. I don't want to take on the suburbanites because, very frankly, we need to clean our own house.

There's so many areas that we could cut a million here and a million there. As Dirksen said, a billion here and a billion there and pretty soon it adds up to real money. I know of one source we could raise a couple hundred thousand, a million dollars, just like that. It's been completely overlooked in the City. There are so many areas if we went through and tightened our budget procedure. If we stop advertising come and get us, we have all this money to give away, we'd get our contracts done at half price. We wouldn't go back and do McArdle six times. Do it the first time and save the repeat dollars because it becomes so much less cost effective. That's good administration. But aside from that, the four percent — I couldn't believe it; I picked up some advertisement that said save all this money, save your four percent wage tax, it really is significant dollars, move to our development just outside the City. There are some parts of the suburbs that are closer to the City than City areas that go out into sort of an offshot.

We've got to do something and we've got to do something now. It is very critical.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, on a different note, I would like to know when the President and/or the Council Finance Chairman, Mr. Wagner, will be communicating to Council regarding the issue of filling the Budget Controller's position and/or other considerations that I've addressed concerning that office.

The Chair:

I will be doing that very shortly. I will be calling a meeting with all Councilmembers. I couldn't do it today because we are absent a member.

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you.

Mr. Ferlo moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, September 19, 1988.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale moved to excuse Mr. Pollock for absence from the meeting.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. DePasquale

Council adjourned.

Consortium Environmental Task Force, in Washington, D.C., October 31-November 2, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $200.00, payable from Code Account No. 1017, Miscellaneous Services.

Also,

No. 1462 Communication from James Turner, Director, Department of Finance, requesting authorization for Barbara Lapcevic, Assistant Payroll Supervisor, Department of Finance, to attend the American Payroll Association's Year End Payroll Conference in Pittsburgh, PA, October 26, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $215.00, payable from Code Account No. 1063, Miscellaneous Services. This conference should prove extremely valuable to Ms. Lapcevic in her position. The workshop sessions include proper balancing of data-payroll reconciliation, pending legislation-minimum wage, medicare and social security tax, etc.

Also,

No. 1463 Communication from Melanie Smith, Director, Department of Personnel, requesting authorization for Anne McCafferty to attend the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry's training seminar on Youth Competencies, in Harrisburg, PA, October 25-26, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $550.00, payable from the JTPA-1 Trust Fund, federal funds.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Chair presented

No. 1464 Petition from the residents of the City of Pittsburgh, requesting a public hearing to discuss the renaming of English Lane Field in Frick Park to Stanley Lederman Field. (This petition is valid in accordance with Section 320 of the Home Rule Charter).

Also,

No. 1465 Petition from the residents of the City of Pittsburgh, requesting a public hearing to discuss the cutbacks in the Department of Environmental Services.

Which were read, received and filed.

Michelle Madoff:

Point of Order. This bill just introduced to hold public hearings, does that mean they're going to be held or does it mean its up for discussion?

The Chair:

It means that if there are 25 signatures there will be public hearings held.

Michelle Madoff:

I've been given to understand, and I could be wrong, that on one of the bills, the person they wish to name the street after does not wish to have that happen.

The Chair:

Fine. Then he can come to us and withdraw the petition or the bill.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Wagner presented

Bill No. 1466

Report of the Committee on Finance for June 5, 1988 transmitting one ordinance and sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with a NEGATIVE recommendation,

Bill No. 1302

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance supplementing Title Six - Conduct, Article V - Discrimination, Chapter 651 - Findings and Policy, Chapter 653 - Human Relations Commission, Chapter 659 - Unlawful Practices, by including in the protected class the nature of the sexual orientation of a person." —
(SPONSORED BY MR. POLLOCK)

Which was read:

Mr. Pollock:

There is no doubt in my mind that the legislation to include protection against discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation in the City's existing Human Relations Act has created the most interest of any Council bill in many years, if not in the history of this City. The local media has seized upon this issue in an unprecedented manner. As the members of Council know, Pittsburgh newspapers deem a very small percentage of Council's agenda worthy of comment. Only an insignificant amount of our work rates one editorial. If there are two editorials on something we do, it is a very uncommon example. And more than two is extremely rare.

I feel very secure in stating that in the 172 years since this City was incorporated, no proposed Council action has engendered anywhere near the amount of public comment that this bill has. There have been 11 editorials regarding this ordinance: April 15, Pittsburgh Press; June 3, Pittsburgh Post Gazette; July 20, Pittsburgh Post Gazette; September 16, Pittsburgh Post Gazette; September 16, Pittsburgh Press; September 21, Pittsburgh Press; September 24, Pittsburgh Post Gazette; September 24, Pittsburgh Press; October 4, Pittsburgh Post Gazette; October 7, Pittsburgh Post Gazette; and October 8, Pittsburgh Press. I might add that with the exception of but one of those 11 editorials, every one has been in support of this bill.

Television and radio editorialists, op-ed writers, editorial cartoonists, columnists and other electronic and print media commentators have addressed this issue. Again, with very few exceptions, the support of this bill has been consistent and strong.

The calls and letters to Council are the most I have seen on any matter in the three years I have been here, and probably the most ever received on any issue.

What I would like to do at this time is to address one by one each reason that I have heard given by opponents of this bill for their opposition.

Let me begin by addressing the most counterfeit one; that is that this bill is not legal. I know, and most of the public knows, that those who are attempting to hide behind the cloak of illegality are perpetrating a charade. I am reluctant to dignify this sham but I will, nevertheless, show it for what it is.

Briefly, to review the discussion of Wednesday, those opposing the bill rely on one case, the much analyzed Commonwealth Court case of The Pittsburgh Human Relations Commission vs. MacBeth in 1978. Let's look at exactly what this case says. In this case, Pittsburgh's Human Relations Commission attempted to award attorneys' fees as part of its remedies. Studying the language of the enabling act, the law creating the State Human Relations Commission, the Commonwealth Court said that local commissions were limited to powers and duties similar to those granted to the State's Human Relations Commission. That's it. That's the whole argument against the legality of the bill.

That same case goes on to say that local commissions can add powers and duties if there is an ordinance by their local legislative body granting that power.

To counter that argument, the argument of illegality, one can examine the language relied upon by opponents. If the Legislature had wanted to strictly limit local commissions, it could clearly have used more restrictive language. Why did the legislature only use the word "similar"? Why not "identical" or "exactly the same"? The answer is quite simple. The Legislature recognized that discrimination and protection against it are evolving matters; that as different types of discrimination surface, they must be dealt with. That is why over the years there have been new protected classes added to laws designed to combat discrimination. That is why protection for women, for the handicapped, and for older Americans have been legislatively added in not too distant times.

In addition, what sense would it make to interpret a statute so that local commissions can only exactly duplicate the State Commission? What purpose would local commissions serve if they had the same exact powers? Indeed, it must be pointed out that the MacBeth case and the State Enabling Act do not even address the issue of protective classes; they merely limit the scope of powers of commissions - in other words, what commissions can do, not whom they can protect. That is why Human Relations Commissions across the state have added protected classes.

Besides the much talked about Philadelphia and Harrisburg gay rights ordinances, there have also been other protections added by local Human Relations Commissions and enforced by local Human relations Commissions. Allentown has added protected classes. The City of York has added protected classes. Marital status has been added and enforced. A general equivalency diploma versus a high school diploma has been added and enforced. And the City of Pittsburgh itself, in its own Human Relations Act, when the City Council enacted it in the 1970s and which has been enforced ever since, already added a protected class, place of birth.

As Professor Jules Lobel of the University of Pittsburgh School of Law and the National Lawyers Guild pointed out in his brilliant Memorandum of Law, submitted to all the Members of this Council, defending the legality of the ordinance proposed, the City of Pittsburgh has already done what today's bill attempts to do, add a protected class. And this can be legally done. That is why all of these other added protected classes are still on the books unchallenged. That is why Philadelphia's gay rights ordinance has been enforced in approximately 100 cases over the past 7 years, and that is why Harrisburg's, over 5 years old, is still unchallenged.

On Thursday, I spoke with one of the leading experts in the state on human relations ordinances, Mary Kay Rogers, an attorney and the Executive Director of York's Human Relations Commission. She informed me that she believes that without question protected classes can be added. As Professor Lobel cited in his Memorandum, the State's Human Relations Commission Enabling Act is to be liberally construed, which means that any doubts must be decided in favor of a broader interpretation.

The point of all this truly unnecessary smashing of the argument that the bill is illegal is to point out that nobody, nobody, can state with any degree of certainty that the proposed ordinance is not permitted by law. It cannot be done. There is no authority for that position. The most, the absolute most, that anyone could say, is that there may be a question about it, could be. But the overwhelming argument is that the added protected class would be upheld.

As the only elected official in this City who is also an attorney, I feel I have a responsibility. That responsibility is to act in a manner consistent with the law, with legal precedents, and with valid legal opinions. That is why when abortion rights advocates asked me to introduce a bill restricting picketing at clinics, I had the ordinance reviewed by the American Civil Liberties Union; an organization, by the way, of which I am proud to say I am a card-carrying member.

The Chair:

Before you continue, Mr. Pollock, I want to remind the people in the gallery that this is unlike a public hearing; this is going to be run very, very professionally. This is a legislative meeting, its the legislative body here. There's not going to be any clapping every time someone makes a speech or something you agree with, or any booing. This is my first warning and my last warning, and I mean this. This is not a public hearing.

Please continue, Mr. Pollock.

Mr. Pollock:

When the ACLU said that the suggested ordinance was not constitutional, I refused to introduce it. That is why, when I or others saw legal problems in my smoking and graffiti bills, I held them up until the legal flaws could be corrected. That is why a few weeks ago, when this Council voted to ban plastic pipe in the City of Pittsburgh, while each Member of Council was holding a United States Supreme Court opinion stating that this Council couldn't take such action, I was the only vote against the illegal ban. Now, as we all know, the City is defending two lawsuits as a result of that illegal Council act, and will probably lose them both.

Those propounding the position that they are voting against the ordinance because it is illegal are simply not telling the truth and are attempting to worm out.

The next reason for opposing this bill, which I will address, is the fallacy that there is no discrimination. Some ridiculous individuals even state that there are no studies to show that there is discrimination, which is not true. Every Member of this Council was provided studies showing that there was discrimination against individuals on the basis of sexual orientation in numerous cities and in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We were given these studies over a month ago.

These same ludicrous individuals also go on to state that homosexuals are affluent. Now that's an especially laughable position and it would be such if it weren't so subject to sadness and scorn. These individuals disingenuously state that there are no studies to show discrimination, but there are studies to show the affluence of gays. Where are these studies? Nobody has ever seen any studies showing that gays are affluent. And besides, all the money in the world cannot buy a person a seat in a restaurant, or entry to a bar, or an apartment, or a job, if the owner, or the proprietor, or the employer doesn't want to hire or serve or allow in an individual on the basis of his sexual orientation.

This Council sat here for six and a half hours and listened to the most dramatic, most courageous, most effective testimony ever presented in these Chambers. Dozens and dozens of individuals came forth to tell their stories of discrimination, to reveal how they have suffered because of what they are. Those individuals who testified at the public hearing are some of the bravest men and women I have ever had the honor to encounter. These people risked their jobs, risked their homes, risked relationships with their families, friends and loved ones. They even risked their safety and well-being. They appeared before this Council, before the media, and before the City of Pittsburgh to acknowledge their homosexuality and to try to end the discrimination that exists.

These men and women are heroes; they are true freedom fighters. Their stories made the best case this Council has ever been presented for the passage of any legislation. They proved there was discrimination. And for every one person who testified on behalf of the bill, for every one person who had the rare courage to bare his soul to the people of Pittsburgh, there are hundreds or thousands of others who couldn't. The men and women who came here deserve more than to be called liars. They deserve better than to be ignored, to be treated as if they don't count or don't matter.

To say there is no discrimination is to utter an obscenity. To those who say there is no discrimination, I say, "Don't magnify the indignity. Don't victimize the victims. Don't further persecute the persecuted."

There is discrimination. There is plenty of discrimination and prejudice and hatred. Letters like I've been receiving over the last month are just a small example. "Queers, please be informed that all you deserve is what you're getting - AIDS." "Die, faggots." "Die you fags." "Sweeties, seen your pathetic poster on the local telephone poles. Couldn't come up with a better name for you bunch of rejects. You sure have something to cry about. We'll all be so happy when you are deported back to Africa." That is curious language indeed. I didn't know that homosexuals came from Africa. But I guess these people already had their signs and cards from past campaigns to send other groups to Africa already printed, so I guess they must have saved some printing costs. Or else they just associate everything they hate with that innocent continent.

Not a day goes by that at least one person, and usually it's many more, comes over to me and tells me how he or she has been discriminated against. Or how his or her child or brother or sister has been discriminated against. These stories are very moving and, despite my busy schedule, I always stop to hear them and listen to what the people have to say. I am especially touched by the individuals who share the stories of their experience with a gay brother or a gay sister or a gay daughter. They tell me how important this legislation is. They tell me how tragic the situation is for the gay men and women that they know and love. They tell me how very, very sad it is that it frequently requires one to have a loved one who is a homosexual before he or she develops acceptance of fellow human beings.

Since the progress of this legislation has been so visible, others have come forward to me. Last week the owner of an employment agency, a heterosexual, told me that many, many employers in the City of Pittsburgh have told him, "Don't send me any queers", and there is nothing that can be done legally about it.

On Friday, I had the manager of an agency for temporary employment come to my office to see me. She told me a fascinating story. Her agency functions as other temporary employment agencies do by hiring individuals with various skills and placing them with employers who need workers with these specific skills for a period of time ranging from one day to six months. The agency checks the qualifications of these applicants, and if the agency finds the individual qualified, they tell him or her that they have the position for whatever time is required by the employer who called the agency. What this manager told me was that she will check the skills of the temporary employees and will send the most qualified ones to the employers. She will tell the temporary employee that he or she has the position for one month or four months or whatever. Naturally the person will be quite excited.

The manager told me that frequently she will get a call from the employer screaming at her, telling her never to send them another faggot. She will then have to tell the person who is otherwise well qualified, whose only sin was that he or she had mannerisms which were perceived to be homosexual, she will then have to tell this person that he or she wasn't going to be able to have the position for the time he or she was told. And she would have to make up some excuse as to why this person, who is otherwise qualified, wasn't able to continue working. This manager told me that other temporary employment agencies experience the same thing and the managers always talk about it. And there is nothing that can be done legally about it.

I said earlier that the courageous individuals who testified in favor of the legislation made the best case ever presented on behalf of any legislation. I misspoke. The best case was actually made by the opponents. Does anyone doubt for even one minute that the people who came down to Council to spew their venom against homosexuals would hesitate for one minute to fire a person if they found out that he or she was gay, or to throw a person's belongings on the street if they found out that person was gay, or to deny a homosexual service in their restaurant or not to hire a homosexual. What greater proof of the need for this ordinance could there be than the people who are so vicious and ugly, opposing it?

In the 1940s there was a marvelous book written by Laura Hopson entitled, Gentlemen's Agreement. This was the story of a Christian who assumed a Jewish name and claimed that he was Jewish. He did this for the express purpose of experiencing anti-Semitism firsthand. And he did.

In the 1960s, John Griffin wrote the fantastic book, Black Like Me. Incredibly, Mr. Griffin, a white man, chemically died the pigment of his skin black so that he could experience racism in America firsthand. And he did.

In a very, very, very small way, I feel somewhat like those two people. Presumably, because I introduced this ordinance and am fighting for its passage, and presumably because I am not married, many people believe I am gay. The hateful calls to my house and office at all times of the day or night calling me a faggot, threatening to exterminate me or hurt me on the street or spit on me, have been coming in for weeks and weeks. The things people have said about me that have gotten back to me from my friends, all of these things have given me a very, very small sampling of what it must be like to live every day as a homosexual man or woman in Pittsburgh. I know I've had it for a very short time, and I hate it.

Yes, there is discrimination against individuals on the basis of sexual orientation, a great amount of it.

Another argument presented against this bill is that gay men and women are protected already. The laws on the books already cover them. That is purely and simply untrue. There is no ordinance, no statute, no constitution, no charter, no case law, no ruling, nothing which provides protection against discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation for Pittsburgh men and women. An individual could sit down at a restaurant and be told by the owner, "Get out of here; I don't serve queers", and there could be nothing done about it. A person could attempt to rent an apartment and be told by the landlady, "I don't rent to homosexuals", and there's nothing that could be legally done about it. A person could be told when seeking employment, "I don't hire faggots", and there would be nothing that could be done about it legally.

It is nonsensical, dishonest and stupid to claim that there is protection when there isn't. Why else would our City Human Relations Commission unanimously appeal to Council to pass this bill? There is no legal recourse for homosexual discrimination in Pittsburgh. None.

Another argument presented is that homosexuality is immoral. Who are we to judge morality? Who are we to determine what is proper to be done in the privacy of one's bedroom between consenting adults? I would never think to peek in the bedroom of others, any more than anyone on this Council would want someone looking into his or her own bedroom.

The words of Justice Harry Blackmun in the infamous Georgia sodomy case go to the very heart of this issue. He said, "Depriving individuals of the right to choose for themselves how to conduct their intimate relationships poses a far greater threat to the values most deeply rooted in our nation's history than tolerance of nonconformity could ever do."

I challenge any person condemning the morality of homosexuals to present his or her own life for inspection. This Council and no governmental body could or should determine such issues of morality.

Ronald Reagan's very conservative Surgeon General, C. Everett Koop, said it best: "I am the Surgeon General for the homosexuals and the heterosexuals, for the young and the old, for the moral and the immoral. I don't have the luxury of deciding which side I want to be on."

I next want to address the issue that discrimination against gay men and women is not the same as discrimination against Blacks. Frankly, I am horrified at that statement. Civil liberties, civil rights, have no color or sex or age or sexual orientation. If a person won't be served at a lunch counter because of what he is, that's a violation of his civil rights. It doesn't matter whether the refusal is because he's Black or Italian or Arab or homosexual. A Black person saying that Blacks are entitled to civil rights protection under the law, and homosexuals aren't, is like him pulling up the ladder to the lifeboat after he is already saved from the ocean. And that is why, historically, Black leaders have argued for gay rights.

Going back to Martin Luther King, there is a proud tradition of Black civil rights leaders marching arm in arm with their homosexual brothers and sisters. That is why Mayor Wilson Goode and Reverend Joseph Lowrie and Mayor Andrew Young and Coleman Young, and on and on and on, leader after leader in the Black community, supports gay rights. They know that the words of Dr. Martin Luther King are still true, that "injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere". And Dr. King's widow, Coretta Scott King, recently said, in speaking for the Black community, "We believe that the rights of all people must be protected and guaranteed. We believe that the gay and lesbian community must be supported in their civic rights."

When the gay community marched on Washington, Jesse Jackson led that march. In fact, Jesse Jackson signed a petition which read as follows: "We, the undersigned, petition the Human Relations Commission to initiate actions to amend the Human Relations Act of the City of Pittsburgh to include sexual orientation and would furthermore request that this item be on the agenda at the May, 1988 meeting of the Commission." Here is Jesse Jackson's signature on that petition.

During his campaign for the Presidency, Jesse Jackson consistently spoke for gay rights. He told an arena full of Black men and women in Milwaukee that discrimination against gays was not right, that America can be better than that.

This is a civil rights issue. It is about people being discriminated against, being persecuted against, because of who and what they are. To call it anything different is a disgrace and an insult to those who have fought for civil rights for all Americans in this nation.

I next want to discuss a fascinating argument of the opponents. That is the one that goes, "I'm not voting for this because the Ward Chairmen and the people in my district don't want it." The other day a reporter asked me if I thought a member of Council was voting against the legislation because of his district. I answered the question, and later it struck me, "Wait a minute, did I miss something? Did I miss an election? When did we have district elections?" Nobody represents a district. Every Member of this Council was elected by the entire City of Pittsburgh to represent the entire City of Pittsburgh until January, 1990.

I have been told repeatedly that individuals calling to express their support of this bill are asked their zip code and if they don't reside in a particular zip code in the City, their opinions are not considered. Are all the other Members of Council doing this? Are all the members of Council only representing some district? Because, if that's the case, then there are some very serious problems. If that's the case, much of the City is disenfranchised because the eight people seated at this Council don't live in the nine districts that the Judge approved for apportionment elections. If that's the case, the good people of Homewood and East Liberty and North Point Breeze and the Mexican War Streets and the Hill District and other neighborhoods don't have a Councilperson. They don't have anyone to call. Well they can still call me and I hope they can call all the other Members of Council.

The people of Pittsburgh want this ordinance. The calls and letters coming in from City residents for this bill are more than five times the calls and letters against it from City residents.

I must confess, I don't put a lot of stock in polls, but the recent Post Gazette poll was so astounding that I must cite it. Despite heavy opposition from the Bishop and the Catholic Church, despite all the misinformation and disinformation about the bill, despite all the lies going around saying that employers will have to put ads in gay newspapers and to recruit gay individuals, despite all the hysteria about AIDS, a far greater number of people in this City were still in favor of this bill than opposed to it. That's unbelievable.

But even if, for the sake of argument, the people did not want this ordinance, what kind of elected official, what kind of leader would base his or her decision on a matter such as this on a referendum? This is why we are elected. This is a moral issue. It shouldn't be put to a vote of the masses.

The British philosopher and legislator Edmund Burke described the dilemma of conflicts between constituents' wishes and the beliefs of the elected representative. Burke said, "The constituents' wishes ought to have great weight with the representative; their opinion, high respect. But your representative owes you his judgment and he betrays instead of serving if he sacrifices it to your opinion."

If courageous elected officials throughout the history of our nation had not gone against the wishes of their constituents, Black men and women would be coming to the City County Building not to be Judges and Councilmen but to be shoeshine boys and restroom attendants.

The deceased Federal Judge from Boston, Charles Wyzanski said it best.

"Civil liberties is not something the average person cares about except when his own ox is gored. I promise you, if you put on any ballot the first ten amendments or anything else which involves liberty, and you took a poll of the total electorate, there isn't a single amendment that would pass."

And I might add, Ward Chairmen come and go, but civil rights are forever.

Now I want to address the issue of the religious opposition to this ordinance. To begin with, it makes me extremely uncomfortable to discuss theology in Council, but it has been raised by others as a reason to oppose this bill so I will be forced to address the subject.

Permit me to read from a very important letter. "Homosexuality is an ever present and complex issue. Catholic teaching recognizes that some people, through no fault of their own, find themselves to have a homosexual orientation. This orientation in itself is not immoral or sinful. It is neither good nor evil in itself. For this reason, the Catholic Bishop's 1976 Pastoral Letter, The Gift of Sexuality, notes, 'Homosexuals, like anybody else, should not suffer from prejudice against their basic human rights. They have a right to respect, friendship and justice. They should have an active role in the Christian community. There is no place for arbitrary discrimination and prejudice against a person because of sexual attraction. We especially deplore violence and harassment directed against such persons. All human persons, including those with homosexual orientations, have a right to decent employment and housing.'"

That, of course, is from the much talked about letter from Bishop Wuerl to the Pittsburgh priests. The letter went on to state that the Bishop opposed the ordinance because while, what a person is should clearly be protected, that person's conduct or activity should not.

As we all know, on Wednesday this Council voted to amend the bill so as to define the protected class according to what the people are, not what they do.

Further, I amended the ordinance to plainly state that no particular lifestyle was condoned or advocated. But even by doing what I feel very uncomfortable doing, that is, negotiating in the religious forum, that wasn't enough for some.

I would like to talk about what is really going on here from a personal viewpoint. I, myself, am on a long, difficult, but beautiful journey. That journey is to bring me closer to what Dennis Prager calls the Jewish Trinity: God, Torah and Israel. Leading me on this path are my rabbis here in Pittsburgh and the Chief Lubovitcher Rebbe in New York.

Over the past month there have been seven Jewish holy days and, of course, four Sabbaths. Because the holy days and the Sabbaths are celebrated both the night before and the day itself, I feel as if I have spent more waking hours in Synagogue over the last month than I have out. Maybe I have. I must tell you that I love my Synagogue. I love the people there and I especially love my rabbis. They are brilliant, brilliant men, and they are also excellent teachers. They have taught me much and I have gained so very much from them.

Holy days and Sabbaths are radiant. I conduct no business; I make or receive no calls. I don't drive. I listen to no radio and watch no television. I go to the Synagogue and I learn and I pray and I talk. It is an oasis for me. But for the past four weeks, the radiance of the Sabbath and the holy days has been somewhat shattered. When I go to the Synagogue, my ordinance comes with me. I am constantly forced to defend it. I am told how wrong it is. I am engaged in debate on the merits of it.

Most significantly, many of my rabbis, my teachers, my guides on the beautiful pathway to God, Torah and Israel tell me it is wrong. They tell me I shouldn't do it. In Synagogue, one of my local rabbis handed me a copy of a paper put out by their Chief Rebbe in New York on the subject of gay rights legislation. The paper quoted the Rebbe in New York as terming homosexuality a deviant lifestyle and an abnormality not worthy of protection. He adamantly opposed the gay rights ordinance and the Rebbe said that such legislation denies homosexuals the right to be protected from themselves. Further, the Rebbe said it works to destroy society.

Can one possibly fathom the internal conflicts that I have experienced, to have my spiritual leaders, the individuals from whom I seek guidance in so many ways, tell me that what I am doing is wrong? It created turmoil inside of me.

On the holiest day of the Jewish year, Yom Kippur, the portion of the Torah that is read is from Leviticus. It says that man shall not lay down with man. It is an abomination and perversion, and the person who does it shall be stoned to death. But I cannot, I must not, permit my spiritual training or spiritual leaders to affect how I conduct my governmental functions. Yes, they improve my life, greatly, and I am a better person and better Councilman because of my increased spirituality.

From my rabbis I have learned that my life's purpose has been clearly defined as far back as the revelation at Mount Sinai more than 32 centuries ago when we received the divine Torah. My people were ordained as a kingdom of priests and a holy nation and I have learned that what that means is that I must fulfill priestly functions and to lead a life according to the Torah. I must elevate myself and try to lead others.

But all of that cannot determine how I act relative to my sworn duty as a Member of Council of the City of Pittsburgh. Nor should any other person's training or religion or the position of any religious organization determine how any member of Council acts relative to his or her sworn duty. We are all citizens of the United States, no matter what our religion or religious beliefs, and we are all sworn to uphold the Constitution of the United States, including its amendments. And this document mandates that church and state be separate, and indeed, they must be. If they day comes when I no longer feel that way, I will walk out that door.

I believe I have addressed every reason I have heard propounded by opponents of the bill. If this ordinance is not passed, this Council will be saying, "Yes, people can still be fired because they are homosexuals. Yes, people can still be denied fundamental rights and freedoms because they are homosexuals. Yes, people can still be told to leave places open to the public, can still be refused a job or housing because they are homosexuals.

Is that what this Council wants to do? Does this Council want to align itself with some of those people who came down here to speak against this bill, some of those ugly, hate-filled people? Or does it want to follow the advice of those many, many people of conscience and compassion who testified for this bill.

Who were the people who spoke for the bill? They were our friends, people who know and respect and trust. People like Father O'Malley, like Molly Knox, like Jack Doherty, like Alma Speed Fox. They are people from our community, people who truly care about our City and its people. These are the people with whom Council should align itself.

Will the passage of this ordinance end hatred and prejudice? Of course not. People whose own lives are so desperate, so pathetic, so xitiful, will always have need of a group of individuals to persecute, to harass, to hate, to denigrate. This gives their lives a small degree of worth. Yes, there will always be hatred. For some reason, God has determined that is the case.

This past Saturday, ironically, we read the beginning of the Torah, Genesis, Chapter 1. In listening to the reading of the Torah, of the Beginning of Creation, I heard that out of hatred, Cain rose up and slew his brother Abel. Thus, man's inhumanity to man has been with us since the creation, since the first people put on this earth.

Dennis Prager has taught me that God constructed a world wherein there is good and evil. Would we prefer to live in a world where evil is impossible? Is being a good automaton preferable to being a free human being? Would we rather be loved by freely-choosing people or by love robots?

But this evil must be combatted, whenever and wherever it surfaces. Bigotry is like lymphatic cancer; it can appear in one place and be cut out and then turn up in another part of the body. But it must be excised wherever it appears.

In the past, it has been Italians, the Irish, Jews, Catholics, Blacks, others who have been the victims of hatred and bigotry. I don't know where it will end up next, but there will always be hatred. As Thomas Jefferson said, "The price of liberty is eternal vigilance".

No, this bill will not end hatred. But I have several responses to that statement. The first is based on history. During the tumultuous civil rights period of the 1960s, there was a great deal of discrimination and ugliness in the United States Air Force. As a means of attempting to combat this persecution and prejudice, the Generals of the Air Force decided to send every single person in the Air Force through civil rights instruction, through sensitivity training, through race relations courses. And all the millions and millions of dollars and tens and hundreds of millions of man-hours that were spent on these race relation training sessions did not produce any benefit to the diminution of prejudice in the Air Force.

But one simple statement placed in the Air Force personnel manual, by accident, not with the intent of combatting racism, did more than all the training and dollars could have done before that. That one simple statement placed in the Air Force personnel brochure carried with it very serious ramifications. It meant no promotion, it meant no raises, it meant no advances in pay. And that one statement said that no individual would be promoted if he or she ever displayed discrimination against an individual on the basis of race. That was it. No promotion if you display discrimination.

That had real pocketbook and prestige significance. Individuals could no longer refuse to bunk with a Black, or to fly in the same plane as a Black, or to work in the same work station as a Black. And what happened? Lo and behold, the barriers were broken down and the personnel of different races actually became associating with each other. They would go out drinking together. They would go out to eat together. They would go to each other's homes for the holidays. They actually became friends and race relations improved drastically. And it was all because of that one simple statement in the Air Force personnel brochure.

In many recovery groups, individuals are taught that they often must take the body and the mind will follow. In other words, before one can "come to", he or she must first "come". You have to "fake it 'til you make it".

More importantly, the passage of this bill will send a message loud and clear. The message will go forth that the City of Pittsburgh will not tolerate, will not accept, any discrimination of any kind against any individuals.

After this bill is passed - and it will be passed, if not today then in the not too distant future - after this bill is passed, in a very, very short time, people would look back and say, "What was all the fuss about? What was all the commotion, all the opposition?" This is as it always has been in these struggles.

It took 90 years to win women the right to vote. Susan B. Anthony never even lived to see it, and now we say, "What was all the fuss about?" It took centuries and the lives of millions and millions of Americans to win Blacks their civil rights, and now we say, "What was all the fuss about?" Why must there always be these struggles between the forces of progress and those seeking to keep people downtrodden? Haven't we learned our lesson? How many times must this struggle be fought?

On Wednesday, four members of Council voted against this bill. While I couldn't disagree more strenuously with Mr. DePasquale, his candor and honesty are somewhat refreshing. He is what he is and I appreciate being able to know exactly where he stands and why. At least he is not disingenuous, slippery or dishonest.

Today I appeal to Ben Woods and Otis Lyons. I know both of you to be men of compassion. I know that you care about your fellow man. Ben, you sat through almost every minute of that six and a half hour public hearing and heard almost every word, every story. Your presence there alone said a great deal to me and to others. You had to be moved by what you heard. These people poured out their hearts to you and asked for your help. How can you turn your back on them?

And, Otis, I know if you hadn't been in the hospital, you, too, would have stayed to hear every word, every story, and would have been equally moved.

Some have claimed that individuals choose to be homosexuals. I'm not an expert, but I do have some common sense. Why would anyone choose to be a homosexual? Is it such a great thing? Is it such a wonderful life? I guess one is either born a homosexual or maybe something happens in very early formative years to create it. I really don't know, but I am certain no one chooses it.

So, Ben, if one of your children or grandchildren, or Otis, if one of your nieces or nephews were born a homosexual, would you want them to be discriminated against? Would you want them to be discriminated against in housing, employment, in public accommodations? Would you want your loved one persecuted?

This bill is about people. It is about equality. It is about individuals who are treated as a lesser class, as unequal. It is about our brothers and our sisters.

Throughout my defense of this bill, I have quoted many, many great men and women. As one might expect, leave it to William Shakespeare, though, to present as dramatic and telling a testimony on behalf of this ordinance as could possibly be fashioned. His scene from "A Merchant of Venice" says it all. Applying the quotation to the matter at hand, the victim of discrimination talks about his tormentors: "He hath disgraced me and hindered me, laughed at my losses, mocked at my gains, scorned my people, thwarted my bargains, cooled my friends, heated my enemies. And what's his reason? I am a homosexual. Hath not a homosexual eyes? Hath not a homosexual hands, organs, dimensions, senses, affections, passions? Fed with the same food, hurt with the same weapons, subject to the same diseases, healed by the same means, warmed and cooled by the same winter and summer, as a heterosexual is? If you prick us, do we not bleed? If you tickle us, do we not laugh? And if you poison us, do we not die?"

The passage of this bill will be a statement that the City of Pittsburgh says every man and woman is equal, no better and no worse. I pray this Council will have the decency and the compassion to say, "Yes, all Pittsburghers are equal". I pray this Council passes this bill.

Thank you.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. Chairman, first of all, I'd like to have my comments brought forth for the Record from Wednesday's meeting.

---

And I'd like to commend Councilman Pollock for what I think is one of the most eloquent addresses I've ever heard, if not here in Council but through my entire educational process. Also, I would just like to ask my Councilmembers, after such an impassioned plea and after such logical arguments to moral issues, to legal issues, to issues which are just basically right, to please support this bill.

Mr. Ferlo:

I made a lengthy explanation in the Committee session as to why this bill was needed and why I supported it, and I would like my comments brought forward here today.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

(MR. COYNE'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1302 - Wednesday, 10/5/88)

Mr. Coyne:

First of all, I would like to reiterate what Councilman Ferlo has said regarding the calls and letters that have come to my office. The majority of the calls and letters that I have received from residents of the City of Pittsburgh have been in favor of this bill.

This is an issue which I and I know my colleagues have reviewed thoroughly, and we have been inundated with many materials from both sides.

After thoroughly reviewing the issue, I believe it is nothing more than discrimination and that it is unjust and it is an unworthy practice from which our society cannot benefit, but can only have harm.

I think Mr. Pollock's amendment has gone to show that this bill is not condoning nor supporting any particular lifestyle, and I would like to add that my support for equitable treatment does not indicate unquestioning acceptance of everything about the lives of some people, nor should it suggest the moral endorsement of any possible sexual behavior on anyone's part. Rather, my position on this issue reaffirms my basic religious and American conviction that discrimination, discrimination of any type, is wrong for our society. What people do in the privacy of their own home is their business. Now, if you have discrimination against action, that is one thing, but discrimination against people for just being people is totally, totally wrong.

Father Lauer from the University of Notre Dame, who I know, has contacted my office also. He and I have discussed this issue. That being my alma mater, that being a strong Catholic institution, I feel religiously that I stand on a firm basis with this argument.

I would just like to close by reading from the Vatican letter for those who have issued religious differences to this issue. The Vatican letter of 1986, which was written by Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger in which he writes, "Homosexuals should not suffer from prejudice against their basic human rights and that they have a right to respect and justice. It is deplorable that homosexuals have been and are the object of violent malice in speech or in action. Such treatment deserves condemnation wherever it occurs. It reveals a kind of disregard for others which endangers the most fundamental principles of a healthy society. The intrinsic dignity of each person must always be respected in word, action and in the law." I repeat the last phrase, "and in the law."

It is our basic responsibility to make sure that no one is discriminated against. I think there has been a misreading of this bill, I think it has been made to be a big deal, when really it is just reaffirming something that we should always have had in the first place.

Pittsburgh isn't the first city to do this. I think that we are just following what society wants us to do, and if you take the Post Gazette poll, what a majority of our citizens favor.

---

Therefore, I strongly urge my colleagues out of compassion, out of respect for human dignity, to pass this bill.

(MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1302 - Wednesday, 10/5/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you, Mr. Wagner. Members of Council and to the public, a couple weeks ago we had an extensive public hearing here in these Chambers, and quite frankly, other than the Council pay raise and the stadium bond issue, it was probably the largest outpouring of individual citizens, both from the city as well as some who were not in the city in these Chambers. I think all of us have indicated to the public the fact that there is an outpouring of support and to some extent opposition to this bill. Each one of us in our own offices has received varying amounts of pros and cons to their particular offices.

In my office, both with the letters I have brought here today, which I have tallied, as well as the phone calls to my office, I can very clearly state much to the extent of what the Post Gazette survey indicated the other day, that the overwhelming majority of people, city residents, do support the legislation offered by Mr. Pollock.

I have found that the calls into my office as well as the formal letters that were written to me, out of 37 letters that I received, 13 were city residents, those people being opposed to the legislation. I feel very strongly that basically the majority of people in this city do support the legislation as drafted by Mr. Pollock, because they have an appreciation for the fact that there is a legitimate concern and a need for this legislation, legislation which does not provide any additional rights to people, legislation which basically protects and provides equal protection under the law. That is what we are to do as elected officials.

I cannot end my discussion on this bill without talking specifically about some of the specific letters that I have received, and I would ask, please, since this is a controversial bill, to allow me a few more minutes of time.

I want to read some of these letters, because, in fact, I feel that these letters can better articulate and more eloquently have expressed the need for such legislation.

We have an individual from the University of Pittsburgh who writes me that, "I live in the city and I work for the University of Pittsburgh. Where, on July 8, '88, the expansion of its non-discrimination statement was announced to the University community. My employer now prohibits discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation. I would hope my city would do likewise. I want equal protection for my neighbors and myself from this city." This is an individual woman who writes from the University of Pittsburgh. As Council is aware, the University being the largest employer in the City of Pittsburgh recognizing a need, responding to a concern.

We have a letter from Reverend McCall from the Pittsburgh Presbytery writing, "I am writing to express the support of the Presbyterian Church. When our denomination dealt with the issue of homosexuality in 1979, our general assembly called upon Presbyterians to work for the passage of laws that prohibit discrimination in the areas of employment, housing and public accommodations. The Pittsburgh Presbytery, the governing Church body for the 68,000 Presbyterians in Allegheny County, reaffirmed that stance for our community in 1982, and called upon local governments, including City Council, to approve this legislation." Again the Pittsburgh Presbytery, no small organization.

We have a political letter from the 14th Ward Democratic Club in support of the legislation.

We have a very impressive letter from the United Electrical Radio Machine Workers of America, one of the large electrical workers unions in the country. "We in the labor movement are trained to understand that an injury to one is an injury to all. This simple phrase succinctly expresses the fact that a multi-ethnic, multi-religious society such as ours, what binds us together is not uniformity, but rather a commitment to respect the diversity of our citizens. Prohibiting discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation is not an endorsement of any particular lifestyle. It is the reaffirmation of the fundamental principles that allow us to live and work together."

There are a number of other unions, the Service Employees Union, Local 585, who spoke at the hearing in favor of the legislation. And I need not remind Council that they do represent city and county workers.

We have a letter from the Pittsburgh Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild. We have a letter from the public policy coordinator of the WYCA of Greater Pittsburgh, Jan Neffke, as well Margaret Tyndall, the Executive Director of the Allegheny Chapter of the YWCA. Both of them eloquently state in their letter and their testimony the public position and policy of the WYCA, no small organization, who supports the need for this legislation.

We have a gentleman, Mr. Williams, "There is no legitimate rationale for discrimination in employment, housing and public accommodation. Tolerance of differences among our people is a hallmark of our nation, a source of strength which we need to preserve."

We have a real estate agent who writes, "As a real estate agent and a resident of the city, I have a keen desire for Pittsburgh to grow and prosper. The passage of this amendment would enhance the image of this city as a progressive place to both live and work, and thus stimulate our city's future growth."

We have a letter from Rabbi Steindel from the congregation Beth Shalom who writes, "I understand the proposed legislation. It does not encourage, promote or advocate homosexual activity, but merely extends the protection of the law to yet another segment of our wide and varied citizenry."

We have a letter from an individual who writes specifically about the discrimination she has faced. And I quote, "I have been a target of harassment on the job as a result of co-workers suspecting that I was a lesbian. I have also had the painful experience of coming home to my apartment to find all my belongings piled on the sidewalk, evicted without notice because I had been seen only in the company of women," obviously urging the passage of the legislation.

We have a Catholic nun from the Sisters of St. Josephs in Garfield who writes, "My understanding of God, my reading of Scripture and my prayer point only to God's love and concern for all our people, especially those who are most oppressed and powerless. I believe that Church members and leaders who oppose this proposed ordinance are doing so because of homophobia and for political reasons."

We have two women who write, who have lived together, "We are Pittsburgh homeowners, and we both hold responsible jobs. However, we both know that if it became common knowledge at either of our places of employment that we were gay, our jobs would be in jeopardy and our future advancement would likely be limited," obviously in support of the bill.

We have a letter from a medical doctor who writes, "With the advent of the AIDS crises, cases of avert discrimination against gays and others perceived to be gay have alarmingly increased. I fear daily for the loss of my job or home, since I know I have no legal recourse to fight this type of discrimination."

We have a Catholic Priest, a Professor from the University of Notre Dame. Reverend Lauer writes, and I quote, "My special interest in this ordinance comes in part from the fact that in the early '70's" he worked for the PERSAD counseling agency. "After some examination of the agency's constitutions and reputation, I agreed to serve as a consultant. That experience was extraordinarily eye opening. Until then, I had never realized how much oppression and discrimination members of sexual minority groups suffer in this city." He closes by saying that, "The Pittsburgh ordinance" -- and I think this is very important -- "that the ordinance has already been in affect to protect the rights of blacks, and women, and Jews and others. No one has argued that the ordinance was thereby supporting radical feminist claims, giving support to the black power, black Muslim movements, or implying approval for the radical Zionists. When the ordinance prohibited discrimination because of race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, place of birth, sex, handicap, disability or blindness, reasonable people seem to interpret the law to mean a simple negative prohibition. Why are we now applying new implications and dangers, or why are they suddenly found in the heretofore clear ordinance when one new oppressed minority group is added?"

We have an individual who writes, and I state, "I am opposed to all forms of discrimination. To deny someone a place to live or work based on what they choose to do in the privacy of their own lives is simply unjust and wrong. An enlightened society must establish laws to protect all of its citizens."

We have another person who writes dealing with the issue of equal protection. We have a letter signed by young people, 75 law students, future attorneys from the University School of Law. We have a lengthy letter from Mr. Forrester of the PERSAD Center who write a lengthy interpretation of a specific struggle and an example of discrimination that this agency went through in trying to relocate their agency, an agency that I think has existed for at least more than a decade, has enjoyed not only community wide support, but public and private and federal dollars, an agency that had a hard time finding a place to rent because of the perception of the part of one landlord that they were going to be housing or the place would be frequented by individuals of AIDS. That is a case of discrimination, we should be concern about that.

We have a letter from the Rector from the Calvary Episcopal Church, a very large Church in the Shadyside community, the Reverend Arthur McNulty who writes, "I am aware that this debate will unfortunately encourage and engender even more polarities between conservatives and liberals, heterosexuals and homosexuals, the religious right and the religious center. However, beyond the demagoguery, I am convinced that basic human rights are at stake here. Sexual orientation should not be used as a front for prejudice against, fear of and/or insulation from other human beings." Again, a progressive Church leader from the Episcopal Church speaking out.

This is an individual, a gentleman, he and his wife have several children, they live in Garfield. "Unlike many others, I do not believe it to be a gay bill. It grants human rights and limits discrimination against certain minorities. I am also a practicing Roman Catholic, regularly attending St. Lawrence O'Toole Parish." He closes by saying, "I also believe that the Church's teaching should be guides for individual reflection and have no place in City Council considerations," a quote which I heard sometime ago from another colleague.

Another woman, a Sister, a nun, from the Roman Catholic faith states, "I am a Roman Catholic nun who has been assigned to Church ministry." She states that she and her religious superiors, the National Coalition of American Nuns, the National Conference of Catholic Bishops and a host of other Catholic leaders, have endorsed human and civil rights for homosexual persons.

I will close with two other brief ones. The Bloomfield-Garfield Corporation, a neighborhood based community development group in the city, a group I have worked with closely and many of us here on Council have supported, the President writes, "We, as a community based organization, would not only be hypocritical, but also untrue to our mission if we fought only certain kinds of discrimination and turned a blind eye to other kinds. The same can be said without reservation of our city officials. Issues like this one separate leaders from dealers." He quotes that, "The strength of our neighborhoods lie in their diversity and can be measured in direct proportion to the levels of acceptance, tolerance of differences, cooperation and sense of community. The Bloomfield-Garfield community, like every other city neighborhood, has many gay and lesbian residents. They are not imported, they are our sons and daughters, nieces and nephews, grandchildren and neighbors. They are every race, color and religion. They are voters and tax paying residents of the City of Pittsburgh, and they deserve to have this small measure of protection from discrimination and violence."

A gentleman, Mr. Kerrick, writes, "Although I do not live in the city, I agree with Martin Luther King that injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere."

I will close by a gentleman, Mr. Hughes. "One thing that is very important for Council and the city to remember is that any rights bill does nothing more than validate those people who have been living and working in the city. It doesn't give anyone anymore rights than they ever had, it just makes sure that the rights they do have can never be taken away; that is all. Another important thing to keep in mind is when the gay rights bill passed in other cities in America, nothing happened. Lightning didn't strike, rivers didn't flood, the earth didn't open up and swallow mankind. As a matter of fact, most people just woke up the next day and went to work like they always did. I urge you to vote yes to the gay rights bill and validate the existence of the gay judges, and city workers, and doctors, and nurses, and teachers, and policemen, and firemen, et al., that love the city that they live and work in."

I think it is very clear that this ordinance, when you take away all the hype and all the things that people are reading into it, be it supporters or opponents of the legislation, is much ado about nothing. It is extending the rights and a privilege to a group of people. And I have talked to many colleagues privately and lobbied them on this issue, and I know personally you do not have the biases. I am asking you to search your hearts today and to support this legislation, because it really reflects the individual philosophy that I know all of you have in terms of how you deal with people in your family and your co-workers and your friends on a daily basis.

I think it is clear that on a differing note, that in the struggle against racism and the need for affirmative action that there are probably neighborhoods and large numbers of people that may not support individuals speaking out against racism, but that is no reason for to us repeal the civil rights legislation or non-discrimination clauses in our existing Home Rule Charter or the federal equal rights law.

Clearly, what we are asking for today is for some of us to take, for some, unpopular positions, but to stand up and provide some leadership. We got elected to City Council to provide leadership, and sometimes that means not always taking what some might feel is the most popular position. And I need only remind Council of controversial zoning matters and others where sometimes we have to stand apart from the crowd and do what we know is best for the city as a whole and not any one group in particular.

Again, I would ask Councilmembers to search your hearts, please think about the issue, and not all the hype and demagoguery and all the misinformation that has existed since the ordinance has come out.

I will just close by applauding Mr. Pollock and also our Mayor, Sophie Masloff, who says she is supporting this bill. But I would hope that between now and Monday that she will provide some additional leadership to support her own commission. Let's remember that it's the Human Relations Commission as represented by Director Gabriel and Alma Fox, a dear friend of mine, President of the Commission who overwhelmingly saw the need and proposed this language. Mr. Pollock has served as the vehicle for introducing the bill. It is the city's own Human Relations Commission that has come to this table with the plea, and that is to support this legislation. So I am asking my colleagues to please support this bill.

(END OF REMARKS)

(Transcribed by Helen L. Kriebel, Stenotype Reporter)

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President and members of Council, Mark and I have fought many battles in the past on many issues and, fortunately, we'll fight many battles in the future on many issues because often times we don't agree on administrative policies and various program ideas that we've debated in these Chambers. But I must admit, quite honestly, with a lot of pride, that I'm very proud of Mark today not only for his eloquent statement here today but also for his vigilance in defending, in explaining, and providing leadership to the ordinance that he has provided leadership with by introducing for members of Council to support.

I have to be very honest, though, quite frankly. It's a very sad day in City Hall. And quite frankly, as I look to my colleagues and to you, Mr. Woods, and other people I've developed friendships and relationships with since January 4th, I believe it's a sad day not only for our City but for the relationships and the respect that we've shown each other in this legislative body. It's, unfortunately, a day when personality politics is overruling reason and fairness. And, quite frankly, personality politics on this vote is ruling the day. I believe very strongly that reason and fairness and compassion and leadership today is being overshadowed and overruled by not only prejudice on the part of some, not only political opportunity on the part of some, but, quite frankly, myopic ignorance on the part of many.

It is very clear to me that a number of Councilmembers were not willing to participate in the dialogue to have a compromise to the existing amendment and the bill that received the four votes this past Wednesday. I'm disappointed that together we were not able to frame a compromise, as I had hoped that we were able to do.

Mr. Pollock gave a lengthy interpretation in the defense of this bill when he talked about the law and very clearly, members of Council and to the public, the law is on our side. Whether you quote the intent and elaborate on the opinion of the MacBeth decision, it's clear that the law is on our side. It is clear that facts are on our side, not only in the lengthy public hearing which, quite frankly, was the lengthiest and most productive and most energetic public hearing in the history of these Chambers where over 60 City residents of the 80 odd individuals who spoke in favor of the legislation were City residents. Of the very much smaller number of people who came out to speak in opposition, quite frankly, very few of them, a little over 15 of them, were not even City residents. So it's clear to me then in the expression of these Chambers the vast majority of people support this legislation. And I think it's quite clear in much of the testimony that was presented at that hearing, in addition to personal testimony that has been given through many of the colleagues here today, that the facts are there. There is discrimination in housing, in employment and public accommodation.

No piece of legislation, in the 15 years that I've been working on legislation in this Council, as a member since January 4th and as a community advocate prior to January 4th, has ever received as much broad-based support; not the plant closing law which had just as many people in the room. But nowhere was there as broad-based constituent support from a broad cross-section of the public, be they unions, priests or rabbis, or other religious leaders, neighborhood groups, social service agencies, personalities, leadership people throughout the City of all sorts of walks of life, nowhere was it more clearly expressed for this legislation than at the public hearing and subsequent letters and cards and telegrams and personal visitations to Councilmembers. Nowhere has there been as broad-based support for legislation as has been demonstrated for the need for this bill.

Supposedly, the Mayor is on our side. Quite frankly, I'm disappointed at Her Honor for not showing more leadership. I've seen her behind the scenes walk down the hallway and get what she wants. It was done on other legislation within the last couple of months and it will be done on other legislation in the future. And I think, quite frankly, I would hold her accountable, partly, for this bill today because I know that she has the influence and the political power, if she wanted to use it, to swing a fifth vote. I know that not only in my heart, but I know that as a practical politician. I'm disappointed that she says she's for it but has not shown enough to muster the political wherewithal that I think the bill needs for a fifth vote today.

As I indicated last week, the Governor is on our side. Bob Casey, in January of 1988, altered the executive order in the State of Pennsylvania to specifically include sexual preference in his executive order on the issue of hiring and state employment. It's clear to me that the legislation since '82, it's already been passed in Philadelphia and in Harrisburg, they are on our side, not to mention 100 odd other communities that have been talked about. They are on our side. So, it's clear that not only do we have the law and the facts and the broad-based support, and supposedly the Mayor, and we have the Governor, but what are we doing in terms of showing lack of leadership to our own Human Relations Commission.

The Human Relations Commission, let's put this in perspective, Mr. Pollock was the vehicle to introduce the bill, but it was the Human Relations Commission that we have been asked to support here today. They themselves have come to us, hat in hand, with an overwhelming indication that they would like this ordinance passed. They want the Code amended. We are turning our backs on an important unit of government here today, the Human Relations Commission. And I worry that if we're going to turn our backs on this, are we going to, Mr. Lyons, turn our backs if someone else comes to us and says that we should relax affirmative action and discrimination against people of color in this City? I hope that we will not. But I'm beginning to wonder whether or not people will be weak-kneed on that issue also.

If we do nothing else in these Chambers today, I believe very strongly that as elected officials we must fight to protect and enhance the diversity that we have in this City. We are a melting pot in this City, of all shapes and sizes and colors and creeds. And I think it's very important, as I've stated many, many times before, this bill does not provide any new rights for people. It quite frankly provides equal protection under the law. It doesn't do all the supposed things that all of the religious, right and the pro-Bush forces who came to the podium to beat the bill up were talking about. It doesn't do any of that. It provides equal protection under the law. And there was a time not too many decades ago when the Irish community was discriminated against as well as the Italian community. And if there's one thing I learned in my upbringing which is a working-class background with nine brothers and sisters, very clearly I was taught not to discriminate against people, and that we had to have mutual respect for everybody, whether you liked them or not. And that's what the heck this bill does. And it's very sad, quite frankly, that we are not able to get a fifth vote from one of you on City Council here today.

I would just close by, once again, to my colleague, Council President Ben Woods. And I'll look you eye to eye, Mr. Woods. I know you, I've had beers with you in your restaurant and establishment, I've talked to you personally about many different issues in relation to this bill. I know you, quite frankly, and I'll look at you, to be someone who, quite frankly, supports this bill because I know who you are, I know what you're about and your place of business and your home and your friendships and your family. I know you do not discriminate against. I know, quite frankly, Ben, that you believe this bill is right. And what I'm asking you today is to please put the personality politics aside; we can fight those battles later. And please, Mr. Woods, support this legislation.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, sometimes in the erroneous belief of certain acts fit a category which require civil or constitutional protection, many fair-minded individuals will support a cause. On the surface it may appear to be the right thing to do.

I was one of those individuals who did not want to be against what appeared to be a protection of civil or constitutional rights. As a Black in America, I certainly understand fully the need for these protections, perhaps more than anyone else at this table.

The advocates of the bill equate their contention for a need for human rights with the acceptance of "Mom and apple pie". And who would be against these? It is the right, democratic and American thing to do.

However, after the public hearing and after an outcry from my constituents, I personally began to delve beyond the surface of the issue. And if you will permit me, I shall develop my own thoughts so that the public and my colleagues on this Council, both pro and con the legislation, may understand fully my reasoning.

The democratic form of government is based on the consent of the governed, which is true represented government. This consent is expressed in this constitutions, elections and also in public opinion. And those of us who wield power through legislation, as we City Councilmembers do, must be aware that all our power must be responsible and limited. Responsible, in that we must be certain that the legislation is appropriate, does not infringe on or diminish another's rights, and is needed. Limited, in that the legislation must be within the criteria established in the Constitution and within the jurisdiction of the Pittsburgh City Council.

I contend, after deliberate study, that the legislation is inappropriate, will infringe on others' rights, and is not needed. Further, as I explained last week, Pennsylvania law prevents Pittsburgh City Council from adding new protected classes to the human rights laws.

Within the Constitution there are special safeguards for individual rights, and these safeguards are guaranteed equally for every individual. They are not guaranteed for behavior or lifestyles but for individuals. No bigamist or polygamist who practices two lifestyles not accepted by the moral standards of our society is protected. But as individuals, their constitutional rights are safeguarded and protected.

May I remind some of my colleagues also that dissent, whether by the minority or majority, is tolerated and even encouraged in the democracy for only through honest and responsible dissent is truth found.

Now this lesson in democracy and democratic action should not have been necessary in a legislative body where all of us work within the system at the consent of the governed.

It is unfortunate that I find it necessary to do so because of the specific actions and remarks of one of my colleagues, Councilman Pollock, who sponsored this gay rights legislation, as amended, because he professes to be fighting for human rights.

Yet, Mr. Pollock publicly demonstrated his displeasure with dissent by labeling those responsibly against the bill as being against human rights. There is nothing further from the truth. But his inflammatory language and aggressive gestures by hammering on the table is not conducive to good judgment nor appropriate behavior for a legislator of this City.

I personally have been the object of his displeasure. Mr. Pollock, according to the Press, stated that I was being used by my constituents, at whose consent I am permitted to govern; and that my constituents will not vote for a Black man. This statement was made publicly by a man who professes to fight for human rights and then demonstrates his own prejudices and attempts to attribute them to my constituents. I shall not permit this now or in the future.

Also because of my respect for those whom I represent, the advocates of this bill sent people door to door to get signatures in favor of the bill. Some people did not realize fully what was being signed. Others were not even registered to vote. And others, fully informed, refused when my name was mentioned.

This effort to manipulate public opinion will not work. My constituents, for or against any legislation, contact my office or me personally with their opinion. I shall not be swayed by false numbers to vote for a bill which is not only flawed legally in the original, but which was made even more confusing and questionable by placing every sexual orientation label in the amended version.

Again, let me repeat that matters of one's private behavior in one's bedroom cannot be legislated. Attitudes cannot be legislated. Nor shall we legislate what appropriately should be private behavior, and make it public, thereby legitimizing that which is contrary to the moral standards of this extremely conservative city.

I personally shall fight for anyone whose rights are being violated by government officials, by police officers or by any groups of citizens. This I promise each of you, those citizens for and against the bill. But I shall not bend to legislate that which has no constitutional protection.

The argument that the legislators of two cities in Pennsylvania enact gay rights laws, therefore, Pittsburgh should pass a similar bill is faulty logic. I strongly believe that the legislation is illegal. In Pittsburgh, I shall vote for those laws which I sincerely feel are appropriate, constitutional and necessary.

Mr. Chairman, I thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

I have the flu and I have a fever of about 101. I thought I'd have to come in with paramedics today, but there was no way that I wasn't going to be here.

Mr. Lyons, would you care to share with us the source of your statement which you stumbled over in trying to read, because, obviously, it wasn't prepared by yourself, as Mark's was prepared by himself.

The Chair:

I would like to remind my colleagues that we're going to keep this on a professional basis. No one has attacked you --

Michelle Madoff:

I'm not attacking him.

The Chair:

Then don't question his source of information.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll continue. I think Mr. Pollock gave one of the most eloquent presentations in support of his legislation than anyone could give. And I'm going to be very brief because I don't think I could add very much to what he said except to reinforce it.

This bill is not an endorsement of lifestyle any more than the Human Relation Commission endorses any religion or lifestyle. This bill simply stated addresses the fact that a segment of our population, a segment of voters, is not presently covered and is only aimed at providing protection against discrimination. If we condone any form of discrimination, we permit the rights of all to erode.

It is so transparent that those voting against this legislation are indeed voting as they perceive their political interest to be.

Who says there is no discrimination, when a member of this City Council wants to know if the City hires queers? Martin Luther King must be turning over in his grave when a Black man on this Council votes for discrimination in any form.

And later, we're going to hear about what happened today in our board room, back room - I'm not allowed to refer to it as backroom politics - how a woman was blatantly discriminated against in a vote for replacement in our Budget Office. It starts with the same people who are voting against this bill and I think it just never ends. We've got to stop discrimination.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, Bill No. 1302 has been talked about for some time. Obviously, it has become an extremely emotional issue. In government, the emotional issues are many times the most difficult issues and many time people say, and they're probably accurate, that it relates to politics to some degree in that you can't win or you can't lose on an emotional issue. It's either/or and sometimes you don't know which. Therefore, this issue has become, I think, a very controversial issue in the public eye and also here on this Council.

I've tried to study this issue from what I perceive to be, when I first heard of it, and maybe when all of you first heard of it, and I must say that when I first came on Council four and a half years ago I was approached by two representatives from the homosexual community and asked to submit a bill of this type. I said at that time that I would not. However, I said that if another Councilmember were to submit it, I would look at it and I could not tell them at that time how I would vote on that piece of legislation until I were to see it in front of me.

Well, obviously, about four years went by until discussion of this bill became public. The first time discussion of the bill occurred was recently after Valentine's Day of this year. There was a raid on the Traveler's Club, a homosexual gay club, on February 14, 1988. A public hearing occurred shortly after, actually the exact date was April 12, 1988, in regard to that raid by our Public Official's Police and Fire Bureau and also LCB personnel. We sat through a lengthy hearing, and I have the testimony in front of me, and it was a very emotional hearing. At the hearing many people indicated that the club was unjustly raided and the people in the club were not treated fairly. I went and I investigated the information that was provided at the hearing and I found out that it was the 87th bar or club that was raided by our Public Safety personnel. I found out yes, it was raided that day, and it was raided at 5:00 in the morning. The reason for the raid was complaints about the club. The raid determined that the club was operating at 5:00 in the morning, two hours after legal closing time, and also other discrepancies in the club such as exit doors that were blocked and locked. Now, at that hearing, Councilman Pollock and several other Councilmembers talked about the need for this legislation and that was the first time I heard this legislation talked about in the public forum.

I should say that since that time there has been no charges brought against any member of the Police or the Fire Bureau to the Office of Professional Responsibility by anyone as a result of that raid. It's important to state that because that has not been on public record. There was also a court case filed to get an injunction to prevent further raids at the club. The courts did not grant that.

As time moves on, the hearing was April 12th, this Council, every Councilmember, the present members of Council, received from Councilman Pollock the following day a letter suggesting the elimination of the Human Relations Commission within City government. Following that, on June 1, 1988, the Human Relations Commission took a vote to amend the City Human Relations Ordinance, and it passed unanimously, I must state, and we have the Chairperson of the Human Relations Commission with us today. That was back in early June.

Now, this legislation was talked about, Councilman Pollock, going back I think to July when it became a public issue. I never commented on the legislation because I had not seen the legislation and it was never submitted to this Council until after Labor Day in September. It was submitted in early September and since that time there has been much discussion, obviously, on this legislation. Obviously, we had a six hour public hearing that was talked about. I think every Councilmember has been inundated with phone calls, with letters; every time you go out into the public someone is talking with you about this legislation.

After receiving the legislation, the first thing I did, and my staff, was that we took a look at what was proposed to be amended. We all have the bill in front of us. And I went to Article 5, Discrimination, in the Pittsburgh Code, and I looked at what Mr. Pollock was suggesting should be amended. In that, under Legislative Findings, for the sake of the public, the change in the legislation was actually very simple; simply adding the words "sexual orientation" in there with other classes such as "race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, place of birth, and sex," and right after that, "sexual orientation". That word was added, and then that word and the definition fits into other sections of the Code to include it. That is the bill in front of us today. And basically, what the bill talks about is including sexual orientation in employment, in housing, and public accommodation.

So, I looked at the Code and I said, what is employment? How does the Code define employment? I'm going to read it. Under C: "Discrimination in employment prevents the gainful employment of large segments of the City, tends to impair the City's productive capacity, reduces the public revenues, imposes substantial financial burdens upon the public for relief and welfare, intends to create breaches of the peace and depressed living conditions which breed crime, vice, juvenile delinquency and disease, and is detrimental to the public's safety, economic growth and general welfare of the City of Pittsburgh." We are suggesting to amend, under employment, sexual orientation, according to that definition that I just read.

In reading that definition, in laymen's terms I keep thinking, in employment, and I said it last week in a news release and I'm saying it again, what I looked at was, try to determine based on all public information. Is there unemployment or underemployment in the City of Pittsburgh with homosexuals at a rate equal to or greater than the general population. I asked that question before and I'm asking it again. The unemployment rate in this City is 5.5 percent for the general population. For other segments of the population, many of which are part of this Code already, it is higher. For Blacks it's 10 percent. For women in underemployment, I'm sure it's much higher than men. For certain other races also, it's much higher.

I ask the question today, which I asked before, is unemployment or underemployment for homosexuals greater than the general population. That question has never been answered because it is not. That's the reason why it has not been answered.

As you continue to read through the Code, you look at definitions for discrimination in housing, and also definitions for discrimination in public accommodation. I'm not going to read those because they're rather lengthy. But I do know that I have had excessive numbers of people contact our office in support of this legislation. Repeatedly we asked where they live and they say they live in the City of Pittsburgh. If they live in the City of Pittsburgh, they're finding housing in the City of Pittsburgh. They say they're work in the City of Pittsburgh; they're employed in the City of Pittsburgh. But it all goes back to the basic question, is there unemployment or underemployment at a rate greater than the general population. The sponsor of the bill and others have not been able to prove that.

It has been said, I'm sure about me, that questioning the legality of the bill is a sham and those questioning it are worming out; that was the term used. The reason why I brought up the other issue first, I wanted to state that was the major issue in terms of my evaluation on how I voted on this bill. On each and every piece of legislation that comes in front of this Council, this Council is committed to look at the legality of the legislation. It should look at the legality of the legislation and Mr. Pollock is right; sometimes this Council has passed legislation that may not be legal. But still we should look at the legality of the legislation. And I did. And I called the Solicitor of the Human Relations Commission and I spoke with our City Solicitor. The Solicitor of the Human Relations Commission was never formally asked by the Commission for a formal legal opinion. And it was stated by the Chairperson, Alma Speed Fox, that there are questions about. But this Council has an obligation at least to ask our own Solicitor about the legality of this legislation. I did, and I showed him an earlier statement about a similar type of proposed ordinance going back five years ago. In his opinion, the City of Pittsburgh cannot supersede State legislation. That was his opinion. However, the sponsor of the bill has never asked for a legal opinion on the bill because everyone is afraid to get a legal opinion on the bill. I still say today that a legal opinion should have been sought immediately when this legislation was submitted. And I know many members of this Council have said we should have our own legal advisor; that's 100 percent accurate because every bill that is submitted by every Councilmember should have a legal opinion. And that should go out prior to us voting on any bill that we vote on in this Council.

I recently submitted a bill, a very simple bill, relating to whether or not the Mayor can hold the position of Mayor and Councilmember at the same time. The sponsor of this bill tore my bill apart on legalities, but yet refuses to get a legal opinion on this piece of legislation. And all that could do, if the legal opinion was in favor of the legislation, would be to support the legislation. So, I think, in good conscience, a legal opinion should have been suggested; it should have been asked for by the Solicitor and it should have come.

I stated earlier that in good conscience I can't support this legislation. I still feel that today. I feel I have made the right decision for a couple of reasons and I have attempted, to the greatest degree possible, to keep emotionalism out of this issue because it is such an emotional issue. I voted no last Wednesday on the bill; I'm voting no today. Thank you.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, certain civil libertarians excuse certain crimes on the grounds that they may have been brought on by discrimination. The raid on the Traveler's Club comes to my mind. Such was the cry, especially from the civil libertarians, that this raid was made because they were gay, not that they were out there until five in the morning exceeding the law by two hours as far as drinking was concerned, not that minors were drinking and whatever else was going on, but they were discriminated against and that's why they were raided. The also said that many of them were beat up, many of them harrassed. The only report, and I think my colleague brought most of it out but he didn't mention the only report that was made of an injury that was made that night. The only person that was injured in that whole raid was a policeman who was thrown down the steps and broke his arm. That's the only report that was made.

I'll make one other point and then I'll keep quiet and I hope we vote on this issue and get it over with one way or the other. I come from the Panther Hollow section of Oakland. I don't know how familiar you people are with Panther Hollow; Panther Hollow is probably the lowest point of elevation in the City of Pittsburgh. It's down below the old ballpark, old Forbes Field. It started around Bates Street and Bouquet and on down into the Hollow and it runs half way to Greenfield. During the Depression, the early '30s, it was one of the poorest sections in the City of Pittsburgh. Outside of three or four Jewish families who lived in that area, all the rest were Italo-Americans. Not one person from that area, in the height of that Depression, and believe me, no one had it tougher, ever went to jail. And believe me, they were discriminated against. If I told you some of the stories of discrimination, you wouldn't believe them. But we overcame that discrimination because we had a cause and a reason to. If somebody wants to look the records up, anybody in this room, no one in the '30s, in the Depression, went to jail from the Panther Hollow area and, I repeat, no one was more discriminated against than those people.

Mr. Pollock:

I just have a brief comment. To Mr. Wagner I can only say, "There you go again." I think that it should be said that Mr. Wagner can run but he can't hide. He asked about questions about this bill that weren't answered. He asked about discrimination that wasn't shown to him. And yet, despite repeated requests over the past few weeks, he has refused to sit down and meet with representatives of the gay community. Not once did he allow them in his office to answer any questions he might have, for them to support this legislation. What kind of openmindedness is that, to not even allow them to speak to you? So he can run but he can't hide. What we heard was lies and deceit and sham and fraud and obscenities.

This bill has nothing to do with the raid on the Traveler's Club. My request to the Human Relations Commission came before the raid on the Traveler's Club. The raid on the Traveler's Club was just another thing that occurred after I had already started this ball in motion.

It is said that eyes are the windows to the soul. And when the many people who testified in support of this bill, when the people of Pittsburgh with compassion and conscience look into the eyes of Mr. Wagner and other opponents, they will know exactly what they are looking at and all of the words in the world won't change that.

Call for the question.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. Woods, may I comment?

The Chair:

Go ahead, but this is the last comment.

Mr. Pollock:

You've always said that the proponent of the bill speaks last.

The Chair:

Go ahead, Mr. Wagner.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to respond. Mr. Pollock has had the floor twice and I'll take the floor twice.

Unfortunately, the sponsor of this bill, not only with this bill but every bill, tries to be personal on bills. I have tried repeatedly not to be personal on a piece of legislation, but my colleague has called the people that oppose this bill bigots, liars and has used other terminology of which I'm not going to use. That's very unfortunate. You've not only done it with Councilmembers but also members of the public and even members of the clergy. I have listened to it on the radio, I have watched it on TV, and I am hearing it again.

Now, you can sit there and you can tell lies, but you're not going to tell them to me and let me not comment on them. We have taken every single phone call that has come to our office. We have not met with every group and every individual, that's right, because if we did it would take literally months upon months to meet with them. But we've taken every call, we have read every letter and every piece of literature that comes to this Council on this issue. Unfortunately, Mr. Pollock, you continually try to dispute the truth and you've done it repeatedly on this issue, repeatedly, time after time after time. And I have asked you for basic information on the issue, and you don't have it. It's that simple. You don't have any supporting information. And that's very unfortunate and it's very unfortunate that you continually try to be personal on an issue and you don't stay on the issue.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|           |                 |
|-----------|-----------------|
| Mr. Coyne | Michelle Madoff |
| Mr. Ferlo | Mr. Pollock     |

AYES 4                      NOES 4

VOTING NO:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Lyons      | Mr. Woods        |
|                | (Pres't Pro tem) |

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the bill was defeated.

The Chair:

Due to the outburst of the crowd, this meeting is adjourned.

| Mr. Ferlo      | Mr. Woods        |
| Mr. Lyons      | (Pres't Pro tem) |

ABSENT:

Michelle Madoff

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

Mr. DePasquale, would you present this, please?

Mr. DePasquale:

If I may, would Dr. John Raves, Patty Howman, Scott Diederek and George Underwood come up to the front, please?

The Chair presents

No. 1519 WHEREAS, on September 22, 1988 Allegheny General Hospital celebrated its tenth anniversary of the Life Flight Program; and

WHEREAS, The Life Flight has flown more than 14,000 missions and logged nearly 2 million lifesaving miles over the past ten years; and

WHEREAS, currently, the Life Flight averages 183 patients each month, transporting critically ill or injured persons for approximately 205 hospitals, hundreds of ambulance services and industrial sites in a 130 mile radius; and

WHEREAS, Life Flight saves trauma, burn, stroke, heart, and OB/GYN patients every year who would not have survived without the expertise of the synchronized team of specialists who are available at the hospital 24 hours a day, seven days a week; and

WHEREAS, the dedicated personnel of Life Flight include physicians, nurses, pilots, mechanics, and dispatchers; and

WHEREAS, on October 21, 1988, Allegheny General Hospital will hold its staff appreciation day.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council extends congratulations to Allegheny General Hospital on its Life Flight Program's ten year anniversary and further commends all staff members at Allegheny General Hospital and acknowledges the experience and dedication of these individuals who devote their lives to saving the lives of others.

Mr. DePasquale moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale:

If I may, we have three representatives here today who will speak about this wonderful program; they can tell you more about it, certainly, than I can. All I know is that it's a great program and it's working, but the ins and outs will have to be told to you by the people here today.

Dr. Raves, for some reason or another, just couldn't make it or he would have been here. But Patty Howman, Supervisor of Flight Nurses, is here; Scott Diederek, Operations Coordinator; and George Underwood, Pilot, are here.

Mr. Diederek:

Thank you very much. We appreciate the recognition. On behalf of the entire Life Flight team and Allegheny General and Dr. Raves, unfortunately, could not be here today, patients tend to get in the way of the physicians, we appreciate the recognition. We'll carry your good words back to all of our team members and, members of Council, we thank you very much.

The Chair:

Thank you very much.

Mr. Ferlo:

If we could call up Leslie Reicher from the Eastside Alliance as well as Carolyn Hook and Rose Wonizak.

This resolution, members of Council, is being submitted by myself and my colleague, Mr. Lyons, and Mr. Pollock also.

Mr. Ferlo, Mr. Lyons and Mr. Pollock present

No. 1520 WHEREAS, the "Eastside" is a new destination marking the cooperative spirit between Bloomfield, Garfield, Lawrenceville and Polish Hill; and

WHEREAS, the Eastside Alliance is a coalition of the following 19 organizations: Bloomfield Garfield Corporation, Bloomfield Lawrenceville Lions Club, Bloomfield Lawrenceville Lioness Club, Friendship Baptist Church, Garfield Jubilee Association, Lawrenceville Business Association, Lawrenceville Bloomfield Garfield Ministerial Association, Lawrenceville Bloomfield Meals on Wheels, Lawrenceville Citizens Council, Lawrenceville Development Corporation, Lawrenceville Historical Society, Penn Merchants Triangle, Polish Hill Civic Association, St. Augustine Church, St. Francis Health System, St. Mark A.M.E. Zion Church, St. Mary's Church, Trinity

Baptist Church, West Penn Hospital; and

WHEREAS, these neighborhoods are working together to keep their communities vibrant places for young and old to live and work; and

WHEREAS, the Eastside Alliance was formed with initial support from St. Francis Hospital and West Penn Hospital and was created because each neighborhood could be stronger if they worked together; and

WHEREAS, the Eastside Alliance will work on such concerns as housing, employment, and health care; and

WHEREAS, the Eastside Alliance is currently working on such projects as helping homeowners keep their properties attractive, using City loan programs for needed repairs, trying to link residents with jobs right in their own backyards, and helping to keep older residents in the neighborhoods.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh declares the week of October 17-24, 1988 as "Eastside Week"; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh commends Eastsider of the Year Ann Davis and these 16 Volunteers of the Year: Mary Clancy, Theresa Finizio, Lion Emil Lucente, Joanne Monroe, Tony Finizio, Tom Staresinic, Carolyn Hook, Garry Pyles, Joe Paski, Frank Novasel, Lena Hotujec, Adolf Schwarz, Georgia Sanders, Catherine Owens, Willie Pearl Williams, and Ruth Say. All awardees will be honored at the Eastside Alliance dinner on October 21st.

Mr. Ferlo moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Ms. Riker:

On behalf of all of our organizations, West Penn and St. Francis Hospital, and for all the volunteers that are going to be honored this Friday night, I'd like to thank all of you for this.

Ms. Hook:

I'd just like to say that we have a symbol of that cooperative spirit in the Eastside Alliance. Rose Wonizak who is our President, and Gene Galiardi who represents the Lawrenceville Development Corporation in the Eastside Alliance, just got engaged to be married and they met each other through the Eastside Alliance. So, if we can forge partnerships like that, we're going to knock things out.

The Chair:

Thank you very much for coming.

Mr. Ferlo:

For this next resolution I'd like to invite up here Bob Raybar, President, Doug Goodwin, Stacy Salamer, who are with the Jaycees.

Mr. Ferlo presents

No. 1521 WHEREAS, the Greater Pittsburgh Jaycees are a chapter of the Pennsylvania Jaycees who have been serving our community through their fund raising efforts on behalf of local charities and their leadership development programs, and

WHEREAS, the United States Jaycees believe in developing the whole member through the total Jaycee concept to provide the leaders of tomorrow, and

WHEREAS, the United States Jaycees recognize that the future of our communities lies in the hands of our young adults, and

WHEREAS, the Greater Pittsburgh Jaycees has a lasting commitment to its neighbors in the City and will continue offering quality Individual Development programs to men and women between the ages of 21 and 39, and

WHEREAS, the Jaycees provide leadership and community service opportunities to its members in all 50 states and nearly 100 countries worldwide, and

WHEREAS, Pittsburgh has been chosen by the United States Jaycees as the pilot city in an innovative corporate recruiting drive, inviting more young men and women to participate in the Jaycee concept.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of the City of Pittsburgh that the week of October 17th shall mark the beginning of the Pittsburgh Jaycees Corporate Recruiting Drive and that the Council extends a welcome to the state and national officers of the United States Jaycees.

Mr. Ferlo moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Raybar:

Thank you, Councilman Ferlo, and thank you other members of Council for recognizing our efforts here in the City of Pittsburgh.

Through the involvement of young adults in our communities and residents of our neighborhoods we can further our objectives and guarantee the future of our city.

We are your neighbors and we'd like to extend an invitation to the residents who are between the ages of 21 and 39 to join us in our efforts to make our community the best place to live. Thank you.

Mr. Ferlo:

Members of Council, I want you to know also that Bob, when he's not doing his volunteer work with the Jaycees is one of our paramedics in the City. Thank you.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I'd like the City Clerk to read this next resolution and, rather than discuss it now, I think there will be some comments at the end of the meeting by Mr. Coyne and Mr. Wagner.

Mr. Ferlo presents

No. 1522 WHEREAS, local governments, including counties, cities, boroughs, towns, townships, and school districts, are facing increasing fiscal pressure from all sides; and

WHEREAS, local tax bases are continuing to erode; and

WHEREAS, the current local tax system offers no opportunities to address these problems; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of the potential financial crisis facing the various political subdivisions of the Commonwealth, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the Honorable Robert P. Casey, has called a special and extra-ordinary session of the General Assembly to consider comprehensive local tax reform legislation; and

WHEREAS, both chambers of the General Assembly have passed local tax reform legislation which is soon to be presented to a House/Senate Conference Committee; and

WHEREAS, the Special Session will adjourn at the end of the day, November 30, 1988.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby call upon the members of the General Assembly to pass on or before November 30, 1988 legislation addressing the following objectives of comprehensive local tax reform; as originally expressed by the Pennsylvania Local Government Conference:

- Increase the fairness and equity of the current property tax system;
- Increase the flexibility and equity of the local tax structure in recognition of diverse local conditions;
- Provide alternatives to nuisance taxes, and in particular the occupation assessment tax;
- Provide a means for local government to recover from significant decreases in federal funding;
- Address the inadequacy of the local tax base in distressed local government.

Mr. Ferlo moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Coyne presents

No. 1468 Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of Reynolds Polymer Technology, Inc. in the amount of $11,400.00 in partial payment of an emergency contract for the design and construction of a Coral Reef at the Aqua Zoo; and providing for the payment thereof. Charging the same to Code Account EC 88-30, 4-13-60-1240-88, Index Code #353656.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Coyne moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

No. 1469 Resolution providing for a contract or contracts, or use of existing contracts, for Renovation of various Senior Citizen Centers and Recreation centers, including but not limited to vandalism damage at Cowley Goettman; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof, chargeable to and payable from Code Account EC 86-66, 4-13-74-1748-86, Index Code #323188, at a cost not to exceed $50,000.00.

Also,

No. 1470 Communication from Paul McDermott, Director, Department of Engineering and Construction, requesting authorization for himself to meet with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C., October 17-19, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $400.00, payable from Code Account No. 1482, Misc. Services. Permission is also requested for use of a City vehicle. Prior approval granted by Council October 7, 1988.

Also,

No. 1471 Communication from Paul McDermott, Director, Department of Engineering and Construction, requesting authorization for Joseph Tumas and Joseph Semieraro to have a final viewing of the fabrication and assembly of the new Bridge Inspection Truck, Duluth, Minnesota prior to delivery, October 11-13, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $225.00, payable from Code Account No. 1482, Misc. Services. Prior approval granted by Council October 6, 1988.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Engineering and Construction.

Mr. DePasquale presents

No. 1472 Resolution transferring the aggregate amount of six-hundred and ninety thousand dollars ($690,000) from various Departments of Public Safety Code Accounts, Code Account 49, and Code Account 41, Department of Finance, to Code Account 1443-3, Premium Pay, Bureau of Police.

Also,

No. 1473 Resolution transferring the aggregate amount of nine-hundred and forty-five thousand dollars ($945,000) within various Department of Public Safety Code Accounts, Code Account 49, Code Account 41, Code Account 53, and Code Account 1608.

Also,

No. 1474 Resolution transferring

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The Chair presents

No. 1506 Communication from Sophie Masloff, Mayor, City of Pittsburgh, returning with her veto Council Bill No. 454, authorizing the City Treasurer to allow a "check-off" box allowing for donations to the Emergency Food Trust Fund.

Which was read, received and filed.

(MAYOR'S VETO LETTER)

October 17, 1988

Honorable President and Members
City Council
City of Pittsburgh

RE: Council Bill 454

Dear Mr. President and Members:

I am returning as vetoed Council Bill 454 which authorizes the City Treasurer to allow a "check-off" box allowing for donations to the Emergency Food Trust Fund.

I am vetoing this legislation because the bill is illegal under the Local Tax Enabling Act in that it does not authorize using tax returns other than for tax purposes. (Opinion attached). The Director of the Department of Finance has informed me that the administrative consequences on his Department would be severe. In any event, the 1988 Pittsburgh Form 40 is already at the printer.

While the subject of this Bill has a strong emotional pull, it does not justify the City to use its tax form for a purpose not authorized by law.

Accordingly, I am returning Council Bill 454 as vetoed.

Very truly yours,

Sophie Masloff
Mayor

(END OF LETTER)

(LEGAL OPINION)

June 10, 1988

Honorable President and Members
City Council
City of Pittsburgh

RE: Council Bills 453, 454 and 456

Dear President and Members:

You have requested an opinion as to the legality of Council Bills No. 453, No. 454 and No. 456, which provide for a "check-off box" for the Pittsburgh Form 40, and also for the preparation of a report on the state of the poor.

Initially, in regard to the proposed "check-off box" for the Pittsburgh Form 40, Section 13 of the Local Tax Enabling Act, Act of December 31, 1965, P.L.

1257, No. 511, 53 P.S. Subsection 6913, authorizes local earned income tax officers (Treasurer) to prescribe and approve a form for use as a final earned income tax return" . . . showing the amount of earned income received during the period beginning January 1, of the current year, and ending December 31, of the current year, the total amount of the tax due thereon, the amount of tax paid thereon, the amount of tax thereon that has been withheld pursuant to the provisions relating to the collection at source and the balance of tax due."

In regard to the interpretation of tax statutes such as the Local Tax Enabling Act, Section 1928(b)(3) of the Statutory Construction Act of 1972, Act of December 6, 1972, P.L. 1339, No. 290, Subsection 3, 1 Pa.C.S. Subsection 1928(b)(3), requires that provisions of statutes which impose taxes, be strictly construed. Thus, it has been consistently held in various appellate court decisions that in cases of doubt, any ambiguity concerning a municipality's power to enact a specific provision must be resolved against the local taxing authority.

Since Section 13 of the Local Tax Enabling Act specifies the kinds of information which the Treasurer may request and does not authorize the inclusion of a "check-off box" such as that identified within Council Bills No. 453 and No. 454, it is the opinion of the Law Department that Council does not have the authority to require that such an item be incorporated as part of the Pittsburgh Form 40. In 1982 this Department issued a similar opinion in response to a request concerning the legality of a "check-off box" for a jobs program.

Also, refunds of taxes, license fees, penalties, fines and other monies are governed by 72 P.S. Subsections 5566b, 5566c, commonly known and referred to as the Refund Enabling Act. Said Act authorizes local municipalities to make refunds out of budget appropriations of public funds upon the timely filing of a written and verified claim, but does not authorize political subdivisions to direct payment of such refunds to third persons at the designation of the persons actually entitled to the refunds.

Finally, in regard to Council Bill No. 456, concerning preparation of a "State of the Poor Report", Article 9, Section 9 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania requires that all appropriations of funds by a municipality be for public purposes only. Since Bill No. 456 merely authorizes the preparation of a year-end report for 1988 and does not provide for a gift or donation of public monies, it is the opinion of the Law Department that Bill No. 456 does not violate Article 9, Section 9 of the Pennsylvania Constitution. However, Article 9, Section 9 does prohibit the City from making a contribution of public funds to the Pittsburgh Foundation.

Very truly yours.

D.R. Pellegrini
City Solicitor

(END OF OPINION)

Mr. Ferlo moved to override the veto.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Just very briefly, Mr. Chairman, I'm disappointed at the veto and I'd like to just very quickly state why I think we should override it. The earliest we could possibly do this at this rate, since the Administration has already, if we take them by their information presented to Council, they've already printed their 1988 tax form, it would be the 1989 year. The legal opinion was incomplete, as indicated by the Solicitor. The most you could say about the State statute, and I read it five times, is that we have the power to have the Treasurer in the City design the form for the collection of taxes. Nowhere in any of the acts does it even address, either by excluding or not including the idea of a voluntary check-off for such a thing as a Hunger Trust Fund, in this case, Emergency Food Fund. And I will remind Council that of some 5,000 returns, that about $600,000 gets mailed back out and I think it's a very creative and very clearly an attempt at trying to receive some voluntary contributions from the taxpayers.

Mr. DePasquale:

I just want a question answered. This check-off system is strictly a volunteer contribution by the employees?

The Chair:

Just like you have on your federal, if you want to check it off to give a dollar donation, whatever it is, to a political —

Mr. DePasquale:

In other words, if an employee states he'd like to give $2.00 a pay to the hunger program —

The Chair:

It's not for employees; it's for when you file your wage tax forms with the City of Pittsburgh. If you have money coming back, you can check off to give this fund $1.00, $2.00, whatever it is. It's completely voluntary. It's from taxpayers and/or City employees, but not out of your paycheck, out of any money you have coming back from the City from your wage tax.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. Chairman, I just wanted to point out for the public and maybe some other Councilmembers that the Local Tax Enabling Act has to do with the collection of taxes. This in no way should be perceived as a tax; what it is is a voluntary contribution and Mr. Pellegrini, in his memo to us, says that all refunds, taxes, licenses, fees, penalties, fines and other monies are governed by the Refund Enabling Act. Well, since this can't go in effect immediately, I think Councilman Ferlo had a good point when he and I discussed it earlier, and that was that we can work with the State House, if there did seem to be a legal hitch with this, to modify the Enabling Act so that there could be a box to check off.

Mr. Pollock:

I think in light of last week's discussion regarding the legality of bills, I don't see how some members of Council could possibly vote in favor of overriding the veto when we have an opinion so clearly set forth by the Solicitor. I know how compliant some members of Council are with legal opinions and I don't see how anyone could override.

The Chair:

I would just urge you to vote to override also. I think it's a very unique way in trying to help some of the organizations to do some of the things that this Council wants to do without taking money out of our general fund constantly. I commend Mr. Ferlo on his efforts.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, I think we ought to clear the air in regards to how we voted last week and why. My vote was not based on a legal opinion. My vote was based, as they said earlier, on moral and other principles.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |

Mr. Ferlo:

On Bill 1450, I'd like to have my comments brought forward from the meeting. I think it's important to pass this legislation because it does provide a unique mechanism by which in the future we would receive revenues from the Port Authority for some of the busway streets that we have been maintaining and, from a safety point of view, the relaying of concrete cement pads along the busway instead of the asphalt will increase the safety concerns that have been addressed besides the revenue generated.

The one thing that this bill might want to consider in the future, we could always amend it, is having an inflationary measure in it so that in the future, instead of it being a $6.00 a foot figure, there would be an increase for the rate of inflation. So, we'll worry about that in the future, since I don't have a written amendment.

(BEGINNING - MR. FERLO'S
COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1450 -
WEDNESDAY, 10/12/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I would like to commend Director Gaetano on these two bills. Specifically as a result of this legislation we would be able to receive revenues from the Port Authority, a separate governmental agency, for work that we have been performing in the past. In the future our City will benefit and receive income as a result of repairs made to the City streets that run alongside the bus ways. I would commend the Director at this time for this innovative attempt in negotiating an agreement with the Port Authority to receive additional revenues.

(END OF REMARKS)

Also,

Bill No. 1451

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 154, effective March 21, 1988, entitled: 'Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts, or the use of existing Contracts, for improvements to the Three Rivers Stadium Parking Lot and other work incidental thereto, and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by increasing the total allocation by $400,000.00."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1452

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 141 approved March 11, 1988 entitled: 'Providing for a Contract or Contracts or use of existing Contracts for the renovation or repair of concrete streets, various areas throughout the City.'"

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Mr. Pollock      |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Ferlo      | Mr. Woods        |
| Mr. Lyons      | (Pres't Pro tem) |

AYES 7

NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Mr. Lyons presented

Bill No. 1511

Report of the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development for October 5, 1988 transmitting two resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1349

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing Urban Redevelopment Authority to acquire all of the City's right, title, and interest, if any, in and to the publicly-owned property in the 18th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh being designated in the Deed Registry Office of Allegheny County as Block 4-C Lot 94 and Block 4-G Lots 249, 254, and 256, under the Neighborhood Housing Fund."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1352

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution approving execution of a Contract for Disposition of Land by and between the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh and Gildas A. Kaib, Jr. for the sale of Block 4-C Lot 94 and Block 4-G Lots 249, 254, and 256, in the 18th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh (SINGLE-FAMILY HOUSE)."

Which was read.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. President, I move that Bills 1349 and 1352 be recommitted.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Mr. Wagner:

Discussion. Mr. President and members of Council, I think the intent, and all due respect to my colleague, Mr. Lyons, to hold the bill or put it back into Committee, I'm not sure if it's to give the other proposed developer or person interested in the property an opportunity to come forth with another proposal, as we are aware, there is one on the table with these two pieces of legislation, or simply to have additional dialogue on the legislation. Whichever it may be, I personally think we have a legitimate proposal in front of us and I think we should move forward with it.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. Chairman, in deference to the Chairman of the Committee, I will vote to recommit it. However, for the Record, I'd like to reiterate that both the Director of Planning and the Director of the URA have both said that this fellow has already submitted his plans, has in good faith dealt with the City, and that the sale of this property would not preclude or interfere in any way with any proposal to put a hotel or any other sort of complex up there. So, the reason why I will vote to hold it is to defer to Mr. Lyons, who is the Chairman. However, I see no problem with selling this property.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I abstained on the bill at the Committee level and I am equally concerned about two issues which I addressed; one is the process, which I think is broken down, and secondly, I think clearly Council has not gotten a full picture on all of the development proposals, whether they're conflicting or not, for this particular site. And until such time that I get a full picture, I do not feel comfortable in voting in the affirmative on this bill. So, I would also support my colleague, Mr. Lyons, on recommitting it.

Mr. DePasquale:

I'll go along with Mr. Lyons' recommitment, but I have to agree with Councilman Wagner in regards to us voting this up or down today. But I will go for the recommitment.

The Chair:

All those in favor? Opposed?

Mr. Wagner:

Opposed.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Also,

Bill No. 1512

Report of the Committee on Planning,
Housing and Development for October 12, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative
recommendation,

Bill No. 1331

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Cooperation Agreement or Agreements with the Housing Authority of the City of Pittsburgh for the administration and implementation of the 'Rehabilitation and Modernization of Housing for Low and Moderate Income Persons' program (HA-88-01) at a cost not to exceed $1,620,000.00."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I would like my comments brought forward on Bill 1331 in relation to the $1.6 million appropriation to the Housing Authority.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

(MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1331 - Wednesday, 10/12/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

First of all, this is a very large sum of money, as Mr. Pietrogallo has indicated; $1,620,000.00. In the information supplied by the Authority, there are about seven items, I believe, and I believe we have a list, and you don't necessarily have to review each one of them. I was curious if you could just give us some additional information on Point 3 of the conversion of efficiency apartments, one bedroom units phased program. I think you know my continual concern on the issue of the waiting list, and I was wondering, does this in some way reflect new thinking in your Authority regarding the types of units you need, as opposed to some of the units that may be presently in place?

Mr. Pietragallo:

Councilman Ferlo, the grants that we received have been very helpful and beneficial to supplement the Housing Authority for expenditures, some expenditures that HUD would not approve. It permitted to us do things while we were going through modernizations and rehabilitation in these particular units. So we pretty much stayed with that particular guideline.

Now, I have Mr. Ernest Miller here who is the director of our modernization program who is involved in the specifics, and I would be happy to defer to him to answer specifically your question.

Mr. Ferlo:

My question is along the line of what reflects the waiting list the Housing Authority has? And being on the outside, one would think that the priority of the number of units would be for possibly single heads of households with one or more children. And is this money intended specifically for single units?

Mr. Pellegrini:

No.

Mr. Ferlo:

It says "conversion of efficiency."

Mr. Miller:

This particular line item which is part of our 1988 budget request goes to the point of converting efficiency apartment units currently in about six of our high-rise buildings. The Housing Authority recently has assessed the marketability of these particular units. What we find consistently, we find that it is very difficult to rent an efficiency apartment, even those efficiency apartments that are rented. Once there are larger units within a building available, the tenants, they then seek a transfer into these larger units. So rather than go through a continual situation of having housing units that are unused, what we seek to do through this particular line item, we seek to, where appropriate, use funding to convert efficiency units to address a market that we know is waiting and needed.

Mr. Ferlo:

So I am to understand, then, from what you are saying, is some of the units you may have are not really the most relevant to what the actual need is, and this money specifically attempts to change efficiencies to one or two bedroom apartments, I would assume?

Mr. Miller:

Correct.

Mr. Ferlo:

How many units would you be able to do with that money?

Mr. Miller:

This would be a phase program. We also show a similar line item in our 1989 budget. So the approach, of course, would be to convert the most marketable units first, and continue as monies are available.

Mr. Ferlo:

What is the $300,000.00 figure, Point 5 under "New Construction Relocation Subsidy," is that in relation to Allequippa Street?

Mr. Miller:

It is really not. The Housing Authority has a number of applications in to the federal government requesting funding to develop new housing. What we find, we find that the funds that are available through HUD for the purposes of developing new housing is really insufficient. But what we would like to do, we would like to use some CD dollars to leverage HUD dollars such that we continue to meet the housing demands.

Mr. Ferlo:

I guess what I am asking is where is this new construction that is talked about? Are you saying generally throughout the system?

Mr. Miller:

The pattern that we have taken across the years, we have taken a pattern when you get to a point of actually having funding available for new construction, then, of course, what you are doing is, for the most part, you are advertising for the housing development within census tract areas. So at this point we cannot say the housing would occur in one particular locale or one particular situation. The development of the housing would be consistent with the City's housing plan.

---

Mr. Ferlo:

In terms of this overall grant of $1.6 million, how does that relate to the City's process that we are more familiar with in terms of competitive bidding for this work, or who will perform these activities?

Mr. Washington:

Our procedure is basically the same as the City's, with the exception of the fact that the City has a higher bidding threshold than we do. We have to bid out everything that involves more than $4,000.00, and I think the City's threshold is higher than that.

But basically our procedure is the same as the City's; we advertise publicly, we have a rather extensive list of minority contractors that we send notices to, we advertise in the Dodge reports, have a public bid opening, and the bid is awarded to the lowest responsible bidder.

Mr. Ferlo:

Do you have any information you could supply to Council regarding the Authority's performance as it relates to minority contractors?

Mr. Washington:

Sure we do.

Mr. Ferlo:

The reason why I am specifically asking, and I wanted to share this memo with the Authority and members of Council -- Mr. Chairman, I do think that this does relate to the issue. My concern and the reason why I wanted to generally ask more questions about this very large appropriation has to do with the question of minority set aside. It would be my hope that if in one area that we could specifically reach an affirmative goal of 20 or 25 or 30 percent, it should at least be likely that in the Housing Authority community, given the composition of the community racially as well as the nature of the work performed, for instance, the $50,000.00 that is talked about here for replacement of exterior doors at Broadhead Mannor, this is not a contract that I would imagine would involve lots of heavy equipment. I would think that it would be a threshold that a minority contractor could more likely bid for than replacing of the Bloomfield Bridge.

This memo, Mr. Chairman, Director Pietragallo, from the Yarborough Development relates to an earlier approval that this Council gave out in the Homewood-Brushton community for a highrise development of the Section 202 program. I think, quite frankly, it is a very favorable and impressive agreement that has been worked out between Father Fisher from the Church, who is responsible for the development of this Section 202, and some of the construction companies, one is a non-union company, one is a union company. And this is sort of an affirmative agreement that has been worked out regarding a 25 percent MBE set aside and 30 percent labor EEO set aside.

I am wondering, is this something the Authority would consider?

Mr. Washington:

I think the Housing Authority of Pittsburgh has been a pioneer in this city and in this state in terms of involvement of minority contractors in all aspects of our activity; supplies, purchases, construction, so forth. In fact, specifically Yarborough Development has done quite a bit of work for the Authority over the years, so we certainly would --

Mr. Ferlo:

What I will ask the Director in negotiating or pursuing this further, in terms of the contracts that you let out, is this something that you would consider if some of the minority groups would approach you to try to work out a such an arrangement?

Mr. Pietragallo:

Let me at the outset say to you absolutely, we certainly are in favor of supporting what you propose. However, you must remember also, Councilman, that CDBG monies are federal funds, and we have to stay within the confines of those regulations and the federal laws.

Now, if they permit to us divert in this particular aspect, then certainly we would have no problems, would we, David?

Mr. Washington:

No.

Mr. Pietragallo:

We have to go to the legality of it. I certainly don't want to make a commitment here today that we can't keep. But I can tell you that the Pittsburgh Housing Authority would be delighted to find a way to bring minorities into play into some of the larger contracts.

I might add to you, and I think certainly Councilman Lyons knows, that we do a lot of special things to encourage small minorities, so we have a lot of small contracts, so that the small minorities can, in fact, come in and do it; painting, small fix up jobs, small rehab jobs. We do that in an effort to try to circumvent the system so that minorities will have a chance. Those are the contracts that David Washington alluded to that are not put out on a formal bid basis. Although, you know, we do get different votes and bids for everything we do. If it is $3,000.00 or $4,000.00, we still, you know, go out and try to get competitive bidding, but it could be a letter, it could be a quote, something like that. So we do that right now.

Mr. Ferlo:

I will conclude, I just want to thank the Authority representatives for coming today and discussing the appropriation. Obviously I am trying to advocate on a specific point, and I sense a willingness on the part of the Director and Mr. Washington to review this matter from its legal perspective. Thank you.

Mr. Ferlo:

I would like my remarks brought forward on Bill 1429.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

(MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1429 - Wednesday, 10/12/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Good morning, Director. I have two basic questions. One is are there other enterprise zones besides these three that will be receiving funds, and two, is there a reason why? Three neighborhoods come to mind that, to me, would suggest that they also should be enterprise zones. As I look at East Liberty, Lawrenceville, and North Side, one is Homewood, Garfield and also Allentown as being like and similar in lots of different ways, in terms of the presence of a community development corporation, the problems with the central business district, the demographics of the neighborhood, and all those other things that I believe make up the criteria for an enterprise zone.

Mr. Donahoe:

These are the three in Pittsburgh, there are no others. The only other application that I am aware of in my time with the city has been for the Hill, which was actively pursuing enterprise zone status, but the state denied it apparently because to be an enterprise zone it is not enough just to have a commercial district, you actually have to have some evidence that you can develop industrial kinds of enterprises, as you would have in East Liberty, Lawrenceville and the North Side. Bob might be able to help me if there have been any others.

Mr. Lurcott:

No, there have not. In fact, there are only about six or seven statewide.

Mr. Ferlo:

So it is not a very simple thing for additional zones to be created?

Mr. Lurcott:

That is right.

Mr. Ferlo:

Is there any value for us to expend energy at trying to make some of these other neighborhoods enterprise zones?

Mr. Lurcott:

It certainly can be explored.

Mr. Ferlo:

I am really asking do we have anything to lose by seeking other neighborhoods? I mean, Hazelwood comes to mind also, it is a site for major industrial facilities that have closed down, that is an important business corridor.

---

I guess what I am asking is what is the rationale, how did these three get to be the fortunate three, and is there some rationale or logic behind trying to extend that enterprise zone status to whether it be Hazelwood, or Homewood, or Garfield, or Allentown?

Mr. Donahoe:

I think it partially takes the interest of the local community organization to do it, and if they want to live under whatever rules are prescribed by the state and will accept the money and use it in a way that the state has prescribed. I know the Hill process, which is the one that went on since I have been with the city, was very complicated and there was a lot of disappointment expressed, but the state was fairly adamant, because they only have so much money to go around and they can't really increase the number unless they get an additional appropriation.

So I guess Pittsburgh having three out of seven in the entire state is actually -- we have been fortunate. But there is certainly no harm in exploring it, other than you might be raising false expectations about what the state would do.

Mr. Ferlo:

What is the prize at the end of the tunnel there? I mean, what is the benefit, what accrues to the area?

Mr. Lurcott:

There are presumably a coordinated response on the part of state agencies making dollars available through, for instance, transportation studies and certain other state processes that go through better, and then there are annual appropriations of the magnitude we are talking about here, which are very helpful, although not a lot of money, when it comes right down to it. I think that is a feature of it. They are really trying to hold down the number of enterprise zones in this state, and the dollars coming through are, while helpful, not large.

And the part of the other question is, is it worth the energy to increase this very limited number.

Mr. Ferlo:

Is it safe to assume that if there is not a strong presence of a community based development corporation that has an established track record, that it is unlikely that it would fly anyway?

Mr. Lurcott:

I think that is a good characterization, yes.

Mr. Donahoe:

Probably the exception would be if the governing body is prepared to have the same kind of staff support, and I wouldn't be surprised that in some of the other communities in the state that the city serves that role. In Pittsburgh the system has developed of using the neighborhood organizations.

Mr. Ferlo:

So conceivably a smaller municipality like Reading, PA, might say, "This area is the zone and our Planning Department is responsible"?

Mr. Donahoe:

That's right.

Mr. Ferlo:

So we actually have that option. If we wanted to say, as an example, Hazelwood is a priority and we would instruct you, then you would have to as what, the URA or Planning Department?

Mr. Lurcott:

A combination, but primarily the URA. I think there is a preference on the part of the State Department of Community Affairs for a community based organization of some sort to be very important in the process. I mean, there is some flexibility now that can be done, and I think they look to that as being important.

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Professional Services Agreement or Agreements for a Consultant or Consultants to investigate the City-County Building pipe tunnel for structural problems in order to determine the nature and extent of the problems and to recommend a course of action, and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |

|                | (Pres't Pro tem) |

AYES 6 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. Woods presented

Bill No. 1515

Report of the Committee on Parks and Recreation for October 12, 1988 transmitting two resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1337

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing a Lease with the Three Rivers Rowing Association of Real Property on Washington's Landing to be used as a Rowing Center." (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

On Bill 1337, I wanted to thank the officers of the Three Rivers Rowing Association for reopening the bid process to allow union contractors to bid on the work.

Also,

Bill No. 1338

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing a Cooperation Agreement with the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh to provide for the conveyance of Real Property to the City for Lease as a Rowing Center." (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Mr. DePasquale presented

Bill No. 1516

Report of the Committee on Public Safety for October 5, 1988 transmitting two ordinances to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 457

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending Title Seven - Business Licensing, Article IX - Amusement Businesses, Chapter 777 - Mechanical Amusement Devices, by increasing the fee of certain devices, by establishing a license fee for devices which accept paper currency, by providing for additional information from owners of devices, and by providing additional criteria for revocation and confiscation." —(SPONSORED BY MR. FERLO)

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, concerning that great piece of legislation on the video poker machines, Bill 457, I'd like to make a motion to recommit. The reason is that two of my votes are absent from the meeting; I know what you're going to do, I know what Mr. Wagner is going to do, and Councilman DePasquale -- I can add; I went to school long enough to add.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Also,

Bill No. 1095

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Four, Public Places and Property, Article I, Streets and Sidewalks, Chapter 419, Regulated Activities by adding Section 419.10, Prohibiting Skateboards, Roller Skates, Scooters and Bicycles on Sidewalks in Business Districts." —

Mr. Coyne presented

Bill No. 1517

Report of the Committee on Engineering and Construction for October 5, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1377

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 144, effective March 4, 1987, entitled: 'Providing for an Agreement or Agreements with a Consultant or Consultants for Architectural Services on Various City Facilities on an 'as-needed' basis in response to the Capital Budget Program; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by providing for a Supplemental Agreement or Agreements and by increasing the total project allocation by $10,000.00 from $50,000.00 to $60,000.00."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1378

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 145, effective March 4, 1987, entitled: 'Providing for an Agreement or Agreements with a Consultant or Consultants for Landscape Architectural Services on an 'as-needed' basis in response to the Capital Budget Program; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by providing for a Supplemental Agreement or Agreements and by increasing the total project allocation by $24,500.00 from $20,000.00 to $44,500.00."

AYES 6 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1518

Report of the Committee on Engineering and Construction for October 12, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1379

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts for Renovations to the Bloomfield Pool, Recreation Center, Outdoor Recreation and Dean Field; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof." (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Mr. Lyons:

On Bill 1379, I'm voting in the affirmative on the bill, but I want it to go out that the people in the Bloomfield area will have a better understanding that there's not only going to be the turf put in but all of the outside other amenities of the park were going to be new or retrofitted and, more especially, I've had several complaints that there will be no bleachers. But the bleachers and everything is in that $1,130,000. I wanted that to be clear.

Mr. DePasquale:

In that respect, Mr. President, I know the meeting, and I think we all do, that Councilman Lyons referred to, and I understand that they're basing their objections on the fact that there is not going to be artificial turf. And if I read the bill correctly, it's going to be artificial turf.

The Chair:

It will be artificial turf.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, Mr. Lyons, I think, was pointing out that within this bill there will be monies to, in the area of outdoor recreation, to address the issue of repair of the bleachers. I believe that's what Mr. Lyons was referring to. And since our last Committee Meeting, as we are aware, we did amend this with Section 2, specifically, Councilman DePasquale, to make it clear that there will be artificial turf. Since the last meeting, there is a specific allocation from the State sought out by Mr. Pistella of Bloomfield of $25,000; that's cash in hand. There's also $250,000 in the State Capital budget which may be more of a wish list. But, in any case, I think Mr. Woods' comments at the meeting best express our intent, and that is to do the whole ball of wax, regardless of what the eventual dollar figure will be.

Also,

Bill No. 1376

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution further amending Resolution No. 1094, effective January 1, 1988, as amended, entitled, 'Resolution adopting and approving the 1988 Capital Budget and the 1988 Community Development Block Grant Program; and approving the 1988 through 1993 Capital Improvement Program,' by creating two (2) new line items (EC 88-76) and EC 88-77) and by adjusting the Summary Totals."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1407

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements, or use of existing Agreements, and/or a Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts, for the Purchase of Land, Design and Construction of the Overbrook Recreation Center; and providing for the payment of the costs thereof."

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, in regard to Bill No. 1407, the allocation of $250,000 for the Overbrook Senior Citizens Center, I simply want to bring it to the attention of Council that we have received the letter based on a request I had at last week's meeting on the real dollar figure to build that facility. The Director of Engineering and Construction, Mr. McDermott, indicates that that figure could be possibly double that. So, I would like to alert our Capital Budget staff of that and to keep tabs on it prior to the budget. And if we need to allocate additional monies prior to 1989, to do so in the upcoming budget. Thank you.

Also,

Bill No. 1408

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 307, effective April 25, 1980, as amended by Resolution No. 352, effective April 23, 1985, entitled, 'Providing for an Agreement or Agreements, or Supplemental Agreement or Agreements, with Green International (G.A.I.) for Consultant Services in connection with the Design of the Swindell Bridge; and providing for the payment of the costs thereof,' by increasing the total project allocation by $20,000.00 from $232,000.00 to $252,000.00."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1409

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution

amending Resolution No. 592, effective July 9, 1985, entitled: 'Providing for the creation of a Trust Fund; providing for a Cooperation Agreement or Agreements with Allegheny County for the County's share of the Rehabilitation of the City-County Building Roof; providing for a contract or contracts for said project; and providing for the City's share of said project,' by increasing the total contract costs by $30,000.00 from $296,000.00 to $326,000.00 and by increasing the City's share of said project by $8,000.00 from $148,000.00 to $156,000.00."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

AYES - 6      NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I'd like to make a motion to televise both public hearings to be held on November 1st; one in relation to the pre-bid specification ordinance, and second, I believe there's a hearing in the afternoon on the petition concerning refuse collection in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. Chairman, I'd just like to state that yesterday Councilman Wagner, Councilman Ferlo and myself had the pleasure of going to Harrisburg and to meet with various State officials, including Representative Mandarino and the Secretary of Community Affairs, Karen Miller. Along with the Pennsylvania League of Cities, I think the conference that was held showed that not only is tax reform needed for a city the size of Pittsburgh but also that is something that is bi-partisan and would help municipalities throughout the State in dealing with local tax problems. I would hope that, there is supposed to be a meeting in early or mid November, that the City of Pittsburgh becomes more actively involved and that we show that if tax reform isn't completed within this legislative year that City and municipalities throughout the State will be facing serious financial problems. And I would just like to urge the Mayor's Office and everyone else to try to take a more active role in pushing for State tax reform.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, follow-up from Mr. Ferlo's earlier resolution and Mr. Coyne's comments, and I know Council unanimously supports this, while we were in Harrisburg yesterday, several of us spoke and we realize the importance of a critical time period between now and November 30th in terms of lobbying for this legislation with the Joint Conference Committee between the House and the Senate. Previously, the Administration, both the Caliguiri Administration and our present Mayor, Sophie Masloff, had a full-time lobbyist in Harrisburg pursuing this legislation, Mr. Zabierek. Since he has left City government, we do not have that and I think it should be the recommendation of this Council, at least for the next six weeks, when the House and the Senate go back in session, and they are in session now and will, I suspect, take a recess until after election, to have a full-time lobbyist in Harrisburg on a daily basis lobbying for tax reform. I'd like to put that in the form of a motion.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo:

I just want to add that I think a lobbyist is very critical, especially the period of November 14th through the 30th. Additionally, though, it was my concern, although it was a well-intended press conference, there were major speakers representing the head of the School Board Directors Association spokesperson for the County Commissioners Association, it was very clearly a broad-based coalition. But it was a small group and, at my urging, I believe the League will consider League of Cities a major attendance by municipal elected officials from all over the Commonwealth.

And on a tactical level, I don't want to get too partisan, I think it's very clear that the League of Cities needs to bring out Republican office holders from small cities and school boards and at the commissioner level from around the State because, unfortunately, it's being viewed by some as a big win for Governor Casey, if it should pass, and some politicians in Harrisburg are not only myopic and selfish, but they're not looking at the broader picture. So, there will be another time, roughly the November 14th or 15th date, where we will once again be asked to return to Harrisburg in greater numbers for a day-long lobbying effort and I would hope that all of Council would be able to attend.

The Chair:

I'd just like to say one thing. I agree with everything that has been said here but I believe, when you brought up the Commissioners and you brought up the State Legislators, I believe that if we have Commissioner Foerster and some of his staff go down there and campaign and say some of our representatives like Representative Thomas Murphy go down there and sway these votes like they did on the Alcosan formation, I believe that they can win without anybody's help. I mean, they got down there and they got bi-partisan help and they got help from Philadelphia, Scranton, to pass that bill, I'm sure that these two individuals are so powerful that they can get enough help for the poor City of Pittsburgh, which they both live in. And I hope that's printed and I hope that message is taken across the street and over to North Side.

Mr. DePasquale:

With time running short, as Councilman Wagner said, we should have a lobbyist down there. First of all, I thought Chuck Kolling was down there doing that lobbying.

The Chair:

He works for us and the County and I suppose that the Commissioner's Office maybe doesn't want this and maybe he's leaning more towards the Commissioner's standpoint than the City's standpoint.

Mr. DePasquale:

We need somebody especially for that type of lobbying. As I say, time is running short. Who is going to choose this person and when are we going to do it?

Mr. Ferlo:

The Administration.

The Chair:

We'll put him on a full-time staff to go down there, just like Mark Zabierek was there on a full-time basis and the Mayor sent him there all the time and I'm sure we could do the same thing.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, in regard to that, if the Administration does not employ a full-time lobbyist in Harrisburg during that critical two or three week period, I believe that this Council should do that and we should send a lobbyist to Harrisburg whether it's on a consultant form or whether it's someone from our Operating Budget or our Capital Budget to go there and to lobby for this legislation. That's how important the legislation is. And really, in essence, the reason why we want to see tax reform so much is that it will give us the ability to lower the wage tax, if we get additional taxes in other ways. And we know that's our number one problem, to reduce the 2.1 percent wage tax that the City of Pittsburgh has. And I mention 2.1 not only because that's accurate, but also to emphasize the fact that it's important that the School Board face up to their responsibility here because they have 1.9 percent of the wage tax and with tax reform, hopefully, not only the City can reduce its 2.1 percent wage tax, but the School Board should be doing the same with their 1.9 percent. And I would also strongly recommend to them, and maybe we should do that in letter form, that they become involved in the lobbying effort in Harrisburg also.

The Chair:

I have no problem with that but I am very serious when I named two individuals. I have not seen either one of these individuals speak out on tax reform and especially when they both live in this City and the one represents this City most entirely from his legislative district. I have not heard him speak out on this thing one time, and the Commissioner, very, very little. And I mean this sincerely, and I am taking a shot at both individuals. And you can quote me.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, you're on a sore subject, and that's Mr. Kolling. It's my intent in the future when that contract comes up to argue very strongly, and no disrespect to him, that we can have our own lobbyist. If he wants to come work with us full-time, fine. But the County should have their lobbyist and we should have our own.

And I agree with your point about what the intent of the Commissioners are. I'm not sure regarding tax reform; I don't know if they have a problem with the sales tax revenue sharing kind of an idea or what. But it's very clear to me there's an absence of leadership. I don't want to speak ill of our Mayor but I was somewhat disappointed that the Administration was not visibly a part of the press conference yesterday as obviously a big city Mayor should be. It's all well and good to be out shaking hands with General Services staff, but yesterday, I think, it was the day to be in Harrisburg with statewide media and statewide focus clearly focused on the need for tax reform.

On the point that Mr. Wagner raises, I think the intent of our letter is to be cooperative with the Administration and suggest strongly that they appoint somebody and I'm sure we would vote for whatever expense money. But I think Mr. Wagner's point is much more clear in stating that we need to have somebody. And if we can't hear from Her Honor in the next couple of days, I think, Mr. Chairman, you should convene a meeting of Council. We have a consultant line item and I think we should do precisely that. We should hire our own person, somebody who has some level of rapport with legislators and knows Harrisburg and there are many people that can fit that bill. And I think we should move on that and be ready for November 14th. It should be Light Up Day not only in the City of Pittsburgh, but it better be Light Up Day down there in the Rotunda.

The Chair:

I totally agree with you and I'll make the last statement and we'll kill this subject. But I agree, and the one thing about us having our own lobbyist and not sharing him with the County, especially with the County. The Commissioners serve 130 municipalities and I don't believe we're getting our fair share for our money. And when it's budget time, and I have nothing against Mr. Kolling either, but we have to employ someone who is just going to work for us, the 400,000 citizens of the City of Pittsburgh and not the other million people in the County.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. Chairman, on another subject. I'm sure we were all saddened yesterday with the death of Senator Romanelli. He was a man who proudly served the City of Pittsburgh and the 43rd legislative district. I would ask that we make it in the form of a motion that Council send a letter to his family of condolences and appreciation of the work and services that he did.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, on another subject. I'm very concerned about a situation at the City garage. For the last couple of weeks there has been a garbage pile of about 15 feet high and about as big as a City block. I don't know what the problem is but there are sewer rats in the area and if I was a City worker I would not want to have to work next to the area, not to mention the fact that it's against the Board of Health. I don't know if there's a problem but it seems as though there's some conflicting information I'm getting regarding the contract for the City's roll-off boxes and I think we should send a letter to the Administration requesting an explanation as to why this garbage is being allowed to be out there for the last several weeks.

And two, could we please get an indication as to what is the status of the contract for the roll-off boxes. I've been led to believe that one company bid the lowest but they did not receive the bid for the roll-off boxes and there seems to be some dispute. I don't know what it is and I'm trying to get down to the facts, and I haven't gotten people from the Administration yet to return my calls, but I would like to send a letter one, pointing out the garbage situation, and two, finding out what the heck is the situation with the bid process and the contract for the roll-off containers.

Thank you.

Mr. Lyons moved to excuse Michelle Madoff for absence from the meeting.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Lyons

Council adjourned.

| Mr. Lyons      | Mr. Woods        |
|                | (Pres't Pro tem) |

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Coyne presents

No. 1554 WHEREAS, on Saturday, October 22, 1988, The Italian Heritage Society of America will hold its Fourth Annual Awards Dinner at the Pittsburgh

Hilton and Towers; and

WHEREAS, The Italian Heritage Society of America was formed in the interest of scholarship; and

WHEREAS, at this year's dinner, The Italian Heritage Society of America will offer five higher education scholarships, including the Charles Caputo Memorial Scholarship, and two special education scholarships to area students; and

WHEREAS, each year the Italian Heritage Society selects and honors individuals of Italian heritage who have distinguished themselves in their field or profession so that they may serve as examples to our young scholars; and

WHEREAS, this year, the Italian Heritage Society will honor Louise Brennan, Associate Superintendent of the Pittsburgh Public Schools, for her service in Education, the late Mayor Richard S. Caliguiri, for his service in Government, Leo Puma for his contributions to Labor, Doctor Anthony Ripepi and Doctor Philip Ripepi for their contribution in Medicine, Carmala Walgren for her service in the Humanities, and Kathleen Melucci for her proficiency in Music.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby commend the honorees for this recognition of their distinguished service along with The Italian Heritage Society of America for their commitment to scholarship and their service to the future; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby recognize the achievements of the awardees, Susan Fillipih, Nicholas Fioravanti, Bernadette Rorer, Amy Castellano, Patricia Rosellini, Syndee Schaeffer and Jacquelyn Kelly, and congratulates each of them on winning their scholarships.

Mr. Coyne moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'd like to bring up Mr. Ed Blotzer; the honoree, and Mrs. Blotzer, and Annabelle Kenny, Vice-Chairwoman of Animal Friends, Inc.

Mr. Ferlo presents

No. 1555 WHEREAS, Edward J. Blotzer, Jr. founded Animal Care and Welfare, Inc., a non-profit law enforcement Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals; and

WHEREAS, Edward J. Blotzer, Jr. has served as the President and Chief Humane Officer of Animal Care and Welfare; and

WHEREAS, Edward J. Blotzer, Jr. has personally investigated over 60,000 reports of animal abuse or neglect; and

WHEREAS, Edward J. Blotzer, Jr. has performed this services as a law enforcement officer at no cost to the taxpayers; and

WHEREAS, Edward J. Blotzer, Jr. has spent countless volunteer hours promoting animal protection efforts and the concept of animal rights; and WHEREAS, Mr. Blotzer will be honored at a testimonial dinner on October 27th in honor of his service to the community and his service on the boards of Animal Care and Welfare, Animal Friends, and the Federated Humane Societies of Pennsylvania.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby commends Mr. Blotzer on his twenty-five years of service to the community in the noble effort to prevent cruelty to animals and to make us all more aware of the importance of animals to the quality of our lives and extends best wishes to him and his family in his future endeavors.

Mr. Ferlo moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you, members of Council. At this time I'd like to introduce Annabelle Kenny who is the Vice-Chair of Animal Friends, Inc., for her to say a couple of brief words and then I'd like to turn it over to our honoree, Mr. Blotzer, and he can take the privilege of introducing his beautiful wife.

Ms. Kenny:

Members of Council, on behalf of Animal Friends, I'd like to thank you for this letter for Ed Blotzer. We're very proud of him. He has served Animal Friends as a boardmember since it's inception, practically, and we wish him well in his endeavors to protect animals and we are very grateful for all his service. Thank you.

Mr. Blotzer:

I want to thank the Councilmen, a number of them that I do know already, for this resolution. I can only say that in the 27 years that I've been involved in this, I think that I've enjoyed every minute of it. There's nothing more gratifying to me than to protect those who depend on honorable men and women for kindness, mercy and justice, and I thank the Council of the City of Pittsburgh for this resolution.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 1556 WHEREAS, the week of October 24th to the 30th has been declared "National Drug Free America Week" by a congressional resolution; and

WHEREAS, the consequences of illegal drug use have reached epidemic proportions and are of increasing concern to every American; and

WHEREAS, the hope of "National Drug Free America Week" is to involve everyone, from the business community to young people, in committing to a drug-free lifestyle and creation of a drug-free America; and

WHEREAS, "National Drug Free America Week" is being held concurrently with the first "National Red Ribbon Week" which encourages the wearing and display of red ribbons as a visible symbol of intolerance toward drug abuse.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh recognizes October 24th through 30th as "National Drug Free America Week" and "National Red Ribbon Week" in the City of Pittsburgh; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council asks all citizens of the City to commit to a drug-free lifestyle and to wear or display red ribbons to show their intolerance toward drug abuse.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, thank you for your vote in that. This will be presented privately outside of City Council. I simply want to say that this problem continues to increase at alarming rates in our society and our City. It's still the number one form of illegal employment in America and its important that the public continue to become involved and aware of the problem. I'd like to remind the public that if you have any information relating to the sale of illegal drugs within the City of Pittsburgh, the number to call is 255-2811. Thank you.

Mr. Coyne presented

Mr. Ferlo:

On this bill, which begins to give consideration to the amount of money that it takes for the enforcement of the video poker machines as well as giving the Police Department the ability to deal more squarely with problem bars, I would like my comments brought forward from the earlier meeting when we discussed this bill.

(BEGINNING - MR. FERLO'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 457 - 10/5/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, there was lengthy discussion on this bill, also with the Director present. Obviously I am in favor of this bill; it not only raises the increase to be commensurate with the amount of money it costs for the enforcement of these machines, but also it provides some new directives and ability for the police department to deal with problem bars. There was not majority support, quite frankly, on Council for the $300.00 fee.

At this time I would like to move for its approval, and I would like to amend the legislation to be a fee of $200.00, which would be a $65.00 increase, as opposed to the $300.00 legislative request.

(END OF REMARKS)

Michelle Madoff:

May I get clarification; I've been out ill for a couple of weeks. What is the final disposition of the Safety Department not being able to take the illegal poker machines out of the facilities where we found them to be in violation?

The Chair:

That has nothing to do with this bill. This bill is strictly to raise the fees of the poker machines.

Michelle Madoff:

Let me rephrase my question. Is there any correlation between raising the fees and having the illegal machines running?

The Chair:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President and members of Council, I'd like to take this opportunity to alert you all to a situation in the City of Pittsburgh and its surrounding communities that I believe in the very near future we will all need to address. It's the lack of any plan in the City, the County or State for the management of storm drainage in our creeks and streams. In more specific terms, I'd like to bring to Council's attention the severity of the situation occurring at this time along Streets Run and Glass Run in the 31st Ward.

As I'm sure you're aware, a large part of the neighborhood of Hays is built along the banks of Streets Run Road and the Streets Run Creek. Residential development that has occurred over the years in the area above Hays has caused an increase in the volume of storm drainage. The erosion that has occurred due to this increase has left large accumulations of silt along the bottom of the creek, lessening the drainage capacity, hence, damaging the property of City residents living along the stream.

I am told by some engineers that this situation is further complicated by a problem relating to the capacity of City sewer lines in the area. The Administration has denied that claim, though I do not know whether that possibility has been properly investigated. The Mayor has related to me that she recognizes the problem and that it is serious to those property owners, but has denied them any assistance insofar as capital improvements are concerned. I believe that Mayor Masloff does not understand, or perhaps just does not care about how severe the situation really is for the people of the 31st Ward. I witnessed the flooding that these property owners endured. I have photographs of property on which erosion has taken such a toll that a home could literally be washed away unless something is done.

Members of Council, I believe that if the stream were in another area of the City and not the 31st Ward, these concerns would be more forcefully addressed and that solutions, whether by way of City capital expenditure or through a cooperative agreement with the City, County and State, would be further investigated by the Administration. But since the problem is primarily a 31st Ward problem and, as we all know, to the Administration the 31st Ward has been a long forgotten part of the City, the severity of the situation has fallen on deaf ears.

I would hope that Council would support me now in a motion that would help address the flooding situation in Hays, and also to call to the attention of our State Legislators to address the broader issue of a storm drainage management plan throughout the State.

With that purpose in mind, I would like to make a motion that Council send a letter to Governor Casey asking for his support of the State Capital budget item calling for the dredging, repair, and flood control of structures in the Streets Run and Glass Run Creeks.

I would also like to make a motion that Council send a letter to the members of the Allegheny County Delegation of the State Legislature calling on them to investigate the possibility of implementing a storm drainage management plan for the State of Pennsylvania. I have discussed this issue with State Representatives, particularly State Representative Michael Dawida, and he feels very strongly that this issue is likely to come up for discussion in the next session. So, I would ask for your support on those two motions.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. I think that Councilman Coyne is right on the button because its also compounded by the water leaks in that area. I've also been out there on Sundays and evenings when the ground has been washed away. People have spent thousands of dollars on landscaping; I've seen house foundations caved in. I've walked in mud up to my knees. Those people are really the forgotten part of the community and I would support anything that we can do to help relieve some of the problems in that area.

Mr. Coyne:

Thank you, Councilwoman.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, two brief points that are unrelated; both of them serve notice or pre-empt discussion that will take place next month relative to the budget. The first issue being the situation in Highland Park regarding the park itself, and I wanted to briefly outline some concerns that I've addressed to the Administration because I feel very strongly that next month when we interact with the department directors and talk about the longer range capital expenditures of this City for the next five or six years as well as next year's operating budget, I want it to be clear that these department directors, especially in Parks and Recreation, know some of the concerns specifically in that park.

I'm a little bit disappointed that somehow we have to wait until a park is 100 years old, by that I mean Schenley Park, before we put together a blue ribbon commission and a gala cast of characters to deal with some of the planning. I think this should really go on for all of the parks, not only Highland Park and Schenley but there are many beautiful parks throughout the City. Some of them need major infrastructural work and expensive line items for capital improvements, but many of the things from the time that I've taken the tour of some of the parks, just involve basic maintenance and doing things that should be done continually throughout the year. But in terms of the Highland Park situation, a lengthy memo went to the Administration but on several brief points, and it sort of does address the issue of in the budget not having a budgeted line item for repairs to major statues, be they bronze or other materials in the parks. Highland Park specifically has six bronze statues which, to my knowledge, have never been cleaned in the history of the park which, I might add, is also 100 years old. And the request to the Administration is to come back with a specific dollar figure and a report to Council on what would be involved in the cleaning of the bronze figurines at the entrance to the park.

Secondly, the beautiful lake that exists in Highland Park, the Carnegie Lake, really needs to be dredged and cleaned. This was done many years ago when Mr. Natoli was responsible for the parks. It hasn't been done in a long time and, actually, some blue dye that has been used to attempt to kill the algae has actually made the situation worse there. But part of the request to the Administration is to come back with a report on the cost regarding the Carnegie Lake situation.

Also, unfortunately, since I've been on Council since January 4th, we've not actually had an opportunity to review the Zoo master plan. And, quite frankly, I'm not even clear what the status of that plan is currently, but the concerns in the community rightfully so are that the future master plan for the Zoo must address the issue of integrating the Zoo more with the actual logistics of the park. Right now they're separated with a major fence and there's a lot of potential for the park to be developed more if it integrated itself more with the actual activities in the Zoo.

One problem that's not only at Schenley and Highland Park but parks throughout the City is that there's really no master plan for dealing with the trees in the parks in terms of planting and cutting and removing and having a longer ranged plan for the replanting of trees which, quite frankly, in the next five to ten years they're at the end of the road and there's not really a clear inventory in a plan for dealing with that.

In Highland Park specifically, there is a beautiful stone archway which needs some immediate attention by Parks and Recreation or Engineering and Construction. In addition, there's a very dangerous situation regarding some work that's being done by the Water and Sewer Authority. In fact, it's a dangerous situation because there's not proper lighting and barricades up. There are holes and the street is dug up throughout the park and this situation has been there for many, many months. Again, the request to the Administration is to communicate back to Council regarding when this work will be finished.

A problem that I know Mr. Pollock is quite aware of is the continual problem with graffiti, not only in Highland Park but throughout many of our parks, and I think there needs to be more coordination with the Police Department and possibly a reward offered in the high schools because, often times, kids know who the culprit is dealing with the graffiti.

Those are just some of the points in relation to Highland Park that I hope that we will soon hear from the Administration on. An immediate problem in the park is the fire truck in the children's play area which is about a 20 year old fire truck which is terribly damaged and totally unsafe for small children to play in, and I've been assured by Susan Gogh from the Department of General Services that that fire truck will be removed out of the park in the next couple of days and, if that is the case, I would applaud her and the department to no end.

On that point, Mr. Chairman, I would hope that the Administration, come budget time, will broaden the debate in the planning so it's not just the planning for Schenley Park, which is important, but also that we look at Highland Park and several of the other large parks that are not just parochial but which many neighborhoods in a particular area utilize.

On the second point, very briefly, Mr. Chairman, I received as well as, I'm sure, Council, what I consider a very beautiful promotional brochure, which I think all of you received. It's a very lengthy, well laid out promotional brochure on the City of Pittsburgh. I want to just raise one brief point on this issue. I feel very strongly as a critic of the City travel that I would be less critical next year on travel if the individual employees and department directors, and I might remind Council we've spent over $400,000 this year on travel, that if in their travel they become promotional ambassadors. And if possible, I think we should investigate what it would take for us to order a very large quantity of these brochures. I know on the two times that I have been at out of town conferences talking about the City, I would like to have had this brochure to promote the City. It's probably an expensive item, it's a multi-colored print job, but maybe there would be some monies from the private sector.

What I'm basically suggesting is a letter to go to the Administration suggesting that our employees and Councilmembers, anyone who travels on City time, be responsible for taking this brochure and/or others that have been prepared by the Greater Pittsburgh Office of Promotion. And I would like to recommend that we set up and establish what I can best describe as promotional ambassadors. These would be City employees whose job it would be to take this beautiful brochure which promotes the City and utilize it in whatever way possible at these various conferences. The people that go to these conferences, many of whom are managers and planners for other groups, are often times the key individuals to make decisions on where conventions and meetings should be held around the country.

So, I'd like to offer that in the form of a suggestion by way of a letter to the Administration from Council.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

This is in response to the two items that Mr. Ferlo brought up. The graffiti bill, which Council passed, already includes in it a provision for rewards. One individual right now has a reward pending. He turned somebody in, the person was apprehended, and the person is in the process of going through the judicial system right now. So, the first person who is in line to receive an award is currently awaiting that determination by Director Cannon. But it is a good idea, from time to time, to remind people that if you do know of anybody who has committed graffiti or vandalism on any City property, if you see it, if you hear about it, you do have the right to a reward if you provide information which leads to the arrest or conviction of that individual. So you should contact police authorities or the Public Safety officials. That provision is already in there.

The second thing I want to respond to that Mr. Ferlo brought up was the promotional brochure. I think it's a good idea that traveling City officials do distribute these. I would go one step further to ask, and I've actually been working on this with one group, but the City arts groups which receive grants and donations, albeit not very large, but the groups that do receive them, maybe not just limited to arts groups but any City groups that receive grants and donations could be asked kindly, respectfully, to when they do their concerts in other cities or communities, that they also distribute these. And I've been working with the American Waterways Orchestra to distribute brochures as they tour about not only this continent but next year to Europe and Asia, that they distribute brochures at every one of their sites where they perform. And I think this would have a profound effect upon promoting the City and the area and we're in the process of working that out now as to where the money will come to pay for the brochures because it is an expensive operation. When you talk about being on the road for many months at a time and many spots, that's a lot of printing and a lot of costs. So, if that can be worked out, and I'm optimistic that it will be, through the URA we're looking at coming up with some money to do it, that this will be a very beneficial thing.

So, I would agree with what Councilman Ferlo suggested and take it one step further and say to anyone who has an interest in the City that's going out, that they should have these brochures available to pass out.

Michelle Madoff:

You know, I think these are all wonderful ideas and it's unfortunate that we've changed the procedure here where we hop around from one subject to another so we have to go back and say, "As you were saying two items ago ...", but I'll try to remember what has been said.

I would like to make a request from the President of this Council and with the support of my colleagues that we request from the Greater Pittsburgh Office of Promotion the number of cities that they have advertised in the travel section to advertise Pittsburgh as being the number one city. And if my information is correct, you're going to find that nine out of ten cities have not heard nor have any advertising done for us, for our Convention Center or the Greater Pittsburgh Office of Promotion. I think we should start with finding out what has been done and I think the kind of feedback many of us get, all of us here, the complaints about we're not being promoted, it would give us some idea of what we really need to do. Maybe the money would be better spent in cities advertising in the travel sections. I would like to know, has anything been done? What budget has been committed? Where did the money come from? Is it the private sector? Is it coming from the City coffers or the County coffers? But more importantly, what dollars were spent and in how many cities have we advertised Pittsburgh, the number one liveable city? I repeat, if my information is correct, it's maybe in one out of ten major cities.

I'd like to make that in the form of a motion unless you're willing to do it on your own, to request from the Greater Pittsburgh Office of Promotions what cities they've advertise in to date, what the budget is, where the money came from, and then we will be dealing in reality and have a little more information and not dealing in a vacuum. I think your idea is wonderful but I think we ought to start at the beginning.

On the second item. My colleagues have talked about, we ought to be talking about specific items during budget time. And I think what's really being said here is prioritizing. What are our priorities? Let's put a little bit in perspective. Whether its a rate fee or whether its a tax, people of Pittsburgh take it out of the same pocket, out of their earnings. The Water and Sewer Authority, confronted with having to put $28 million each into reservoir covers mandated by law, not by City Council, not by the City of Pittsburgh, not by the County, but by federal law, must do it within the next few years. They have a shortfall in 1988 dollars of between $50 million and $70 million. You're going to have to go out on additional bonds above the millions they've already gone out on for an additional $50 million to $70 million in 1988 dollars.

Now, they're talking about being able to see water to some of the communities to offset that debt and debt service, and that would be wonderful. And they're talking about getting money from Pennvest, from the State. But in reality, the real world is that the Pennvest money will go for secondary treatment plants. They have priority over the City. If we get anything, it will be $5 million which is a long way from $70 million. That's one of the items our taxpayers are going to be confronted with.

We all know that water rates have gone up. We all know that Alcosan rates have gone up, for whatever reason. They've never gone up before, but they have gone up. And then we know that the Water Treatment Plant for the City of Pittsburgh has to dispose of its residue, and that goes, again, to Alcosan, and that's going to go up. And then you have the Zoo, the Aviary and the Conservatory which are subsidized by the debt service which means, for anybody listening, that means that the City resident puts their hand in their pocket and pays the debt, even though the non-City residents use these facilities. Three-quarters of the people are non-City residents as opposed to City residents. I'm not saying that we want to discourage people from coming in, but that's what I've consistently said let's give the Zoo to the County.

And now we get to the real big issues. That's only talking about small dollars that are going to hit us on top of our four percent wage tax, whether it's school or wage. We're going to get to the fact that the cost of picking up our refuse is going to become astronomical. We all know that we're going to go from $6 a ton to something like $38 a ton, if not in the next five years, certainly in the next ten years. Probably in five years. And that's something like $1.6 million to something like $7 million. Now, in order to maintain that dollar figure at $38 a ton or at $7 million, an increase of $6 million, approximately, if we go to recycling, if we can raise the money recycling, you have to build a separation plant, if we don't do it at source. We're going to have either an incineration, cogeneration plant. Whatever the technology is chosen by the Administration, obviously, the best we can hope for is a 90 percent funding from the State of Pennsylvania. If we will agree to separate four items, presumably paper, glass, maybe cardboard, bottles, aluminum cans. If four items are recycled, then we get 90 percent of the funding. So we will assume we will meet that criteria. There's still ten percent we have to match and millions and millions of dollars to build a separation incineration plant. And then we have to pay for the maintenance and we have to pay for the operation and the staffing.

So, what I'm saying, basically, is that it's wonderful and I agree with Mr.

Ferlo that there should have been somebody as a caretaker looking after the public property, the parks. No question. And we should have monies allocated to take care of the statues. But maybe we need to have an adoption by corporations of statues. Maybe we could go back to what I suggested ten years ago. The overlooks have a sign, "Maintained by Alcoa" or "Maintained by USX" or "Maintained by Westinghouse", and they get some publicity, not taking the recognition of who the facility is named after. It could still be the Jones Overlook, named after one of the first City Councilmembers, but maintained by so and so. Maybe someone will adopt a statue or a parklet. But the real priority, and we better start thinking about priorities, and I've talked about this for ten years and nobody wants to listen, is that we can't wait until the Administration presents us with a fait accompli and says, "Here's my budget." Why don't we sit down early in the year, about January, February, March, April, and say, here are the observations of Councilmembers. I see what's going on in Hays; that's a priority. Those people are being flooded out of their homes. And maybe the next thing is what are we going to do about picking up our refuse confronted with the new laws. And maybe the next thing is, what are we going to do about the extra dollars for water, Alcosan, and covers for the reservoir.

You've got to prioritize the tax dollars and that gets to the end of this conversation, and that is, we've all got to support vigorously and non-politically, this imminent tax reform coming up November 14th. In any way, shape or form that any of us have any concepts or ideas, please, activate them. And it doesn't really do any good, with all due respect, and I'm not picking on my colleagues and I don't mean it that way, I promise you I don't mean it this way, but going to Harrisburg is not really very effective because it's like writing a letter to the Mayor's Service Center that goes into the circular file. When you write a letter to the editor, something happens.

I'm asking my colleagues, if they have any connections with anybody that they can get to speak out for tax reform, please do that. That's what I'm doing. That is one of my major functions and something I'm working on eminently and I ask all of you to do the same thing.

That's what I've got to say on that subject and I would hope that the President of Council and the Finance Chairman would set up a meeting first of all with this body to determine what we think the priorities are because we know, as well as the Administration, what the priorities are. Then we assign our budget office to meet with the budget office of the Administration and say, what dollars are we going to have and what can we do. And I wouldn't be surprised to find out that Mr. Wagner is already doing that.

But I think that's what we need to be doing and since once you have the floor you can talk about everything and we don't talk about a subject and change to allow other colleagues to interject, which I think is the right way, I'll continue with another item.

I would like to request from, I believe it would be Public Works, the rationale as to why various streets are being repaved such as Shady Avenue at this point. I have had five individual calls in my office asking me, and I don't know the answer, why are they repaving Shady Avenue again? It didn't need doing. Does anybody else get those calls? No. I don't know what the answer is. I'd like to know why are they redoing it, did it need doing, and is this the matter of paving your way into office. Now, it may not be. There may be a legitimate reason. They may have had to put in an electric line. Equitable Gas may have dug it up. We have a central number when we're going to do any work in that area.

I would like to make an official request, Mr. Perry, if I have the agreement of the President of Council, so that we have our own words, we say what is here for the record, that I want to know what streets were repaved and a schedule for payment, what was done last year and this year, and the rationale for them. Did those streets require repaving? And I want to see some photos of before and after, at least before, because it's my understanding that people are laughing. They think it's a joke.

Now, I must tell you that I don't get to every nook and cranny in the City to see whether a street is torn up. There are enough of them there that need repairs. McArdle Roadway is like Burma Road now; it's all coming up, the upheaval of the water.

And I think that is a very important item. Would you get that letter out and is that with the concurrence of this Council? Could I make that in the form of a motion, Mr. President?

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

The Chair:

I would suggest you don't do it this way. If it were me making it and I really wanted to find out, I wouldn't put it in the form of a letter because you're going to get a letter back. What I would do is just have a post agenda after next Wednesday's meeting or something so you can get there with some dialogue and if you want pictures and all that. I would do it that way but it's up to you; you do what you want.

Michelle Madoff:

I think you're right and I'm going to take your advice because you're right on the button. I appreciate the help. Unfortunately, I don't know that I can do it this Wednesday because I have an urgent meeting that pertains to City business that's been planned for a long time. I will do it a week from Wednesday. Would you schedule it? I think it's a brilliant idea. Thank you, Mr. President.

The Chair:

Do you withdraw your motion?

Michelle Madoff:

Yes I do.

Mr. Chair:

Mr. Coyne, do you withdraw your second?

Mr. Coyne:

Yes, sir.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, very quickly. I know we just recently spoke about the brochures of Pittsburgh. I don't feel that while it's good for Council to observe what is needed, I think the Convention and Visitors Bureau is already in place and they have the avenues and the vehicles to the private sector that brings a lot of money in for their needs, their number one job is to sell the City of Pittsburgh for conventions and anything else to increase our tax base and our incomes of the filling of the hotels, the restaurants and everything else. And I think before we would do anything as Council, I think we should contact the Convention and Visitors Bureau to see what we can have for it.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, on the same issue. I'm pleased Mr. Ferlo brought the issue up. I'm still of the belief, and I know a couple of you that were here back in 1985 and 1986 that supported me on the motion to put a marketing coordinator in the budget to be in the Mayor's Office, I think was a good idea then, it was never fulfilled. The position was never filled. I still think today it's a good idea, not that we want to create a new department but that we would have someone out of our over 5,000 employees in City government marketing the City of Pittsburgh, promoting the City of Pittsburgh, and working with the Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Chamber of Commerce, the Golden Triangle Association, the Hotel Association, the State Government, and the film producing area, and many other ways in which we can promote the City of Pittsburgh. Maybe we should entertain the idea of putting that job back in the budget for 1989.

I would like to say, though, and one of my reasons back then, going back three years ago, was in 1986 anyway, I didn't know in 1985, was that in the first quarter of 1985 we were rated the most liveable city in America. That timeframe is coming to an end, and it's the end of 1988. Now, in the first quarter of 1989, Rand McNally will be rating the cities and coming out with those ratings again. Hopefully, the City of Pittsburgh will be the most liveable city the second time around; however, that's very difficult. If it is or it isn't, either way, I think it's to our advantage to consider putting a position back in the budget of marketing coordinator that would be in the Mayor's Office that could work with all those organizations, the Urban Redevelopment Authority, the Planning Department, our various departments with an idea such as what Mr. Ferlo said, going to conventions, promoting conventions and tourism in the City of Pittsburgh. It can do nothing but benefit us if we spend $50,000 or $100,000 simply for that. In a year we could get back 100 fold in tax dollars and jobs and many other ways.

The last item I just want to refer to was the tax reform and I'm glad Councilwoman Madoff brought it up again because I think we should talk about it frequently, hopefully every week. I don't think anyone has a magic formula for tax reform.

A couple of us were in Harrisburg last week and hopefully a whole lot of us will go back in a few weeks. It has to happen; if it doesn't happen, the City is going to have serious problems. There's no magic formula for it, though; it simply has to be a total blitz, a total lobbying effort, at all level of government, all elected officials getting involved from the highest level on down, and the public getting involved with their State Senators and their State Legislators. Thank you.

The Chair:

I have something to say. Since this tax reform has been brought up by Ms. Madoff and by Mr. Wagner, I don't agree with the package that's before the State House and the State Senate. I think, and this is just my opinion so I will not lobby for that particular tax bill and all of you can, and that's fine. We agree to disagree without putting personalities in it. I think it's the wrong thing to do. I think you're hurting the people that cannot afford to pay that particular tax bill.

If anyone would have used a little ingenuity, we have a bill that's already enacted; we have what is called the occupation tax. If you want to be fair with everybody, and I'm surprised that some of our illustrious representatives didn't think of this, or maybe they have and they just can't get it passed, but if they use some of their muscle, maybe they can, that we have a graduated occupation tax. If you make $10,000 a year, you pay one-tenth of one percent. And it keeps going up. If you make $100,000 a year, instead of paying $10, you pay $100. If you're like Roderick or Hillman, and God bless them because I wish I was, and you make $1 million, then you pay us $1,000 for working down here. If you make $5,000 a year, you pay $5. And that's the simplest way and the easiest way, and the act is already in place. And all the Legislators have to do is amend it. It wouldn't hurt the legislators from Allegheny County, it wouldn't hurt Fisher from Greentree. That's all they have to do.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Woods, I was going to ask you later what you meant by your letter to the editor, why the sales tax, what your specific objection was, and I gather what you were saying was that that sales tax was going to hurt the poor who have to buy things as opposed to the optional tax. I wanted you to clarify it for me because I needed that information for something else I was doing. But I'm glad you raised it.

While I agree with you in principle that you're probably 1000 percent right, but I think you would agree that all of us are caring people and I think we all agree that we want to help our community, have been unable to get a graduated, logical tax through, that those who have more should pay more. Some people would rather have a tax on the commuters than on the City residents. The problem is the way the law is presently written, we'd have to double whammy our own citizens so that is not a very effective way.

I think that it's imperative that we clean our own house. I can show you five or six places in this City where we have utter complete waste of millions of dollars that the money could be there in our budget. Any one of us who knows anything about the operation of the City, and it's one of the things you require by being here a while. You don't learn your craft, become a Councilmember, in one term. It's very difficult in ten years. And the fact remains, I can pinpoint where we have — We know I've talked about the giveaways when you say we've got $70,000 to demolish a fire station that should cost nine or fourteen and then we get $336,000 on top of that because somebody finds subterranean cavern.

I know I'm boring you, it's the same old story, but it's millions of dollars and thousands of dollars every day and millions over the years. McArdle, seven years to redo the same road. Grant Street Phase II, $1 million over the estimated cost over a top engineering firm, Rust Engineers. The way we collect money in the City. There are so many ways that we can save millions of dollars that I feel I cannot, and I'm doing a complete 180 degree turn, go to the suburbanites and say, "You support us other than in a fee for service", meaning the Zoo where you pay an extra fee and so on. I don't want to tax the suburbanites until we clean our own house.

But in response to what you said, and I think you're right, Mr. Woods, is that we have to go with something. This City is in such financial crisis. Don't believe me. It is not a political issue.

All you have to do is look at Mayor Caliguiri's last two budget statements and in both budget statements he said that we're in deep trouble and that he was barely able to hold the line in the year that he was still living. And we knew we were going to be confronted with these things and that's why I'm saying you're talking about statues and we're talking about trees? How about talking about drinking water and people being able to afford on a priority basis. I don't think we disagree. And I think we have to get out there and support whatever we can get in tax reform so that we can have something to build on. Eventually, perhaps we can see the light, our Legislators may get a little calcium in their spines, and we may be able to get a graduated tax, we may be able to get something else passed. But something has to be done right now and I wish that this concept of the graduated tax had been worked on. Perhaps if we talk to each other more instead of being antagonists all the time. If we got together and said, okay, why don't we support this, why don't we hold meetings throughout the City, why don't we go out to the County, why don't we go out to the State, even City Councilmembers, and get support for our position, your position, Mr. Woods, which is a good position. But it's tough to do now. Wouldn't you agree its going to be tough?

The Chair:

But why should we urge the passage of a tax package that will be there and we'll be stuck with forever and you know it and I know it. Sales tax started at what percent and now we're shooting for seven percent. And it's going to happen and the people that can't afford to pay are going to pay. I can afford to raise my occupation tax from $10 to $35 because I'm making $35,000 a year. But somebody that's on a fixed income, an unemployed individual, a welfare recipient, a retiree, a pensioner, and elderly senior citizen, they can't afford that.

The property tax is not killing these people these elderly citizens. That's not what's killing them. The utility bills are killing them and now we're going to give them another tax that they can't afford to pay. Wage taxes, they don't have to pay them because they're not working anyway. Occupation tax, they don't have to pay it. But a seven percent sales tax is really going to murder these people. They need essential goods and that's what it's on.

It was said to me, somebody told me that I don't know what I'm talking about.

Michelle Madoff:

I didn't say that.

The Chair:

I know you didn't but some reporter said some other individuals said that and I said, well, why don't they come and ask somebody once in a while. We're trying to do our job here and whatever you people lobby for and whatever the Administration lobbies for, that's fine. Ben Woods is not lobbying for a sales tax. I think it's a terrible, terrible tax. That's my opinion and I respect all of your opinions.

Mr. Ferlo:

Just very briefly, Mr. Chairman, because I have to call you to task on your comments. I wish for one day that we could become the State Legislature and they could become the City Council and we could pass a whole bunch of laws. I'd like to see us amend the Constitution of the Commonwealth so that we could have a progressive system of taxation which is the problem right from the beginning.

Secondly, I'd like to see us restore corporate income taxes in the Commonwealth to their pre-1970 levels of a little over nine percent and not the seven percent that we have now. I'd like to see the state restore the fraction that they took away under the Thornburg Administration of the personal income tax because it basically amounted to about 35 cents a year in our paycheck, would have robbed the State Treasury of over I'd say $60 million or $70 million a year. I'd like to see us have a state taxation and a revenue program returning revenues back to cities like Pittsburgh that have close to 50 percent of our land now tax exempt because of the regional nature of our hospitals and universities and sports facilities, etc.

If I could have my way, I could design many things including not building an MX missile and having star wars and the crazy federal budget that we have and we might have some sanity in this State and this City. But we don't live in a vacuum and this is not an island. And right now, the tax reform package, and let's not even call it tax reform, let's just call it a package that changes the mix of taxation in Pittsburgh and in Allegheny County and the Commonwealth is the only ballgame in town. And whether we like it or not, with all of its pitfalls and problems, I think it's important that there be maximum unity in this City and the County and small municipalities throughout the Commonwealth to make sure that pressure is put on the State Legislature. As long as it took both Houses to finally get to this point and now being in a conference committee, I think it's irresponsible for us to throw it out the window. And that's, to some extent, what you are suggesting.

I agree with your criticisms in terms of the sales tax. I note your observation of concern on what you feel is a lack of leadership on either County Commissioner or a particular Legislator from the North Side, but that notwithstanding, I think it's critical that there be maximum unity and I've urged the League of Cities on the 14th of the month when the Legislature reconvenes to do two things; one, is I think the first demonstration filling the Rotunda on our Light Up Day should be Light Up Day in Harrisburg, and that should be Republican office holders from school boards and township supervisors and commissioners. And they should have a Republican lobbying day in Harrisburg on the 14th to push for this package. Later on in the week I think Councilmembers, ourselves, and other Democratic and Republican and non-partisan officer holders, bi-partisan, should again return to put mass pressure on the legislature for the conference committee to come out with some report.

It's important to note, Mr. Woods, that on the issue of the change in the mix of taxes, the most we could hope for in this package is the possibility of lowering our four percent one percent, and because of the change of the mixes of taxes in this package, it will be likely the scenario that the County will increase taxes on wages in the County and reduce it on property. There would be less of a disparity between our four percent and the County's one percent; it would more likely create a scenario where they will pay three percent in wages or two and a half percent and we will pay three, and I think without that great indicator of the two percent we stand to deal with the issue of people fleeing the City because of the perceptions around the four percent wage tax. So, I disagree with you strongly.

The Chair:

I don't want to get into a debate here.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, I'd like to agree with Councilman Ferlo. This bill, the Senate Bill and the House Bill, leave a lot to be desired from the City's point of view. However, as he said, this is the only ballgame in town. I think that an idea that has been bantered around in the past and recently has been picked up by Controller Flaherty about State revenue sharing based on the percentage of tax exempt property in an area is something that would be most beneficial to the City of Pittsburgh. However, it doesn't seem as though we're going to be able to get something like that. It seems that if a compromise has to be hammered out politically within the next three weeks after election day, if this is the only ballgame in town and we do stand a chance of gaining some revenue, even if it is to reduced the wage tax by a half percent, it's something that we need to accept now for something that's reasonable and that also works in the future for further reform whereby maybe we can work on a idea that you mentioned about a gradual increase based upon somebody's salary.

But I think we shouldn't just throw the baby out with the bath water right now. It's something that we need to work on in conjunction with our other local representatives. And, as Councilman Ferlo said, get more Republican involvement because this State tax reform program doesn't only help the cities of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia but also benefits a number of the smaller communities and school boards throughout the State where they have a lot of Republican elected officials.

Michelle Madoff:

I think we're all pretty much saying we need some help and whatever the help that's going to be we're going to have to take the best we can get at the moment and I understand where Mr. Woods is coming from. But the fact remains that you pay the four percent wage tax whether you want to or not. But you don't have to go out and make purchases that are above the necessity. All of us buy things that are not perhaps necessities and I think there is some exemption, if I'm correct, there are exemptions on taxes on certain purchases like milk and some food. I don't think they will be taxed at all. So, I don't think the necessities are going to be taxed and I think that's important to put that in perspective so that anybody listening will say, "Oh, they're going to tax my child's milk out of its mouth or the shoes off its feet."

The Chair:

I just want to say that I strongly disagree with you even though I respect all of you. The sales tax is a wrong, wrong thing. Everything you but in a restaurant is taxed. The senior citizens goes out to McDonalds and they buy a $2 hamburger, they pay $2.12. Our residents of this City are made up of the senior citizens, the unemployed and the poor. The average middle class people are leaving this City and buy us urging this tax package we are really hurting our own City residents. Look at the figures, ladies and gentlemen. Our citizens that vote for us are senior citizens, the unemployed, and unemployable. That's who votes for us. That's who lives in the City now. The people that make our kind of money live out in the bedroom communities. They come here to work and they go back home at 5:00.

What we have to do is just do the progressive taxing. It's an occupation tax; it's not a wage tax. I think if you can get the other outlying legislators to support this thing, they won't support a commuter tax, they'll support this tax if someone goes down there and asks them. Why just say it's the only ballgame in town? Legislature goes back in in January. Somebody said they were fighting for tax reform for 20 years; well then we can wait one more year. You don't have to throw it out today because you're going to put a tax on you'll never get back. These legislators that live in these outlying communities will push this tax because when they vote for a sales tax, that's worse than having a commuter tax because all the people do not live in this City or do not work in this City. They live out in Greentree or Bethel Park. They don't want a higher sales tax so they'll go out there and they'll push for this progressive occupation tax. Subject closed.

Michelle Madoff:

On another subject. Mr. Wagner suggested that he reinstitute his concept of a marketing coordinator for the City. As he knows, I supported him on that. Completely. As a matter of fact, if memory serves me well, it passed.

Mr. Wagner:

Twice.

Michelle Madoff:

Council proposes and the Administration disposes. It's a joke. One of the things that we do when we're elected is we offer ourselves as scapegoats. The fact is that it's a very good suggestion and it was passed. Now I'm going to ask my colleagues a question. Do we have the courage, do we have the guts and do we have the fortitude to say, if the Administration doesn't want to do it, we're going to put an allotment into our budget next year and we're going to hire somebody.

The Chair:

As long as I get the job.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm very serious about this. What would be so terrible if we went out and hired somebody who is a promotion firm, someone who is knowledgeable in promoting this City, and since the Administration has shown twice now that while we passed this bill, they're not going to fill it. Why don't we put $100,000 in next year's budget, take one of those overruns that we don't have to have, the giveaways that we don't have to have. It pays for itself. I'll show you where to find $1 million next year for your finance department. Like this, without any costs. Take $100,000 and put that into hiring somebody that this Council will hire and have go out and do our promoting. We'll probably be told it's illegal because everything we do is illegal.

The Chair:

It's not illegal; we can discuss it at budget time.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, very briefly on a related, separate point. As we draw close to the end of October, we were to receive I believe by the end of October a request for proposal from the Department of General Services in relation to the hiring of consultant on the issue of the Act 101 and its implementation. This was coming out of the last post agenda that I sponsored a couple of months ago. The point being, and Michelle addressed this issue a little bit earlier, that there are a number of alternatives to deal with the mandatory recycling. There were different opinions on Council; I'm pushing the notion of the waste separation facility. There's also difference of opinion between the Administration and many people on whether we have sewer separation versus centralized separation.

There are many points that need to be addressed from incineration to energy to fuel to all the different alternatives. I believe the Director indicated that by the end of October there would be a request for proposal going out to hire a firm to deal with analyzing all the different options.

So, at this time I'd like to ask that a letter be sent to the Administration asking for the status of the RFP and what their plans are relative to the hiring of the consultant.

Michelle Madoff:

Second for discussion. I don't know whether you're aware, but it's something that I've been working on for 20 years. There are hundreds of consultants out there who could give you that information who won't charge you a dime and you don't need to pay for a consultant. Everybody would like to get the contract from the City; four firms have called me already.

I've picked up something from the newspaper and wrote to one of the firms. A Baltimore firm, for example, you were there, were you not, to observe the separation plant in Baltimore. I've written to that firm and they're going to send us, and I will share with my colleagues, all the viable, all the alternatives, all the cost factors involved. You don't need a consultant and you don't need to pay the taxpayers' money away foolishly.

Mr. Ferlo:

I do disagree with my colleague. I think we do need a consultant because there are lots of monies and different alternatives involved. We don't need to spend a lot of money on a consultant but we do need some expertise that I do not think exists currently on this staff.

Michelle Madoff:

I volunteer to give it to you for nothing.

The Chair:

All in favor? Opposed?

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, just one short comment. We've had some dialogue here for about the last 45 minutes on various issues and, actually, I think its very healthy. I think it has been good dialogue, good debate, not in a hostile sense. And, to be frank with you, I think that's what the people want relating to important issues like tax reform, marketing the City, trash disposal, and many, many other things. I hope we can do it more often.

Mr. DePasquale moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, September 26, 1988 and Monday, October 3, 1988.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Michelle Madoff

Council adjourned.

| Mr. Lyons      | Mr. Woods        |
|                | (Pres't Pro tem) |

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. DePasquale presents

No. 1591 WHEREAS, a very special art exhibit will soon be taking place in Pittsburgh on October 28 through November 18; and

WHEREAS, the Harmarville Rehabilitation Center in sponsoring the 1988 HARMARVILLE INTERNATIONAL, which will be held at Chatham College; and

WHEREAS, this juried show is an excellent opportunity for artists with physical disabilities to exhibit their original works of art, and this years show includes 180 pieces of art by 84 artists; and

WHEREAS, the aim is to encourage independence as well as to gain recognition for outstanding artistic accomplishment; and

WHEREAS, the three distinguished jurors chosen for this years event include Herbert Olds, Professor of Drawing at Carnegie Mellon University, Carol Siegel, Gallery G; and Thaddeus Mosley.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby proclaims October 27 - November 18, 1988 as a salute to the Harmarville International in recognition of the abilities and artistic accomplishments of artists with physical disabilities.

Mr. DePasquale moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 1592 WHEREAS, the INTERNATIONAL STUDIES PROGRAM of Schenley High School was incorporated in 1983, and DR. NATALIE APPLE and NERETTA TROXELL are the International Studies Coordinators; and

WHEREAS, the goal of the INTERNATIONAL STUDIES PROGRAM is to encourage intercultural understanding and communication between high school youth of various cities in the United States and Israel; and

WHEREAS, 16 high school students from Jerusalem arrived in Pittsburgh on Friday, October 28, 1988 to partake in this program for 10 days and they will be hosted by INTERNATIONAL STUDIES magnet students at Schenley High School; and

WHEREAS, these Israeli students will be experiencing the social, cultural, and educational environment of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, these Israeli students will be, in return, providing the Pittsburgh hosts with knowledge of their own homes, schools and communities.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby proclaims the week of October 31, 1988 through November 6, 1988 as "SCHENLEY-ISRAELI TEEN INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE WEEK"; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council commends DR. NATALIE APPLE and NERETTA TROXELL for their dedication and fine work in making this worthy program so successful in that it provides intercultural awareness between the hosts and their families of the United States and the very welcomed visitors and their families of Israel.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

I have with me Dr. Natalie Apple who will introduce some of the youths who will comment on this resolution on the program.

I just want to say that I think it's a very exciting project and what's interesting and unique about it is of that the 16 hosts of the 16 Israeli children, none of them are Jewish. And it really is an inter-cultural, inter-denominational, inter-faith program that is unprecedented in my memory. I want to thank the people at Schenley for doing this and offer a warm welcome of the City of Pittsburgh and of the government of the City of Pittsburgh to our Israeli friends who are visiting us. Thank you very much.

Dr. Apple:

Thank you, Councilman Pollock. I'd like to introduce first two Schenley students, Jason Carvelle and Katie Shuitt.

Jason Carvelle:

I would like to thank the members of City Council as well as the Mayor's Office for giving us this opportunity to be down here today. I'd like to say that it's very interesting to be a part of this proceeding.

I'd like to say that the program so far has been a great success and we've built a good relationship between us and I think as, Councilman Pollock said, the inter-faith and the inter-cultural exchange is very, very helpful for both of us, both the Israeli students as well as the Americans.

Dr. Apple:

I'd like now to introduce Leare and Inot, two Israeli students and their chaperon, Uval.

Leare:

First of all, it's a great honor for us to be here. We think this youth exchange between America and Israel is very good and wonderful. We want to take home the feeling that the City of Pittsburgh gave us. Thank you very much.

The Chair:

Thank you all for coming.

Mr. Pollock:

My next resolution was read on Friday at a ceremony in Sheraden.

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 1593 WHEREAS, EILEEN C. MULDER passed away on June 11, 1988; and

WHEREAS, EILEEN MULDER had dedicated her life to caring for her family and to serving her community as few others have; and

WHEREAS, EILEEN MULDER had been President of the Sheraden Community Council, had been a Board Member of the Goodwill Plaza Apartment Building and had been an active member of the Friends of the Library, the Sheraden Civic Club and the Sheraden Senior Citizens Organization; and

WHEREAS, EILEEN MULDER had been a Secretary of the Democratic Committee of the City of Pittsburgh's 20th Ward and a long time, active and diligent Democratic Committee Woman, and in both capacities, she served her Party and the people of Pittsburgh by assisting her neighbors, by registering voters, by educating the public and by encouraging participation in the democratic process; and

WHEREAS, EILEEN MULDER had been a Navy veteran, having served as a Pharmacist Mate during World War II, and had been an active member of the American Legion, East Liberty Post No. 5; and

WHEREAS, EILEEN MULDER left her husband, HARRY, two sons, HARRY, JR. and THOMAS, and three daughters, KATHLEEN MIHLFRIED, PATRICIA PETRUSCH and DENISE CARR, a sister VIRGINIA GEIER, a brother, TED CARR, and 10 grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, besides leaving her family, EILEEN MULDER left many, many caring and devoted friends, and a legacy of love and sincerity; and

WHEREAS, EILEEN MULDER was a model of grace, charm and compassion who helped many people during her lifetime, and she set a standard for service, integrity and dedication that all Pittsburghers should strive to emulate.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council and the people of Pittsburgh express its deep gratitude to EILEEN MULDER, a very special woman who gave so much and who shared her life with so many; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that as a very small token of appreciation for her lifetime of service and devotion to the people of Pittsburgh and as an eternal memorial to this uncommon woman, the Council and the people of the City of Pittsburgh dedicate the tree outside the Sheraden Senior Citizen Center to EILEEN C. MULDER; and

As this tree grows and flourishes, spreading beauty and giving joy to all who encounter it just as EILEEN MULDER did, may the people of Pittsburgh always remember the beauty and joy that was EILEEN MULDER.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

I just want to say that we did have a very lovely, beautiful ceremony on Friday where the tree was dedicated. There are many things, as I said on Friday, for which I'm grateful that politics has brought me, but there's nothing that I'm more grateful for than having had Eileen Mulder come into my life as a result of getting involved in politics. She was truly a very, very special woman and I cannot think of anyone who worked with her, worked against her, or ever came in contact with her, who would not say that she was one of the finest women they've ever encountered. There was no one that would say a bad word about her. We all miss her very, very much. Thank you.

The Chair:

Thank you, Mr. Pollock.

Mr. Coyne presented

No. 1557 Resolution further amending Resolution No. 1094, effective January 1, 1988, as amended, entitled:

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner presented

No. 1574 Resolution transferring the sum of $7,000.00 from Code Account 10 Accounts Payable Prior Years, to Code Account 1802 Supplies, Department of Parks and Recreation. This transfer is needed to provide funding to purchase grass seed, fertilizer and other related personnel and volunteers from the Brookline community.

—(SPONSORED BY MR. WAGNER)

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Wagner moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

No. 1575 Resolution amending Resolution No. 763, Item N, approved September 25, 1987, which authorized the sale of property in the 31st Ward, being a 2 Story, Frame house, located at 715 Ganges Way, designated as Block 135-M, Lot 101, to Carl R. Evans, Jr., for the sum of $2,500.00. The reason for the above Amendment is that because of the extensive damages that have occurred during the purchasing process, the building will require considerable more additional repairs than previously anticipated, and the purchaser is asking a reduction of the sale price.

Also,

No. 1576 Resolution Repealing Resolution No. 374, Item D, approved May 6, 1987, which authorized the sale of property in the 12th Ward, being a 2-1/2 Story, Frame house, located at 243 Carver Street, designated as Block 125-B, Lot 137, to Betty J. Holmes, for the sum of $1,500.00. The reason for the above Repealing Resolution is that neither the Purchaser nor the Objector appeared at the auction, and the sale was cancelled.

Also,

No. 1577 Resolution Repealing Resolution No. 445, Item E, approved June 4, 1987, which authorized the sale of property in the 13th Ward, being a vacant lot, located at 7610 Susquehanna Street, designated as Block 175-B, Lot 276, to Thenia L. Croom for the sum of $500.00. The reason for the above Repealing Resolution is that per correspondence from T.A. Title Company, requesting cancellation of the Sale, Mrs. Croom no longer wishes to purchase the property due to the fact that she will be moving away from the property.

Also,

No. 1578 Resolution whereas, City Council has heretofore enacted Resolution No. 181, Item E, approved March 25, 1988, authorizing the sale of property in the 13th Ward, located on Wheeler Street, designated as Block 174-H, Lots 47, 274, 276, to Kevin Vernon Mitchell, for the sum of $1,000.00. The purchaser failed to comply with the Agreement of Sale by not securing the Title Search. Resolution No. 757, Item E, approved Sept. 26, 1988 is hereby repealed, and Resolution No. 181, Item E, approved March 25, 1988 is hereby reinstated, and the sale continued.

Also,

No. 1579 Resolution No. 786, Item H, approved October 10, 1988, which authorized the sale of property in the 25th Ward, being a vacant lot, located at 111 Fountain Street, designated as Block 23-H, Lot 309, to Jean Stawecki, for the sum of $400.00. The reason for the above Repealing Resolution is that the purchaser in initiating the sale, was not fully aware of the additional responsibilities involved.

Also,

No. 1580 Communication from Sophie Masloff, Mayor, City of Pittsburgh, requesting authorization for Nello Giorgetti to meet with State Legislators regarding the Tax Reform Package and other legislation in Harrisburg, PA on various dates through November 30, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $2,500.00, payable from Code Account No. 1017, Mayor's Office, Miscellaneous Services. (PRIOR APPROVAL GRANTED)

Also,

No. 1581 Communication from James Turner, Director, Department of Finance, requesting authorization for himself to attend the Government Finance Officers Association seminar on Public Debt Administration, in Atlanta, Georgia, November 28-30, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $1,155.00, payable from Code Account No. 1063, Miscellaneous Services, Department of Finance. With the advent of the Tax Reform Act of 1986 and the Technical Corrections issued by the Congress and IRS, it is important that the Finance Department maintain critical levels of understanding of the new laws and methods of debt financing.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Chair presented

No. 1582 Petition from the residents of the City of Pittsburgh, requesting a public hearing to discuss Section 8 Housing and other City related problems in the Sheraden area. (This petition is valid in accordance with Section 320 of the Home Rule Charter).

Also,

No. 1583 Petition from the residents of the City of Pittsburgh, requesting a public hearing concerning the leasing of the Schenley Park Golf Course. (This petition is valid in accordance with Section 320 of the Home Rule Charter).

Which were read, received and filed.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Wagner presented

Bill No. 1584

Report of the Committee on Finance for October 26, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions one ordinance to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1472

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution transferring the aggregate amount of six-hundred eighty-five thousand dollars ($685,000) from various Department of Public Safety Code Accounts, Code Account 49, and Code Account 41, Department of Finance, to Code Account 1443-3, Premium Pay, Bureau of Police." (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1473

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution transferring the aggregate amount of nine-hundred and forty-five thousand dollars ($945,000) from various Department of Public Safety Code Accounts, Code Account 49, Code Account 41, Code Account 53, and Code Account 1608."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1474

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution transferring the aggregate amount of one-hundred and eighty-six thousand dollars ($186,000) within various Department of Public Safety Code Accounts." (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1475

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution transferring the aggregate amount of three-hundred and eight thousand dollars ($308,000) from various Department of Public Safety Code Accounts."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, on the first four bills regarding the transfer of code accounts in order to supplement the salaries, one thing I've learned since the Committee discussion on Wednesday is that we are transferring money from non-salary accounts to salary accounts, which, I believe, is not traditionally done. One bad precedent that we're setting in approving this, and I hope it's not the case that we're sending a message to the Administration for the future, is that we could have a scenario where department directors will be padding budget and non-salary code accounts waiting for the end of the year when those transfers can be made. So, I would hope that in discussing the budget next month, we're not sending that signal out to them. So, I have a problem right off the bat with these transfers.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                 |                  |
|-----------------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne       | Mr. Pollock      |
| Mr. DePasquale  | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Lyons       | Mr. Woods        |
| Michelle Madoff | (Pres't Pro tem) |

AYES 7 NOES 1

(MR. FERLO VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1479

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant or warrants, without previous authority of law, in the amount of Sixty Thousand and One Hundred ($60,100) Dollars in favor of Chambers Development Co., Inc. John Rangos, Jr., Vice President, for payment of Rental of Drop Boxes and the Disposal of Materials due to the inability of the vendor under contract to perform the drop box services and the immediate need for refuse removal, and providing for the payment thereof."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1488

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant or warrants, without previous authority of law, in the amount of Forty-Six Thousand and Eight Hundred ($46,800) Dollars in favor of Chambers Development Co., Inc. John Rangos, Jr., Vice President, for payment of Rental of Drop Boxes and the Disposal of Materials due to the inability of the vendor under contract to perform the drop box services and the immediate need for refuse removal, and providing for the payment thereof."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

On Bill 1488 and the others in relation to the money for Chambers Development, while recognizing that this was work already performed, I'm voting no on this legislation because I think very clearly this was work of an emergency nature that could have been done by the existing Department of Public Works and/or Environmental Services and it could have been disposed of in the existing landfill that we have on the existing contract that we have, and I'm also concerned about the lack of minority participation in the handing out of that particular bid.

Also,

Bill No. 1500

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant or warrants, without previous authority of law, in the amount of Fourteen Thousand Three Hundred ($14,300) Dollars in favor of Chambers Development Co., Inc. John Rangos, Jr., Vice President, for payment of Rental of Drop Boxes and the Disposal of Materials due to the inability of the vendor under contract to perform the drop box services and the immediate need for refuse removal, and providing for the payment thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

I apologize again for coming down with a severe case of the flu. Unfortunately, I have not had time because there have been some other pressing issues and meetings in my office all morning. I am a little bit confused, and I wonder if Mr. Ferlo could help me, on the Rangos, Chambers Development refuse removal. I've tried to find out from the Refuse Department whether this was because of the cutbacks in Personnel, whether this —

Mr. Lyons:

You're raising a question that I think I can answer.

Michelle Madoff:

I yield to Mr. Lyons.

Mr. Lyons:

The question is that back earlier this year some of the minority haulers that had contracts with the City for removing refuse had been frozen out of having the places to drop their boxes. They couldn't get in, the landfills were shut out to them. Seemingly, Chambers was the only one that had a corner on this market. They kept BFI out too. Anyhow, since last Wednesday, I've talked to Fulton an length and I have a first-hand picture of it, and that is, he was allowed to drop 27 boxes a day at Chambers. But when the landfill was closed down by DER down in Carnegie, then Chambers would only allow them to drop three boxes. That's all they were allowed to drop and that's what created this problem. They had to leave their boxes because there was nowhere to drop them and then Chambers came along and scooped it up.

Now, the thing is, Fulton later, I had tried to help him, he had to take his jobs all the way to Youngstown. That's where he's been taking his refuse. But he had lost his with the City and I think it's a bad impact on him as a future person because they're going after his bond. There's $120,000 some that's going to be taken off in bond fees to recover and certainly this is going to hurt the vendor when he tries to get a new bond. I'm not for the bill.

Michelle Madoff:

May I get clarification, Mr. President. Perhaps you could help me.

The Chair:

I'm not going to speak on the bill but it's not being explained properly. That's the bad thing.

Michelle Madoff:

If the independent hauler had the right to dispose of their loads at the Chambers landfill, and Chambers denies them that right, and then comes along and says, "But I'll tell you what, we'll do it", and it's still going to the same landfill, then I think that's unethical. Is that correct or not correct?

The Chair:

I am not going to speak on the bill. I think that someone can speak on the bill — It's in Mr. Pollock's committee, General Services, and I am not going to speak on the bill. But I will say that I don't agree with what is said here.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't know. I'm asking if that's the case or not.

May I continue, please. The other evening I was Downtown and there's a fast food chain called The Express. I don't know if it's called The Express, period, or whether it's called The Express something.

The Chair:

Is this on the bill?

Michelle Madoff:

Yes, on the bill. It's about garbage.

The Chair:

Wait a minute. I don't want to hear about a fast food chain. We want to hear about paying three bills to Chambers, whether we're going to pay them or not pay them.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay, I yield. I'll talk about it afterwards.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, whether Fulton could comply or not, we still have to pay Chambers for services rendered. There's no way in the world we can get out of it.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, let's not be confusing anything I said. First of all, Chambers Development saved the day in this respect. All due credit to them. They came in and fulfilled a service, specifically getting rid of mountains and mountains of garbage that has been talked about and viewed in the media. So, clearly, they fulfilled a responsibility and came in and helped save the day. The problem I have is that they should have not been contracted with. This work could have been done by the rental of some tandems and the hauling off of this refuse which has been dumped at the 29th Street City Garage by Director Botsford and the head of Environmental Services violating health codes and everything else. This could have been hauled off by the existing workforce in Public Works or in Environmental Services and it could have been taken to the landfill where we already have an existing contract. There's a separate issue on the future bid. Clearly, Fulton Hauling is out of the picture entirely; in fact, there will be legal action against this company for defaulting on not fulfilling their previous contracts with the transfer station, the roll-off boxes. That's a secondary issue that can be addressed in the future in terms of a future bid, which I assume Chambers would want or BFI or anybody else. But I'm voting no on this legislation because I don't believe that they should have been contracted for the work in the first place, recognizing the fact that they did, in fact, save the day and come in and clean up the mess.

Mr. Lyons:

The thing that I wanted to further point out is that when Fulton had it, and after they closed the landfills, as I understand, since last Wednesday and before, is that even per load went sky-high on them, like whatever they were dropping, if it was $6 or $7 a load it went up to like $35 a load. And while I'm not for the bill, I think the fair thing is to pay for the work that has been done.

Michelle Madoff:

I want to thank everybody for clarifying it. What we're talking about now is the garbage down at our transfer station where we have our trucks and our repairs. This is not the first time for members of Council that this issue has come up. It has come up several times in the ten years I have been here. They've been called on it and they know that this shouldn't happen. It isn't like an accident that this storing of garbage, which is indeed a health hazard and we are indeed violating the health codes and not setting a very good example, and that I believe Mr. Ferlo is correct that we have a responsibility to set an example to other industries around the area.

I don't know how the General Services has allowed this to happen, why it was allowed to build up to this degree, and whether Chambers should get paid because they helped us out of a bind is a separate and apart issue from, I guess, the issue of are they keeping other haulers from dropping at their landfill because they own the landfill. We all know just by reading the media, when one wants to accept the stories and investigations and if one has been around the environmental issues for a number of years, that the issue of refuse, you know, garbage is gold. People who own the rights to garbage own the rights to lots of money. I don't know that we have anything that we can do on the fact that Rangos, I was told, came in and removed this unhealthy condition for us, and if they didn't, in truth, create this condition by stopping the hauler from bringing the same refuse to the same landfill. What happened is that somebody is cut out who has a contract but the man who owns the landfill say, I'll take it and you pay me.

What Mr. Ferlo is saying is that we shouldn't have had to go to any hauler; we should have been able to dispose of it through our regular pick-up system. And then that gets back to the first question I asked; did this happen because we cut back on the number of refuse people? And there's going to be a hearing on that. If we had more refuse workers, could they have gone down to 29th Street and picked it up?

The Chair:

That's not the issue. I understand what everyone is saying but that's not the issue in front of us. The issue in front of us, on these three pieces of legislation, is does this Council want to pay for services rendered. That's all there is to it.

Michelle Madoff:

If we don't, they'll sue us and we'll have to pay lawyer's fees.

The Chair:

Do you want to pay for services rendered? That's all I can ask you.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, on all three bills the City has been put in a difficult situation with this contractor due to the environmental regulations placed on landfill operators.

Obviously, Fulton does not have a landfill themselves. Consequently, they had to subcontract out to take the refuse from the City, and I suspect even other companies where they pick up refuse, and they didn't have anywhere to go because there are less and less landfills and the costs are getting higher and higher to dump rubbish in landfills. Consequently, they could not meet the mandate of the contract; someone else came in and did the work. The question has been raised, could the City have done that? Possibly the City could have; we discussed that last Wednesday. However, the Director indicated that we don't have the equipment to do that. I think maybe we should look in the future to invest in some equipment of that type so we can do it ourselves and hopefully it will be cheaper. But I see us doing nothing other than approving this legislation because whoever made the comment, they're right. We needed an operator to come in and do this work, and thankfully they were there to do the work.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm going to abstain because I believe that we have to pay the bill simply because we'll get sued and it will cost us more but, on the other hand, I want to make a protest vote against the discrimination against a hauler who was denied the same source of dumping their garbage as they Chambers landfill, if what I heard today is true. And since I don't know, I'm going to abstain.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |             |
|----------------|-------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Mr. Pollock |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner  |
| Mr. Lyons      |             |

AYES 5                      NOES 1

(MR. FERLO VOTING NO)

(MICHELLE MADOFF AND MR. WOODS ABSTAINING)

The Chair:

Those three bills, 1479, 1488 and 1500 are tabled. You need six votes to pass the Wallace Act.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll change my vote so that we can get this resolved. We're going to have to pay it anyway. I wanted to put in a protest vote but it's got to be paid or we'll be sued. I'll vote for it.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                 |
|----------------|-----------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Michelle Madoff |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Pollock     |
| Mr. Lyons      | Mr. Wagner      |

AYES 6                      NOES 1

(MR. FERLO VOTING NO)

(MR. WOODS ABSTAINING)

And there being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also, - with a NEGATIVE recommendation,

Bill No. 1482

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title One - Administrative, Article V, Legislative, Chapter 151, Council, Section 151.01 (a) REGULAR AND SPECIAL MEETINGS by changing the date of the Regular Meeting of Council from Monday at 2:00 P.M. to Tuesday at 10:00 A.M."

—(SPONSORED BY MR. LYONS)

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

My understanding is that this is a bill I've tried to have initiated in this Council for a number of years. I think you and I discussed it, Mr. Woods, some years ago. My reason at the time has not changed. Mr. Perry has consistently given us information very late, our agendas, I was here on a Friday, they agendas are not ready. I come in on Monday, they're not ready. They appear here at our desk and we haven't even looked at the final vote. I've asked him whether it would be of any help to him to move it from Monday until Tuesday and he said yes it would. That would be my reason for voting for it.

But I have a little confusion here. Unfortunately, I've been out, in case anybody is interested and has missed me, I'm sure it wasn't my colleagues but if the public missed me at all I have had a very severe case of the flu that's going around which I probably gave to my staff and now they're sick. I'm a little confused as to why we're changing it from Monday at 2:00 until Tuesday at 10:00 instead of Tuesday at 2:00. Why don't we just keep it exactly the same as it always is, just move it over a day?

I would like to amend it to say Tuesday at 2:00. The idea is to give Mr. Perry enough time to be able to get material to us. And then once we get it on Monday, if it's not here Friday we'll have at least Tuesday morning to check with department heads on what's happening. So, I would suggest strongly that we move it until Tuesday at 2:00.

The Chair:

I think the reason for that, if I can answer for Mr. Lyons and Mr. Perry, at 10:00 we can still have hearings at 2:00 Tuesday afternoons if we chose to. Our meetings here usually run an hour and a half or two hours, but if we would have a public hearing at 10:00 on a Tuesday, they could run, as you know, lately they've been going for three and four hours, sometimes longer, and that may interfere with our legislative meeting. This way, if we have the legislative meeting in the morning, nothing can interfere with it and we can have hearings in the afternoon.

Michelle Madoff:

In other words, what you're saying, Mr. Woods, is that if we were to have a hearing in the morning, we might run into our sessions. So, we've reversed the procedure; that was your rationale for changing.

I also have another point of confusion that perhaps you can straighten out. My understanding was that there was some problem with the waiving of Rule 8. It seems to me that we would have less waiving of Rule 8 if the meetings were contiguous. It would not be appropriate to say that we're going to waive Rule 8 until tomorrow; therefore, it would only be a week away and we would cut down on the waiving of Rule 8 which I find really to be a problem. I don't like to see five signatures by my colleagues where I have been excluded because I won't vote on something coming up and being passed without coming before this Council. My gut is that we will discontinue as many waiving of Rule 8's because it will only be a week away as opposed to nine days away.

That was a concern of my colleagues who lobbied me to try to get me to change my vote. What they don't know is that we had talked about this long before they got to Council because Mr. Perry was having a lot of problems getting us our materials. Weeks would go by before Minutes arrived, weeks would go by before agendas arrived. Material that was mailed out to our homes so that we would have agendas didn't come until after we were in session. And now with the Saturday postal delivery being virtually eliminated, I think it is better to move the meetings from Monday to Tuesday. My preference would be at 2:00 but I will go with 10:00.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. Chairman, personally I haven't had any problems since arriving on Council receiving the agenda or the Minutes or anything from Mr. Perry's office. I think they've done a fine job, and personally, I've been able to prepare in the amount of time allotted.

My main concern is the suspension of Rule 8. There is nothing I see that says that we will decrease the suspension of Rule 8. I don't feel that gives us enough time to communicate with the Director between Tuesday morning and Wednesday morning to find out exactly what is going on with a bill or to have questions answered if need be. So that's why I'll be voting against this bill.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, in response to my colleague, Michelle, never have I heard a more shallow defense in defense of a piece of legislation. Actually, a veiled defense at that.

Since I've arrived January 4th, I can't remember, there hasn't been one time when we have not received an agenda on a Friday. In fact, sometimes it's available on a Thursday. So, nothing is further from the truth in that respect and I commend the Clerk and the staff.

Secondly, it's ridiculous to say that you need to study the agenda for the Monday final vote. These bills coming up for final vote on a Monday have been discussed an length in the previous Committee Session on a Wednesday and, in fact, many times are discussed several times because we hold, I can't quote the number but there has been a very large number of bills that are more controversial or substantive that have always been held one, two, three weeks at a time. So, that's just an outrageous statement.

This bill is nothing more than giving Councilmembers a five-day weekend, and let's call it for what it is. I would be sympathetic to voting for the legislation either at 10:00 a.m. or in the afternoon on Tuesday if in the same breath the amendment would be to also move the Wednesday session to a Thursday. There have been over 150 waivers of Rule 8 which not only expedites Council's review, or really doesn't allow any Council review of the legislation submitted on a Monday. There's no time to interact with department directors and collect information for the Wednesday session and there's nothing that will lead me to believe that the Administration will not continue to waive Rule 8 ad infinitum.

This bill, in effect, cuts down on meaningful citizen participation. We are cutting out public input from the body. I have found it very valuable for when bills are introduced on a Monday to hear commentary from citizens, from the public, from special interest groups, from City workers, from middle management people who call my office, and I'm sure they call other members of Council about bills that have been introduced. I find that very helpful. It's part of my information gathering and review of legislation. We're expediting that and we're actually eliminating that meaningful participation on the part of the citizenry.

An important part of this legislative body is to interact with the media. Whether I like it or not, because sometimes I get banged on the head by the editorialists and I will continue to get banged on the head; sometimes they support me and sometimes they don't. But we're also cutting down on the media time that I think is a part of that citizen participation component of Council. We're cutting down because the media days will run into each other, the Tuesday and the Wednesday. The week is divided up; we get more play, there's more likely multiple articles in the media and on the radio and the TV by keeping the meetings, if nothing less, than one day apart.

Again, this bill is contradictory from an existing rule in the bylaws. This bill is changing the ordinance as we know codified into law, but the Council bylaws, the waiving of Rule 8, if anybody actually reads the rule, it says very clearly that there will be nine days between the introduction of bills and the Finance Committee's first discussion of the bill. So, in a way, this bill is somewhat contradictory and it needs a companion piece of legislation which I hope would be offered at some point.

I would be the first to support the bill if I saw a willingness to also make a part of this ordinance an amendment to change the Wednesday session to Thursday. If all of you are saying you don't need the five day weekend and this is not a big hullabaloo to conceal that, then you should support a Thursday meeting. I'm not sure what Councilmembers are hiding from.

So, again, this bill should be defeated. It cuts down meaningful citizen participation, it disrupts the workings of Council that have been such for four or five decades, the meetings have been such on a Monday and a Wednesday. And there hasn't been one rational reason why this bill should be enacted other than the fact that some want to do other work on the side, which I respect them for wanting to do that and it's possible they need the income. But the rest of the working people in this City, including her honor, the Mayor, is at work Mondays, 8 o'clock or 9 o'clock in the morning. And anybody who is running for Mayor should put in the same work schedule and I think anybody else on this Council should be supporting that also.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, I'd like for my remarks to be brought forward from last Wednesday.

The next thing on Rule 8, Section A of the bylaws, it would be determined how this bill goes to change those bills. So, there isn't anything at fault.

And I think that it gives the people here another day to lobby the Council for their bill. It gives them more time. I differ from any other thought and I think the bill is in order.

---

(MR. LYONS' REMARKS INSERTED ON THE FOLLOWING PAGES FROM BILL NO. 1482)

---

(BEGINNING - MR. LYONS' COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1482 - WEDNESDAY, 10/26/88)

Mr. Lyons:

I think this is -- it gives the public another day to lobby for their bills, it gives the Directors another day to put their addendums together to Council when they leave the table on Wednesday and to get it to us by Tuesday and then furthermore with the bills coming out as they do and as many as there are, it gives the Councilperson himself another full day to study the bill and I think this would be very pertinent in a change.

(END OF COMMENTS)

PREPARED BY: MARY ANNE HRUSKA, STENOTYPE REPORTER 1

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I thought, the last meeting that I was here, that everybody seemed to respect each other and we had stopped this business of personal attack and I resent the personal attack by Mr. Hyperbole who always panders to the lowest denominator in everybody. The little twerp is now Mr. Hyperbole as far as I'm concerned. I did not start this but when I'm attacked for all women, Mr. Hyperbole, I will respond.

The fact remains that what we need to do if we really want to have a meaningful companion bill, what we need is a bill that says we will not waive Rule 8. And the fact remains, and you may correct me, Mr. Woods, you still have the power to set hearings on Monday, do you not, sir?

The Chair:

Exactly.

Michelle Madoff:

And we may be here having very important meetings on Monday. Is that not correct? And it is not because you want to have a vacation, I believe, because whether you're here for a hearing or whether you're here for an important final vote, so be it. The only concern that is valid is the issue of the nine days and I would like to see the elimination of so many waiving of Rule 8. Let's just eliminate that. But I have been here for ten and a half years and my experience has been, and I've talked to Mike Perry, I've called him and said, "Mike, what would be best for you?" I don't really care whether it's Monday at 2:00 or Monday at 10:00. We've talked about doing it Monday at 10:00, have we not? I said, "What would help you, Mike?" He said, "It would be better for me if you did it on Tuesday." And I will honor his request because it doesn't matter. And when I'm not here for a hearing, I'm probably doing something very, very important and probably more important than Mr. Hyperbole is addressing.

The Chair:

I just want to make one statement. The remark about a five day weekend, there's not a Councilmember here that doesn't work and come in this office at least five days a week, so that's a poor statement. Whether we have meetings when we're on our vacation, you know it, I know it and the media knows it. They call here on a Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday or Friday, and sometimes on Saturdays and Councilmembers are here when we're on our break. So, it really, really is a poor statement, Mr. Ferlo. And I know you didn't mean it but they're going to print it and make it look nice in the paper. But that's not true and you know it's not true.

Now we're going to call for the vote. All in favor of the bill --

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I haven't finished in response to my colleague, Michelle.

The Chair:

Everyone responded to everyone else. No. Roll call vote.

Mr. Ferlo:

There's more discussion on the bill, Mr. Chairman. You don't have the right to cut it off.

The Chair:

Yes I do.

Mr. Ferlo:

No you don't. Mr. Chairman, I want to make an additional comment.

The Chair:

Keep going with the vote.

Mr. Ferlo:

First of all, I think it's unfair for the personal attack. I've kept it above --

The Chair:

Keep going. Mr. Ferlo is not voting.

Mr. Ferlo:

If we look at the track record of Mr. Woods, if you look at the track record, Michelle will often times not even attend --

The Chair:

You're out of order. You're going to get fined. I'm telling you, Jim.

Mr. Ferlo:

No, because you're cutting off debate.

The Chair:

I've cut off the debate.

Mr. Ferlo:

I think you should allow one more round.

The Chair:

No. You're fined.

Mr. Ferlo:

I didn't cast my vote yet. I abstain and I'd like to explain my abstention.

The Chair:

No. He is not abstaining his abstention.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman --

The Chair:

You are out of order. Don't push me.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, everyone explains their abstention.

The Chair:

You are fined again.

Mr. Ferlo:

Are you changing the rules now on abstentions? People explain their abstentions.

The Chair:

Jim, I'm telling you, don't push the issue.

Mr. Ferlo:

But Michelle will talk about --

The Chair:

You are fined again.

Mr. Ferlo:

Everyone speaks on their abstentions and I should be extended the same courtesy as other members of this Council.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like my remarks to be brought forward, please.

(MR. WAGNER'S REMARKS INSERTED ON THE FOLLOWING PAGES FROM
BILL NO. 1494)

(BEGINNING - MR. WAGNER'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1494 - WEDNESDAY, 10/26/88)

The Chair:

Directors, I just have a couple of questions. First of all, I think it's a good settlement under unfortunate conditions here on this particular bill and I'm certainly supporting it. What is the fine if someone is caught in a pool by public safety personnel afterhours?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Since it's posted it would be defiant trespass and my recollection is the fine for the first offense is $300.00 or six months in jail.

The Chair:

How many people have we apprehended and prosecuted who have been caught in our pools in the last two years?

Ms. Brown:

I can get you that information. That would come from the Public Safety Department.

The Chair:

Do we have that information here today?

Ms. Brown:

I doubt it.

The Chair:

Could you please get that to us on Monday because obviously I think it's important for us to take a look at that. If the fine is not high enough, if the sign postage is not sufficient, I think they're the types of things that we should look at and create some kind of public deterrent to keep people from going into the pools.

Some of the items that Councilman Ferlo alluded to, some of the problems of which I agree with some of the things he said, some of the items I disagree, the point has been made that to put a pool in a highly-visible area I think is security in and of itself rather than an isolated area, that's one of our problems in the City, most of our pools are in isolated areas.

Ms. Brown:

There are a lot of people that don't want them next door.

---

The Chair:

That's true, however if a pool is along a well-traveled road, there's less potential that people are going to use it afterhours and the best example I can give you is Dormont Pool along Banksville Road. You seldom ever see anyone in there afterhours because it's so visible and someone could easily be caught, but lighting, proper lighting, proper fencing and I know a couple of the incidents that we had this past summer we did not have proper lighting at the Brookline Pool, we didn't have the lights on when that vandalism occurred, we did have a fatality at the Beechwood Pool in Beechview, there were some problems with fencing there and I think we have to look at things like lighting, good fencing, proper signage and penalties.

I should say, and Director Brown indicated that there have been greater patrols by public safety last year with a pool patrol that went around to all of our 35 or so pools in the city. This year that was accelerated into a flying squad to put more emphasis on the parks. I think it has helped somewhat but obviously we still have a concern.

If there is some way in which Council can address it legislatively by increasing the fine, by better signage at the pools indicating the penalty and the use of pools afterhours, please let us know.

(AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

I don't understand the logic of spending another $24,000 for work stations in the Public Safety Building. I'm opposed to all the expenses that we've occurred, over $100,000 this year on work stations. But in this situation, these are usually planned structures that fit into specific defined areas. Why spend this money in somebody else's building, even though they happen to be portable? They usually plan and design for specific work places. I can't see what's wrong with using existing desks; we probably have a warehouse full of office equipment, albeit not necessarily new. But it's a waste of money to spend over $24,000 for work stations in the Public Safety Building when it's supposed to be a temporary structure.

Michelle Madoff:

My understanding is that these are modular and portable and can be moved anywhere at any time. I don't know if this $24,000 is part of the shipment that was purchased from Conrail and we're just reimbursing one fund to another, but we bought $1.8 million for $350,000 of this modular furniture for the Public Safety Building. I'd like to know whether this is part of it or not. Is it? Does anybody know? Is this an additional purchase to that $350,000?

The Chair:

I understand it's an additional purchase.

Michelle Madoff:

This is the first time we were allowed to go out and buy en masse. We've done it two or three times and saved the City a lot of money to but repossessed or gently worn in good condition, under warranty, materials. I don't know.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, isn't this having to do with the Public Safety Building and not the Gateway View Plaza?

The Chair:

It says Public Safety Building. It's just the Public Safety Building.

Mr. Coyne:

I don't understand why Councilman Ferlo then refers to it as temporary.

The Chair:

Why don't you just recommit the bill and bring it back up?

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Coyne brings up an important point that brings the question of the validity of the Public Safety Building work which, the last time we left off this discussion in Council, was whether or not there was wisdom in proceeding with the overhaul of the Public Safety Building. To my knowledge, we've never really resolved that earlier agenda item.

The Chair:

The last time I looked, and that was this morning, we were proceeding because I see construction all over the place.

Mr. Ferlo:

It's asbestos removal. We said that no matter what we did we'd have to get rid of the asbestos, even if we wanted to sell the building, but it was still pretty much an open question. If I remember the post agenda, Michelle and other participated in, Mr. McDermott was to come back and they were to do a survey. I believe Mr. Jacoby made a commitment to look at other buildings, the Blue Cross Building and others in the Downtown area. I thought we agreed that no matter what we had to do the asbestos removal, but the jury was still out on whether or not we would actually proceed with the Public Safety Building.

The Chair:

Mr. Pollock, what's your pleasure with this bill? It's your bill.

Mr. Pollock:

How much sentiment is there to recommit? Recommittal is fine with me.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Woods presented

Bill No. 1588

Report of the Committee on Parks and Recreation for October 26, 1988 transmitting one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1434

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution changing the name of English Lane Field in Frick Park to Stanley Lederman Field." —(SPONSORED BY MR. WAGNER)

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I'd like my comments brought forward on the bill from last Wednesday's meeting, and I just briefly want to state that this request came in from the Squirrel Hill Little League Association. It was agreed upon by the Director of Parks and Recreation, Louise Brown, and I think it is an excellent idea. This field is officially named Field No. 4 in Frick Park and the name is being suggested to be changed to Stanley Letterman Field, a person that has devoted a whole lot of time, energy, and years of work to the community.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'd like my comments brought forward on this bill also.

(MR. WAGNER'S AND MR. FERLO'S REMARKS INSERTED ON THE FOLLOWING PAGES FROM BILL NO. 1434)

---

(MR. WAGNER'S AND MR. FERLO'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1434 - WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1988)

Mr. Wagner:

I would like to comment on the Bill since I sponsored it, if that is okay. I would also like to send out a letter that I received from the Squirrel Hill Little League Association. I would like each one of you to please read that letter.

It is dated September 28, 1988 from Mr. Rand Frankel who is now the Commissioner of the Squirrel Hill Little League Association. Mr. Frankel has indicated the reasons and the suggestion to change the name of this field. It was the Squirrel Hill Little League Association that made that recommendation to my office which precipitated this piece of legislation in front of you.

In looking at the letter, you will see not only does he compliment Mr. Lederman for his numerous activities involved in the Squirrel Hill Little League Association for the past 16 years, he also indicates that this field is officially named Field No. 4 in Frick Park and unofficially named English Lane Field.

He further indicates that he has spoke with the Director of Parks and Recreation, Director Louise Brown, in regard to this, and she is in support of this name change. He did that prior to submitting this letter to me and prior to me submitting this legislation.

I would like to say that I have known the individual involved here, Mr. Stanley Lederman, for a number of years. I have known of his involvement in the community. I did not know the degree of involvement with the Little League Association. I have known for the last five years, but I did not know prior to that. He has been involved, as indicated in the letter, for the last 16 years, 10 of those 16 years as Commissioner of the League.

He has been extremely active and important in terms of improving the condition of the field and getting lights, fences and even a snack bar at the field and obviously extremely involved with the young people in the Squirrel Hill community.

I think this is an excellent idea to rename the field after someone who has devoted thousands upon thousands of hours of his time over the last decade and a half to the neighborhood, to the youth of the neighborhood. We all know how important that is.

In my opinion, there is nothing more important that anyone who is a resident of the City of Pittsburgh can do than to devote time to the young people.

I think it is a very minor item for us to suggest that a name of a field be changed to honor that individual. But in doing so I think we are also sending a message to the young people in saying to them that if someone is dedicated enough and interested enough to devote the time and the effort and the energy towards helping young people, that individual should be recognized, number one. And I think it creates or sets an example and let's young people be reminded of the importance of doing that in their lives as they grow older.

So, I strongly recommend this name change, and I hope the majority of this Council supports it.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, given your eloquent address just now, voting against this would be like voting against motherhood or apple pie. And I would certainly vote in favor of it.

I have not been aware of the gentleman's decade or more long volunteer activities with the Baseball League. I know he is generally involved with the community, and certainly it would be a tribute, and it's very clear from your comments, as well as a letter received from the Squirrel Hill Little League group, that this person is most deserving.

My only concern, and I will vote in favor of this legislation, is that in the future -- we did support the notion that there will be a formal commission on renaming public places and property. Now this type of renaming may or may not fall into that category, I don't know. But I would use this as an opportunity to once again communicate to the Administration on the issue of a permanent commission that can deal with not only requests like this but other requests that will be coming and have come before this Council.

We did it by way of a non-binding resolution a couple of weeks ago. I was trying to keep in good faith with the Home Rule Charter which implies that we should communicate to the Administration our intentions when we want to create a unit of government or change the unit of government. But surely I will be introducing a formal Ordinance on the renaming of the Commission in hopes that Council and the Administration can have some dialogue on the activities of the Art Commission as well, which I think those individuals are being underutilized, and there is a broader mandate that needs to be fulfilled.

But on this issue of the field, I can see no reason for objecting to it. I think the political questions that have been raised on the gentleman's intentions for running for public office, as well as his political position, is really secondary and not really central to the request legitimately from the community group on the renaming of the field.

recommendation,

Bill No. 1491

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the participation by the City of Pittsburgh in Pittsburgh Crime Stoppers, Inc."

Which was read.

Mr. Pollock:

On the amendment which was submitted in writing, just one minor correction to make sure that everyone understands exactly what the motion to amend shall be. Section 2 on the amended bill will read, "The Director of the Department of Public Safety is authorized to provide office space for the operation of Pittsburgh Crime Stoppers, Inc." which, of course, would mean anywhere, the Public Safety Building or where they're using now or whatever.

And Section 3 would read, "The Director of the Department of Public Safety is authorized to designate City personnel to staff telephones used by Pittsburgh Crime Stoppers, Inc. and the Director of the Department of Public Safety and the Director of the Department of General Services are authorized to provide other reasonable necessary support services".

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Pollock:

On the bill, I'd like my comments brought forth, and I also want to take a second to talk about a really fine and beneficial example of a public private partnership which I think that this program exemplifies.

Right now, there are more than 700 cities across the United States and the world, including numerous other countries that have Crime Stoppers programs. When I got the idea to start it here in Pittsburgh, I went to the CNG Corporation and their Director of Corporate Public Affairs, Ray Ivey, became very excited about the idea and decided that they would be the lead sponsors on this to raise the money necessary to fund the rewards that are going to be given out to individuals that report crimes and criminals and also to provide the support staff necessary to run the program and the advertising and so forth.

So, I want to express my deep gratitude to CNG Corporation and its President, George Davidson, for being such a good citizen, and I also want to thank other individuals who have been very helpful in getting this off the ground, Joe Schiffhouer, the attorney from Buchanan and Ingersol who did all the incorporation and the Internal Revenue work, the public relations firm of Kramer, Dixon and Basford, Congressman Coyne's office and his assistant Jamie Rooney who were of great benefit in our obtaining the 501 C 3 non-profit designation from the Internal Revenue Service, Chief Anthony Hovenac from the Beaver Police, Beaver County Crime Stoppers who met with me on numerous occasions to explain how the program works and to help me get it started here in Pittsburgh. Of course, Director Cannon and Chief Pampena for endorsing the idea and really committing themselves to it and finding a dynamic, energetic and truly committed individual, Sergeant Mike Brown, to be the coordinator of the program. And a special thank you to my assistant Ralph Horgan who has done so much work in getting this program off the ground and who serves as the corporate secretary for the non-profit corporation.

I know that this is going to be successful; if I had any doubts about it, there was a really good omen on Friday. Last week when the article appeared in the paper about Pittsburgh starting a Crime Stoppers Program, an individual who lives in Pittsburgh saw the story and called his brother. His brother happens to be Lieutenant Tim Klein from the Albuquerque Police Department. Now, Lieutenant Klein happens to be the President of Crime Stoppers International and who, by amazing coincidence, is from Pittsburgh and who happened to be coming into Pittsburgh this weekend for a wedding of his sister or some other relative. We happened to have a corporate meeting planned for Friday morning at 10:00 and he was coming in Thursday. So he was able to join us at our meeting on Crime Stoppers and was of great benefit in our working out certain kinks that we had in how to institute the program here. So, that certainly bodes well when you have that kind of amazing coincidence.

I just want to state that, as I said, over 700 cities have these programs and there have been more than 700 cases solved as a result of individuals calling up with tips and receiving rewards. That's an average of between 300 and 400 cases per city and there has been over $1 billion in recovered property and narcotics that have been found as a result of Crime Stoppers Program with an amazing statistic of 97 percent rate of conviction for crimes in which a tip was received and a reward was given out.

As I said, we have a real exciting dynamic leader of this group, Sergeant Brown. We have a great deal of interest on the part of the electronic media; all three TV stations want to get involved in this. And I am going to be saying this on numerous occasions, I might as well start now, that within a matter of weeks any individuals out there that have any information about any crimes in the City of Pittsburgh can call 255-TIPS and they will be anonymously able to provide information about who did the crime, where the crime was committed, anything at all. They will receive a number; their name will never be known by any person. Their identity will be totally anonymous and they will have the opportunity to receive a reward of up to $1000 if it leads to the arrest or conviction of an individual.

So, all you amateur sleuths out there, you do-it-yourself Sherlock Holmes, now is the chance to really make some money and have a profound effect upon the crime solving statistics of the City of Pittsburgh.

I would be grateful for Council's support of this program. I think it's something that is long overdue and is extremely worthwhile. Thank you.

(MR. POLLOCK'S REMARKS INSERTED FROM BILL NO. 1491)

(BEGINNING - MR. POLLOCK'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1491 - WEDNESDAY, 10/26/88)

Mr. Pollock:

I would like Chief Pampena, Assistant Director DiNardo and Sergeant Brown to come to the table.

What I'd like to do is provide the members of Council and the public a brief background on this because I think it is a very exciting and a very beneficial proposal that we have been working on.

Several months ago I had talked to Director Cannon about the idea of having a reward program in the City of Pittsburgh for people who would provide information regarding crimes. It was my belief that the vast majority of crimes are committed with the knowledge of an individual besides the perpetrator of a crime either before the fact, after the fact or during the fact and that if there was some financial incentive on the part of the public to come forth in an anonymous manner with information, that this information would indeed come forth and would have a profound effect upon the crime-solving statistics for the City of Pittsburgh.

I was delighted that Director Cannon was excited about the idea and followed up on it and assigned Chief Pampena and his personnel, Commanders Rocco and Howard and so forth to get on the case and they've been wonderful working on this.

We have talked to other cities that have a program like this and I'd like to say that there are hundreds and hundreds of cities across the country that have a program like this already, and very instrumental in working with me on this and I have to give him thanks is Chief Hovanic from the Beaver Police over in Beaver County who really is one of the leaders in the nation on these reward-type programs. He started one down in Maryland and he started the one in Beaver County and they have a very, very high success rate. He provided me with a great deal of background information on this and was working with me in how to set it up here.

We have talked to the police in Birmingham, Alabama and Albuquerque, New Mexico and other cities to get background.

After we got the go-ahead from Director Cannon and Chief Pampena, it was then important to find the money for the reward program because I didn't want it to come out of city funds, so I went to the private sector to try and find interest on the part of the foundations and the corporations to fund the rewards, to get involved in the promotion of this plan and to serve on the board of the non-profit corporation. I'm delighted to say that the CNG Corporation and its President, George Davidson, became very much involved in this project, agreed to be the lead sponsor in raising the money from the City's corporations and foundations and expressed a great deal of interest in working with us on this plan.

We also had to form a non-profit corporation and I was able to prevail upon a friend of mine, an attorney by the name of Joe Schiffhouer who is with the law firm of Buchanan Ingersol and he donated all of his time informing the non-profit corporations and doing the work to obtain the non-profit status from the IRS so that we are a legal 501-C3 corporation and we can go out and raise money that is then tax exempt, charity donations, etc., and before we even received the IRS status we already had more than $15,000.00 in and now that we have the IRS status, I'm sure that we are going to come pretty close to our goal of $100,000.00 a year of money from the private sector to fund this program.

The way it will work is still being formularized but the Public Safety Department and Chief Pampera has already selected Sergeant Brown who is with us today to be the individual coordinator of the Crime Stoppers Program and I will let them discuss that.

I will say though that the interest on the part of the local media is outstanding; in fact, it's astounding. All three television stations are very, very interested and a representative from WPXI is here today and I would assume that it's about the Crime Stoppers Program. KDKA has been calling me around the clock to see when it can go; they're very excited and I think that it's going to be a very exciting program where we can put a crime-of-the-week on the local television stations and in local newspapers and maybe on the radio and maybe do a re-enactment of the crime, describe the incident and so forth and people who have information about the crime can then come forth, call Sergeant Brown, receive a number, they're never identified and they never have to let their identity be known. If the information that they provide leads to the arrest or conviction of an individual, the board that is formed will then meet to determine how much that information is worth, anywhere from $1.00 to $1,000.00 or possibly more if it's a serious enough crime and then we'll make that amount available to that individual; they receive cash so that there's no documents of checks so that they can be identified by anybody else at any time. It's a drop-off point where they receive the money so that they are never known and the whole thing is done with the protection of the witness so that their identity is never known and there is never any danger to them, even the police do not know their name and as I said, these programs around the country have a phenomenal success rate. Chief Hovanic down in Beaver County says that it's a 97 percent rate of crime solved where they have given out rewards and I think it will be a great benefit to the Public Safety Department and the police and at this point I would like Chief Pampera and Sergeant Brown to comment on the program, what they think about it, how they hope to implement it and so forth or answer any questions of members of Council. Chief, do you have any comments?

Chf. Pampena:

Yes, we've looked into the program and you've covered it very well and Sergeant Brown had attended one of the conferences of a Crime Stoppers Program and we have uncovered some information that has been successful. There's over 700 programs throughout the country and at this point in September they've reached the $1 billion mark in recovering property and/or narcotics confiscation, so we feel the program is successful in other cities and there's no reason why it wouldn't be successful here.

Mr. Pollock:

And Sergeant Brown will be in charge of going out to schools and neighborhood groups to get them involved in the program and so forth.

Chf. Pampena:

Yes. We have an initial budget of $75,000.00 and approximately $8,000.00 of that would be one-time purchases and the other, the remainder would be a yearly number. I would figure that once the program got off the ground, the best estimate would be that it would run anywhere from $80,000.00 to $100,000.00 per year which would include the rewards. I would hope that we could continue to fund that with private funds.

Mr. Pollock:

That's my intent that we not use city money that the foundations and corporations and hopefully the insurance companies could provide.

I also want to give a plug of thanks to the Kramer public relations firm because there's going to be a lot of PR and advertising involved in this. We're going to have to have graphics and signs put up so that people have the number to call with their tips and so forth and there's going to be a lot of promotion involved and Sergeant Brown is really going to have to work going around and in my dealings with him I can state that he's a very dynamic, aggressive guy and I think he's the right person for the job and Sergeant Brown, if there are any comments at this time please comment.

Sgt. Brown:

Well, yourself and Chief Pampena covered it very much. The Chief and I will be here to answer any questions of any Councilmembers.

(SPONSORED BY MR. FERLO)

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President and members of Council, as you know, I had requested the use of an outside attorney to draft legislation to stop the giving away of tax dollars by virtue of announcing how much money we have to give away. Not to exceed. It seems that after ten years this Council finally has seen the light and seems to agree with the position I've taken. There's no reason again to have a fire station demolished for $70,000 that would cost $14,000 and to have the bids come in at sixty-six, sixty-eight and sixty-nine and then give another $336,000 away.

I have gone to this attorney and the attorney has contacted the Law Department, Mr. Specter, and it turns out that drafting this legislation means amending many of the City bills. It is very complicated and it's going to take time. Therefore, I would like to request of this Council that, and I'm looking at Bill No. 1530, that by executive order we petition the Mayor by a motion of Council to, by executive order, have the Administration just change the procedure. It is a very simple thing to do. Instead of saying, as we do here on Bill 1530, that we are going to —

The Chair:

Let me interrupt you. That bill is on a swimming pool, artificial turf. But you can't talk about some other idea, and I respect you, but please don't do it. Just talk on that artificial turf.

Michelle Madoff:

Alright, then let me talk about this artificial turf and let me talk about this bill. It's on playgrounds, recreation pools, Dean's Field, etc., etc. The item is at $1,130,000. I don't have any problem with the bill. I have a great problem with saying that over $1 million to give away. Maybe it could be done for $600,000. I don't know. But there's no reason to advertise the amount. And by executive order, we could stop on Bill 1530 advertising the amount.

The Chair:

Okay, you're against that bill.

Michelle Madoff:

No. I'm going to bow to your wisdom and I'm going to ask at the end of the meeting that we introduce a letter to the Administration that by executive order they do what should have been done light years ago.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Michelle Madoff  |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Ferlo      | Mr. Woods        |
| Mr. Lyons      | (Pres't Pro tem) |
| AYES 7         | NOES none        |

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

On the executive order, may I make a floor motion, and for those of you who seem to agree that this is the correct way to proceed, let us stop giving the store away, let's stop advertising how much money we have to give to contractors, let's keep that information proprietary. A bill is being prepared that will amend the various codes to make it law but it can be done by executive order. And I would very much like the support of this Council to say we don't advertise how much money we have to give to a vendor. If we have $70,000 to demolish a fire station, nobody is going to come in at $10,000. They're going to come in at sixty-six, sixty-eight and sixty-nine. We've got to stop this giveaway.

On the second phase of Grant Street, Rust Engineers estimated the cost at $3.2 million. The bids came in at four-eight originally and they said that's too high, re-bid it, and they came in at four-four. We went one million two over bid.

We've got to stop the giveaways. We don't have the money. And I would respectfully request that a letter go to the Administration requesting that they eliminate in any department the words "not to exceed" and keep the number out by administrative order. It can be done.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, if I may address my colleague, I thought that was the intent of the bill that you submitted that is in committee now.

Michelle Madoff:

You may not have heard me say that the attorney working on the bill has already been in touch with Mr. Specter. Mr. Specter said he is willing to help but in changing that bill many other City bill have to be changed. It's a very convoluted, not simple procedure. And I'm saying why wait for the bill to be drafted. Let us, by executive order, the Administration has the right to say we're not going to do this anymore. If I were the Mayor that's what I'd say. We're not going to announce how much money we have to spend. We'll vote for the project but we won't say how much money there is.

And that's what I would like to do. If you don't want to vote for it and you say it can't be done, I don't believe it can't be done. It's a very simple thing to do. It's just a matter of the will to do it.

The Chair:

My problem is, and I agree, in private industry they don't say how much it is; they just go out for a bid. But somebody in that private industry knows how much they're willing to spend on a particular project. But, unfortunately, or fortunately, we on Council, we are a public body, we serve the public, all of our budget, every dime has to be budgeted and has to be recorded. We sit here and debate it and then it's printed. Any citizen can come up and get a copy of the budget. They can get a copy of the capital budget. If you're going to replace the Ohio River Boulevard Bridge, replace this bridge at $2 million. I'm a contractor and I come in and say well, I know they're going to spend $2 million. You don't have to be an Einstein to say this is going to cost that much and this is going to cost that much. I'm a general contractor and I can break it down very easily. So you're right; it is a complicated thing. There are many, many other bills that would have to go along with this bill and I'm going to vote no on this letter that the Mayor is going to send because it doesn't mean anything. There's no way it could have any effect this year and perhaps next year. It's a complicated thing.

We sit here and we debate how much we're going to give police officers for allowance to buy uniform. If I own a uniform store I say, hell, I know he's getting $20 for a shirt; I'm going to charge him $19.95 or $20.05. It's very easy to break down and that's why it's difficult. And for us to just throw this and say well, you're going to cure all this, it's impossible for any Mayor to do it at this time. They have to eliminate all that stuff and we'll have to tell the media they're not allowed in here when we deliberate budget and you're not allowed a copy of the budget and the citizens are not allowed a copy the way we're doing it right now because every item we spend in the City of Pittsburgh there's a dollar figure right next to it. Our salaries, tissue paper, pencils, whatever; there's a dollar item next to it.

Mr. Wagner:

Just to conclude, obviously we're going to vote on this and however I would recommend the more sophisticated way of the bill, even if it needs other bills because obviously a motion put on the floor here at this meeting does not carry any weight, it's only a will of Council and it's still up to the Mayor and the Administration to direct the Administration. If the Administration hasn't done that yet, I'm sure they're not going to do it even if this Council is unanimous. Consequently, I think we should proceed the other way.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, though I agree with Councilwoman Madoff's general idea that we do need to take the price out, I have to agree on the issue with Councilman Wagner that the better procedure would be to do through with the legislation and wait until the bill comes up. The letter right now wouldn't clarify anything as to Council oversight or Council to be able to have any privy information concerning prices and I don't think that's the way you want to deal with the Administration.

Michelle Madoff:

May I address my colleagues? They're absolutely right. What I was proposing was that in the bill, and I've outlined it very succinctly for legal counsel to prepare, the budget would no longer reflect individual items.

For example, in Parks and Recreation, there would be a lump sum total. A breakdown of the individual projects would only exist within the department and there would be penalties for violating that. There would only be a lump sum total; there would not be a breakdown for every single item. We would approve a bill and, for example, we would approve that a fire station should be demolished. The actual cost of a fire station being demolished would be done in-house. After it is awarded, then we would be notified and before the contract is actually issued, we would approve the dollars. But we would not approve the dollars at the same time that we authorize a project and we would not vote to have the project awarded to a contractor. We would only approve by going out on the bill. So, we can handle, and the Administration could right now can handle by going to lump sums instead of individual items.

But let me tell you my problem, fellow colleagues. You're absolutely right. When you go to an attorney who is able to do a very complicated bill and you offer him $500, which is what the President of Council allotted me to pay the attorney, he's not going to put that bill ahead of a lot of other things that he does to earn a living. I don't think $500 is going to cover the cost to get this bill to this table in a hurry. Therefore, if it is a wish of my colleagues to go the route of having the bill drafted in the proper manner covering all loopholes, I support it. But then I would like to see this Council support the payment, whatever the cost would be, reasonable dollars, to an attorney to deal with the problem.

And I might add, for anybody listening, my colleagues, I did go through our Law Department and I did ask them to prepare the bill and they were not able to do it. What I got back from Mr. Pellegrini, the initial draft, did not do the job. Mr. Pellegrini, for some unknown reason which I cannot understand, did not agree with members of this Council that indeed we have a problem in advertising. Or as a former Councilmember, Mr. Stone, used to say, "telegraphing ahead", that we have all this money to give away. If it can't be done, it can't be done. Well, if you don't want to do it, it won't be done. But if you want to curb the problem, it can be done and an independent attorney can draft the bill. And I would suggest strongly that we pay commensurate with the work involved so they'll drop other things and give us priority. Do I have the additional funds to do it?

The Chair:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

Then, you see, we don't really want to do it.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, it's time to put up or shut up on this bill and Michelle is exactly correct. We should spend whatever reasonable amount of money we need to hire a competent attorney. I think we have at least $10,000 in our consultant code account, and if not, we can transfer money into it. The Administration does it all the time; we should be able to do it. But Michelle's point is well taken. I'm getting tired of talking about this bill. We need a piece of legislation and we should pay for competent legal expertise. Mr. Pellegrini is going to be a roadblock.

The Administration doesn't support this bill; they're not going to help us draft this legislation; they're diametrically opposed to the bill and we should pay whatever reasonable legal fees there are in order to get the expertise that we need, Mr. Chairman.

The Chair:

I suggest this. Instead of us telegraphing how much we're going to spend for an attorney, whether it be $500 or $1000 or $5000, let's put an ad out and let's say listen you attorneys out there, we want this bill drafted. You give us a bid on it and when the bids come in, we take the bid, the lowest responsible bidder, like we want the Administration to do, and then we'll award that contract. I think that is fair.

Michelle Madoff:

Let me tell you what happened. I went to one of the most prestigious firms in this City and said to them, "Would you donate your time for this bill?", and they said, "Yes." Do you know why they wouldn't do it for us? In the final analysis, one of the big, big, big firms? They said because "We would have to have that request come from the Administration." Well when the Administration drafts a bill that's pure garbage, and the original draft of the bill didn't accomplish the goal at all. Mr. Pellegrini gave me a bill and he said, "It can't be done" and he worded it so it couldn't be done. And I took it to a private attorney who is very well-known and very respected by our Councilmembers. I've gone to four other attorneys and they said, "We have to have the Administration tell us" and they would then have done it gratis. But since the Administration will not support this, I had to go and find someone I felt was competent who deals in real estate law, who understands contractual law. There are various different fields; you can't put it out for bid and get some kid who just got out of law school who says, "I'm going to bid on this; I'll come in at $200 to do it." We're going to have to live with this piece of legislation. It will take five years.

Either there's a will by this Council to support my bill and get me the dollars to see that somebody drafts it and puts it on the front burner to get it done ahead of their other clients who they make money from and get a special rate. If they're a $150 an hour attorney, get it at $100. If they're an $100 an hour attorney, at $75. I don't know what they get. But I will confer with the President of Council, tell him who the attorney is, and then decide what a fair fee would be per hour. And we've got Mr. Specter who has graciously offered to give his time to doing the backup material on the companion legislation and certainly he will see that we don't spend hundreds of extra hours. I trust him implicitly.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I think it's appropriate to entertain a motion to have the Chairman, Mr. Woods, to appoint a committee of Council whose task it will be to formulate a request for a proposal, as you indicated, seeking out qualified bidders, law firms, who will draft up the legislation at some dollar figure. And we can look at the bid and see whether or not they're competent law firms and whether or not the money is reasonable and whether or not they have an expectation to complete the task, if there is a problem that the current attorney is not able to do the work.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. Chairman, I disagree with Councilman Ferlo. I think if Councilwoman Madoff had gone to the trouble so far to already enlist an attorney and that person had been doing the work on the contract, then maybe that's the person who should continue to do the work and we should find out who that is and then decide what we want to really put into a bill like this. The Administration, as has been clearly stated, isn't going to support this bill. This is something they don't want, something where they can control the price of things, and it sort of freezes us out. I think if we're going to get serious about it, we do need to continue to work and if she already has an attorney who is working on it, I think that's the one we should stick with.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman, I seconded the motion for discussion, but I think if the maker would withdraw the motion and stay with the original bill, I would like to see that go to its end and I would withdraw my second.

Michelle Madoff:

Not with $500.

The Chair:

Let me just say something. The Administration, I don't believe the Administration cares one way or the other, if there's a price in there or not a price in there. The law says there's a price in there. Everyone must understand that. The law says there's a price in there, not our present Mayor and not our past Mayor. The law, it's a State law and it's a City law. We have to change the law.

Mr. Coyne:

There is no law.

Michelle Madoff:

We asked Dan Pellegrini that and he said it isn't law.

The Chair:

We discussed this many times at this table. If you wish, when you present that bill that you have and we can refine it and give it back to the attorney, we can bring it up and discuss it again. But if I'm a contractor and you want to do the Bloomfield Bridge, I just have to look at the Capital Budget for every dime that's going to be spent. You have to change that and that's what I'm saying. It's not something that you just go spit, spit, spit and it's over. It's a complicated thing and I agree with you. You need an attorney. It's not going to happen overnight. It just can't happen.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Woods, you're right. It's very complicated and it's not going to be spit, spit, spit, and get it out. Attorneys charge a fee even if they give us a special rate and I have to have the money to pay for it. I've spent a hundred hours talking to every department head. I've certainly interrogated Mr. McDermott over and over again. I've asked him, I pleaded with him two years ago or three years ago when I wasn't taking after him with his consultants, to please come back and he should draft the legislation. And he said yes he would do it and he could do it.

The attorney has been working. I have done an outline based on information and input from members of Council, previous Council and this Council. It's an outlying form; it just takes time. And time is money. And the attorneys do not work for nothing. They will give us a rate but $500 will not cut it. Can I talk to you later about what we can do about a fee?

The Chair:

Talk to this Council.

Michelle Madoff:

What are we going to do about a fee?

Mr. Ferlo:

Point of Clarification. Can we please find out from Michelle the attorney that she has already engaged, how much money does this individual or firm want to develop a model draft piece of legislation. When we find that out, then we have something specific to discuss.

Michelle Madoff:

That's a reasonable question and should be answered. I went to the attorney and I said, "I have been allocated only $500 by our President; will you do it for that?" He said, "Give me time and I'll do it for that." And that's the problem. He has a lot of other things that he's doing and when he has time he'll work this in. We just wanted to be a priority and I cannot do it as a priority for $500.

The Chair:

Here's the thing, Michelle. He asked a simple question. How much and who?

Michelle Madoff:

I gave you the who.

The Chair:

No, you didn't give me the who.

Michelle Madoff:

Jim Josephs.

The Chair:

How much?

Michelle Madoff:

I only had $500.

The Chair:

Go and come back to this Council and tell us how much it is.

Mr. Ferlo:

On another subject. I just wanted to remind my colleagues about an important public hearing tomorrow at 10:00 a.m. on the level playing field ordinance amending the City contracts.

Secondly, there's a public hearing in the afternoon on cutbacks in the Environmental Services workforce and that's at 2:00 p.m. Both of them are televised and if citizens want to speak at either one of these hearings, they can call 255-2138.

Michelle Madoff:

On another subject. Mr. Woods, all of us received in the mail the capital rally for local tax reform. I'm delighted that someone picked up my idea and said let's all go to Harrisburg and sit on the steps and lobby and do something. They're asking that those who would like to go to Harrisburg on Tuesday, November 15th, if they need accommodations the night before on Monday to please let people know if they're going to come. The phone number or the contact — I guess there's no telephone — I guess you have to call the Pennsylvania League of Cities or perhaps call one of the Councilmembers here and we would make arrangements for them to come. But I just think there is going to be a capital rally for local tax reform Tuesday, November 15th, sponsored by the Pittsburgh League of Cities, and it's going to be now or never. If we don't get tax reform starting on November 14th in the special session, we may never get it.

And for those of us who feel there should be a compromise between the Senate and the House, it may be the only thing we're going to get. I know that not everybody on this Council is in agreement with exactly what we're going to get, but certainly it will be more than the burden that we are saddled with. One has to only go back and look at the two last budget statements by Mayor Caliguiri where he warned us that we were going to be in the situation we're in. It is not coincidental that refuse workers are being laid off. It is not coincidental that our parks are in disarray. It is not coincidental that we don't have money to give the services that we need to give in the City. And tax relieve, in some form, must happen on the 14th.

I just wanted to alert everybody, there's going to be a rally, the public listening who might want to go, to take advantage of the opportunity.

The Chair:

And just to respond to that before we adjourn, I respect Ms. Madoff's opinion and all of your opinions, but I believe before anyone jumps up and says tax reform, it sounds very nice, it's a catchy phrase, but what does it mean and what is in that particular piece of legislation? And before anyone supports it, they ought to find out what is in the piece of legislation, what one-third of the County, which we are, the City, pays, and what we're going to get back.

---

And once you realize that, I don't think anyone will go down there waving flags and carrying banners too fast.

Mr. Coyne moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, October 10, 1988.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Lyons

Council adjourned.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Wagner:

Thank you Mr. President and Members of Council, this first resolution is a great honor and a pleasure, and I'd like to ask Miss Suzie McConnell the gold medalist from the City of Pittsburgh in the Summer Olympics to please step forward to receive the resolution.

I think its unusual as Suzie's coming up, we have had two resolutions this year for Suzie and I'd like to read with your indulgence the first one, because the first one sets the stage for the second one. This was back in July of this year on July 25th.

WHEREAS, on July 23, 1988 friends, relatives, and countrymen will celebrate a Block Party on Dunster Street in Brookline on behalf of our All-American selection to the 1988 Olympic Basketball Team, Suzie McConnell; and

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh and the residents of Brookline are very proud of the numerous accomplishments of Suzie McConnell going back to the time when she began her dominance in basketball playing for Our Lady of Loretto School which won the Diocese of Pittsburgh Championship; and

WHEREAS, Suzie then moved onto Seton La Salle and was part of a great Rebel basketball team that won the PIAA State Championship and in the process Suzie was named to 1st Team Parade All-American; and

WHEREAS, Penn State recruited Suzie McConnell, a very wise choice, and she continued her dominance at the NCAA level by leading the Nation in assists for two straight years and becoming the second leading scorer of all time in Penn State history; and

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the members of Pittsburgh City Council, the Mayor, and the residents of the City of Pittsburgh are very proud of the accomplishments of Suzie McConnell and wish her success in becoming a member of the United States Olympic Team and leading the team to a Gold Medal in Seoul South Korea.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council, the Mayor, and residents of the City salute Suzie's parents, Tom and Sue, the McConnell Family, all her friends and relatives and the roles that all have played in helping Suzie in achieving her goal of representing America in the upcoming Olympic Games.

Now, we passed that resolution about three months ago and I presented it to Suzie, and this is another copy prior to her going to Seoul, South Korea, and we're all rooting, and hoping, and wishing that first of all she would make the basketball team, and secondly that they would win a medal, and thirdly that they would win the gold medal. We're very proud to say that they did and this resolution today is a result of that. It reads as follows:

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 1639 WHEREAS, Suzie McConnell returned triumphant from the games of the 24th Olympiad, held in Seoul, South Korea, as a gold medalist; and,

WHEREAS, it was quite apparent to anyone who watched the United States Women's Basketball Team "Go for the Gold" that Suzie McConnell was the player that made the team sparkle; and,

WHEREAS, Suzie McConnell's gold medal performance, including 18 points against the Chinese team, was the culmination of a great career which began at Our Lady of Loretto School in Brookline, continued at Seton-LaSalle High School and Penn State University where Suzie established her record as the all-time assist leader in NCAA history;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of the residents of this City, hereby thank and commend Suzie McConnell for all of her accomplishments and for the recognition she has brought to the City of Pittsburgh by bringing home the gold.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Prior to Suzie saying a few words — I'm sure all of you know that she is no stranger to City Council in that she has worked in the past for then Council member Sophie Masloff as an assistant during the summer. Her grandfather was in public office, Mr. John McGrady of which all of us knew him, and she continues to set the tradition in that family.

Suzie, I have to say that we here in Council and all of the people of the City of Pittsburgh are extremely proud of your accomplishments throughout your grade school, high school, college, and especially the Olympics winning the gold which you are wearing today, and I'm sure everyone's going to get a good look at it. But, we're also very proud of the person that you are and what you have represented, especially to young people. That is extremely important today that they have role models, and I can't think of a better role model than Suzie McConnell.

Suzie McConnell:

It's been a while since I've been back here, but I'm very happy to be back here in Pittsburgh, and obviously I couldn't have done and accomplished what I did without the support that I have gotten. I thank my family and all the people who supported me in the first resolution with the block party.

Secondly, it's great to be back here in Pittsburgh and be recognized here in my home town. Thank you for the support throughout the Olympics that each of you have given me, and I just want to thank you for this resolution. I know I've been here when I was in high school but this one even means more to me because it was from the Olympics, and that was the greatest event that I've ever played in. Thank you very much.

The Chair:

It shows we're all getting old I remember when they won the high school championship and she got her resolution here.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, Members of Council, I have one other resolution. I would like to ask two individuals to please step forward from the United States Marine Corps; they are Sergeant Raymond and Lieutenant Kaufmann to receive this resolution. Gentlemen, welcome. The resolution reads as follows:

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 1640 WHEREAS, November 10, 1988 marks the 213th Anniversary of the United States Marine Corps, established in 1775; and,

WHEREAS, the Marine Corps was originally formed as a rapid deployment force to establish a beachhead and hold the position for the other armed services to occupy; and,

WHEREAS, the Marine Corps has become a legendary fighting force in our nation's military history with gallant combat efforts dating back to the Revolutionary War, and particularly heroic actions in our own century with the European Expeditionary Forces in World War I, the Pacific Theater at Guadalcanal, Iwo Jima, and Okinawa in World War II, on the frozen battlefields of Korea, and the tropical jungles of Vietnam, and recently in Lebanon and Grenada; and,

WHEREAS, the brave men who made the supreme sacrifice for their country and the Corps are a testament of the Marines' devotion to the defense of our nation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of its citizens, proclaim the week of November 6th through November 12th as "Marine Week" in Pittsburgh as a tribute to the 213th Anniversary of the United States Marine Corps.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to ask Lieutenant Kaufmann to please say a few words. I'd also like to mention in addition to myself, Councilman Coyne, and Councilman DePasquale are former Marines, "once a Marine always a Marine". The Birthday of the Marine Corps is Thursday, November 10th. There's a big luncheon tomorrow. I know there's a big dinner later in the week. We all salute you in your efforts and would like you to tell us a little bit about it.

Lieutenant Kaufmann:

On behalf of the retired and active Marines in the Western Pennsylvania area I'd like to thank the Council in the City for this recognition. We really appreciate that. Speaking on behalf of the Recruiting Service from which Sergeant Raymond and I are a member, we feel lucky to be in this part of the country and this area to do our recruiting. It's outstanding support for the Marine Corps and the military in general. So, we will continue to send some good people from Pittsburgh down to recruit training and into their careers in the Marine Corps. We appreciate the support and the recognition today.

Mr. Coyne presented

No. 1594 Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of Nicholson Construction Company in the amount of $106,644.37 in payment of Construction Services in connection with the Reconstruction of a Retaining Wall at Phelan Way, payable from Code Account EC 87-12. (Present Rate 151.5 mills on Land, 27 mills on Buildings)

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Wagner moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bills only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bills were introduced so the bills will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Discussion. Mr. Chairman, if I understand these bills correctly, and unless I'm wrong I would like to be corrected by the Finance Chairman, that they continue the present tax structure into next year, and my question is; isn't it premature prior to the annual tax hearing which will be held later on in November for us to move on these bills now? That would be one part.

Secondly, I submitted a bill in relation to a tax matter which I was holding in time for the tax hearing and then final action later on on the elimination of the commercial tax abatement program. I'd like a response on that?

The Chair:

He introduces them now. We can hold them Wednesday until budget time, then they'll come up after the tax hearings.

Mr. Ferlo:

So, we're not asking for a final vote now, we're just --

The Chair:

No. Mr. Wagner, do you have something to add?

Mr. Wagner:

Yes, it's procedural. They must be introduced at least three weeks prior to the tax hearing and this year the tax hearing has been moved up several weeks in our budget schedule. It will be November 28th. Therefore, they're being introduced a little earlier. They will all be held until after the 28th.

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. Chairman, last week we had to vote where we were moving the Monday meetings until Tuesday.

The Chair:

That's in January.

Mr. Coyne:

Okay, is that starting in January?

The Chair:

Yes, in January.

Mr. Pollock:

All the bills that were just read for Finance were waived Rule 8 on — but if we're holding them why are we waiving Rule 8? I don't understand.

The Chair:

Because they still have to be advertised. Mike, do you want to explain?

Mr. Perry:

Yes, that's so we can advertise them for the hearing. That's why we're waiving Rule 8 on them.

Mr. Pollock:

You can't advertise —

The Chair:

No, not on the introduction.

Mr. Pollock:

Thank you.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Also,

No. 1622 Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in the amount of $12,500.00 payable to Mark V. Martin, c/o Morton B. DeBroff, Esquire, 4304 Butler Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15219, in full settlement of a claim for personal injuries arising from personal injuries sustained in a fall-down on April 1, 1986, at Perrysville and Shelton Avenues, Pittsburgh, PA, payable from Code Account No. 46, Judgments.

Also,

No. 1623 Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements between the City of Pittsburgh alone and/or with The School District of Pittsburgh and/or with the County of Allegheny and Real Estate Appraiser or Appraisers for professional and consulting services in connection with the City's sale or acquisition of real estate and real estate tax assessment matters involved real estate in the City, at a cost not to exceed $50,000.00, chargeable to and payable from Code Account No. 1075, Miscellaneous Services, Department of Law.

Also,

No. 1624 Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements for stenographic reporting services in connection with public hearing(s) at a cost not to exceed $1,500.00, chargeable to and payable from Code Account 1035, Miscellaneous Services, Commission on Human Relations.

Also,

No. 1625 Resolution Repealing Resolution No. 400, Item H, approved June 6, 1988, which authorized the sale of property in the 6th Ward, being a vacant lot, located at 3439 Denny Street, designated as Block 49-N, Block 202, to James A. and Sandra L. Genco, his wife for the sum of $300.00. The reason for the above Repealing Resolution is that the Title Search revealed that the City does not have a valid title for the property.

Also,

No. 1626 Resolution Repealing Resolution No. 314, Item A, approved April 25, 1988, which authorized the sale of property in the 4th Ward, being a vacant lot, located at 2136 Fifth Avenue, designated as Block 11-K, Lot 56B, to Raphael Mitchell and George Hollis for the sum of $750.00. The reason for the above Repealing Resolution is that the Title Search disclosed that the City does not have a marketable title for the property as the Sheriff delivered a deed for the wrong property that is adjacent to the West.

Also,

No. 1627 Resolution providing for the filing of a petition or petitions for the sale of certain properties in various Wards of the City of Pittsburgh, acquired at tax sales in accordance with Act No. 171 of 1984.

Also,

No. 1628 Resolution providing for the filing of a petition or petitions for the sale of certain properties in various Wards of the City of Pittsburgh, acquired at tax sales in accordance with Act No. 171 of 1984.

Also,

No. 1629 Communication from James Turner, Director, Department of Finance, requesting authorization for Henry Sciortino to be a panel speaker entitled, "Financing Out Future," in Cleveland, Ohio, November 28-29, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $500.00, payable from Code Account No. 1063, Miscellaneous Services. On behalf of the Government Finance Officers Association, they have invited Henry to serve as a featured speaker at a one-day regional workshop with the National League of Cities, National Association of State Treasurers, National Conference of State Legislatures, American Public Power Association and other national public interest groups, on the future of tax-exempt financing.

Also,

No. 1630 Communication from Thomas Flaherty, City Controller, City of Pittsburgh, requesting authorization for Edward Cassidy to attend the 1988 Intermediate Governmental Accounting Seminar, in Sarasota, Florida, December 6-7, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $925.00, payable from Code Account No. 1048, Miscellaneous Services.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Chair presented

No. 1631 Resolution authorizing the issuance of a warrant in favor of Modern Reproductions, Inc. in the amount of $896.70 in payment for printing services, chargeable to and payable from Code Account 1801, in the Department of Parks and Recreation. (PRIOR APPROVAL GRANTED)

Also,

No. 1632 Resolution transferring the sum of $2,500.00 from Code Account 1003, (Index Code 100305) Miscellaneous Services, City Clerk's Office, to Code Account 1005-2, (Index Code 100529), Printing Municipal Records, City Clerk's Office. This transfer is needed to meet the payments for the remainder of the year 1988 for printing costs for the Municipal Record. —(SPONSORED BY MR. WOODS)

Also,

No. 1633 Resolution transferring the amount of $65,000.00 from Code Account 1803, Utilities, Index Code 180307 to Code Account 1800-01, Administration Premium Pay, Index Code 180018, in the Department of Parks and Recreation. This transfer is necessary to meet year-end premium needs. (PRIOR APPROVAL GRANTED)

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Wagner presented

Bill No. 1634

Report of the Committee on Finance for November 2, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1523

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of Project Development Group, Inc., in the amount of $355.00 in payment of professional services rendered on Hazlett Theater Ceiling Renovations; and providing for the payment thereof."

Which was read.

Mr. DePasquale:

Just curious, the Hazlett Street Theatre is that a City owned theatre or do they put on City productions? Why are we fixing their ceiling?

The Chair:

What bill are you referring to?

Mr. DePasquale:

1523. I realize there has to be a reason why we're doing it, but I was curious what it was.

The Chair:

I have no idea, Jeep.

Mr. Depasquale:

Pass on it. I think that's the one over on the North Side.

The Chair:

Yes, the $355.00. I know where it's at. It doesn't say in any part of the bill. Do you want to do something with the bill?

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, Members of Council, in regard to Bill No. 1574, first of all I'd like my comments brought forward for the record on the bill. It's the allocation of $7,000 from a Council Code Account to Parks and Recreation. The purpose being to buy materials for the receding of a field in Brookline sometime in the immediate future.

I simply want to state for the record the City will manage all of these funds. It's unusual in terms of monies being expended from Code Account 10 in comparison with other monies in that the monies are generally given to a community group who then manages the expenditure of the funds. That's not the case with this bill. With this bill the City will actually buy all the materials. The cooperation agreement is with the labor for the work to be done, and the placing of the top soil, and the receding of the field.

The field is in great need of this work prior to next year. When I say in great need I mean to the point where injuries could occur in the use of the field. The various Little Leagues that utilize the field and soccer teams have volunteered their services to provide the work. The work will be done within the next month, and it is a very unique first time opportunity that could set a precedent in the future where we could get greater cooperation from various community groups to do work, and in the long run could save the City taxpayers a lot of dollars. I appreciate your support on the bill.

Mr. Pollock:

I'd like my comments brought forward on Bill No. 1574.

Michelle Madoff:

On the bill that relates to the receding of the ballfield in the Brookline area. I have just one question, and I'd like my comments brought forward as well. I think it may be the beginning of the kind of thing we need to do to save City taxpayers dollars. The kind of thing you only learn by being here a number of years, and now that Mr. Wagner has been here — how long is it Jack, are you in your fifth year? It takes a while to know that here's an example of how the private public sector venture could be expanded on all the ballfields, in all parks so that the City could save a tremendous amount of money. There are hundreds of other ways we could do that in the City, but one concern I have and it was supposed to be checked and we would know by today — I saw it, is there an insurance policy? You were concerned about the insurance.

Mr. Wagner:

No there isn't.

Michelle Madoff:

I think that we ought to make sure that before this is — I mean I support it one hundred percent, but if the organization in Brookline is going to do the ceding that we ought to be sure that they're covered with the same kind of policy we would be. We're talking about very small dollars -- the chance of somebody getting hurt. But, we also need to provide that and then provide it as a routine matter in all other contracts.

We are self-insured. If somebody gets hurt there the taxpayers are going to have to pay the money, and that is why the Administration has been afraid to be creative and be innovative. Here's a creative, innovative, cost-effective way of doing business, which brings us together in the City and the only thing that would be something we ought to proceed with before we continue is to be sure there's some kind of a small policy, and we're not talking big money. Could we be sure that before the contract is awarded that there is a policy?

The Chair:

Okay, is that it?

Michelle Madoff:

No, but I want to know.

The Chair:

Well, we'll -- yes --

Michelle Madoff:

-- I'm not talking to have myself heard. What's the next procedure that we would take to make sure that there's an insurance policy?

The Chair:

We will make sure that the Law Department when they enter into an agreement -- Mike you put that in the form of legislation to make sure there's insurance.

Mr. Perry:

Okay, Ben.

(MR. WAGNER'S, MR. POLLOCK'S & MICHELLE MADOFF'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1574 INSERTED ON THE FOLLOWING PAGES)

(MR. WAGNER'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1574 - Wednesday, 11-2-88)

Mr. Wagner:

I would like to explain the bill, since I sponsored it, then, Mr. Ferlo, you can have the floor.

This is an unusual piece of legislation. It pertains to helping a community group with a problem that they have at a little league field. The Department of Parks and Recreation is not capable of re-seeding a field that needs to be re-seeded as soon as possible. The community group has volunteered to do the work themselves if the City of Pittsburgh can supply the materials. This piece of legislation is transferring $7,000.00 from a code account within Council to Parks and Recreation for that purpose. The community group is the Brookline Little League Association, and the location is the Brookline Memorial Park. Hopefully, this work can be done in the fall of 1988 so that the field can be utilized by the community in the spring of 1989.

(DELETED DIALOGUE)

Mr. Wagner:

Well, as sponsor of the bill, again I will respond to some comments, and also the worthiness of the legislation as it sits. It is a very simple piece of legislation, and I think anyone here in the audience that reads it can understand it and the intent of it.

There are no monies going to any community group. This is not a Santa Clause fund in any way, Code Account 10 within Council, it is a very legitimate fund that has funded very legitimate projects, including the one in this piece of legislation. The money is transferred from a Council Code Account to a Parks and Recreation Code Account for supplies and materials. Parks and Recreation will buy the materials to do a project, to redo a little league field with the help of a community group doing the manual work. I also have volunteered to do the work.

The reason behind the legislation is that the City of Pittsburgh cannot address this problem within a reasonable period of time. In addition to that, it would cost the City of Pittsburgh approximately $50,000.00 to contract out this work. We can do this for less than $10,000.00; one-fifth the cost. Now, whether it is done this year or next year, the way I view that, that is about a $40,000.00 savings to the taxpayers in the City of Pittsburgh. It also reduces the potential of people being injured on a field if it is properly seeded, because the field presently is not in good condition. This legislation is very good legislation. Any Councilmember can take whatever cheap shots they want at the legislation, for personal reasons or whatever, and you can vote against the legislation, but the legislation is clean and simple. And I would appreciate the support of any Councilmember for the legislation.

(END OF REMARKS)

(TRANSCRIBED BY HELEN L. KRIEBEL)

(MR. POLLOCK'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1574 - Wednesday 11-2-88)

Mr. Pollock:

There is just one little flaw in this whole bill, and that is the fact that the money is not in the Parks account to do this work and is being transferred into there from Code Account 10, and Code Account 10 has nothing to do with Parks and Recreation. Code Account 10 is the City Council Santa Claus account where money is pulled out to give to neighborhood groups and everyone else to use for pet projects.

What I don't understand is -- and I, too, wanted the Director to be here to discuss this, because if the money wasn't in the account, then no matter who is going to do the work, volunteers, the City, or some combination thereof, then the work wasn't supposed to be done. And no matter where you bring the money from, $7,000.00 is $7,000.00 of City money that was not supposed to be spent in this year obviously, or else it would have been in the account.

The point I am saying is I would like the Director to know when this field was going to be re-seeded, and if it wasn't supposed to be done in 1988, or if it was, why isn't the money in it, and if it wasn't, then it shouldn't be sped up ahead of some time table that it is supposed to be done, and there is no reason why the time table that was supposed to be followed couldn't still be utilized and this same volunteer type effort also be used. But, I mean, to give away $7,000.00 simply because of the effort of the community is not -- it is still $7,000.00 of City money that is being spent from an account not for that purpose when the Parks had no plan to spend that money. And that is why we have a budget process. They have time tables, and there are a lot of different projects around this city that have to wait for certain time tables. We all get calls about certain things everyday, and we have to find the answer. The Parks or Public Works or whatever, they have set time tables, when the dollars will be spent, when it is due to be done, and so forth. And no matter what you call it, this is $7,000.00 of City money being given away in a process that really bypasses what City Parks is supposed to do.

(END OF REMARKS)

(TRANSCRIBED BY HELEN L. KRIEBEL)

(MICHELLE MADOFF'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1574 - Wednesday, 11-2-88)

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Wagner, you should be congratulated, because I think it is very creative and innovative, and the kind of thing we ought to be doing more of.

I agree with you, Mr. Ferlo, this might be a precedent setting example, so that when we get to budget time we might be asking the question from the Director, how many ball fields do you need to see, how many other parks do you need to maintain, could we get community groups involved, because there is no question it is cost effective, you get communities involved, and it is a dynamite bill from my perspective.

It is a shame that we had to wait this long for someone to come up with this kind of idea. I have been on that ballpark, I think I threw out the ball this year. It really needs help. That park is really used tremendously by a number of people. It is a wonderful community, and the children and parents have this wonderful ongoing kind of program.

I think in the long run this would be an exemplary bill, and again, I would ask you if you would -- and I would be happy to co-sponsor it with you, and I am sure all of Council would -- before we get to the budget, would you introduce legislation that would request that the Administration and the Director of Parks review her budget and look at every possible area where they have a relationship with community groups, where they have to seed, or maintain, or clean, what have you. And not only Parks and Recreation, maybe General Services, or maybe Refuse Department, where we could have more of this kind of thing. Because we all know the last two budget statements by Mayor Caliguiri stated this is exactly what is going to happen; cutting back on refuse workers, we are cutting back on maintenance of the parks. We have had this dialogue before. We have to get our priorities in order, and this is a great example of getting our priorities in order. This says, "Hey, we can get the job done maybe better, and it will be maintained better," because when you put your own sweat from your community in it, you are going to look after it better. I really can't congratulate you enough on it.

I'd like my comments brought forward on Bill 1536 and 1537. (MR. FERLO'S REMARKS FROM BILL NOS. 1536 & 1537 INSERTED ON THE FOLLOWING PAGES)

(MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NOS. 1536 & 1537 - Wednesday, 11-2-88)

Mr. Ferlo:

This is an excellent piece of legislation. There are a number of concerns which I would like the Administration to address. By way of comparison, in terms of the costs, this is a little over nine acres at $700,000.00, by way of comparison, the Pittsburgh High Technology land assemblage is, I believe, costing over $500,000.00 per acre, if I am not mistaken. So by way of comparison, we are getting a good buy here, in terms of the potential for industrial manufacturing or commercial usage of this massive property.

There are several concerns I have. Nowhere in any of the legislation in the three bills -- there is also another bill on the enterprize zone, but on these two bills in particular -- is there any explicit role or mention of the development corporation in the area, and I would like to hear a comment on that.

Secondly, I believe there are at least three city departments that were exploring usage for part of this nine acres. One was the Auto Pound, Parks and Recreation, and I believe Heavy Equipment Division. Now, I would like to know prior to a final vote on this, what is the actual status of each one of those, that is my second question.

The third question is the issue of hazardous materials on this property and what are the actual reports of the core drillings and the environmental study that you have done, prior to a final vote.

Mr. Donahoe:

On the first point, I am not sure about the $500,000.00 per acre for PTC, I would assume that includes a site preparation cost, as well.

Mr. Ferlo:

I am talking about the site preparation cost.

Mr. Donahoe:

What we are doing today is only authorizing the purchase of this land. There will also be site development costs, so what the per acre cost will be is something that will be determined down the road.

On this second point of why the development corporation isn't mentioned in the bill, they don't have a legal role at the moment. We are working with them, and you have my commitment on that. I wouldn't know how to insert them in this particular legislation, whether they might ultimately be the disposition agent where they would take over the land and market it, or whether they would simply try and market it. I don't know how that is going to finally evolve.

In terms of the hazardous materials, we did have a review made of this property. Although it hasn't been occupied by an industrial site, it did have railroads on it, and there is always a potential for problems. The consultant found that the site does contain remnants of what appear to be gasoline and oil spillages that occurred. Apparently they fueled trains on this site, and while they are not hazardous in the sense of blowing up or something like that, they will have to be removed. But it is not an unusual problem and certainly not an unusual one for any place that the city is going to try and redevelop an area that had railroads on it or any kind of industrial site. I can provide you with a copy of the report before the final vote, if you like.

Mr. Ferlo:

In approving this, we are not buying into a headache or a problem, in your opinion?

Mr. Donahoe:

In our opinion, that is correct.

Mr. Ferlo:

That included core drillings?

Mr. Donahoe:

That is correct. Well, they did drillings, I am not sure the technical name, but I will supply you with the report.

Mr. Ferlo:

And the other issue of the usage by City departments?

Mr. Donahoe:

What we have been advised is that through the capital budget process they have been trying to come to some conclusion as to whether or not the city wants to reserve a portion of this site for some city use. I don't have a final answer on that. What I have told -- we have to, in essence, move now; CSX would like to close on this. What I have told my board is that it up to the city and ultimately Council to determine whether that is a use that you want to make of this site. We have told the community that there may be a need for the city to reserve a small portion of it for some particular need, and that is as much as I know about it at this point.

Mr. Ferlo:

The thing I feel uncomfortable about is once we approve this, it sort of leaves our table, and I am not sure that we have another opportunity to address the issue of the municipal use.

---

Mr. Donahoe:

I would think, Councilman, you would. I am not sure whether the cooperation agreement --

Mr. Ferlo:

That is what they said about the Buhl Center and some other things that we approved, and things never come back to this table. The Administration has lot of leeway.

Mr. Donahoe:

I don't want to fight with you. I think you do.

Mr. Ferlo:

So you think we will have an opportunity on that issue?

Mr. Donahoe:

I think there is no question. You are telling us to use an industrial land reserve fund to acquire this property. I can only use it for industrial purposes. If the city determines that they want to use it for some other purpose, a city warehouse, public housing, something else, it seems to me it is Council's fund, you are going to have to tell us that we can release that property.

Mr. Ferlo:

So you are saying, for the record, that if there is some debate later on, having already approved this or approving this on Monday, on the actual usage of the property for municipal purposes, we will be able to debate that and block it if we want to?

Mr. Donahoe:

I don't know how the city feels. I would insist on coming back here and making sure that Council authorizes that use.

Mr. Ferlo:

I see a potential problem. Your opening statements was the best statement, that you are packaging this for commercial industrial usage, you are working in cooperation with the local development council, and this is the priority, that you treat this as a premium and the fact that you are filling a significant vacuum. I would hate to see any of this be municipal usage, which is not only tax exempt property, but really defeats the major priority of packaging this property. And I know for a fact -- and I was hoping Director Brown was here -- that Parks and Recreation specifically wants a piece of that property for a garage and a parking lot. I would like to know from her prior to a final vote, what is -- I mean, there should be some clear indication from the Administration what their intentions are regarding the use of this property, either Parks, or there were other rumors about heavy equipment. And I think the auto pound idea was scrapped; is that the case?

---

Mr. Donahoe:

I believe they are talking about a type of warehouse facility. Just as it is difficult to find industrial sites around the city, it is also very difficult to find sites for city facilities. That is a real problem that they are coming to grips with.

Mr. Ferlo:

I understand, but there is a difference between packaging what you have said by your own words, prime priority property in cooperation with a development council, who I believe has at least three perspective tenants right now, versus a smaller priority, or let's say a lesser priority, like Parks and Recreation's parking lot and storage facility, which if we look out through our neighborhoods, we can find many places like that that we could purchase even if we had to on the private market, and that the priority for this should be, as you stated originally, the need for packaging industrial/commercial development. And if there is a conflict later on, I want to be sure that this Council has an opportunity to intervene in that and it is not leaving the table here today and it is going to be decided by the Administration and the URA.

Mr. Donahoe:

As I said, it is my position -- and I don't want to speak for the City -- but it is my position that if we ever use this site for anything other than industrial land reserve, which is what the cooperation agreement talks about, that we would have to return here and get your permission to release one acre, half an acre, whatever it is, for that purpose.

Mr. Ferlo:

Could we, before the Monday final vote, at least hear from Department Director Brown via a letter on the status of their planning? I don't know if it is in City Planning or Parks and Recreation, that would be one thing, and two would be for Council and the Clerk to receive, as you stated, Mr. Donahoe, you would supply a copy of the environmental impact letter.

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1557

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution further amending Resolution No. 1094, effective January 1, 1988, as amended, entitled: 'Resolution adopting and approving the 1988 Capital Budget and the 1988 Community Development Block Grant Program; and approving the 1988 through 1993 Capital Improvement Program,' by increasing EC 88-30 by $125,000.00 and by adjusting the Summary Totals."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1558

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 362, effective

May 31, 1988, entitled: 'Providing for an Agreement or Agreements or use of existing Agreements, and/or Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts, for Miscellaneous Renovations to the Pittsburgh Aqua Zoo; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by increasing the total project allocation by $125,000.00 from $116,536.00 to $241,536.00."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bills 1557 and 1558 those are two bills that are substantive dollars that the City of Pittsburgh taxpayers need to pay and will be paying for the Zoo. One is $241,536 and the other is $125,000. We're into practically a half a million dollars which the City of Pittsburgh taxpayers cannot afford to pick up a loan. Three quarters of the people using the Zoo are non-city residents, and even though we are going to have a fee for service where non-city residents will pay a slightly larger fee for admission that is taking forever, and has not come about yet.

I might remind this Council that in the beginning when God created the new contract for the Pirates and the county was going to give us some little monies that was funneled to us -- the original dollars were to be for the Zoo. They were not to be for whatever they're funneling it to now, and still haven't given us the money.

I think its appropriate that some point when we get to budget hearings we ought to sit down and talk about realities, and we ought to talk about privatization of the Zoo, and we need to do something to take that burden off of City taxpayers backs, and I will vote no on both those bills as usual.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

| Mr. Lyons      | Mr. Woods(Pres't Pro tem) |

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

The Chair:

As you all know, this is the day that we have the Mayor's Budget Address. At this time, I'd like to ask Councilman Otis Lyons and Councilman Eugene DePasquale to please escort the Mayor into City Council Chambers.

Mayor Masloff:

Members of Council, Citizens of Pittsburgh, and my dear friend Jeanne Caliguiri, over the past few weeks my staff and I made several drafts of this budget message. We made long lists of accomplishments and talked about the many things we plan to do next year. We came up with several good drafts, but they looked and read like all of the other State of the City addresses that I've ever heard. They just weren't me.

I would rather talk to you today from my heart.

In the nearly seven months that I have been Mayor, I have spent a lot of time visiting the neighborhoods; meeting old friends and talking with people — just plain people — about our City. They told me what they want to see Pittsburgh do in the future and what's important to them now.

Our residents have very strong opinions — they want action and they want it now.

I've listened to the residents of this City and I share their common sense approach to problem solving. If there are problems — let's deal with them.

This City has a history of facing problems head on and solving them. We reformed our pension system before Pennsylvania instituted state-wide reform. We were ready when the federal government eliminated revenue sharing.

When major league baseball was packing its bags on our Northshore, Pittsburgh stepped up to the plate to support a brand new public/private partnership that protected the franchise along with its financial benefits for the City. We knew what had to be done and we did it.

It is in that same spirit that I present my goals for City government over the next year. They include:

First, our people want jobs. Throughout the neighborhoods I've heard the same thing again and again. People told me they want a jobs program — a real jobs program for people who live in Pittsburgh.

Southsiders complain to me that their children are leaving Pittsburgh, not by choice, but because they cannot find work. This City cannot remain strong if our residents don't have a chance to earn a decent living.

Last year we began a pilot program with the North Side Conference to provide job training and real job creation by using our Community Development Block Grant money. By joining with our neighborhood leaders, we were able to find real jobs in our neighborhoods for Pittsburghers. Our program on the North Side created ninety jobs by subsidizing private sector salaries during a limited training period.

An important part of the program is our relationship with community groups. Community groups are the eyes and ears of the City — they know where the jobs are and who can best take advantage of those opportunities.

In 1989 we will make a million dollar investment in the program and it will be carried out into other neighborhoods. Together we will generate over 300 jobs in the private sector for Pittsburghers.

This program will be geared not only toward the City's large employers, but to small businesses as well. There are special incentives built into the program to benefit minority and women business owners, too.

Another major issue I hear about in community after community is safety. The senior citizens in Garfield tell me they are afraid to leave their homes after dark. People in Shadyside worry that their car parked on the street last night will not be there in the morning. We have a safe City, but I want it to be safer.

The message from the people about drugs is also very clear. Mothers in the Hill District know that their young children are being exposed to the dangerous world of drugs. For every story I see in the newspaper or on television about drugs, I hear five or six more real life horror stories from our residents. I will not allow this problem to impact our neighborhoods or influence our children's lives — at least not without a fight.

Tackling these problems is my second goal for the City. I want to bring the authorized strength of the Police Force up to twelve hundred officers — I am adding 100 more police officers than we have right now.

I have directed the Personnel Department to plan for new Police classes in 1989 to keep those positions filled. Safety, security and increased drug enforcement are high priorities to me.

Director Cannon and Chief Pampera plan to use some of these officers as plainclothes detectives — four narcotics detectives in each zone — to work on specific neighborhood drug problems and to help coordinate these neighborhood efforts with our City wide program. In addition, the Chief is considering greater use of beat cops.

I have asked the Director and the Chief to continue working with community leaders, religious leaders and public and parochial schools to address the drug problem through increased educational programs.

The third major issue I hear about is the City's wage tax. A young man in Brighton Heights considers moving to a nearby suburb so he will see more in his paycheck because of a lower wage tax. A young couple who was raised in Mount Washington decides not to move back to the neighborhood because of our high wage tax.

I wish I could report to you that the Legislature has resolved the issue of local tax reform to assist communities in setting up a fair local tax system. This is not the case.

Governor Casey and our State Legislators have worked hard on the tax reform issue; and those of us in local government have done our job and made our case well. I am going to Harrisburg tomorrow to keep this fight alive.

Several months ago, I called together my financial staff and told them that somehow, some way, we needed to lower the wage tax in Pittsburgh. I wouldn't do it as a cheap political trick. It had to be financially sound and had to be able to stick longer than just one year.

We have worked hard. We have met often. We have reviewed the numbers again and again. I am happy to report to you today that I am proposing a reduction of one half of one percent in the City's wage tax.

This is the first such reduction in over a decade; and I am confident that the reduction will remain for years to come. This change means a 24 percent cut in the City's wage tax.

Our taxpayers deserve relief whenever it can be done in a responsible way. I've heard what the taxpayers are saying and if tax reform passes in Harrisburg, you will see more tax reductions.

Let me tell you how we are able to present this tax cut and why it works.

Part of our solution comes from increasing some revenues. I am proposing a small increase in the non-resident fees for the Zoo, Phipps Conservatory, the Aviary, and a few selected special purpose fees. We will also continue to pursue reimbursement for a portion of our expenses for special events like the Regatta.

Second, we will be receiving our first million dollar payment from the University of Pittsburgh's Presbyterian Hospital in 1989. This voluntary payment is an example of true civic responsibility and I am confident that our efforts to obtain similar commitments from other tax exempt institutions will be successful.

I believe that local institutions, like our people, should be willing to pay their fair share. I don't believe that this is an unreasonable request. We will hire 100 additional police officers in 1989 — but we cannot maintain this level unless the tax exempt institutions show their willingness to support City services.

Third, we have been receiving increased pension reform assistance from the State. My staff has been meeting with State officials and the City's actuaries to determine the correct level of funding to keep our pensions actuarially sound and still benefit from the increased state aid.

Our 1989 plan goes even further. It not only optimizes our State funding options, it levels out our annual pension contributions. It protects our current pensioners and it responsibly addresses our unfunded liability.

Also, we have continued and will continue our cost control program. We are not afraid to spend money where it's necessary; but we will look hard at the money we spend to make sure every dollar brings results for the taxpayer.

I recognize that there are those who would suggest that tax changes should wait until the final results of the tax reform debate, that there is too great a risk involved. Others will suggest that my motives are political.

There are certain people in this City whose sole mission is to criticize hard work, who always see politics in any good government decision. I challenge those people to spend more time doing positive things for this City and less time criticizing those of us who have Pittsburgh's best interest at heart.

These are the major goals of my 1989 budget — jobs, safety and reducing taxes. There is plenty of work to be done. We are ready to do it now.

But — we cannot lose sight that the 1990's are approaching quickly. Pittsburgh cannot just live for today when we need to be in a more competitive position to meet the next century.

It is time for us to think about the direction that we want Pittsburgh to head as we face the next decade. I have directed my staff and City Planning to formulate a program of six to ten meetings throughout the City over the next year.

These meetings will not be long range planning sessions — but real discussions about how we operate as a government; about allocating our resources; about setting our priorities; about current City services and where they should be in the 90's. I want to hear from Pittsburgh about where we want to be tomorrow.

I want to hear from the neighborhoods, minority groups and from labor leaders. I want to hear from the business, educational and medical communities. I want to hear from the news media. I want to hear from all voices — to help direct this City's future.

I will attend every meeting, as will my directors. We will take all ideas offered and formulate a "Planning Pittsburgh into the 90's" blueprint — a real working guide to direct City government through the next ten years.

The time for action is now. "Finding a way" is a Pittsburgh tradition that I intend to carry on.

Finally, if you will allow me, a personal moment simply to say thanks to the people of Pittsburgh for their support and warm good wishes during the transition that occurred this year. It is a high honor to serve as the 54th Mayor of the City, although I wish the honor had not come to me in the sad way in which it did.

But whatever the responsibilities and challenges that face me as a Mayor, I always know that the people of Pittsburgh make it not only worthwhile and rewarding, but a real pleasure to serve.

I thank you all very much.

The Chair:

I'd now like a motion to take a five minute recess and those of you who want to leave may do so.

Mr. Wagner:

So moved.

And on the motion of Mr. Wagner

Council recessed.

Pittsburgh, PA
November 14, 1988

And the time of recess having expired, Council reconvened.

The Chair:

The recessed meeting will now come to order. We have two resolutions.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Coyne presents

No. 1653 WHEREAS, over the past 25 years Mr. William Hawthorne has volunteered his time to work with the unemployed and those in prison touching thousands of lives in the City of Pittsburgh and the Greater Pittsburgh area; and

WHEREAS, as part of the Pittsburgh Experiment, Bill has been the moving force in the Employment Anonymous ministry to the unemployed and numerous prison ministries; and

WHEREAS, since his retirement from U.S. Steel in 1963, Bill has conducted weekly meetings to assist the unemployed, providing support and resources necessary to help those in the midst of employment crisis or the despair of unemployment; and

WHEREAS, Bill has also applied the same tireless efforts to those in prison, serving as a life line to men coping with the consequences of their actions.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby recognize the work of Mr. William Hawthorne, an endless giver who shares his life in its fullest with everyone in need; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Council does hereby commend Mr. William Hawthorne for his twenty five years of volunteer service in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Coyne moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, it's a pleasure and an honor to present this resolution. I'd like to ask Al Julius from KDKA TV to please step forward to receive it. And I believe Mr. Bob Anderson from Rainbow Kitchen is with us and Grace King and Joni Rabinowitz. Nice to see all of you here today.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 1654 WHEREAS, since 1982, KDKA-TV has conducted an annual charitable campaign known as Julius's

Turkeys in which they provide free Thanksgiving turkeys for needy and unemployed families; and

WHEREAS, this whole charitable effort began when an anonymous viewer sent Al Julius $10.00 and asked him to buy a Thanksgiving turkey for a family in need; and

WHEREAS, the generous public support of this charitable effort has generated steadily increasing contributions to purchase more and more turkeys, beginning in 1982 with $90,000 for 9,000 turkeys to last year's over $528,000 for 52,800 turkeys; and

WHEREAS, most contributions come from individuals who know that their money goes directly to needy families without any draining of funds for operating expenses because of the assistance of the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank in establishing a distribution network and $10.00 turkey certificates redeemable at area grocery stores.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby commend KDKA-TV's tremendous charitable effort in raising more than $1.9 million dollars to provide over 192,000 Thanksgiving turkeys over the past six years to needy families in the Pittsburgh area; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we urge everyone in the Pittsburgh metropolitan area to contribute generously to Julius' Turkeys so that Thanksgiving can be a blessed celebration of plenty for every local household in 1988.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to introduce Mr. Al Julius who needs no introduction, but obviously, the goal this year is to raise more monies than in previous years, obviously to buy more turkeys for more needy families. I'm sure Al can explain it much better than I; Mr. Al Julius.

Mr. Julius:

Thank you. Far be it for me to contradict a Councilman, but there is no goal. I never set a goal. My only goal was just to put one turkey on one table and that's it. I never try to top anything; I never try to beat last year's record. This is not a telethon; this is not one of those big fundraisers. I don't do that. As much as we raise, that's how much we give out. Every dollar that is brought in, there's a dollar going out.

I will tell you one thing, though. I hope somewhere in that big budget of yours that you received today, there is a place in there for money for hunger and for those who are hungry because this year it has been extremely difficult and it is probably the hardest year I've ever come across to raise money, and this is the seventh year I've been doing this. It's very hard. One of the biggest reasons is that we have gone through a political campaign and we've had a presidential candidate who will now be our next President, who has been telling everybody how it is so wonderful and it is so magnificent out there and how there is so little unemployment, that really we don't have to worry that much about those people who are out of work and, more than that, we don't have to worry about those people who are living on that borderline and are falling through the trap.

So, I want to tell you, I really hope that somewhere in there you can find money for the programs that are being done by these people here. They are the ones who are one the front line. Me, I just talk about it and I try to bring them money and get the money out. But they're the ones on the front line and they understand hunger much better even than I do; they deal with it every day. And I hope that you people here will listen to them and find it in your hearts and in your budget to fund these people.

Thank you.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like to introduce Mr. Bob Anderson from Rainbow Kitchen to say a few words, please.

Mr. Anderson:

Thank you Councilmembers. I just want to sort of follow on what Al Julius has said and just amplify that a little bit. A lot of people think that the hunger has gone away suddenly with the election but I just want to give you an experience that we've had being on the front line. We are serving more food now than we ever have before. Normally our high of a noontime meal was about 100, maybe 150 at the most. But lately we've been topping almost 200 people a day for lunch at the Rainbow Kitchen and we're doing that now seven days a week because there was such a need. We added two more days and we're even thinking about an evening meal because people are coming to us and asking for food. You say, where are these people coming from? I think what's happening is that there's a gap taking place; the rich are getting richer and the poor are getting poorer kind of thing. And in certain areas and parts of the City, there are pockets of places where it is definitely not getting better and, in fact, it's going to continue to go down and get worse. And we're seeing these people.

Today at lunch, for example, there were three families, mothers with children eating at the soup kitchen among a lot of other people. This is just not normally done on a school day during the week. These are families in transition that are being forced out of their homes, they're looking for cheaper places to live.

And what you can do here in City Council is help us. We really appreciate what Al Julius has done. He has done more for us over there in the holiday season than people can ever thank him for. But this is just a chance that we can publicly thank him and you and hope we can do more. Hopefully we can close down our soup kitchens and food banks one day and this will not be necessary. That's what I'd like to see.

Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to challenge my colleagues. I think last year I have you $100; I'll give it to you again. Will anybody match me? Will you match me, Mr. Wagner?

Mr. Wagner:

I give every year.

Michelle Madoff:

Good. Will anybody else match me?

The Chair:

Thank you very much for coming.

Mr. Coyne presented

No. 1641 Resolution amending Resolution No. 1058, effective December 22, 1987, entitled: "Providing for a Contract or Contracts, for the Reconstruction of Arlington Avenue from East Carson Street to Warrington Avenue, Phase I, including work on private property and other work incidental thereto; providing for a Reimbursement Agreement with the Port Authority of Allegheny County; and providing for the payment of the costs thereof," by amending the title to include Phase II of this project, and by increasing the total project allocation by $4,507,700.00 from $5,000,000.00 to $9,507,700.00, chargeable to and payable from the following Code Accounts: EC 85-05-$3,215,000.00, EC 86-03-$2,644,300.00, EC 88-02-$3,648,400.00. This amendment will provide sufficient funds to advertise and award a contract for Phase II of Arlington Avenue, from McArdle Roadway to Roanoke Street.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Engineering and Construction.

Mr. DePasquale presented

No. 1642 Communication from Director Cannon, Department of Public Safety, requesting authorization for Robert Kennedy to attend a program entitled "SWAT Teams" in Roanoke, Virginia from November 9-11, 1988, at no cost to the City of Pittsburgh.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Public Safety.

Mr. Ferlo presented

No. 1643 Resolution transferring the sum of $232,111.00 from the Community Communications Trust Fund, Code Account CC to the General Fund

City of Pittsburgh for reimbursement of the indirect costs incurred by the Bureau of Cable Communications for 1988.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Lyons presented

No. 1644 Communication from Director Lurcott, Department of City Planning, requesting authorization for Paul Farmer, Ed Wells, Joe Imbimbo, David Walker and himself to travel to Houston, Texas and Redlands, California to test and evaluate computer-based geographic information systems from October 19-23, 1988, at no cost to the City of Pittsburgh. (PRIOR APPROVAL GRANTED)

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development.

Mr. Pollock presented

No. 1645 An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title One-Administrative, Article IX-Boards, Commissions and Authorities, by adding Chapter 173, Private Sector Commission on Cost Control. —(SPONSORED BY MR. POLLOCK)

Which was read and referred to the Mayor for report and recommendation.

Mr. Pollock:

I move that in accordance with the Home Rule Charter that that bill be referred to the Mayor. She's required to make a report within 30 days. So, in order to save time, I make that motion now.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

No. 1646 Resolution further amending Resolution No. 80, effective February 29, 1988, entitled: "That the Director of the Department of General Services be and is hereby authorized to enter into an Agreement or Agreements for an internship for graduate student(s) for a period of one year, from January 1, 1988 until December 31, 1988, to perform various energy related services for the Department of General Services and providing for the payment of the cost thereof," by increasing the project allocation by $17,500.00 from $17,500.00 to $35,000.00, chargeable to and payable from Code Account 1134, Miscellaneous Services, Department of General Services.

Also,

No. 1647 Resolution providing for an Agreement of Lease with Calvary Communications, Inc. William A. Yocum, President, of a radio tower and equipment building serving same, in order to enhance radio coverage for the City's Radio System, and for the maintenance of one or more transmitters and receivers and related trade fixtures, machinery and equipment, at an annual Lease payment of $8,100.00 in monthly payments of $675.00 for the first year of said Lease, with a provision for a term of three successive years, at an approximate increase of five (5%) percent, ending on December 31, 1991, with the City having the right to extend said Lease for three successive years, or to terminate said Lease at end of any fiscal year as provided in the Lease Agreement, payable from Code Account 1132-5, Radio Improvements, Department of General Services.

Which were read and referred to the Committee on General Services.

Mr. Wagner presented

No. 1648 Resolution transferring the sum of $57,000.00 from Code Account 1043, Index Code 104307, Miscellaneous Services, Department of the Mayor, City Information Systems, to Code Account 1042, Index Code 104208, Salaries, Department of the Mayor, City Information Systems. The reason for this request is insufficient funds to meet our payroll through the end of this year.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Wagner moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

No. 1649 Resolution providing for an Agreement with Columbia Gas Company, a Pennsylvania Corporation with principal offices at 220 Washington Road, Pittsburgh, PA 15216, which grants an easement and right-of-way to construct and install ten inch or smaller pipeline and appurtenant equipment and further to operate, maintain, repair, renew or replace said line across City owned property in the 27th Ward, Verner Avenue, Block & Lot 75-B-147. Columbia Gas Company will attempt to purchase this lot at a later date.

Also,

No. 1650 Communication from Mayor Masloff, requesting permission for Jeffrey T. Leber to attend the Urban Consortium's Annual Meeting on December 2-5, 1988 in Boston, Massachusetts at a cost not to exceed $1,430.00, payable from Code Account 1017, Miscellaneous Services.

Which were read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Wagner presented

Bill No. 1651

Report of the Committee on Finance for November 9, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1559

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of Sonitrol Security Systems in the amount of $625.00 in payment of modifications to the security system at the Highland Park Maintenance Shop; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |                  |

|                | (Pres't Pro tem) |

AYES 8 NOES none

And there being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 1572

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution transferring the sum of $6,712.00 (Six Thousand Seven Hundred Twelve Dollars) from Code Account 1102, Index Code 110201, Salaries and Wages, Regular and Temporary Employees, to Code Account 1104, Index Code 110403, Supplies."

Which was read.

Also,

Mr. Coyne presented

Bill No. 1652

Report of the Committee on Engineering and Construction for November 9, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1560

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 244, effective April 20, 1983, entitled: 'Providing for an Agreement or Agreements for architectural/engineering services and a contract or contracts, including the use of existing contracts for construction in connection with alterations at Special Populations Programs Centers to accommodate the physically handicapped; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by decreasing the total project allocation by $1,333.91 from $71,000.00 to $69,666.09."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1561

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 122, effective March 2, 1983, entitled: 'Providing for an Agreement or Agreements for architectural/engineering services for design in connection with the construction of improvements for handicapped accessibility at the Downtown Public Safety Building; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by decreasing the total project allocation by $5,447.50 from $10,000.00 to $4,552.50."

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 800, effective September 22, 1986, entitled: 'Providing for a Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts, for the Renovations of No. 11 E.M.S./No. 1 Rescue Headquarters; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by increasing the total project allocation by $68,246.03 from $110,000.00 to $178,246.03."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1563

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts for Rehabilitation of No. 15 Fire Station located at Lemington and Missouri Streets; and providing for the payment thereof."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, very briefly on Bill No. 1563, the $200,000 appropriation regarding the rehab of the No. 15 Fire Station, I would like my comments brought forward from the meeting regarding the fact that it has been many months now since the Administration has not come forward with specific legislation for the repairs and renovation of Troy Hill Fire Station.

The Chair:

Since last Wednesday at the Committee Meeting I addressed that and I said that we were talking with the Mayor and Glenn Cannon and a few other people and that definitely is going to be fixed. I met with and discussed it with the Mayor on Thursday. The Troy Hill Fire House is definitely going to be renovated.

Mr. Ferlo:

Thank you.

(MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1563 - WEDNESDAY, 11/9/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, while it's not specifically on the subject, I think it is because the Administration is coming to this table with a specific dollar figure for a specific renovation.

It's been the expressed will of this Council that the Troy Hill Fire Station be remodeled, and I believe the money has been appropriated in the Capital Budget. While it's a little bit off the subject, I do think it's relevant insofar as we are approving some other use of funds in another set of priorities, and I would ask for a response from the Administration or Mr. Woods regarding his interaction with the Mayor on this issue.

The Chair:

Mr. Ferlo, I think it's a valid point you are bringing up. It's just being brought up at the wrong time. This piece of legislation does not pertain to that firehouse, so therefore, discussion --

Mr. Ferlo:

I agree with you. You being a strict constructionist, I think when the Administration comes to the table and says -- it's a question of priorities and a question of us having the right to discuss generally the topic of repairs to fire stations.

And while the bill before us is not a bill pro or con on the actual remodeling of Troy Hill, the fact that they are now before us with an appropriation for another area, I think it is a subject matter that does pertain to the issue.

Mr. Woods:

I have had numerous meetings with the Administration over the past couple of weeks, and I feel pretty confident that they are going to renovate the Troy Hill Firehouse. In fact, I am expecting something any day now. In fact, the last time I spoke to the Administration happened to be Monday, and I'm sure they are going to do it.

(END OF REMARKS)

Also,

Bill No. 1564

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts for Rehabilitation of Public Safety Facilities at Various Locations, including but not limited to #38 Fire Station Truck Bay Floor and Apron Repairs, #22 Fire Station Window Alterations and #6 Fire Station Improvements to Bunk Room; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1565

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution Repealing Resolution No. 551, effective July 15, 1983, entitled: 'Providing for a Contract or Contracts, including the use of existing Contracts for construction in connection with Handicapped improvements and accessibility at the Public Safety Building; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof.'"

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President and members of Council, I don't think anybody in this room doubts the fact that I'm outspoken, I say what I believe, and I fight for what I believe in. I was as surprised today as anyone was to hear the Mayor's Budget and to hear how fine it was. Everything that this Council has been fighting for I believe was incorporated in that budget, from the jobs program that this Council voted for, the pilot project that was initiated on the North Shore which is going to be expanded throughout the City, to my suggestion repeatedly that we have an increase in a fee for service for the Zoo, Aviary and Conservatory for non-City residents, to lowering the wage tax which we've all been fighting for. I had proposed a number of times an eighth of a percent or a quarter of a percent, and the Mayor has proposed a half percent. And also, if we get tax reform, we will be looking at lowering the mercantile business privilege and amusement tax. All of us have been concerned about police; 100 new police officers. We've been concerned about the narcotics problem; 100 of those police officers will basically be assigned to the drug problems which are really the basis of most crimes.

And when I sat in the office and heard the briefing and said, "I have to support that package", it naturally followed that, of course, if I'm going to support it, you don't say, "I'm going to run on the same issues". And the fact that I'm not going to run is not the prime interest of this Council.

But I would like to ask my colleagues to really think about what was proposed today when we get into the budget hearings and to be supportive of what was proposed and not to in any way try to undermine what is good for the City because that is the honorable thing to do. Thank you.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, in response to the Mayor's budget message, very briefly, and somewhat to Michelle's comments, I want to reiterate it is the point of this legislative body to provide checks and balances. And it's very important that in the next month and a half we scrutinize and we nitpick if we have to on each and every point in that budget.

Overall, I would have to admit, quite frankly, a very warm feeling today. I'm very proud of Mayor Masloff and her budget message. I feel that not only some of the points that I have been harping on but collectively we on this Council have raised a number of issues this year in the brief time that I've been on Council on the wage tax, on the issue of recognizing that there are some basic problems in the Public Safety Department, and I think the Mayor really distinguished herself today in the budget message by not only addressing significantly to some extent the wage tax issue, but also dealing to some extent with the recognition of problems in Public Safety, specifically in the area of beat patrol and the problems with narcotic and plain clothes officers.

I think overall we should applaud the Mayor for her budget message today. I think she really has distinguished herself independently in that role above and beyond anything that she inherited for whatever reason unforeseen and as sad as it was.

So, I would say overall that I applaud the Mayor and her leadership today in talking about some of the issues. There are small criticisms and concerns that I have but I think it would be better to express those during the budget proceedings that we will engage in. I was hoping to hear a little bit about some commitment in the human service area for hunger and some of the other issues, but I think the Mayor is open to constructive criticisms that we on Council will address in the next month and a half. But I just want to say that I'm very proud of the Mayor; I think she did a hell of a job today.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman and Council, I think the Mayor in her budget reflects of going to the needs of the people of this City and to see that the City grows. When you can cut tax and increase employment, I think that's one whale of a budget. And certainly it's the needs of the people and let's hope that the City will grow in population.

Mr. Pollock:

I want to join my colleagues in also applauding the Mayor on the budget. Without question, she deserves a great deal of applause from us and as much support as we can give her.

Also, I've always been one to feel that members of the Administration should not toil in anonymity. So, without question, the credit goes to the Mayor, but I would like to publicly commend the Finance Director, Jim Turner and the Budget Director, Carolyn Marks who played very, very key roles in this budget. Too often staff members' work goes unrecognized and I think that they deserve a great debt of gratitude from the people of Pittsburgh and especially this City Council.

I don't know how we're able to keep them in Pittsburgh. I think Jim Turner should be down in Washington working on the federal budget deficit. The budget he proposed to us is just plain brilliant; to be able to propose a wage tax cut without laying off any people or cutting services is something that one would have thought would have required smoke and mirrors. But he did it in a very fiscally sound, rational, and non-risk manner. So, I applaud and I applaud Carolyn Marks and I applaud all the directors in the Administration for coming up with this budget. I look forward to going through each department budget with them and I just can't thank them enough.

Mr. DePasquale:

I want to reiterate the words of Mark Pollock. The budget, I might say, the address, was like a dream come true; cutting the wage tax one-half percent, adding 100 police, and also providing 300 jobs to the private sector for the people of the City of Pittsburgh.

I might add that a couple of weeks ago I had a bit of a knock down, drag out fight with the Mayor in regards to adding police. At that time, she said the budget just couldn't stand it. She said it couldn't stand a tax cut and it couldn't stand adding police. I want to thank Jack Wagner, the former Public Safety Chairman and Patrick McNamara. I think their campaign to add more police finally paid off. I'd like to thank Sophie and her people who found a way to do it and add those police. Obviously she wanted police protection for the City of Pittsburgh as much or more than we do. At the same time, she just couldn't find her way clear. A couple weeks later she has done that and whoever made that possible, as Mark said a while ago, may belong somewhere else and not in Pittsburgh. But we'd hate to lose people like that so I hope they stay.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, as Finance Chairman in my initial review I also commend the Mayor and her staff for what they've done so far with the budget that they're proposing to City Council. Not only that, but the professional way in which it was presented today. I think everyone was very impressed with that.

However, we all know, and Councilman Ferlo indicated it, that it's now City Council's budget. The budget that is passed in the City of Pittsburgh is a budget consisting of the Administration's suggested budget, the taxpayers' suggestions, and ultimately, this City Council's suggestions. It's now our job to scrutinize this budget and the concerns that will be brought forth to us at the various hearings that begin tomorrow. I'm very interested in sitting down with our budget staff and listening to what they propose. But a suggestion of decreasing the wage tax, no one can disagree with. It is obviously the number one problem in the City of Pittsburgh. I commend the Mayor for that suggestion and finding a way to do that.

I would also like to state, though, that this suggested proposal of a reduction in the earned income tax or the wage tax would put the City of Pittsburgh actually below the earned income tax or the wage tax of the School Board. And we do have a combined wage tax in the City of Pittsburgh and I would hope that between now and end of budget time for the City that we will, yes, vote for a wage tax reduction as proposed today, but also that the City School Board will find a way to reduce their portion of the wage tax and jointly we can have a significant reduction below the 3.5 percent, possibly to 3 percent and even further if tax reform occurs. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

I really hadn't thought we were going to go into such depth but I left out a couple of very important things. I would like to take up from where Mr. Ferlo's position was. Yes, we may support and applaud the Mayor. And I ask that we all be creative in being supportive and not being protagonists. But it is true that we are the watchdogs, in essence, and we have to be sure that we look at all the fine points.

And I think the point that was made here today by Al Julius and the people who represent the hunger, that has got to be a priority and I think this Council has really led the way in that budget. I feel part of that budget because my ideas were incorporated. Jack's ideas were incorporated. Other people's ideas were incorporated.

The one thing that we did not talk about is the workers' comp. If that workers' comp is improved, we have surveillance and this is something I've been working with Mr. Turner on for over a year, and I started with Mr. Schmeiser and I've worked with Mr. Scortino, and if we can get annuities, commutations, and get the supposedly 25 percent people who are on workers' comp, they could come back to useful employment in the City, we might even be able to cut our wage tax another quarter percent.

I just want to congratulate not only the Administration but my colleagues because, frankly, it was our ideas, our votes, for example, on the North Side to have that pilot program to see that people were hired in their own community. We were the initiators, we were the ones that made this happen, we allowed it to happen. But I applaud the Mayor for not saying, "I'm not going to pick it up because it was somebody else's". She listened to us and she picked it up. And I think that maybe that is the beginning of a new era that's good for this City and for everybody.

Mr. Pollock:

I mentioned before about recognizing people and I forgot a very important person and I would be remiss if I didn't also congratulate and thank him and that is the City Treasurer, Henry Scortino. I know he had a profound impact on this budget too, especially in terms of the pension fund. So, I congratulate him and thank him as well.

The Chair:

I just would like to add one thing, and Mr. Wagner touched on it. And I don't want to discuss the budget because we'll be starting that tomorrow at 10:00. But he's right on target with the School Board. Their budget is $291 million, the same as the City. It's a disgrace, and if we can find a way to cut our's by one-half percent, I'm sure they can. And perhaps something to look at in the future, we ought to start electing School Board members with pay and then maybe they'll look at that budget a little closer than they are now because they'll want to really fight for that job.

I'll add one more thing, not taking any thunder away from the Mayor. We're only adding 100 policemen over what is presently on duty. That means only 66 more in the budget. So don't everyone go out there and think that it's 100 more than what's on duty.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, Mr. Chairman, on your comment. Fifty-five percent of the time our police officers are off duty. That's why the 100 police were put on. And I don't think we ought to forget that. I think you're on the button.

Mr. DePasquale moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, October 24, 1988.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Michelle Madoff

Council adjourned.

Mr. Coyne moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Coyne:

Tony also has a plaque here that he was awarded by the Greenfield community.

Mr. DePaolo:

I want to thank everybody in the Greenfield community for this award; it was really a surprise. I appreciate all of my good friends and neighbors that thought of me and awarded me this award. Greenfield is quite a place to live and if any of you people have ever been around Greenfield and know where it's at, you know that it is really a nice place. It's well-centered and everything about it is good. We have some good people there and we try to keep it good.

I want to thank my wife for putting up with me while I was doing all these endeavors, and my children who didn't give me any trouble, so I was able to do these things. I thank everybody, and God bless you all.

Michelle Madoff:

Behind every great man there's a great woman.

Mr. Coyne presents

No. 1702 WHEREAS, November 22, 1988 will mark the 25th year since the passing of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy; and

WHEREAS, the life and words of President Kennedy will always serve as an inspiration to all Americans; and

WHEREAS, The Knights of Equity, Court 9, will pay homage to and mark the passing of this great American of Irish heritage, at a special Mass to be celebrated on Tuesday, November 22, 1988 at 8:00 P.M., at St. Mary of Mercy Church on Stanwix.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, in recognition of the 25th anniversary of the passing of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, does hereby declare November 22, 1988 as John F. Kennedy Memorial Day in the City of Pittsburgh; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Council recognizes and commends The Knights of Equity, Court 9, for their work in initiating and promoting a memorial for this great Irish American.

Mr. Coyne moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Coyne:

I have with me Mr. Bernie Cusick who is the worthy Supreme Sir Knight of the Knights of Equity.

Mr. Cusick:

I'd like to accept this on behalf of the Knights of Equity and I'd like to thank City Council for designating the 22nd of November as John F. Kennedy Memorial Day. I'd also like to thank Councilman Coyne for introducing this resolution.

I'd also like to extend an invitation to the citizens of Pittsburgh to join us at our Memorial Mass, the Knights of Equity Memorial Mass, tomorrow night at 8:00 at St. Mary's Church in Downtown Pittsburgh. Thank you.

Mr. DePasquale presents

No. 1703 WHEREAS, on November 13, 1988, the friends, family members and associates of Mr. Bernard Burns held a retirement party on Pittsburgh's famous Majestic riverboat in honor of his retirement; and

WHEREAS, over 700 people attended the retirement party, some coming from as far as Washington, Boston and New Orleans to honor a great man; and

WHEREAS, Bernie Burns has given over 26 years of dedicated service to the City of Pittsburgh Fire Bureau, and has been a Union Officer for the Pittsburgh Firefighters Local #1 for over 23 years;

and

WHEREAS, Bernie Burns presently holds the prestigious position of President of the Pittsburgh Firefighters Local #1, and has served in this capacity since 1980; and

WHEREAS, over the many years of dedicated service, Bernie Burns has received numerous awards such as Man-of-the-Year in 1982 which was presented to him by the Jaycees, a fundraising group which recognizes men and women in various professional fields, and Bernie has also received an award from the Muscular Dystrophy Foundation and the Spina Bifida Foundation for humanitarian accomplishments; and

WHEREAS, Bernie Burns is married to the former Kitty Lou Bittner, who has given him support and encouragement over the many years of his untiring service, and together they have three sons, Patrick, Bernie and Michael; and

WHEREAS, along with their three sons, Bernie and Kitty have also raised a young man from their Lawrenceville neighborhood who lost his family in a fatal fire; and

WHEREAS, Bernie Burns is highly respected by the members of his organization, and through his contributions at work and in his personal life, serves as a role model to the people of this City.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby congratulates Bernie Burns on his well deserved retirement from the City of Pittsburgh Fire Bureau, and commends him for his many years of service to the Pittsburgh Firefighters Local #1; and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby extends best wishes to Bernie Burns and his entire family for health, happiness and success in their future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that

Mr. DePasquale moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. DePasquale:

As I stated in the resolution, there was a retirement party aboard the Majestic a couple of weeks ago which was attended by 700 or 800 people. I know it was an overflowing crowd; I've never seen a crowd like that at a retirement party.

Bernie, however, was retiring as an active fireman, but not as President of the union. His union has insisted that he stay on for the next two years which is unprecedented because it's never before, I think, happened in any union. Once you retire, that's it; you're no longer a union official. But Bernie is going to remain on through the courtesy of its members and through their generosity.

The only thing else I can add is that he's been a great friend of Council down through the years and vice-versa. And on the boat that night, most of the members of Council were there to show their appreciation and to wish Bernie well in the many coming years he has left.

Bernie, it's been a pleasure to know you and a pleasure to be acquainted with you and a pleasure to be in your company anytime, anyplace. And I will say this: You are the number one fireman not in Pittsburgh, but in the United States of America.

Mr. Burns:

I just want to thank the members of Council for giving me this and also to say that I was a very lucky man. I was able to represent, in my opinion, the best firefighters in the world and the best men in the world. They always supported us and I want to thank Council for your support over the years. This should go to my people because I was fortunate enough to represent them. Thank you.

Mr. DePasquale presented

No. 1655 An Ordinance amending and supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Seven - Business Licensing, Articles III, VII, IX, Chapter 713 Pawn Brokers, Chapter 715 Junk Dealers, Chapter 717 Antique or Second Hand Dealers, Chapter 719 Vendors and Peddlers, Chapter 721 Transient Merchants, Chapter 723 Trade Fairs, Chapter 763 Parking Lots, Chapter 765 Commercial Refuse, Chapter 771 Amusement Places and Producers, Chapter 773 Sunday Activities, Chapter 775 Carnivals and Street Fairs, Chapter 777 Mechanical Amusement Devices and Chapter 779 Public Dance Halls and Dances by raising certain fees.

Also,

Also,

No. 1658 An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Five - Traffic, Chapters 523 and 525 by setting fees for release of immobilized vehicles.

Also,

No. 1659 An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Five, Traffic, Article III, Towing, Chapter 525, Towing Charges, Section 525.02, Schedule of Towing Fees, by changing the fee schedule to be applied to each classification.

Also,

No. 1660 Communication from Glenn Cannon, Director, Department of Public Safety, requesting authorization for the Center for Emergency Medicine to conduct a Comprehensive Incident and Stress Debriefing seminar at the Department of Public Safety Training Academy in Pittsburgh, PA, from February 11-12, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $750.00, payable from Code Account PSTA. The purpose of this seminar is to institute a comprehensive incident and stress debriefing program for the City of Pittsburgh, Department of Public Safety.

Also,

No. 1661 Communication from Glenn Cannon, Director, Department of Public Safety, requesting authorization to amend Council Bill No. 1449 to adjust the total expenses for John Bauer due to a misquoted rental car price, the total cost shall not exceed $902.00, payable from Code Account PSTA. This request is necessary due to the fact that an expense was quoted incorrectly by the rental car agency.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Public Safety.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, could each Councilmember have a copy of the increased fees in their entirety? Thank you.

Mr. Ferlo presented

No. 1662 Resolution accepting the grading, paving, curbing and sewers on certain street on the Broadhead Manor Plan PA-1-6, also known as Drawing No. 8405-04 Pages 1 thru 38 in the 28th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh.

Also,

No. 1663 Resolution granting unto Esther Bordt and Thomas Rhall, their successors and assigns, the privilege and license to construct, maintain and use at their own cost and expense, an off-street parking area over a portion of the unopened right of way of Oakdale Street in the 27th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh.

Which were read and referred to the Committee on Public Works.

Mr. Lyons presented

No. 1664 Resolution providing for the authorization and transfer of $59,530.37 to the General Fund of the City of Pittsburgh for reimbursement of Salaries and Indirect Costs of employees in support of the City's Community Development Block Grant Program from the 1985 CDBG Program "Inspection Related to CDBG Program, Salaries (CDFD) Department of Fire (FD-85-02).

Also,

No. 1665 Resolution providing for the authorization and transfer of $744,853.17 to the General Fund of the City of Pittsburgh for reimbursement of Salaries and Indirect Costs for the Community Development Block Grant Program.

Which were read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Also,

No. 1666 Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with the South Side Local Development Corporation for the implementation of the 3rd Year of the Mainstreet Redevelopment Program at a cost not to exceed $16,250.00, chargeable to and payable from the MSP (Main Street Program) Trust Fund. The Commonwealth of Pa. and the Dept. of Community Affairs will reimburse the MSP Trust Fund in the amount not to exceed $16,250.00.

Also,

Also,

No. 1669 Resolution approving execution of Contracts for Disposition of Land by and between the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh and various Redevelopers for the sale of certain properties in the City of Pittsburgh (SIDEYARD).

Also,

No. 1670 Resolution authorizing the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh to condemn and acquire all of the City's right, title and interest, if any, in and to the publicly-owned property in the 16th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh, designated as Block and Lot 32-B-314 (803 Ormsby Street) in the Deed Registry Office of Allegheny County, for the Fair Market Value, under the Residential Land Reserve Fund, said property having been certified as blighted by the Vacant Property Review Committee and the Planning Commission of the City of Pittsburgh. (SIDEYARD)

Also,

No. 1671 Resolution authorizing the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh to condemn and acquire all of the City's right, title and interest, if any, in and to the publicly-owned property in the 13th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh, designated as Block and Lot 231-E-87 (1075 Lawndale Street) in the Deed Registry Office of Allegheny County, for the Fair Market Value, under the Residential Land Reserve Fund, said property having been certified as blighted by the Vacant Property Review Committee and the Planning Commission of the City of Pittsburgh. (SIDEYARD)

Also,

No. 1672 Resolution authorizing the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh to condemn and acquire all of the City's right, title and interest, if any, in and to the publicly-owned property in the 5th Ward of the City of Pittsburgh, designated as Block and Lot 10-F-94 (707 Chauncey Street) in the Deed Registry Office of Allegheny County, for the Fair Market Value, under the Residential Land Reserve Fund, said property having been certified as blighted by the Vacant Property Review Committee and the Planning Commission of the City of Pittsburgh. (SIDEYARD)

Also,

No. 1673 An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Nine, "Zoning", Chapter 911 "Fee Schedule", Section 911.01 "Fees Established" by increasing the following fees:

- a. For a Conditional Use or Planned Unit Development Application, from $80.00 to $150.00.
- b. For a Modified Conditional Use or Planned Unit Development Application, from $40.00 to $75.00.
- c. For a Board of Adjustment Appeal, from $30.00 to $40.00.
- d. For a Temporary or Permanent Certificate of Occupancy when phased with a Building Permit, from $6.00 to $15.00; or when not phased with a Building Permit from $10.00 to $20.00.
- e. For A Zone Change Petition, from $100.00 to $150.00.
- f. For Preparation and Introduction of a zoning related Ordinance, from $30.00 to $50.00.
- g. For Recertification of a Group Living Facility, from $25.00 to $40.00.

These increases are directly related to the amount of staff time involved in processing the applications, and the escalated cost of advertising for hearings and public meetings.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development.

Michelle Madoff presented

No. 1674 Resolution providing for a Contract or the use of existing Contracts for the purchase of leak detection equipment to be used in the Department of Water at a cost not to exceed $18,500.00, chargeable to and payable from Code Account 1985
(198507), Equipment, Distribution
Division, Department of Water.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Water.

Michelle Madoff moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

No. 1675 Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of R &
W Forms, 5000 Baum Boulevard,
Pittsburgh, PA 15213, in the amount of $9,200.00 in payment for services furnished for the benefit of the City in connection with emergency purchase of customer water bills, chargeable to and payable from Code Account No. 1923
(192302), Supplies, Administration
Division, Department of Water.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Wagner presented

No. 1676 Resolution providing for the issuance of a $1,608.00 warrant in favor of Browns Hill Bible Chapel in settlement of claim for sidewalk damage
by City tree roots at 3349 Beechwood
Boulevard, payable from Code Account
No. 46, Judgments.

Also,

No. 1677 Resolution providing for the issuance of a $1,176.00 warrant in favor of Marshall P. and Wallis Katz in settlement of claim for sidewalk damage by City tree roots at 4875 Ellsworth Avenue, payable from Code Account No.
46, Judgments.

Also,

No. 1678 Resolution Repealing
Item G of Resolution No. 759-G, approved October 3, 1988, which repealed Resolution No. 384-K, approved May 5, 1986, authorizing the sale of property in the 21st Ward, being a 2
Story, Brick house, located at 1414
Adams Street, designated as Block 22-F, Lot 105, to Linda J. Dalessandri, for the sum of $3,000.00. The reason for the above Resolution is to re-instate the above sale, as the purchaser remitted the balance payment due while the forfeiture was in progress, but not completed.

Also,

No. 1679 Resolution Repealing
Resolution No. 838, Item H, approved October 28, 1988, which authorized the sale of property in the 21st Ward, being a vacant lot, located at 1100 Bidwell Street, designated as Block 22-R, Lot 181 to Paul Rosul, for the sum of $350.00. The reason for the above repealing Resolution is that it was discovered through a survey that there is an encroachment on this property by another property at 1018 W. North Avenue, and the City does not have a marketable title to the property, as submitted originally.

Also,

No. 1680 Resolution amending Resolution No. 25, Item H, approved February 2, 1988, which authorized the sale of property in the 25th Ward, being a vacant lot located at 1914 Rear Buena Vista Street, designated as Block 23-A, Lot 178 to Ernest Simon and George Bromall II, for the sum of $500.00. The reason for the above Amendment is to add the names of 2 additional purchasers, James O. Lindner and Lee J. Corsello, to the sale.

Also,

No. 1681 Resolution providing for the filing of a petition or petitions for the sale of certain properties in various Wards of the City of Pittsburgh, acquired at tax sales in accordance with Act No. 171 of 1984.

Also,

No. 1682 Resolution making appropriations to pay the expenses of conducting the public business of the City of Pittsburgh and for meeting the debt charges thereof for the year beginning January 1, 1989.

Also,

No. 1683 Resolution fixing the number of officers and employees of all departments of the City of Pittsburgh and the rate of compensation thereof for the year beginning January 1, 1989.

Also,

No. 1684 Resolution adopting and approving the 1989 Capital Budget and the 1989 Community Development Block Grant Program; and approving the 1989 through 1994 Capital Improvement Program.

Also,

No. 1685 Communication from Melanie J. Smith, Director, Department of Personnel, requesting authorization for Barbara King to attend the Pennsylvania Hall of Fame of Champions of Older Workers Council meeting in Harrisburg, PA, on December 8, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $290.00, payable from the JTPA-1 Trust Fund. The purpose of the trip is to plan the annual awards banquet, finalize plans to solicit nominations for awards and to discuss issues relating to older workers in Pennsylvania. (PRIOR APPROVAL GRANTED)

Also,

No. 1686 Communication from Melanie J. Smith, Director, Department of Personnel, requesting authorization for Anne McCafferty and Alfred Cambric to attend the Joint Jobs Initiative Awards Ceremony, in Hershey, Pa., on November 30, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $737.00, payable from the JTPA-1 Trust Fund. Mr. Cambric's expense for the trip will be reimbursed to the City of Pittsburgh by the Joint Jobs Initiative Task Force. (PRIOR APPROVAL GRANTED)

Also,

No. 1687 Communication from Melanie J. Smith, Director, Department of Personnel, requesting authorization for Walter Fortson, Maureen Carr and Roseann Nicol to attend the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry, Governor's Joint Jobs Initiative Conference in Hershey, Pa., from December 1-2, 1988, at a cost not to exceed $1,120.67, payable from the JTPA-1 Trust Fund. The purpose of the training session is to address the training needs of welfare recipients in order to enable them to secure employment.

(PRIOR APPROVAL GRANTED)

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Chair presented

No. 1688 Resolution transferring the aggregate sum of $71,000.00 within various accounts in the Department of Parks and Recreation. This transfer is needed to make projected payroll expenditures for the remainder of the year.

Also,

No. 1689 Resolution transferring the amount of $79,307.21 from Code Account SSFSP, Special Summer Food Service Program, to Code Account SPP, Special Park Programs, in the Department of Parks and Recreation. These funds represent the department's reimbursements and administration costs for the 1988 Summer Food Service Program.

Also,

No. 1690 Resolution authorizing the transfer of $10,000.00 from Code Account 1853, Utilities, to Code Account 1851-1, Premium Pay, in the Department of Parks and Recreation, all within the Pittsburgh Zoo. The transfer of funds is necessitated by costs associated with training of Animal Keepers, the raise in pay rate for six employees to the position of Animal Keeper 2, and unexpected overtime expenses caused by delivery and installation of the renovated reef tank exhibit in the Aqua Zoo.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Also,

No. 1691 Resolution authorizing the Director of the Department of Parks and Recreation to increase certain admission fees at the Pittsburgh Zoo, effective January 1, 1989.

Also,

No. 1692 Resolution authorizing the Director of the Department of Parks and Recreation to increase certain admission fees at Phipps Conservatory, effective January 1, 1989.

Also,

No. 1693 Resolution authorizing the Director of the Department of Parks and Recreation to increase certain admission fees at Pittsburgh Aviary, effective January 1, 1989.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Parks and Recreation.

Also,

No. 1694 Communication from Dante Pellegrini, City Solicitor, submitting a quarterly report of the settlement of small claims not exceeding $750.00 for the Third Quarter of 1988, payable from Code Account No. 1081, Petty Claims. Also, a quarterly report of the settlement claims in excess of $750.00 for the Third Quarter of 1988, payable from Code Account No. 46, Judgments.

Also,

No. 1695 Petition from the residents of the City of Pittsburgh, requesting a public hearing to discuss the 1989 budgeted positions in the Department of Public Safety, Bureau of Fire. (This petition is valid in accordance with Section 320 of the Home Rule Charter).

Which were read, received and filed.

The Chair:

Write a list, just like the others, the bill number, what the fee is and what the proposed hike is. And just break it down on a simple piece of paper and put it in everyone's box.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Wagner presented

Bill No. 1696

Report of the Committee on Finance for November 16, 1988 transmitting two ordinances and sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, on Bill 1595 I would like my comments brought forward.

(BEGINNING - MR. FERLO'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1595 - WEDNESDAY, 11/16/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Director, you know my long-standing position. Since I'm a new member of Council and I was not able to be here last year to vote on this Grant Street Project which I'm not happy about for lots of different reasons but is it too late for this Council to interject any criticism on the lighting that's been done?

I think it's the ugliest lighting in the world and it does nothing to keep in character with the brick work or the Union Trust Architecture. And I was wondering, why wasn't there a consideration given to utilizing the lighting that if — you are familiar with the EBA which is in style with the Grant Street character and it looks beautiful next to the Union Trust Building. Those globe lights with those bolts sticking out in the street look atrocious. It looks like the East Liberty Mall which was a great fiasco.

Director McDermott:

Early in 1980 a task force was put together of various departments within the City to establish what the standard lighting fixtures would be for the CBD. This was done prior to the subway project being done and it happens that those were the light fixtures that were selected.

Mr. Ferlo:

I can't believe we spent over $15 million for that.

Director McDermott:

We haven't spent over $15 million. It's probably around $12 million to $13 million.

Mr. Ferlo:

And not spend a little extra to do some decent lighting. That lighting is not only thoroughly pedestrian looking but it's unattractive and it's too late to reconsider.

Director McDermott:

Yes. We have the same lights on Sixth Avenue.

Mr. Ferlo:

I have to abstain on this legislation.

(END OF REMARKS)

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |             |

Michelle Madoff (Pres't Pro tem)

AYES 7 NOES none

(MR. FERLO ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Ferlo:

I have just a few points relating to the budget. First of all, at what point does Council receive the individual positions that are to receive bonuses and also what the dollar figure will be.

The Chair:

As each department comes up. Starting next Monday, I believe, we go into the departments.

Mr. Ferlo:

So we don't receive a list in advance?

The Chair:

When each department comes up it will be there. You can ask for it in advance.

Mr. Ferlo:

I think it would be relevant for us to receive the information in advance.

The Chair:

I have no problem with that.

Mr. Ferlo:

Two, I would like to suggest that we begin to think about a change in the policy regarding out of town travel. Even though I'm a critic of the travel, my main concern for the last year has been one, the amount of money that we spend on travel and, two, the process by which we approve it.

I'm more inclined, based on what I've seen over the last few months, to remove from the weekly debate and dialogue the continual discussion that we have on travel. It's been my experience that many times a department director will sit there for several hours only to get up to discuss one travel bill which, in most instances, is not even under dispute. I think that's a waste of time.

What I would rather see is just a yearly amount for each department of what the budgeted figure will be. For instance, in Public Works, Mr. Gaetano will propose that he will spend $8,000, much of which actually is for the City Cable Bureau. I would rather see us change the process whereby we know ahead of time what the yearly figure is going to be for each department director. We debate that amount on the next few weeks for each department director but then not spend countless hours of debate talking and approving each individual travel request. I have no problem leaving that up to the department director as long as we have some kind of built in advance notification system so that if there is something controversial, we can always discuss it or put a hold on it.

But I think we need to reform the travel situation and also, it's my hope that we budget a figure that's less than the $400,000 or so that's been approved this year.

So, what I'm asking is for Council to begin to think about the issue of travel with the goal in mind of changing the actual procedure that we will use for next year.

On two other related points, and these all have to do with the budget debates that will start in the next week and a half.

It's been my experience that a lot of the time gets expended with the department director discussing ad infinitum the particular budgeted line items that he or she submits to Council. However, one thing that has frustrated me throughout the year is the interaction that we have with the department directors every Wednesday is always limited to only the specific bill that is up before us. That's very frustrating when we want to talk about things that we are trying to work on and are either getting roadblocked by a department director or just getting the runaround.

I would like to see, and I would urge Council to consider and ask for support on this, that in addition to the actual budget that has been submitted to Council, and we will interact with the department director for each budgeted line item, I would ask that we communicate to them ahead of time and ask them to submit a narrative outlining some goals and objectives and activities for the coming year. And I would like to review that, especially in Public Safety and Parks and Recreation, General Services and Public Works, with what has been my experience and I'm sure all Councilmembers have experiences on trying to get specific things done out in the neighborhoods. And we have varying levels of interpretation on whether it has been done or not been done.

But I don't want to just sit there and debate one position and one budgeted item versus the other. I would also want to sit there and talk about what are some of the objectives and activities for the coming year in each one of those departments. It's really our only forum to offensively ask about activities and also to evaluate to some extent the performance of a particular department director. I don't dispute the fact that we don't oversee that person from an administrative point of view, but we're the ones who bear the brunt. At least when I go out in the community, I'm the one who bears the brunt of why isn't this being done or why isn't that being done. And I think it's time for us to interact with department directors during the budget debate and talk about goals and objectives and I would ask that Council join me in asking for a review of the travel policy and also, that we specifically ask for a two or three page narrative outlining some of the goals and objectives and activities.

My bias right now is to eliminate the Mayor's Service Center. I would rather have that money come to Council so that we can add staff to deal with problems that citizens call in with, not only to my office but I'm sure to other Councilmembers' offices. I think the Mayor's Service Center is an unnecessary intermediate that really doesn't help to resolve citizen complaints. So, I would like to have Council think about that.

The fourth budget matter and then I'll close, they all have to do with the budget, is the notion that's been very frustrating, at least to me, and we experienced it in the last few days when citizens have come to us asking for very simple things whether it be sodding of a field or lining of a field or building outdoor restrooms. There are all kinds of little construction projects that I think could be done in-house on a mini-WPA kind of a program. And just like we did this year with the remote installation program of water meters where a program was constructed taking union workers out of the union hall, not giving them full-time positions but on an as-needed basis. I think it's time that we put on one or two construction-type crews in City government that can do many of these infra-structure kinds of projects that don't involve consultants, don't involve a lot of external money for outside contractors, but can be done in-house with the expertise in the Department of Public Works or General Services or what have you. And I would like to see that also be debated and that's something I'm going to be arguing for very strongly in the next few weeks.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President and members of Council, I find this dialogue by Mr. Ferlo almost humorous because, in the good old days, after many years of battling, when a subject was brought up by a Councilmember, we were allowed to address that subject before we went on to the second and the third and the fourth. It was interaction and there was dialogue and some of the matters were set straight and some of the misinformation was straightened out and we learned and we agreed and we debated and the issue was resolved.

Allowing a member of Council to go ahead, whether its me or anybody else, and discuss two or three items without the input from the others is really non-productive. And it's really the kind of stumbling block that we have seen in Council when particularly myself and other members wish to discuss a related item to the bill before us because it's the only action, I agree with Mr. Ferlo, the only time we have to interact with the department head and it is related. And we are cut off by saying, "You're not addressing the bill." It's a way of controlling this Council and good old boys network functioning.

So, if you really wanted to make changes and if you really believed in it, Mr. Ferlo, you'd come up with a mechanism to go back to the good old days, which were not much further than the bad old days, we got out of the back room with the smoke filled cigars and we got out here into Council and we put Council on cable gavel to gavel, where we could really have some dialogue with the department heads on bills, expand it beyond just sticking to the issue of the bill because we want to get out of here in a hurry, and you bitch about changing the meeting from Wednesday to Thursday, you want to change it.

If you really meant what you said, we'd really get down and addressing the people's business. And personally I think that nothing is going to change of any substance until we get a new Council and everything is going to change. It's going to be a better Council. Whether I'm here or not.

Mr. Ferlo:

I don't know what the heck that statement was all about.

Michelle Madoff:

I think the public understood what I said, so don't worry about it.

Mr. Ferlo:

Michelle, I think you should seek counseling. I don't understand the nature of your comments. It was the most ridiculous statement I've ever heard.

Michelle Madoff:

Fine. You think that way and we'll let the public judge for itself.

Mr. President and members of Council, I had asked Mike Perry's office to introduce some legislation for me today and there was a mix-up and timeframe problem and it will be introduced next Monday, to amend Chapter 175 of the Art Commission to invoke including the Art Commission and the Architects Association before we put signs up around the City. I was at a second zoning hearing where people were coming and asking for another duplication of the abortions, the signs that are up on PPG that are just horrendous to the City. Before they're proliferated, we better do something about it.

So, in respect to the pending legislation which will be introduced next Monday, may I respectfully request the support for a floor motion that we put a hold on all signs until we debate and decide whether this piece of legislation will pass to have the Architects and the Art Commission have a say in what signs are put up? Just a freeze so that we don't go ahead and put more up because they're are some others pending that are even worse than the PPG signs. I make that in the form of a motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Point of order. This discussion is about six months too late. If Michelle would attend the Wednesday sessions and participate she would know --

Michelle Madoff:

Don't you worry about what Michelle does. Worry about what you do.

Mr. Ferlo:

Excuse me, I have the floor,

Mr. Chairman. You called on me. I didn't call anybody a twerp or make fun --

Michelle Madoff:

You are a twerp.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, it was many months ago when I brought up for debate, because I was opposed to it, the expenditure of $1.6 million for the sign. I even brought the sign in and wanted to talk about the color and everything else. That was many months ago. More recently, because there was a change in responsibility to another department, we entertained the debate and discussion. So either the good Councilwoman has to explain herself further or I don't understand what the point of this motion is.

The Chair:

Let me just say this. There's a motion on the floor and it has been seconded. All it would be is a will of this Council which the Administration doesn't have to follow anyway. We just say we'd like you to put a moratorium on putting up any more signs until next week or next Wednesday. They don't have to follow it; they can continue putting them up, but it's just our wish, just like a resolution.

Michelle Madoff:

I am not saying that we stop putting the signs up. That is not what I'm saying. Street signs that are underway I want to continue with that. God, we don't want to stop them. I'm talking about the special signs that have been put out by the corporations, the PPG signs, with the people walking in this razzmatazz jazz that looks like 42nd Street and some other buildings, industries, that are planning to do the same thing. That's the only thing I would like to have a hold on. Certainly I want to spend that $1.6 because if we don't have street signs up, firefighters, paramedics and police can't get to save lives. Holding up street signs would be inane. So, if Mr. Ferlo paid a little more attention he wouldn't have a problem.

The Chair:

Okay, the motion, and it has been seconded, it that we ask Public Works not to give out any more permits for any more signs, Benedum Center, whatever, until this bill comes up for debate before this Council.

Mr. Ferlo:

Does that include pennants for Santa Claus and Christmas?

The Chair:

All in favor? Opposed?

Mr. Ferlo:

Opposed.

Mr. Wagner:

Opposed.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, in regard to some previous comments by Councilman Ferlo, in regard to the individual departments, they will begin to come in front of Council next week, as everyone knows, and I think those meetings will be very lengthy and I think that's healthy. Tomorrow the citizens' group, we've had the ULO, CDULO hearings, we've had the grants and donations which will conclude this evening. Tomorrow the citizen groups begin.

In relation to what Mr. Ferlo was talking about, the goals and the objectives of the departments, I'm sure he's referring to what the neighborhoods would like to have done. I would like to request that the various departments of which are involved in various neighborhood activities, have a representative sitting here to at least hear what these citizens groups are going to say about the various neighborhoods, meaning, the important departments such as Parks and Recreation, Public Safety, Public Works, Engineering, and even Planning. The other departments interplay more within City government, but I think it would be important for them to hear what all of us are going to hear. I know there's no formal way to do that but I would like to request at least to have a representative sitting and listening.

Michelle Madoff:

After ten and a half years, and I think this is my eleventh budget, you pretty well know what's happened. Secondly, it's on cable and you can rewatch it at your leisure at home. So I make a point of being on top of what is being presented by the request for groups; they're pretty much standard and the same. When they're different I usually meet with the people. They make a personal request. They lobby all of us. If I think it's important and I cannot be here, I make sure that my aides are either in this room or have their ears and their eyes glued to the cable in our offices.

I don't think there's a member of this Council, no matter how I may feel personally, that is shirking their responsibility and that is why I feel personally attacked when somebody says, "You weren't here on a certain day." As it happens, I may be working on something that is far more significant and I would be happy at any time, Mr. President, to say where I am and why I'm not here. I either have the flu or I'm working on a major issue for this Council, or I would be here.

Michelle Madoff approved the Minutes of Monday, October 31, 1988.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Michelle Madoff

Council adjourned.

ONE—HUNDRED TWENTY-FIFTH COUNCIL

BEN WOODS ..... President Pro-Tem
MICHAEL PERRY ..... City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON .. Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, November 28, 1988

PRESENT:

|                |                  |
|----------------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Michelle Madoff  |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Ferlo      | Mr. Woods        |
| Mr. Lyons      | (Pres't Pro tem) |

ABSENT:

Mr. Pollock

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

I'd like to welcome a young man, Mr. David Brown, from Peabody High School, a freshman. He is here to do a study and a paper on City Council, City government at its best. He'll be walking around taking some snapshots so everyone smile for young David Brown, please.

Michelle Madoff:

Put our tongues out as usual?

The Chair:

That's it.

Mr. Coyne presents

No. 1724 WHEREAS, AIDS has become an international epidemic which has affected all levels of Society; locally, nationally, and internationally; and

WHEREAS, on Thursday, December 1, 1988, attention will focus on the world-wide effort underway against AIDS by encouraging governments, communities, groups, organizations, and individuals around the world to discuss AIDS; and

WHEREAS, here in Pittsburgh, the NAMES Project - Pittsburgh Chapter, will display a small but important part of the NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt to raise consciousness, compassion, and understanding for those afflicted with the AIDS virus and their loved ones; and

WHEREAS, it provides an opportunity for all AIDS organizations and individuals to discuss the disease and to explain to our community what has been done in the areas of AIDS education, research, and direct services for those with AIDS as well as focusing attention on the epidemic.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh recognizes each individual's responsibility to forge a spirit of tolerance and support for those who have been touched by the AIDS epidemic and proclaims Thursday, December 1, 1988 as World AIDS Day in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Coyne moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Coyne:

I have with me right now Bob Mazicone who is the Director of the Pittsburgh Chapter of the NAMES Project and he would like to tell you a little bit about the project.

Mr. Mazicone:

We started our project here in Pittsburgh last month in October after the display of the quilt in Washington, D.C. in which 8,288 panels of the quilt were on display. Right now, as of November 15th, the Center for Disease Control has said that Pittsburgh and Allegheny County has 212 cases of people that have died of AIDS. Pittsburgh is considered a secondary city that has been exposed to this virus and to this disease. Unfortunately, we have not been affected that difficultly with this disease but very soon we will be impacted with this like major cities like Los Angeles, New York and others. So, here in Pittsburgh, we need to become involved, individually as well as collectively, as the City of Pittsburgh and individuals.

We will be on Thursday through this weekend honoring World AIDS Day which is sponsored by the World Health Organization and the NAMES Project in which 25 cities across the country and 6 countries will be honoring this as well as the United Nations, in which we'll be displaying the quilt here in Pittsburgh at the Forbes Quadrangle at the University of Pittsburgh. We also have many different individual displays, a 3 foot by 6 foot panel of the quilt on display of people that have died here in the Pittsburgh area. We ask for your support in this endeavor to combat this disease.

Thank you once again.

The Chair:

For our next resolution, Mr. Wagner has a little show and tell for us.

Mr. Wagner:

Thank you Mr. President and members of Council. I'll be brief. I don't have anyone receiving the resolution but I think it's a very important resolution even though it's a non-binding resolution.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 1725 WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh wage tax is a joint responsibility of the City of Pittsburgh (2.125%) and the Pittsburgh School District (1.875%); and

WHEREAS, this joint tax (4.0%) has become a burden to those living in the City and the greatest deterrent to people living in the City; and

WHEREAS, Mayor Masloff presented a budget to City Council and the residents of the City of Pittsburgh proposing a reduction in the City's portion of the wage tax from 2.125% to 1.625%; and

WHEREAS, this proposed reduction in the wage tax, if enacted by City Council, would represent the first reduction in the wage tax in over ten (10) years; and

WHEREAS, based on the comments by all Members of Council, it is the intent of Council to pass the 1989 Budget with a wage tax decrease equal to or greater than the decreased suggested by Mayor Masloff; and

WHEREAS, in order to have an even more significant decrease in the wage tax, it is imperative that the Pittsburgh School Board make an effort to reduce their portion of the wage tax.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby requests that the Superintendent of the Pittsburgh

Public Schools, Richard Wallace, and the Members of the Pittsburgh School Board, join the City of Pittsburgh in reducing the wage tax by making a commitment to match the City's efforts and reduce their portion of the wage tax.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Thank you, Mr. President. I'll only take a moment at the easel. I simply want to point out visually what the wage tax is today which all of you are very familiar with. It is 4 percent. 2.125 percent the City; the School Board 1.875 percent; totaling 4 percent. If you ask the average member of the public on the street who is responsible for the wage tax, I know all of you will agree with me, the average member of the public will say that the City is responsible for 4 percent of the wage tax. That is not accurate; we all know that. But we know in order to have a significant impact on reducing this wage tax, not only must the City in the 1989 budget as proposed by the Mayor reduce our portion from 2.125 percent to 1.625 percent, but the School Board must do something also. As proposed, the reduction would be to 3.5 percent. We all know that's not enough because the average suburban community is 1 percent. We have to get lower than at least 3 percent to have a significant impact to retain and attract people back into the City of Pittsburgh.

The School Board will be higher under the proposed 1989 budgets of both the City and the School Board. They will be a quarter of a percent higher. I would like to see them, and I'm sure all of you would also, in the passage of that resolution, do the same thing that all of us intend to do in this budget.

I'm not suggesting that it be a change from the wage tax to, say, the property tax. I am suggesting that the School Board strongly look at their cost - and their budget is almost equal to our's; it's about $275 million a year - look at their cost of running the School Board and find ways to reduce their overall budget. I believe they can do that; I believe all of you know they can do that. So far today they don't even want to talk about it. And I am suggesting as the Finance Chairman of City Council that they begin to talk about it. And we want to talk with them about it. We want this to be a joint effort whereas both the City and the School Board can do something very significant beginning in January 1989. We can actually turn the tide in this City if the School Board joins us in our effort. I know some of you may have some comments on it.

That's pretty much all I have to say. I intend to appear in front of the School Board at their tax hearing which is December 12th in the evening at 7:30 p.m. I am hoping that all of you join me and I am hoping that the Mayor joins us at that tax hearing. We want to work with them; we want to find ways in which to reduce their cost, our cost, the taxpayers' cost, of which all of us represent.

Thank you very much.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I support the resolution and I thank Mr. Wagner for offering it. I will make a long-range observation. In having spoken now twice before the School Board, it seems whatever concerns we raise fall on deaf ears with the leadership, many of whom are up for re-election next year.

I feel very strongly regardless of the Chairman's position or comment earlier last week about an elected School Board that would be full-time and paid.

Independent of that, a longer range change, I think immediately the school board should begin to publicize and televise their meetings. There's not going to be reform, there's not going to be accountability. Whatever people feel about the antics, good or bad, on this Council and in these Chambers, at least we are accountable and accessible, our meetings are televised, the public knows what is going on in the City budget.

Mr. Wagner has correctly pointed out that their budget almost equals the magnitude of the City budget. They are a sacred cow, the School Board their spending is out of line, there is never any scrutiny, there is patronage galore in the School Board ad infinitum. It's time that that Board start publicizing the affairs and the public meetings of that organization. And I believe the public longer range will be better off for it and I think community groups would better be able to express their concerns. And I would hope that in addition to the resolution today, the School Board would feel some pressure. And, if not, I think we should use some of the monies that we have in an overbloated cable operation here in the City and start televising those public School Board meetings and put them on Channel One, the Health and Education station.

Thank you.

Mr. Coyne:

I'd just like to add that maybe what we need to look at and what I'm going to try to do is contact Mr. Scortino in the Treasurer's office to see about the City refusing to collect the School Board's taxes. They work through us and we're the ones who get the grief, as Councilman Wagner said, of having a 4 percent tax. Maybe something can be done that we just will have two separate taxes taken out so that people will actually know what percentage the City is taking out and what percentage the School Board is taking out.

Michelle Madoff:

Along the line of my colleague, Mr. Coyne, not only should we refuse to collect it but we ought to start saying that the City of Pittsburgh has a wage tax of 1.625. And I think it would be very productive because we can talk ourselves blue in the face and nothing is going to happen, nothing is going to change. Let's start doing something. One of the things we can do is for a couple hundred of dollars is make some slides up that lists what the school taxes are in various communities and what they are in the City and start putting it on public service access, on cable, the commercial cable, and on 2, 4, 11, the major networks who would be very happy to carry it. Let's get the truth out there and let's say the City of Pittsburgh wage tax is 2 percent, or whatever it was, and it's now going to be 1.6. The School Tax which has nothing to do with City Council or the Mayor is 1.8. And if you don't like it, public, you go to the School Board and you get them to televise because you can use the bloated dollars, as you call it, from cable and there's still no way you can force your cameras into the room. We're just talking to hear ourselves talk and it all sounds good and we all know it should happen.

I've been here ten and a half years, almost eleven, and I will tell you that nothing is going to change unless you make it. The way I get things through this Council, I can't get you to vote for a second to go to the bathroom. But if I get the public upset about garages that aren't lit, they'll get in touch with members of the Council and something will happen. And that's the same way we need to do things with the School Board. We need to get public awareness focused on exactly what Mr. Wagner is saying. The public thinks the four percent is the City of Pittsburgh tax. Everything we put out from here on in, let's refer to the City tax as 1.6, we don't collect the School Tax, and we have the School, we publicized through a commitment out of our budget this year, let's put $2,000 aside - $4,000, $2,000 for 255-INFO, I'll skip on that, and $2,000 to do spots, little slides, put them on all the television networks and on radio spots which cost practically nothing saying, "Attention, City Council wants you to know this is what this cost is to the City and this is what it is from the Schools." And also, let us find out before we get through budget hearings what the school tax is in various communities so we have some kind of comparisons. I'd like to make that as a motion at budget time.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, just a final comment. First of all, I don't want anyone to think I don't get along with the people out at the School Board. I do. As a matter of fact, I know all of the School Board members; I communicate well with, I believe, all of them. This is simply a request for them to address something that all of us know and understand and are burdened with to a greater degree than they are. And the public lets us know about it everywhere we go. We're asking them for their help to join us to address this problem.

I sent a letter to the Superintendent and members of the Board, two letters actually, a year ago to meet jointly, all of us, all of them, then with Mayor Caliguiri to address this problem. I had no positive response to those two requests. That's the reason why I continue to bring this issue up.

I think they have a right also to say to the City, "We think you should reduce yours further" and I think we would have to agree with them. But the important thing here is that we need a commitment from both bodies.

A couple last items. The collection of the taxes, I asked our Solicitor a couple of years ago, and Councilman Coyne referred to this, he told me that that can't be done. I thought it would be in the best interest of the City to separate the two. There was a long-term agreement; that agreement would have to be broken up and the School Board would have to have their own collection group of people or collection agency which actually would increase their cost of operation. And because we are doing it for them, it has reduced the cost of collecting taxes. So therefore, it is done jointly by the City of Pittsburgh. I don't think that can be done, mandated legislatively, or even voluntarily because it would cost more if we did do it that way. I simply want the public to understand that we want to address this problem and we need the School Board's help to do so.

Finally, I'd like to ask the City Clerk to please send a copy of this resolution to the Superintendent, Mr. Wallace, and all nine School Board members. Thank you.

The Chair:

Before we go on, I'd just like to state that I agree with all of you, what all of you have said, and I like the idea. Neighborhood groups have to get involved with the School Board. They must get involved. They're involved very heavily with this Council, with the running of the government of the City of Pittsburgh, and that seems where they stop. They're not involved in County government and they're not involved in the School Board. We did our little bit and when the School Board budget is $291 million and our is $300 million, something is awfully wrong here. We have 5,000 employees, we have all the Safety, the Fire, the refuse pick-up, street paving here in the City of Pittsburgh for that kind of money, and they're educating I don't know how many children for $290 million, the most expensive education you can buy in the United States. It just boggles my mind and I think that these members, and I cherish them and I think they do a great job, the leaders of the neighborhood organizations, and Jim I know you know most of them by a first-name basis because you were very active, I think it's about time that they got active and now went after the School Board and say, "We want a bank for our dollar, we want to see where it's going, itemize this budget", and you can cut a lot of fat there. Thank you.

Mr. Coyne presented

No. 1704 Resolution amending Resolution No. 823, effective October 28, 1988, entitled: "Providing for a Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts, for Swimming Pool Renovations, including but not limited to Banksville, St. Clair, Fowler, Northgate and Riverview; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof," by amending the title to include authorization for Agreement or Agreements and by increasing the total project allocation by $40,000.00 from $400,000.00 to $440,000.00, chargeable to and payable from the following Code Accounts: EC 88-36 $70,000.00 to CDEC $370,000.00.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President and members of Council, we're getting to the end of the year and I want to be sure that not only myself but other members of Council, particularly the new members, and I've been here 11 years and I've had it happen to me a dozen times, do not miss the opportunity to have included in the budget process the opportunity to have included in the budget pertinent items that you thought about or wanted to include and said, well, when we get to the budget time I'll introduce it then.

So, I want to go on record as having Mike Perry notify the Finance Chairman, and Finance Chairman, please make note, that at the appropriate time I want to be sure that three important items that I have concerns about are included in the budget so that later I don't have the same thing happen to me that has happened numerous times on water commitments. You didn't bring it up at the right time; bring it up later. You bring it up later and you brought it up too late. I want to be sure that everything is included that is important.

So let me tell you the things that I would like to make sure: a grants person; a person that would be working with the full name and influence of the Mayor and the City Council going out and raising money for those groups that we're going to have to turn down because we don't have the money. And no matter how much money we allocate to the food problem, the hungry, we're still going to need more money. And that grants person could also go to private corporations and the non-traditional private companies, not the biggies, perhaps, but some of the secondary and third kind of groups that would make it an on-going commitment.

I want to be sure that it's brought up at the right time, Mr. Wagner, that I know to bring it up at the right time so they don't say I brought it up too late or that I missed the opportunity.

The other one is 255-INFO. The 255-INFO is presently generating 50 percent additional calls on the Mayor's Service Center and 40 percent of our 911 calls come in on 255-INFO. 911 is answering 255-INFO. 255-INFO, for those of you who may not remember, was given to us courtesy, the line was released courtesy of I believe it was Westinghouse electric, if I'm not mistaken. Westinghouse gave up that number because people will remember an acronym; they will not remember the number in the front of the telephone book which I still don't know. People are still calling 911 and saying they have a dead dog, their garbage wasn't picked up, and unfortunately, it does tie up some of the time. Our Police Department is saying that we're answering all calls in 15 seconds and that may very well be true under the new system, but I still have people saying they call in and they say hold the line a minute on a recording when their house is on fire.

So what we need to do is the same thing we do with the School Board. Get some public service spots on the air, on 2, 4, 11 and radio stations, that say, "Please do not call 911 unless it's an emergency, fire, paramedic or police." The crime in progress could be you or a loved one. Very simple. Use the 255-INFO. Presently, 255-INFO is being answered by the Mayor's Service Center until 4:00 on Friday and over the weekend nobody is answering it except 911. It's absolute insanity. And it's taken in the same order as 911 calls. It would be very easy to put some dollars aside for an answering service with a kick-over line to the emergencies that were necessary and to have somebody on that line all the time.

The last one is probably one of even more concern. I recently learned, and I was not present at a hearing and perhaps my colleagues can enlighten me, that there is some question of having our police officers pay a ten percent contribution towards their medical services. There are some negotiations going on right now. I've heard this from the police officers. If that were to be true, I was told that by taking early retirement they would be eligible for their full benefits and they wouldn't have to kick in ten percent and it would mean 300 early retirees in the police department.

I want to make sure that's checked and discussed when the police are up, if that indeed is one of the problems. I've heard it from three police officers.

The Chair:

We had a public hearing last Tuesday or Thursday and we had all uniformed people in here and not once was that ever raised. We sat here and discussed --

Michelle Madoff:

Maybe it's something that has not been discussed yet and I wasn't sure that I missed that. But police officers have told me that they've been informed that they are asking them to contribute ten percent towards Blue Cross and Blue Shield. I don't know whether that's right or wrong. But if that becomes the case by taking early retirement they get their full component and they will take early retirement and we would be some 300 police officers short. I'd like to have that double checked, if that is in the works.

The Chair:

-- Public Safety will be coming up

Michelle Madoff:

if anything happens, if I get run over in the meantime, somebody please address it.

Mr. Ferlo:

Just to follow up on one thing that Michelle raised, while there's not majority viewpoint on Council on the so-called dismantling of Public Safety whereby we reinforce and shore-up the four existing departments, I did sense a willingness on the part of the President and a majority of Councilmembers to form a high-level committee of Councilmembers regarding next year's evaluation of the effectiveness. There has been a multitude of conflicting information. We have a major report by the FOP regarding the staffing of the so-called zone headquarters. There's conflicting information. I've called 911; I've called 255-INFO in the hours that Michelle has talked about, only to learn that a 911 dispatcher is answering the 255-INFO line. It's happening recently, it's happening during the day, and it's a problem. I have reviewed computer printouts of 911 calls and there's a very large and alarming percentage of 911 calls that are being responded to by first responders from the Fire Department, people from a medical point of view that I think should be immediately turned over to the EMS response unit.

There are all kinds of problems that I think need to be talked about and evaluated regarding the effectiveness of public safety. And while we may make some administrative changes to the existing budget, I guess there will not be any major overhaul despite my opinion. I would hope that the Chairman would move on the formation of this committee, as I sensed a willingness on his part to do so.

And while we're adding, as Michelle has a laundry list of concerns, I want to remind the Chairman of my commitment to a certain recent hiring on Council's staff in exchange for the hiring of solicitor and secretary on the Council payroll next year. So, please be reminded of that.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, in regard to the overall budget, and my colleague, Councilwoman Madoff referred to items that should be addressed by the Finance Chair, I simply want to let all Councilmembers know that if there is something not in the budget, in the Administration's proposed budget, that they want in the budget, that will have to come up for a vote, an individual vote on that particular line item at the appropriate time and it would be up to that member of Council to introduce that, not the Finance Chair.

Michelle Madoff:

I understand that but I don't want to be a victim, as I was for many years, of the issue of being told to bring it up at budget time and I'd bring it up and they'd say not today, tomorrow. And I'd bring it up again and they'd say oh, it already passed. Little head games get played in this room.

You're the Finance Chairman, you tell me when it's the appropriate time to bring up a grants person, 255-INFO, and I'll bring it up. I'll be happy to bring it up. I've done it for ten years.

The Chair:

Bring up the grants person right under the Administration, the Mayor's Office.

Mr. Wagner:

And generally speaking, that has to be in writing indicating some line item, code number, where the monies are coming from. There won't be any games or anything because I don't have anything to do with it; that's up to the Councilmember sponsoring that change in the budget. It's up to that individual to put that in writing in front of Council at the appropriate time.

Michelle Madoff:

It's been in writing --

The Chair:

Okay, okay.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, on this point that Michelle has raised, I think it's very valid. Could not the Chairman of Finance, Mr. Wagner, act as sort of a clearing house for any and all suggestions that we're going to make. I would like to know ahead of time what some of the recommendations are so we're not at the same time proposing the same day of voting. If Michelle has some constructive concerns, I'd like to know ahead of time. Couldn't the Finance Chairman, Mr. Wagner, act as a clearing house, to some extent?

The Chair:

We cannot put that burden on Mr. Wagner or any other member of Council because if you present Mr. Wagner with something and it inadvertently does not get brought up, he's to blame, he did this. We all know the schedule, we know what we want under what department, and we all have a staff. I suggest we go to our staff and say, "We want this prepared because I'm going into this meeting for this department on this day at this time and I want to present this."

By the way, we do not vote on that particular item on that day. It is put into the budget then and then a week or two weeks, whenever it comes up again, is when we vote. Whenever you committee comes up, whatever you want to put in, whatever committee, you do it at that time.

Michelle Madoff:

There is no committee for a grants person.

The Chair:

I just told you what committee to put it under. The Mayor's Office or if you want it under Council, put it under Council.

Michelle Madoff:

Why don't we go through Council?

The Chair:

Fine. If you want to put it under Council, put it under Council.

Michelle Madoff:

Mike, will you draw both bills up again? Just pull them out of the file; they've been here ten times. Just reactivate them.

The Chair:

I would like to ask Mr. Perry, would you please get a copy of the Pittsburgh School Board's budget. And once we have that copy I would like to discuss it, and I'm following it up with you, Mr. Wagner, and all of you. I think it's a very serious thing and I think perhaps that maybe we should air that budget out on public television. Maybe people don't know where that money is being spent and how it's being spent and by whom. If they don't want to do it, perhaps if we get the budget and, Mr. Wagner, if you allow us, if you can find the time in our budget schedule, maybe put an hour aside that we are here, and let's air it. Anyone from the School Board can come and explain it and, if not, we'll try to do it ourselves. But I think we should do that and that reinforces your point here about the wage tax that the budgets are so close it's amazing why one can do it and not the other.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Chairman, who is on the School Board from the City? Who is a member of the City government who is on the School Board?

The Chair:

Everyone is elected.

Michelle Madoff:

Isn't the Controller on the School Board as well?

The Chair:

No. There are nine members elected by districts.

Michelle Madoff moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, November 7, 1988 and Monday, November 14, 1988.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff moved to excuse Mr. Pollock for absence from the meeting.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Wagner

Council adjourned.

(Pres't Pro tem)

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Ferlo and Mr. DePasquale present

No. 1782 WHEREAS, City Council believes that City workers deserve the opportunity for promotion within its ranks; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Personnel and Civil Service has scheduled a promotional competitive examination for police lieutenant at the David L. Lawrence Convention Center on Wednesday, December 14, 1988 at 5:30 P.M.; and

WHEREAS, some police officers wishing to take the exam will be working their tour of duty at that time; and

WHEREAS, the test should last approximately 3 hours; and

WHEREAS, it is not fair to ask City employees to use their own time when on duty to take a promotional examination that is fully scheduled by management.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh requests that the Mayor provide the authorization of police officers who have submitted their application for the police lieutenant promotional examination on December 14, 1988 and who are on duty at the time of the test to be permitted on City time, to take this test at no lost time to the employee and return back to duty at the completion of the examination.

Mr. Ferlo moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of Discussion, Mr. President. When I was a member of Public Works, tests came up very often for foreman, whatever, a promotional test and there were tests where several hundred took them and no one was ever docked. The employees went there, took the test; it might have taken a couple hours and then they came back to work. This isn't anything new.

Mr. Pollock:

I have a question for Mr. DePasquale. Is there something new that's happening that would necessitate a change?

Mr. DePasquale:

Apparently, Mark, having it on a weekday makes it difficult for a lot of the policemen; whereas, formerly they used to have it on a Saturday, an all-day thing, and most of them were off on pass or whatever. This makes it a hardship being that it's in the middle of the week. They just felt that the ones that took it should not be docked.

Mr. Pollock:

Why was the day of the week for the test changed?

The Chair:

I have no idea.

Mr. Ferlo:

I think on any given day there's going to be a problem because there's always swing shifts, there's always people working. This basically supports the notion that we promote career advancement within our own City workforce.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman and Council, this resolution is regarding the benevolent works of the East End Cooperative Ministry.

Mr. Lyons presents

No. 1783 WHEREAS, the East End Cooperative Ministry, composed of forty churches and synagogues, serves the poor of the city by providing shelter, food, clothing and counseling for adults and youth; and

WHEREAS, the EECM's programs include the Soup Kitchen which serves hot, nourishing meals daily; the Food Pantry which distributes emergency food to families monthly; the Men's Shelter which provides the homeless with a place to stay nightly; the Bridge-Housing Unit with a transitional intent in apartment housing that also has counseling programs with an 85% success rate of participants in stable living conditions; and

WHEREAS, the EECM's Drop-In Center provides a warm, safe and comfortable place for the homeless to stay during the day and further has available the Outreach mental health and drug and alcohol abuse counselors; and

WHEREAS, the EECM's Elderly Services care for approximately 200 people monthly, including 80 persons serviced through the Meals-on-Wheels program; and

WHEREAS, the Children and Youth programs include tutoring, established recreational activities, a Youth Club and a six-week summer day camp; and

WHEREAS, the significant contributions and proven success of the EECM programs have enriched and revitalized the Pittsburgh community in human and social services.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby proclaims December 5, 1988, the fifth anniversary of the Men's Shelter, as a Recognition Day for the East End Cooperative Ministry.

Mr. Lyons moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Lyons:

Mr. Chairman and Council, we have two fine people here who have been very prudent and have exhausted every Christian effort to serve humanity in the most humble way. I have remarks coming from Mrs. Marker and Reverend Dianne Sheppard.

Reverend Sheppard:

I am here as President of the Board of the East End Cooperative Ministry which means I represent one of the 45 churches that are part of our organization and I'm taking my turn as President of that group.

I have asked Judy Marker, our Executive Director, to tell us a little bit about the East End Cooperative Ministry on behalf of our Board. Thank you.

Mrs. Marker:

Mr. Lyons really presented a very able run-down on everything that we do. We appreciate the recognition. We are proud and happy to do what we do in the East Liberty-Garfield section of the City. We long for the day when it's not necessary to have emergency shelters or to give out emergency food or to have a soup kitchen to do any of those things, but I think as long as that need is there, there churches and synagogues will try to fill the gaps.

We thank you for this recognition and invite you to come visit us in East Liberty.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I'd like to ask one of the greatest athletes in the world to please step forward for this resolution, Mr. Roger Kingdom. Roger, as everyone knows, has won the gold medal in the Olympics, not once but twice; in 1984 and 1988. We are extremely honored to have him with us.

Mr. Wagner presents

No. 1784 WHEREAS, Roger Kingdom, representing the United States of America, became the second man in Olympic history to win consecutive gold medals in the 110 meter high hurdles, by winning his second gold medal at the 1988 Olympic Games in Seoul, South Korea;

and

WHEREAS, with his win in Seoul, Roger Kingdom established a new Olympic record of 12.98 seconds, breaking his own record of 13.20 seconds set at the 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Games; and

WHEREAS, 1988 is a continuation of Roger Kingdom's fantastic athletic career in which he has broken records in track and field competition nationally and around the world, lettered as a free safety for the University of Pittsburgh Football Panthers for two years and lettered in track and field for four years, establishing new school records for the 110, 60 and 55 meter high hurdles and the high jump, all of which he still holds; and

WHEREAS, the last chapter of "The Roger Kingdom Story" is far from being written, as Mr. Kingdom plans to participate in the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona, Spain with hope of becoming the first hurdler in history to win three gold medals in a row.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby congratulate Roger Kingdom on winning his second gold medal in the 110 meter high hurdles at the 1988 Olympic Games in Seoul, South Korea; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council extends its best wishes and full encouragement as Roger Kingdom goes for a history making third gold medal at the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona, Spain.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Roger, we'd like to ask you to say a few words but, prior to that, we're very honored to have you here today in the City of Pittsburgh, City Council Chambers, not so much just to receive this resolution but so that you can speak to our youth in the City of Pittsburgh. You represent a true example of what a person can accomplish in life and I'm sure many young people in the City of Pittsburgh can do the same.

We are very honored to have you and we'd like you to share some thoughts with us.

Mr. Kingdom:

To speak with the youth, that really not a difficult task to do. But first of all, I'd like to say thank you, Mr. Wagner, for inviting me here, to Councilmembers and also the staff.

When I started out it wasn't that easy. I was from a poor family in Georgia, a small town, and it seemed kind of dim at one time but I just held onto my dreams, I just kept knocking at the door, I just kept working hard and even doing well in school until finally I had my opportunity. I started out with a football scholarship to the University of Pittsburgh which exposed me to the type of atmosphere that I needed to get the name and the know-how and the experience that I did in track and field, as well as football.

After I started succeeding, I'm here now to tell you, especially all the young kids, hold onto your dreams because dreams do come true. I'm living proof that they do.

Like I said before, it wasn't that easy because after I won my first gold medal, I was hampered with a hamstring that kept me down for two years. And then, again, it was kind of rocky; I thought about leaving the sport, thought about running away from it. But I had people like yourself who believed in me, knew my ability, and it kind of coasted me back into it and here I am again. I won again in '88 and I think this time I'm on my way and I'm proud to say that I can be a legitimate role model for a lot of young kids who are out there trying to do the same now.

Thank you for inviting me.

Mr. Lyons presents

No. 1785 WHEREAS, the Reverend Dr. Norman E. Gant, after years of unselfish, dedicated service, as President of the Baptist Ministers' Conference of Pittsburgh and Vicinity and as a leader in various groups and organizations, has extended his compassionate aid to the needy; and

WHEREAS, the Reverend Dr. Norman E. Gant, through his seven years of radio broadcasts, has revitalized spiritually the faithful listeners with a preaching/teaching ministry; and

WHEREAS, the Reverend Dr. Norman E. Gant is completing his tenure at Macedonia Baptist Church, where he reached the area's unemployed steelworkers and their families with an exceptional spiritual leadership; and

WHEREAS, the Reverend Dr. Norman E. Gant will be leaving the Pittsburgh vicinity to be pastor in the Greater Philadelphia area; and

WHEREAS, the Reverend Dr. Norman E. Gant will be honored at a special tribute on December 2, 1988 by his congregation and the people of Pittsburgh with whom he has been involved and who greatly respect him.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby proclaims December 2, 1988 as the Reverend Dr. Norman E. Gant Appreciation Day.

Mr. Lyons moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Which was read, received and filed.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Mr. Lyons presents

No. 1711 Amendment to Rule
VIII-A of the Rules of Council which will call for the consideration of a bill only after the 8th day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced except for special cases such as when a bill may be passed finally on the day of its introduction.

Which was read.

Mr. Lyons moved to approve the amendment.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Mr. Coyne:

Opposed.

Mr. Pollock:

Opposed.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

The Chair presents

No. 1718 Amendment to Rule VII of the Rules of Council which will call for all bills to be deposited to the Clerk of Council by 12:00 noon on Friday prior to the regular meeting of Council with the exception that any member may present any bill or paper

notwithstanding said rule.

Which was read.

Mr. Lyons moved to approve the amendment.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. I'd like to have that explained to me.

The Chair:

It means that you must deposit any bill that you want presented on a Monday by Friday at noon in the City Clerk's Office. We have been trying to live with that and a number of members have been neglecting it, so now we're making it a rule that we're all going to live with.

Michelle Madoff:

~~I~~ I understand that part. It's the part afterwards that I don't understand, except that you can do anything you want to do.

The Chair:

Well, if it's an emergency, you know, like anything else --

Michelle Madoff:

But that's the part I didn't understand.

The Chair:

Every once in a while even someone like yourself comes in with a thought after or an emergency. You might have one and we extend that courtesy to all members of Council. We've done it in the past and we're going to do it again. This is just making a rule of past practice.

Michelle Madoff:

I just got a phone call in my office from the Water Department that there is an emergency and they have to have a bill introduced. I don't know what it's about and they're bringing it over here right now; it's something that can't wait a week. Would that be affected?

The Chair:

No. That's a Wallace Act if it's an emergency. You know that and I know it and everybody else knows it.

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1681

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the filing of a petition or petitions for the sale of certain properties in various Wards of the City of Pittsburgh, acquired at tax sales in accordance with Act No. 171 of 1984."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1688

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution transferring the aggregate sum of $71,000.00 within various accounts in the Department of Parks and Recreation."

Which was read.

Mr. Pollock:

Mr. President, on Bill No. 1688 I move to amend by deleting the amount of $71,000 and increasing the amount to $81,000.

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

Bill No. 1689

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution transferring the amount of $79,307.21 from Code Account SSFSP, Special Summer Food Service Program, Index Code 270256, to Code Account SPP, Special Park Programs, Index Code 254359, in the Department of Parks and Recreation."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, I would like my comments brought forward on Bill Nos. 1646 and 1647.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

---

(MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1646 - Wednesday, 11/29/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

If I understand this correctly, is this a continual contract you have with the University, and we keep amending it for the $17,500.00 each calendar year?

Ms. Botsford:

Yes.

Mr. Ferlo:

And there are two projects. Recently I communicated to you regarding the possibility of a co-generation project with Equitable Gas. Is that something that this person could work on?

Ms. Botsford:

This person would be involved in that, yes; the energy engineer on my staff and the intern, whoever that might be, because it does vary according to the semester schedule at Pitt. They would be working on that, yes, and we have talked with them about that.

Mr. Ferlo:

Some time ago, Council expressed a concern about the significant amount of savings the School Board has experienced with bulk purchasing of fuel, and I was wondering is that something that --

Ms. Botsford:

We had had a consultant on board to study that proposal, and when I present my budget to you, and if you have looked at my budget, you will see an as-needed position in there to -- and that is an Engineer Tech II, I believe, and we are looking at adding a fulltime person to our staff to handle the natural gas purchases.

Mr. Ferlo:

I notice that in the overall budget, especially in Public Works and some of the other departments, there are increased amounts for utilities, and I was wondering. I thought we already expended monies for a contract on studying the issue of bulk purchasing of natural gas, electricity?

---

Ms. Botsford:

We did get a consultant on board, and we do have one on board right now. The original recommendation was that we not purchase natural gas in the open market. There have been some changes in the natural gas market that make it much more attractive now for us to purchase gas, and we do believe we will be doing that in 1989.

As of yet, we can't predict exactly what those savings would be to decrease those utilities accounts, but we very well may see some substantial decreases in 1989, but I can't predict that right now.

(MR. FERLO'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1647 - WEDNESDAY, 11/29/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Discussion. What is this for?

Ms. Botsford:

This is to rent space on a radio tower. We currently have some areas --

Mr. Ferlo:

This is for the 48 channel --

Ms. Botsford:

Yes. We have had an ongoing coverage problem with certain sections of the City, specifically the Hays area, the south eastern corner of the City. There is a tower at Calvary on which we can rent space. If we add that to our system, we will have as close to 100 percent coverage as we can possibly get, and this is for the Public Safety radio system.

Mr. Ferlo:

So, this isn't the only tower. This is part of an overall system?

Ms. Botsford:

That is correct. This is an additional tower space for the City. We have towers throughout the whole City, some of which we own, but in this particular instance, as opposed to spending $250,000.00 to construct a radio tower, we are going to rent space on an existing tower for $8,100.00 a year.

(deleted context)

Mr. Ferlo:

Would that include also the radios used inside a structure?

Ms. Botsford:

Yes. That's one of the major reasons we are doing this, yes.

Bill No. 1781

Report of the Committee on Parks and Recreation for November 29, 1988 transmitting one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1395

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the Mayor and the Director of the Department of Parks and Recreation to enter into agreements in individual amounts of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) or less with various performers, instructors, artists and other persons with specialized skills in connection with the Department's various recreational and instructional programs."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

I just want to point out, Mr. Chairman, that we did ask for additional information in regards to this bill. I haven't received it and I'm going to be voting no.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

What I want to do is get some direction from you. Do you want to put this through as a Wallace Act or do you want to waive Rule 8?

The Chair:

We'll take it now.

Michelle Madoff:

It's an emergency.

Mr. Pollock:

Point of Order. We could actually vote on it today for a final vote. There's a Charter provision for actually voting --

Michelle Madoff:

Can I just check to make sure --

The Chair:

Wait a minute. I'm running this meeting and there will be no talking back and forth. We're going to introduce the bill and waive Rule 8 and if that department needs the money that fast, please send up a letter and we will get five signatures. And from now on, please, direct the questions to me. There will be no more back and forth.

Michelle Madoff presents

No. 1776 Resolution transferring $50,000 from Code Account 1926, Municipal Obligations, for non-City water agencies to Code Account 1981, Premium Pay, Distribution Division, Department of Water.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President and members of Council, I just received a call a few minutes ago asking me to wait for this bill to come over. It's an emergency in that there have been an unexpected number of leaks and because of the leaks there was overtime and they need to transfer money to pay the bills. Whatever the pleasure is of Council.

The Chair:

Suspend Rule 8.

Michelle Madoff:

I will suspend Rule 8 but can they still introduce a Wallace Act even though we suspend Rule 8?

The Chair:

With five signatures.

Is there a second?

Mr. Wagner seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, on the motion. I have no problem, obviously, waiving the Rules of Council to entertain the introduction of the bill. But I don't see why this is any different than hundreds of bills that we waive Rule 8 on and seek an interim approval on, for one.

Two, I think if there sits an unusual situation, I would at least ask that we have a formal letter from the Mayor regarding this issue.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, Mr. President. There is a letter attached to the bill explaining exactly what happened. It was just delivered one minute ago. I'm sorry.

Mr. Ferlo:

Point of Clarification, Mr. President. If this has been introduced today, as it has been, and we waive Rule 8 and vote on it Wednesday, there's nothing that says we can't sign an interim approval. So why are we setting up a different precedent?

The Chair:

We're not. We're introducing and we're waiving Rule 8 and if it's that much of an emergency and it is accompanied by a letter, that director will get a letter up here and we will sign interim approval and there will be no problem. That's exactly what I said.

Mr. Ferlo:

So we're voting on receiving the bill?

The Chair:

Right. All this fuss over nothing. We're just voting on waiving Rule 8 and we'll discuss the legislation on Wednesday.

All in favor? Opposed?

WHICH MOTION PREVAILED.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I'd like to make a motion to televise the meeting, the tax reform briefing, that Council will receive tomorrow at 4 p.m. because it ties in to the budget. The briefing will be given by Chuck Kolling, our legislative consultant in Harrisburg, and also Mr. Turner, Mr. Sciortino, and someone from the Mayor's Office.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

The Chair:

I would have to speak against this. You vote the way you want but I think it's going to lead into post agendas. We have a strict rule in here and this is just like a post agenda and we're not going to televise post agendas. And believe me, I know what I'm talking about and, I agree, it could be an important meeting with this tax thing. The media is going to be here and I think that's the way it should be covered. If you do this this time, believe me, ladies and gentlemen, you're going to end up with every post agenda being televised, and you know how many of them we have, and every one of us that want to get our faces on the tube, it's election time, and I don't mean this is the reason so everyone understand what I'm saying, but it's coming up and it's going to get way out of hand. I'm asking you not to vote in favor of this motion. We have enough burden the way it is and that's just my opinion and I hope you respect it because I respect yours.

Mr. Ferlo:

I beg to differ with you, Mr. President. First of all, Councilmembers don't need any excuse to get on the media. Unlike any other legislative branch of government locally, we have a media at bay here. No other legislative branch --

The Chair:

Can I just interrupt you here for one second? I didn't mean that to be derogatory.

Mr. Ferlo:

I understand but I think there's a basic fallacy in what you're saying in that we can, depending on how long we want to talk about a given bill or what point we want to express, on a Monday or a Wednesday session we have hours, six, seven, eight hours worth of time each week on the City cable. It is my opinion, and I submitted a bill earlier this year believing that all post agendas should be televised. But certainly on this one time, given the subject matter, I would support the request by Mr. Wagner. I think it's an important City issue that all the City residents would like to better understand and I see no problem whatsoever with wanting to televise this post agenda.

Michelle Madoff:

With all due respect, Mr. Woods, I think there's some validity to what you say but it does open up the opportunity to people to say well, what about this, what about the other thing. But this is of such magnitude and of such importance to the whole community that I think it's important that we hear from Mr. Kolling directly, not through interpretations of members of Council or any media as they see whatever session they think is important to relate to the public. Let the public hear for themselves and make their own judgment.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, if the meeting is televised, I think it becomes more informative to the public and that's really the reason for my request. Tax reform has been on the table, has been an issue for almost two years. And really, it has never truly been discussed here in this Council except for us talking back and forth about the need for it. Now that it has occurred, I think it's important for the taxpayers of the City of Pittsburgh to know what impact it has on them.

I also believe that it ties in somewhat to the budget process. There have been some things written in the media about tax reform and it's impact on the City of Pittsburgh that are not totally accurate. The public may believe that certain aspects of tax reform will impact them immediately and to a greater degree than it really will. All I have done is requested that our consultant that we pay from this Council come and brief us tomorrow. The Administration has requested that they be part of it also. I believe it will give us a better understanding of the 1989 budget process if we know completely what has been passed as part of tax reform legislation.

So, either way, I think the meeting is important. To televise it, I think, would be an advantage because it would let the taxpayers know the impact of tax reform also.

Mr. Pollock:

I think that you're completely accurate, Mr. Woods, in that as May of 1989 approaches there will be motions to televise every time someone wants to have some free air time. I couldn't disagree.

The other point that I wanted to make, and I've raised this several times before, is that this Council continually shows utter disdain for not only the Cable Bureau but for other departments as well. They have schedules set up far in advance and for them to have to rearrange their schedule, they only have a certain number of individuals there and we have no way of knowing whether or not they're available tomorrow to televise something that wasn't on the schedule. Clearly, they are here for budget, but I don't know if they have something else after that or not. I think that we are no greater or no lesser than any other group of employees of the City of Pittsburgh and I think that they deserve respect to have a schedule known to them in advance so as to perform their duties better, the way we would want our schedule performed with reasonable notice.

The Chair:

I'd like to add one other thing. None of us here, to my knowledge, know everything about this tax reform. We haven't gone over the bill totally. And before I meet with anybody to discuss this bill, especially on television, I want to know what I'm talking about because I happen to be one of the people that do not agree with tax reform. So, when I sit down at the table with whoever agrees or whoever wrote up this bill, I want to have the facts that I want to discuss there. I don't want to look like a fool.

Secondly, and as acting-President of Council, one of my duties is to set the time and the places of the meetings for this body. It's never been discussed with me to have Mr. Kolling come in here to discuss it. Therefore, there isn't a meeting. If you want to meet in the Mayor's Office with the Administration and Mr. Kolling, that's fine. But in this body, any meeting, and you all voted for me and you know what the Rules of Council say, I set the times and the places and who we meet with. And if you recall, Mr. Pollock, you wanted to televise a meeting one evening and I wouldn't do it. Therefore, there is no meeting. And I hate to do that to you, I respect all of you, but that's my decision.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Woods, if we were to stick to the rules of this Council, a number of us wouldn't be discriminated against.

The issue is very simple. This is one of the most important budgetary matters confronting this City and we are in the process of budget which today, according to the people I'm talking to in the street, find very, very boring. So boring that the media and half of Council doesn't come because most of the information we know about and we've heard about for the number of years we've been here. But this is new, it's important, it's informative, and you are right, whether somebody scheduled a hearing without checking with you, and that is improper, but it should not be "I'll punish you because you didn't come to me" and I don't think that's what you're saying. But to deny the public the opportunity to hear from Mr. Kolling, to be briefed, not to discuss with him, necessarily, but to be briefed on the magnitude of tax reform, to me, would be very inappropriate and would not serve the public well. I think the public has the right to hear everything Mr. Kolling has to say.

The Chair:

I just want to say something. This bill just passed, less than a week ago, on Friday. Mr. Kolling doesn't even know what it all means. They're going to have public hearings all over this state or the county affecting this bill. This bill won't even take effect for two years. We are jumping into something in a matter of three days after a bill passed Harrisburg that we can't even act on for two years. It is totally -- We shouldn't even have this meeting. Let's wait until everyone has their facts in line. I'll bet you Mr. Kolling doesn't have every fact in line on this bill. The sponsor of the bill probably doesn't have it, and we in City Council in the City of Pittsburgh are going to debate this bill for another 129 municipalities in the county. We don't know what we're talking about. He doesn't, and the person that sponsored it, I'll lay you money, is not going to be here or their staff. If we want to do this, let's do it right. The bill just passed and will be here for two years before we in Allegheny County even vote on this thing.

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of Order, Mr. Chairman. It's immaterial to me whether you televise this meeting or not. But I do think that in regards to the Finance Chairman, it's always been a prerogative down through the years for the Finance Chairman to schedule speakers or to arrange meetings at budget time.

The Chair:

If it has something to do with the budget. This has nothing to do with the budget, Mr. DePasquale.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, your original comment, you are the President and you set hearings and you're accurate. And, if you remember, I nominated you as President Pro-tem and you appointed me as the Finance Chairman. Many times before that you and I disagreed and we're disagreeing today, and respectfully disagreeing, and I think that's very healthy. But the reason why I scheduled this not as a hearing, and it really isn't a hearing because there's no one testifying as part of any testimony here except someone reporting, is simply to give all of us a better understanding of what is proposed at the state level which may or may not have an impact on the 1989 budget. Now if everyone has said that it doesn't not have an impact, and it may not, but at the very least, our planning process, when it comes to finance and budgeting, can be better prepared not only for us but for our staff, our budget staff, etc., if we know as much about tax reform as possible. I do not want this to end up being a debate; that's not my desire. It's only to let them tell us what they know about tax reform, with no one reporting in terms of testifying from the public or anyone else. Simply those people of which we fund, this Council funds Mr. Kolling and we fund the administrative positions of the people that would come here and discuss this issue. True, it is unusual, and I admit that. And true, we do differ. But it does relate directly to the budget process and even if all of you don't want to be here tomorrow at 4:00, and even if it's not televised over cable, I want all of you to know, as Finance Chairman I'll be here. I want to hear what tax reform is saying to the City of Pittsburgh, what it does and what it doesn't do.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Woods and members of Council, I'm a little bit disappointed at what I've been hearing in the last few speakers. This isn't typical of most post agendas which deal, often times, with some adversary role that Council is playing with a particular department or, often times, Council intervening in some dispute or some problem, or Council just finding out generally what some department is involved in administratively. This, however, I think directly, as well as indirectly, has to do with the '89 budget, both short and long term range planning points of view.

I'm a little bit disappointed in my colleague, Mr. Pollock, who as a candidate for office originally, running as a liberal democratic activist like myself, talked about many lofty ideas such as citizen input, citizen participation, having a van going around, increasing the public's right to know and have knowledge of the proceedings of Council, evening meetings. This is certainly in a similar vein, publicizing and televising this important tax hearing which I think directly has to do with the '89 and future operating budgets.

And while it may be true that every single question and answer cannot be determined during the course of the interview with the Mayor's people and Mr. Kolling, I think the public would like to learn better, and I'm sure we would all like to learn better, the impact of exactly what happened last week in Harrisburg. I don't see this as a regular post agenda. If you read the Home Rule Charter in the Commentary, part of our responsibility as legislators is to look ahead and deal with future crises and future problems that City residents and the municipal government must face in the coming year. It encourages this Council to help set a dialogue and educate City residents and I think televising the public meeting can more than adequately be done by a Cable Bureau that has over $1 million in a trust fund and can well afford to spend money on many other things other than paying overtime to its workers.

So that's a ridiculous issue to raise and I would hope that Mr. Pollock would not be petty and vote against this only because Mr. Wagner introduced it. Let's rise above that. This is an important debate. We have an opportunity to educate our constituents, even the constituents in Squirrel Hill and Shadyside and in Bloomfield where Mr. Pollock will be running next year.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. Chairman, please. No personal remarks.

The Chair:

That's right. We're getting person.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'm not being personal, Mr. Chairman; I'm trying to wage a debate on the need for Councilmembers to be consistent in their positions.

The Chair:

You stated your position; great. What I'm saying here, if we're going to do this, and I mean it, as acting President Pro tem of this Council, Mr. Wagner should have come to me and requested an official meeting. I'm stating that as a fact. Now, if you want to have Mr. Coyne and me and you, Mr. Wagner, who I respect, you're my friend, get together and we set something up next week or something, fine, so that I have some facts and when I come to this table I can discuss it. But I want to conduct it as a regular public hearing. Let them stand up and take the podium; let us ask our questions. We'll give ourselves enough time but we're not going to do it tomorrow and I'm cutting off debate on that issue as the President of this Council.

Mr. DePasquale:

Question called for.

The Chair:

We're not calling the question because we're not having the meeting.

Mr. Ferlo:

Point of Order, Mr. Chairman. I appreciate your leadership that you're showing here in wanting to set the law, and I have no problem with that. You have just offered a very constructive --

The Chair:

I will and I asked Mr. Wagner

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, will you let me finish my point? You have offered a very constructive idea and that is that it be a formal public hearing which you would share and I don't see why that's any problem. I would like to see if Mr. Wagner would withdraw his motion for that compromise you've offered which I think is very constructive.

Mr. Wagner:

The important point here, Mr. President, is not what I want or what you want. It is that we have a tax reform briefing prior to us voting on the budget. That's the important item. And if it's a briefing in the form of an informal briefing or it's a public hearing, it doesn't matter to me. However, we are going to take a preliminary vote a week from Thursday on the budget, of which I intend to keep that schedule, and I would like to see us have a briefing or a public hearing at any time for this Council by Mr. Kolling and the appropriate members of the Administration, but not necessarily the public because the public, this really isn't a public issue yet; it's still a budgetary issue and I would like that to happen.

The Chair:

I promise you, Jack, you and I will sit down right after this meeting or the first thing in the morning and we'll work it out and get the proper time and date in enough time before we vote next Thursday.

Mr. Wagner:

Good.

Mr. Ferlo:

Is he withdrawing his motion?

The Chair:

Right.

Mr. Pollock:

I just wanted to respond to one point. I have been totally consistent on my position on this. I did make a motion when I first came on Council to televise public hearings in the neighborhoods; you did not even entertain that motion. But I have consistently, in my three years on Council, voted against any attempts to have people put things on television for personal aggrandizement and to televise anything besides public hearings and our regular sessions. And I think as you made the point, and you've been here far longer than I and you know these people as well or better than I do, that once you open that box there's going to be everything in the world coming out and it's going to be on television. That's not what this Council is for and that's not what our Cable Bureau is for. If people want to have their face on the television, then they can purchase air time.

The second point I want to raise, and I think that Mr. Ferlo's remarks about me indicates more about other Councilmembers than myself, I represent all of the people of Pittsburgh; I don't represent any district. If Mr. Ferlo represents a district, that's his problem. But I represent the people of the entire City, not any particular neighborhood.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, on another subject. I'm sure that if my office is getting swamped by these calls you're all getting them; the problem with the billing going back over the years on the sewage treatment plant. Are all my of my colleagues getting calls? There are hundreds of people calling the City and a lot of them calling my office; I just assumed they were calling all the other members of Council.

It seems that the Treasurer's Office has decided to go back after old Alcosan bills and they're billing people who feel that they've been paying their bills; they got their bill and they paid it. A lot of them are coming in to my office, going down to the Treasurer's Office, Betty Goldberg's office, and they say, "I'm too tired, I'm too ill, I can't fight it, I'm paying my $13." Some of them are in excess of that; some are less.

I don't know what happened but I sure would like to find out. I've got a call in to the department; we finally located that it was not water but it was sewage bills, and if anybody has any light to shed on it, I would appreciate it. But I would appreciate it if Mike Perry would ask Betty Goldberg and the Alcosan Board and maybe our colleague on Council to find out what has happened and to brief this Council so we can advise people calling us.

---

It's a massive delinquency collection. People who have called me said they paid their bills. I don't know what's going on.

Mr. Pollock moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, November 21, 1988.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Pollock

Council adjourned.

| Mr. Ferlo      | Mr. Wagner      |
| Mr. Lyons      | Mr. Woods       |

(Pres't Pro tem)

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Pollock presents

No. 1799 WHEREAS, on December 1, 1941, a week before Pearl Harbor, Fiorello H. LaGuardia, Director of the Office of Civilian Defense and former Mayor of New York, signed a formal order, under presidential Executive Authority, creating the Civil Air Patrol; and

WHEREAS, the Civil Air Patrol was established so that general aviation enthusiasts could contribute their time and their own light aircraft into a unified national defense system; and

WHEREAS, in 1946, Congress, recognizing the value of the Civil Air Patrol to the nation's defense, chartered it as a volunteer, non-profit organization; and

WHEREAS, since that time, CAP has been devoted to air search and rescue, and other emergency service activities during local or national emergencies, to a program of aerospace education, seeking to promote America's supremacy in aviation and the aerospace sciences, and to a cadet program through which it seeks to train young Americans in the principles of leadership and to motivate them to careers in aviation or the space sciences; and

WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh Chapter of the Civil Air Patrol, Squadron 601, will join its fellow flight enthusiasts in celebrating the 46th Anniversary of the organization's founding.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh thanks and commends the Civil Air Patrol for its ongoing dedication to our Country and our young people; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh declares the week of December 12 through December 19, 1988 as "CIVIL AIR PATROL WEEK" in Pittsburgh.

Mr. Pofflock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

With me today are Major Gallagher and Lieutenant Schneider of the Civil Air Patrol who will receive this resolution and make a few comments.

Major Gallagher:

On behalf of the Civil Air Patrol I'd like to extend our thanks and appreciation to the City of Pittsburgh for granting us this recognition and honoring us today. I especially want to thank Mr. Pollock and all the members of City Council for their efforts in making this possible. Thank you.

Lieutenant Schneider:

I can't add too much to what Major Gallagher said but I would like to dedicate this resolution to our members who were killed in the line of duty this past year. We had four persons, I think it was three men and one woman, who were killed in plane crashes while on search and rescue missions. I'd like to dedicate this resolution to them.

Thank you.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Mr. Lyons presents

No. 1800 WHEREAS, Julius Erving II, otherwise known in the sports world as "Dr. J.", was born on February 20, 1950; and

WHEREAS, Dr. J. is a man who has emerged through a prolific career as an exciting and spectacular athlete, basketball star and businessman; and

WHEREAS, from the beginning, playing with his first team at the Salvation Army of Hempstead through Roosevelt Jr. High, Roosevelt High, the University of Massachusetts and onto the Virginia Squires and New Jersey Nets of the NBA and concluding with a dynamic and fabulous career with the Philadelphia 76ers; Dr. J. has become one of the game's greatest players and ambassadors; and

WHEREAS, Dr. J. is in Pittsburgh this week to attend a dinner being given by the Champions Association Inc. in honor of the Olympians; and

WHEREAS, Dr. J. has been chosen to be the key speaker of this event, whose theme this year is "Just Say No To Drugs".

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby acknowledges the contributions and accomplishments of Julius Winfield Erving II, better known today as Dr. J., an outstanding athlete, and hereby proclaims Friday, December 9, 1988 as Dr. J. Day in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Lyons moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Ferlo presented

No. 1786 Resolution amending Resolution No. 187 of 1983 entitled: "Establishing an Animal Control and Animal Welfare Trust Fund," by including as allowable expenses "miscellaneous services, supplies, materials, repairs and equipment related to Animal Control" to be paid out of the Trust Fund.
---(SPONSORED BY MR. FERLO)

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Public Works.

Mr. Wagner presented

No. 1787 An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title One, Administrative, Article I - General Provisions, Chapter 181, General Provisions, Section 181.09, Advance of Expenses. --- (SPONSORED BY MR. WAGNER)

Also,

No. 1788 An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title One, Administrative, Article I - General Provisions, Chapter 181, General Provisions, Section 181.07, Approval of Bills for travel expenses, by changing "Approval of Bills for Travel Expenses" to "Department of Head's Approval for Travel". --- (SPONSORED BY MR. WAGNER)

Also,

No. 1789 Resolution Repealing Resolutions, approved on various dates for sale of properties in various Wards of Pittsburgh, in accordance with Act No. 171 of 1984.

Also,

No. 1790 Resolution providing for the filing of a petition or petitions for the sale of certain properties in various Wards of the City of Pittsburgh, acquired at tax sales in accordance with Act No. 171 of 1984.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Chair presented

No. 1791 Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of NBI in the amount of $1,071.25 for the purchase of Fonts for the laser printer in the City Clerk's Office, chargeable to and payable from Code Account 1005, Supplies, City Clerk's Office. --- (SPONSORED BY MR. WOODS)

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Also,

No. 1792 Communication from Thomas Flaherty, City Controller, submitting the City of Pittsburgh Net Debt and Remaining Debt Incurring Margin in Accordance with Act No. 52, Approved April 28, 1978, "Local Government Unit Debt Act" Prepared as of October 31, 1988.

Which was read, received and filed.

Mr. Ferlo moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of all the bills only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bills were introduced so the bills will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The Chair presents

No. 1793 Communication from Sophie Masloff, Mayor, City of Pittsburgh, returning with her veto Council Bill No. 1308, which changes the classification of Operations Coordinator, Chief Inspector and Contract Supervisor, City Controller's Office, from "career" to "non-career".

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo moved to override the veto.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I just want to be clear. The motion to override would be to vote in favor of the Controller's Office to have the ability to hire whomever they want for their own staff without subject to Civil Service. Is that correct?

The Chair:

No. These three positions would be exempt from Civil Service.

Michelle Madoff:

That's what I just said.

The Chair:

Not all his staff, just these three positions.

Michelle Madoff:

May I address that issue, please?

The Chair:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

As you may recall, just about a year ago at budget time there was a proposed cut by the Administration in Mr. Flaherty's department, the Controller's department. I met with the Controller and we met at this table behind us and I urged the hiring of some real professionals, auditors, accountants, and I believe we cut from 106 back to 96 and if those positions were not filled with professionals and a commitment to higher accounts, we were going to cut back to 88. I supported and encouraged the Controller to commit himself to hiring comptrollers, the people who could do the professional kind of accounting, so that I could vote for at least maintaining the 96 jobs.

I felt at that time, or I was given to understand, that indeed that office would be professionalized with professional accountants. It appears that was not the case. The budget for the Controller's Office is voluminous. There is no reason in the world why that accountant's office should not revamp, get rid of some of the people who just walk around doing nothing, and start to hire some really professional accountants to service the City. At that point, should the Controller come back and say he would like to have whatever people he needs, if he could justify them, I would vote for them. But in light of the demonstration between last year and this year, hiring the professional accountants, having an accounting firm brought aboard, they've not done any of that, I just believe that we ought to send a very strong message that we cannot tolerate that any longer.

The Chair:

I believe that the time you're talking about was two budgets ago when we made all the cuts in the Controller's Office. This past budget time is when we made the positions, not only in his office but in our office, other than our own personal administrative assistants and, of course, the City Clerk's position, Civil Service. When he made all the cuts in his office, it was in the year of the 1987 budget; we voted on it in 1986. This past budget was the year that we made it under Civil Service.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, just philosophically speaking, I think that we need to override this veto. There comes a time when all parts of government must be able to interact independently of one another and personalities aside and be whatever drawbacks Mr. Flaherty may have or grudges or whatever people want to do back and forth as always goes on around here, just for the sake of good government I think that the City Controller needs to be able to have a personal staff that he or she, if it were a woman, would be able to count on and would be able to use in advisory roles, not only in the role of the Controller's Office but in the political dealings that come and go with that office. So, therefore, just out of the essence of good government, I think it's important that these positions be created as exempt from Civil Service and I would urge my colleagues to vote to override the veto.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, I think we should override the veto but I think, more importantly, we should be fair to another independent branch of government and that's the Office of the City Controller. I will remind my colleagues that a majority of Councilmembers expressed their initial support for this legislation. I think it's unfortunate that this is getting bogged down to be a political interpretation of the performance of the Controller and his staff as opposed to what the bill was originally intended.

I'll remind my colleagues that this is the only department where the on-line administrators are not permitted to be hired by the chief administrator, in this case, an independently elected official, Mr. Flaherty.

I don't want to get bogged down in the Mayoral race and I think, unfortunately, that that issue, as well as other political issues that have come up over the last few months, is distorting some of the vision here today on what the actual principal here is.

But I think more importantly, and I have to agree with my colleague, Michelle, on her first point, that there is a need to bring on on-line professional staff and it's for that reason that I think we should override the veto because my sense of the hiring procedure under the Personnel and Civil Service is one that will not permit the Controller to move swiftly in hiring professionals in these three, and we're only talking about three particular positions.

Again, this original ordinance that we're going to pass included several other positions and, at that time, the Administration supported the resolution that Council actually modified to only include three positions. So I think the Administration started out in good faith negotiating with the Controller. We are a third party; we acted in good faith by only agreeing to exempt three positions. I really don't want to get bogged down in the political battles of City Hall; there's other forums and opportunities that we have to do that. But the most important issue is, what can we do to expedite the hiring of professional people in these three positions and in that respect I would ask my colleagues to join in overriding the veto.

The Chair:

I would ask, and I'll speak once, to override the veto also. Everyone knows in this room, in this City, that Mr. Flaherty and I are not the best of political friends; he's not one of my favorite people and I'm sure I'm not one of his.

But I do believe you should hire your top echelon; they should come and go with you. They should not be bogged down with Civil Service. When this bill originally came out, and I believe Councilman O'Malley at the time proposed it, I voted against it then and I vote against it now. I believe it's just like my personal staff; I hire them. When I leave this job, they serve at my will and I believe that's the way it should be. I believe that's the way it should be in the Mayor's Office and I believe that's the way it should be in the Controller's Office. The top echelon people, the top people, just like all the Mayor's directors, serve at the Mayor's whim. And that's exactly what these positions are and they should serve at the Controller's whim and I would urge you to override this veto.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President and members of Council, in, if you could just say principle, that would naturally follow that that's the way it should be. You say it wasn't last year, it was the year before, and I'll accept your memory for being better than mine. But I recall saying to the Controller, and I just verified, the Controller's budget office has a budget of just under $2.5 million. With $2.4 million, there is no reason on earth why that department has not had an accountant, somebody come in from an accounting firm, and professionalize that office. And if that is done, the Controller can come back -- Unlike you, I like Tom Flaherty and I'd rather have him than Lucchino, if you want to talk about politics. But in principle, I cannot support what is going on and the lack of professionalism in that office. Mr. Flaherty could turn around, go out and hire an accountant, hire an accounting firm and make that office with $2.4 million efficient. Then come back to us and I'll give him ten people he can exempt. But I'm going to vote no at this point.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, it's obvious that we do not have the votes to override the veto. But I do want to point out on the other hand that if that is the case, as I believe it will be, that we should be resolute in our commitment to make sure that Personnel immediately begin the hiring process of those positions.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|           |           |
|-----------|-----------|
| Mr. Coyne | Mr. Woods |
| Mr. Ferlo | (Pres't)  |

|      |   |      |   |
|------|---|------|---|
| AYES | 3 | NOES | 5 |
|------|---|------|---|

VOTING NO:

|                 |             |
|-----------------|-------------|
| Mr. DePasquale  | Mr. Pollock |
| Mr. Lyons       | Mr. Wagner  |
| Michelle Madoff |             |

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Wagner presented

Bill No. 1794

Report of the Committee on Finance for December 7, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions and one ordinance to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1676

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of a $1,608.00 warrant in favor of Browns Hill Bible Chapel in settlement of claim for sidewalk damage and providing for the payment thereof."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1677

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President and members of Council, as you know, I voted no on the initial bill because I felt we should have fifty percent of City residents if we were going to put the burden of a major administrative problem onto the City. And I, like all of my colleagues, have received many letters from small community groups such as the one that went to four of us referring to the problems that they would have in trying to develop small community groups.

I understand from Mr. Ferlo that his amendment to the bill exempts those groups. Is that correct, Mr. Ferlo?

Mr. Ferlo:

That is correct.

Michelle Madoff:

The bill that I showed you today exempts the smaller communities. Is that right?

Mr. Ferlo:

I'll speak to that issue.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay, and if that is true, and I don't believe that Mr. Ferlo would deliberately lie to me because it could very easily be checked, I then went back to do some research and I spoke to Mr. McDermott and I asked Mr. McDermott on the Grant Street Project, which was millions of dollars of City money and certainly federal dollars, what percentage of the people worked on the Grant Street Project? I felt that we were getting by just a law of averages we were picking up 25 percent and therefore I was adamant that we would get 50 percent. We were getting 25 anyway and I wanted 50 and we were going to put another administrative burden on the City.

Well, I was absolutely amazed, disappointed and shocked to find out that the percentage of City residents that worked on the Grant Street Project, all of Grant Street, was five percent and perhaps less. Because of that, I'm inclined to change my vote and vote for the bill. But I have a problem. This Council has been in court being accused of not behaving in a statesperson-like manner because of our vote on ARC House, our vote on self-service gas stations, our vote on plastic pipe. We get sued, we go to court, and presumably our attorney, this Council has not seen fit to get ourselves our own attorney and we have to rely on the City Solicitor, has said the bills were not legal.

I will change my vote and support the bill because of the 25 percent which is a lot more than five percent. But, if that bill is found to be illegal, I will not support it. I just want to be up front, not say one thing one day and then come back and say now I change my mind. If the bill is illegal, I will not support it. We have a letter from Mr. Dan Pellegrini that everybody got, and for those who may not know what he said, I think he said it was too complicated, he could not get it back for today.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, just for the matter of the Record, a statement was made last week by one of my colleagues saying that this bill was solely intended for suburbanites. So, just for the Record, I'd like the people in the gallery, everyone who is a City resident, would you please stand? I would just like to make note that it appears that the majority of the people are City residents. Thank you.

I'd like to commend Councilman Ferlo for working on this bill. It has taken a lot of compromise and a lot of work on his part and I think the bill is beneficial to the City as a whole. And one thing that I would like to do before we have the final vote today is to draw some comparisons between this legislation and the piece of legislation that was before Council earlier this year. During the earlier debate we had arguments that this bill will hurt the City, that it will drive people in business away, that there was no need for additional legislation because State and Federal statutes already existed and Council was overstepping its bounds. These arguments did not apply then and they surely don't apply now.

Then we sought to protect basic human rights and today we do so again. And I'm not talking about the rights of the labor unionists because we know they're already protected and they already have the unions to back them up. But I'm talking about the vast reserve of workers who are not being paid a decent wage, not being provided with health and compensation insurance for themselves and their families. Workers who are having their basic human rights denied, not for any other reason than profit.

We have heard from community groups claiming that they help their community and the City in general but what we're not being told is that this help comes about at the expense of the individual worker. This isn't right. We cannot forget our neighborhoods and communities are made up of these individuals - some who aren't as "lucky" as others - that these individuals will work for substandard wages because they have no choice. They will accept safety conditions that are below average because to complain would be the same as being asked to be fired. It is this group that we, as Councilmembers, must stand up for today.

The arguments heard against Bill 1454 reflect the general trend of governmental thought coming out of Washington, DC in recent times, that being in the right of the individual may be overridden where the select few will profit from it. This type of thinking cannot and should not be tolerated by our City or by this Council.

So, I ask my colleagues, especially those who voted to protect human rights earlier this year, to do so again and to show that we stand across the board for the protection of basic human rights and needs. Thank you.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, as all of you know, last Wednesday when this bill was in Committee, Bill No. 1454, I voted for the bill, I voted for the amendments that were put on the floor by substitute bill, and also one additional amendment that didn't pass. At the time of voting for the bill and the amendments, I requested a legal opinion. I did it for a reason and obviously I want to make sure that a piece of legislation that we pass here in this Council is legal, is enforceable, is fair, and is justified. The City Clerk sent a letter to the Solicitor and a return letter was sent, which I am reading:

"Dear Mr. President and Members:

I am in receipt of your request for an opinion on Council Bill 1454. Because of the complicated nature of the bill, I will be unable to provide an opinion by Monday, December 12th."

I spoke with our Solicitor this morning. He is ill, he is at home and he told me he has not read the bill yet, the substituted bill. I think it's very important, and it's not the popular thing to say right now, particularly when the room is filled with people lobbying for the bill, and many of the people I know in this room. But it's the right thing to do. It's right to ask for a legal opinion on a piece of legislation and to know that we are moving forward in the right direction. That is a justifiable thing for this Council to do.

Now, I think it is within the means of the Solicitor to provide that legal opinion by next Monday, and, consequently, I would recommend to Council that we have a legal opinion prior to moving on the legislation. If the legislation, if there's any urgency that I am aware of that this bill cannot be held for one week, I would like to know what it is. The bill was originally introduced in Council months ago and there has never been a legal opinion requested on the bill. We have never even asked the Solicitor to the table to comment on the bill. Due to the fact that the bill was changed drastically, last Wednesday in Committee it was changed so much that the reporters that wrote on the bill were referring to the previous bill rather than the bill that passed. And to be quite frank, until that meeting was over, I had not looked at the bill, the bill that was put in by substitution, and I've discussed that with Mr. Ferlo.

So, I would recommend that we hold the bill for one week, at least until we can get a legal opinion from the Solicitor. And if there's any reason why the bill can't be held one week, I'd like to know what the reason is.

The Chair:

That's not a motion, is it Jack?

Mr. Wagner:

Well, I'd like to know the reason, if there is a justifiable reason. I put a motion on the floor to recommit.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. Wagner, what guarantee is it that we'll have a legal opinion in a week? If we don't, then we'll vote on the bill regardless.

Mr. Wagner:

I believe the Administration is mandated to respond to Council, not immediately, but within a reasonable period of time. And I believe a week is a reasonable period of time.

The Chair:

I spoke to the Solicitor Wednesday after we had passed the bill and I think that from Wednesday until he got ill, plus the bill was sitting on the table, like you stated, at the beginning of October and now we're in the middle of December, and Mr. Ferlo who sponsored the bill has bent to everybody's wishes. He's cut this bill up 100 times; he sat with the Administration, and I stated this all Wednesday. There see no problem with it. I spoke privately with a number of different directors and they really see no problem with it. And for us to delay this, if Mr. Pellegrini would research this subject and come up and say it's illegal, then the Mayor would veto it and we could have the same discussion all over again to override the veto just like we did on the other piece of legislation that she just vetoed.

So, I see no reason, in my opinion, and I will vote no on holding this piece of legislation. I think it's been here too long. And I'm just repeating what I said Wednesday; we have to vote on this piece of legislation. I want to vote on this piece of legislation. I want to get it up front, and get it over with.

Mr. Ferlo:

I just want to say that I respect the request of my colleague, Mr. Wagner, regarding the issue of seeking out a legal opinion. However, the issue really behind this bill and the issue that this City Councilman needs to deal with is really not a legal issue, quite frankly, it's an issue of public policy and what our moral opinion is regarding the content of this legislation as it relates to the quality of life of working people and how commerce will go on in this City. It may very well be that at some point the Solicitor, whether or not the Administration is either for the bill or against the bill, is going to be based on legal interpretation of the ordinance that I've submitted. I don't think that's the way we should do business.

I remind my colleagues that both on the ARC House as well as the plastic pipe debate, we knew, for instance, in the plastic pipe legislation without a legal opinion that we were going to be sued or that there would be future legal action. We did that because we felt strongly about a public policy regarding the banning and the use of plastic pipe in buildings. Some of us made the point about the occupational health and safety concerns; others talked about labor and materials needed for the construction activity. Regardless of what the individual motivation was of individual members of Council, we didn't hold off based on some grandiose legal opinion.

In the preparation of the initial bill, I worked with legal advice and legal staff who worked with me through the summer up until the time that I submitted it October 10, 1988. The residency requirement, if we review very succinctly that the legal kinds of questions that come up in the bill, one is on the residency requirement which, again, I would point to the example of the City of Boston where that residency requirement and that lawsuit was litigated all the way to the Supreme Court and it was upheld. Minority and female set-aside programs have been initiated by hundreds, if not thousands, of municipalities and states, government locally, statewide and nationally. Across the country they have been upheld.

I think it's very clear that Council by description in the Home Rule Charter has the right to decide the manner in which contracts will be prescribed and that's basically the type of legislative prerogative we're taking here today. What's needed today is an interpretation of the bill based on what it does or doesn't do and not any last minute legal interpretation from a Solicitor that I would be afraid is somewhat beholden to an Administration who I'm not totally sure what their position is on the bill. I thought I was sure in the last couple weeks because having met with them I tried to address many of their concerns. The one potential legal battle had to do with enforcement regarding the activity of another branch in government and that is no longer in this bill.

So, I believe very strongly, based on the legal advice given to me, that the bill is legal and can withstand any challenge. And I think, more importantly, we should decide on the merits of the bill as it relates to a matter of public policy.

Mr. DePasquale:

Mr. President, I've disputed the City's legal opinions time and again and if our Solicitor says this one is illegal I think I'm going to have to dispute with him again. But out of courtesy, I think we owe it to our colleague, if he's asking for just a one week recommitment, to go along.

The Chair:

I would just ask you not to recommit this bill. Every bill we vote on, we can't keep recommitting and asking for a legal opinion. We have no business down here whatsoever. If they submit a bill to us, should we then say we want a legal opinion of their bill and take it down to some guy down the street? This is what's going to happen. We do not need a legal opinion on this bill. We should vote for it because they're going to give it to us anyway. And then we'll let them point it out correctly, what is wrong or right with this piece of legislation. And they'll put it in the form of a letter and the form of a veto and that's how we should get the legal opinion on this bill and I urge you all not to recommit this bill.

Mr. Coyne:

The Chair:

VOTING NO:

Mr. Coyne Mr. Lyons
Mr. Ferlo Mr. Woods
(Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

Michelle Madoff:

On the bill itself; I'm going to be very brief. I want to remind my colleagues that on plant notification legislation I was very up front and supported it and was crucified in the media. I voted for it because I thought it was right.

On bills such as ARC House where you were the leader, Mr. Woods, we thought we were doing the right thing and we got sued. On the self-service bill we got sued. On the plastic pipe bill we're getting sued. The cost to our taxpayers should not happen if the bills are found illegal.

I really want to reiterate that five percent City residents on the project of Grant Street is a disgrace. I'm going to vote for the bill but I do want to point out if for some reason it sounds logical to me, the bill is deemed to be illegal, then I am going to try to stop this business of going to court and using the taxpayers' dollars.

Mr. Pollock:

I have read and re-read this bill and have attempted to determine how it benefits the City. This bill has been so watered down that it doesn't even benefit the people it purports to benefit. Fortunately, the people who genuinely care about this City, the people in the neighborhoods, the people that are non-profit groups, the people in development groups, were able to prevail upon the drafter of this bill to get him to change it so much that it really is nothing but a shell and does nothing really to benefit the people who are lobbying for this bill.

The people supporting this bill are being sold a bill of goods and either they don't know what this bill says, or the sponsor of this bill doesn't know what it says, or both.

As I read the legislation, the only contracts that are covered are those that the City enters into itself for its own work where there are already state and federal requirements for reporting and work and so forth and so on. In other words, the state and federal authorities are already requiring something before the City can get into it.

So then why is this bill necessary? Why is the City getting involved with a problem that is not ours? Shouldn't people be going down the street to the federal or state authorities to get them to enforce the bill that is already on the books for them?

Admittedly, there are added provisions that have been put in, further requirements, further stipulations, further demands. But I want to make something very, very clear and I defy anybody to dispute this. The big winner by the passage of this bill will be the large non-union contractor. That will be who the big winner will be. They'll get every contract because they'll have the bureaucratic staff to handle the greater demands. They'll have the wherewithal to pay the additional costs and they won't have to honor any union contracts regarding hiring, regarding transferring workers from job to job and everything else that unions have fought so hard to obtain. They won't have those requirements to meet. The non-union contractor is going to get every City contract. That's who the big winner is going to be. So these people are fighting for something that's really going to be hurting them.

This bill does several things, none of which are in the best interest of the City. It makes the City police the requirements of the federal and state government. It makes those contractors doing work for the City and subcontractors endure far greater expenses, higher overhead, more bureaucratic demands, steeper benefits and other heavy burdens. These demands will have numerous negative results.

There will be less bidders for City contracts and City subcontracts. The smaller contractors and subcontractors will not even be able to bid. They will not be able to withstand all the added overhead and bureaucracy so they will be shut out entirely. The little guys will be hurt. The subcontractors will never even have the opportunity to get involved in the project. And the fewer contractors who bid will have to bid higher to make up for the increased costs and demands. Thus, the City will have less funds available to do its necessary and important work.

There will be less work in the neighborhoods, slower repairs to City facilities, less available funds. Eventually, it might even result in a tax increase.

That is one of the most ironic, most painful aspects of this legislation, and the people of Pittsburgh, the taxpayers of Pittsburgh, should know this. The people who foot the bill for everything the City does should know that they're being sold out.

Since I came on Council, I have been doing all I can to lower taxes. I have repeatedly made the case for reducing the City's costs. Now, along comes this bill which takes us in exactly the opposite direction of where we should be going. No member of Council who wants to reduce taxes could possibly vote for this bill.

More than anything else, this bill sends a message that Pittsburgh is anti-development and that Pittsburgh does not have a climate that is attractive for business and for developers. I knew this legislation would have that effect but I had no idea that my fears would be realized so quickly even after the preliminary vote. Since Wednesday, I have been contacted by realtors, attorneys and agents who have informed me that the developers and companies which they represent have told them that they are rethinking their plans to do business in Pittsburgh. The shock waves have already hit the economic development community. --

The Chair:

Please, if someone speaks in favor of the bill we show them respect and if they speak against it we expect the same kind of courtesy. Please.

Mr. Pollock:

I think in the past you have used the language that if people don't come to order you will empty the hall.

The Chair:

They're not out of order. Please, continue with your discussion.

Mr. Pollock:

What is ironic about this is that the current watered-down bill doesn't really affect those people. It's just the image and the thoughts and the feelings that they have about the current climate in this City.

The shock waves have already hit the economic development community and I have no doubt that the ripple effect will go across the nation. The damage of this bill will be even far worse than the actual detriments of what the bill says. The real tragedy is that the image of this City that has improved so vastly, to the point of being actually an attractive one, will now be significantly tarnished.

Our Urban Redevelopment Authority has a hard enough time competing with the other municipalities in other states without this Council further handicapping it. This bill has euphemistically been called the "level playing field bill" supposedly as a symbol of the new competitive relationship between union and non-union companies. What about the level playing field between the City of Pittsburgh and other communities? No member of Council who cares about economic development in this City could possibly vote for this bill.

In addition, I am sorry this bill was not recommitted because there are several things that could be amended in discussion in Committee. For instance, I, too, have checked with an attorney, a very knowledgeable attorney in this field, who has informed me that a very important provision could be added to this bill. That is, why not have the prevailing wage paid only to the City residents? Or, in the alternative, why can't the people who work on all prevailing wage jobs be required to pay City taxes whether they're City residents or not? That, too, can be put into the bill.

I doubt if the proponents of this bill would consider that and, of course, the proponents of the bill who would be against it don't live in the City and don't pay our taxes. So, they would reap the benefits without having to pay the costs.

Let me make something extremely clear. I can identify the purported intent of this bill. I sympathize with the desire to improve the wages and working conditions of the worker. It is a noble cause. But it is not the cause that the government of any municipality can possibly address. These issues must be addressed by other means in other forums. I, too, have compassion; I, too, have feelings. But I also have a strong sense of duty; duty to my City, duty to the people who elected me, duty to the people who have given me their trust. I must act responsibly. That is why I voted against the misguided plastic pipe restriction. Believe me, it is a heavy burden to have a conscience, to have compassion for my fellow man and woman, and to always desire at the same time to legislate responsibly.

And do you know what is especially ironic about this type of legislation? Frequently, it is counter-productive and hurts the very people it is attempting to help.

This bill is exactly like, in so many ways, the plastic pipe bill which was supposed to save lives and which actually puts Pittsburghers at far greater risk. Moreover, the misguided plastic pipe ban clearly demonstrates the self-defeating nature of this short-sighted ordinance.

Permit me to read from the December 5th New York Times. "In an attempt to fill a need for affordable urban housing, community groups and local officials around the country are turning to factory built housing in the hope of creating instant neighborhoods on vacant City lots. The houses are built on assembly lines with plumbing, carpeting, and are then shipped in two or three parts to be assembled at the building site. Until recently, these modular houses had been found mostly in suburban and rural areas where open expanses of land and shortages of skilled labor have made them financially attractive to private developers. Now in the face of declining federal support for housing programs a growing number of groups are banking that housing costs in urban areas can be cut by the innovative use of houses that can go straight from the assembly line to vacant lots, often tax of delinquent land that has been taken over by the City. Such houses can be manufactured for as little as $50,000 and with public subsidies and low-interest loans can be bought for even less. One experiment is underway in Baltimore whereas in many other major cities the demand for affordable housing far outstrips the supply. There was an inventory of 5200 boarded up houses unfit for habitation, as well as a waiting list for some 37,000 applicants for public housing. Low income families are living in a row of new townhouses that were built, each out of two modular units stacked on top of each other, on what, only four months ago, was a weed-strewn field in a blighted area in the City's west side not far from downtown. The three bedroom, two bath, townhouses are the first of 171 being constructed as a pilot project by a non-profit organization."

The story goes on to say that this important, much needed housing will not be utilized to help alleviate the staggering housing need in Chicago and the reason is quite simple. The Chicago City Council passed the regressive plastic pipe restriction which has had a debilitating effect on development in the city. Now it is preventing supplying of homes for the homeless. Incredibly, despite facing a dire need for this modular housing to meet a housing demand, the Chicago City Council refused to rescind the plastic pipe ordinance. The result is that the manufacturers of this housing will not attempt to build this housing in Chicago because the stricter requirements add approximately ten percent to the cost of new housing and rehabilitation. Tragically, Pittsburgh has this same debilitating ordinance and so I am certain that this much needed housing will also never find its way to Pittsburgh where we drastically need it to help solve our housing problems.

So, in an attempt to satisfy the demands of local labor, this Council is hurting the people who truly need help, the poor, the homeless, those living in substandard housing.

This bill builds a moat around the City. It is already difficult enough to get people to work in the City, to do work in the City, without making them jump through more hoops. Will small contractors and subcontractors be able to share in the purported benefits of this bill? Will the small businesspeople, our neighbors, our friends, the people working from week to week on a paycheck trying to meet a payroll of a couple people be able to pay the additional costs, hire the additional people, meet the heavier burdens, pay the added overhead? It is our neighbors who have worked in this City and who stay in this City who will be hurt.

In Pittsburgh and its region, building trades unions have negotiated concessions with union firms, Mellon Stuart, Navarro, Dick, the real big ones, on a project by project basis. The concessions in some areas, ten percent or more, are negotiated where there is non-union competition. There is a recognition in this agreement of the factors at work in the marketplace. I do not see any recognition of market factors in the bill before us.

This bill will hurt our neighborhoods. It will hurt our taxpayers and it will damage irretrievably our image. This bill will hurt the Pittsburghers who are here and who have stayed here. It will hurt the small businessperson, the neighborhood contractor and subcontractor. And it will result in our local companies losing business, losing jobs, maybe even going out of business.

I think the best answer to this type of legislation was stated more than a hundred years ago by actually the founder of the whole union movement, labor movement, Samuel Gompers, when he said, "The worst crime against the working man is a company which fails to earn a profit." This truism is more valid today than ever. This bill should definitely be defeated.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Woods and members of Council, in response to my learned colleague, Mr. Pollock, I think I could best describe who this bill helps by saying that Mr. Pollock works with his brain but this bill is intended to help City residents who not only work with their brains but work with their hands and their backs. That's who this bill is intended to help.

In the Wednesday Committee Session I gave a lengthy description of the bill and I would like those comments brought forward. In the interest of time, I will not reiterate all of those points, but suffice it to say that I would dispute verbatim much of what Mr. Pollock talks about. But rather than get into that, since I think he made a futile effort, a last ditch effort, to defeat this bill, and I hope he will not be successful, I just want to point out that in addition to my comments being brought forward from Wednesday that the bill, and it's unfortunate that those in the Administration will not come forward and publicly indicate this, but it's been very clear to me that in my discussion since Wednesday that we will gain several millions of dollars in revenues, not only from the wage taxes that will be collected as a result of the 25 percent residency set aside, but equally important, it's been clear that there are many fly by night subcontractors who are not paying their business privilege tax. I would make the counter-argument to Mr. Pollock's that we in fact will gain necessary and needed revenues as a result of the impact of this bill.

I would hope that I would not have to indicate to this Council the significance of people living in this City benefitting from the construction activity, and this bill would so state, and I would hope further, even to Mr. Pollock, my colleague, I would hope that his concern about minority set asides and female set asides has not gone by the wayside because this bill significantly improves the quality of life for minorities and women residents in the City of Pittsburgh.

I'll just close with the understanding that my comments are being brought forward, and to ask that all of Council please vote in support of Ordinance 1454. And I take exception at a comment in the newspaper that somehow people in the audience, be they for the bill, be they City resident or non-City resident, are somehow vigilantes. My colleague did not make such a reference to gay activists in the audience a couple of months ago, many of whom were not City residents and supported that legislation.

I'll just close by indicating that these post cards and these petitions on the table are City residents. Yes, they are union members. Yes, they belong to building trades unions. They are City residents in support of 1454 and they are not suburbanites. I would please ask my colleagues to join me in support of this legislation.

The Chair:

Please bring my remarks forth.

Mr. Wagner:

I'd like my comments brought forward from last Wednesday.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

(BEGINNING - MESSRS. FERLO, WAGNER AND WOODS COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1454, WEDNESDAY, 12/7/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, on the amended bill, this bill, Bill No. 1454, which I have submitted for discussion and hopefully an approval today and on Monday, was submitted back in October 10th as you recall and on November 1st before Council there was a lengthy public hearing and I believe there were close to 50 speakers both pro and con representing a fairly broad-based viewpoint of various constituencies throughout the City of Pittsburgh.

The bill as amended, the amended version that you have before you now that we would be voting on, I believe expresses the consensus of the concerns that have been expressed to me not only by Councilmembers in my lobbying and discussion with you over the last month and one-half but equally important it represents both constructive criticism and out and out opposition to the bill from minority groups, neighborhood leaders, representatives of the labor movement in the city as well as business spokespersons and major contractors. I believe the bill represents a consensus and a meshing together of a variety of viewpoints by what can best be described as competing interests in our city.

The bill as amended, the bill that you have before you today as amended, I believe revolves administrative, legal as well as financial concerns that have been raised to me by representatives of Office of the Mayor. This bill exempts, reiterating, this bill exempts contracts initiated by our city or its authorities with any individual or corporation whose purpose is to conduct residential or commercial development where the prevailing wage does not apply. Just so we're very clear on that point.

The bill has several objectives. First of all it establishes a mechanism to guarantee local compliance with state and federal prevailing wage requirements. The bill creates a more level playing field between union and non-union contractors who bid on publicly assisted projects by requiring certain pre-bid specifications and those pre-bid specifications seek to raise the standard of living and working conditions for what I would argue is a very large pool of unorganized workers in this city.

This bill creates a verifiable means for local government to account for wages as well as taxes, and I see Mr. Sciortino back there. This bill creates a verifiable system for our government to account for taxes as well as wages paid on projects where our tax dollars are earmarked for commercial, residential and municipal development in our city.

This bill significantly impacts and increases minority and female participation on city-assisted projects, be those projects in a neighborhood or be those projects in the Downtown Area. By requiring female and women participation in three important ways.

Female and minority participation would be met and I would argue that the bill sets up a mechanism for the actual and verifiable employment of minorities and females in construction activity and I believe that will have a meaningful and lasting -- I think it will be a meaningful and lasting opportunity for those targeted groups in the employment life of our city.

It creates the actual and verifiable participation from minority and women subcontractors and a greater volume dollar that has been in the past.

It creates actual and verifiable participation for minority and women vendors who provide supplies or services or materials on publicly-assisted projects and a greater dollar volume than in the past.

This bill has several other objectives. It requires contractors benefiting from city-supported contracts to hire and maintain a work force of at least 25 percent City of Pittsburgh residents, individuals who are domiciled in the City of Pittsburgh at the time of their hiring on the project and throughout.

It increases public accountability, it increases monitoring and enforcement of an ordinance whose purpose is to improve the quality of life economic benefits to a large percentage of our residents in need of employment and an opportunity to participate in the commerce of this city.

This bill maintains and strengthens the role of the Executive Branch of government, the Mayor's Office, Department of Engineering and Construction, General Services, in the enforcement and monitoring of contracts and I believe that is both a permissible as well as a laudible activity on the part of City Council being the Legislative Branch of government.

This bill -- and I cannot stress it more clearly -- this bill does not force the City or contractors to pay union wages or force construction jobs to be completed by union workers.

Enactment of federal and state prevailing wage and benefit requirements were established by acts of Congress as well as the Pennsylvania Legislature. They have withstood decades of governmental and legal review.

Prevailing wage laws were enacted to protect working people by fixing a floor or wages on publicly-supported and assisted projects and is intended to promote a public policy that payment of low wages shall not give contractors an advantage in bidding or securing a publicly supported contract.

Enactment of the prevailing wage law, and I'd like to summarize of these points because I think these were the points that were expressed by people who supported the bill at the public hearing.

Enactment of the prevailing wage law at state and federal level, creation of the Social Security system of retirement, extension of health care benefits under the federal Medicare Program, creation of the Occupational Safety Health Administration (OSHA), state and federal minimum wage levels, recent plant closing notification requirements, among many other governmental initiatives over the last few years and decades, I believe do not cater to so called special interest groups. Their benefits, unlike many windfall tax benefits which benefit the rich, these programs do not cater to special interests because their benefits are spread out and I think they work to improve the quality of life of what I would argue is countless thousands of people in this city and millions of people throughout the United States.

I can go through each section of the bill to reiterate some of the points.

The bill, as amended members of Council, does several things. Importantly on the cover sheet it attempts to spell out specific declaration of findings which I will not reiterate; they're obviously a narrative statement. Basically reiterating some of the points that I have made about the role of local government to improve the quality of life of people in this city and commerce.

Rather than going through each section I will highlight my reiteration that this bill only deals with prevailing wage as it applies to the City of Pittsburgh currently. It does not extend or increase any threshold that does not already exist.

Importantly this bill as amended reduces redundancy or any complication as a result of another branch of office being involved in monitoring enforcement which has not only been raised as an administrative problem but a legal problem by the Administration, so the Controller's Office is not involved directly in any way, it remains the prerogative and the responsibility of the Executive Branch.

It's very clear from the wording and I spell out specifically exactly what female and minority participation is going to be. It is spelled out clearly how that will be met both in verification as well as the dollar volume and will significantly increase the threshold and the opportunity for women workers and subcontractors as well as minority women and subcontractors to participate where city dollars are being used. This does not cover all of the private sector; this only covers commerce and activity and construction that's related to city-supported projects.

Importantly, I spelled out earlier and you've seen an explanation here of the residency requirement. There are many criticisms about this issue, the residency requirement is an attempt to deal specifically with criticisms of the bill in terms of any potential increase dollar effect on municipal government and I would argue strongly that the residency requirement not only helps to address that issue but more importantly it is a statement of city government that where city dollars are going to be used, city residents are going to directly benefit from the construction activity. I think that precedent has been established on the ordinance regarding our own employment of workers on the city payroll. It was done on extending the residency requirement to our authorities earlier this year.

With that, I would like to open it up for discussion but I would ask my colleagues to support the bill in its amended version and I would be happy to answer any questions.

The Chair:

Discussion on the substitution for amending the bill.

Mr. Ferlo:

As pointed out in the public hearing and as well based on my research and evidence by many discussions with representatives both at the contractor level be they union or non-union as well as the work force, it is very clear that people are getting around paying the prevailing wage in this city through a variety of means and this bill sets up a mechanism for the Executive Branch --

Michelle Madoff:

What is mechanism?

Mr. Ferlo:

The mechanism that is spelled out in the bill is in several areas specifically through the weekly payroll records as well as tax records that would have to be supplied.

Michelle Madoff:

To whom?

Mr. Ferlo:

City of Pittsburgh.

---

Michelle Madoff:

What cost?

Mr. Ferlo:

I don't believe any additional cost.

Michelle Madoff:

Is that a factor? I don't know that it's true but I heard that it would be an administrative nightmare.

Mr. Ferlo:

No, because for one thing there are already existing forms most often referred to as CCD-1 forms that go to the Mayor's Office and the Commission on Human Relations. It is easy for these forms to be supplied to local government because there is also requirements at the federal and state level and that mechanism and that work, that administrative hassle on the part of the contractor is already there.

I would like to point out that in my discussions with both union as well as non-union contractors in the city and I will admit they are primarily union contractors the so-called "big guys", there is only one opposition that they expressed to me in this bill, the original version of the bill and that's why I amended it and that had to do with eliminating the subcontractor, they did not want that activity to be public and competitive. They say it would not only be an administrative nightmare but there's no way that 30 minutes before a bid has to go in when they're trying to call around and working on spread sheets and trying to get the best prices from suppliers and sub-contractors, they said that there is no way that they would be able to compete and submit bids for city-supported construction activity, and with that in mind that point was eliminated from the bill. And that was the only onerous activity in this bill that major contractors in this city expressed to me.

What I have attempted to do in this bill and I agree with you but I'm attempting to weigh a consensus of what I will have to admit are many competing interests, pro and con to this bill and my argument is that we accept the bill and I think that's something that we should study, we will be able to look at records throughout the coming year in terms of how the minority and female participation set-aside has been met. We will be able to review records and to get to your point about the number of city residents working on a job and at that point I would like to open it up for future review and modification.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. Chairman, I would like to commend Mr. Ferlo for all the hard work he's done on this piece of legislation and Mr. Coyne helped him out a lot. I think he's given in a lot to everybody's concerns. I've spoke to the Administration about this piece of legislation and they are happy with it, they can live with it and as far as more than 25 percent of the city residents being required to work on construction jobs, I'm a construction worker by trade and I have worked all over this county, this state and in other states and I've never once in my 26 years of construction work ever worked in the City of Pittsburgh proper. Never ever as sheet metal worker have I ever worked in the City of Pittsburgh. And, if we go with more than 25 percent, what about Indiana County or where all the power plants are or down in Shippingsport or any other borough they're going to say we want 50 percent. I think that we are getting enough and a lot with 25 percent, and that's union and non-union workers. We work everywhere, we just don't work in the City of Pittsburgh and we live everywhere and I congratulate you and the people for accepting 25 percent. I think that's fair and I would recommend to this Council that we all support this legislation as revised.

I stated that I was union member but I also stated that non-union people work not just in the City of Pittsburgh they work all over the same areas, all over the county, in other counties and in other states that live in the City of Pittsburgh. That I know for a fact also. I know enough non-union people that work in construction and industry also. And I ask you once again do not support Ms. Madoff's 50 percent; stay with what we just voted on 25 percent, and by the way I must remind you Mr. Chairman, we just approved this bill when we voted.

The Chair:

Could we please have order in the room?

Let me state this prior to Mr. DePasquale's. I appreciate everyone's emotion to the bill, but this meeting must be conducted in a businesslike manner and if it is not I will recess it at the very least.

We have not completed this legislation there are other proposed amendments on the floor. It takes a final vote on any piece of legislation in this Council at a Legislative Meeting on Monday. So this bill or any bill is not ultimately passed until it hits a Legislative Meeting.

Now there is a second amendment to this bill on the floor now for discussion proposed by Councilwoman Madoff increasing the residency from 25 percent to 50 percent; that's what we're discussing here.

We did not approve this bill yet. I want to clarify that for everyone here. We are still voting on amendments to the bill.

---

Mr. Ferlo:

Let me finish my point. My point being that I'm not clear and Michelle you can speak to this in terms of your support for the initial intent of the legislation and if I were clearer on that I would have a better appreciation for your concern but I'm worried that this has been alluded to me by many who are basically opponents to the bill that the best way to attack this bill and deflect it and embarrass the sponsor of the legislation is to wage the fighting defense on the residency requirement.

This bill, more so than enhancing the quality of life for union members because union members already work on jobs where the prevailing wages and benefits must be paid and accrued. There are those mechanisms in place. I would argue more importantly that this benefit, this bill benefits non-union workers who are supposed to be getting the wages and benefits as a result of the prevailing wage and city-sponsored and supported construction activity. It is those large numbers of people out in that audience within the City of Pittsburgh that will most benefit from enactment of this legislation.

The residency requirement, the minority set-aside, female participation, the way this bill is constructed, it's night and day compared to what we have in place now versus what will happen in the future and I think this bill is fundamental, it is significant, it measurably impacts thousands of people who are city residents and it is my intent in this legislation to improve city residents, commerce, quality of life of individuals, improvements in the neighborhood, construction activity and I believe has gone a long way in making some very important changes in the operation and the policy of city government.

The Chair:

Any other discussion on the 50 percent amendment?

I have one comment. I will vote in favor of 50 percent amendment because I feel that if this bill in its intent brings monies back to the city, the only true way it can bring monies back to the city is if people are living in the city paying taxes.

Now in addition to that some other advantages of the bill and I agree there are some significant advantages when it relates to minorities and others working. It's our responsibility to be concerned about the city residents, period. Really that is our first and only responsibility to this city and if an amendment can improve or help city residents, I feel obligated to vote for it.

Mr. Ferlo:

I would like to make a second amendment which I distributed. Amending the substitute version which we discussed and voted on preliminarily.

In Point Number 1, a second proposal has to do with strengthening the monitoring so that it is not just a prevailing wage jobs currently in place but where there are instances where city government donates property in excess of $150,000 the estimated fair market value, so the specific wording that is before you is to alter the first section to read or to which the City provides property for non-residential use of an estimated fair market value equal to or in excess of $150,000.

There have been many instances that have come before us where the land has been donated at expense to the City and the taxpayers. There is not necessarily the requirement to pay prevailing wage with all of its requirements on those jobs and I believe where there is the donation of the fair market value of that land for non-residential purposes that this bill should also apply in those instances.

Mr. Woods:

I would ask with all due respect to my colleague Mr. Ferlo, for us to turn this amendment down.

I have played a very small part in this piece of legislation dealing with the Administration. This amendment they cannot live with and it will be vetoed and I don't want to lose this whole bill over this one piece. I feel that we should work with the bill as proposed, see what happens, see how it -- if it becomes workable and then later on down the line next year or whenever this bill is working we can always amend it up. But I will tell you now if we put this in, it will be vetoed and you know I think a veto will uphold with this piece of legislation or this paragraph in here, so I ask you not to approve this amendment.

Mr. Woods:

Yes, I think we're playing games here. This bill has been out on the table since October and everybody knows what this legislation is. People don't get the amendments they want so they want to play around and table this bill. I think it's about time as elected officials -- and I have heard all of you say this and now it's my turn to say it. Damn it, bite the bullet and vote on this bill up or down; use your conscience. If you ain't for the bill vote no on the bill but let's vote on this bill. We can't have these people coming back all the time. This guy (Ferlo) worked his tail off and we can't keep putting it off and putting it off. I ask you all to vote on the this bill today.

The Chair:

As Chairman I would like to state something. I don't know where this bill is going right now, whether it's going to be held for two weeks, it's going to be approved or not approved and it's going to come for a vote on Monday. The one thing that has not been done on this piece of legislation, and I want to state this clearly. There has not been a legal opinion asked on this legislation. That is justified whether or not this bill passes or does not pass at this table or is held or not held. And this Council is obligated to ask for a legal opinion on the legislation. Now if it's between now and Monday that's fine or if it's between now and a week from now that's fine also.

---

Here's the ground work that I'd like to state.

I would like us to move on this bill today and I'm asking the Solicitor to provide this Council with a legal opinion by Monday on the legislation, and it's as simple as that. That has not been talked about at this table.

Michelle Madoff:

We're doing what we said is illegal; we're discussing the motion to hold.

The Chair:

No, we're not. I'm chairing the meeting and I'm making a request and I'm making that request and I want it writing to the Solicitor from this Council. Now this Council has to proceed on good legal knowledge of what this bill is all about. Now I don't want this Council to get into a big disagreement here without knowing that.

Now there is a motion to the floor to hold two weeks.
Michelle Madoff:

I'm also making a request and not only a legal opinion but what the administrative endeavors would have to be in the city in order to facilitate this legislation. May I make that request?

The Chair:

You can make any request you want.

Prior to proceeding, I would like the City Clerk-- the request made by any Councilmember must be to this Council in writing by Monday -- final vote on the bill.

(END OF COMMENTS)

PREPARED BY: MARY ANNE HRUSKA, STENOGRAPHIC REPORTER 1

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President and members of Council, it's no secret that I've been very active from 1969 on in the environmental movement. And may I remind Mr. Pollock that federal laws were passed that were very weak. The state laws were passed and they were weak but a little stronger than the federal laws. And then the City passed, Allegheny County passed laws that were more stringent because we had a greater problem.

I think the first thing we want to think about is getting some jobs for the citizens of this community. When I found out, and I was under the misapprehension that we got 25 percent just by the luck of the draw, I felt foolish that we only got less than 5 percent.

Now I'm hoping the bill is legal. But I'm not going to vote for it if it isn't. But if, as I perceive the bill to be, Mr. Ferlo is really not saying we're going to make it tougher on people doing business with the City, he's just saying, and I don't even think you really need the bill, he's saying that we already have a federal law, the Davis-Bacon Act, we already have the state Davis-Bacon Act, and I'm saying we're going to have the Davis-Bacon Act because it hasn't been enforced. You're right. The feds and the state ought to be enforcing the bill. It's just a restatement of what already exists in law. And I don't think it hurts to restate any more than it hurts to restate on the County level that we should have clean air after the state said it and after the feds said it. And if the bill is deemed to be enforceable and legal, that's the way the bill ought to go. And I think the media has a responsibility, and I think they carry it out fairly well, to report the new bill as amended being really just a restatement of what already exists. And no one has said the existing bills are going to put people out of work.

Mr. Wagner:

I'm abstaining on 1454 and I'm stating briefly why I'm abstaining. There is no legal opinion on the bill. We have had two controversial come in front of this Council in the last two months. The gay rights bill of which there was no legal opinion requested because everyone knew what the legal opinion would say. We have another controversial bill in front of Council; there is no legal opinion requested or yet given. This Council does not have a solicitor. This Council does not have anyone to legally review bills. We are going to meet, I'm sure, soon to talk about a legal solicitor. I believe that no bill should come out of this Council unless it has a legal opinion and it would save a lot of problems for this Council, for this Administration, and for this City, and ultimately the taxpayers, if we do that.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Coyne            Mr. Lyons
Mr. DePasquale      Michelle Madoff
Mr. Ferlo            Mr. Woods
                      (Pres't Pro tem)

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I'd like to ask three individuals to please step forward to receive this resolution; Rita Gesue, who is the Assistant Director of Pittsburgh Hearing, Speech and Deaf Services; Kay Marlene Roberts, the Executive Director; and also Karen McGann. During this resolution we will have an unusual occurrence in that Karen will be an interpreter for the hearing impaired during the resolution.

This resolution actually was presented by our colleague, Councilman Lyons, who is in the hospital having some tests done today.

Mr. Wagner for Mr. Lyons presents

No. 1812 WHEREAS, communication is essential for mutual understanding and for participation in life's meaningful experiences including personal and social contracts and educational and career areas; and nationally, more than ten (10%) percent of all Americans have difficulty in communication because of a speech, language or hearing impairment which affects adversely their right to a useful and productive place in society; and

WHEREAS, an effort to bridge the communication gap for more than fifteen thousand (15,000) children and adults in the Greater Pittsburgh vicinity who have a speech, language or hearing problem is the primary function of the Pittsburgh Hearing, Speech and Deaf Services, Inc.; and

WHEREAS, Rita Gesue has become the Pittsburgh catalyst for deaf services by developing the Interpreter Referral Service at the Pittsburgh Hearing, Speech and Deaf Services, Inc., by initiating and coordinating the annual sign language fund-raiser, SIGN-A-THON, and by conducting research which directly resulted in a closed captioned local evening news for the Pittsburgh deaf community; and

WHEREAS, Rita Gesue is a vital and dedicated Pittsburgher who has coordinated the interpreters who sign during a weekly Catholic mass on television, who enables employers to see the potential for hiring the hearing and speech handicapped, and whose expertise in the field over thirteen (13) years, has brought honor and recognition to Pittsburgh.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby proclaims this day, Monday, December 19, 1988 to honor and recognize Rita Gesue as a service-oriented humanitarian who continues, through her active innovations, to improve the quality of life and to encourage the full citizen participation of the area's deaf community.

Mr. Wagner moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I'd like to introduce Rita and after Rita we will have Kay Marlene Roberts speaking here. Rita has been very involved, and also Kay Marlene, for some years in the Pittsburgh community and this effort, and I commend them for it. Rita, please say a few words.

Ms. Gesue:

I thank Councilman Lyons for proposing this resolution. I thank especially our Executive Director, Marlene, who has the deaf people at heart, sincerely, and is a tremendous support to me and a very big encouragement. And I also thank my religious community, the Vincentian Sisters, who have allowed me to do this work for the last 15 years. Thank you.

Ms. Roberts:

I feel it is a privilege and an honor to have Rita Gesue on our staff. She has been one of the major forces in helping us move forward to bridge the communication barrier that exists for many people in our community. So, I'm honored to be with her today and again I thank you for recognizing her. It's an honor that she richly deserves. Thank you.

Mr. Pollock and Mr. DePasquale present

No. 1813 WHEREAS, Pittsburgh Central Catholic High School has been building a proud tradition of excellence since its founding in 1927; and

WHEREAS, Central's graduates have gone on to become leaders in the fields of law, medicine, business and government; and

WHEREAS, in 1987, Central Catholic was selected by the U.S. Department of Education as one of the nation's "Outstanding Secondary Schools"; and

WHEREAS, all through these years of academic excellence, Central Catholic has maintained an equally high record of achievement in athletics and in its other extracurricular activities; and

WHEREAS, the term "scholar-athlete" is not an oxymoron when applied to Central Catholic's students; and

WHEREAS, a string of courageous upsets in the playoffs by Central Catholic thrust the football team into the State Championship Game against Cedar Cliff High School at Beaver Stadium on December 10, 1988; and

WHEREAS, in the PIAA Quad A Championship Game the Vikings, facing their third undefeated opponent, came from behind in the second half to defeat Cedar Cliff 14-7 thus winning the premier Pennsylvania Quad A State Football Championship.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh commends the Central Catholic High School and its State Champion Football Team for their stunning victories on the field, and, even more, for their many successes off the field; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council declares the week of December 19 to December 24, 1988 to be "Central Catholic Vikings State Football Championship Week" in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Pollock moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Pollock:

Mr. DePasquale cosponsored this with me and I appreciate and thank him for allowing us to do this together.

We have some of the seniors here from the team and the coach, John Fischetti and they've selected Vince Yoos to speak for the team.

Vince Yoos:

On behalf of Central Catholic, we appreciate City Council inviting us down here today and we're very thankful to bring this award to Western Pennsylvania. Thank you.

Mr. Fischetti:

I'd also like to thank City Council for bestowing this award upon us. I'm very proud and pleased to be associated with these guys. Actually, we have 22 seniors on our team. The other day we were honored by the County Commissioners and we brought the entire dress squad; we brought 45 guys and it kind of threw everything into chaos, so we just decided today to bring the captains and our principal and our athletic director.

I'd like to introduce everybody right now. First of all, our Principal, Brother Martin Zewe; our Athletic Director, Larry Michelangelo; and our Captains, Anthony Mariani, a Bloomfield resident; Todd Orlando, a Squirrel Hill resident; Jamie Lichota, a suburbanite from Penn Hills; Vince Yoos is also from Penn Hills; Alex Pampena from Penn Hills; John Amodeo from Oakmont; Maurice Lucas from right here in Oakland.

I'd just like to say a couple of things. First of all, I told our kids before the game at Penn State that really we were not playing this game for Western Pennsylvania and the 50 people in that room. But technically, we really were because the kids went out there and, as Mr. Pollock said, we came from behind against an undefeated team in the second half on a freezing cold day and it just showed a lot of character. It kind of just showed what our Western Pennsylvania football is all about. We've gotten so many letters and so many congratulatory notes and calls from alumni and people that aren't even related to Central, that it's just made us proud and very happy to be associated with these guys. We're going to miss all these seniors tremendously and, again, I'd like to thank you for this great honor. Thank you very much.

Mr. DePasquale:

I just want to add my congratulations from City Council and the City of Pittsburgh for what Central Catholic has done for the City. I myself did not go to Central Catholic, although I'm accused of it down through the years; I went to Schenley High School. I did have four sons that went to Central Catholic and I do have two grandsons going there now. One, incidentally, was on a special team; you might have seen him a couple of times, No. 11, during the game.

But seriously, again, congratulations. A wonderful job, gentlemen.

Mr. Coyne presented

No. 1801 Resolution amending Resolution No. 1094, effective January 1, 1988, as amended, entitled: "Resolution adopting and approving the 1988 Capital Budget and the 1988 Community Development Block Grant Program; and approving the 1988 through 1993 Capital Improvement Program," by increasing Line Item EC 88-28 by $550,000.00 and by adjusting the Summary Totals. EC 88-28, Engineering Services is being increased by $550,000.00 to cover Salaries for the balance of 1988.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Engineering and Construction.

Mr. Wagner presented

No. 1802 Resolution providing for the transfer of $11,000.00 from Code Account 57-1, Index Code 005710, Retirement Severance Pay-Sick Leave to Code Account 30, Index Code 003004, Refunds-All Other Taxes. This transfer is necessary so that sufficient funds are available to issue earned income and business tax refunds for the remainder of the year.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Chair presented

No. 1803 Resolution approving the Allegheny County Sanitary Authority's resolution reapportioning the representation of the City of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County on the Authority's Board. This resolution allows the County and the City to pick three Board members each and the seventh member will be selected by the County and City jointly. --- (SPONSORED BY MR. WOODS)

Also,

No. 1804 An Ordinance amending Section 1 of Ordinance No. 40, approved February 15, 1955, entitled, "An Ordinance signifying the desire of the City of Pittsburgh to become a member of the Allegheny County Sanitary Authority; authorizing the publication of the required Notice and filing with the Secretary of the Commonwealth of the required Application, pursuant to the Municipality Authorities Act of 1945, as amended; and appointing the City's three members of the Board of such authority;" by providing that three members be appointed by the City, three members appointed by the County, and one member appointed jointly by the City and County of the Board of such authority. --- (SPONSORED BY MR. WOODS)

Which were read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Also,

No. 1805 Resolution authorizing and directing the Director of City Planning to prepare necessary legislation to transfer $200,000.00 of prior years unspent CDBG funds into Code Account CC89-

03, Pittsburgh Community Services, Inc., Hunger Program. --- (SPONSORED BY MR. WOODS)

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development.

Mr. Coyne moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of all the bills only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bills were introduced so the bills will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Wagner presented

Bill No. 1806

Report of the Committee on Finance for December 14, 1988 transmitting sundry ordinances and sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1610

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Two, Fiscal, Article VII, Business-Related Taxes, Chapter 246, Home Rule Earned Income Tax, Section 246.02, Imposition of Tax, by changing the rate of tax and by clarifying administrative procedure." (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President, on Bill No. 1610. This is the piece of legislation reducing the wage tax one-half of one percent. First of all, I'd like to ask that my comments be brought forward for the Record on this piece of legislation from last Wednesday's meeting.

Mr. Ferio:

Mr. President and members of Council, I would like my comments brought forward also.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

(MR. WAGNER'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1610 - Wednesday, 12-14-88)

Mr. Wagner:

I would like to mention, first of all, in my proposal some of the things Mr. Pollock said were correct and some are not. In my proposal I wanted to reduce the wage tax one-fourth of 1 percent, and not one-half of 1 percent. Consequently, since that time -- and I made that suggestion to my colleagues and also to the Mayor's office prior to the Mayor presenting her budget to City Council. And the Mayor presenting her budget to City Council, several of the items that I suggested in the letter to Council were included in the Mayor's budget, such as the unfunded pension liability. Council passed the bill approximately six weeks ago, and we knew at that time that we were going to receive at least $1.5 million in addition to what we were receiving from state government in the future. I incorporated that into my proposal, I incorporated some other items, such as monies that were sitting in trust funds, I incorporated some other items which I hoped for this Council to adopt, which is a slight reduction in travel expenses for the city for next year, and some other possible reductions, through attrition and other innovative financial ways, possibly tax collection more aggressively, and one additional item, which was to eliminate the 2 percent discount on amusement, occupational and property taxes. After further discussion with Mr. Sciortino and Mr. Turner, I was advised that that wouldn't really be a prudent thing to do, because some of those agencies actually represent our collection service, in particular with occupational tax and amusement tax. That is the reason why there is a 2 percent discount.

I would disagree with my colleague, Mr. Pollock, in regard to the School Board. We passed a resolution in front of Council several weeks ago, and I appeared in front of the School Board Monday evening and I made an address to them. I told them how this city was able to achieve cost reductions over the last five years. If anyone looks at budgets over the last five years, you will see that there has been 300 to 400 less in employees in the budget between 1988 and back in the early '80's for a cost reduction each and every year of over $13 million.

That basically was my suggestion to the School Board, to look at cost reductions through attrition and other cost saving measures. I firmly believe that what we are proposing, a one-half percent reduction in wage tax, is a significant -- and I repeat, a significant -- reduction in the wage tax. We will be lower than the School Board if we pass that reduction.

Consequently, I believe it should be the action of the School Board to make movement in the direction of a reduction in the wage tax, so that we jointly can have a more significant impact overall on the wage tax.

I would further suggest to this Council that we move forward on the suggestion of reducing it one-half of 1 percent, and go through the preliminary vote on the budget tomorrow and see whether or not it is the thought of this Council through the majority of this Council that further reductions will be made in the budget, which could institute cost savings, which could further mean that we could reduce the wage tax at the Monday meeting.

Now, if that doesn't pass, if measures proposed by any Councilmember do not pass tomorrow, I would not suggest that we go any further Monday, also. If they do pass, maybe we should entertain it. But we have not yet entertained a preliminary vote on the budget involving all departments and all other costs related in the budget.

Consequently, I would strongly recommend to this Council at this time not to go any further than one-half of 1 percent.

(MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1610 - Wednesday 12/14/88)

Mr. Ferlo:

I will second it for discussion. I think it is appropriate that we do allow representatives of the Administration to come forward and speak on this issue, for one, and two, I do think it is valid that the Administration respond to both the efforts of Mr. Pollock on his suggestions as well as Mr. Wagner, who earlier had drafted a memo regarding some other revenues that possibly could be generated independent of the Mayor's action, which obviously I applaud and I will support the one-half percent. But in light of a number of suggestions which I think do have validity both from the Chairman as well as Mr. Pollock, I do think we should entertain a response from the Administration before we, in final form, vote on this bill.

(Deleted text.)

Mr. Ferlo:

I think the context of the discussion is I don't believe there is any debate or disagreement on the one-half percent. I think the issue is can we do better based on some of the concrete suggestions that have come forward over the last month.

(Deleted text.)

Mr. Sciortino:

To the Council's question concerning further reductions, we have spent a considerable amount of time and effort to develop a proposed budget that has a one-half percent wage tax cut in it, and we have taken as much as we think is reasonable in terms of all activities. We have looked at a number of suggestions. And I have to say that in the past Councilman Pollock has presented to all of us a whole series of initiatives that would generate potential savings, and we have, over the last year in conversation and in business analysis of what goes on in our whole department looked at each one of those points that were presented to this Council last year. We feel that what we have presented is as far as we dare go so as not to become irresponsible or having our wishes and our dreams in front of us, as opposed to some business reality. We don't believe that we can go any deeper because of the seriousness of what we are doing. We cannot afford to make a mistake, we do not want this to be, and the Mayor has said to all of us in the Administration who have been working on this that this is not intended to be a one year program, this is intended to be a permanent cut, and we would not want to and feel very serious about not suggesting that we look further at this point in time so as not to jeopardize the permanent nature of that one-half percent cut.

All of us feel very strongly about the need to further reduce the wage tax burden. Your efforts in trying to encourage the school district, for example, are applauded, and I, for one, being an official of the school board as well as the city applaud that effort. But I don't think that we have the ability to withstand a deeper cut, and we will work very hard at coming forward next year with the same kinds of proposals that we presented this year.

We are trying to do everything that we can that is creative, everything that we can from the collection end, everything that we can from the legal end to drive the wage tax lower, but we don't feel that we can do that legitimately at this point. We feel that we will cross a boundary line that will put us into a position that we may never recover from, if we make a mistake there. We are being as liberal as we dare be.

Mr. Ferlo:

Was there a specific response from the Administration regarding each and every one of the various measures proposed by various members of Council?

Mr. Sciortino:

Councilman, I don't know about a specific response from the Administration, but I know that we took every single item that anyone recommended and looked at each one of those items. As I said, we took Councilman Pollock's list from last year with a variety of things. He and I traded correspondence on a number of those issues, looking at from the mundane issues of how much money we spend on copy machines and copy paper all the way to the series end of where are we with workers' compensation and payroll costs and what can we do there. We have looked at as many items as anybody has presented, and we will continue to do that, because we are not working at cross purposes here, our goal is to do exactly the same thing as you are proposing as a goal. We feel that relative to our strengths and weaknesses as an organization, that we dare not test those limits. We feel that we have proposed something that we can do and that we can succeed at, and we feel that beyond that there will be a cloud, and we do not choose to operate under that cloud.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Sciortino, how do you address the predicament of the problem from a policy point of view of recognizing that the two taxing authorities, Council, the Administration of the city and the School Board, to my knowledge there has never been any direct dialogue, at least at the level where it should be, and that is the Administration and the Mayor with the School Board on the general issue of reduction on the wage tax? Do you not see this as a policy issue going into the coming year, regardless of what action we take?

Mr. Sciortino:

I do believe that that is at heart, that is at the corner stone on the public policy decisions that both those public bodies have to make. I can't speak for the Mayor's office in terms of what they have done with informal or formal contacts.

I do know what the Treasurer's office has done, at least since July, trying to develop lines of communication with the school district. From my point of view, they are not the enemy, they are in the same predicament as we are, they serve the same constituents as all of us here are pledged to serve. But we need to open that dialogue, because that have a different mind set, what we are all about.

We have attempted to, on a number of occasions, present proposals in terms of collection, for example, and what needs to be done. And as the collector of those taxes for the school district, there have been times when we have not received an answer back at all from the school district, because it is an easier position for them to take not to respond, because the responsibility really is at our end. And I do think we need to work very hard at that, that we are not going to approach them in an adversarial way.

Mr. Ferlo:

I wasn't proposing that be an adversarial way, but what I am suggesting is our two tails are tied together, and that to my knowledge, whatever action we are taking, progressive or otherwise regarding a change in the tax structure for the city, that is being done somewhat in a vacuum without any district dialogue and interaction with the School Board. If part of the impetus for a lowering of the 4 percent reduction in wage tax, if part of the impetus is the need to respond as to the perception that people do not want to live in the city as opposed to the suburbs because of what they feel is an onerous tax, then if we are going to struggle to deal with this issue, it has to be something we jointly plan and respond to with the School Board.

My fear is regardless of what actions we take to lowering the wage tax, we will, on one hand, be lowering it at the city side and the School Board, given their attitude and at least what I perceive their policy to be, will increase that and possibly better in the coming fiscal year. And we are playing a shell game that I don't think anybody benefits from.

So I am not suggesting that there be an adversarial relationship, I am only suggesting that somehow the public policy that we are trying to achieve on the city's side with the Mayor, with the Administration and Council, there's got to be that parallel of understanding and commitment with both sides appreciating the predicaments that each one is in. And so far, as we approach the final hour of approving this package, I don't sense that anything has moved in that area. Maybe I am wrong, I hope I am wrong, but it doesn't seem evident that I am wrong.

Mr. Sciortino:

We have written recently to the School Board and have asked that the Treasurer's office be advised of all of their meetings, because we will send -- either the Treasurer will be there or representatives will be at each of their meetings from now on, because we do have an official position on that board and we will use that to attempt to present the public policy positions.

---

Mr. Ferlo:

Would the Administration consider supporting, given the fact that we have the enabling legislation and the tax reform package having been approved by the state, would the Administration support the formation of some type of citizen's panel or commission whereby the players would be not only the legislative branch of government and the Mayor, but possibly School Board members and other third party economy league type folks where maybe to help bridge the perception of an adversarial relationship, we can begin to do some joint planning in the coming year, one to deal with the impact of the House Bill 9 and also trying to deal in what you say is a non-adversarial way and recognizing what their predicament is, because they have more limitations on what they can do tax-wise than we do, in terms of generating revenues.

But I would strongly urge the Mayor to consider creating some type of citizen's panel or commission where we can become players in this process, because right now it is Councilman Wagner going out or myself going out and maybe other Councilmembers have gone out to address the School Board only to be shut off if we are speaking longer than four and one-half minutes. That is not the way to do productive planning in this City. I would like to see, if we do vote on this, a clear leadership position the Mayor is going to take in the coming year, otherwise we were just playing a shell game with this lowering the wage tax.

(END OF REMARKS)

(Transcribed by Helen L. Kriebel, Stenotype Reporter)

Mr. Wagner:

In addition to that, I'd like to state that, in my opinion, this is the most significant piece of legislation to come through this Council since I've been on this Council, and possibly longer. It represents a significant reduction in the wage tax; for each $10,000 that a person earns, it will save them annually $50 in wage tax to the City of Pittsburgh. For a person that makes $20,000, it's $100; if a person makes $30,000, that's $150 in savings. It's a tax reduction. We seldom ever hear in government of a tax reduction and I believe the Mayor's recommendation, of which this Council obviously appears to be following through on, is one of the best things and one of the most positive signals being sent to the number one problem that exists in the City of Pittsburgh, which is the wage tax which is jointly shared by the City of Pittsburgh and the School Board.

In addition, I believe that the only way we could reduce our portion of it further at this stage is to lay people off. The Administration knows that. I believe this Council knows it. This Council is doing some other things such as increasing some fees and some fines which are offsetting this. But the only way we can reduce this further, I believe, would be to lay people off and that would be the wrong thing to do.

Finally, I am hopeful, and I believe the majority of this Council is hopeful also, that the School Board will join us in this endeavor, that they will also face the fact that the wage tax is the number one problem in this City in terms of attracting people to the City and keeping people in the City. And I am hopeful that they realize that problem and they will find ways also to reduce the wage tax.

Mr. Pollock:

I also have comments on Bill No. 1610. I've been on Council for almost three years and I've made it my number one priority to try to get this Council and this Administration, or the previous Administration, to lower the wage tax. I must agree with Mr. Wagner that this is the most important piece of legislation that this Council will have voted on in my three years and it is a great day for the City of Pittsburgh that we can make such a sizeable chunk of a reduction in what comes out of the people's pockets, people who live in the City.

I have said repeatedly that we have to go a lot further than we are going in a half percent. I've talked about a level playing field between the City and the suburbs. We're getting a half percent closer but that's nowhere near enough and I hope in the future, I'm confident in the future, we'll be able to even go further.

Many people have asked that the School Board lower their wage tax because they are such a significant part of the wage tax; I don't think that we have the right to ask them to do that until we start making some very, very hard decisions as well. This wage tax that we're voting on today is a result of the imagination, the innovation and the skills of our Finance Director, Jim Turner and our City Treasurer, Henry Sciortino.

The School Board doesn't have the ability to do the things that we are doing today to lower the wage tax. They don't levy fines or provide licenses and they didn't receive a windfall from pension refinancing and so forth. So, we can't ask the School Board to do something that we ourselves aren't doing. Maybe we have to look at the budget and maybe layoffs are appropriate, but that's a question for another day.

I'm not real satisfied with only a half percent reduction, although I am happy. I think it could go further. But as an indication and a sign of my support for the Administration, for Mayor Masloff, for Finance Director Jim Turner, for City Treasurer Henry Sciortino, and for my colleagues as a sign of harmony and a sign of working with them so that, hopefully, this Council unanimously passes a tax reduction, I will be voting for this half percent reduction and consider this a giant, giant step forward and a great move for trying to get people to stay in the City and to locate here when they come into this area.

Michelle Madoff:

I think that most of Council, or all of Council, has got to support the half percent decrease. The City is just not competitive with the suburbs. We've seen the loss from 700,000 people to something like 350,000 as anticipated by the 1990 census.

When I had said I would run for Mayor, the platform I was hoping to run on would a quarter, even an eighth or a quarter of a percent just to start moving in the right direction. And when the Administration came up with a half percent, there was no point in running because I think they've done better than I thought I could do. Granted, there was monies returned from the State, but that money didn't have to be used in this manner had the Administration not decided to give some relief on tax reform and to show people that we are indeed moving in the right direction.

Now, a statement was made that in order to reduce the taxes even further, we'd have to lay people off. I don't believe that's so. I don't think we can reduce it more than a half percent this year but I would hope that by next year when tax reform has passed, hopefully, and the Commissioners have initiated the sales tax, that we would then use those dollars to again lower the regressive taxes, business privilege, amusement tax, mercantile tax, the things that keep business people from wanting to locate in our City.

And then there's another area that nobody has talked about; sheer and utter waste. I think the new Administration is starting to look at, and I've talked to them, about how we can make government more efficient and how we can plug up some of the real losses in dollars to taxpayers. For example, it didn't take a genius for me to figure out that if we were only doing tax collections and audits, the taxes on the people who haven't paid, I'm not talking about all of us who pay our taxes for 1987, we're just getting 1988 taxes. But if we're only working on audits on businesses and individuals for 1985, with the new tapes that are going to be available from the federal government so that we can be more efficient and creative by going to outside people to bring us up to date so that we're indeed working on the '86, '87 and '88 taxes, we're saying $6 million collected up front. In addition, when we stop through the legislation, I hope we will get from Jim Josephs as soon as he can get it back to us, he says it's very complicated and involves changing many of the existing regulations already on the books, and that is what is taking such a long time. But when that bill comes to us which will stop once and for all the advertising of not to exceed dollars, when we stop saying we have a contract to demolish a building for $70,000 and the bids come in at 66 and 68 when they could come in, I know, at 14, when we begin to stop giving monies away by virtue of saying come and get us because we have this money, by saying we have $3.2 million for Phase II and the bid comes in at 4-4, which is another side of the coin, it's not the same thing it's another issue, when we start to have an in-house cost estimator to know what the costs really are, we are going to save millions and millions of dollars for taxpayers. And at that point we're going to see an ability to lower our taxes without having to lay anybody off.

So, it's a composite of the new tax reform, the monies that have come back to this state, the Administration using the money correctly, and now starting to clean our own house and starting to generate all kinds of dollars that will allow us to even lower tax rates by next year substantively.

Mr. Ferlo:

I would also join in in applauding Mayor Masloff not only for her budget message but for the bill that we have before us today in relation to the tax cut on the wage portion of our revenues. And also the Mayor's staff who I think has worked very hard, and for that matter, I think Mr. Wagner in his role as Council Finance Chairman over the last month and a half. I do think, also, that it's very critical that we again issue a call and a plea to the other taxing authority in City government, the School Board. I sensed a willingness on the part of Mayor Masloff the other day during the tax briefing to support my suggestion of a commission that in this coming year, regardless of the action that we're taking today to lower the wage tax, we need to jointly plan out and discuss with the other taxing authority, the School Board, how we're going to deal with the 1990 budget and the 1991 budget. I think it's very critical that we propose some type of a commission that can be represented not only by the Mayor and some of her staff, members of Council, but possibly some others from the community such as Economy League and other types of civic business and neighborhood leaders who could be part of the Commission and engage in a non-adversarial communication process with the School Board regarding tax reform in the coming year. It's not going to be any good for us to engage in a shell game with the people here in the City of Pittsburgh whereby we are taking one step to lower the wage, only to find out that the other taxing authority will increase it by that, if not much more. We have to plan together; we have to do it cooperatively in the spirit of recognizing that we do not want to shortchange education in this City. It's equally as important as public safety and having paramedics and the garbage picked up. We need to sit down and plan together.

I'm upset at the comments by the Board president, Barbara Burns; a very nasty attitude in the paper she expressed upon winning the election about how she would not engage with City Council in a so-called sideshow or what have you. I don't think that's going to get us anywhere. I know Mr. Wagner has addressed the Board; I've addressed the Board this past year on this issue alone.

I would suggest that a commission be set up and I would hope that the Mayor would fall through on that issue in the coming year. I do think it's important, however, that regardless of the tax cut that we initiate today at the request of the Mayor and the Mayor responding to what obviously has been the majority of Council's will since this past year, we cannot lose sight of the fact that we in City Council must continue to scrutinize the City budget every Wednesday and every Monday in the coming budget year. We need to continue to provide oversight on expenditures. We need to continue to support department directors as well as Councilmembers who come up with suggestions for various economy moves of which there have been many this past year. And I do think we need to look specifically at reviewing the cost of consultants in City government, specifically in Engineering and Construction.

I do want to close by saying that as part of this on-going process of lowering the wage tax, we sensed an indication from the Mayor and the Director of Finance the other day that with the tax reform package in Harrisburg we would be able to further reduce the wage tax by possibly an eighth of a percent in the year 1991.

Those are the things, short-term, that we need to progress towards and, again, I cannot stress enough the need for the School Board to take off their myopic glasses and begin to participate in a creative process of planning for their needs as well as the needs of everybody here in the City.

Michelle Madoff:

One very quick comment. One of the areas I inadvertently overlooked is workers' comp. There's no doubt in my mind that when the new program of surveillance goes into operation very shortly that we're going to catch the anticipated, or has been suggested, approximately 25 percent of the people who are on workers' comp who could come back to useful duty in the City, light duty perhaps, and people who may or may not be faking. So that those police officers and those firefighters and those paramedics who are putting their life in danger every day will have backup people because we'll have the staff to support them and we will have substantive savings to taxpayers.

Again, let me point out something that wasn't stated today that we know that perhaps the public has forgotten. For every quarter percent that we wish to lower our wage tax, the City's portion, that represents $7.5 million. If we could raise $7.5 million somewhere next year from either workers' comp surveillance, stop the giveaways, as you say, Mr. Ferlo, the consulting fees, stop advertising come and get us, start to get our audits done in a more timely fashion by getting any backup service, we will have easily $7.5 million and perhaps we could do an additional quarter percent to bring us more in line with the suburbs. Thank you.

The Chair:

I would just like to add that I, too, echo many of your thoughts and I commend Mayor Masloff and the present Administration for taking a bold step to cut this wage tax by a half percent. But, I would like to remind this Council that over the last 6 or 7 years, this Council and Councils previous to this Council, have taken many, many steps to save the taxpayers money, to come up with original legislation, as Mayor Caliguiri did, to lead up to this day that we can cut this wage tax by a half percent. This is a very important piece of legislation since I've been on Council, but there has been a lot of other legislation just as important that led up to this day. So I feel that we on this Council can help take credit along with the last Councils for the last 6 or 7 years for this tax decrease today, and I could sit here and name you the legislation that we saved on this Council, taxpayers' money, and I too will vote for this and I commend everybody.

Which was read.

Mr. Pollock:

Bill No. 1763 is the bill that has to do with additional fees to be paid to the independent auditor, an amount of almost $35,000. It should be pointed out that every year we have to pay an additional amount of money to the independent auditor because of the additional work that's involved in auditing the Controller's Office. I think that the time should come when this Council says enough is enough, that this money is a waste, that it's money that could be used for much better purposes in the City of Pittsburgh, and that we should be looking long and hard at not authorizing these and supporting the funds coming out of some other source rather than City taxpayer dollars. And if, in fact, there is some type of misfeasance or abuse of the taxpayers' dollars, that this money should be recovered. So, I will be voting against this.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 1763, can we, and perhaps the Finance Chairman might have an answer to this, can we bill to the Controller's Office the $34,870 out of his expense account? Since it is true that the Peat Marwick bill was incurred to audit the Controller, then he ought to pay for it.

The Chair:

It doesn't matter; it still comes out of the City coffers.

Michelle Madoff:

No, it comes out of his allocations of dollars.

The Chair:

It comes out of the City coffers, a general fund, and it comes out of there. The Administration is the one that hires them to do the audit so they have to pay for the audit.

No. 86-173, at a cost not to exceed $40,000.00, payable from Code Account No. 1075, Miscellaneous Services, Department of Law, Index Code 107508."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

I have a very touchy subject to raise and I think this is the appropriate time. On Bill 1767, we are voting to pay for a solicitor to represent members of Council in a lawsuit filed against the City of Pittsburgh. It represents former Mayor Caliguiri, Eugene DePasquale, Ben Woods, Mark Pollock, Sophie Masloff, Michelle Madoff, Richard Givens, Stephen Grabowski, Jack Wagner and James O'Malley. And that's in the case of the Metropolitan Pittsburgh Crusade for Voters.

I have a letter that I sent to Dan Pellegrini on September 29th. I'm just going to read excerpts from it because I think the issue is not one that I should be addressing here in Council. But it essentially says:

"Elected officials or employees of the City are all subject to being sued or requiring legal counsel and are official capacity. It is obvious that should we require the services of an attorney to represent", this is me but I'm changing it to be any of us, "at any time during our tenure, the City Law Department would have to represent us or an outside counsel if it became a conflict of interest. There must be some provision available for reimbursement of legal fees for elected officials who require counsel because of their office."

If anybody is involved in litigation because they serve as a member of Council, or the Mayor, or perhaps a department head, because somebody chooses to get involved in activities that require the help of an attorney, I believe, as I've stated here, as you are aware in my official capacity as Councilwoman, if I was not a Councilperson I would never have been contacted.

There is a bill that has gone up to Dan Pellegrini several times. I have not introduced it in Council because I just really didn't know the procedure. But since we have legislation before us now, I think we need to have some uniform way of dealing with Councilmembers contacted in their line of duty and need legal counsel to be represented and there must be some provisal to pay those fees.

The Chair:

Let's stick to this issue.

Michelle Madoff:

It's the same issue. How are we going to pay this one? If we're going to pay this one, we're going to pay the others.

The Chair:

Mr. Pollock, you have the floor.

Mr. Pollock:

On Bill 1767, as I commented on the Wednesday session, I'll be voting against this for several reasons; number one, I believe that this could have been done in-house with the attorneys that the City's Law Department has on its own. Number two, and Mr. Pellegrini, as Solicitor, acknowledged this, this bill is for payment for services that were rendered to the City without any authorization by this Council. The standard interim approval procedure was not followed. Every other department is forced to do this and I think that the Law Department should comply with this as well. This was the second time; the first time that these bills were obtained, the same policy was followed then, where the attorneys were hired without any authorization by this Council to do so. So I will be voting against this bill.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, in relation to Bill No. 1767, on the $40,000 payment to the attorneys on the lawsuit. I do think it's important that we not be pound-wise and penny-foolish. In this situation, I believe, as the Solicitor indicated to Council, that there's a pending potential liability of some $600,000 or $700,000 should we lose out and have to make payment because of that legal action that was taken. The time to really act on this, and, unfortunately, I was not on Council last year, would have been to originally oppose, as I believe several members of Council did, the initial hiring of an outside lawfirm consulting on the case. That would have been the time to block it. But at this point, being so far into it, with the potential liability of that sum of money, I do think we should abide by the wishes of Solicitor Pellegrini on the need to do this suit. The fact that some $27,000, or some amount of this $40,000, has already been expended, I do think we should criticize the Solicitor for acting in that fashion and remind himself and all the department directors that they must seek interim approval for those kinds of expenditures. But at this point, it seems like even, if I understand the precedent on Council, I don't know that we've ever deducted that money from any department director who hasn't followed that procedure. So, in this situation, I think it's important that we have to pay the bill and in addition, the authorization to go to the $40,000.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm a little confused on 1767 and I'm going from memory. But it seems to me that they're sore winners, not sore losers but sore winners. This Council, it was my legislation that put the referendum question on the ballot, and when that passed, it became a fact that we were going to election by district. And if memory serves me well, Dan Pellegrini came to this Council and said, maybe somebody else will remember, the reason they were going to this counsel was that they needed someone who had equal ability on our side who understood this particular kind of law. There was only one or two firms in the country who really had expertise in apportionment, election by district. And that's why they went to this firm; they didn't have the expertise in-house. That's what they told us. And I bet if we went to the Minutes, that's what it would reflect. Am I right, Mike?

Mr. Perry:

Probably.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm almost positive. That's why we voted for it. We didn't vote for it just to give money away.

The Chair:

But the issue is whether we pay this bill or not.

Michelle Madoff:

That was my next question; I need some guidance. What happens if we vote against it?

The Chair:

We'll get sued by them. But let me put it to you this way. The reason Danny came to us, and I agree with you, they should come for interim approval if they don't have it, he thought he had the money. And if you recall, Mr. Pollock, he thought he had the money in his account. When he got the bill, he realized he did not have the whole $40,000 in his account. And that's why now he is coming to us to transfer this money to pay this bill. We should pay this bill. Mr. Pellegrini admitted to this Council on Wednesday that he was wrong. We can't punish him any more by not paying this bill because we're going to pay this bill. Either we're going to pay it now or we're going to pay it later, this $40,000 plus a lot more legal fees when they sue us and we have our attorneys fighting the case.

So, I think that Mr. Pollock's comments are well taken. I'm sure Mr. Pellegrini is downstairs in his office; if he is in the building today, he's watching us. He will not do it anymore so I would ask you to shut off debate and let's pay this bill. We know we have to pay it and he did admit that he made a mistake.

Michelle Madoff:

I agree with you that we have to pay it and that was my point when I said that we need a policy on all paying of the bills.

WAGNER)

Which was read.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, there are two pieces of legislation in front of us today that I think are significant bills which will reduce the overall cost of government. They are Bills 1787 and 1788, relating to travel authorization by department heads within that specific code account in that department. There are three changes being made here; one, you're aware of, the budgetary item which is consolidating all education and training and travel in one code account in each department so that we really know where those monies are coming from beginning in 1989.

In addition to that, we are giving the department head, in essence, the authorization to determine who travels and when they travel within their department within the budgetary amount directed by Council in the upcoming year's budget. They cannot exceed that amount. For instance, if there's $10,000 in a department for education, training and travel, they can spend up to that amount. They cannot exceed it. If they have to exceed it, or they want to exceed it, they have to come back to Council.

In addition to that, there's a couple other safeguards, I believe, incorporated in the bill. Prior to any travel authorization, the department head must notify Council in written form, which means that they will have to send a letter to the City Clerk and present members of Council.

In addition to that, another safeguard that's incorporated is that each department head must submit a quarterly report no later than 10 days following the end of each quarter consisting of the names of employees, locations, and amounts incurred for education, training and travel.

What does all that mean? Well, all of us know how many bills come in front of Council of that type on an annual basis. That will not be necessary unless they exceed the budgetary level. That should reduce significant amounts of time by the City Clerk's Office and staff, department directors coming to Council and sitting here a couple hours simply for one travel bill, staff work involved, and the cost incurred also.

There is a caveat involved in this and we reduced the travel budget by 10 percent in the budget for any travel, education and training, amount in excess of $10,000 and the Administration has committed to consolidate travel, education and training in terms of through one travel agency in the future. In the past they have done that independently within each department, and costs have been greater. So, consequently, they have committed to do that and I think they can reduce costs in that manner also.

In summary, I'd just like to say that I think the two bills are positive. Several Councilmembers, particularly Mr. Ferlo, has recommended this and I think the two bills are an excellent idea and will save the taxpayers money.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, on Bill No. 1603, I'd like my comments brought forward regarding the Shadyside Hospital bill.

(REMARKS ON FOLLOWING PAGES)

(MR. FERLO'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 1603 - Wednesday, 12-14-88)

Mr. Ferlo:

I have a question on 1603. Mr. Chairman, we had a lengthy public hearing, I thought it was a good public hearing, we got a lot of questions, and I thought Shadyside Hospital, the administrators and the board members who appeared, were very cooperative and obviously very informed and were able to provide a lot of information about the benefits of this hospital expansion.

We had asked for several items to be addressed by Director Lurcott and other representatives from the Administration. And I believe a little while ago during the course of our meeting, not long ago, we did receive this formal memo from, I believe, Director Lurcott. And the Director has addressed several of the questions we raised about the overall master plan in terms of number of employees, the projected number of employees and the questions that we raised about the tax revenues and benefits. Also, we had some questions about the processes of the hospital board in dealing with the community and citizen participation.

Having quickly read this, I think it adequately addresses the questions that were addressed at the public hearing. I want to thank the Director and his staff for this additional information.

I would like -- and I will introduce it on Monday, I want to compliment the representatives of Shadyside Hospital who submitted, I believe to all of Council this morning by way of letter, responding to some of the additional concerns about the cost benefit and some of the potential revenues, number of employees, tax benefits to be paid to the city, in addition to just the reality of the construction activity and all of the revenues and jobs and benefits to be accrued. I want to thank him for that memo, and I will enter it into the record on Monday.

I want to just state for the record, I sense the willingness on the part of the hospital board to address the issue of the possibility of having formal citizen participation, community representation, on their board. I hope that they will provide and have a future discussion on the board on that issue. I sense the willingness on their part to discuss that.

I am concerned that there is not a certificate of need application that has been approved by the state. The response from the attorney representing the hospital was that that is not needed at this time, it is being sought, and the construction activity as proposed cannot proceed unless the conditional use application is in place, that is fine with me.

And the other thing, I think there seems to be a window of opportunity regarding the year end and bonds and everything else. That is over my head as to why there is urgency on the approval of this before the calendar year ends. I do want to note that while we have no legal power to address this issue at this time, I wanted to stand firm that one of the reasons I raised questions about the issue of the payment in lieu of taxes, that the University Health Center and City of Pittsburgh has advanced forward and made a formal commitment by way of $1 million a year, this expansion of Shadyside should not be looked at by Council and the city in a vacuum. There are other proposed master plans that will come before us from not only Shadyside, but St. Francis, West Penn Hospital, Allegheny General, as well as the University Health Center. I do believe from an advocacy point of view we must begin to raise this question on Council and the legislative branch of government regarding the issue of the payment in lieu of taxes, and irrespective of the amount of monies that the hospital may potentially pay as a result of some of the activities being taxable. There have been private meetings, there are some legal negotiations going on. I don't want to confuse that or diffuse that, but I hope in each and every one of these hearings in the future where Council is discussing rezoning and reviewing and approving conditional use applications, that we do a more thorough review than I have seen Council do in the past. Part of that review, in fact, was an amendment by Mr. Pollock regarding the parking situation. It has been rare that Council has reviewed the conditional use applications to the extent that we have on this one. It is usually the situation that we go by whatever the Planning Commission says. I would like to change that.

At this point I am happy with the response of Shadyside Hospital, I hope that they will continue to discuss the issue of community representation. I am not happy with the fact that they haven't come forward with a payment in lieu of taxes, and I don't see any legal ability for me to blockade this approval at this point.

Mr. DePasquale presented

Bill No. 1810

Report of the Committee on Public Safety for December 14, 1988 transmitting sundry ordinances to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1655

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending and supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Seven - Business Licensing, Articles III, VII, IX, Chapter 713 Pawn Brokers, Chapter 715 Junk Dealers, Chapter 717 Antique or Second Hand Dealers, Chapter 719 Vendors and Peddlers, Chapter 721 Transient Merchants, Chapter 723 Trade Fairs, Chapter 763 Parking Lots, Chapter 765 Commercial Refuse, Chapter 771 Amusement Places and Producers, Chapter 773 Sunday Activities, Chapter 775 Carnivals and Street Fairs, Chapter 777 Mechanical Amusement Devices and Chapter 779 Public Dance Halls and Dances by raising certain fees."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

In regards to Bill 1655, license fees, I have a specific amendment which is before you that 719.06 under License Fee, Bill 1655, the formal amendment is: "Vehicle Peddlers. The fees for a vendor or peddler license involving the use of a vehicle shall be $300 per year and all others shall pay a fee of $200 per year due on or before January 31st of the current year."

I want to make that in the form of a formal amendment to the motion.

Mr. Pollock:

What was the number of the bill?

The Chair:

1655.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, my amendment on 1655 is to raise the fees from $200 to $300 on a vendor with a vehicle, and from $100 to $200 for a street peddler vendor without a vehicle. It's an increase of $100 in each one of the categories.

Mr. Pollock:

I'll second the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, you may remember that I was arguing for a flat $500 fee in each category. The Chairman pointed out that that is not the wisest thing to do because of lots of different reasons which I won't rehash the debate in the Committee. But I do think it is important that these fees be commensurate with the costs associated for administrating the program. I talked about problems associated with the vehicle trucks, especially in the parks, the problems of litter and other kinds of debris associated with these trucks. I believe the increase revenue should be used to help in the purchase of containers so that Public Works and Parks can adequately clean up after these peddlers. And I talked about a lot of other issues which I don't want to rehash.

So, it's in that spirit that I make a compromise amendment which I estimate will raise about $30,000 in income.

There are 57 trucks, Mr. Chairman, you had asked that question, there are 57 peddlers with trucks who were licensed this past year and 103 on foot. Those figures actually suggest that there is not adequate enforcement because there are many more street peddlers than 103 and there are many more trucks than 57.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me. I think this is a point of order. Can we put the bill back in Committee and wait for some of our members to be here?

The Chair:

Wait a minute. This meeting isn't going any further until we get some order and you address the Chair. Most of you have been here for a number of years and you know the procedure. It's getting to be a joke. You want to just keep talking. You've been here for 10 years; you know what the hell is going on. Let's do it.

Mr. Pollock:

On Bill 1655 I abstain because my brother is a vendor and I don't think that this modest increase is enough. Accordingly, I don't think it's in his counter-interest, so I would abstain.

AYES 5 NOES 1

(MR. POLLOCK VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also, with a NEGATIVE recommendation,

Bill No. 1657

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending Title Five - Traffic, Article VII - Parking, Chapters 541 - General Parking Regulations, Chapter 543 - Parking Meters and Chapter 545 - Off-Street Parking by increasing certain fines and eliminating discount periods."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman, in relation to this bill that was negatively recommended, I'd like to offer the following amendment which is on the table.

On Bill 1657, under 543.09 Penalty, I'd like to make a formal amendment that it be $8 as opposed to the $10. And on 545.05 Penalty, again, that would be $8 instead of $10, and the bill would remain with the elimination of the discount period.

Mr. DePasquale seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

From what I gathered from the lengthy discussion with her honor, Joan Melvin, the main concern here had to do with the problems, administrative bureaucracy, and nightmare associated with the discount fee. A lot of cost could be saved, a lot of administrative hassles could be resolved by eliminating the discount period. Recognizing the bill as amended with my amendments would eliminate the discount period.

I do think that our increase should be fair and incremental. I think the the $3 and the $5 going to the $8 in this coming year is more fair, and at the end of the year when we discuss the 1990 budget, we can think about raising it to $10 in line with some other municipalities we were supplied a list with. But I think we need to be fair and incremental.

I do think we should respond to the will of the Administration on the issue of the problems associated with the discount period. But in terms of shoppers, competitiveness and some of the neighborhood business districts, the general hassle of many parking meters not holding a nickel and a dime and only a quarter. I think we should be fair to what amounts to be, I believe, 50,000 tickets written in this City. I've often criticized Public Safety as being a ticket, tag and tow operation. I think we should be fair and, in line with that, my amendment is for $8 for both on-street and surface lots, and elimination of the discount period. And in that I ask for a compromise.

Mr. Pollock:

I've been opposed to the elimination of a discount period when it came up last year and again this year. It was enlightening to obtain a copy of the research that Chief Magistrate Melvin did regarding discount periods in other cities, and I was surprised to see that other cities don't have a discount period.

I agree with Mr. Ferlo that that was the main incentive for this bill, for the Public Safety Department and the courts to eliminate the costs involved in having two separate costs, a discount period and a non-discount period.

Frankly, I feel that a person getting a meter violation and having to pay $10 is simply too much. The person who pays that fine is the person who probably put the money in the meter to begin with. If they didn't put the money in the meter, they're probably not going to pay their fine. I think there is a direct relationship between who pays their fines and if they were acting in good faith. If they had no intention of paying their ticket, then they probably weren't going to put any money in the meter.

So, although I'm opposed to the elimination of a discount, I would accept as a reasonable compromise an $8 penalty with no discount. But that creates an enormous problem, though. If Mr. Ferlo's amendment passes in the form as he proposed to us, obviously that's cutting $2 off of the tickets which throws the whole matter of the balanced budget for these fines out of whack. I don't know what the final vote on that would be, but cutting 20 percent or more from the revenue generated by these tickets is a sizeable amount of money. The total increase was a half million dollars and, if we're eliminating 20 percent of that, we have to make up some money somewhere else. A lot of money.

So, I would support this as a reasonable compromise, but if this passes, then we have to look at these fines and say, "Hey, where do we make up this extra $100,000 or more?"

The Chair:

I would just say that, unless Mr. Ferlo did some research on the subject, I believe that Traffic Court did their research. They came up with facts and figures at the meetings and I would ask you not to support this amendment, to go along with the Chief Magistrate's suggestion. We're the only ones, any municipality around, that has raised those rates in I forget how many years.

I disagree with you on one point, Mr. Pollock. Everyone is going to pay those fines eventually. That's why they have the boot. You might get away with it and not pay it today and you might not pay it next month and you might not pay it the following month, but you're going to pay it eventually. And instead of paying the $10 or the $8 or the $3, whatever it may be, you're going to pay a heck of a lot more.

So, I would just ask, and that's the way I'm going to vote, that we go along with the Administration's suggestion on this point because they did the research, they have the facts. And, Mr. Ferlo, I know you're a hard worker and you might come up with some facts, but I don't have them in front of me and therefore I'm going to vote against your amendment.

Mr. Ferlo:

One point that I didn't address which is using the Administration's own legal justification for increasing fees, they argue continuously that the fee increases must be commensurate with the expenses. How can you then conclude, based on this increase, when at the same time you're basically eliminating the largest part of the Administrative bureaucracy, and that is the discount period. So, I think there's a direct contradiction in the opinion from Solicitor Pellegrini and whoever else from the Administration who argue that increased fees must be commensurate with the reality of the Administration and enforcement. So, somewhere something doesn't add up right and if it's just a revenue source, a ticket, tag and tow operation, as I suggest, then we should just say that and make it $50. But if it's commensurate in some way with the Administrative costs of executing the fine and collecting it and all that headache, we took away the main burden there regarding Administrative overhead and that is the elimination of the discount period. So, I think, Mr. Woods, there's still a contradiction there and it's in that spirit that I offer the $8 increment.

The Chair:

I think you make my point and the Administration's point. They stated at the meeting when we discussed the budget, and at the last Committee Meeting, that they sent thousands of these back every week because the people, they'll hold them for a number of days and say, "Oh, I'll beat the system and I'll postdate this check and I'll send this in as a $3 fee."

Mr. Ferlo:

I'm for eliminating the discount period.

The Chair:

Right. And I'm saying, that's the reason; that's the cost. Thousands of checks going back out in the mail, 25 cent stamps.

Michelle Madoff:

Is it in order, Mr. President, to amend my colleague's bill to make it $9 instead of $8?

The Chair:

No. The only amendment that is in order now and will be in order all day is his amendment because it's in writing.

Now we're going to vote on the amendment. All in favor of amending this bill as Mr. Ferlo suggested from $10 to $8 will signify by saying aye.

Point of Special Consideration.

The Chair:

No Point of Special Consideration.

Mr. Ferlo:

Point of Personal Privilege.

The Chair:

Nothing.

Mr. Ferlo:

Motion for reconsideration on the amendment. If the majority of Councilmembers do not want to eliminate the discount period but don't like the $10, why wouldn't you then support --

Mr. Pollock:

Ben, we have big problems.
That's a half million dollars.

The Chair:

I understand that. That's why
I made the remark. The people here do not realize what they have done.

Mr. Pollock:

Point of Order. This came up with a negative recommendation so the handwriting was on the wall. We could have foreseen this and I made that comment at the table on Wednesday. I said, if this doesn't pass --

The Chair:

I agree with you, Mr. Pollock, and I'm not trying to rule you out of order, but we're not going to discuss it anymore. If this Council wants to act, in my opinion, in an irresponsible manner, that's exactly what you have done.

Mr. DePasquale:

We do have the prerogative to change our vote one time.

The Chair:

Right. Do you want to change you vote before we move on to another? We're not going to discuss this but if you want to change your vote before we move on to another subject, you may do that. We'll have another roll call vote.

Mr. Pollock:

Point of Order. Can we make a motion to recommit that bill and discuss it again?

The Chair:

No. You can reconsider your vote on this issue and that is it.
The amendment failed because we went on to the regular vote. We're not going to discuss this any longer.
We'll have another roll call vote.

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|                |            |
|----------------|------------|
| Mr. Coyne      | Mr. Wagner |
| Mr. DePasquale | Mr. Woods  |

VOTING NO:

|-----------------|-------------|
| Mr. Ferlo       | Mr. Pollock |
| Michelle Madoff |             |

And there not being five votes of Council in the affirmative, the bill was tabled.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1658

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Five - Traffic, Chapters 523 and 525 by setting fees for release of immobilized vehicles."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 1659

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Five, Traffic, Article III, Towing, Chapter 525, Towing Charges, Section 525.02, Schedule of Towing Fees, by changing the fee schedule to be applied to each classification."

Which was read.

Mr. Pollock:

On Wednesday, I made a series of motions regarding some of these fees. I would hope that in light of the fact that we're now half a million dollars out of whack, out of budget, if the bills as proposed pass, I would hope that we could recommit these bills and look at them to see if they can be raised in a very reasonable, modest amount so that we can try to make some dent in that half million dollars that we're out of budget. Perhaps our budget staff can work with the Public Safety Department and come up with some higher fees. I think some of the ones like the booting fee and some of the other ones could be raised even more to try and make some --

The Chair:

If you want to make a motion to recommit, then make a motion to recommit.

Mr. Pollock:

Motion to recommit.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I would highly advise not to recommit these bills. I think we should move forward on them if there is support on Council for the moderate fee increases that have been suggested.

The reason why I make that suggestion is, a portion of these fee increases are substantial as they relate to the budget and do not relate to each other. They stand on their own and should not be considered as being increased if another fee increase failed. Consequently, I think as part of the budgetary process and the importance of balancing the budget, which is critical, if we recommit these bills and these bills do not pass, we will be further in the hole in terms of balancing the budget. Consequently, I would highly recommend that we move on this legislation.

The Chair:

I'm going to have a prerogative here. Mr. Pollock, we are right at the beginning on the other bills. The bill was tabled because it's 4-3; so therefore, what I would ask you to do, if you would, is withdraw your motion to recommit and we'll take these bills as they are and perhaps next Wednesday we can get enough Councilmembers and all of us will come to our senses and something constructive will come out of Wednesday's meeting on the ticket bill. That will be tabled and --

Michelle Madoff:

Which bill are we talking about? Are we talking about 1659 or the one --

The Chair:

The bill that was defeated is tabled so we can untable that bill on Wednesday.

Mr. Pollock:

I'll be happy to do that but don't you think if we're going to talk about the ticket bill that we should talk about them all together?

The Chair:

That's different legislation.

Mr. Pollock:

But it's making up the lost half million dollars is what I'm saying.

The Chair:

I think we can handle it. Would you please do that?

Mr. Pollock:

I withdraw my motion to recommit.

Mr. Ferlo:

Which bill are we talking about?

The Chair:

All of them. Now, discussion on those bills, other than Bill 1657. That bill is tabled because it was 4-3. We can untable it Wednesday with five votes.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 1659, I think it would be far more equitable to raise fees to a few people where it's not going to effect them in any substantive manner over the year to do business in the City, it's a tax write-off, than to penalize people going to $10 who put money in the meter and they come out a little late. I think that this is where, if we're going to raise the dollars, it should be addressed. And it's very difficult to talk about one bill without the other because the fact that there is a tremendous burden on administrative cost and administrative nightmare and the discounts, that, as Mr. Ferlo has pointed out, would no longer be a cost to the City so that $8 is not unreasonable and $9 would be better.

Mr. Coyne:

That's on 1657.

Michelle Madoff:

What I'm saying is that 1659 is tied in to the other bills --

The Chair:

We're going to discuss every other bill other than 1657. Now I'm going to hold everyone to that. You're absolutely right, Mr. Coyne.

Mr. Ferlo:

Again, I stress the point that each bill is independent of the other. Unless all of these are revenue generators, which I don't think is the case, each one stands alone based on the reasonableness of the fees and/or fines associated with the activity. Somehow there's got to be a relationship between the Administrative expenses of enforcement and implementation and whatever the fee or fine is.

Mr. Coyne:

Just a comment on the bills as a whole. I feel that anyone who is going to vote against them because an amendment wouldn't pass is really cutting off his nose to spite his face. These figures have been presented by the budget staff, were worked on by the Administration for some time, and I think it's very, very unrealistic on our part and very irresponsible, as you said, to go against these right now. I would urge all my colleagues to vote yes on these bills.

The Chair:

I echo your sentiments.

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1728

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution

amending Resolution No. 532, effective July 18, 1988, entitled: 'Providing for a Contract or Contracts, or use of existing Contracts for the Rehabilitation of No. 5 Police/No. 8 Fire Station; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by increasing the total project allocation by $138,168.84 from $1,063,000.00 to $1,201,168.84."

Which was read.

Mr. Ferlo:

I'm abstaining on Bill 1728 and to briefly explain my abstention on the increased amount of money in relation to the No. 5/No. 8 Fire Station, I think it's too much money. I think we should look at the possibility of rebidding it because of the increased costs.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 1734, I have a notice of a petition circulator, Mr. Earl B. Jones, Sr., and a note from a Carol Rittenour, Hazelwood Bakery. Essentially, they say that they've talked to 154 people and only 4 people are for repairing the bridge. They're saying that we could use the money for better use to help the community, not put a bridge in that isn't necessary. Since I am not versed on this subject, I would like to recommit that bill.

The Chair:

Is there a second for recommitment? No second, the motion dies.

Mr. Ferlo:

My question to you, Mr. President, had to do with a petition. Mr. Coyne has told me that there was a public hearing way back in January, very early in the year, on this expenditure. Are we legally required, Mr. Perry, to have a second public hearing if additional legislation comes in increasing the amount?

The Chair:

No.

Mr. Ferlo:

Okay. Thank you.

I'll abstain because I don't know enough about the reason.

Mr. President, I move that the Effective Date on all bills passed today shall be December 31, 1988, with the exception of the following bills which shall be January 1, 1989: Bill Nos. 1610, 1621, 1787, 1788, 1673, 1691, 1692, 1693, 1656, 1658 and 1659.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner moved to approve the Minutes of Monday, December 5, 1988.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner moved to excuse Mr. Lyons for absence from the meeting.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner:

I move to recess this meeting and meet again Thursday, December 22, 1988 immediately following the Standing Committee Meeting scheduled for 10:00 a.m.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Wagner

Council recessed.

Pittsburgh, PA
Thursday, December 22, 1988

And the hour of 10:00 a.m. having arrived and the time of recess having expired, Council reconvened and there were present:

Mr. Coyne:

I think we should like to observe a moment of silence for the families of those who were killed in a plane crash yesterday on the Pan Am jet.

The Chair:

Thank you.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Wagner presented

Bill No. 1814

Report of the Committee on Finance for December 22, 1988 transmitting sundry resolutions and one ordinance to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1682

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution making appropriations to pay the expenses of conducting the public business of the City of Pittsburgh and for meeting the debt charges thereof for the year beginning January 1, 1989."

Which was read.

Mr. Pollock:

On Bills 1682 and 1683, I have a motion to amend which I will submit. This is an amendment to the Office of the City Controller. There's two separate amendments; they're both in writing and I'll discuss them separately.

The first one is the addition of the -- now it's a CPA as a result of Mr. Ferlo's change. It's an increase in the budget of $42,859. I supported the change to make it a CPA but I think what I have to do is look at exactly what is occurring here.

This was a request of the Controller to have this position added because the independent auditor said that the position was needed. Fine. I go along with that. But to not reduce the salary allowance, to make up for that is really condoning poor hiring and ineptitude and/or mismanagement. To take a report and say that "this independent auditor said we need this position", and leave it at that, is really not going the whole way. What the report said, the audit said was that out of one hundred some employees, there's no one that can do the job. To simply take a position and add it on and not look at what is already there is really being irresponsible.

So, what I'm saying is, fine, we need the position but let's charge the vacancy allowance, which is, of course, we all know, the amount of money available for filling positions during the year on an as needed basis, and make it a wash. I think that's very, very reasonable. Mr. Ferlo has always tried to make any increase in the budget to be neutral and I think we have to do that here. This is a very, very fair, very reasonable, and I think a very appropriate change in the Controller's budget.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Also,

Bill No. 1683

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution fixing the number of officers and employees of all departments of the City of Pittsburgh and the rate of compensation thereof for the year beginning January 1, 1989."

Which was read.

Mr. Pollock:

My second amendment is to go back to the Mayor's recommendation for the vacancy allowance in the Controller's Office which would be to decrease the proposed change by the $69,442 that Council added on.

I don't understand why Council added this close to $70,000 in. These are for as-needed positions that can be filled with anybody, anytime during the year, for any purpose. I think it's irresponsible for us to add positions in a manner that the Controller can fill indiscriminately, at his discretion. I just think it's irresponsible and I would hope that Council would go back to the more reasonable amount.

Michelle Madoff:

I second the motion. Two years ago I think I echoed the sentiments of this Council in saying that there should be proper accounting services available to the Controller. Two years have gone by and he has not hired those; now he wants more money in order to do the job. His budget is well over $2 million and I think with a $2 million budget he has the money to not only hire one certified accountant but perhaps two or three and we would not have the Peat Marwick fiasco. So, I support Mark Pollock in his position.

Mr. Coyne:

Mr. President, I'm abstaining again. I really don't understand the basic purpose or the idea behind this.

Which was read.

Mr. Pollock:

One quick question. I can assume that with the calculation of the $9 figure which is obviously more than what it is and less than what the Administration requested, that we balanced the budget for that? Did you calculate what the revenue was at the $9 figure instead of the $10? The $10 figure was a half million dollars; the $9 figure obviously comes in somewhere less. We were able to balance that?

The Chair:

It has to be adjusted, Mr. Pollock, but we figure, and I did it and I'm not going to blame anybody else, it's about $50,000 less than what the Mayor proposed, approximately.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1801

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 1094, 1094, effective January 1, 1988, as amended, entitled: "Resolution adopting and approving the 1988 Capital Budget and the 1988 Community Development Block Grant Program; and approving the 1988 through 1993 Capital Improvement Program," by increasing Line Item EC 88-28 by $550,000.00 and by adjusting the Summary Totals."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

AYES 7 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

The Chair:

We've passed the budget for the year 1989. I think Council has worked cooperatively with the budget staff and with our Finance Chairman and at this time I would like to ask our Finance Chairman, Mr. Wagner, if he would please come up to the podium and say a few words.

Mr. Wagner:

Thank you, Mr. President, and members of Council. It is a pleasure and an honor to represent the City of Pittsburgh's 1989 budget. I believe it is a budget we all can and should be proud of. The 1989 budget is a balanced budget that accomplishes many things, some of which I would like to highlight very briefly.

Number one, the top priority of Council, Mayor Masloff and the citizens of Pittsburgh was to reduce the wage tax. On Monday, December 19th, this was accomplished when Council voted to reduce the City of Pittsburgh's portion of the wage tax by one-half of one percent; from 2.125 percent to 1.625 percent. This reduction will result in the savings of $100 for each $20,000 earned by a City resident. The most significant piece of legislation, in my opinion, to pass through this Council in the last ten years.

Unfortunately, the School Board did not reduce their portion of the wage tax when they voted on their budget yesterday, which will remain at 1.875 percent, or one-fourth of one percent higher than the City of Pittsburgh's share of the wage tax.

Number two, a significant item in the 1989 budget, City Council budget, in front of us is that it is $34,436 less than the Mayor's proposed budget. A significant accomplishment that I have not seen since I've been on Council.

Number three, the 1989 budget will reflect increased funding for the hungry. This was accomplished by the urging of all of you and the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh. I compliment each and every one of you that have pushed for that increased funding.

Number four, the amounts of grants and donations reflected in the 1989 budget are significantly less than in previous years. When I say increases, I mean increases above and beyond the Mayor's budget proposal. True, Council made some increases, but nothing compared to previous years. And, in fact, for the first time ever, I saw Council reduce certain grants and donations recommended by the Administration.

Number five, the Capital Budget will more accurately reflect projects anticipated to be done in 1989 by not rolling over previously authorized projects not yet completed. We are giving the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh a budget that better accurately predicts the economic development projects that will be done next year.

Items recommended by Council that must be considered in 1989 are, I believe, as follows, and this is simply a brief summary of them:

Number one, we need to initiate a more aggressive tax collection system to collect unpaid back taxes. This represents, in our budget staff's opinion, in the Finance Department's opinion, and all of your opinions, tens of millions of dollars that are outstanding. If we can accomplish that in 1989, I feel that we can further reduce the wage tax in 1990. And it should be noted, it we can accomplish that, that would even give the School Board additional revenues of unpaid taxes.

Number two, a continued emphasis must be placed on reducing the number of work related injuries and ultimately the cost associated with those injuries. There have been tremendous accomplishments, I believe, in 1988 in the area of safety and accident prevention within many City departments. We all know that annual figure represents about $18 million. This is the first year ever I've seen a stabilization in the number of accidents and, in fact, a slight reduction. A significant item that must continue to occur if we are to reduce the cost and the human suffering associated with work related injuries.

Number three, recommended by several Councilmembers, a committee needs to be formed on solid waste, or refuse collection in 1989. And we need to have frequent meetings with the Administration in regard to that. We will be required under state law in two years to go into a new system of refuse collection. A committee must be formed now so that we can anticipate those changes in the future.

Number four, I was very pleased and honored to see the marketing coordinator position put in the budget. It's been in the budget in the past; however, the position has never been funded. There are positive signals coming from the Administration that yes, the Mayor will fill that position in the Mayor's Office. That person will act to promote the City of Pittsburgh and to work with the various organizations outside of the City of Pittsburgh such as the Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Chamber of Commerce, the Economic Development Area, the URA and others, to promote this City.

Number five, I think a goal must be improve cooperation and communication with the School Board. We need to work closer with the School Board, we need to meet with the School Board, and we need to achieve some common goals, most importantly, a further reduction in the wage tax.

Number six, the initiation of tax reform looking towards 1991. Tax reform is a critical item and it's something that we have to pursue in the future.

I would be remiss if I did not acknowledge the excellent input and guidance that was received by me and all of you by our budget staff sitting here today and the City Clerk's staff. Without their guidance, we could not have this balanced budget; we could not have a budget that is less than the Mayor's proposed budget.

I didn't realize, even though I've been on Council five years, how hard all of these people work during the last couple months of the year. I have left City Council Chambers in the evening at 12:00 and 12:30 and have left them here. They work extremely hard and they should be commended for their efforts.

As I have said previously during our budget deliberations, this is the tightest budget I have seen in the five years I have served on Council. At the same time, I believe it is a healthy budget that, if managed properly, can see us through 1989 and to look forward to 1990.

Thank you very much.

The Chair:

Thank you, Mr. Wagner.

Now, I would like to have a motion that the effective date of these following bills that I will read will take effect December 31, 1988. Bills No. 1805, 1801, 1763, 1802, 1803, 1804, 1657, 1682, 1683 and 1684.

Mr. Wagner:

So moved.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

Before we adjourn, Mr. Ferlo and I and a number of us discussed something about having a little party here for the citizens of this City. It's his idea. On our first day back, maybe at noon, and Council would pay for it -- Mr. Ferlo, I'll take a motion from you.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. President, I make a motion that City Council, together with the Mayor, that we request the Mayor to participate, sponsor a bon voyage to the four percent wage tax and that we ask each Councilmember to kick in a case of champagne and we invite the City of Pittsburgh down to the lobby the first day back in January.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Wagner moved to excuse Mr. DePasquale for absence from the meeting.

Mr. Lyons seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Lyons:

I move to adjourn this meeting and meet again December 27, 1988 at 2:00 p.m.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Lyons

Council adjourned.

No. 1820 Communication from Mayor Masloff returning with her veto Council Bill No. 1454 entitled, "An Ordinance supplementing and amending Article VII, Chapter 161 of the Pittsburgh Code, by creating a new item (d) 'Pre-Bid Specification'."

Which was read.

(BEGINNING - MAYOR'S VETO LETTER)

December 27, 1988

Honorable President Pro Tem and Members
City Council
City of Pittsburgh

RE: Council Bill 1454

Dear Mr. President Pro Tem and Members:

I am vetoing Council Bill 1454 because it decreases the City's ability to rehabilitate and provide facilities to City residents and will also cost construction workers their jobs.

The cost of City construction projects will increase dramatically as a result of this legislation. The requirements it imposes upon contractors would directly increase a project's cost an estimated 25 to 30 percent. In addition, approximately one-half of the contractors who presently bid on City projects will be unable or will refuse to bid because of those requirements, reducing the number of competitive bidders and increasing each project's cost further. Finally, the City payroll and benefits cost will increase due to the three employees that will have to be added to the Department of Engineering and Construction budget and the employees needed by the Human Relations Commission to enforce the ordinance.

If City construction costs increase between 25 and 30 percent, the number of projects that the City will be able to undertake will be reduced by at least one-third. A recreation facility project like the Leslie Bathhouse in Lawrenceville, which cost the City $220,000, would increase in cost by $66,000. A City funded bridge project like the Davis Avenue Bridge would increase from $800,000 to $1,080,000. Smaller playground, ballfield and court projects like Eleanor and Arlington in the South Side, McBride in Lincoln Place and Mellon courts in Shadyside when increased by 25 to 30 percent will become too costly to even consider.

The deletion of projects from the City's capital budget because of excessive costs and limited dollars will mean new facilities will not be built, existing ones not renovated, and some will be forced to close. Our residents need these facilities and should not be deprived of them due to this unwise legislation.

The reduction of City projects will also reduce the number of jobs created by those projects. I have a history of supporting labor issues, but not if the end result is at the expense of City projects, jobs and City residents.

The minority hiring and decent wage concerns this legislation attempts to address are concerns that I share; but, this politically motivated bill will not effectively address these issues.

I am also vetoing this legislation because the City Solicitor, in a detailed and well-reasoned opinion, found the bill, under both state and federal law, to be illegal.

Because the legislation is not in the best interests of either workers or City residents, I urge Council to sustain my veto.

Sincerely yours,

Sophie Masloff
Mayor

(END OF LETTER)

Mr. Coyne moved to override the veto.

Mr. Ferlo seconded the motion.

Mr. Ferlo:

Mr. Chairman and members of Council, suffice it to say that I'm very disappointed in Mayor Masloff's veto of Council Bill 1454. Her reasons for the veto sound impressive, but where is the substance behind them? She states that Council Bill 1454 will decrease the City's ability to rehabilitate and provide facilities to City residents and will cost construction workers their jobs. She states that project costs will increase 25 to 30 percent. She states that approximately one-half of the contractors who bid on City projects will refuse to bid because of increased requirement. She also states that the City costs will increase because of increased employees needed to enforce the ordinance.

All of these are great statements but I ask you, Mayor Masloff, where did these statements come from? Where are there any facts to back them up? You state that the cost of City construction projects such as the Leslie Bathhouse and the Davis Avenue Bridge, will increase 20 to 30 percent. Why? Council Bill 1454 does not place higher wage requirements on any project. Period. If prevailing wages are required already for those projects such as the Bathhouse or the Davis Avenue Bridge, then Bill 1454 would not increase those wage rates. If prevailing rates as determined by state and federal regulations are not required, the bill does not apply. Bill 1454 would not increase wage costs; it would merely, properly, enforce laws that are being ignored.

It seems, Mayor, that you are agreeing that state and federal prevailing wage requirements are not presently being enforced on projects where they are mandated. Why else would you be saying that cost would rise so dramatically?

Your veto message seems to be based on the fact that City costs would rise too steeply. Instead of giving Council substantive examples of this, you instead pick projects out of the air and tell us that the costs would rise. What would cause the Leslie Bathhouse project to rise from $220,000 to $286,000? Why would the Davis Avenue Bridge project rise from $800,000 to $1,060,000? If it is increased labor costs, I must disagree with you, your Honor. These projects are already supposed to be prevailing wage jobs. If it is not increased labor costs, then what are the increased costs you're referring to? I would argue that the City's treasury will benefit directly from the 25 percent of the City workers working on those projects who will be paying the City's wage tax. And, equally important, companies doing work in the City will be required to pay the business privilege tax and they will not be able to avoid getting out of it.

I ask my colleagues to ask themselves these same questions. Why would City funded projects increase in cost under Bill 1454? Increased labor costs would only occur if contractors who were supposed to be paying prevailing wages were not. And the state and federal governments were not monitoring the contractors closely enough to ascertain that. Bill 1454 would more closely monitor these projects and where, by law, prevailing wages must be paid, they would be.

Is our Mayor saying that she thinks it is okay to let contractors ignore federal and state laws that have been on the books for decades? Apparently so. If that is the case, she is ignoring Pennsylvania's Prevailing Wage Act which states, and I'll just quote a section of it, "The fiscal officer of the public body, or the Treasurer or other officer of the public body, charged with the custody and disbursement of the funds of the public body must ascertain that the wage rates as determined by the Secretary of Labor in the Commonwealth are paid and that the job classifications are maintained. Otherwise, it is his duty to hold up final payment and to inform the Secretary of the failure by the contractor and/or the subcontractor to comply with the Act."

The State Prevailing Wage Act goes on to state that it is the duty of the Treasurer or other officer charged with the custody and disbursement of public funds applicable to the public work contract under and pursuant to which payment is made to require the contractor and every subcontractor to file a statement.

And it goes on to explain basically that according to this law, the City is mandated to enforce prevailing wages and is mandated to monitor these wages by the filing of weekly forms, which is precisely one of the main sections of Council Bill 1454.

Again, I ask, why, Mayor, are you willing to ignore prevailing wage rates mandated by state and federal law?

The Mayor states that the City will be forced to hire three new employees to monitor Bill 1454. My question to the Mayor is, what are the employees doing now that are monitoring the Mayor's Executive Order? How many people are presently enforcing minority and women participation? I count at least six professionals already on the City payroll who are currently involved in contract compliance and monitoring. This ordinance suggests minor changes in the type of forms needed to verify compliance with the prevailing wage. Also, is it not prudent, if necessary, to hire employees to enforce a residency requirement that will, in fact, raise revenue for our City?

The Mayor also mentions that she is vetoing the bill because of her Solicitor's opinion. I am not a lawyer and should not comment on the merits, but some points are clearly evident. As any first year law student learns, any lawyer can write an impressive brief on either side of a subject. While the Mayor's Solicitor's opinion is lengthy, it is only one side of the argument. Law is not made on the Third Floor of the City County Building; it is made in these Legislative Chambers and is ultimately deemed to be legal or illegal in the courts of our land. The Congress doesn't clear their legislation with the Attorney General and I find it laughable that we continue to refer legislative matters to a legal aide of the Mayor.

This year I submitted legislation which allows the City to sell asphalt to municipalities and other public entities outside the City of Pittsburgh. A majority of Council, as well as the Administration, supported this bill which became law. This legislation was in response to the need to more fully utilize the capabilities of our multi-million dollar asphalt producing plant, while, at the same time, generates significant revenue for our City. It was in the City's best interest to pass this law because of the financial benefit and to encourage inter-governmental cooperation. The state's statute governing this action seemed fairly cut and dry and we clearly were within our legal rights. However, we are now involved in a lengthy legal battle with private concerns who feel that the law is on their side. Ultimately, it will be the courts who will decide whose interpretation of the law is correct.

I use this as an example to illustrate the point that a legislative body can't always base our support of meaningful legislation solely on legal opinions and interpretations. The legal briefs filed by opponents of City asphalt sales will surely contain a multitude of case laws supporting their argument. In much the same way, the City Solicitor, who owes his allegiance to our Mayor who stands in opposition to the bill, has told us about case law supporting his opposition to Bill 1454. The Solicitor has not forwarded information to Council regarding the preponderance of case law that supports Bill 1454.

There is another side to the legal issue. First, there is a severability clause in Council Bill 1454 in the event that a court, and not the Mayor's Solicitor, rules that sections are illegal. Having spoken with numerous attorneys, legal researchers and law firm representatives, and members of Council have opinions from at least three different firms locally, I remain steadfast in my comment that the bill is legal. Federal courts have explicitly recognized that government has broad power to dictate the terms and conditions under which it will do business. The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has also consistently stated that municipalities may subject contract bidders to requirements provided all bidders are subject to the same requirements. We also have an opinion regarding this issue early in the year from our own Solicitor. A recent line of U.S Supreme Court cases has validated state and local laws regulating who government chooses to do business with. These cases distinguish instances when a governmental unit acts as a market participant as opposed to a regulator of the market finding that the commerce clause of the Constitution does not restrict local government acting as market participants. Most recently, the court approved an executive order by the Mayor of the City of Boston placing residency requirements on City supported construction projects.

In addition to the residency issue, minority and female set asides are being enforced not only at the federal and state level but in hundreds of municipalities in school boards across the United States.

The severability clause in Bill 1454 would safeguard the City if one or more parts of the bill were found to be illegal by a court of law.

I would like to point out that not one major contractor contacted me in opposition to this bill in its final form. The minor increased cost to this City are far outweighed by the benefits that would accrue to Pittsburgh residents and to the City treasury. Thousands of dollars would be collected in wage taxes that would be paid to City government as a result of the 25 percent residency requirement. Thousands more would be paid in business privilege taxes that are not currently being paid from companies conducting business in the City. Companies who are legally required to pay state and federal prevailing wages will have to live up to their obligation and a mechanism would be in place to monitor their compliance.

I would like to emphasize to Council and to the Mayor that our sister city of Philadelphia has a structure in place to enforce their own prevailing wage law. They have had the responsibility to enforce Philadelphia's prevailing wage law, Municipal Code 17-107, which encompasses more than the state law which was enacted in 1961. Philadelphia recognized the need to add teeth and enforcement to the state law and the director has indicated that their city has benefitted greatly from having their own monitoring mechanism in place.

The veto is a slap in the face to thousands of Pittsburghers who support the bill and who stand to benefit from the legislation's requirement. Females and minorities would finally benefit from City supported construction activity in numbers far more representative of their percentages in the Pittsburgh population base. The bill would address glaring discrimination against minorities and women who seek to assume their legitimate role in the Pittsburgh Renaissance. Working people of our City would directly benefit from their tax dollars because of the ordinance's residency requirement and would be gainfully employed in far greater numbers making the status of being a City resident more desirable and more promotable.

Because the ordinance covers apprentices working on construction sites, we have the potential benefit of opening up opportunities to Pittsburgh's younger workers, many of whom will not benefit from new technology in services related industries that have changed the labor market in the City of Pittsburgh. Look out in our neighborhoods throughout Pittsburgh and see the number of young workers, both black and white, especially in the black community, who are idle from lack of work and job opportunities that pay wages that could support a family. Opportunities exist in this bill to make a measurable difference in the lives of many of our young people in the City of Pittsburgh.

In conclusion, if the Mayor's veto is upheld, let me challenge Mayor Masloff and her Administration to work on a similar bill. She states that she shares the motives of the bill, decent wages, minority and female hiring, and jobs for Pittsburghers. The goal of this legislation is to make Pittsburgh a better and fairer place to live for all of us and we should all work together to that end.

Ordinance 1454 is fair, it's reasonable, it's prudent, it's legal, and as far as I'm concerned, it's long overdue.

Members of Council, I ask you to join me in overriding the Mayor's veto. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President and members of Council, I think my record in the ten and a half years that I've served on Council has been consistently pro-labor. That is a matter of record and is documented so anybody that is going "oh, oh", they're probably the same people that are calling and threatening me. I want to continue by saying that I don't appreciate being threatened. I don't think anybody serves the public good that doesn't vote in the best interest of the public.

My initial position on this bill was that I wanted 50 percent City residents and I assumed that we were getting 25 percent just by the luck of the draw. I was appalled to find out that not only weren't we getting 25 percent but we weren't even getting 5 percent on projects like Grant Street, a multi-million dollar project. But I did say that if the bill was found to be illegal that I would not vote for another bill that we'd have to go into court and defend with taxpayers' dollars. And I want to remind Council and the public that may be interested that we are now in court on a number of bills. We have been to court on the issue of self-service gas stations. We are being subpoenaed now, all members of Council, on the ARC House bill, those that were here previously. We are being subpoenaed on the plastic pipe bill; people here know that I voted for that and that's something that's history. I understand that we're also being sued on Mr. Wagner's bill, the regulating of speed of trains. These are all being fought with taxpayers' dollars.

It is unfortunate that since 1983 when I went to court with the help of three members of Council, one was Tom Flaherty and one was Bill Robinson, and we tried to get both a fiscal analyst for Council and legal counsel. We have never been able to fill that role. Even though Council has approved it, we have never been able to get our own legal counsel. So here we sit with a few days between an opinion by our legal counsel saying something is illegal, the City Law Department, and the attorneys for the union saying it's perfectly legal. And we have a 12 page document giving us all the reasons why it's illegal. And we don't have our own legal counsel so that over a period of time that this bill was introduced, and it's been months, we could have in an intelligent manner sat down and not be voting with two different points of view where perhaps we could have come up with a different conclusion.

What I want to conclude on is that we're mixing apples and oranges. I don't think there's a member of this Council that would not support and is not supporting, and if memory serves me well, I've introduced legislation along with other members of Council, that we ensure that City residents have the opportunity to be employed on any City projects, whether it's the Davis Bacon Act or whatever, and we were told by the Law Department that it was illegal. I've been told subsequently by some of the union representatives that these bills already exist in other cities and I believe one of the cities that in this is Camden.

I want to read something if I may. This is from Dan Pellegrini's opinion that I disagree with. "The justification offered by the City of Camden as to why they allow city residents to be hired is that the City of Camden contends that its ordinance is necessary to counteract grave economic and social ills. Spiraling unemployment, a sharp decline in population and a dramatic reduction in the number of businesses located in the City have eroded property values and depleted the city's tax base."

Well, one could certainly say that about Pittsburgh. We've gone from 700,000 to 350,000 and certainly on that issue, the issue of being able to hire City of Pittsburgh residents, which was my position initially, we need to reactivate the initial legislation.

Mike, will you find my bill and the other bills that were introduced by other members of Council who may not even be here anymore, and let's reintroduce that bill in the coming year. And let us have a letter go to Dan Pellegrini and the Mayor pointing out that Pittsburgh isn't any different than Camden and that we must start giving the jobs to the Pittsburgh residents.

Now, I recall, I don't think any of my colleagues were here, perhaps Ben but I don't even know that he was here, when Mr. Jacoby was in General Services. It was his first week here and he was called by this Council to justify why the minorities, meaning blacks and women, were not getting their fair share of the 15 percent goal that we were aiming towards. He came in, hat in hand, and said, "I want to apologize, I'm new, I didn't know; it is less than one percent." It wasn't 15 percent; it wasn't even 1 percent.

Now, I don't think we correct one wrong with another wrong. Two wrongs don't make a right. I think we must proceed to try to do what we can for this City in a legal, orderly way. And again, I suggest that Camden's justification, their reason for having city employees on projects, it's a very similar one for why Pittsburgh can do the same thing. And I would strongly suggest again that not only will I introduce the bill but I hope my colleagues will support getting 50 percent of Pittsburgh residents on the jobs. I don't know that the unions are going to like that. I hope that they really meant what they said when they said that they would support 50 percent because I will find out when the bill comes in not attached to the wage bill. And I hope that we will have the unions putting the same kind of effort into seeing that minorities and women have their fair share of employment.

And, bottom line, if there's a Davis Bacon Act that is in effect and it is the law of the land, why attack a body that would have the burden of the enforcement? Why not go to the state and the federal government who have passed these laws and demand that you get more people to inspect and to enforce the bills. That would be the logical place to begin.

Thank you.

Mr. Wagner:

Mr. President and members of Council, I won't take long. In regard to this bill, going back to the time it was in Committee, I voted in favor of the bill also with amendments. It came up for final vote and I abstained on the vote. At that time, actually, prior to that time, I requested a legal opinion and we have received that legal opinion and additional information provided by the Mayor as part of her veto of this legislation. Her letter briefly, and when I say briefly I mean briefly, describes the reasoning behind the Administration's veto which basically is the substantial increase that they predict in costs of projects and there's one statement relating to the legal opinion.

I believe that there are some increases in costs; I cannot factually agree with the numbers in that letter, and I think they would have to be broken up based on sections of this legislation. The reason why I state that is that all of you, I know, have read the legislation and I have also, several times, to try and understand it in its entirety. It is an extremely complex piece of legislation and anyone that hasn't read it in its entirety should. It relates to several significant items as they relate to contracts. To name a few, prevailing wage which is the most talked about, minority participation, residency requirement. And in addition to that, some other aspects which are normally included in collective bargaining agreements such as pension plans, medical plans, grievance procedures, and even termination of the projects.

I mention that because in reading the legal opinion, and, incidentally, we actually received four legal opinions, three have been provided by labor groups and one by our Solicitor. The one by our Solicitor is a very in-depth legal opinion, the most in-depth I've seen since I've been on Council, and the three by the labor attorneys are rather brief. Obviously, the one by the Solicitor supports the Mayor's opinion and the other three support labor's opinion.

I mention that because the legislation being as detailed as it is and as in-depth as it is, I thought, number one, and I had a concern from the beginning that a piece of legislation of this type could even be this complex because somewhere in the Charter it talks about a piece of legislation should be brief and to the point and cover one subject. I believe you could say this covers one subject because it covers contracts, but includes a whole lot of things in addition to simply contracts.

I mention that because the legal opinion didn't relate to that, but that's okay. I read that legal opinion. There's portions of it I agree with and there's portions of it I disagree with because the Solicitor did not clearly state that there was case law in some instances to support his positions. In other areas he did. He said that, as a matter of fact, in regard to a couple items that he anticipates that there will be case law to support his opinion in the future.

There are portions of this bill that I agree with that are very sound and I believe are necessary. I believe the portion pertaining to prevailing wage asking the City to be the enforcement arm if state and federal government is not doing their job is legitimate, quite frankly. And we all know here on this Council that the Administration has had difficulty in meeting certain minority requirements on contracts. And to mandate that through legislation, if it is legally permissible, I think it legitimate also. The residency portion of it is something that, I think, school is still out on that, whether or not truly, legally, we can do that. But I don't think there's any member of this Council that would disagree with that.

Some portions of the legislation that I have serious questions about relate to whether or not the City, by law, can require a non-union contractor to provide a pension plan, a medical plan, a grievance procedure, and even go beyond state law or the Secretary of Labor by terminating a contract. They are portions of the legislation that I think have to be looked at seriously.

One other portion, even though through collective bargaining agreements unions rightfully have certain job classifications and people work within those jobs and those jobs only. I'm not so sure that legally we can require that also for a non-union contractor.

So, there are a lot of areas in this legislation, I think, that need to be looked at in greater detail. I've mentioned a few of them; however, if this legislation comes back in another form, I think certain portions of it are very healthy and this Council should find a way to legislate them, particularly if they're not being met today without legislation. They relate to the items I talked about, prevailing wage, residency requirement, and minority participation.

In summary, that's my opinion on the bill. I think the intent of the bill is good and that represents the majority of the bill. But there are portions of the bill that there are some legal questions and probably the best example of that, and I've never seen it in a piece of legislation and maybe Mr. Ferlo would like to comment on it, is the last paragraph, paragraph six. "In the event this ordinance cannot take effect in its entirety because of this judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction holding invalid any provision, the remaining provisions of the ordinance shall be given full force and effect as completely as if the provision held invalid were not included." So, in other words, if a certain provision of the ordinance is not legal, it will be struck out of the ordinance and the rest of the ordinance will be legal or will be held valid. I haven't seen that in an ordinance here; however, I think what it's inferring is that there may be questions in certain portions of the ordinance, portions that I have mentioned.

So, in summary, I think the bill's intent is good. There are some questions about certain portions of it.

Mr. Pollock:

To override the Mayor's veto, it takes six votes and I don't think there are six votes here to do that. So, accordingly, I would ask that the Mayor create a commission or a task force to study the issue of economic justice in the City of Pittsburgh. And this commission or task force should include representatives of the labor community, the business community, the academic community, and other fields, and should determine if the claims of the proponents of this legislation before us today are accurate. If indeed they are, this body should make recommendations to City government, to the Mayor, as to how the City can address this issue and alleviate the problem. Is there a way that City government can legally and appropriately attempt to solve any injustices in the workplace and still protect the interest of the City taxpayers? I don't know the answer to that. If there is an answer, maybe a body created by the Mayor can determine what that answer is. I call upon the Mayor to create a representative commission or task force as expeditiously as possible.

Thank you.

Mr. Coyne:

I think any statements questioning the need for this bill are completely ludicrous. If Councilmembers remember during the budget proceedings we saw food pantry after food pantry coming in front of us requesting funds. These funds wouldn't be necessary if working people were making a legitimate wage and that our fat cat contractors weren't able to carry home a healthy check to take care of themselves and their families.

I also believe that arguments used that there are certain legal questions to this bill are equally as ludicrous because every bill that Council passes has different legal positions. As, as Mr. Ferlo so eloquently stated, you can get an attorney to say anything you want if he works for you.

Therefore, I believe if this Council honestly has the interest of the working people at heart, they've got to vote to override this veto.

And I agree with Mr. Pollock, I don't think we have the votes here to override the veto, but I would like publicly to state that this bill is not going to go away. With Mr. Ferlo and myself and hopefully other members of Council, yourself, Mr. Woods, we'll keep working at this bill and make sure that there's economic justice in the City of Pittsburgh.

Thank you.

The Chair:

Everyone spoke and now I'm going to say something and then we're going to vote.

I think this is a piece of legislation that both sides, union labor and non-union labor, worked on this bill. They both would benefit from this bill. It's one of the very few times that I've seen both people get together from both sides.

I am very, very disappointed in its veto, but, as Mr. Coyne says, it's not going to go away. And as long as I'm standing up here it's not going to go away; it's going to come back the first of next year. I guarantee that.

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

|           |                  |
|-----------|------------------|
| Mr. Coyne | Mr. Wagner       |
| Mr. Ferlo | Mr. Woods        |
|           | (Pres't Pro tem) |

AYES 4 NOES 2

(MICHELLE MADOFF AND MR. POLLOCK
VOTING NO)

And there not being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the veto was sustained.

Mr. Wagner moved to excuse Mr.
DePasquale and Mr. Lyons for absence from the meeting.

Mr. Coyne seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Wagner

Council adjourned.
